Chapter 121

There are many relatives in Zhang Fan's family. All three aunts and eight uncles have to go. Without these relatives, Zhang Fan couldn't go to college. Now I have a girlfriend again. Life is better. I have to go and thank others for their kindness!

"Little stone is promising. His parents should be happy in the future!" Uncle and aunt stood at the door to see off Zhang Fan and Shaohua.

"Yes, it's only been a long time since there was a car and a daughter-in-law. Sister, they have come out. Jing Shu studies better. The two small ones in this family are better than each other." Aunt also said with emotion.

"Tired or not, I'm not used to it. That's what we do here." On the bus, Zhang Fan looked at Shaohua and said.

"I'm not tired. My relatives are very good. You see, they have received many red envelopes. That's why your meal is full of meat and not much green vegetables."

"Silly girl, people treat you as a distinguished guest before serving meat. In fact, I usually eat a lot of vegetables. All right, today is the completion of the task. Take a break these two days. I'll show you around when my sister finishes her exam."

"It's all right. Do you want to have a party with your old classmates? It's inconvenient for Fang to take me. If it's inconvenient, I'll accompany Jingshu at home." Shaohua said narrowly.

"No! My classmates and friends who have a good relationship have gone to other places. The relationship that can stay is general and there is little contact." Zhang Fan didn't mean to say that those who can stay are generally Xueba. He is xueslag. Of course, there is no connection! And when I was busy making money, I had limited acquaintance with my classmates.

Two days, time is fast. Zhang Jingshu is going to the examination room. She is not nervous at all. Her face is calm. Zhang Fan's parents are nervous. The examination room is in No. 1 middle school in the county, which is also Jingshu's high school.

Zhang Fan and Shaohua drove Jing Shu to the exam early. Jingshu didn't let her parents follow!

Before entering the examination room, Zhang Fan took Jingshu's hand and said, "sister, don't worry. It's okay even if you don't do well in the exam. Everything has a brother. Don't have any pressure."

"Well, it's all right, brother. There's no pressure. I've eaten well and slept well in the past two years. Usually, I'm in the top three of grade. Just wait for my good news. Go home with your sister-in-law. It will get hotter and hotter later. "

"You don't care about us, go! Come on! "

"Jing Shu! Come on, your brother and I are waiting for good news. Come on! "

Looking at her sister entering the examination room, Shaohua looked at the school gate and said with emotion: "I really envy Jingshu and have a good brother. When I was a child, I especially wanted to have a brother. "

"Hehe, Jingshu studies well and should be able to do well in the exam!" Zhang Fan didn't hear what Shaohua said. He is now focused on his sister. He says he's not nervous. In fact, he's also nervous.

College entrance examination is an important node in life. The smoothest and fairest way for civilian children is to enter a good university.

Without a good platform and a good starting point, to struggle and go to Pingbo, yes, it may succeed, but only those who come here know the hardships and suffering. Therefore, the college entrance examination is very important for civilians.

They walked around the county and looked at the newly opened buildings by the way. They didn't ask the price. They just walked around the county“ Don't worry, Jing Shu should have no problem. It's no use worrying. You'd better have a good look at the real estate. I think this place is good. You see, the surrounding community is mature. It should be very convenient for uncles and aunts to come here. "

"Let's see first. We haven't talked yet. I don't know what they think. Hey, I don't think I'll go with us. Even if I buy a house, I have to pay a deposit before I can tell them."

Zhang Fan booked a hotel near the examination room early. Jingshu happily went out of the examination room, and Zhang Fan was relieved. After dinner, I hurried to the hotel to have a rest. Zhang Fan didn't dare to ask how the exam was. Instead, Jing Shu said to Shaohua, "sister-in-law, the topic this year is really simple. I think I can get about 130."

"Really, Jing Shu is really good. Keep going and do well in math in the afternoon."

"Well, I don't want to speak Chinese in the morning. After eating, I go to the hotel to have a rest and let your sister-in-law accompany you. I'll walk around outside. Don't worry. I'll call you when it's time. " Zhang Fan listens and is more relieved to hear that Jing Shu plays well.

In the afternoon, Zhang Fan and Shao Hua sent Jing Shu into the examination room. Before they went far, they heard someone shouting at the school gate: "call 120!"

Zhang Fan was very sensitive when he heard 120. Looking back, he could vaguely see a person lying on the ground and surrounded by many people from the gap of the crowd.

"I'll have a look." Zhang Fan said to Shaohua " Um! I'll go with you. "

"It's all right just now. Why is it so suddenly!" Said one of the middle-aged women who seemed to know the patient.

Zhang Fan went in and saw a middle-aged woman who fell to the ground, lost consciousness, convulsed all over, foamed at the mouth and turned her eyes up. At this time, we should deal with it urgently, otherwise the patient is very dangerous.

"Excuse me, I'm a doctor. hurry up. Spread out a little on a hot day. Whoever knows her, contact her family members quickly. "

It was hot and the children had to take the college entrance examination. The fallen woman induced epilepsy. Closed gums. Foaming and bloody at the mouth " No, maybe I bit my tongue. "

Zhang Fan doesn't care whether the ground is clean or not. He kneels beside the middle-aged woman and says to Shaohua, "find some ice cream sticks."

"OK." As soon as Shaohua turned around, he heard a middle-aged uncle selling cold drinks nearby say, "young man, how many do you want?"

"Five!"

"This is a wooden spoon for ice cream. Come on, here you are."

At the moment of these words, Zhang Fan had held the patient's jaw and opened her teeth. Leaning to her head, she was afraid of suffocation caused by bleeding and backflow of secreted saliva.

"Fortunately, I bit my tongue and gave me the ice cream stick together."

The middle-aged uncle LISO gave it to Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan put the ice cream sticks together on the female's upper and lower molars. The tooth is a little thicker than the root, so it won't break the tooth.

After a while, when 120 arrived, a doctor and two nurses came down. As soon as the doctor saw the patient lying on the ground, he said to the nurse behind him: "mouth opener, hurry, epilepsy. Don't suffocate me. "

He said to Zhang Fan, "are you her family? It seems that she often attacks, doesn't she?" Because the patient's head was sideways, he couldn't see the patient's mouth and face clearly, but when he saw Zhang Fan's posture and was very professional, he asked casually.

"The mouth opener is no longer used. It has put the bite pad. Carry it on the bus and take it to the hospital."

"Has it been released?" The doctor wondered! No mouth opener can open the teeth of a epilepsy patient! That's bullshit! Ignoring Zhang Fan, he squatted down and had a look.

"Well! Stretcher! No more mouth openers! It's been handled! Family members, you get on the bus. " He looked at Zhang Fan and said.

"I'm a doctor on vacation. I handled it easily, not my family."

"Did you open your teeth with your bare hands?"

"Yes!"

"Man, this is not the time to talk. I have time to come to the emergency department of the county hospital. My name is Yang Shuheng. Remember to come to me! "

120 flash lights, whistle and gallop away. Parents heard what the doctor of the county hospital said before leaving, and they were full of praise for Zhang Fan. The middle-aged man selling cold drinks said to Zhang Fan with two bottles of drinks: "good, young man. You have a good mind and great skills. Please drink water, brother. " Zhang Fan took the drink, gave Shaohua a bottle and said, "thank you, brother!

That's easy. " After a while, Zhang Fan was really thirsty.

"Ah! If you're easy, it might be a human life. "

"Yes, yes." One response after another in the crowd.

"Boy, wipe your pants with this wet paper towel. Look at the new jeans. That's very kind of you. " An aunt who looked like a student's parent gave Zhang Fan a bag of wet paper towels.

"Thank you!"

Before speaking, someone handed Zhang Fan two melons. "This is the melon in the south, very sweet! You look tired and sweaty. Take two bites quickly. That woman is the mother of my daughter's classmate. Ah, thanks to you today, how else would she let her children take the exam! ~ "

I can't help it. I can't stay. Zhang Fan kept thanking and took Shaohua out of the crowd.

"I'm so proud!" Where there was no one, Shaohua grabbed Zhang Fan and asked for a kiss for the first time!

Sweet, melon flavor!
