Chapter 1251: Han Zhuoli Really Had Ill Intentions

Han Zhuoling was afraid that the pictures would not be enough to agitate Han Dongping.

Hence, he sent all of them to Han Dongping.

Han Dongping scrolled through the pictures one by one.

The pictures had captured the front of Xia Yixin's face. The quality of Lu Man's camera was not bad. Even the pictures she took at night were clear enough for Han Dongping to recognize that it was Xia Yixin. He could no longer refute the claim by saying that the picture was blurry.

Aside from a few pictures that caught the front view of Xia Yixin's face, Xia Yixin was facing Chen Zefeng most of the time.

Both of them were chatting and all smiles. One could tell from the pictures that they were really close.

The pictures after those became even more unsightly.

Chen Zefeng was hugging Xia Yixin as if there as no one around and was then kissing her face and her lips.

Xia Yixin was totally being coquettish.

Han Dongping's expression became aghast and his face turned purple as he stared at these unsightly pictures.

Han Dongping probably just felt that he had lost face.

Only Lin Liye really felt heartache for Han Zhuoling.

She also agreed with Han Zhuofeng. "Divorce! They must get a divorce!"

Han Dongping wanted to say something, but Lin Liye cut him off and said angrily, "Don't tell me you still want to say that we can't tell from these pictures that it's really Xia Yixin?"

Han Zhuofeng felt that there was something he had to say.

"Mom, Brother, don't get angry when I say this," Han Zhuofeng said in a slightly smaller voice.

He was not afraid for Lin Liye's sake; he was afraid for Han Zhuoling's.

Han Zhuoling turned and raised his eyebrow as he asked, "What is it? Why do you sound so guilty?"

"I... I took Linkai's saliva and your toothbrush and went to the identification center with Big Brother to do a DNA test," Han Zhuofeng said in a small voice. He even stole a furtive glance at Han Zhuoling's expression.

However, at this point in time, Han Zhuoling was still remaining nonchalant.

"What!" Lin Liye was shocked and angry, but it was not directed towards Han Zhuofeng. "You... you guys suspect that Linkai..."

Han Zhuofeng explained carefully, "Big Brother and Xia Yixin both have detached earlobes, but Linkai doesn't. Mom, although you don't have detached earlobes, all the children of the Han Family have them, even if their mothers do not. It's just like me and Big Brother, both of us have them.

"Still, I also think that this cannot be counted as reasonable evidence. Cross-generational inheritance is possible, but I cannot help but think about Xia Yixin's behavior ever since Big Brother and she came back. Each time any of us in the family get close to Linkai, she would always guard against us and stare at us until we feel uncomfortable and don't want to get any closer." Han Zhuofeng simply called him Linkai and did not use the Han family name anymore.

In his heart, he already felt that Han Linkai was 99% not part of the Han Family, so he might as well just call him Linkai.

"I cannot help but think how, in the past, we always thought that Xia Yixin just cared too much about her son, but what if it's not that? Perhaps Xia Yixin was actually afraid that we would discover something amiss, so she always kept a tight watch on us," Han Zhuofeng said. "So I think that whether or not Second Brother's guess is true, at least we have to go and check first and confirm it. Or else, it will always be a thorn in our hearts."

Han Dongping scoffed angrily and said, "Han Zhuoli indeed has ill intentions! Just because of such baseless rumors, he even suspected Linkai and said he's not a child of our family."

Lin Liye could no longer be bothered to scold Han Dongping and just treated his words as if they were his farts.

Han Zhuoling and Han Zhuofeng shared the same chemistry with her.

"Big Brother, I'm sorry, I did this behind your back," Han Zhuofeng said carefully. "Second Brother said that if the result proved that he was wrong, he would personally come and apologize to you."

Chapter 1252: Shameless

Han Zhuoling nodded. Before he could say anything, the doorbell rang.

Han Zhuofeng glanced at Han Zhuoling and immediately went to open the door.

Lin Liye rushed to follow them.

Han Dongping's face was aghast as he gritted his teeth and followed after them.

The door opened, and Han Zhuofeng saw Xiao Guo and Xiao Chen dragging in Xia Yixin and Chen Zefeng, respectively.

Both of them pushed Xia Yixin and Chen Zefeng to the ground. Xiao Chen said to Han Zhuoling, "Young Master Ling, these two were caught on the spot by Young Master Han. We've sent them to you now."

They then turned to Chen Zefeng. Wasn't he the same man in the pictures?

One could forcibly say that the woman in the pictures might not be Xia Yixin or could just be someone who looked like her, but how do you explain Chen Zefeng?

With Chen Zefeng around, there was no way Xia Yixin could get herself out of it.

Lin Liye was so angry that she lifted her hand and slapped Xia Yixin. "So this is how the Xia Family taught you!"

Seeing that Han Zhuoli was not around, she did not know if he decided not to interfere once he'd handed them over.

"I was wronged!" Xia Yixin's hands and feet were still tied as she lay on the floor and cried. "It's Han Zhuoli who accused me! I went out to shop today and was fine when I was suddenly captured. I don't even know what was going on. Then came the two of them!"

Xia Yixin glared hatefully at Xiao Guo and Xiao Chen. "They were discussing how to accuse me of having an affair."

"Stop twisting your words!" Han Zhuofeng pointed at Xia Yixin. "The pictures have already been taken. Are you still going to say that the pictures were deliberately photoshopped to incriminate you? What are you? Are you worth my Second Brother spending so much effort just to wrong you? What good is there for him to wrong you?!"

"How would I know what he's thinking? He probably doesn't want our family to do well!" Xia Yixin said.

Han Zhuoling suddenly walked over.

Seeing how cold Han Zhuoling looked, Xia Yixin shuddered in fear.

Han Zhuoling squatted down and rested his arms leisurely on his kneecaps. "Tell me, what does he need to want us to be in a bad state? He is the heir to the Han Family, the future head of the household. Everything in the Han Family belongs to him. He does not need to play any tricks. After Zhuoli becomes the head of the family, as long as it's his orders, everyone in the Han Family has to listen to him. As the head of the Han Family, he doesn't want us to do well, you say?"

Han Zhuoling smiled lightly. He threw a glance before saying to Xia Yixin sarcastically, "A person would only go out of their way to accuse other people when he's not as good as they are."

Han Dongping froze when he heard that and felt uncomfortable all over.

He had a feeling that Han Zhuoling was mocking him. If not, why would Han Zhuoling glance at him?

"When a person is already standing at the top and looking down at ants, tell me, will he put in the effort to go and harm those ants at the bottom of his feet?" Han Zhuoling sputtered out in laughter and stood up. "How long have you been with him?"

"I'm not, I'm really not!" Xia Yixin was already caught red-handed, but she still insisted on denying it.

She could not admit it. If she admitted it, she would be finished.

Even if she had to deny everything and play dirty, she could not admit to it.

Wasn't it just a few pictures?

It's not as if they were caught in bed!

“You’re shameless!” Lin Liye was so furious, even the finger that she was pointing at Xia Yixin was shaking.

At that moment, Han Zhuoli finally arrived.

That was why the scene when he’d just opened the door happened.

He saw Xia Yixin and Chen Zefeng lying on the floor and everyone else standing before them.

“Uncle, Auntie,” Han Zhuoli called. He then turned to Han Zhuoling and greeted him, “Big Brother.”

Chapter 1253: It’s an Ornament

Han Zhuoling was again unsurprisingly calm.

Han Zhuoli could not help but feel a little thankful. Perhaps Han Zhuoling did not have any feelings for Xia Yixin. This was actually a good thing. At least, now that something like this had happened, Han Zhuoling would not be hurt emotionally by Xia Yixin.

Han Dongping scoffed and did not give Han Zhuoli a good look.

Han Zhuoli did not care either.

Lin Liye walked over and said, “Zhuoli, you went to get a DNA test done for Zhuoling and Linkai?”

When Li Liye said this, Xia Yixin’s expression finally changed and showed that she was scared.

Han Zhuoli noticed and said, “The results will be out in two days.”

“Han Zhuoli, you’re accusing me!” Xia Yixin shrieked. “Who knows whether you faked that result or not? Linkai is Zhuoling’s son.”

“If you don’t believe Zhuoli, then I will bring Linkai there personally to do the DNA test,” Han Zhuoling said. “I promise it won’t go through another person’s hands. How’s that?”

Han Zhuoling finally threw a glance at Chen Zefeng and said, “I might as well also take a sample of his DNA for testing.”

Xia Yixin’s face turned pale in a split second. What was there not to understand with that look?

Han Zhuoling did not waste his breath on her. He called his own lawyer and asked him to come over to draft a divorce agreement.

“I’m not getting a divorce!” Xia Yixin shrieked. “Zhuoling, forgive me this once! I don’t want a divorce!”

She had an affair and got together with her lover just to satisfy her own emotional and physiological needs.

Actually, this was all also because her life was too good and she had nothing better to do—that was why she had the energy to think about all these so-called emotional emptiness and to think of all these nonsense.

If she had things to be busy about or if her life was not so carefree and she had to work hard to live, she probably would not have the energy to think about all these things.

“You did such a thing and you still have the shame to ask Zhuoling for forgiveness? How are you so shameless?!” Lin Liye screamed.

“If he was not concerned merely with work and did not care about me at all, would I have done this?” Xia Yixin turned around to accuse him. “He doesn’t have a heart for me at all. Usually when I’m at home, he just treats me like I’m invisible. Every day, aside from work, he focuses on more work. In his eyes, there is only work. His work is even more attractive to him than I am. He doesn’t care about me at all and never treated me like a wife. A wife like me is nothing but a vase, an ornament to put on display for other people to see!”

“Is this your reason for having an affair?” Han Zhuoli scoffed. “Your carefree life only came about because of Big Brother’s hard work. You’re spending his money and even disdained him for neglecting you because of his work. You then used his money to go on dates with other people, and now you still have the shame to accuse my big brother of not treating you well?”

Listening to Xia Yixin’s words only made Lin Liye feel terrible.

Han Zhuoling did not like Xia Yixin, and he only cared about work because he had no feelings for her.

If there was anyone who Han Zhuoling cared about, he would not be like that.

Due to the boredom in his life, he channeled all his energy to work.

Even then, Han Zhuoling did not do anything to betray Xia Yixin!

Han Zhuoling did not like Xia Yixin, but since he married her, he would stay faithful to this marriage.

He’d fulfill his duty as a husband.

This was Han Zhuoling’s character. It would be tough for him to truly fall in love with a woman.

He could only develop feelings for the other party over time through interaction.

However, Xia Yixin only wanted to be pampered by a man who would coax her and treat her like a princess. She did not want to put in the effort herself.

She did not want to try and get close to Han Zhuoling and get to know his heart.

Chapter 1254: Get It from Him

She never tried to care about Han Zhuoling and only knew to hold a grudge against Han Zhuoling for how he did not treat her well.

If she did not want to put in effort right from the start, how would she be able to get any in return?

Now, she even blatantly complained about Han Zhuoling!

Lin Liye screamed angrily, “No matter how much Zhuoling neglected you, he had never been unfaithful to you! You are accusing him, but have you ever reflected on yourself? Have you ever put in the effort? Have you ever cared about him? When he was busy with work, have you ever asked him if he had eaten and whether he had slept? You want him to care about you, but have you ever cared about him?”

“Xia Yixin, the marriage between the two of you was never built on mutual affection! You cannot expect two people with no feelings for each other at all to suddenly develop deep feelings for each other. You cannot expect to be pampered like a princess, for everyone to give in to you when you’re being willful to satisfy your teenage romance fantasies. You never cared for him or put in any effort for him. You only know to spend his money and compare yourself with other people outside and be your rich man’s wife. He never blamed you for all these, yet you’re flipping around to blame him? What right do you have?!”

Lin Liye had to admit that she was biased as Han Zhuoling’s mother.

She was more biased towards her own son psychologically.

Usually, though, when there was really something between the two of them, she would not interfere or side with her son.

However, this was her eldest son, who was the source of her pride—her outstanding and righteous son!

Why should he be humiliated by a woman like Xia Yixin?!

When Lin Liye was done scolding Xia Yixin, she glared scathingly at Han Dongping.

If not for Han Dongping’s insistence, Han Zhuoling’s marriage would not have turned into such a traumatizing scene like this!

She had always been envious of Han Xijin and his wife. They were open, and that was why Han Zhuoli’s marriage was also so good.

Before meeting Lu Man, Han Zhuoli was also a bachelor in his prime.

Han Xijin and his wife would always persuade Han Zhuoli to quickly bid farewell to singlehood whenever they saw him.

However, this was merely lip service. They had never forced him to be with someone because of this and never forced Han Zhuoli to marry a woman he did not like.

And now, Han Zhuoli finally met Lu Man.

Look at the kind of life Han Zhuoli was leading after he got married!

His wife was obedient and sweet and considered all things for Han Zhuoli. She would never go and do those things to compare herself with others, and she always put her family first.

Look at Xia Yixin!

Han Zhuoling also wanted to lead a good life with her after his marriage!

If Xia Yixin did not go overboard, why would Han Zhuoling’s heart have turned cold?!

However, who was to blame for this?

Xia Yixin?

She had to be blamed.

But Han Dongping was to blame too!

Why could he not learn to stop?!

But she herself was to blame too, for not being able to fight for her son.

Han Dongping did not have the mind to care about Lin Liye's attitude towards him anymore. His face was turning purple.

He never expected Xia Yixin to really have an affair, and even Han Linkai was 80 to 90% not a descendant of their family!

That despicable woman!

"Since you're so unhappy with my big brother, then quickly get a divorce!" Han Zhuofeng bellowed.

"When you're divorced, you can then go and find someone who can make you happy!"

Han Zhuofeng pointed at the man beside her and said, "Ah, right, you can live with him! Your son must be his too! Since you're so unhappy, why bother asking my big brother for forgiveness?!"

"No, I don't want a divorce. I don't want a divorce!" Xia Yixin repeatedly said.

If she got a divorce, everything would be over!

If she went back to the Xia Family, they would not let her off!

She had an affair and made a cuckold of Han Zhuoling. Even her son was not his.

Chapter 1255: I'm Not Afraid of You Blowing Things Up

She made Han Zhuoling suffer such humiliation. Would Han Zhuoling let her off or let off the Xia Family?

No!

She would not get a divorce!

At that moment, the lawyer hurried in.

"Young Master Ling." The moment he stepped in and saw such a scene, he had indeed got a shock.

"Draft a divorce agreement." Han Zhuoling gestured towards the sofa with his chin, signaling the lawyer to sit down.

The lawyer took out his laptop.

His laptop had a sample format of a divorce agreement. He just had to edit some of the client's requests in it.

The lawyer keyed in Han Zhuoling's requests one by one.

When Han Zhuoling married Xia Yixin, they had signed a prenuptial agreement.

Hence, if they divorced, Xia Yixin would not be able to get a single bit of Han Zhuoling's money.

When Han Zhuoling said he would give his son to Xia Yixin, the lawyer was stunned for a bit.

Usually, a household like this would want to keep the son.

But Han Zhuoling did not want to.

He had a brazen thought in his mind but did not dare to voice it out.

“I don’t want a divorce!” Xia Yixin screamed. “I disagree, don’t you dare think about it! You want to get a divorce with me? Then I will take this to court! If you are not scared that things will blow up and everyone will know, go on and do it!”

Xia Yixin still had some sense in her, or else she would not have thought of this move, sparing a rat to save the dishes.

Since she did not want a divorce, she did not want to completely fall out with Han Zhuoling.

Hence, at this moment, Xia Yixin still had some sense not to spill out her own affair.

Lest she disgraced Han Zhuoling, which would then really be the point of no return for her.

Han Zhuofeng was mad with rage. “Big Brother, what should we do? I’ve never hit a woman before, but I really feel like beating her up!”

Han Zhuoli pressed on his shoulder and said, “Then you can blow things up. The biggest media outlet here is Nan Yin. Don’t you know the relationship between the Nan and the Han families? If it’s a piece of news that Nan Yin would not publish, do you think the Han family would not also be able to silence the rest of the media outlets? By doing this, you will only be dragging out the divorce. The end result would not change at all.

“Oh—no. It’s not that there will be no change at all to the result.” Han Zhuoli stared coldly at Xia Yixin.

His gaze reminded Xia Yixin of what Han Zhuoling had said to her earlier.

Han Zhuoli stared at her as if he was staring at an ant.

“Your sins will have to be borne by the Xia Family.” Han Zhuoli “tsked” at her. “I just don’t know if the Xia Family will be able to handle it.”

Xia Yixin shuddered.

“Don’t forget. I have evidence of your affair. It is not just the pictures,” Han Zhuoli said.

She had a child. That was the most solid evidence.

“We are not afraid of you blowing things up, but we definitely won’t allow you to stay in the Han Family!” Han Zhuoli said coldly.

Strangely, at this kind of moment, Xia Yixin’s mind suddenly became clearer than ever.

She thoroughly cleared out her thoughts and organized them.

Even if the Han Family was not afraid of her blowing things up, even if she let the whole world know about such a shameful thing, the Han Family would not keep her.

Hence, a divorce was the only way to go.

After her divorce, she could only rely on her maternal family.

After all, she really knew nothing.

She went to top universities and received higher education simply because she wanted that layer of prestige to marry into a better family.

She never wanted to rely on her own education or profession to work.

After graduating, she naturally had no job.

After marrying Han Zhuoling, she could just stay at home and spend Han Zhuoling's money.

Now she had to go out and find a job?

That was impossible.

She had long forgotten what she had learned in school.

She could only return to the Xia Family and continue to rely on them to feed her.

She had to think of a way to marry another man who could support her.

However, in a situation like this, she would be divorced with a child tagging along with her.

Chapter 1256: Don't Even Dream of Negotiating Terms

No matter how tight the Han Family kept this under wraps, there would always be someone who would know the insider story.

How could there be any real secrets, especially for people within their social circle?

There would surely be someone who would know why she got divorced.

If they found out that she made a cuckold of her husband and that even her child was not her husband's, who else would dare to marry her?

It would actually be very difficult for her to find someone else.

Perhaps there would be someone, but that person would surely not be as outstanding as Han Zhuoling.

Xia Yixin was really regretting it now.

Thinking of her life ahead made her realize how blissful her life had been before.

A man like Han Zhuoling was really hard to find.

It was really her luck that she managed to marry Han Zhuoling.

But now, everything was over.

Xia Yixin thought about all these as she listened to the conditions Han Zhuoling listed out to his lawyer.

Han Zhuoling really did not have a single bit of feelings for her. He actually did not leave a single benefit for her at all.

He was making her leave empty-handed, and she would have nothing to do with the Han Family in the future either.

There were even conditions like how she could not consider herself as Han Zhuoling's ex-wife.

Actually, this was Han Zhuoling trying to guard against the Xia Family.

Even if they divorced, they had still been in-laws once, so there could still be some ties of kinship left.

They could still continue to use the Han Family's name to their benefit. Such a possibility was 100% possible.

Hence, Han Zhuoling did not want to leave a single chance to the Xia Family and Xia Yixin.

Xia Yixin still tried to struggle, so Han Zhuoli said, "If you obediently sign the agreement now, nothing would happen. If you do not, even without the Han Family settling scores with you, your maternal family will be the first to end your life."

Xia Yixin trembled. Han Zhuoli was not very direct about it, but she actually understood his words miraculously well.

If she did not sign the agreement, the Han Family would surely not let her or the Xia Family off.

The Han Family might not directly deal with a woman like her. They might probably go and deal with the Xia Family instead.

And all of these were because of her.

Why would the Xia Family spare her?

Even without the Han Family doing anything, she would be severely punished by her own maternal family. She did not know what kind of life she would lead going forward.

Xia Yixin trembled. She finally stifled the words that she was about to say.

The lawyer filled in all the conditions that Han Zhuoling requested.

He then did the final checks and edits before confirming that there was no error.

Han Zhuoling's intent was that no matter how long he needed, even if he needed to spend the night there, he would still want the divorce agreement to be done on the spot.

How could the lawyer dare to drag his heels over it? He scrutinized each word carefully until his eyes became bloodshot before he finally completed the divorce agreement. He immediately went to the study to print out two copies of it.

He passed the freshly-printed divorce agreement to Han Zhuoling. Han Zhuoling signed on it without hesitating at all.

Afterward, Han Zhuoling threw the pen in front of Xia Yixin and said, "Sign it."

Han Zhuofeng untied the rope around Xia Yixin's wrists. "Quickly, sign it!"

Given the Han Family's power, could Xia Yixin not sign it?

However, she clearly heard all the terms and conditions that Han Zhuoling had listed out in this divorce agreement just now. She would not get anything at all.

“If you don’t sign it, we will press your thumbprint on it.” Han Zhuoling placed his phone on the table and found the phone number of Xia Yixin’s father, Xia Zhancheng, and said, “Meanwhile, I should also have a good chat with Xia Zhancheng.”

“Wait!” Xia Yixin panicked and wanted to stop Han Zhuoling. “Don’t call! I can sign it, but you cannot reveal the real reason for my divorce to my family!”

“Even at this juncture, you still want to negotiate the terms?” Han Zhuofeng was so angry that he started laughing.

Chapter 1257: You Must Be Happy Over Finding a Plaything to Marry

Han Zhuoling stared at her coldly, making Xia Yixin shudder suddenly.

When Han Zhuoling gave her that look, she finally knew to feel scared.

They had been husband and wife, after all, so she knew well and deeply how scary Han Zhuoling’s methods could be.

Or else, why would the people in the business field be so afraid of going against Han Zhuoling?

Those white people in Europe had always discriminated against yellow-skinned people. They would always hide all sorts of dirty tricks in their business dealings to bully them when doing business.

When Han Zhuoling first went there, he had met a fair share of such incidents.

But what happened after that?

Not a single one of them dared to pull any more tricks. Every single one of them was as obedient as a Pekingese.

She did not know what methods Han Zhuoling had used exactly, but even in that kind of environment, Han Zhuoling could make those local businessmen admit defeat to him.

Now that she met Han Zhuoling’s deep, black gaze, Xia Yixin did not dare to utter a word.

Han Zhuofeng glanced mockingly at Han Dongping. He was even afraid that a mocking look alone would not be enough for Han Dongping to understand him.

After all, he now considered Han Dongping to be like a retarded person.

If he did not make it clear, he would really worry that Han Dongping would not get it.

Hence, Han Zhuofeng stared at Han Dongping, pointed at Xia Yixin, and said, “She could even dream of threatening the Han Family and negotiating terms with us.”

Han Zhuofeng laughed sarcastically. “Dad, how on earth did you lay your eyes on this brainless plaything?”

Han Dongping’s face turned pale with anger. “She’s the stupid one, what has it got to do with me?!”

He did not expect Xia Yixin to actually be this stupid.

Xia Yixin was the one whom he personally approved.

Now that something like this happened, Han Dongping felt ashamed as well.

Especially when he received the disdainful and resentful look from his wife. It made it seem as if he was just as dumb.

Han Zhuoli patted Han Zhuofeng's shoulder as if to remind him that it would not be too late to settle scores with Han Dongping later.

He gestured with his toes to the pen that Han Zhuoling threw over to Xia Yixin and said, "Sign it."

Xia Yixin trembled as she reached out and held the pen, but she could not bring herself to do it at all.

Although her hands were untied, her legs were still tied together, so she could only struggle to crawl towards Han Zhuoling. "I don't want a divorce, Zhuoling, I was wrong! I know I'm wrong now! That child... I don't want that child now! You can do what you want with the child, just forgive me this once!

"Who hasn't made mistakes before? Furthermore, even before our marriage, we all had our own love lives. If we can forgive that, this can be forgiven too! Just pretend that... that we were in love and broke up, then I fell in love with someone else, something along those lines! Zhuoling, please forgive me! I promise, I won't do this kind of thing again next time."

Han Zhuoli almost felt like puking when he heard that.

Lin Liye shouted angrily, "Do whatever we want? How are we supposed to do that? Our family will not stoop to the level of harming a child! That child is yours, you bring it home yourself!"

Xia Yixin seemed not to have heard Lin Liye's words and merely stared at Han Zhuoling.

Han Zhuoling said sarcastically, "Let's not talk about how love and marriage are different. To be in love, there needs to be affection. But I have no affection for you."

Han Zhuofeng took the divorce agreement and pen over and slammed them on the table.

"If you don't sign it, I will call the people from your family over and we can all watch you sign it!" Lin Liye bellowed.

She pointed at Xia Yixin and said to Han Dongping, "You must be happy now over finding a plaything like this to marry into our house!"

After being subjected to a series of criticisms, Han Dongping got so angry that he charged forward in big strides.

Han Zhuofeng thought that he was going to hit Lin Liye and immediately protected Lin Liye by standing in front of her. To their surprise, Han Dongping actually stopped beside Xia Yixin and grabbed her hair before forcing the pen into her hand and screaming, "Sign it!"

Chapter 1258: He Even Plotted Against His Own Father

Han Dongping was probably the only person who was in favor of her in this house, yet he had also become the person who hated her the most.

Xia Yixin wailed, but in the end, she still could not fight against the large, looming presence of the Hans and signed the divorce agreement.

Han Zhuoling calmly passed the divorce agreement to the lawyer and left the rest to him.

The lawyer's forehead was full of sweat. He watched as the scene unfolded so ruthlessly, yet Han Zhuoling remained ever so calm, as if he was not involved in this.

The lawyer could not help but admire him.

Han Zhuoling indeed lived up to his name.

The rumors outside that he was as aloof as a robot were not a lie.

The lawyer put away the agreement and did not dare to show any slack. He promised Han Zhuoling, "Young Master Ling, don't worry. I will definitely settle this with the court as fast as possible."

The lawyer did not dare to stay there any longer. He had already heard too much about the matters regarding the Han Family when he was drafting the agreement here.

Although there was no clear start and end, it was enough for him to roughly understand the whole story.

There might not be any good in knowing the whole truth, and the lawyer knew this point full well.

After finishing his job, he left in a hurry.

Now the house was left only with the Hans.

Han Zhuofeng asked, "What do we do with these two people?"

Judging from Xia Yixin's reaction, Han Linkai—no, he should not be called Han Linkai now. He should be called Chen Linkai.

Chen Linkai was obviously not Han Zhuoling's biological son. There was no need to wait for the DNA results to be out now.

Han Zhuoling asked Han Zhuoli, "The results will only be out in two days?"

"No. Previously, Zhuofeng and I concealed our identities to have the test done. We did not want to make it too obvious, so the identification center only agreed to release the results in one week," Han Zhuoli said.

As he had concealed his identity, he could only turn to his connections to pull strings with the identification center, which meant he also did not use his own identity with the center.

If he'd used his real identity as a Han, the results would have been out immediately.

To protect Han Zhuoling, Han Zhuoli was willing to take precautions.

Han Zhuoling understood Han Zhuoli's concerns and chuckled. "You don't need to worry so much. We can go to the identification center together tomorrow and take the report."

"Big Brother!" Han Zhuofeng obviously knew what this meant.

His elder brother was not afraid of other people knowing that he was made a cuckold!

Han Zhuoling obviously did not care.

There would surely be people talking behind his back, but whatever they said behind his back, he would not know.

So it would not affect his mood.

In front of him, no one would dare to.

If that was the case, why should he be bothered?

Han Zhuoling was just like that. He never cared about what other people said behind his back.

His not having such concerns made his life much easier on many other matters.

"Anyway," Han Zhuoling said mockingly, "everyone knows that I have no feelings for Xia Yixin. She was forced to me by other people."

Han Zhuoling felt that this was not enough to agitate Han Dongping and glanced sideways at the latter before saying, "While they are chewing out my tongue, these people would probably laugh at some other person's judgment as well."

This virtue of not caring about what other people said behind his back was put into use here.

He, Han Zhuoling, never did something that was not meaningful. Many of his actions would someday be put to good use.

Just like now.

"You!" Han Dongping never thought that this unfilial son was even plotting against him!

"Let her bring the child home first," Han Zhuoling said. "If she could even say that just now, it shows that the child clearly isn't from our family."

Xia Yixin glared at Han Zhuoling with hatred all over her face.

Lin Liye felt uncomfortable and terrible seeing this.

Xia Yixin had always kept a tight watch on Chen Linkai and made people feel uncomfortable even just getting a little closer, so it was hard to get close to Chen Linkai as well.

Chapter 1259: If You Dare to Intervene, I Will Have a Fall Out with You

No matter what, when she first learned that Xia Yixin was pregnant far away in Europe, Lin Liye was still very happy.

She even busied herself with preparing the things her grandson would need when he came back next time.

Even if Xia Yixin did not let other people get close to Chen Linkai, Lin Liye's heart still ached for her grandson.

In the end, she poured her heart out for the wrong person.

When the helper carried the sound-asleep Chen Linkai down, Lin Liye still could not help but cry.

He was such a small child, a child whom she had always treated sincerely with all her heart!

Lin Liye's heart felt very conflicted. She did not know how to face this child anymore.

Han Zhuoling remained calm and said to Xiao Chen and Xiao Guo, "Send them and this child back to the Xia Family."

"No! I won't go back! Don't send me back for now! I'll go back by myself, I can go wherever I want to! You can't decide where I should go!" Xia Yixin screamed in panic.

She would definitely need to go back to her maternal home, but not right now.

She had to make preparations before going back.

She couldn't go home like a criminal or someone being "deported."

If that happened, her maternal family would not spare her!

Han Zhuoling probably just ignored her and said, "To the Xias, speak the truth as it is. Let that family know that on this matter, they are not the ones on the side of reason. They should not think of trying to pester us on this."

"Yes." Xiao Chen and Xiao Guo understood and brought the two people as well as the child and left.

Without such a small baby like Chen Linkai around, the house felt as if it became much emptier.

Lin Liye's heart also felt empty because of this.

From now on, this was a private matter concerning their family.

Han Zhuoli felt that it was not convenient for him to stay, so he bade farewell to them.

Han Zhuoling nodded and sent him off at the door. "Thanks a lot."

Han Zhuoli smiled bitterly. "Just don't blame me for being nosy. Once this matter goes out, there will be more commotion to come."

"It's better than being played around with like a fool by Xia Yixin." Han Zhuoling laughed. "Don't think too much about it."

How would there be so many concerns between brothers?

Han Zhuoli smiled. "Then I leave the rest to you guys. I'll head home first."

His mind was still on Lu Man who was at home.

Han Zhuoling nodded. He watched Han Zhuoli leave before closing the door.

“We became a laughingstock in front of Han Zhuoli this time!” Han Dongping suddenly said.

As Han Zhuoling suffered this time, Lin Liye decided not to put up with Han Dongping anymore. She said mockingly, “Who can make a laughingstock of us without this terrible matter? If you want to blame someone, blame the person who forced Xia Yixin in here first!

“You don’t even have the slightest idea how terrible your judgment of people is,” Lin Liye said to Han Dongping. “It’s fine if you always did those conceited and arrogant things that made other people treat you like a joke. But you just had to drag our son into this!”

“Lin Liye, you’re rebelling now, are you?!” Han Dongping’s hollered as his face and neck turned red and pulsed with anger.

“Han Dongping, let me tell you this. You ruined my son’s marriage once already. Next time, if you want to do any more stupid things, go ahead, but don’t dream of interfering in the children’s affairs! As for Zhuoling and Zhuofeng’s matters next time—not just their marriage, this includes their work and life—you are not to interfere in any of them! If you dare to interfere, you and I will have a falling out!

“I really regret how I didn’t just stop you like how my younger sister-in-law does and give our two children space and freedom. Both of them are stronger than you, have more sense than you, and are smarter than you, yet you are still so stupid that you can’t even develop some self-awareness. At least by now, you should have some self-awareness, no?”

Chapter 1260: You Don’t Want to Live with Me Anymore?

“Before this, it was Dai Yiran. Now, it’s Xia Yixin. Both of them were chosen by you, but look at them. Look at what kind of people you chose!” Lin Liye was fuming with rage. “You actually had the gall to introduce her to Zhuoli? Younger Brother and Younger Sister-in-law did not like her, yet you still had the gall to be unhappy about it? What they said was right. You are just an Uncle, not his own father. What right do you have to go and interfere with Zhuoli’s affairs? Luckily, he didn’t listen to you. Or else, that Dai Yiran? She would just have become a second Xia Yixin!

“My fine son, he’s so righteous and outstanding, yet he became a laughingstock for no reason other than Xia Yixin. Zhuoling has already suffered once. Even if I have to fight it out with you, I won’t let you interfere with his affairs again!” Lin Liye had gathered all her energy and wanted to air her grievances all at once.

Looking at her attitude, it seemed like she did not want to continue living with Han Dongping anymore.

“Both of them are more capable than you. What right do you have to make decisions for them? Just because you gave life to them?” Lin Liye took a deep breath. “It’s fine if you are not capable, but you can’t even tell that you’re incapable. This is why you are so stupid!”

Lin Liye really went all out this time and did not hold back her words.

In the past, she would always carefully coax Han Dongping. Now that her attitude had suddenly changed, even Han Dongping could not get used to it.

“So you actually despise me so much.” Han Dongping pointed angrily at Lin Liye. “You’re really rebelling now. Since you despise me so much, why are you still with me?!”

“Wow, I actually don’t want to see this face of yours!” Lin Liye went to the bedroom and put on a coat. “I don’t have time to pack my luggage today, so I won’t pack. I’ll send someone to take my things next time.”

Han Dongping was stunned. He sized up Lin Liye and realized that she was not just scaring him.

She would really rather not pack her luggage and leave just like that.

“You don’t want to live with me anymore?” Han Dongping was utterly stunned and furious.

Lin Liye laughed mockingly. “I won’t divorce you. I still have to hold on to this position and not let another woman come and use her status as stepmother to boss around my sons. I’m not doing it for anything else. I still have to be First Madam Han, simply for my two sons, for Old Mrs. Han, and for Shen Nuo as a fellow wife in the Han Family. It’s not because of you, and definitely not because of the Han Family’s power.”

Han Zhuoling coldly said, “After this incident, Dad, you better open your eyes and see more clearly. However, as for my and Zhuofeng’s affairs, you don’t need to worry anymore.”

“You’re spouting nonsense just like your mom!” Han Dongping shouted.

“It’s not nonsense. I just don’t dare to let you stir trouble in our lives,” Han Zhuoling replied coldly.

He said to Lin Liye, “I just bought a house in B City. It’s just been renovated so it’s ready for moving in. Mom, why don’t you stay there first?”

“No need.” Lin Liye’s maternal family was not an average household either. Lin Liye had her own assets as well. “I have property in B City, I can move in there directly. You can stay in your own house. If you have space, let your younger brother stay there as well so you can take care of him.”

Han Zhuoling laughed. “The villa I bought is large enough for both of you to move in. I’m usually busy with work, I might not be able to take care of him. I think you better take care of us personally. Anyway, I’m single now. There’s no point in me staying in such a big house. Both of us still need you to take care of us.”
