

《Medical road》

Chapter 21

On Friday, before work, Zhang Fan went to the dean's office“ Dean, Kang (female) county is going home tomorrow. She asked Secretary Tang to call me and let me go to the city to treat her. ”

"Oh, it seems that the effect is really good. You must know where her house is this time. See? "

"I see." Zhang Fan smiled.

"What are you laughing at! I'm different from you. You are engaged in natural science and I am engaged in humanities. There are two ways. " Batu said and smiled. He gave Zhang Fan a cigarette, lit one himself, and said, "say it, laugh it, be careful, and don't tell others."

When the road is open, there are fewer patients immediately. On Saturday afternoon, Zhang Fan went to wait for Tang Jingjing near the government building, "ho! Today, I am the treatment of a secretary. I have a special overlord to serve. Then start (start)! " She can be a secretary to the county standing committee, not to mention others. In terms of emotional intelligence, she can definitely dump Zhang Fan three streets. In the past, when Zhang Fan didn't have a system, he could still think of talking. Now he has moved closer to the technology house.

Along the way, they talked and laughed. Time passed quickly. Tang Jingjing never discussed the private affairs of both sides and didn't even ask the origin of the car. If Chen Lulu's dog brain could ask you. Although Zhang Fan didn't drive long, he drove steadily“ When the meeting is about to arrive, I'll call to see when the leader has time. If the treatment is finished and early, I'll invite you to dinner. If it's late, it's OK. "

"I'll treat you."

"It's all the same. I'm older than you. I should invite you. These are small things. Good service and leadership are the most important." Tang Jingjing is a serious graduate student in the Department of international finance at Bian university.

Kang Hua asked Zhang Fan to pass by at 4 pm. Tang Jingjing looked at her watch and said, "turn left and walk towards the development zone. The leader's home is in the development zone." After entering the urban area, the traffic flow obviously increased. Zhang Fan didn't drive fast. At 3:40, he arrived at his destination. "This is the new community built by the municipal Party committee. I'll go to the guard to register, otherwise I won't enter." The community is a small multi-storey with four floors. There are four houses in one building, and the distance between the buildings is far. The gardens in front of the small building have been developed into small vegetable fields. Although it's winter, the bean shelf is still there.

Kang Hua's house is a duplex structure. The third and fourth floors are hers, with a large area. After entering the door, an aunt gave Zhang Fan a pair of disposable slippers. Tang Jingjing often came and was familiar with the way " Dr. Zhang, please, let you come to the city again. Eat some fruit quickly. "

Kang Hua wears casual clothes at home. She doesn't have makeup. She has more popularity and less solemnity " It's no trouble. President Ba specially explained that we must treat the leaders on time without interruption. " Batu is not bad for Zhang Fan. Zhang fan can help if he can.

"Really, thank you, Dean ba. Dr. Zhang, I'm almost over a course of treatment now. I feel much better than before. Is it better to do two or three courses of treatment continuously? "

"After this course of treatment, you'd better rest for a few months. Lumbar massage will also produce fatigue on bone. Continuous massage for a long time is easy to cause secondary injury."

"Oh. I see. What line, everything depends on Dr. Zhang. " Kang Hua said with a smile. Kang Hua is treated in her study, which is larger than Zhang Fan's dormitory bedroom with a single bed in it. Rehabilitation massage is also a physical activity. We should first excite the muscles and use a sustained and appropriate amount of strength to keep the lumbar spine at a special angle. After more than 40 minutes, Zhang Fan was sweating.

After washing her hands and sitting on the sofa in the living room, Tang Jingjing gave Zhang Fan a cup of tea " Dr. Zhang, try Tieguan Yin in Anxi. How many patients are there in your hospital now? " Kang Hua asked.

"OK"

"Oh, Dr. Zhang, can lumbar disc herniation be treated by massage?"

"It depends on the situation. It depends on whether the nucleus pulposus can recover.

If not, massage is useless“

"Oh! Well, Xiao Tang takes Doctor Zhang to Hongyun Building for dinner in the evening. The food there is pretty good. I also have a dinner over there in the evening. Maybe I'll trouble Dr. Zhang then. "

"OK, county magistrate." Xiao Tang promised. Zhang Fan opened his mouth without making a sound. He still wants to buy books and go shopping. I can't go back after dinner this evening. It's dark early in winter and the road is slippery. He doesn't have the skill to stay up late.

Kang Hua has a high school classmate who works in a commercial bank in the city. Her husband is the third leader of the municipal Party committee. After years of development, Kang Hua has successfully developed her classmates into best friends. If the county standing committee wants to go further, it has to work hard in the province. My best friend called her last week and told her that the wife of the Secretary General of the province is in tea vegetable city. She wants to go back to her mother's house and find a chance to have dinner together. Before the county level, they could barely cope with the help of their relatives and friends. It's not easy to go up. Kang Hua gave full play to her advantages as a woman and made many official wives.

Her high school classmates also had poor lumbar spine, which was the root cause of her illness when she was a cashier in her early years. Taking Zhang Fan means to show her classmates. It would be better if she could catch up with the Secretary General's wife. Hongyun Building is the only membership restaurant in chasu city. It is located on the edge of the urban area and has a vast area. Its biggest advantage is good privacy.

"You look good recently. What cosmetics do you use? " The three chatted while eating. Her classmate Wang Qian used to be called Wang Wen (a) ge“ Isn't my waist a herniated intervertebral disc? I was tortured to death before. Some time ago, a college student from the West came to the county hospital. I don't want to say that my level is really good. After treating me for some time, I'm fine now. "

"Really, show me some time."

"Not an operation?" The Secretary General's wife was also surprised. Her husband also has this disease, not to mention the Frontier Province, but the capital. I don't know how many times.

"No surgery, just massage. The effect is really good. " Kang Hua knew it was either her or her family. Kang Hua experienced the pain of backache and leg pain, and had great confidence in Zhang Fan.

In a small box, Zhang Fan's dishes are not bad. "Try this. I came to eat with my leaders six months ago. It's very delicious." Tang Jingjing introduced the dishes to Zhang Fan. "Sister Tang, you eat too. It tastes good."

"Can't it be bad? It's said that the chef here used to be a cook in the Great Hall of the people. The administrative level is similar to that of our leaders."

"True or false, why did he come to the frontier?"

"Return home, okay"

Kang Hua, they have almost eaten. The Secretary General's wife was generally polite to Kang Hua, so she gave her contact information to Kang Hua. Kang Hua is not in a hurry. After all, it's the first time to meet. Take your time. Kang Hua has promised Wang Qian to let Zhang Fan treat her every night.

Unknowingly, Zhang Fan is full of oil!
