

《Medical road》

Chapter 41

In the afternoon, Zhang Fan received a call from Wang Qian, "Zhang Fan, I heard that you have been transferred to the city. Don't you come home for dinner. I see a patient in your hospital. By the way, I'll call you. " Wang Qian heard from Dong Hua that Zhang Fan had arrived at the municipal hospital and happened to see a patient today.

"Sister Wang, I'm a little busy just entering the hospital. I'm still thinking about taking time to see you some day. I'm in the first Department of orthopedics on the ninth floor. Will you come up?"

"I'm not coming up. I'm in the special needs ward. If you have time, come over and introduce you to a friend."

The former special needs ward was the cadre ward, which was later renamed special needs ward in response to the changes of market economy. The wards are of suite type, reception room, office, bedroom, leather sofa and oversized Simmons. Anyway, it is more luxurious than the decoration of ordinary families. Zhang Fan came in for the first time. The special needs ward is in the innermost part of the hospital, on a separate second floor. There is a security guard standing outside, and strangers are not allowed to go.

"Sister Wang." After going up and seeing Wang Qian, Zhang Fan said hello.

"You boy, haven't come to see me for a long time! Let me introduce you to someone. " Took Zhang Fan into a ward.

"That's what I'm talking about, Doctor Zhang. He looked after my waist. It's been almost a year and I haven't had a relapse. This is my best friend, Li Xiao. Your name is Sister Li. "

"Hello, Dr. Zhang. Sit down. " A middle-aged woman with good looks. She is not tall and doesn't wear hospital clothes.

"OK, Sister Li."

"Sister Li, you also have low back pain. I told her last time. Fortunately, you came to the municipal hospital. Now it's convenient. Show me. " Wang Qian took Zhang Fan and sat down and said.

"I'll see what Sister Li did first, and then I'll have a physical examination."

After seeing the CT, Zhang Fan had another lumbar physical examination. "How about Dr. Zhang? I didn't see it from director Chen of the second Department of orthopedics. He said he wanted me to have an operation, otherwise I might be paralyzed in the future. I was a little hesitant. Moreover, I had severe low back pain recently, so I came to the hospital and finished the examination first." Li Xiaochasu is a small real estate boss with assets of more than 100 million. Among the real estate businessmen in Chasu City, although she can't be said to be one of the best, she has a very good brother-in-law and the second in charge of Frontier Province. Most of her business is government projects.

"This." Zhang Fan hesitated. Li Xiao's fourth lumbar vertebra bulged. There was no mistake in the operation, but in Zhang Fan's system, rehabilitation treatment is also OK. It was hated to rob the emergency patient of the second Department of orthopedics. Now the director of the second Department of orthopedics says that he needs to do surgery. Zhang Fan says that he doesn't have to do it. If people know, how can they stay in the hospital in the future, and what people say is right. And looking at Sister Li's posture, either rich or expensive, she can't bring disaster to the director of the second Department of orthopedics.

After all, Wang Qian is a little familiar with Zhang Fan. Seeing that Zhang Fan hesitated, she said, "Zhang Fan, don't worry. Just do what you should do. Your sister Li is not a talkative person."

"Yes, Doctor Zhang, don't worry. I won't do it even if I have an operation. After all, it's not a small operation."

Zhang Fan looked at the CT again and said, "the effect of surgery is the most obvious, and the recovery is also fast. The two orthopaedics departments in our hospital did a good job in the lumbar spine. If you recover, it's OK, but the time is a little slower, and the effect is not necessarily."

"Then I'll recover. I'm really afraid of surgery. If it weren't for the severe low back pain. I won't even come to the hospital." She also has the mentality of trying.

"Zhang Fan, I'll handle what you need." Zhang Fan hesitated, and Wang Qian said.

"Sister Wang, Sister Li, after all, is a newly diagnosed patient in the second Department of orthopedics. If I rehabilitate Sister Li, it's a little unreasonable. I can only give Sister Li a rehabilitation, even if it doesn't work. If it works, I can't do it in the hospital next time."

"OK." Said Li Xiao. Looking at Zhang Fan's hesitation, she is a little worried. In the more than 20 years since she became famous, almost all the doctors she came into contact with were at the top of all places. It was not vigorous and resolute. Is there a level of hesitation like Zhang Fan. Took a look at Wang Qian, who gave her a positive look.

The rehabilitation massage of lumbar bulging is much more difficult than that of intervertebral disc. After all, the intervertebral disc is soft tissue, but the vertebral body is not. It is bone. The manipulation force can not be controlled. The pain is aggravated in light cases, and paralyzed in severe cases. Li Xiao's lumbar bulging is not serious, but it has compressed the spinal cord, so it hurts badly.

Put yourself in a good position. First slowly wake up the muscles and make them excited. Then let the lumbar spine form a special torque, a recovered torque, and slowly let the lumbar spine retract. Rehabilitation is more laborious than surgery. Slow power output should maintain a stable strength. It can't be weak. If it's weak, it won't work, and it can't be too strong. If it's too strong, something will happen. Is to have a stable and sustained output.

More than 40 minutes later, the air-conditioned room also made Zhang Fan sweat“ It's hot. The waist is very hot. It's very comfortable. Although it still hurts, it seems to be lighter than before. " Li Xiao slowly got up and said to Wang Qian and Zhang Fan.

"Effective, indicating that Sister Li's bulge is feasible for rehabilitation treatment."

"Dr. Zhang, thank you very much. What about the follow-up treatment. Come at your convenience, and I'll listen to you. " Li Xiao now knows that Zhang Fan has a hand, but Wang Qian doesn't exaggerate.

"The follow-up treatment will be carried out outside the hospital. It's not good for director Chen to see it. If this recovery doesn't work, I'll suggest you have an operation."

"Well, when will the treatment be carried out in the future? I'll send someone to pick you up! ~"

"No, you say I'll go there. I'll go after work. I can't work during working hours."

"In this way, I have a house in the community next to the hospital. I'll come and wait for you after work every day. It's more convenient to be near." Rich or poor, Li Xiao was afraid of getting sick. His scalp was numb when he heard that he was going to have an operation. She also asked many experts. This time, she was ready to go to the capital after completing the basic inspection.

"Look, I'm right. My brother is really good. When I was treated, I also said that the effect was not certain, but now it has been a year, just like normal people, I have no problem playing badminton on the court after work. When Zhang Fan treats you, you can't be stingy. " Wang Qian knows Li Xiao's worth and doesn't have to save her.

"I'm really sorry to listen to you this time, otherwise I don't know what's going on when I pull it to the operating table. Dr. Zhang certainly can't treat you badly. Here's a card. Take it first, Dr. Zhang. If it's not much, it's 30000. The password is six and one. "

As soon as Zhang Fan listens, 30000 is not much! To refuse, Wang Qian took it and stuffed it into Zhang Fan's pocket. "You can treat Sister Li safely and use more snacks. She can't see this little money. As long as the treatment is good, it's easy to say anything, isn't it?"

"Hehe, take it with you at ease. This is your labor fee. I do more than that once in Hong Kong. As long as the treatment is effective, everything is easy to say. Tell me your phone number. We'll contact you after work tomorrow. We can't always trouble you, sister Wang. " Having said that, she spent a lot of money on beauty in Hong Kong, but she really didn't spend money on seeing a doctor in the frontier. It all depends on Wang Qian's face. Without Wang Qian, if she calls, Lao Huang will have to serve in front and behind. But without Wang Qian, Zhang Fan couldn't touch her.
