Chapter 2061: Making a Scene

“And even if Xia Qingwei really has such intentions, Lu Man will not allow it.

“Just how smart of a person is Lu Man? She still wants to make use of Wang Juhuai’s resources and fame, so how could she possibly let Xia Qingwei ruin such a good backer of hers? If a scandal breaks out, even Lu Man will be implicated in it. No matter whether it is the news or online discussions, or the Han Family’s attitude, etc., all these things will cause a butterfly effect.

“Xia Qingwei has always doted on Lu Man and is very rational. Lu Man will not allow this kind of thing to happen, so all the more she will not do such a thing,” Lu Qi analyzed. She then said, “So, the things that you worry about will definitely not happen.”

There was one more line which Lu Qi did not say.

If that mother and daughter pair were that stupid, would she and Xia Qingyang end up in this state now?

Such a dumb thing, Lu Man and Xia Qingwei definitely would not do.

“It’s precisely because of this that we are at a sure-win vantage point,” Lu Qi said. “Xia Qingwei and Lu Man have their reservations, but we don’t. Anyway, they are the ones who will be scared.”

Xia Qingyang had been convinced by Lu Qi’s words. She nodded her head solemnly and said, “You are right. Let’s go over right now!”

When Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi arrived, Xia Qingwei was chatting casually with others at the dining table.

She and Lu Man still did not know that Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi were coming to annoy them.

Xia Qingyang parked the car and got off with Lu Qi.

Xia Qingyang’s forte was being a shrew, so she had no fear at all.

As Wang Juhuai did not want to make the 100-day party a high-profile event, Sheng Yue operated as usual.

If customers came, they would be allowed to enter. They could not possibly not allow people to come in.

Hence, Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi did not meet any obstructions and entered Sheng Yue.

They were smart too and did not look for the manager.

There would surely be someone who would recognize them and realize that it was impossible that Wang Juhuai had invited them over.

So, they found a young waiter to ask where Wang Juhuai’s 100-day baby shower was being held at.

Indeed, the waiter did not recognize them and thought they were guests invited by Wang Juhuai, and he even personally led the way for them up to the door to the 100-day baby shower.

Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi had put up a really decent act that could really hoodwink people.

They'd even very politely thanked the waiter.

After the waiter left, Xia Qingyang adjusted her emotions and turned to glance at Lu Qi.

Lu Qi nodded at her.

Xia Qingyang took a deep breath and placed her hand on the door.

She then pushed the door with full force.

The main door slammed open with a "bang," and the loud sound gave everyone in the room a scare.

They all could not help but stop with their light chatter and turn to look at the door.

Wang Juhuai even frowned, thinking that Sheng Yue's service standards would not have been so poor.

When the sound rang out, little Wang Yijun got a scare and wailed as he started to cry.

Xia Qingwei quickly picked him up and slowly rocked him in her arms to coax him.

Xia Qingwei was unbelievably angry. She only took a sweeping look just now and she could already tell who it was.

But she was not in the mood to settle scores with Xia Qingyang and her daughter now. Her heart was all on the little baby.

Han Zhuoli quietly called Sheng Yue's CEO and said that someone was making a scene here.

Lu Man thought about it. Once Xia Qingyang started to cause a ruckus, she would not leave easily, so she went to a corner at the side to contact Da Xiong.

"Da Xiong, where are you now? Can you come to Sheng Yue?" Lu Man asked.

Da Xiong was very surprised. "What is it? Could it be that you want to give me the news about your family's 100-day baby banquet as well?"

Chapter 2062: Just a Jealous B*tch

"It is a piece of news that's better than the 100-day baby banquet. What is the fastest time you can get here?" Lu Man asked as she smiled.

"Hehe." Da Xiong felt a little embarrassed as he said, "I'm right outside the entrance to Sheng Yue now."

Da Xiong explained awkwardly, "Isn't your family holding a 100-day baby banquet right now? Although you didn't invite reporters, many reporters are still waiting outside Sheng Yue right now, all wanting to snap some photos. Everyone is here, so I can't possibly not come. After all, if other people were to manage to take some photos but I didn't, won't it seem as if I'm very unprofessional?"

Lu Man chuckled. She did not expect to have hit the jackpot.

"Okay, then come over quickly." Lu Man told him the room number to this small ballroom and ended the call.

Han Zhuoli and Lu Man as a couple could be said to have full chemistry.

Both of them naturally would not know that Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi would actually choose today to come and cause trouble after a period of inactivity.

When facing this kind of sudden situations, the two of them did not even discuss with each other as each of them started to lay down traps for Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi.

Their reaction was really fast.

When the two of them came back after contacting people and saw the other had just ended a call, they gave each other a small smile at the same time.

On this end, Xia Qingyang rushed in and pretended to be looking around.

But the room was only this big, and everything was laid out in plain sight.

Plus, there were not many people in the room to begin with.

At this moment, whoever was in the room could be clearly seen with one look.

Xia Qingyang still could not take it lying down and just directly fired her question, "Xia Qingwei, where's my husband?!"

Xia Qingwei did not even look at her and was still gently rocking Wang Yijun, coaxing him.

The little baby had quite a temper. After getting a scare, the baby refused to calm down in a moment.

There were no more tears in his eyes. He was just wailing, and one could tell that he was just angry.

He wondered who'd made such a huge sound to scare him, which made him unbelievably angry.

Xia Qingwei was helpless. She could only carry him as she stood up to pace back and forth, and she even picked a balloon from the ceiling and waved it in front of him to pacify him.

Xia Qingwei's disregard for Xia Qingyang naturally incensed her as she continued shouting, "Xia Qingwei! Say something! You're guilty and don't dare to talk to me now, is that it?!"

"What on earth! She even has the cheek to say other people feel guilty." Wang Juhuai protected his wife and did not intend to let Xia Qingwei step forward.

He took a few steps forward to prevent Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi from getting close to Xia Qingwei.

The three brothers, Han Zhuoling, Han Zhuoli, and Han Zhuofeng, also went over.

When Shi Nancang saw that, he followed them as well.

Wang Juhuai aside, the three brothers from the Han Family plus Shi Nancang, four towering men, had gone forward to shield them, as if they were a human wall.

Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi almost could not even see where Xia Qingwei was, much less step forward.

Lu Man walked over and said coldly, "Why did you come here if you can't find your husband?"

"What do you mean my husband? That's your dad!" Xia Qingyang hollered.

“Don’t shout so loud, you will scare my younger brother,” Lu Man said calmly and casually. She did not take Xia Qingyang’s words to heart at all. “You’ve seen it for yourself. The person you are looking for is not here.”

“Xia Qingwei, come out and talk! Where did you hide Lu Qiyuan? You shameless woman. All you know how to do is to seduce other people’s men. In the past, when you were together with Lu Qiyuan, you seduced Wang Juhuai. Now that you are married to Wang Juhuai, you come back to seduce Lu Qiyuan! You are just a jealous b*tch! Shameless!”

“Who’s the jealous b*tch? Do you really not know? It’s been over 20 years and my mom has never thought anything of Lu Qiyuan.”

Chapter 2063: Why Did You Hit Me

Lu Man said mockingly, “You’re coming here to look for Lu Qiyuan? If you want to make a scene, just say it clearly. You don’t need to pull this trick. You can’t even come up with a decent excuse, what a joke!”

“Aiyo! Why don’t you let everyone hear it in front of your in-laws?” Xia Qingyang seemed to have caught Lu Man’s weak spot and her face was sparkling with glee. “Lu Qiyuan? That’s your dad! You actually called him by his full name. You unfilial thing, go ahead and let your in-laws see your true colors!”

“Piak!”

A super clear and crisp sound rang out. It was the sound of flesh slapping against flesh.

With another glance, Shen Nuo had unknowingly come over and, as swift as lightning, gave Xia Qingyang a ninja-like slap.

When everyone reacted and looked over, Shen Nuo was rubbing her own palm.

As if she slapped too hard and hurt her palm, she lowered her head to blow on her palm a few times.

Even Xia Qingyang was stunned by the slap.

But when she saw that the person who’d slapped her was Shen Nuo, Xia Qingyang, a bully who targeted the weak but feared the strong, did not dare to behave in the shrewish manner that she used towards Lu Man and Xia Qingwei.

She immediately toned down her stance.

“You... why did you hit me?!” Xia Qingyang clutched her own face, feeling very aggrieved.

She had a whole string of words to scold Lu Man with just then, yet Shen Nuo’s slap just cut her off abruptly.

It actually made it difficult for her to bring up the momentum again.

“I just wanted to hit you. You’re spouting rubbish and coming here to act like a shrew,” Shen Nuo said coldly.

Little Yijun finally stopped crying. Xia Qingwei passed him over to Old Mrs. Han for the moment and walked over herself.

“My husband and I are living well now, I don’t need to trouble you and Lu Qiyuan to think about me. I don’t know what you are thinking. Even if he really is having an affair, by right, he should find a young lady. Why would he come and find a middle-aged woman like me? Not everyone is as devoted as my husband and will not care about my age.” Xia Qingwei chuckled and said, “It has already been more than 20 years, and he still liked an old woman like me.”

“You don’t look old at all,” Wang Juhuai said disapprovingly at the side. “Anyway, I am already so old, and you aren’t disdainful of me either.”

Xia Qingwei could not help but chuckle and say, “You know that’s not what I mean.”

At this moment, they actually minded such small matters.

Everybody: “...”

At this moment, they still wanted to seize the opportunity to show off their love for each other. What was their problem?

Han Zhuoli: “...”

Han Zhuoling: “...”

The older, the wiser. They lost, they really lost.

Seeing that they were about to go off-topic, Lu Qi quickly secretly tugged at Xia Qingyang, to prevent her from being led away by them.

Xia Qingyang reacted and spat. She totally ignored Xia Qingwei’s earlier explanation and just lashed out at her. “You shameless woman. You’re already married to Wang Juhuai, yet you still can’t have a clean break with your ex-husband!

“I know, you just want to take revenge on me. Back then, I snatched away Lu Qiyuan from you, so you’ve always hated me deep down. So now, even when you have such a wonderful husband by your side and even have a child, with a happy family around you, you still can’t let go and want to take revenge on me.”

Xia Qingyang argued with such conviction, it really angered Xia Qingwei now.

If she wronged her, that’s okay, she had nothing to fear!

In front of the truth, no accusation could hold.

But she was just disgusted that Xia Qingyang would actually put her together with Lu Qiyuan.

What made her even more angry was that Xia Qingyang had to choose today, during little Yijun’s 100-day baby banquet, to come and cause trouble.

She ruined such a wonderful and important event.

Xia Qingyang, who’d ruined her daughter in the past, now wanted to come and ruin her son in turn!

Chapter 2064: You Looked for the Wrong Person

Right after that, she heard Xia Qingyang say, "I know, you might not have any feelings for Lu Qiyuan. You hate him to the core, let alone have any feelings for him. But to take revenge on me, you can resort to do anything!"

"But I'm not you." Xia Qingwei was really disgusted to the core. "Anyway, given your family's current circumstances, do I even need to do anything to take revenge?"

Xia Qingwei laughed mockingly. "All that's left is an empty shell. Why would anyone else need to do anything?"

Xia Qingyang was shocked. Her heart started thumping, feeling a little anxious.

Did Xia Qingwei know something?

She really did wrong Xia Qingwei now.

The Lu family was a far cry from how it was in the past. Anyone who paid scant attention would know that. There was no need to dig deeper for any inside information.

Xia Qingwei was simply referring to this as well.

It was Xia Qingyang who had a guilty conscience; that was why she thought of that.

But if Xia Qingwei's words were really interpreted in the manner that Xia Qingyang thought of, it was plausible too.

At this moment, the CEO of Sheng Yue had already arrived with the security officers.

Da Xiong had also blended in with the security officers.

Han Zhuoli threw a look at the CEO, and the CEO sent out some of the security officers to secure the area and prevent anyone from coming through. No one was to walk past the corridor where the small ballroom was at.

In this way, no matter how ugly the scene turned out, no one would know.

And the only means for the news to spread would only be through Da Xiong.

Yet, Da Xiong was someone Lu Man had called over.

As long as there was news, Da Xiong did not care how it was written.

However Lu Man let him write it, he would write it accordingly.

Anyway, he was the only one present. No matter how he wrote it, it would be an exclusive news.

The other reporters outside could only wait anxiously.

Thinking about it, Da Xiong felt really happy.

Things were easy to do with someone in the know!

When the CEO had everything arranged, only two security officers remained at the scene, who could take Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi away at any moment.

At this moment, Han Zhuoli said, "You came just because you suspect that Lu Qiyuan is having an affair. But it's unreasonable for you to come here."

"Hmph! How is it unreasonable?" In front of Han Zhuoli, Xia Qingyang did not dare to be so forceful and just stubbornly retorted like this.

Han Zhuoli did not look angry as he said, "Because you looked for the wrong person."

"Hah!" Xia Qingyang laughed scornfully. "Whatever you say, you just want to find excuses for Xia Qingwei, isn't that it? Let me tell you, that's not going to work!"

"I just want to let everyone see Xia Qingwei's true colors today! Let you all know that Xia Qingwei is not a good person at all!" Xia Qingyang shouted loudly.

A pity, Han Zhuoli had long prepared for this, so no matter how loud Xia Qingyang was, word would not go out.

"My mother-in-law doesn't need anyone to find excuses for her, because from start to end, this has nothing to do with her," Han Zhuoli said. "You came just because you want to use this chance to sully my mother-in-law's reputation."

"Your plan is very simple. If Lu Qiyuan had come, it would be just as you guessed. But if he didn't come, then you can still smear her and ruin my family's impression of my mother-in-law. Whether you have evidence or not, as long as you can plant a seed of doubt in our hearts, you will have achieved your motive," Han Zhuoli said plainly.

Lu Qi thought that her scheme was flawless.

But she did not expect that her little schemes had already been exposed the moment Xia Qingyang pushed the door open.

Lu Qi had her smarts, but those smarts became stupidity when put in front of Han Zhuoli and these people.

Chapter 2065: Like a Replica of Your Younger Self

The more she wanted to scheme, the dumber she looked.

Xia Qingyang felt her guilty conscience acting up so she could not speak for a moment.

She then heard Han Zhuoli say, "Let me remind you, Lu Qiyuan indeed is having an affair, and the other party is very young. She has an interesting character, just like a replica of your younger self."

Indeed, Lu Qiyuan just liked the pretentious white lotus types. This preference of his had never changed no matter how old he became.

"Instead of wildly accusing people here, why don't you go and check on Lu Qiyuan?" Han Zhuoli said. "He bought another villa outside. Before he started to have an affair, whenever he did not go home, he would be at that villa to stay to avoid seeing you. You can think about how many times he went home in a week previously."

“Afterward, when he started an affair, he rarely came home once a week. That villa then really became his second home.” Han Zhuoli gave a sly smile and said, “The mistress he is keeping is staying right there.”

“Where? Where is the villa?” Xia Qingyang’s first reaction was to trust Han Zhuoli’s words. “And that vixen, who is she?”

Seeing that Han Zhuoli did not speak, Xia Qingyang said, “Since you know all these, then you definitely know where that villa is and the identity of that vixen!”

Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi felt as if a tsunami was raging in their hearts.

Han Zhuoli actually knew of their family situation inside out when they did not know about it!

And even the things they did not know of, Han Zhuoli knew about them so well.

He had been tasking someone to keep an eye on their family all along!

But they knew nothing of it!

Thinking of that, Han Zhuoli probably sent someone to keep watch on their family early on.

When they were unaware, there might possibly have been someone watching them in secret.

No matter what they did, someone was always watching and knew what they did inside out.

Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi felt so scared that they got goosebumps.

Not just because their lives, be it in public or private, had been completely exposed to in front of Han Zhuoli.

They feared even more that their scheming against the Lu Corporation had been found out by Han Zhuoli.

Xia Qingyang could not help but think of what Xia Qingwei had said just then.

That made sense!

Xia Qingwei definitely knew about it!

Xia Qingyang’s complexion looked really nasty. She harbored such thoughts in her mind, but she did not dare to seek verification.

“I do know,” Han Zhuoli spoke, cutting off Xia Qingyang’s train of thought.

Xia Qingyang anxiously asked, “Who is it?! Where is it?”

“Go and find out yourself,” Han Zhuoli said cheekily.

Xia Qingyang was frustrated and pent up with anger!

Han Zhuoli would not tell her.

He wanted her to go and check herself, lest she got too bored and come here to cause trouble.

Let her check and make a scene with Lu Qiyuan along the way.

“Who exactly is it?!” Xia Qingyang’s guess got confirmation from Han Zhuoli, which instantly made her go crazy with anger.

She could not care to continue directing accusations at Xia Qingwei anymore.

Lu Qi frowned, scolding Xia Qingyang for a useless bum in her heart.

She could even forget the matter they had discussed and planned beforehand and got led away by the nose. What could she even hope that she could do!

Han Zhuoli did not answer her this time and just threw a look at the CEO.

The CEO immediately had two security officers go forward and drag Xia Qingyang out.

“What are you doing!” Xia Qingyang screamed piercingly. “Tell me! Who is it! Tell me!”

“Don’t touch me! Don’t pull me!” Xia Qingyang kicked her legs and struggled non-stop.

But it was useless.

Seeing that Lu Qi stood at the side without helping at all, Xia Qingyang instantly called out, “Qi Qi, quick, come and help! Pull them away!”

Lu Qi thought to herself, These two security officers are so strong.

Chapter 2066: Don’t Dirty Our Place

How could a weak lady like her pull them away?

Even if she went over, she would not be of any help. Instead, she might even ruin her own image.

Lu Qi lowered her lids and thought about it before she said, “Young Master Han, please just tell us. If you tell us, we will leave immediately. And I promise, we won’t come and find trouble again anymore.”

Han Zhuoli raised his eyebrow, as if he heard a joke. “You made it sound as if we are scared of you coming to find trouble. Tell me, how else can you both come and find trouble?”

“You dare to provoke us? You completely don’t want to stay on in the entertainment industry anymore? Or do you think you have something you can threaten us with? Like the smear attempt today?” Han Zhuoli said sarcastically as he tapped his fingers.

Today, if he purposely did not let people stop them, this mother and daughter pair would not even have come close to entering this place.

Why did he not stop them?

Ha!

If he stopped them, where would they go to learn of Lu Qiyuan’s affair?

“I already gave you the hints.” Han Zhuoli chuckled and said, “Today, you guys came here to cause trouble and ruin my younger brother-in-law’s 100-day banquet. I didn’t settle scores with you and even gave you both hints. This shows that I have a good temper, and I have really done what I can out of goodwill.

“If you want to intrude further, then I won’t be so good-tempered anymore.” Han Zhuoli’s face hardened as he said, “Quick, take them away! Don’t let them stay here and dirty our place. What an eyesore.”

This time, perhaps because of Han Zhuoli’s words, Xia Qingyang did not behave shrewishly anymore.

But the two security officers did not treat Xia Qingyang more politely just because she cooperated, perhaps because of Han Zhuoli’s instructions.

On the contrary, the manner in which they dragged her away made it seem as if she was still behaving shrewishly.

They even pushed Xia Qingyang to the floor and dragged her away like that.

“Let me stand up!” Xia Qingyang shouted.

But the security officer did not care at all, and he even forcefully pressed her down in a sitting position to drag her away.

The motive was very simple, to make her look bad.

Xia Qingyang tried her best to push herself up with her legs, but to no avail.

Da Xiong saw the look from Lu Man and immediately started to take photos. He also told his subordinate to take videos.

The positions where Han Zhuoli and the others all stood were very interesting. No matter how the video was shot or from which point the photos were taken, Han Zhuoli and the rest were not visible in the photos.

Of course, the subordinate also received Da Xiong’s instructions not to show Han Zhuoli and the rest in the video.

Just record Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi.

Xia Qingyang had simply been dragged out, and Lu Qi could only follow from behind

Seeing that this was way too absurd, and too embarrassing, she then questioned the CEO, “Is this how the service at Sheng Yue is like? How can you treat your customers like this?! I’m going to expose you!”

“You guys came here to make a scene and disrupt our customers’ peaceful meal. When we spoke nicely, you both refused to listen. To protect the order in the hotel, we have no choice but to do this. If you want to complain, you can go ahead and make a complaint,” the CEO said. “I am protecting the internal order within the hotel. If I receive punishment, then I will accept it gladly.”

Of course, the CEO did not believe that Lu Qi would dare expose this.

If it was really exposed, she would be the one being embarrassed.

Lu Qi turned to glance at Han Zhuoli and the others. She actually wanted to seize the chance to plead for mercy, and if it was possible to seduce one of them, then that would be even better.

But when she saw the expressions on Han Zhuoli and the others' faces, as well as the looks on the Han Family's faces, Lu Qi shuddered and immediately abandoned that thought.

She lowered her head and took out a mask from her bag. She did not want to be recognized by anyone at such an embarrassing moment.

When the two of them left, peace and quiet returned to this place.

Chapter 2067: Giving Them Face

The CEO said very apologetically, "My deepest apologies, we did not manage this well and disrupted everyone from enjoying their meal."

No one said anything.

The CEO then specially gifted a bottle of red wine to express his apology.

Da Xiong also brought his subordinate along to leave.

He was not in a hurry to publish the news. Anyway, he got an exclusive.

If he did not publish it, no one would know about it.

After this, he would have to discuss properly with Lu Man about how to release this news.

The moment Da Xiong brought his subordinate out and left Sheng Yue, he got surrounded by a bunch of other reporters.

"Brother Xiong, what's the situation inside?"

"Did Lu Man give you an exclusive?"

"I saw Xia Qingyang being dragged out by the security officer. Did she go in there to cause trouble?"

"Lu Qi even wore a mask, thinking that no one would recognize her."

They were all following the news, so their eyes were sharp as an eagle.

After following these stars around every day, would they not recognize them even if they turned into ashes?

But even if they wore a cap and a mask and only revealed their eyes, they could also be recognized by these reporters.

"Brother Xiong, you have news in your hands, you should leak some bits to us at least."

"Yeah. Brother Xiong, you really have foresight and established good ties with Lu Man early on. Now whenever there's news, Lu Man will always think of you."

They really got to give it to him.

How did Lu Man have so much news on hand?

She was even more of a paparazzi than a paparazzi.

But anyone who had worked together with Lu Man before was all doing much better than in the past.

Eight Skin Entertainment was a prime example. Previously, when taking an ad, he had to insist to death on a five-figure sum. Now, he would not even take on an ad that did not pay in the hundred thousands.

Tang Zi and Lu Man were real friends, so he had already left the paparazzi team and joined Nan Yin to be a legitimate reporter, and he even got promoted now.

Da Xiong could be said to have taken on Tang Zi's job. Whenever Lu Man had any news, she would directly contact Da Xiong.

So, there were many pieces of news that they could not even get leaks of.

For the people in their industry who ended up only getting news second-hand, wasn't that going to cost their lives?

Da Xiong chuckled and said, "How about this? After I send out the news, I will inform you guys at the first moment. You all can immediately catch up with it. As for the rest, I won't be able to help with that. If one of you got a major scoop, you won't tell others either, right?"

Da Xiong waved at them and said, "Everyone, I'll have to leave first."

After saying that, he quickly brought his subordinates to leave with him, afraid that they would be pestered to no end and prevented from leaving.

In Sheng Yue.

Xia Qingwei said apologetically, "I'm really sorry. Because of me, such an upsetting thing happened."

Xia Qingwei was also a victim in this matter.

She did not do anything, yet she got smeared.

But Xia Qingwei felt that, if not because of her, Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi would not have come over.

It was a fine event today, yet that incident made Wang Juhuai and Lu Man lose face.

But how could Wang Juhuai mind this? He held Xia Qingwei's hand and said, "Don't think too much. If you get upset because of this, then it will play into their hands."

"Yeah!" Old Mrs. Han said. "That mother and daughter are shameless. They are so evil-hearted. Don't take them to heart. If you let them affect you, you are giving them face!"

After Old Mrs. Han said that, she then praised, "Ah Nuo, when you gave that slap just now, that really felt so good!"

Shen Nuo had slapped Xia Qingyang and also felt really good about it herself. "I really could not take it. I have never seen someone who made other people feel so disgusted."

The Shi family had seen the news before and naturally also knew of Xia Qingwei and Xia Qingyang's feud.

It was just because they just newly joined in, so they did not feel as deeply as the Han Family people.

Chapter 2068: Something Wrong with Her Brain

But when they saw how the Han Family protected Xia Qingwei, Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin felt even more assured in their hearts.

The Han Family people were reasonable and protected their young.

As long as it was anyone from their family, they would protect them fully.

In this kind of family, their daughter would also not suffer.

Hence, they felt even happier.

The 100-day baby shower, aside from Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi's annoying interlude, went quite smoothly thereafter.

When the 100-day baby shower ended, Lu Man immediately contacted Da Xiong and discussed with him how to release the news.

An hour later, Da Xiong then released a piece of news online.

"Some outdated female celebrity's mother seems to have gone crazy, screaming and shouting in a public space."

It was attached with photos and videos, which were of Xia Qingyang being dragged away by the security officers outside the 100-day baby shower ballroom.

The video was filled with Xia Qingyang's screams and shouts.

She screamed piercingly, just like a shrew.

Even Lu Qi appeared in the video.

At that time, Lu Qi had not worn her mask in time, so in the photos and the videos, Lu Qi's face could be seen clearly.

It was just that, at the very start, the netizens all focused their attention on Xia Qingyang.

Most of the people were just there for the drama.

And some professional entertainment accounts and those reporters who did not manage to get any news that day started to scrutinize the video over and over again.

They vowed to pick out any unusual clues from within the short few minutes of the video.

This was how Lu Qi was found out.

In the mess of the scene, Lu Qi was hiding behind the crowd, so she was inconspicuous.

The netizens who were just in for the drama did not have such good eyesight.

The moment Lu Qi got identified, there was no question about Xia Qingyang's identity.

“Why is it this mother-and-daughter pair again? It’s been a while, yet they came out to do evil again.”

“Lu Qi is completely out of date now. Can she only rely on causing trouble to attract attention?”

“It’s really unbelievable. In the past, when Lu Qi was at the peak of her popularity, Xia Qingyang always appeared to be like a rich lady, gentle and demure. Yet now, she became a shrew.”

“She did not become a shrew, she probably is one to begin with. Just that in the past, there wasn’t really anything that made her unhappy, so she could pretend to be her gentle rich lady self with ease. Now that the Lu family’s company is going downhill and Lu Qi’s career is finished, Xia Qingyang’s original character just revealed itself.”

Just when many netizens started to discuss why Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi came out to make a scene, some netizens came out to reveal, “They probably went to cause trouble.”

“How so?”

“We went to the restaurant in Sheng Yue to eat roasted duck today, and we happened to see Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei’s son’s 100-day baby shower. They did not make it a grand affair and just held it like a family banquet dinner. They were very low profile and did not book the whole place, and they did not cause inconvenience to anyone, just like us normal people when we go there to have a family dinner.”

“Wow, this really makes people stan them.”

“Yeah, unlike other people who like to be all grandiose.”

“Yeah. They only invited the Hans and the Shis,” that “insider” netizen replied.

“Shi Xiaoya’s family? That’s amazing! Looks like Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya’s good news is going to come soon too. Or else, Wang Juhuai would not have invited Shi Xiaoya’s family members to go to his son’s 100-day baby banquet when it’s supposed to be a family affair. This shows that they treat each other like family already.”

“Yeah, this is really heartwarming and down to earth.”

“Now everyone should know what trouble Xia Qingyang went to cause.”

“Understood, understood.”

“This Xia Qingyang has something wrong with her brain. Xia Qingwei and Lu Qiyuan had already been divorced for more than 20 years.”

Chapter 2069: Even More Fake

“Now, Xia Qingwei finally has her own family and even a son after much difficulty. She no longer has anything to do with Xia Qingyang and Lu Qiyuan. Why would she still not let them live?”

“She just can’t stand to see that others are doing well. I heard the Lu Corporation is also getting worse and worse. And Lu Qiyuan and Xia Qingyang’s relationship seems to be souring as well. But Xia Qingwei is doing better and better. Her daughter’s career is advancing, her son-in-law is Han Zhuoli, her in-laws are the Han Family, and her husband is Wang Juhuai. This line-up is the epitome of a winner in the game of life. Xia Qingyang just wanted to go and annoy them and sow discord between Xia Qingwei and Wang Juhuai's relationship, and also to make the Han Family breed discontent against Xia Qingwei, thereafter slighting Lu Man because of that."

This netizen said, "This is a good analysis."

"The person above, you are impressive."

"How impressive!"

"Not impressive, actually," the netizen who analyzed it said. "It's very easy to guess. Just think about the things that Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi did in the past. You will then understand very well how they think."

"Judging from Xia Qingyang's character, you can then tell how Lu Qi is like."

"Xia Qingyang is also such a joke. They have already been divorced for more than 20 years, yet she still can't let other people off. There's must be something wrong with her brain! And she even went to their happy event to cause trouble."

"I heard that she suspects Lu Qiyuan is having an affair."

"She suspects Lu Qiyuan is having an affair so she went to find trouble with Xia Qingwei? Anyone with brains can tell that Xia Qingwei is living very blissfully now. She got back together with her first love, they have a loving relationship, she has a daughter and a son. Could she possibly go back to look for a b*stard?"

"So, this is exactly what the netizen above analyzed. Xia Qingyang can't stand Xia Qingwei living well, so she purposely used the excuse of suspecting Lu Qiyuan having an affair to go and find trouble with Xia Qingwei, and to smear Xia Qingwei for it."

"How disgusting! She's clearly living her life peacefully, yet there has to be a vermin insect like this who can't stand others doing well and want to ruin other people's family."

"She became a mistress to Lu Qiyuan back then and ruined Xia Qingwei's marriage. True, she is not the only one responsible for that. That other scumbag Lu Qiyuan isn't a saint either. He also made Lu Man suffer. Xia Qingwei had labored for the first half of her life. Now, she finally managed to find her own happiness, yet Xia Qingyang wanted to come and ruin it again. How can this person be so despicable!"

If it was other news, perhaps there might be some people who would think they are being rational and just started analyzing things.

They would say it takes two to tango, and it would not be clear who exactly was responsible before the situation was made clear.

But with Xia Qingyang, it was a completely different matter.

Luckily, Lu Man had laid the foundations for it earlier on.

She exposed all of Xia Qingyang and Lu Qiyuan's ugly affairs.

The netizens knew about Xia Qingyang and Lu Qiyuan's ugly past very thoroughly.

They all knew that Xia Qingyang was nothing good and Xia Qingyang even especially liked to play stupid tricks that landed herself in trouble under Lu Qi's incitement.

Time and again, she did it, and in the minds of the public, it fossilized a solid image of her as the ultimate b*tch.

She had truly become a character everyone loved to hate on.

Hence, when the incident this time was exposed, everyone very certainly deemed that it was Xia Qingyang who was looking for trouble and did not have good intentions.

There was actually no one who disagreed with it.

Just like that, in this matter, Xia Qingwei was not affected at all.

The netizens were all elated when they saw Xia Qingyang embarrassing herself.

"HAHAHAHAHA, this is retribution. She became a mistress back then and snatched that b*stard from Xia Qingwei. Now the b*stard is once again being whisked away by another mistress."

"I bet ten cucumbers that the mistress B*stard Lu found this time is even younger, prettier, and even more fake."

Chapter 2070: Investigate

"No need to bet. It definitely is."

This is also the netizen not believing that Lu Qiyuan and Xia Qingwei have any more reason to still be with each other.

Which man who looks for a mistress would go and find an old one?

Lu Qiyuan and Xia Qingwei were not lovebirds or anything.

It's Xia Qingwei and Wang Juhuai. That kind of first love couple reuniting was what's really considered true love, okay?

Really, no one would believe Xia Qingyang's words if she said them.

"Back then, B*stard Lu abandoned his wife for Xia Qingyang. I wonder if he will also abandon Xia Qingyang for his mistress now."

"So exciting and thrilling, 2333[1]. When Xia Qingyang gets divorced, her life will not get any better than Xia Qingwei. Xia Qingwei has Lu Man who is filial to her, and with such a good son-in-law like Han Zhuoli, and a super husband like Wang Juhuai, how happy will her life be? And what will Xia Qingyang get after she's divorced?"

"Pin her hopes on Lu Qi? Seeing Xia Qingyang being dragged away, Lu Qi just hid amid the crowd and did not dare to show her face. Can she still rely on her? Lu Qi is together with He Zhengbai, but He Zhengbai is a b*stard too! He had been snatched away by Lu Qi as a mistress. He's probably a Lu Qiyuan No. 2. Having no son-in-law would be better than having this son-in-law. Who knows when he would get schemed against? And as for a first love, 2333, Xia Qingyang can't find one either."

“The person above reminded me. Let us guess. If He Zhengbai schemes against the Lu family, will Lu Qi help He Zhengbai and scheme together with him?”

“I bet yes. And after they are done scheming together, Lu Qi will then be schemed against by He Zhengbai.”

“Screenshotting to save this. Waiting for the big reveal to come!”

The netizens were discussing this passionately, and it was extremely lively.

And after Xia Qingyang got chased out of Sheng Yue, there were so many people on the streets. How could she still have any face left to see anyone?

She covered her face and quickly got into the car.

As her mind was filled with what Han Zhuoli said about Lu Qiyuan having another home outside, she did not bother to think about why Lu Qi did not help her, why she wore a mask herself to cover her face and hid far, far away, leaving her the only one outside to embarrass herself.

But just because Xia Qingyang was no longer in the mood to care now, it did not mean that she would not react to it later on.

But now, Xia Qingyang’s mind was filled with the words that Han Zhuoli said.

Xia Qingyang shook from anger and her hands that were holding on to the steering wheel were also shaking.

Ha!

Didn’t Lu Qiyuan set up another small home outside?

He secretly bought another villa and even put a woman in there.

He actually just decided not to go home anymore!

If not because she might cause a ruckus, Lu Qiyuan might not even come home once a week!

And she had really guessed correctly previously.

Lu Qiyuan indeed had someone outside!

A young and pretty white lotus[2], was it?

Hearing Han Zhuoli’s description, wasn’t it the exact same trick she used when she was young?

Back then, she used this trick to snatch Lu Qiyuan away.

Now, there was actually someone else who used the same trick, wanting to snatch him away from her.

Indeed, saying it out loud sounds so much like mockery.

Seeing Xia Qingyang in such a state, Lu Qi was worried and said, “Mom, why don’t I drive?”

“Okay.” Xia Qingyang did not object and just got off the car to change seats with Lu Qi.

Lu Qi drove the car back home and would occasionally glance to take note of Xia Qingyang's reaction.

Xia Qingyang's face remained pale in anger with her teeth clenched. She did not know when she would explode.

Suddenly, when Lu Qi turned to look at her, Xia Qingyang finally moved.

She took out her phone and dialed a number.

After hanging up, she said, "Let's not go home first."

Xia Qingyang gave Lu Qi an address.

"You are going to hire a private investigator to investigate Dad?" Lu Qi asked.
