Chapter 22

After dinner, Zhang Fan saw a rich middle-aged woman with Kang Hua“ This is Dr. Zhang. He is very good at medicine. Dr. Zhang, she is my best friend. Just call her sister Wang. She doesn't have a good waist. I'll trouble you to show her. ”

"Thank you, Doctor Zhang." Wang Qian doesn't believe that the young man standing opposite can be as good as a student! If she hadn't taken care of Kang Hua's face, she would have left directly. After all, she is not an ordinary person. The wife of the third leader of the municipal Party committee is not short of doctors.

"Hello, sister Wang. You're welcome. We have to look at CT first, and then do a physical examination to see if there is any possibility of recovery. " Kang Hua saw that Wang Qian was unwilling. She knew that Zhang Fan was too young to be persuasive, so she hurriedly said, "tomorrow morning, you bring your CT to my house. It may be effective. You see, my waist is much better now! "

Tang Jingjing's family is in the provincial capital. Every time she comes to the city, she lives in the guest house of the municipal Party committee. Today, Zhang fan can't go back. She can't help it. They opened two houses near the hotel in the development zone.

"How about Zhang Fan. Did you go to the county magistrate's house? " Batu managed to stay up until more than 11 p.m. and dialed Zhang Fan.

"Yes, I had my last treatment today. But I'll show a lady surnamed Wang her waist tomorrow. I won't be back tonight. "

"It's all right. If you can't come back, you can't come back. You follow the instructions of the leader. Call me immediately if you need my cooperation. " After Batu called, he was thinking, Ms. Wang! It's that. He knows the leaders in the county, but he's not familiar with those in the city.

After watching the film, Wang Qian's condition is more serious than Kang Hua's, but fortunately the nucleus pulposus is not broken. She gave Wang Qian a treatment at Kang Hua's home, which stunned Wang Qian. "Dr. Zhang's level is really high. Now my leg pain has been significantly reduced, but I'm still a little sour."

"Your situation is a little more serious than that of NV county magistrate. Now it's just alleviated, and the effect is still hard to say." Zhang Fan talks about things. Wang Qian's face was a little bad. "I felt terrible pain recently. I almost went to surgery." Her attitude towards Zhang Fan is much better than yesterday. "Then I have to ask Dr. Zhang to give me a course of treatment. Maybe it's good. I have to prepare for surgery. The result is better now. Don't worry. "

"Doctor Zhang, when will the next treatment start tomorrow? Go to my house and get it. My family is also in this community, which is very convenient. " Now that she has hope, she looks forward to recovering early.

"I have to go to the hospital." Zhang Fan murmured. "It's all right. I'll rent a long private room in the hotel. Can you drive?" Kang Hua asked Zhang Fan.

"He has a car and is good at driving. It drives very steadily. " Tang Jingjing betrayed Zhang Fan without shame. "That's great. You don't have to worry about car refueling and accommodation. You can treat it at ease. Don't worry about the hospital. I'll tell your Dean. "

"Don't worry, I'll arrange it." She looked at Zhang Fan and said without waiting for Zhang Fan to speak. Zhang Fan's system wants to brush the amount of surgery. He will be willing. Kang Hua strongly prevents him from talking.

"Then please Dr. Zhang. This thousand is the deposit for treatment. You must take it. When the treatment is over, I will thank you very much. " Wang Qian also saw Zhang Fan's unwillingness. Although Kang Hua was strongly determined, she was worried that Zhang Fan wouldn't say it. If she didn't treat it well at that time, she would become a leech.

"Oh, the treatment for me is over. I forgot the treatment cost. Look at me. Xiao Tang doesn't remind me." As she spoke, she asked Tang Jingjing to give five thousand to Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan didn't dare to accept it. She was afraid to go back to the dean to say he was dead. "You can take it at ease. You deserve it. Your Dean must have nothing to say. " Into Zhang Fan's hand. In this way, Zhang Fan is no longer polite. Of course he likes money. Besides, this is also his labor.

In the afternoon, Zhang Fan drove back alone. Tang Jingjing and Kang Hua had a car. Batu is waiting for Zhang Fan in the hospital. "Do you say that Wang and Kang are in the same community? And a little flattery?"

"Yes, it feels like flattering each other."

"OK, you go to treatment. If you feel tired, you can live in the city directly. You don't have to come back. You must find out the identity of the other party."

"I have to be on duty!"

"What shift are you on duty? I'll take you off. You are now the full-time health care doctor of the leader. Don't worry about the work of the hospital. It's still open when you don't come. No problem at all. "

"But I have to have an operation!" Zhang Fan really doesn't want to go.

"Even if you can help me, I'll contact you if you have surgery, and then I'll give you 200 yuan of travel expenses every day. You can't refuse any more. A county magistrate has asked you for help. How much face do you say you have? "

Although rich, the income has become more and more. If it goes on like this, the system upgrade is still in the monkey years ~! No way, you can not give the county magistrate face, but you must give Batu face. People treat him well.

After Zhang Fan returned to the dormitory, his head became big. Chen Lulu, who is rarely in the dormitory during the day, is also in the dormitory“ Zhang Fan, what are you doing? " Then he approached Zhang Fan and said quietly, "take me out for a ride, I can see it!" A proud discovery of your little secret“ It's windy outside. You can take it by the window. " After driving for more than two hours, Zhang Fan reluctantly took a job. He couldn't be upset.

"Wood, let's go out. It's so boring in the dormitory. I've been waiting for you for a long time."

Zhang Fan doesn't like it, Chen Lulu! Buzz! Buzzing“ Turn around! " Suddenly, when Chen Lulu looked back, he hurried into his bedroom and locked the door.

"Open the door, open the door, you bastard." After knocking on the door for half a day, Zhang Fan didn't respond. Chen Lulu said, "we're not finished. Wait and see!" Then he went shopping. God! What is all this ~! Zhang Fan is depressed. Click on the system to see that the progress of trauma orthopedics is only 70%. Although the surgical foundation has been upgraded, the follow-up progress is 0%.

"Alas! What should I do? "

In the evening, in Kang Hua's room, Kang Hua said to Tang Jingjing, "Dr. Zhang doesn't seem very happy to see Wang Qian. Do you know why he doesn't want to? He should be happy! Is it because we didn't give him the treatment fee, he wouldn't like it. "

"It's hard to say. I don't think so. If it's convenient, I'd better ask the president of a chin chart. He should know Zhang Fan better."

"That's right. Ask tomorrow." Wang Qian is very important to her, or Wang Qian's husband is very important to her. There can be no problem.

On Monday, the second foreign science department held a morning meeting. Batu also attended the meeting of the Department“ Let me say something. Let's pay attention. In the future, surgery can be done during the day. Come to the emergency room at night. If it's not necessary, it can also be done the next day. Let's go to work. Director Shi, come here. " Then Batu left. Zhang fan understands that this is Batu's order for him.
