Chapter 59

Chinese new year, the double gland Department has almost no patients except a few who do chemotherapy. Su Jing directly gave Zhang Fan a holiday. She is Zhang Fan's teacher. It's boring for two people to stay in the Department without a patient. Simply let Zhang Fan rest for the new year.

This is Zhang Fan's second year in the frontier. He spent last year in the Department. This year is even more boring. During the Spring Festival in China, every family is reunited and called their parents and sister. This year's life is better than in previous years. The tuition fee is a big head. After Zhang fan can afford it, there is no big expenditure at home. Zhang Fan called his parents in the community and opened a small shop with Zhang Fan's money. The business is OK. The ordinary life is enough and there is no need to go out to work.

The situation at home became better, and Zhang Fan didn't worry. Lao Chen has long made an appointment with Zhang Fan and asked Zhang Fan to go to their house on the third day of junior high school. Zhang Fan drove to the county on the third day of junior high school. I had planned to come back that day, but Lao Chen didn't make it.

Chen Qifa passed the exam and became the director of surgery. His wife was also very happy. After Zhang Fan came to their house, he directly took out the best things in the house to entertain Zhang Fan. Lao Chen's son was a sophomore in senior high school. He was very curious about his father's little teacher. His father was very strict with him. As a result, young Zhang Fan became his father's teacher. He found a backer.

At noon on the third day of junior high school, he had dinner at Lao Chen's house. As a result, Shi Lei knew that after Zhang Fan arrived in the county, he entertained Zhang Fan at the county hotel in the evening. Old Zou is old. Shi Lei wants to make progress, but the relationship in the county is not particularly strong. Zhang Fan is an opportunity, and he must seize it.

Shi Lei entertained Zhang Fan. There were not many people, just him and Lao Chen. The specification is very high. Most frontier people drink frontier wine. As a result, Shi Lei goes to Maotai and Zhonghua. He wanted to make friends with Zhang Fan. When he opened his mouth at the critical moment, Zhang Fan had to help.

The next night, Zhang Fan was drunk in the hotel. Shi Lei opened a suite in the room.

The next day, Zhang Fan wanted to leave. As a result, the fat manager came out and pulled Zhang Fan away. He knew that Zhang Fan had a very good relationship with Dong Hua. Although she was transferred, she was promoted and went to the next county to be the county magistrate. Zhang Fan didn't drink a drop of wine for this meal. Although the fat man knew Zhang Fan, he was not very familiar with him, so he took Shi Lei as his companion.

In the afternoon, Zhang Fan really wants to go. If he doesn't go again, he may die drunk in the county. Before leaving, Shi Lei packed some cigarettes. He said he would go back to the urban area to study for some time and contact again at that time. Zhang Fan drove out of the county hotel and went to Batu's house. There was an iron general hanging at the door. Zhang Fan never contacted Batu's daughter-in-law again. The results are clear, and there is nothing to ask. Zhang fan can't help with other things.

Back in the city, Tang Jingjing called Zhang Fan: "the leader is angry. You said you wouldn't go to her to pay New Year's greetings. Do you still have leaders in your eyes!" But her tone was relaxed. Zhang Fan knew she was joking. Tang Jingjing has also been promoted with Dong Hua. It is said that she has been promoted to a higher level. It's not easy for Tang Jingjing to ride in front of and behind the horse. For the new year, he may have stayed at home for less than two days and came to serve.

No way. Everyone else spoke. Zhang Fan bought a lot of fruit and went to Dong Hua's house. Since he wants to go to Dong Hua's house, Wang Qian's house must also go. No matter what people lack, it's not a thing to be empty handed during the new year.

The Grand Cherokee directly became Zhang Fan's special car. Every month, Li Xiao's assistant sent the fuel ticket, which made Zhang Fan embarrassed. At Dong Hua's house, no one knocked at the door. He was ready to call Tang Jingjing. As a result, Tang Jingjing went up the stairs "Happy new year, Dr. Zhang. The leader is at director Wang's house. I think your car has come in. You're going upstairs. "

"Hehe, I walked fast. Sister Tang had a good new year. Didn't she go back to the provincial capital?"

"Yes, I came today. Hurry up. I'm waiting for you. "

There are many people in Wang Qian's family today. It was Dong Hua who wanted to invite Wang Qian's family to dinner. As a result, Wang Qian said that she simply called those with good relations to celebrate the festival at home. Their family is big enough, but there are so many people today. Dong Hua and Tang Jingjing, Li Xiao and her assistant, and all of them are figures in the tea vegetable market. Zhang Fan goes in and has a look, Ho! There are so many people. Zhang Fan met Wang Qian's husband today. Lao Jiang, Jiang Yi, deputy secretary of the municipal Party committee, is a gentle man.

When Wang Qian saw Zhang Fan coming in, she stood up and said, "happy new year, Zhang Fan. Let me introduce you." After a circle, Zhang Fan was busy greeting and nodding. Almost all of them were leaders. The president of the bank, the director of the electric power bureau and the Secretary of the Party School said that Zhang Fan didn't take his name to heart. These people were enthusiastic about Zhang Fan because they looked at the face of Wang Qian and her husband in this house. Out of this house, you are passers-by.

Today's meal was cooked by the hotel chef. They brought three people with their own materials. They don't need Wang Qian's help. Li Xiao and some of them are playing double buckles. Dong Hua helps Wang Qian greet them. After Zhang Fan greets Li Xiao and Dong Hua, he is called by Jiang Yi.

Jiang Yi looked at Zhang Fan and sighed, "young people have such ability. It's really enviable." His son finally came back. As a result, he went to the provincial capital to attend a classmate party. He took Zhang Fan to sit down, gave Zhang Fan a cigarette and said, "Doctor Zhang, the medical skill is really good. Your sister Wang praised you in front of me as a miracle doctor."

Zhang Fan smiled awkwardly and said, "sister Wang exaggerated. The main reason is that sister Wang's symptoms are not serious. Otherwise I can't help it. "

"It's no exaggeration. I've been to many hospitals, and it didn't work. Now you see, I'm fine and I can play badminton. " Wang Qian brought a cup of tea and put it in front of Zhang Fan.

"Hehe, look, your sister Wang is recovering well now. I also want to thank you. Health is the most important. You can tell me or Wang Qian anything in your life or work. If you can help, you will help you. It's a thank you to you for treating Wang Qian well. "

Because of the particularity of his position, Jiang Yi didn't want to owe a favor. Human relations are the most troublesome for him. The last Batu incident was an example. So he spoke very frankly. He was afraid that Zhang Fan didn't understand.

"Everything was very good and nothing happened. Besides, sister Wang also paid a lot of treatment fees. It's my salary for several months." Zhang Fan said with a smile. He is not a pole climber. Wang Qian's family paid the treatment fee, and he was really nice to him. He doesn't want to make trouble for others.

"Oh, that's good." Jiang Yi looked at Zhang Fan and found that the young man was really steady, not impetuous, had the temperament of doing skills, and was not the kind of person who deliberately went into business.

After Zhang Fan sat down for a while, the chef began to eat. Zhang Fan was the youngest in grade. Tang Jingjing and they ate in another room and didn't go to the table. Before dinner, Jiang Yi said a few words. Wang Qian knew that Zhang Fan couldn't drink enough, so she poured drinks for Zhang Fan. No one forced him to drink at this level of party.

Zhang Fan's ability to eat at the table really surprised the others. The Secretary of the Party school has been working at his desk for many years, and his waist is not very good. He asked curiously, "director Wang, is your waist really good? Are you playing badminton now? "

"Of course, don't look at Dr. Zhang. He's not a big grade. His level is really good."

"I'll trouble Dr. Zhang then." Then he picked up his glass and touched Zhang Fan. Before Wang Qian said anything, they didn't talk to Zhang Fan.

Li Xiao also said, "it's only a few days since Dr. Zhang gave me treatment. I'm much better now. I happened to meet Dr. Zhang today. When will my next treatment start? " Since he talked about it, Li Xiao asked.
