

《Medical road》

Chapter 17

K County didn't drink, and Batu didn't drink a few cups. On the way back, Batu asked, "can you drive?" He also thought for a long time before asking Zhang Fan. Kang Hua didn't want to go to the hospital and didn't want people to know that she had a problem. The hotel was three kilometers away from the hospital. It was early in winter, and the taxi in the county went home early to rest. It was unrealistic for Zhang Fan to walk by himself. He was willing to show his face in front of Kang Hua every day, but Kang Hua would be unhappy.

"I can't drive. Do you want to equip me with a car?" That man doesn't love cars unless he has no money.

"You think too much. I wanted to borrow a car for you, but you can't drive it yet. In this way, go to a training class tomorrow, seize the time to learn, and borrow a car for you when you learn. It's not a matter to be a driver for you. "

"The fastest way to get a driver's license is a month, right? And there seems to be a lot of tuition fees. " Zhang Fan's college roommate reported to the driving school. He heard it for thousands.

"Let Lao Zhou teach you. You don't have to worry about the driver's license. As long as you can drive, you should learn it in three days?" Lao Zhou is the 120 driver of the hospital.

"It'll take a week" Zhang Fan, who has never touched the steering wheel, is a little scared.

"It's very simple. I can learn it as soon as I learn it. I've never learned it. I can start it." Things went well today. Batu was a little complacent and began to boast.

Li Hui has been in a mess in recent days. Zhang Fan, who hasn't been to the dormitory for a long time, visited the dormitory and found that Li Hui was very depressed. He said, "brother, you should control yourself. There is still a long way to go in the future. If you are young, you will empty your body. After a few years, you will look at the bird and cry." After throwing Li Hui a cigarette, he was ready to walk on the original bed for a while. His bed belongs to Li Liang now.

"Oh, shame. People are lost. I have no face to see you again. " Li Hui also wants to talk to someone.

"Ha ha, just say it. It makes me happy." Zhang Fan gloated.

"No! Die. "

"Yes, you. I'll ask Wang Sha later."

"No, I'd better say it. She's on fire these days!"

"What the hell is going on."

After taking a long smoke, Li Hui said, "I made a mistake that men can make, but I was found before I could make it." Zhang Fan was interested, "eating in the bowl and looking at the pot, ha ha, deserved it."

"Will you listen! Drop the stone again. I won't say any more. "

"Listen, you go on. I won't speak. "

"A little nurse in our department came to me to chat. I was on the night shift the day before yesterday. She happened to be in the same class with me. We sat and talked together in the doctor's duty room. We hugged each other. Before we did anything, we found Wang Sha pushing the door and standing at the door of the office. I was scared and flaccid at that time. Wang Sha still ignores me. "

"Isn't there a little nurse?"

"Don't mention it. After Wang Sha left, people said to me that I was just a friend. As a result, I did something to her. I was so angry that I rushed to the sky. "

"Ha ha, I'm so happy." After a trip for a while, Li Hui continued to be depressed. Zhang Fan went to find Lao Zhou to train.

In recent days, Zhang Fan practiced driving at noon and had to recover Kang Hua after work in the afternoon, which made him spin around. After practicing the car at noon and returning to the Department, I found that everyone else was there except tuxun. Even old Nur, who had been missing for a long time, appeared, "do you pay today?" Zhang Fan asked jokingly.

"Director Gao is going back to the city tomorrow. We're going to see director Gao off today. We'll wait for you." Shi Lei said with a smile. He already knew that Zhang Fan had a special task after work. As soon as he told director Gao about Zhang Fan's situation, Lao Gao decided to book the farewell party in the afternoon.

"Why did the director leave so soon? Didn't he say one month?" Zhang Fan asked in surprise.

"Something happened in the Department. The hospital called me back. I'm the same here. Your work has been carried out very well."

Zhang Fan is a little reluctant to let Lao Gao go back. Lao Gao is experienced and patient. As long as Zhang Fan asks, he will explain it carefully to Zhang Fan "Well, unfortunately, there are still many questions that haven't been asked. When will the director come back next time? "

"There will be few opportunities to come in the future. I will enter Zhenggao this time. Why don't you go to the municipal hospital with me? I'll take you specially. Then you can ask questions every day. How's it going? " Gao Shijun looked at Zhang Fan cruelly. Everyone was surprised and took it for granted. Except Yang Chengming, who wanted to eat Zhang Fan's eyes, everyone else envied Zhang Fan. How big is the face of the invitation sent by the preparatory Director of a third class hospital.

"Hehe, I'll come to you after I have a rest. I'm afraid you'll annoy me." Zhang Fan doesn't want to go for the time being. He has practiced in a large hospital. He doesn't have a practice certificate. Even if there is a director to take care of him, he is uncomfortable. Lao Gao is not easy to be a man for a long time.

Gao Shijun wanted to speak, when he heard Shi Lei say, "director Gao has been waiting for you for a long time. You see, director Nu's addiction to alcohol can't be suppressed. Hurry up and talk slowly on the wine table. There's plenty of time, "Gao Shijun said, and he set out with everyone.

"You go first. I'll get two bottles of good wine to reward director Gao." Shi Lei asked everyone to go first. He went to the dean's office. When he is free, he shows his face in the dean's office every day. Now someone wants to dig the dean's heart, so he must report.

"There's this" Batu, who was shocked and angry, stood up. Zhang Fan is technical at first sight, and young doctors who don't want to go to the third class hospital usually don't have this expression. You said that he had just treated K County for a few days, and the effect was good. Zhang Fan flashed to the urban area. How did he explain to the leaders? He can't bear the anger of a standing committee member. Although he ranked lower, he can't provoke him.

"You did the right thing. You should hurry first. Don't let them have a chance to talk about it. Once Zhang Fan promises, it will be troublesome. After the dishes are served, you will take the time to harass me and I'll call Zhang Fan back. After all, director Gao's face needs to be taken care of." Shi Lei thought as he walked, "the purpose of the dean's care is certainly not simple. What is it for?"

Zhang Fan drank one of the first three cups. If he drank all three cups, he would get drunk. He was ready to explain to Gao Shijun. Lao Nuer, as the director of the Department, spoke and served the wine. Within a few minutes, Zhang Fan's phone rang. It was the Dean Batu's, "Zhang Fan, where are you? Come to my office."

"Dean, our department is welcoming director Gao." Zhang Fan means to wait if you are not in a hurry.

"Oh, director Gao is leaving. Give the phone to director Gao."

I don't know what Batu said to director Gao. Anyway, director Gao smiled and said, "no, No." After hanging up the phone, Gao Shijun handed the phone to Zhang Fan and said, "go to your Dean Ba first. We'll talk when our business is over. Remember to contact me."

"Director Gao, I'm sorry to go first. I'll find you when I'm free."

Batu finished the phone call and sat in the boss's chair meditating. Zhang Fan is still very young. He doesn't understand the weight of an executive deputy county magistrate. If he is really obsessed with technology, there seems to be no difference between understanding and not understanding, there is no way to handle it. You have to coax me. He was not sure whether Zhang Fan would leave. As a dean who had worked for ten years, he felt that Zhang Fan would leave. Therefore, in order to calm Zhang Fan's heart, he had to stop him at once.

If Zhang Fan doesn't have a system, he must go. Some big men appreciate it and don't hurry up to hold his thigh. But after having a system, Zhang Fan has his own thoughts and plans. He's not ready to leave before the exam. Lao Ba is also worried about nothing.
