

Medical road

Chapter 85

Li Liang was sent by his father. His son was admitted to a practicing doctor in the first year, and the director of the Department also valued him. Now he has been sent to the municipal hospital for further study, and his happy mouth can't close.

"Son, I didn't expect that you would grow up a lot in one year's weather. I'm worried that you can't stay in the hospital. Ha ha, my son will be Dr. Li in the future. Do you need to send cigarettes and wine to the director of your training department and the doctor in charge this time, so that they can take care of you more. "

"No, my former colleague contacted me for my study. With him, you don't have to worry about my study."

"Zhang Fan? Is that the young man in your department? How old is he? "

"And I graduated in a year."

"So capable?" His father doesn't believe it. He is a cow in the county hospital. It is a small cow in the county hospital. If he can be a cow in the city hospital, he can go to heaven as a young man!

"Almost. The municipal hospital specially set up the establishment for him, and Zhang Fan is a foreigner. When he came to the frontier alone, he can have today's status without relatives. You say cow or cow."

"Sounds great, too. Is it reliable? "

"He's nice, and he's nice to me."

"Then you should keep in touch with others. Don't be stingy. Such a capable person has high morale. At first, he may not look up to you, but as long as you keep in touch with them frequently, he will be a friend for a long time. Moreover, those who engage in technology have no heart, but it's a little difficult to deal with at the beginning. There will be a little arrogance. " His father is a small bureaucrat all his life, but he has been proficient in receiving people and things. He transmits his experience to his children little by little. He will never say this to anyone else. This is his own personal experience for many years.

"No, Zhang Fan is easy to deal with and friendly. All aspects are very sophisticated. " Li Liang knew Zhang Fan's character and didn't tell his father much.

His father drove a Jetta and took Li Liang directly to the gate of the municipal hospital. Li Liang's family has a house in the urban area and is not afraid of no place to live.

Zhang Fan waited at the gate of the hospital early. Li Liang was a little shy, but he had an advantage. He had a very strong executive ability. In the past, as long as Zhang Fan explained things in the Department, he absolutely completed them at the first time, and he was the best. Although he was not good at words, he was a person who could work. After Zhang Fan left, Lao Chen also liked Li Liang, so he recommended Li Liang for further study, Yang Chengming has no choice.

"Brother Zhang, I'm coming. This is my father."

"Oh, uncle."

"Hello, Doctor Zhang. You are really a doctor in a big hospital. Your temperament has the taste of stock experts." Li Liang's father said with a smile.

"Oh, uncle, you're welcome. Let's have dinner first. We'll contact the dormitory and take you there later." After Lao Chen called, the next day Zhang Fan went to Lao Gao's office, and Li Liang studied only a few words. Lao Gao also asked about Wang Dehua curiously.

Wang Dehua has been a director for three years and hasn't taken an annual leave. This time, he took a long leave. They competed and competed all their lives. It's impossible for Lao Gao not to be curious. But at his level, he was embarrassed to gossip in the hospital and departments. He didn't have any scruples in front of Zhang Fan. He has put Zhang Fan in a position at the same level as him.

"I don't know. I was tired after the operation that day! Then I heard director Chen Qi say, "director Wang has a temporary rest." Zhang Fan Made Lao Gao confused.

"You! It's good to concentrate. Keep trying. " Lao Gao was going to talk about it, but he thought again that Zhang Fan was right. There's no need to pay attention to anything. Good technology and high talent are not Zhang Fan's fault. Do you want to hide your clumsiness!

Li Liang gave it to Li Hongtu. After Zhang Fan was transferred to another department, Lao Li was divided into two main doctors. Lao Li is a good man. He dares to let go and give Li Liang to him. Zhang fan can rest assured that he has to let Li Liang learn something in half a year. If you meet a teacher who doesn't let go and write medical records and change dressing every day for half a year, it's no fun to study.

Li Liang's father originally wanted his son to live in a house in the city, but when Li Liang heard that Zhang Fan had prepared his dormitory, he didn't go to the house in the city. After all, it's more convenient to live in a hospital. In Zhang Fan's words, if you want to learn something, you'll be ready to peel off the skin in the past six months. You can eat and live in the Department.

Li Liang's father opened his mouth and didn't say anything, but he didn't feel like it: if he doesn't leave the Department for half a year, he can't be tired to death! If I knew I was so tired, I wouldn't let Liangzi learn medicine.

Li Liang's father, who was in high spirits, took advantage of the good fortune and came back from bad fortune. He endured heartache and had a meal with Zhang Fan and Li Liang and went home. On the way back, he said to himself, "are you coming to study or to prison? You can't go back to a home or live in a house. What's this called?"

I've never seen a thief get beaten before. Li Liang's father only saw the doctor's brilliance, but he didn't see the doctor's hard work.

Li Liang and Zhang Fan left Li Liang's father after dinner. They walked and chatted in the street.

"Are you going to do orthopedics. Or want to engage in other majors. In the county hospital, the departments are not complete, and you don't have a deep experience. First work in the orthopedic department for a period of time, and then consider it. "

"OK, brother Zhang, I actually like orthopedics, general surgery and so on. To be honest, I really don't like it. I can't get a deep knot."

"Yes, money is hard to buy. I'm willing, as long as I like it. The doctors in the first Department of orthopedics are very good. You don't have to worry about anything. Tell me if you have anything. After all, I'm a little more familiar than you. "

"OK, my master told me when I came here. I'll tell you what I have to do first."

Zhang Fan sent Li Liang to the dormitory, the intern dormitory behind the internal medicine building. Before the internship period, there was no one, so he specially found an empty house for Li Liang.

Originally intended to go to the emergency department, but the doctors of the second Department of orthopedics didn't cooperate. There was an emergency operation. As long as Zhang Fan wasn't on duty, they were reluctant to let Zhang Fan do it. Zhang Fan had no choice. They couldn't pull the patient to the first Department of orthopedics. Wang Yanan was still angry about this. He wanted to defend Zhang Fan against injustice. Zhang Fan persuaded her: "it's friendship to let you do it, but it's right not to do it. There's no need to be angry. Take your time. " Although Wang Yanan's idea is very naive, Zhang Fan's heart is warm.

Zhang Fan puts too much pressure on the doctors of the second Department of orthopedics. Those who didn't like emergency treatment before are rushing to do it now. There's nothing wrong with practicing more. Zhang Fan's example has been hung in the air. If everyone hasn't acted, the Department will have no hope.

Li Xiao casually said that her assistant remembered, made an appointment with Zhang Fan, went to the vehicle management office and transferred the ownership of the car to Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan really doesn't want it. First, it's difficult to repay the favor. Second, the car really costs oil. He has driven overbearing. Although they are all off-road, this guy really consumes too much fuel.

Zhang Fan is not on duty at the weekend and can't go to the emergency room. He simply contacted Li Liang and Wang Yanan to invite them to dinner.

Every time I go to Quark County, either Lao Chen or Li Liang arranges food and drink for Zhang Fan. Li Liang came to the city. It's unreasonable not to invite others to dinner. Moreover, Wang Yanan has been with Zhang Fan for several months. She has contracted all the trivial work. She should also thank others.

In the past, the ownership of the car was not transferred, and Zhang Fan was embarrassed to drive and boast. Now the ownership has been transferred, and there is no need to hide it. He drove the car and took them to have a hot pot. Zhang Fan doesn't like beef and mutton very much, but it's OK to rinse hot pot.

"Hum! It's strange that you're finally willing to treat me to dinner. I have a driver's license now. Let me drive later. " As soon as he got on the bus and said hello to Li Liang, Wang Yanan began to show off her driver's license.

When she came back from the countryside last time, she went to learn a driver's license. Although there is no car at home, her father's special car is for her to practice. It has been rubbed several times.

Little fat Li Liang usually doesn't talk much, and now there are many valiant Wan Asian men, even less. While Wang Yanan was pestering, Zhang Fan's phone rang.

After Zhang Fan finished the treatment for Shaohua's mother, the effect was good. He gave Zhang Fan the treatment fee, but Zhang Fan didn't want to live or die. It's human. I have to pay it back. It was the weekend. Shaohua took Jia SuYue and prepared to invite Zhang Fan to dinner.

"Why do you invite him? It's not that you can't look at others. It's not necessary! " Jia SuYue is not happy with Zhang Fan. A little doctor can't do it. It's mainly because Zhang Fan ignores her.

"Come on, you have nothing to do. When you go, you can be a mute. Don't talk to him." Shaohua took Jia SuYue's hand.

"You won't like that black guy!" Jia SuYue stared at Shaohua suspiciously and found Shaohua unchanged. Then he said, "I said, that guy is arrogant. He's not your dish. " Arrogant people can't see others being a little arrogant!

"It's a deal. I called him."

"Fight, I can't stand you."

Zhang Fan looked at Shaohua's phone and hurriedly parked his car on the roadside, "Hello! What's the matter? " Shaohua didn't take the initiative to call except that she contacted Zhang Fan for the first time. Zhang Fan thinks her family is ill again.

"Hello, Dr. Zhang, there's nothing wrong. Do you have time today? I want to invite you to dinner. I owe you for my mother's illness last time. I'm sorry I haven't thanked you for such a long time. "

Zhang Fan was elated and hurriedly said, "you're so polite. Where are you? I'll come right away." He didn't even dare to say polite words for fear that the other party would take it seriously.

Then I looked at the two oil bottles in the car. Now I got rid of them. It was too unfair. I gritted my teeth and called: "well, I still have two friends here. I don't know whether it's convenient or not."

"OK, there are more people. Jia SuYue is also there."

"All right." Jia SuYue! Zhang Fan has a headache.

After hanging up, Zhang Fan said to Wang Yanan and Li Liang, "a friend invited us to dinner today. Why don't we get together." Li Liang has no problem. Wang Yanan was a little unhappy. "What? It's your treat."

"It's all agreed. Don't be unhappy. Next time I'll let you choose a place and let you eat enough. In a few days, when you encounter a simple operation, you'll be the main knife and I'll be your assistant. "

"Well, reluctantly." The corners of Wang Yanan's mouth are cocked up. He can't be proud and reluctantly.

At this time, Li Liang said, "brother, is it a woman?"

"Yes! Yes. "

"Your girlfriend?" Wang Yanan is coming.

"No."

"No, no wonder you are so generous. Don't worry. For your generous face today, I will praise you like a flower in front of your girlfriend. I must have more surgery in the future. "

Shao Hua booked a box in a chain hot pot shop. The taste is average, but the environment and service are good. The tea vegetable market is not big. Zhang Fan drove there in more than ten minutes.

Shao Hua and Jia SuYue are already upstairs. The three entered the box. Before Zhang Fan introduced them, Shaohua, Jia SuYue and Wang Yanan had hugged each other, "Yanan! I haven't seen it for many years. I thought you went to the mainland. "

"No, I came back after I graduated from medical school. What about you two. I want to die. I haven't seen it since I graduated from high school. "

Zhang Fan and Li Liang watched them talk about the past. They were high school classmates. At that time, they didn't have a QQ or anything. The University was not in a city. They slowly lost contact. Although their relationship with Wang Yanan was average in high school, they didn't understand the value of high school friendship until they grew up. Now when old classmates meet, several people are very excited.

Zhang Fan and Li Liang were ignored for a long time. When they had had enough intimacy, Shao Huacai said shyly, "I'm so sorry to meet my old classmates. I really want to thank Zhang Fan, otherwise I don't know when I can see ya Nan. " Then he said to Li Liang, "what a neglect."

"Oh, that's what Zhang Fan said." Wang Yanan said in surprise without waiting for Zhang Fan to talk to Li Liang. And he kept squeezing Zhang Fan's eyes.

Zhang Fan's face turned red in an instant, black and red! Jia SuYue didn't know why, so he asked, "what did you say. How are you with him? "

Wang Yanan saw Zhang Fan's embarrassment, smiled and didn't go on. Instead, he said to Jia SuYue, "he is my master and has exploited me for a long time. Today, he was going to invite Li Liang and me to dinner. As a result, Shaohua's phone came. He put down the phone and came. This is Li Liang, Doctor Li, a surgeon in Quark county. "

Long face, really give Zhang Fan long face. In a few words, Zhang Fan smiled.

"He! Your master? " Jia SuYue asked in surprise that she knew that Zhang Fan graduated in the same year as them, and Wang Yanan graduated a year later than them. Can she be a teacher a year later? This master is too worthless.

"You don't know. Zhang Fan is very good in the hospital. We went to quark county hospital. When he went, the pomp and the president of the hospital were shocked. If you don't believe it, ask Li Liang. They used to work in a unit. Later, Zhang Fan was admitted to the municipal hospital. It is said that the hospital also customized places for him. "

Zhang Fan has made up his mind to let Wang Yanan stand in the first Department of orthopedics in the future. It's so righteous. It's better than gay friends. Real iron son.

"Really!" Jia SuYue didn't believe it.

Shao Hua was also surprised. The boy opposite was not calm, and seemed to know a lot of people. She was surprised at this. After all, a newly graduated student has a lot of skills.

"Eat and talk. I'm hungry. You guys order the menu. We don't have any taboos. What about ya Nan? Can you eat spicy food. I remember when you were in high school, you could eat. I don't know if you can eat now. "

"I don't care. I can do anything."

Zhang Fan wants to refuse, but Shaohua must let Zhang Fan order. It's a hot pot. It's not good to let people come and go. Zhang Fan and Li Liang began to order.

The three of them gathered their heads together and muttered. Zhang Fan ordered two plates of meat and several vegetables. Li Liang's heart had long wondered where to fly, and randomly pointed to the recipe.

Zhang Fan said to Shaohua, "let's see what else you need to add."

Shao Hua looked at it and said, "add some meat, but not enough. Do you drink Baijiu?"

Zhang Fan quickly shook his head. Wang Yanan interrupted, "he's driving."

"Oh, well, Li Liang is not interested in drinking Baijiu alone. I want four bottles of beer bar. Today, first, I thank Zhang Fan for seeing a doctor for my mother, second, I met my new friend Li Liang, and then I had a party with my old classmates. Let's have a little drink. Is that all right? " Then Shaohua looked at Li Liang and several others.

Li Liang is a little reserved. It's not that he pinches, but that he has a crush on Wang Yanan. The valiant Wang Yanan is the one he likes. Zhang Fan and Wang Yanan have an unknown relationship in front. He worries about gain and loss. As a result, after seeing Shaohua, he suddenly felt that his spring was coming.
