Chapter 93

Seriously, this is more disgusting than the corpse in the autopsy room. At least the corpse will not make Zhang Fan so creepy, nor will it make him keep fighting the cold war.

You can't even touch it. This thing is also a psychological factor. Gritting your teeth will pass. Wearing thin film gloves, he gently touched it. The beauty is dense near the anus and vulva. The closer he got, the clearer he saw. Zhang Fan felt that such small flesh pimples began to grow on his face.

Gritting his teeth and touching it, he could feel wet through his gloves“ Dr. Zhang, talk about the characteristics of this foreign body. ”

"Multiple, tough, untouched pain, obvious itching, visible scratches." Zhang Fan stooped down and reached out to touch, his face facing the beauty's ass, which is the distance of an arm. Very close, very close, can feel each other's temperature. Bite your teeth and report the results.

Creepy, there was no response at the peak. After three minutes of examination, Zhang Fan adapted. Although his face is a little itchy, he has to be a ninja. After the physical examination, gulina Zha asked her age and name again. It can be felt that the name should be made up casually, because what she said was not smooth.

"Go and be hospitalized. You have to be hospitalized for surgery."

"Can't you take medicine?"

"It's useless!"

"Well, I'll think about it." With that, the beauty opened the door and left. Zhang Fan didn't delay at all. He quickly took disinfectant and washed his hands. Gulina washed his hands again.

She smiled and said to Zhang Fan, "how's Dr. Zhang? Is it impressive. You can still keep checking. You didn't vomit! Old way! " Then she raised her big finger, but the spray of disinfectant on her hand splashed on Zhang Fan's face.

This time, Zhang Fan really couldn't bear it. His face itched badly and didn't dare to scratch. As a result, he didn't know whether Gulee intended it. Zhang Fan directly stuffed his head into the alcohol bucket of his hand. Medical alcohol! After coughing and choking for half an hour, I finally felt refreshed.

Gulina Zha looked at Zhang Fan with a smile. After Zhang Fan's tossing, she said, "Dr. Zhang, this is condyloma acuminatum. Go back to the book and think about the physical examination in front. You will never forget this disease in your life. Go first after work. I'll write down the outpatient medical record." Zhang Fan was not polite either. He quickly took off his white coat and left.

Condyloma acuminatum (CA) is a sexually transmitted disease caused by human papillomavirus (HPV) infection, mainly characterized by proliferative damage to anogenital parts. Most of them occur in middle-aged and young people aged 18 ~ 50. After about half a month to 8 months, the average incubation period is 3 months. The disease is more common and is mainly transmitted through sexual contact.

After some tossing, Zhang Fan's face was a little ugly. He endured nausea and soaked in alcohol again. It would be strange if he could be better. Today's appointment is for Shao Hua to have dinner. If anyone else, Zhang Fan will definitely stand up.

Shaohua also takes care of Zhang Fan. He eats near Zhang Fan's hospital. After dinner, they take a walk, which is equivalent to sending Shaohua home. Shaohua can eat hot pot, other fried dishes, and she can't eat much in restaurants.

Shaohua has been in the hot pot shop for half an hour. When Zhang Fan hurried to the hot pot shop, Shaohua said, "what's the matter, isn't he comfortable?"

"No, I just met a disgusting thing today. I'm a little nauseous."

Shao Hua looked curious about the baby. Zhang Fan waved his hand: "forget it, it's disgusting. If you say it, don't want to eat again today. Have you ordered yet? "

"Yes, what would you like to eat? Look, how many more?" Shaohua handed the menu to Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan didn't answer it and said directly, "I'm really sorry today. I wanted to have a hot pot with you. It's an invitation to the kitchen god, but now I don't have any appetite."

"Hehe, it's all right. Then watch me eat. I didn't expect you to be superstitious. When the kitchen is decorated, we have to invite immortals. "

"Ah! Even if other immortals don't believe it, the kitchen god still needs to believe it, or there will be no food. " Although Zhang Fan's joke is not funny, it is also a step forward in the development of their relationship.

Zhang Fan really didn't have much appetite. After the hot pot came up, he casually ate some. After drinking a few mouthfuls of iced Jianlibao, he relaxed a little. However, he still had no appetite for meat, so he took a few mouthfuls of green vegetables.

When we were about to finish eating, the waiter came: "Sir and madam, we are giving guests today. We specially sent a plate of tofu and Flammulina velutipes. I hope you two have a good meal."

Zhang Fan, who had already suppressed his nausea, turned around and looked at the Flammulina velutipes, which were densely placed on a small plate. The mushroom heads looked like what he saw this afternoon. And Zhang Fan was sitting outside. The waiter was standing. The plate of Flammulina velutipes was facing the back of his head. As soon as he turned his head, he directly faced it.

In an instant, the situation that he examined the beauty between his legs came out directly. How similar, the distance is so far and so dense. Pooh! After a while, Zhang Fan threw up directly. He really couldn't hold it down. Jianlibao's gas was too strong, almost like a blowout.

The waiter was stunned. I just said two words. Is it so disgusting! Black trousers are covered with green vegetable leaves. Shao Hua was nervous. "What's the matter? Come on, I'll take you to the hospital! " Zhang Fan's ashamed face didn't dare to lift it. Shaohua put three hundred on the table, and the meal money was more than one hundred, but Zhang Fan threw up a pair of trousers.

Out of the restaurant, Zhang Fan is fine, and Shaohua doesn't have to help“ What's the matter with you today? What did you see? You turned around and threw up. "

"I can't say that it's better for me to vomit alone than for both of us!" Zhang fanyue said that Shao Huayue was curious. The girl's character was also very resolute. Otherwise, she would not be the first in the civil service exam.

"Come on, I'll listen to how disgusting it is and experience the hard work of your doctor."

"Really want to listen?"

"Listen!"

"Well, you forced me."

Zhang Fan took Shaohua and sat on the bench in the park, talking from the beginning. Shao Hua, OK! Can bear to listen, although has been frowning. But don't let Zhang Fan stop.

When Zhang Fan said, "the moment I turned my head, I thought those meat bumps were on the plate!" Shaohua vomited as soon as he said this! He beat Zhang Fan's arm and vomited while beating.

Passers by looked at the two young people strangely. An old man said to the old lady, "you see, that pair is definitely pregnant. Look, it's still a boy, otherwise it won't vomit so violently!"

With such a fuss, they can't walk. Zhang Fan takes Shaohua to drive. He has to send them back quickly. Don't say the reason again. I'm afraid you'll vomit.

This time, they suddenly brought their relationship closer. Shaohua will also help Zhang Fan to see the decoration of the house when he is busy.
