

《Medical road》

Chapter 23

After entering the twelfth lunar month, the weather can directly freeze the dog to death. Zhang Fan, who had never worn a hat, had to buy a leather hat to wear. TNM is cold, and Zhang Fan has been addicted to driving for more than ten days. In the afternoon, he drove to tea vegetable city and treated Wang Qian. It was completely dark. Drive back to the hospital the next morning. It's Chinese New Year. The internal medicine of the hospital is better. There are no patients in surgery.

Although Wang Qian's effect is not as good as Kang Hua's, her legs don't hurt anymore. I'm so excited for her. I feel happy when I have a happy event. These days, I have to let Zhang Fan eat at their house. Zhang Fan has never seen her husband. In her words, being a national and not dying at the venue is not a good son of the people. After a few days, Zhang Fan felt that Wang Qian was easier to deal with than Kang Hua. Kang Hua has a kind of official flavor that cannot be explained clearly. Compared with Wang Qian, she is much better.

"You eat more. My son was so able to eat when he was in high school. As a person who loves cooking, the happiest thing is to cook his own food and be eaten up by others." Wang Qian's son went to college, and her husband was busy to death. She was also very boring at home. She came into contact slowly. This doctor, who is not a few years older than her son, has a high level and simple temperament.

After Zhang Fan became familiar with others, he was no longer polite "Sister Wang, you can't finish eating anyway. I'll take the rest of the steamed stuffed buns and make breakfast tomorrow morning. "

"OK, I'll fry you another egg!"

"Which feeling is good!" Wang Qian's family, her husband is a leader, and she is also a cadre in the size of a bank. Having enough to eat and drink and a good waist, you are almost a perfect family.

Because the mountains were closed by heavy snow this year and settled at the end of the year, the income of the hospital was much higher than that of last year. There was too much money on the book, and he couldn't spend it indiscriminately. Batu thought about buying equipment. In the hospital conference room, the directors and head nurses of various departments gathered together "After 2008, with the efforts of our departments, the number of hospitalizations has increased by 40% and the number of operations has doubled. We hope to continue to maintain and carry forward the advantages of our hospital in the new year and strive to reach a higher level in the coming year. Now there is some money on the book. In order to further improve the accuracy of our hospital, after the discussion of the hospital committee, we decided to buy a CT. " CT is a big equipment. There are tens of millions of better ones. Batu will make the last profit when he is ready to take office.

During the Chinese new year, doctors of ethnic minorities are on duty. When ethnic minorities celebrate festivals, Han people are on duty. But the second Department of external medicine is a special case. The director Nur doesn't have to count on it. Tuxun has asked for sick leave and said it was a hemorrhoid crime. Shi Lei had nothing to do, so he discussed with Lao Chen and Zhang Fan. He vaguely guessed that after Zhang Fan left work, the president arranged to go to the city to see someone else. It was not clear who was the specific person, so Zhang Fan couldn't be on the night shift, which was explained by Batu.

"In this way, seven days after the Chinese new year, anyway, I go back to the dormitory. I'm all on duty during the day." Zhang Fan hasn't been on the night shift for some time. Although everyone doesn't say it, he's also a little embarrassed.

"Well, I'm on the night shift for the first three days. My grandfather's birthday on the third day of junior high school. I have to go back." Li Liang looked at Zhang Fanyi and said that he followed closely to express his position. Shi Lei looked at Yang Chengming. Yang Chengming didn't make a sound. Because college students go to work in their first year, Batu means to take a vacation and have a good new year. Yang Chengming ignored Shi Lei. Anyway, the dean said it was a holiday. Yang Chengming didn't respond. Shi Lei said, "Li Liang doesn't have to be on the night shift. Have a good rest this year and work hard when he comes back after the new year. I'll be on duty for the night shift of the first three days, and Lao Chen will be on duty for the next four days. Can we do it, can't we do it upside down? "

"It's all right. Just do what you say."

"It's hard for Mr. Zhang this year!" Shi Lei said politely to Zhang Fan.

In the dean's office, Batu said to Zhang Fan, "today, you are my driver. Let's go to the home of NV county magistrate. How about going in?"

"I think so" Zhang Fan doesn't know what Batu is going to do.

"Silly boy, go to pay New Year's greetings. It depends on your face today. First, ask if the leader is there. " If there is no emergency, Zhang Fan usually parks his car in the courtyard of the dormitory and rarely drives to the hospital. Zhang Fan contacted Kang Jingjing. After implementation, they set out.

Batu drove his car to the county Party committee community, opened the trunk and tossed things on the bully. When Zhang Fan saw it, he saw two cigarettes, a box of wine, and a slaughtered animal bigger than sheep and smaller than cattle.

"Today we go to pay tribute to our early years. When you have a chance, mention the purchase of CT in the hospital. The most important thing is that I want to be the director of the Health Bureau. Then you can help me beat the side drum. " Batu sat on the co pilot.

"No problem, but the Palestinian hospital, the director of the health bureau and you should be at the same level. Why do you need to be at the same level."

"Ah! You don't know that quark county has three pillar industries, Nang, grazing and county hospital. I've been working in the yard of the county hospital for ten years. I'm careful and careful. That's it. Now many people are looking for trouble for me openly and secretly, so I'll fall over in order to be safe. "

The new year is coming soon. Kang Hua is at home every day these days. If she is not at home, she can earn a lot less. When it was time to get in touch with Tang Jingjing, Zhang Fan and Batu knocked at the door. Kang Hua was obviously superior and subordinate to Batu, but he was very polite to Zhang Fan“ We wish our leaders an early year. " After Zhang Fan and Batu put down their gifts, Kang Hua asked them to sit down. When moving things, Zhang Fan saw that the gift was not light. The cigarette was Chinese, and the wine was local puree wine. A bottle seemed to cost a lot of money.

After sitting for more than ten minutes, Kang Hua said that after work, Batu could go to her office to talk about specific matters“ Is there hope? " Zhang Fan wondered. They talked about the construction of the hospital and didn't mention anything about CT and changing jobs at all.

"Certainly. Can you let me go to her office after the new year. Learn, this is the art of conversation. " As soon as they left the door of the unit, they met Wang Qian“ Zhang Fan, when did you come? Did the hospital have a holiday? "

"Sister Wang, this is our dean. The hospital hasn't had a holiday yet“

"Oh, why don't you wait for me a little. I won't invite you to the house because it's messy these days. I have something for you." Without waiting for Zhang Fan to refuse, he hurried home.

"This is Ms. Wang who Kang County asked you to treat?" Batu asked quietly.

"Yes."

"What exactly do you know?"

"I work in a bank. My name is Wang Qian. I didn't ask about the others, and she didn't say anything"

"You!" Batu said sadly.

After a while, Wang Qian came with some big black bags in her hand" I know you smoke, so I brought you some cigarettes and some small gifts from some units. Don't refuse. You know your sister Wang's temper" Then he stuffed it into Zhang Fan's hand, nodded with Batu and left.

They didn't stay much in the community. Almost all the people living in the community are leaders. Batu is afraid of meeting people he knows. Out of the community, Batu turned curiously. Wang Qian gave Zhang Fan the bag, "it seems that the level is not low. Your boy is a waste of resources!" Listening to Batu's sour tone, Zhang Fan asked, "why didn't I see it."

"Look at an egg." Batu looked out of the window depressed. Wang Qian installed two Chinese shoes for Zhang Fan, as well as an Apple phone, two belts and several ties that others gave her husband. After a while, Batu said, "protect your sister Wang. I don't know when I will ask someone."

"OK, I'll listen to you." Zhang Fanshun said.
