

Medical road

Chapter 96

At night, Shaohua's father didn't want to come, so her mother forced her to come. Zhang Fan was ready early. Shaohua's father's cervical massage several times is no big problem.

In the consulting room of the first Department of orthopedics, Zhang Fan called the head nurse in advance and asked her to find someone to clean up. Although he didn't succeed with Jia SuYue, it's not Zhang Fan's problem. Zhang Fan gave the head nurse enough face, and Miao Juan was also satisfied. A phone call, Miao Juan immediately asked the little nurse to clean up the house.

The favor in the unit is that you give me face, I give you face, and get along slowly. Unless you are a leader, who will help you in vain.

Doctors and nurses, in particular, are actually two groups to tell the truth. The larger the hospital, the more obvious.

Not to mention China, a large part of nurses in the United States are African Chinese. Why don't Whites do it? The salary is not only tired, dirty but also dangerous. If you can have other choices, you will never be a nurse.

There may be many nurses in general hospitals, but they won't be rich. The daughter of any family is forced by life to do this job. A needle didn't go in, and being beaten didn't happen. It's better in recent years. The legal system is gradually improved, which makes these angels in white feel a little safe. They've been beaten before. What can you do to me when they meet powerful people!

Respect is not only in language, but also in action. Miao Juan packed up the treatment room and didn't leave when she got off work. She waited for Zhang Fan to see who she brought. Zhang Fan doesn't do much in general. If she can ask her for help, the person who needs treatment is very special, so she is curious. Women's curiosity is not ordinary.

Zhang Fan took Shaohua to his parents and received them from the first Department of orthopedics at the gate of the hospital. There were many people greeting along the way, "Doctor Zhang, why go."

"Dr. Zhang, your parents?"

A little familiar, a little closer, and someone who knows Zhang Fan asks, "mother-in-law?"

Being able to joke with you means being close to you. Shaohua's parents were also surprised. They were all people who had worked in class. At a glance, they knew that Zhang mortal was not bad. After entering the first Department of orthopedics, Miao Juan has done matchmaking many times. At a glance, she knows that Zhang Fan is very attentive to the old couple and is very attentive to those who push the door and block people around.

"Oh! When is the treat, Dr. Zhang? "

"The head nurse is joking." It's not easy to introduce. Zhang Fan smiled, "I'm going to give my uncle a physiotherapy. I'll trouble the head nurse today."

"Look what you said. What's the trouble? Go to treatment." While talking, he secretly observed the two old people. Dressed in ordinary clothes, although women's temperament is very good, they are also ordinary people. Compared with Jia SuYue's parents, it is more obvious.

"I don't know whether Zhang Fan is unlucky or Jia SuYue is unlucky, alas! It's a pity. Still young. " She felt that Zhang Fan and Jia SuYue were strong alliances. Zhang Fan's technology, personality and Jia SuYue's family background may have an impact on the dean's position.

"Xiao Zhang, you are very popular."

"It's OK, aunt. There's a stool here. Sit down for a while and I'll treat my uncle."

"OK, you don't care about me. I've been sitting all day. It's all right to stand for a while."

Whether it is to treat Shaohua's father or other patients, Zhang Fan is very attentive. If he eats this bowl of rice, he must pay for it. To be professional is professional ethics, and to be frank is to have a conscience.

"Xiao Zhang, how old are your parents and how are you. Are you a single child? "

"My parents are fifty-five and in good health. I have a sister at home. I will take the college entrance examination this year."

"Oh, that's good. Have you retired?"

"Hehe, the efficiency of the factory is not good. It was laid off directly a few years ago. Now there is a small supermarket in the community. "

"That's also good. People just can't be idle. You see, we haven't been idle for a long time. It's either uncomfortable or uncomfortable."

"Auntie, you and uncle look OK. Why don't you come to the hospital tomorrow morning and don't eat? I'll take you for a physical examination and a comprehensive examination. Regular checkups are best when you are old. "

"Besides, a relative at home is getting married these days. He's a little busy." Shaohua's family has a relative to get married, but this is all an excuse. If you want to have a physical examination, you have to discuss with Shaohua. If you don't have a good relationship, you'll be a little confused if you trouble others.

After the treatment, Shaohua's parents wanted to go back. Zhang Fan refused to let him go. "It's time to eat now. Go after eating. There are several restaurants here. The taste is good."

"I really don't need to go back and cook for Shaohua." Shaohua's mother said.

"It's okay, aunt. I've already sent a text message to Shaohua. She came right after work."

Many people are not surprised. They have come to the door. There's nothing to be ashamed of. Shaohua's mother looked at Shaohua's father, "that's all right." Although the old man didn't have a good face, he agreed to stay for dinner.

Zhang Fan didn't find any big hotels. First, there were no hotels around, and they were all ordinary people. There was no need to talk about the pomp. Not long after entering, Shao Hua came, "Xiao Zhang must keep it for dinner, you see ~ ~" Her mother explained to Shaohua.

"You're really welcome." Shaohua sat down and whispered to Zhang Fan.

Zhang Fan pretends not to hear. Shaohua is responsible for ordering. The old couple are unwilling to order. Zhang Fan doesn't know what they like to eat, so he asks Shaohua to order. Ordered five dishes and a soup.

When Shaohua's father eats, he wants to drink one cup, not much, just two Liang. And the first time we had dinner together, it was not good without a drink. Zhang Fan asked, "uncle, have a drink!" Shaohua's father hesitated and glanced at his wife. "Then have a drink." The local wine in the border area has one characteristic: it is crisp and transparent. When you drink it, it is spicy from mouth to stomach.

It's hard to say whether this is true or not. But Shaohua's father believes it. This is why he wants to drink. Even if he is greedy for wine, it's not bad for this meal.

When the food was served, Zhang Fan poured wine for Shaohua's father. No one else drank it. Zhang Fan didn't pour it himself“ Why don't you pour it? ” Shaohua's father asked.

"Uncle, I don't drink well. I seldom drink."

"Pour it on and have two drinks with me."

No way, Zhang Fan poured himself a cup, drank it, and got drunk at a big deal“ Eat first. Drinking on an empty stomach hurts your stomach. ” Shaohua's mother sandwiched vegetables for Zhang Fan.

Zhang Fan went to work for two years. Although he had drunk several times, he was persuaded back early every time. In fact, he didn't know much about the rules of the wine shop. Shaohua's father waited for a long time and didn't see Zhang Fan toast. He also had to observe Zhang Fan after drinking. He took the initiative to pick up his glass and said, "come to Dr. Zhang, let's have a drink. Thank you for treating me."

No matter how excellent the other party is, as Shaohua's father, his heart is not strong. Although he expects his daughter to grow up and have his own happy family as soon as possible, on this day, his heart is reluctant to give up and turns into a deep sadness.

"To my uncle." Zhang Fan said with a glass, and the mouth of the glass was slightly lower than Shaohua's father's glass to show his respect.

Zhang Fan didn't improve his drinking capacity at all. He couldn't drink it naturally. After the first cup, he began to feel dizzy after a while. Some people talk a lot after drinking, some people are speechless after drinking, and Zhang Fan is dizzy after drinking.

Shao Hua looked at Zhang Fan, it seemed a little shaking, but a glass of Baijiu, she drank all right, did not care, just to Zhang Fan for a cup of warm tea water.

This action made her father even more unhappy. Her little girl, little cotton padded jacket, was about to talk to others. Would you like it? She held up a wine glass to touch it. "Drink slowly. You haven't eaten a few dishes. What's the hurry?" Shaohua's mother is afraid that Zhang Fan thinks Shaohua's father is an alcoholic.

"Men can drink, but they can't drink. Let me have a few more drinks with Dr. Zhang. " He looked at Zhang Fan and didn't listen to his wife. For many years, Shaohua's mother immediately understood the meaning of her old man and did not dissuade her.

After several drinks, Zhang Fan was persuaded to retreat, knocked his head on the table and got drunk directly.

"Zhang Fan? Zhang Fan? " Shaohua shook Zhang Fan's arm and cried softly.

"Well! I'm drunk. " Shaohua's father, who had to clink a glass, held up the glass and said to his wife.

"Is he okay. You don't have to go to the hospital. " Shaohua is a little worried. Her father said she had never seen such a fast drunkenness.

Her father looked at Zhang Fan and said, "ha ha! It's all right. I'm really drunk. Look at the flow of saliva! "

"Look, look now. I really can't say you. What now? " Shaohua's mother complained.

"Ah! I wanted to see his wine style, but it turned out to be good. What else can I do? Just help me home and sleep. "

"That's all he can do. He's drunk and can only take it home. Shao Hua, take a taxi and your father and I will hold him. " Put the drunk Zhang Fan to the hospital or return to Zhang Fan's house. Their family can't do it. It's too careless.

Zhang Fan's brain is too sensitive to alcohol to directly suppress the central nervous system. My whole body is soft and I don't know anything. Fortunately, I didn't vomit!
