

Mr Han 1921

Chapter 1921: Not So Easy to Bully

In this way, he would then be really assured.

But who would have known that Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing wanted to come at this time?

Xia Qingwei would definitely feel pressured.

And the last thing Wang Juhuai wanted was to give Xia Qingwei pressure.

Lu Wenqing was expressionless. If Wang Juhuai was not around, Lu Wenqing would definitely scoff out loud.

Just for Xia Qingwei, Wang Juhuai pushed everything aside to place her as his top priority.

After saying all these, Wang Juhuai stared at them calmly, as if to say that if they did not agree, he would just sit here and wait.

Wang Taihong nodded with a sullen face. "I got it. She already married you and bore a son for you. Things have already come to this, so no matter what, we can't object to it, right?"

Towards the end, his words had a hint of sarcasm again. Ugh.

Wang Juhuai sighed.

It looked like their attitude could not be changed.

Wang Juhuai rubbed the space between his eyebrows. He really wanted to send them on the plane back to America right now.

They walked all the way to Xia Qingwei's room.

The moment they opened the door, before they went in, they could hear some faint laughter coming from inside.

It was Lu Man watching a popular drama that had aired recently with Xia Qingwei.

It was that drama that Old Mrs. Han had recommended to Lin Liye and Shen Nuo, and it was then recommended by Lin Liye and Shen Nuo to Xia Qingwei.

Since Xia Qingwei was doing her confinement here, she really had nothing else to do.

Wang Juhuai came in first.

"Dad." When Lu Man saw him, she immediately called him.

Xia Qingwei paused the drama. It was being streamed online anyway, so they could pause it anytime.

Right after that, she saw Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing, who walked in after Wang Juhuai.

Ever since Xia Qingwei heard they were coming, she had thought countless times about how she should face them.

Yet when it really came to this moment, Xia Qingwei actually smiled naturally and said, “Dad, Mom.”

Who knew that one day, she would actually greet the two of them like this.

Saying it out was really kind of awkward.

Lu Wenqing smiled and walked up, looking all friendly as she asked, “Qingwei, how’s your recovery?”

“I’m recovering well, I can be off the IV drip after two days,” Xia Qingwei replied.

“That’s quite good. We should have come earlier so we could help out a little. It’s all because of Juhuai. He did not even tell us about such a big thing. We actually had to hear it from another person,” Lu Wenqing said with a smile, as if she was complaining.

This other person was naturally Lin Jinshu.

Although they had not contacted each other for over twenty years, Xia Qingwei still knew very well how close Lin Jinshu and Lu Wenqing had been back then.

And since Lin Jinshu did not give up on Wang Juhuai, she naturally would not end her ties with Lu Wenqing.

Lin Jinshu knew that Lu Wenqing did not like her, so she told Lu Wenqing about her matter, wanting Lu Wenqing to come and deal with her.

Xia Qingwei knew it very well.

Lu Wenqing’s seemingly innocuous words could not hide her schemes from other people.

Much less from Xia Qingwei and Wang Juhuai. Even if Lu Man did not know what happened back then, she could also guess some things roughly.

Now that she’d heard Lu Wenqing say that, it confirmed her thoughts.

She could naturally guess that that “other person” was Lin Jinshu.

Lu Wenqing’s fake smile could deceive others, but it could not deceive an actress like Lu Man.

Lu Man glanced at Wang Juhuai and started to be wary of Lu Wenqing.

Xia Qingwei gave a faint smile. “It’s fine, I don’t need to be taken care of anyway. We have a helper at home, as well as the specialist team provided by Chu Tian. There’s no one else who’s more professional than them.”

With one sentence, she easily rebutted Lu Wenqing’s previous words.

The corners of Lu Man’s lips curved slightly. Her mom was not so easy to bully.

Chapter 1922: Burden

Lu Wenqing smiled, and her eyes landed on the little baby.

The little baby was lying right beside Xia Qingwei.

“Aiyo, this little buddy is really so cute.” Lu Wenqing liked him the moment she saw him. As she said that, she stretched out her finger, wanting to touch his cute little face.

“Mom,” Wang Juhuai called.

Lu Wenqing paused and turned to look at him. “What’s wrong?”

Wang Juhuai said, “The child has just been born a few days ago and his immunity is weak. You both came here after a long flight. Why don’t I send you both back to the hotel first?”

This sentence contained so many parts that made Lu Wenqing and Wang Taihong unhappy. They actually did not know which one to address first for a moment.

Lu Wenqing retracted her hand unhappily.

No matter what, that was her own grandson. She naturally wanted the best for him.

Since Wang Juhuai said this was not appropriate, then she would just not touch him.

But she felt unhappy deep down.

Children nowadays were being spoiled rotten.

Back then, after she gave birth to Wang Juhuai and Wang Jugu and the relatives came, they just touched them straight away and they themselves were not particular about it.

Yet now, she as the biological grandmother still had to consider various aspects when she only wanted to touch her grandson because she liked him.

Putting this issue aside, Lu Wenqing said, “We just arrived. We haven’t said much to Qingwei and did not really take a proper look at our grandson, yet you want to send us back now?”

Wang Juhuai did not want them to add trouble here.

Did they really think that no one could tell what she really meant by those words just then?

Just looking at Lu Man’s knowing look, one would be able to tell that even outsiders would know very well what was going on.

Wang Juhuai said, “You both took a ten-hour flight over here. You couldn’t have had a good rest on the plane and there’s jet lag as well. Why don’t you go back and rest first? We can talk again when your spirits are better. Also, your luggage hasn’t been placed properly. Why don’t you go back to unpack first?”

Wang Juhuai’s words were very reasonable, so Lu Wenqing could not say anything to rebut him.

“It’s better to rest earlier too. Coming all the way here is quite tiring,” Lu Wenqing said somewhat reluctantly. “But why are you sending us to the hotel? I thought we will be staying at your house.”

“Our house doesn’t have any spare rooms,” Wang Juhuai said plainly.

How could he possibly let them come to his house and cause trouble for Xia Qingwei and Lu Man?

“How can that be?” Lu Wenqing did not believe it and got even more angry.

Her own son actually would not even let them stay at his house just because of Xia Qingwei.

From what they knew, that house was bought by Wang Juhuai, and he'd bought a villa. It was spacious enough for him to let them stay.

Their own son's house should be just like their own house.

What right did they have to not allow them to go back to their own home?

They came to visit their son, yet they still had to be treated like guests and sent away to the hotel?

Lu Wenqing was very unhappy now.

Wang Juhuai explained, "At home, there's my and Qingwei's bedroom, as well as Man Man's bedroom. Man Man is also preparing for pregnancy now. After she gives birth, her child can use the baby room together with Yijun. There's also Wei Zhong's room, and the helper's room. As for the other remaining room, that is a room used as my work studio. We already used up all the rooms, there's really no extra room left. We can't possibly let the two of you sleep on the sofa or on a mattress laid on the floor. It's not like we don't have the money to let you stay in a hotel, so staying in a hotel is still more comfortable."

"Why are they taking up so much space?! She—" Lu Wenqing wanted to talk about Lu Man, but she still managed to suppress it.

Lu Man was not even Wang Juhuai's biological daughter. She was just a burden Xia Qingwei brought along with her.

Why was Wang Juhuai still caring for her?

Fine if he saved rooms for Wei Zhong and the helper auntie, but Lu Man was not even staying at his house.

Chapter 1923: Did Not Even Let Them Step into the House

"Based on what you just said, Miss Lu is preparing for pregnancy now." Lu Wenqing's "Miss Lu" directly distanced herself from Lu Man, indicating she did not even consider Lu Man as her kin.

Xia Qingwei's expression turned cold.

Lu Wenqing could put on a fake act and say insinuating things to anger her, but she could not treat Lu Man like that!

Wang Juhuai's face also turned sullen instantly.

Lu Wenqing continued, "Looks like Miss Lu is married?"

Lu Wenqing was doing it on purpose. She clearly saw Wang Juhuai's dark expression, but she still said that.

But clearly, Lin Jinshu did not tell her that Lu Man's husband was Han Zhuoli.

Or else, Lu Wenqing would not dare to be so arrogant.

“Man Man is my daughter, so why are you calling her Miss Lu?!” Wang Juhuai said in a low voice.

“Is that so?” Lu Wenqing acted as if she just knew of that and said, “I heard her surname is Lu, so I thought that she did not stay together with the two of you. And since Lu Man is married, she won’t go back to her maternal home anymore. That room is empty, so it should be fine if you let us use it.”

“Man Man did not change her surname because before I married Qingwei, she was already a famous actress. Lu Man’s name is already widely known by people. If she changes her name, it would not help her career at all. But Man Man and I treat each other like father and daughter. This is a genuine relationship, not something that is just displayed formally through her name,” Wang Juhuai said.

“As for that room, if it’s saved for her, then it is hers. The house really does not have any spare rooms,” Wang Juhuai said coldly. “Anyway, during this period, there’s no one at home. We will all be here accompanying Qingwei. The helper at home will have to stay to take care of her, and I will accompany her here to prevent her from getting bored. Wei Zhong will also run some errands here. No one can take care of you both at home, so you might as well stay in a hotel, which would be more convenient.”

Wang Juhuai already thought of his excuse. His explanation made it so hard for anyone to rebut, so what else could they say?

In the end, they could only reluctantly and unhappily agree to stay in the hotel.

Before leaving with Wang Juhuai, Lu Wenqing still faked a smile and said, “Qingwei, have a good rest. We will come and visit you again tomorrow.”

Xia Qingwei forced a smile and managed to pacify them.

When Wang Juhuai brought the two of them away, Xia Qingwei held Lu Man’s hand apologetically and said, “It’s all because of me that you—”

“Mom, I’m fine.” Lu Man glanced at the door and confirmed there was no one else here before saying, “To be honest, could the two of them even stay in the country for long? They will have to go back sooner or later. And we saw Dad’s attitude. He would not even let them step into the house. Do you think he would let them stay in the country?”

Saying that there was no space at home was just Wang Juhuai’s excuse.

Even if there was no space at home, he could also have invited them into his house for a visit first.

Wang Juhuai did not even mention it, which made it clear that he did not want to entertain them.

He would fulfill the minimal duties required for him to be filial to them, but they should not expect any more from him.

As for Wang Juhuai’s attitude, Lu Man felt especially assured.

At least with Wang Juhuai around, Xia Qingwei would not suffer.

Some men would be sandwiched between their mother and wife, trying to persuade their mother while asking their wife to tolerate and bear with things.

In the end, the wife would have to swallow a bitter pill and suffer, and when he was not around, the mother-in-law would not care about what her son said at all.

In this way, he would neither satisfy his mother nor take good care of his wife, so he would end up not doing anything well.

But Wang Juhuai was different.

What was right was right, and what was wrong was wrong.

If Xia Qingwei was in the wrong today, he would not side with her.

It was just that Xia Qingwei would not behave in that way at all.

Chapter 1924: Not This Attitude Anymore

When his parents were being like this, he just shielded Xia Qingwei from the front to prevent her from suffering any grievances.

“Given how that Mrs. Wang acts, within a few days, Dad will have to send them on the plane back personally,” Lu Man said.

Although she called Wang Juhuai “Dad,” she did not really treat Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing as her grandfather and grandmother.

Even if she wanted to, they did not like it, so why would she find another pair of annoying in-laws for Han Zhuoli?

Since Wang Juhuai’s parents’ gave such an attitude, it saved them a lot of trouble.

“Mom, no matter what they say, you don’t have to be bothered about it. You just need to smile at them and take it as if you’re just giving Dad face. As for the rest, you don’t have to be angry with them, and you don’t need to worry about me,” Lu Man said. “That Mr. Wang and Mrs. Wang look very snobbish just from looking at them briefly. Seeing how they behaved today, they probably don’t know about me and Zhuoli. When they find out, you just wait, they will definitely not show such attitude.”

Lu Man smiled and said, “Whose family doesn’t have a few top-grade relatives? As for this matter, as long as it doesn’t affect your and Dad’s relationship, it will be fine.”

***

Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing got back into Wang Juhuai’s car. Lu Wenqing said unhappily, “We haven’t even had time to take a proper look at our grandson. Are you in such a rush to chase us away?”

“Mom, don’t keep thinking others have bad intentions. I just want to let you both have a good rest, then you can take a proper look at your grandson,” Wang Juhuai said.

Lu Wenqing scoffed and said, “Speaking of that, you treat that Lu Man too well. If she took on your surname, that’s still fine. But for someone who doesn’t even want to change her surname, she still wants to leech off your fame. She’s in the entertainment industry, so she probably uses your connections quite often!”

Wang Juhuai almost laughed in anger. "Lu Man doesn't need to use my connections."

Doesn't need to use?

Both of them just took it with a pinch of salt and did not take him seriously.

Lu Wenqing continued, "I know, because of Xia Qingwei, you treat Lu Man well too. But she is still not your biological daughter after all and has no blood relation to you. There's still a layer of separation. You really don't need to pour your heart and soul out for her. She doesn't even want to change her surname and still wants to take advantage of your fame. What an ingrate. That Xia Qingwei also. How can she not know better and actually allow Lu Man to do such a thing?"

"I already said, Lu Man doesn't need to rely on my resources," Wang Juhuai said. "And you both also think too highly of me. In the domestic entertainment industry, I don't have such a big influence. Although I am famous, I don't have the relevant connections. After all, I have been based overseas for many years and never interacted with the domestic entertainment industry before previously. Their interests are all tied within their circles. Who would give me such face?"

Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing exchanged glances and did not continue speaking for the time being.

When they reached the hotel, he settled the administrative check-in for them.

"You both rest well, I'll get going first," Wang Juhuai said and then left.

Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing were in the hotel room but did not have any intention of resting properly.

"Juhuai is too protective of Xia Qingwei and her daughter. Fine if he is protective of Xia Qingwei, since she's his wife. But why would he bother protecting an outsider like Lu Man? Could it be that in his eyes, we can't even compare to an outsider?" Lu Wenqing said unhappily.

"Hah." Wang Juhuai scoffed disdainfully. "The entertainment industry is such a complicated place. Based on what Juhuai said, before he married Xia Qingwei, she was already famous. Then if she did not have any connections previously, how did she get her resources?"

Lu Wenqing paused for a moment before she said, "You mean—"

Chapter 1925: Not Taking Away Now

"Who knows? She might have just sold herself to get them," Wang Taihong suggested sinisterly. "Or else, how could she become famous?"

Lu Wenqing pursed her lips and said, "When Xia Qingwei was young, I already disliked her and felt that she was too fake. Now what? She bore a daughter who, out of all things, went to work in the entertainment industry. Is that an industry normal people will work in? She actually let Lu Man do that so freely. It's obvious that this mother and daughter pair aren't any kind souls!"

After Lu Wenqing said that, she suddenly raised her voice and said, "No!"

This sound gave Wang Taihong a shock. "What are you doing, scaring people all of a sudden."

“Juhuai clearly intends to stay in the country to accompany Xia Qingwei. With Xia Qingwei and Lu Man around, I am really scared that Yijun will be led astray by that mother and daughter pair. With them as bad examples, what will happen to Yijun in the future? Look at how Xia Qingwei taught Lu Man. It would be strange if she could actually teach Yijun properly,” Lu Wenqing said.

Wang Taihong nodded. “You are right, and the environment here is really too average. Why don’t we bring him back to the States with us and educate him properly so he can get a better education as well?”

Xia Qingwei, Wang Juhuai, and Lu Man still did not know that Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing were thinking of such an idea in their minds right now.

The next day, Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing came very early in the morning.

Lu Man was afraid that the two of them would come and cause some trouble again, so she also came very early in the morning to guard against them.

Seeing that the two of them actually came so early, it was clear that they came with a motive.

Xia Qingwei was shocked too. She had just had breakfast not long ago.

While recuperating at the confinement center, her three daily meals, including her activities, were highly regulated.

Her breakfast would be served punctually at 8 am every day by someone.

It was only 8:30 am now, but coming over from the hotel took time as well, so the two of them really got up early.

“Qingwei, from your complexion, it looks like you got better than you were yesterday,” Lu Wenqing said as she smiled.

“Is that so? I feel about the same every day,” Xia Qingwei replied with a small smile. “The two of you came over so early. Have you had breakfast yet?”

“We did, we ate breakfast at the hotel.” After Lu Wenqing said that, she turned to look at Wang Yijun.

At least she greeted Xia Qingwei, but as for Lu Man, she just completely ignored her.

Lu Man did not care. She did not want to seek presence in front of them to get their recognition.

If she was treated with importance by Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing, wouldn’t that be an insult?

Why don’t they take a look at the kind of people they treat with importance?

People like Lin Jinshu and Wang Qianyun.

At this moment, Wang Juhuai came in.

He went out just now for his morning exercise.

The moment he came in and saw Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing present, he also got a shock. “Dad, Mom, why did you both come so early?”

Lu Wenqing smiled and said, "I missed Xiao Jun, and I hate that I can't just fly over to his side, so I came early in the morning."

She paused for a moment and asked, "Am I giving you trouble?"

Wang Juhuai did not answer her directly and said, "I just didn't think you both will come so early."

Lu Wenqing glanced at Wang Taihong, and Wang Taihong said, "Since you are all here, there's something we want to discuss with you."

Xia Qingwei's heart stopped for a moment.

The two of them could not possibly want to move back to stay in the country permanently.

Wang Juhuai maintained his expression and asked, "What is it?"

"Your mom and I thought about it. Be it the living environment or the educational environment here, we both think it's not good enough, so we want to take Yijun back to America with us for his education. Of course, we won't be taking him away now, the baby is still young after all," Wang Taihong said.

Chapter 1926: Did You Both Not Look Up Man Man on the Internet at All?

"When the child starts to learn how to speak, we will bring him away. In this way, we can expose him to an English-speaking environment from a young age so he can adapt to it faster. Or else, if he goes over only after he grows older, it won't be easy for him to adapt."

Xia Qingwei's face immediately darkened and she clenched her teeth tightly.

She could tolerate Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing, but if they wanted to snatch her son away, she would not tolerate that!

These two people were really out of their minds!

They actually wanted to take the child away!

They made themselves sound so kind and understanding, saying things like the child was still young and that they would wait until the child could speak. By then, the child would only be around one or two years old. Won't the child still be young then?

Xia Qingwei did not even want to fake a smile to patronize them.

She scoffed and turned to Wang Juhuai directly.

Wang Juhuai did not expect that his parents would actually be so out of their minds!

Wang Juhuai scoffed and said, "I will arrange a private jet for you both. The two of you can go back to America tonight."

"What do you mean by this!" Lu Wenqing stared at Wang Juhuai in disbelief.

"Our child will not be given to you both for you to teach. In the future, you both don't need to come over either. During important festivals, I will bring Qingwei and the child to visit the two of you. As for the rest, you both can forget about it,” Wang Juhuai said coldly. “I really did not expect that the two of you would actually come up with such an unreasonable request.”

“We are doing all this for Yijun’s sake!” Wang Taihong said.

“How did you teach your own child to turn out? Do you still have no idea?” Wang Juhuai said mockingly. “Look what Wang Jugu turned the company into. The two of you doted on Wang Qianyun since she was young, but has she found a job now? If not for me back then, she won’t even be able to find a job! And luckily for me, if not for Qingwei’s father and for my violin master, whom I learned from since I was young, I would also have been by your side. Since I wasn’t, I didn’t grow up to have bad character.”

“But all those people the two of you ‘taught’ and who stayed by your side, what have they achieved now? Let’s not even talk about achievements right now. They don’t even have good character! You still have the cheek to talk to me about education?” Wang Juhuai said coldly. “The child is Qingwei’s, so the child has to stay by her side. Stop having those ridiculous dreams of yours!”

“You... You! If not for us, how would you have had the chance to learn the violin? And become a violin master?” Lu Wenqing pointed at Wang Juhuai and said, “How exactly did this woman bewitch you? You are so protective of her and even treat her burden of a step-child like your own biological daughter to provide for. Now, you don’t even want to acknowledge us as your parents!”

Lu Man raised her eyebrow.

Xia Qingwei said coldly, “Mrs. Wang, please be more respectful! With such manners, you still want to raise my son?”

“What’s wrong with my manners? It’s a thousand times better than yours!” Lu Wenqing could not even be bothered to put up the most shoddy pretense now. “You think we don’t know what kind of place the entertainment industry is? Lu Man doesn’t have anything, yet she managed to become famous. Who knows what she sold?!”

Xia Qingwei got so angry that she picked up her cup and was about to throw it at Lu Wenqing.

Nothing good comes out from the mouth of a scoundrel!

In the end, Lu Man stopped her.

That was Wang Juhuai’s mother, after all. She could not do that in front of Wang Juhuai no matter what.

“Enough!” Wang Juhuai stood in front of the bed and shielded Xia Qingwei behind him, making his protective stance clear and obvious.

“The two of you... the two of you are really great, huh.” Wang Juhuai almost laughed in anger. “Did you both not look up Man Man on the Internet at all?”

Lu Wenqing said disdainfully, “Why would we look her up?”

Chapter 1927: It’s All a Misunderstanding

Wang Qianyun badmouthed Lu Man quite a fair bit in front of them too.

But, to cooperate with Lin Jinshu, Wang Qianyun only talked about how Lu Man bullied her in the country. She did not mention Han Zhuoli at all.

Lin Jinshu really knew her ex-in-laws too well. If she'd let them know that Lu Man's husband was Han Zhuoli, how would they gather their fighting spirit?

Luckily, Lu Man and Han Zhuoli's wedding had not been deliberately reported on in foreign newspapers.

That's why they'd managed to keep it from Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing.

It was precisely because of Wang Qianyun's badmouthing that Lu Wenqing had a super bad impression of Lu Man from the start.

Why would she still look up Lu Man on the Internet?

To check how famous she was?

"She just has a little bit of popularity, I don't need to specially look her up," Lu Wenqing said arrogantly.

Wang Juhuai laughed mockingly. "If you'd looked her up, you would have known that whatever you said previously is completely ridiculous! Lu Man does not need to resort to those underhand means at all, and no one would dare to make her do that."

"And a burden?" Wang Juhuai almost laughed in anger. "If anyone's family could have a 'burden' like Lu Man, they would laugh even in their sleep."

"Now, I will give you both some time to look up Lu Man on the Internet, as well as her husband. You can then come and tell me whether she's a burden or not," Wang Juhuai said coldly.

Lu Wenqing was a little unnerved, but because Wang Juhuai said that, she could not help but be curious.

She really took out her phone and started searching right in front of them.

When she typed Lu Man's name in the search bar, the search engine very smartly listed out various messages. In the drop-down bar, there was a line that read, "Lu Man's Husband, Han Zhuoli."

Lu Wenqing's eyelid twitched.

Han Zhuoli?

There was only one Han Zhuoli she knew.

It couldn't possibly be such a coincidence!

If they had the exact same name, that would be too ridiculous.

Lu Wenqing's eyelids shook, and she finally pressed on that line.

After that, many posts and news articles regarding Lu Man and Han Zhuoli appeared.

The most frequent topic was regarding their marriage.

And that time at the film festival, when the two of them announced their relationship publicly.

The news that she found had photos and videos, so it was impossible to be fake.

Lu Wenqing's face changed multiple times.

She looked up in disbelief and felt too embarrassed to look at Lu Man for a moment. She could only stare at Wang Juhuai.

"She... she..."

Wang Juhuai laughed and said, "Did you think she used underhanded means to achieve her status? Who would dare to use underhanded means on her? Take back your dirty thoughts!"

Wang Taihong went over to look at Lu Wenqing's phone screen.

The shock was too great!

Han Zhuoli heard Lu Wenqing and Wang Taihong speaking when he just got here. It made him so angry that he wanted to barge in and let them have a good look at who he was.

But right after that, he heard Wang Juhuai telling them to look up Lu Man online.

Han Zhuoli then suppressed his anger and waited for Lu Wenqing to look up Lu Man. He then came in and even acted as if he did not know anything.

But how well did Lu Man know him? When she saw Han Zhuoli's expression, she knew that he definitely heard something.

Even if the fault did not lie with Wang Juhuai, the trouble that his parents caused still made Wang Juhuai feel very awkward and unable to face Han Zhuoli.

Han Zhuoli did not even look at Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing. Wang Juhuai then knew that, actually, Han Zhuoli had already heard what Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing said.

"Why did you come over so early?" Lu Man asked.

"You're not at home, so there's no point if I stayed at home alone. I might as well come over and accompany you," Han Zhuoli said pitifully. "You keep accompanying Mom these last few days, you don't even have time for me anymore."

Chapter 1928: An Ingrate Indeed

Wang Taihong glanced at Han Zhuoli. He thought about it and decided that they might as well stay.

If they could interact more with Han Zhuoli and pull their relationship closer, there would be many benefits for them.

Wang Taihong prepared to say that they would not be leaving anymore and that would stay in the country often in the future.

Yet before he could say that, Wang Juhuai said, "This time, when you both came over, it's just to see whether Qingwei and the child are well. Both of them are doing very well, so the two of you can put your hearts at ease. Jugu's family needs your care and concern even more, so you both should go back tonight."

“What do you mean by this?” Lu Wenqing was unhappy. “We came all the way here and took a ten-hour-plus flight to come. We barely took a look at Yijun and you want to chase us away already?”

“He’s not chasing the two of you away,” Han Zhuoli said. “It’s just that he really doesn’t have the time to take care of the two of you. It’s not good if the two of you stay in a hotel for the long-term either.”

“Then we can buy a house and stay here,” Lu Wenqing said without even thinking. “Isn’t that simple? Although the houses in B City are expensive, to us, it’s not much.”

And they did not even need to spend their own money. Wasn’t Wang Juhuai here?

Was spending money to buy a house even a concern for Wang Juhuai?

Wang Juhuai laughed sarcastically. “You both really thought it out well. I won’t pay a single cent for the house. If you don’t want to spend your own money, then see if Wang Jugu is willing to buy it for you. Also, if you both want to stay here permanently, I won’t give you the monthly allowance I always gave in the past.”

“Why?!” Lu Wenqing blurted out in anxiety.

But she immediately realized that Han Zhuoli was here, so she did not dare to behave too rapaciously.

“Mr. Wang, Mrs. Wang.” Lu Man spoke at this moment.

Changing the aloofness she had previously, Lu Wenqing answered with all smiles and said, “Man Man, you don’t have to be so formal with us. You can just call us Grandpa and Grandma.”

Wang Juhuai laughed in anger.

“I won’t dare to,” Lu Man said plainly. “You both can just continue to call me Miss Lu.”

Lu Wenqing’s face turned embarrassed and awkward instantly. Lu Man said, “I am just afraid that the two of you might have some misunderstanding, so I wanted to mention it in advance. My dad loves and cares for me, so he will never have any dealings with the Han Family when it concerns his personal interests. He’s afraid that if something happens, the Han Family might have a bad impression of me. It’s the same for my mom. They are in-laws and only interact with each other like in-laws. They won’t use the Han Family to achieve their own motives, because they worry that it will put me in a difficult position.”

“I think the two of you would probably love and care for your juniors in the same way, right?” Lu Man asked with a smile.

“Erm...” Lu Wenqing laughed awkwardly and said, “Haha, relatives should always help each other out. Why would we stand on formalities with each other? If there’s really an issue, would your in-laws really stand by the side and not help?”

“I will help. If it’s a matter concerning my father-in-law and mother-in-law, I will definitely help,” Han Zhuoli said. “As for other people who have no relation with Man Man, we will naturally not care about them. Just like Man Man’s biological father. I won’t even let him have a chance to get close to Man Man, much less help him. If he gets on my nerves, I will just make his company go bankrupt. But his company is already hanging on the edge now—”

Han Zhuoli was about to continue speaking but he stopped. Even so, the meaning behind his words was clear.

People who treated Lu Man badly, no matter how they were related to Lu Man, would be dealt with by him the same way.

Even her biological father did not manage to glean any benefits, much less other people.

Lu Wenqing thought to herself, "This Lu Man is an ingrate indeed!"

Chapter 1929: A Change in Attitude

In fact, after Lu Man went back yesterday, she'd told Han Zhuoli about Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing.

Lu Man did not ask Han Zhuoli to help her because she was able to handle a small matter like this.

But Han Zhuoli felt that for something that could be easily resolved as long as he appeared, there was no need to trouble Lu Man about it.

So he came very early today.

He just did not expect that, even though he thought he came early enough and even planned to wait there for Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing to come, these two people would actually come even earlier than him.

Xia Qingwei did not know whether to laugh or cry. "You're really something. You even showed your jealousy of me in front of my face."

Han Zhuoli then slowly turned his gaze to Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing. Raising his eyebrow, he asked, "These two are—"

Wang Juhuai could not even be bothered to introduce them.

But Wang Taihong very "considerately" saved Wang Juhuai the trouble of being in an awkward position and came forward of his own accord. He even extended his hand and said, "I didn't expect to see Young Master Han here today. Hello, hello, I am Juhuai's father, Wang Taihong. This is my wife, Lu Wenqing."

Han Zhuoli lowered his eyes. He plainly glanced at the extended hand but did not reach out to shake it.

"Just now, I seemed to have heard the two of you say that my wife relied on something to rise to fame in the entertainment industry. Is that right?" Han Zhuoli pretended as if he did not hear it clearly.

Wang Taihong froze for a moment. Even a dumb person could tell that Han Zhuoli had heard what they'd said just now clearly.

He shamelessly forced an awkward laugh and said, "It's all a misunderstanding, haha, a misunderstanding."

"I also heard the two of you being disdainful of the country's environment," Han Zhuoli said while half-smiling. "But no matter how bad it is, our Han Family also got by like that. We had been educated in the country since we were young. Looks like our families are not knowledgeable enough and are ignorant and narrow-minded."

Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing felt incredibly awkward and embarrassed. Han Zhuoli's sarcasm was way too obvious.

Who would dare to say that the Han Family was not knowledgeable enough?

They had all been educated in the country. What was there for them to be disdainful of?

"No, no." Wang Taihong could only say, "We are the ones who are not knowledgeable enough. Looks like the education system here is also very developed."

They would never have expected that Lu Man's husband would actually be Han Zhuoli.

If that was the case, Wang Yijun could even call Han Zhuoli Brother-in-law.

No matter how conceited they were, they still felt that it was better to stay here, to get closer to Han Zhuoli so that they could reap more benefits.

At this moment, the two of them completely got rid of the idea of wanting to take the child away.

Wang Juhuai treated her so well, yet she could actually say such a thing!

Wang Juhuai said in a cold voice, "Dad, Mom, we're not kidding with you. Either both of you go back to the States and carry on as usual, or you won't get anything if you insist on staying."

It was clear now that everyone did not want to see them, so Lu Wenqing did not try to force a smile to curry favor with Lu Man.

On the contrary, she thought that it was all because of Xia Qingwei and Lu Man that Wang Juhuai kept giving them such an attitude.

Lu Wenqing nodded her head angrily. "Good, good, good! It's all because of her, and her!"

Lu Wenqing pointed at Xia Qingwei, then at Lu Man. "You don't even acknowledge your parents now. We raised you when you were young, groomed you and educated you, yet you are using that little bit of money to come and threaten us now. Are we desperate for that little bit of money from you?"

She really did not understand. They clearly had a relative like Han Zhuoli around, so why could Wang Juhuai just not help them establish good relations with the Han Family?!

In the past, Wang Juhuai was on good terms with Han Xijin.

But they were overseas then, and the Han Family's influence had not been that great yet.

Chapter 1930: Making a Stand

But now, the Han Family's influence was getting bigger and bigger. It's perfect since Wang Qianyun had been having trouble finding a job. As long as the Han Family was willing to help, it would be a small matter that could be easily resolved.

Wang Juhuai could clearly go and talk to Han Zhuoli about it, yet he did not do anything.

He did not think for his own niece yet was actually being so considerate for Lu Man!

She really did not know how Xia Qingwei and Lu Man bewitched him!

Looking at the situation now, there was no way they could stay, so Lu Wenqing could only leave in a fit of anger with Wang Taihong.

Wang Juhuai's face was filled with awkwardness. Yet Han Zhuoli said, "Dad, I'm sorry. I was rude by giving the two of them that kind of attitude just now."

Wang Juhuai waved him off and said, "I know very well how they are like. If you're too polite, they will only get worse. This kind of stern rejection that instills some fear in them is really more effective."

"Dad, I'm sorry," Lu Man said.

"It's fine." Wang Juhuai smiled and said, "It's me, actually, who should feel sorry to the both of you. Qingwei is still on her confinement period, yet they came here to cause trouble."

If they genuinely came just to visit Xia Qingwei, Wang Juhuai would definitely welcome them.

Even if the two elders wanted to stay here for a long time, it would not be an issue. Wang Juhuai would definitely prepare all the administrative paperwork for them properly.

He would even ask Han Zhuoli for help.

But given Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing's personality, how would he dare to let them stay in the country?

Each time he gave in, they would only get even more brazen.

When he told the two of them that he did not want to trouble Han Zhuoli and cause trouble for Lu Man, those were all excuses.

If Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing really meant well, without needing for Wang Juhuai to say anything, Han Zhuoli would have taken the initiative to help already.

"Zhuoli, can you help me with something?" Wang Juhuai asked.

"Say it." Han Zhuoli did not even ask what it was about and agreed immediately.

Han Zhuoli was also afraid that his attitude towards Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing just then would make Wang Juhuai uncomfortable.

No matter how wrong the two of them were, they were still Wang Juhuai's parents.

Lu Man really respected Wang Juhuai a lot. He did not want to make things awkward between Lu Man and Wang Juhuai because of this.

"Can you go and make a request to directly restrict them from entering the country? If they try to apply for a visa again, don't approve it for them," Wang Juhuai said. "I lack connections in this aspect, but I think you can do it. I also know that even if you are the one requesting, you will surely owe a big personal favor, but I can't think of anyone else who can help. I am really sorry to have to trouble you with this matter."

If he prevented his parents from entering the country, at least when they were in the country, Xia Qingwei could live her life in peace and assurance.

At most, they would just bring Xia Qingwei and their child overseas to visit Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing.

Han Zhuoli nodded. "No problem. You are being too polite with me. Just leave this to me."

Even if Han Zhuoli personally requested for this, he would have to owe quite a big personal favor for it.

After all, Han Zhuoli represented the Han Family's will now.

Or else, when he was dealing with Wang Qianyun, he would have used this tactic long ago.

As Wang Qianyun had her own considerations, he could still use his current power to force her to leave.

But clearly, Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing were Wang Juhuai's parents. No matter what, Wang Juhuai could not really take things too far and treat them too harshly.

With that kind of relationship between them, it made Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing much more troublesome to handle.

Hence, they had no choice but to use such a method.

Wang Juhuai would not want to trouble Han Zhuoli to this extent otherwise.

At first, when Wang Juhuai had yet to say that, Han Zhuoli was also worried that Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing would cause trouble for Xia Qingwei and Lu Man.
