

《Medical road》

Chapter 29

The first time I took a plane, by the window. After the novelty is over, there is endless fatigue“ Sir, sir, the plane has landed. Your destination has arrived. ” Zhang Fan opened his eyes and looked, "are you there? It's so fast“ He had to change planes, pack his bags and get off the plane.

The frontier in June is hot and dry, and the green birds are also hot. But people have a little sea breeze and it rains from time to time. Here, it is directly boiled in a pan. From Qingniao to the frontier capital is a big plane, which is not bumpy at all, but from the frontier capital to tea vegetable city is a small plane that can make more than 30 people. The lovely stewardess became uncle. And the bumps are severe, just like the tractor he used to do when he was a child. Zhang Fan is nervous to death. He has a feeling that his life has no control. Sitting on a small plane, he finally realized the feeling of the patient on the operating table. Fear, the fear of not being able to control your life.

When we arrived at the tea vegetable market, Batu came to pick up the plane with great face. It's the bully Zhang fan used to drive. Before leaving, Zhang Fan changed the car key to Batu. " You should have no problem with the exam. I don't have to go back to the county today. Anyway, I'll have an exam in the municipal hospital tomorrow“ Zhang Fan wants to take the exam, and Batu is not in a hurry to say his own business.

The next day's exam, hey! The examiner of Zhang Fan's operation is Gao Shiming. Although not afraid of operation, I'm happy to meet acquaintances. Full score for operation and case analysis. ECG and color Doppler ultrasound seem to be uncertain, but it has nothing to do with elegance. Because of the exam, Gao Shiming didn't say anything, just made a phone call. After the exam, Zhang Fan waited outside the exam room for half an hour, and director Gao came out. "You boy, I haven't seen you since a golden light. Should I have passed the exam? Is the hospital busy“ He doesn't know about Zhang Fan's study.

”Sorry, director Gao, there's no problem with the exam. I've gone to Qingniao for further study these months“

”Well, you're going to study. You've been in the county hospital for a long time, and your vision is limited. Go to dinner. Talk while eating“

"Director, I have to fly back to Bluebird tomorrow. I'm really sorry today. I brought some dry goods from Bluebird. I had to go to the hospital to find you"

"Have a heart. Don't take it next time. It's inconvenient to take things on the thousands of miles road. I won't keep you today. Go busy and read more books. Wait until the October exam is over. Don't fail the exam"

"OK, director, I'll go first" Director Gao is the first guide on Zhang Fan's medical road.

Batu didn't go back yesterday. He waited for Zhang Fan in the hotel. " I have little hope of going to the Health Bureau. Kanghua county magistrate has clearly told me that senior county officials have decided to elect good people"

"What should I do"

"Now, we have to find leaders in the city to enter the secondary hospital in the city. The county hospital can't stay any longer" Batu was a little scared, and the hospital CT also bought it. He got some benefits from it, but after he got the money, he began to lose sleep. In recent years, the hospital has built buildings and bought equipment. If you don't go, you'll really have a big problem.

"What can I do for you" Zhang Fan is a small citizen. He doesn't have any great sentiment. Whoever is good to him will know his kindness and repay him.

"Your sister Wang, I know, her husband is the third of the municipal Party committee. My business is what he said"

"OK, let's go now. I just brought some dry goods. When I go back, you will take one"

"When is it? I don't have that idea. Give it all to your sister Wang"

Wang Qian's family, "sister Wang, I brought some dry goods from Qingniao learning. Try it. I don't think you like it. It's too salty to kill people"

"Silly boy, this is a good thing. You can't do it. Have you eaten yet? I'll cook for you" It was the weekend. Wang Qian was at home. Her husband didn't go home for ten thousand years.

"Yes. Sister Wang, I'm sorry to say something, but I have to say it again" Zhang Fan blushed a little and took the back door for the first time.

"Say, what else are you polite to me. Do you like whose girl wants me to go matchmaking"

"No, the president of our county hospital is very good to me. Knowing that I'll see you, I thought, can you help me transfer my work"

"Where does he want to transfer as a dean" Wang Qian said after a little meditation.

"He wants to go to the secondary hospital in the city, but he can't. He can also go to other county hospitals"

"I'll ask you for your face. What's his name"

"Batu"

Wang Qian understands that as a doctor and leader of the county hospital, can Zhang Fan speak? She went to the next bedroom to call her husband. "Lao Jiang, Doctor Zhang who cured me of my waist ~ ~" as soon as Wang Qian said this, his husband said, "it's too late to worry now. Quietly, you just told Dr. Zhang to let Batu go back and wait for the news. He has taken bribes seriously. Someone has reported it in his real name below. The Commission for Discipline Inspection has reported it and is ready to take him as a model. You must not say it"

Out of the bedroom, Wang Qian's face is a little ugly. She is not angry with Zhang Fan, but with Batu. If she doesn't know today, help Batu say hello. If she finds out later, her husband will also be implicated.

If Batu was there, it would be bad to see Wang Qian's face. But Zhang Fan doesn't understand, "how about sister Wang. No hope. You don't look very well"

"Hehe, it's all right. I had a little insomnia last night. You go back and tell your dean to wait for the news"

"OK, sister Wang. No, I'm leaving"

"Don't worry. I didn't take a bite of my hurried meal. I took some cigarettes and tea back. Smoke less. You're still young"

After leaving the community, Batu's car stopped not far away, "how about it? Is there any hope"

"Sister Wang called and said she wanted you to go back and wait for news. She didn't say anything else. He gave me cigarettes and tea"

"You're so popular, boy. What did you say on the phone" Batu was happy and hopeful when he heard the news.

"I didn't hear it. Take a taxi to the next bedroom"

Let's go. I'll give you a chance to choose what you want. Zhang Fan has to go back tomorrow. He doesn't have much time. After dinner, Batu hands Zhang Fan the car key. You can drive to do your business and put it in the hotel. I took it when I checked out.

Li Liang and Li Hui are also taking exams in the city. They have just finished the exam. They must be in the city. Li Liang wants to thank you. It's Li Liang who helped to sign up for the exam. Then he took the dry goods to Dong Hua's house. Although Dong Hua was very bureaucratic, he was helped by others to study. Luckily I was home at the weekend. After paying off the favor, Zhang Fan began to prepare for going to Qingniao city and bought some dried fruits and raisins. The most famous here is beef and mutton, but he can't bring it. Two large bags, the upper limit of air consignment.
