

Medical road

Chapter 70

The patients left by Ye Jing were sent out by Zhang Fan one by one. There's nothing wrong with it. It's all routine treatment, and it's not difficult. After dealing with the patient, it's time for Zhang Fan to transfer to cardiology.

Ren Li didn't embarrass Zhang Fan, and the signature was qualified. In the Department of Cardiology, Zhang Fan, who was transferred, was mentally tired. Not only the treatment was complex, but also the condition was in crisis. In general surgery and orthopedics, Zhang Fan has never been so nervous. Another event came out, which confused Zhang Fan for several days.

This month, the medical department of the hospital rarely showed mercy and gave the transferred doctor a three-day holiday. Li Hui came to Zhang Fan early. He wanted to go to the capital for three days off.

He was a little timid to go alone. So he wanted to drag Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan has no idea about traveling to big cities. It's boring. The money in my pocket is small, and I dare not spend it. When I go, I look at high-rise buildings, eat a bowl of noodles, and then come back disheartened, which also affects my mood.

Zhang Fan didn't go, and he didn't dare to go alone. He lingered for a long time. Zhang Fan did not waver at all. He had no choice but to die. He and Wang Sha have really become the past tense. According to Lao Chen, Wang Sha began to prepare the wedding room.

Some time ago, this grandson wanted to die for Wang Sha. Recently, he is lively and forgetful. It's really easy to change. Wang Sha looked at him thoroughly and knew that she couldn't count on him. It's a pity to marry someone early, which is the feeling of seven or eight years.

However, it's no pity to turn around and see Li Hui's appearance. Wang Sha's marriage to him is also an endless quarrel. Li Hui is too playful. A very smart person, good in study and examination, just likes to play.

Recently, Wang Qian also called Zhang Fan and asked Zhang Fan to go to their house for dinner, but Zhang Fan didn't go once. Although Wang Qian is really nice to him, his husband is anxious to get rid of the relationship. Zhang fan can't go to the door again. If he makes other people's families incompatible, it's meaningless.

Lao Jiang was not alone in targeting Zhang Fan. His level is really invisible to ordinary little doctors. Although Wang Qian always yells low back pain, it's not him. He thinks it's Wang Qian.

Moreover, there was something about Batu, so I thought Zhang Fan had some skills, but it was not as simple as Wang Qian said. Just pay for the doctor. Don't go too close. There's no need. It's really not possible. There's no need to win him over by calling their Dean.

In fact, Zhang Fan has no intention of taking an official career and doesn't want to curry favor with anyone. In his own opinion, first, he owed his emotional intelligence, and second, his technology was simpler. Third, with golden fingers, there is no need to go to camp. I've been a hawker for four years in college. I'm really afraid. I really don't want to repeat the days when I bow down.

With the gradual warming of the weather, Li Xiao's business began to get busy. Unlike the previous leisure, the return of the lumbar spine has improved her recognition of Zhang Fan by several grades.

Her business is very big, and she has it all over the border. Recently, her assistant reminded her that the third course of treatment was coming. At that time, Zhang Fan said such a thing, and his assistant recorded it for the record.

For the first and second treatment, Li Xiao gave Zhang Fan 30000 yuan. Although Zhang Fan drove the car, it was also convenient for her to see a doctor. After Zhang Fan returned to the city, she wanted to return the car to her. She refused. It was just a car. As long as she cured her waist, it wasn't a problem.

At that time, there was no recheck. I went to the port city this time, and the recheck results were gratifying. Even the doctors in port city were surprised.

She looked at the recent travel plan and said to her assistant, "it's convenient for you to make an appointment with Dr. Zhang these days. I'll invite him to dinner."

"Where can I make an appointment with Dr. Zhang?"

Li Xiao thought about it and said, "I think Dr. Zhang likes to eat light food. Let's find a chef to cook at home."

"OK." The assistant said in surprise. Their president Li hasn't invited anyone home for dinner except her own family. Li Xiao's business and background are big enough. There are few people who need her to socialize in tea vegetable city.

And Zhang Fan is an insurance for her. The richer people are, the more they pay attention to their health. She is a businessman and Lao Jiang has different ideas. As long as it can be used by her, it is necessary to win over the cost. Zhang Fan asks her for something. That's the best.

The little assistant first marked Li Xiao's free days. Then call Zhang Fan to make an appointment. Zhang Fangang had a good rest for the past three days, and the time was very coincidental.

In the evening, Li Xiao hired a good cook. Li Xiao specially entertains Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan doesn't drink. He and Li Xiao don't have much to talk about except her illness.

Li Xiao, who has been doing business for more than ten years, will not make the atmosphere awkward. "Dr. Zhang, do you live in the single dormitory of the hospital?"

"No, leader Dong has a house in the city, right next to our hospital. Lend it to me first. " It's not appropriate for him to call sister Dong Hua. It's mainly called by Wang Qian. Zhang Fan pays great attention to this. After knowing Li Xiao's identity, he pays special attention to it. He can't cause disasters innocently.

"Oh! It's always borrowed. A man will start a family sooner or later. Your sister and I happen to be a real estate developer. I don't want to give it away. In this community, I still have several houses in my hand. Let someone take you to see them tomorrow. If you like them, they will pass under your name according to the cost price. " Li Xiao has understood the relationship between Zhang Fan and Dong Hua.

Before her husband Li Xiaojie got rich, although she did a good business, she also experienced a lot of helplessness in life, so she knew Zhang Fan very well.

Send it. If Zhang Fan doesn't want it or not, it's harmful. People's desire has no bottom line. If Zhang fan can't control it, it will harm others. Li Xiao doesn't want to harm others. Her business has reached such a scale that she has never seen any kind of people. People's greed is cultivated step by step.

This community is also a high-end community in tea vegetable city. The cost price is transferred to Zhang Fan. The face is not small, and there is a difference of more than 100000 up and down.

This community is really good. The light, structure and greening of the community are good. But Zhang Fan had no money in his pocket. He had saved a little. In order to prevent his parents from going out to work again, he took them all out and opened a small supermarket.

Wages and bonuses are not dare to spend. My sister will take the college entrance examination this year. She studies very well. She has to prepare for her college tuition. It's too expensive. House Zhang Fan has really not considered it for the time being.

"Well! Thank you, Sister Li. I'm not in a hurry. " Zhang Fan didn't mean to say he had no money.

But what is Li Xiao? At first glance, I knew that Zhang Fan had no money“ You've only been working for a few years. You've become a talent without spending your family's money. I won't say anything else. I really like the house. You can get a loan. I say hello, the interest rate will not be too high. "

Let Zhang Fan try to move bricks and stay up late for surgery. There is no problem. He can borrow hundreds of thousands of loans, which can scare him to death.

Although there is a system, a person's life experience, coupled with Zhang Fangang's entry into society, his mentality is still half a student. I can't accept this kind of thing for a while.

"Forget it. Let's talk about it in a few years. If Sister Li still has a spare house, I'll come to you. "

"Ha ha, you are not brave enough and want to take advantage. But it's good to be stable, not impatient, and can sink down. In fact, the loan doesn't have much money. It's more than 2000 a month, and your career is absolutely stable, so don't worry. Go and find out first. "

Zhang Fan is interested in this. He also knows that house prices are rising. Buying a house a year earlier can save a lot. Moreover, the community here is really good. The climate of tea vegetable city is good, and there has never been any dust storm.

A city with four distinct seasons. When my sister goes to college, it's also a good choice for my parents to come here. Li Xiao asked him to know. Zhang Fan was ready to know. It happened that Shaohua was not in the bank.

There is also an excuse to see Shaohua.
