Chapter 2091: My Hand Has Its Own Thoughts

Same for her.

At that time, compared to her age, he would be considered an adult already.

Everything was fine before this occurred to them. When they thought about it now, it instantly highlighted their age gap even more clearly.

Han Zhuoling sighed in resignation.

Shi Xiaoya stared at him in confusion and heard Han Zhuoling say, "Why are you so small?"

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

Her face darkened, and she looked down at her chest.

Indeed... she was really not that big.

But she definitely had a B Cup. It was not big but it was not that flat either.

If she squeezed a little, she could still have a cleavage.

Shi Xiaoya felt that she was fine!

Why would Han Zhuoling be disdainful of her for being small?

Haha!

He felt that she was small, yet he could not stop touching and kissing her.

Every time, that big hand just loved to come down from the top.

Would it not be worse if she was bigger?

He would have had to bury his whole hand in!

Men were all big pigs!

Han Zhuoling: "..."

Although Shi Xiaoya did not say anything, he seemed to have understood that she was mentally cursing up a storm.

He could practically hear her call him a big pig!

"I'm not saying you're small in that area." Han Zhuoling did not know whether to cry or laugh as he said that.

But since she mentioned it, his hands felt a little itchy.

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

"You might not believe me if I say it, but my hand has its own thoughts," Han Zhuoling explained.

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

This man, he was so outstanding when it came to being a thug!

Shi Xiaoya's face burned red and she almost whimpered.

At this moment, she could not summon even a bit of strength under his touch.

Shi Xiaoya bit her lip as her eyes gradually moistened.

Yet at this moment, Han Zhuoling explained further, "But if I massage more, it might turn into a C."

He felt it a little more, then actually became serious about measuring it as he said, "Actually, I really feel that it seems to have gotten a little bigger than before."

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

She really wanted to kick this man!

But now, she could not summon her strength at all.

Luckily, Han Zhuoling finally stopped and laughed as he said, "When I said small, I was referring to your age."

Shi Xiaoya thought of how he said "Why are you so small?" just then.

When he said those words, it was really filled with regret and disdain.

Shi Xiaoya smacked him in a fit and said, "So what if I'm small? What's wrong with being young?"

She didn't even disdain him for being an old man, yet he actually disdained her for being young!

"You men, all of you like to find a young little girl. You actually think I'm too young?" Shi Xiaoya said fiercely.

But with that glittery, moistened look in her eyes, and her slightly flushed cheeks...

She looked angry and cute at the same time. It was really nowhere near being fierce.

It melted Han Zhuoling's heart so suddenly that it was as if his HP level was drained immediately.

Shi Xiaoya had not sensed it yet and continued saying, "When you take me out, everyone would praise you for being so capable! Even people who don't know you will surely know that you are damn rich!"

Or else, how could he be dating a young girl.

Han Zhuoling: "..."

He had just been melted by her cuteness, yet now, he was angered until he struggled to find his words.

Don't think he could not tell, this little girl was mocking him for being old!

He was not old at all!

Which thirty-something-year-old man out there is considered old?

And he was good-looking!

Han Zhuoling said in a low voice, "Weren't you not disdainful of my age?"

"You are not allowed to be disdainful of my young age too," Shi Xiaoya immediately said.

"..." Han Zhuoling could not help but laugh. "I'm not disdainful of your young age."

Chapter 2092: Have a Crush on Him

"Who would be disdainful of a young wife?"

Shi Xiaoya gave him a look that said "good that you know," and it made Han Zhuoling elated.

Han Zhuoling then explained, "I was just thinking, if our ages were a little closer, we might have been able to meet each other when we were young."

"How is that possible?" Shi Xiaoya scrunched her nose a little. "You were so cold and arrogant then. You won't have given me a second look."

But if the two of them were a little closer in age, she might also have secretly had a crush on him.

Have a crush on him.

But given his attitude at the time, it would be destined to die without a cause.

"Do you have photographs of yourself when you were in school?" Shi Xiaoya asked him.

"I do, but it's at the family home. My mom has some of them too," Han Zhuoling explained. "When I was young I stayed at the family home frequently. At that time, I was with Zhuoli and Zhuofeng. We were all at the family home. Zhuofeng has always been quite hyperactive and odd, whereas my personality—"

Han Zhuoling thought about it and felt that it was better if he did not judge himself.

Indeed, this man also realized that his personality was extremely cold.

"Anyway, when I was young, Zhuofeng always said that being together with me was no fun, and there was no way we could play together," Han Zhuoling explained. "And Zhuoli is the only child in their family, so there was no point for him being alone. So, might as well, the three of us brothers all gather at the family home together."

Shi Xiaoya thought to herself, no wonder the three of them were so close.

It was evident that the things that Han Dongping did previously that were disliked by the Han Family were nothing new.

It was definitely inevitable that it would sow discord between their brotherly relations and make Han Zhuoling and Han Zhuofeng band together and harbor some sort of animosity towards Han Zhuoli.

But even so, the three brothers were not influenced by Han Dongping, and their relationship was still very good.

So it was actually because they had been together at the family home since they were young.

Perhaps it was also because the two elderly people had foresight, and that was why they let the three brothers play together in a friendly manner from a young age and did not let them get influenced by Han Dongping.

“At the family home back then, Grandma took many photos of us,” Han Zhuoling said.

If he'd been the only one there, he would not have liked taking those pictures. “That was why the photographs were all left at the family home.”

“Then when we go next time, you show them to me,” Shi Xiaoya said.

“Okay,” Han Zhuoling naturally agreed. His eyes seemed to glow as he stared at her and asked, “What about yours?”

“What?” Shi Xiaoya had not reacted yet as her mind was still preoccupied with thinking about how he looked like in his teenage years.

She wondered how different it was from now.

She also pondered about how young and tender he looked at the time.

“You want to see my photos when I was young,” Han Zhuoling said. “Then what about your photos?”

Although she was just a tiny little girl at the time, he was still curious as well.

He wanted to know how cute she was when she was young.

Shi Xiaoya was naturally not petty and said happily, “My photos are also at my parents’ place. When we go back, I’ll find them for you.”

Han Zhuoling nodded happily and suddenly said, “Then let’s continue talking. When you were in senior high, were there any boys that deliberately got close to you?”

Shi Xiaoya: “???”

Did they not agree to not bring this up anymore?

Shi Xiaoya bared her teeth at him again.

Han Zhuoling felt that it was a pity Shi Xiaoya’s teeth were too neat and straight. Or else, if her canine teeth stuck out a little, she would really fit the look when she bared her teeth.

To shut Han Zhuoling up, Shi Xiaoya suddenly hoisted herself up and moved upwards, kissing him directly.

Seriously!

Why did he have so many questions!

Chapter 2093: Confess

Han Zhuoling: “...”

This little girl, her temper was getting more and more out of hand.

But he liked this kind of temper!

Han Zhuoling hugged her tightly at once and captured her lips that initiated the kiss, not giving her a chance to shy away.

Han Zhuoling flipped over and pressed her in his arms.

He felt so lucky that she was really too dense when it came to love, or else, she would have been kidnapped by someone else long ago. How would she have run into his embrace?

Han Zhuoling could not help but think of how, because of his good feelings towards her, he'd kept paying special attention to her.

His actions were so obvious.

Everyone else could tell. Only Shi Xiaoya, the person involved, did not feel that he liked her.

It was evident how dense she was when it came to this aspect.

At first, Han Zhuoling still did not think too much of it.

Then he heard Du Yiqin mention that Shi Xiaoya had had no lack of admirers from childhood until adulthood.

Han Zhuoling had felt a very acute sense of danger.

And he felt really lucky.

If he'd missed one step, he would have missed out on this young lady.

Thinking about it like this, he could not help but feel how precious and important she was to him.

As he kissed her lips, eyes, and cheeks, even Shi Xiaoya could sense how much he cherished her.

Shi Xiaoya trembled as she circled her arms around his neck and pressed herself tightly into his chest.

She could clearly feel his quick and strong heartbeat.

As if they had telepathy, she could also guess what he was thinking.

After he just kissed her cheeks, Shi Xiaoya suddenly avoided it.

Han Zhuoling was stunned. He did not expect that it was because Shi Xiaoya actually did not like how she was always being kissed by him, so she took the initiative to lean in and rain light kisses bit by bit, starting from his forehead.

She exerted a bit of strength and pushed a little harder.

She wanted to push him over.

But this man was seriously too heavy. She would not be able to push him over.

Luckily, Han Zhuoling understood her intentions, so he hugged her and turned over.

He was still a little stunned from being kissed by her on the forehead.

Even now, his forehead could still feel the lingering softness of her lips.

As if he could smell their sweetness.

Shi Xiaoya kept raining light kisses, starting from his forehead, not leaving out any spot.

Until finally landing on his lips.

She was telling him soundlessly that it was not just him cherishing her.

She cherished him just as much too.

She cupped his face with both hands. Under her kiss, he felt as if he became a little tipsy.

Han Zhuoling's melted into a puddle. At this moment, he actually felt so clearly how much she liked him.

"Although when it comes to love, I am a little dense," Shi Xiaoya said, "that's also because I'd never met someone I liked before, so I never paid attention.

"Hence, even if someone likes me, I don't pay attention, so I don't notice it," Shi Xiaoya said. "But I like you, so I will feel insecure. I will be scared that you won't like me, scared that if you knew I like you, you will dislike me and distance yourself from me. I can clearly sense that you treat me differently, but I still didn't dare to believe it. I slowly got closer to you, yet I don't dare to get too close too.

"Only when I fell in love and constantly paid attention was I able to tell," Shi Xiaoya said. "But then again, you are different. You originally gave people the feeling that you are hard to get close to. If it were someone else, I would definitely have bravely confessed, but to you, I didn't dare to."

"Perhaps it's because I like you too much, so much that it exceeded my expectations, and that's why I feel so insecure," Shi Xiaoya said with her face red, feeling a little embarrassed to look at him.

Chapter 2094: What's So Good About Me That Made You Like Me?

She said in a low, shy voice, "With you, it's the first time I liked someone."

Perhaps she was a little dense when it came to relationship matters, but it was more because she had never met someone who could really move her heart.

Han Zhuoling felt as if his heart was about to burst out right now. He felt excited yet nervous at this moment. His palpitating heart felt so immature, as if he was a 17- or 18-year-old young punk.

He said in a hoarse voice, "What's so good about me that made you like me?"

"You are just very good," Shi Xiaoya said. "I remember, there's this line in a song: There are not many virtues to speak of for some people, but no one else can replace them."

"But it's not exactly the same, because I can speak of the virtues you have. Even though you look very cold on the outside, your heart is especially warm and soft. I still remember the first time I met you. It was at the international film festival."

"At that time, you knew that that child was not yours, but you still made sure that he lived well and did not get abandoned. I still remember, you said that if that child was not getting proper care, then a good family must be found for him so that he can be properly cared for.

“At that time, I knew, you aren’t as cold as you look. And you are very impartial. The child is innocent, so you won’t leave him in the lurch.” Shi Xiaoya pointed to her own heart and said, “At that time, this part felt as if something prodded it. It hurt a little, and felt a little numb.

“To your family, you will also do your best and be very responsible. You are righteous and don’t engage in scandalous affairs,” Shi Xiaoya said. “It might not be easy to walk into your heart, but once inside, you will definitely treat that person wholeheartedly. You will be sweet and considerate, taking care of everything for her, protect her, take care of her, and won’t betray her for the rest of your life.

“Considering how you are so good-looking, you can actually be so self-disciplined. How rare is that?” Shi Xiaoya was saying the truth, but when Han Zhuoling heard it, he just felt like laughing.

She was praising him for his good looks.

Han Zhuoling kind of felt like looking into the mirror right now.

“I don’t know much about doing business. I just occasionally hear my father and older brother mentioning it. I also know that there are many dirty deals in doing business, and many scandalous affairs, as well as many unspoken agreements,” Shi Xiaoya said. “But before I got together with you, I once heard my dad praising you before. He said you were one of the few on the righteous side. He also admired you the most, because you don’t use dirty tricks or underhanded means, and yet you can still defeat your opponents and win suavely.

“This kind of thing, even other CEOs as capable as you, who could clearly choose not to do such things, will still choose such methods for them to have an easier path to take. It makes the business scene so toxic. If they could all be like you, it wouldn’t force so many people into doing things they did not want to do.”

Han Zhuoling listened to Shi Xiaoya describing his virtues one by one.

He then heard Shi Xiaoya say, “When you like someone yet can’t really say what good sides he has, you will already feel that he is irreplaceable. Much less when I can say so many virtues that you have, and there are so, so many that I can’t even finish talking about. Who else can replace you?

“In my eyes, you are the best person, and no one else can be like you.” Shi Xiaoya rested her ear against his chest, listening to his heartbeat clearly. It was beating so fast, not as steady as it was usually.

Her shoulders were hugged tightly by Han Zhuoling, who squeezed his arms around her even more tightly.

“Thank you for liking me so much,” Han Zhuoling said in a hoarse voice. “Although I don’t think I am as good as you described.”

Chapter 2095: Are You Done Kissing?

Shi Xiaoya bumped against his chest a little.

But in her eyes, he was just that good.

“And,” Han Zhuoling said.

“What?” Shi Xiaoya looked up at him.

“Are you done kissing?” If you’re not done, then continue. Why did you stop?

Shi Xiaoya instantly did not know what to say.

That was such a heartwarming topic, but he suddenly ruined the mood.

Her passions were ignited—that was why she took the initiative just then.

Now that she had already calmed down, if he wanted her to take the initiative again, she could not do it.

But Han Zhuoling did not insist that she continue either.

Seeing that Shi Xiaoya did not answer, he thought to himself that she must be done kissing, so he hugged her even more tightly, then turned over and said, “Then it’s my turn now.”

This time, he did not kiss anywhere else and just sealed her lips.

Shi Xiaoya had been kissed breathless by him, but she could not help hugging him even more tightly.

As tightly as he hugged her.

As if she was soundlessly expressing how much she loved him.

Unknowingly, what her fingertips touched was no longer his pajamas but his solid yet smooth muscles, so silky to the touch that it felt like chocolate that was just starting to melt but not completely melted yet.

Her fingertips trembled. Her fingertips were way too soft, so when they glided across Han Zhuoling’s back, he was also affected by it.

That burning feeling in his heart became more and more intense. She was clearly just moving subconsciously, yet she could arouse him so much that he could not control himself.

Han Zhuoling captured her lips in a deep kiss and sank in at the same time.

Shi Xiaoya flinched once, and amid her whimpering moans, she trembled even more intensely in his arms.

Although the next day was Saturday, Han Zhuoling still remembered that Shi Guanzhong, Du Yiqin, as well as Shi Nancang were coming.

So it was a rare Saturday, yet he could not sleep any longer, afraid that it would leave a bad impression on his in-laws.

Anyway, he was used to waking up early. It could be said that no matter how late he slept, he would wake up at a fixed time in the morning.

Even if he only slept one hour earlier, he would still wake up at the same time.

It was only after he started living together with Shi Xiaoya that the time he woke up became a little later.

In the past, when he was alone, he would wake up at 5 AM and set off for work at 6 AM.

But ever since he moved in with Shi Xiaoya, he began waking up at 6 AM, go for a half-hour run before coming back, and leave together at 8:15 AM, sending Shi Xiaoya to her work studio first before heading to the company.

In the past, he would wake up at 5 AM without fail, and he lived with quite a lot of considerations.

But now, he was waking up at 6 AM every day without fail, living with much discipline.

But on weekends, when he was hugging Shi Xiaoya in his arms and did not need to go to work, it was very difficult for him to maintain this.

Usually on a workday, ever since he had Shi Xiaoya in his arms, waking up became an especially difficult thing to do.

He had been willing himself and relying purely on his determination to wake up.

When he did not need to go to work on weekends, and there was no need to wake up, Han Zhuoling would naturally love to cuddle with Shi Xiaoya in his arms.

The thing he liked doing most during the weekend was when he was just about to wake up, but too lazy to open his eyes.

His eyes were not even open yet, but he would first touch and cuddle with Shi Xiaoya before kissing her all over.

In the end, he would pull her back into his arms and then continue sleeping.

He just felt that this was way too pleasurable.

A wonderful weekend would have to begin like this.

Now, Han Zhuoling opened his eyes and reached for his phone to check. It was already 7:30 AM.

Shi Guanzhong did not say exactly when they were coming.

Han Zhuoling felt that given Shi Nancang's temper, it was very likely that he would instigate Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin to come and ambush them.

Chapter 2096: Mother-in-law, You Good

To see how he and Shi Xiaoya were like at home usually.

Han Zhuoling wiped his face with his hand to make himself wake up fully.

He propped his upper body up. He saw that Shi Xiaoya was still sound asleep, with one side of her shoulder and elbow exposed above the covers.

There was even a red mark on her shoulder that was left by him.

As if she felt a little chilly, Shi Xiaoya hid her fair elbow beneath the covers.

Her lips were full and reddened, even looking a little swollen from having just been kissed by him.

It was as tender as a piece of jelly.

Han Zhuoling lowered his head and planted a gentle kiss on her lips.

Afraid that he would wake her up, he did not dare to use much strength.

Seeing Shi Xiaoya's eyelashes flutter scared him so much that he quickly moved back.

Who would have imagined that the great First Young Master Han actually had such careful and delicate moments?

Luckily, Shi Xiaoya was not awoken by him. After her eyelashes fluttered a little, she then continued to sleep.

Han Zhuoling heaved a sigh of relief. It was rare that he woke up early on a weekend, so he went for a one-round morning jog before coming back.

The moment he came back, he realized that Shi Xiaoya had already woken up.

Han Zhuoling was still sweaty all over. He did not even care about wiping himself first but walked towards her and asked, "Why are you awake?"

"When I was asleep, I was trying to find you, but it was empty, so I woke up," Shi Xiaoya said. She had already washed up. Even if she felt a little sleepy earlier on, she was fully awake now.

She did not put on makeup; her face looked fair and clean. "This timing is perfect. You can go and shower, I'll prepare breakfast."

Han Zhuoling nodded, then asked again, "You woke up so early, but aren't you sleepy? You slept a little late last night."

Shi Xiaoya thought to herself, "You make it sound as if I was the only one who slept late."

Did he not think about who it was exactly who'd tired her out until midnight before letting her sleep?

Shi Xiaoya rolled her eyes at him without hesitation, to let him understand that feeling.

Han Zhuoling touched the space between his eyebrows with his finger and laughed.

This little girl, she felt no pressure scolding him at all now.

Seeing how she was not being all formal with him made him especially happy.

Shi Xiaoya thought to herself, "Why does this man feel a little dumb early in the morning?"

He actually looked so happy when she rolled her eyes at him.

In Han Zhuoling's eyes, it was as if Shi Xiaoya's thoughts were written all over her face. She did not hide her thoughts at all.

He laughed as he lowered his head and kissed her. "I'll go bathe."

Han Zhuoling went to bathe and Shi Xiaoya started preparing breakfast.

Anyway, there was enough time today, so Shi Xiaoya prepared plentifully.

Han Zhuoling came out after bathing. His bath towel was still hanging on his head. He rubbed his wet hair with the towel as he walked into the kitchen and saw that Shi Xiaoya was not done preparing yet.

Shi Xiaoya then said, "I will be done in another ten minutes or so, you just wait for a while more."

"There's no rush." As Han Zhuoling said that, he then slowly walked back to the living room while towel-drying his hair.

Shi Xiaoya was in the kitchen, so she naturally could not see that after Han Zhuoling walked into the living room, he picked up his phone and made a call.

"Mom, it's me, Zhuoling," Han Zhuoling said.

Even if Shi Xiaoya was there, just hearing what he said, she would think that he was speaking to Lin Liye over the phone.

But in actual fact, the person on the other end of the phone right now was Du Yiqin.

"Zhuoling." Du Yiqin was shocked. Why would Han Zhuoling call her?

Han Zhuoling checked the time. It was almost 9 AM. He asked, "I'm not disturbing you from your sleep, right?"

"No, I woke up early with your dad." Du Yiqin got used to it quite fast and just used "your dad" directly to refer to Shi Guanzhong.

This move actually stunned Han Zhuoling for a moment.

Mother-in-law, you good!

Chapter 2097: As If He Looked a Little Proud

Han Zhuoling praised her secretly in his heart, and then said, "Mom, what time are you and Dad coming over?"

Shi Guanzhong had already discussed with Shi Nancang that they want to ambush them, so they definitely could not tell Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya when exactly they were going to come over.

But as the mother-in-law, Du Yiqin thought about it and still decided to stand on her son-in-law's side.

Or else, there was really no one else left to help Han Zhuoling.

Du Yiqin glanced around. Shi Guanzhong was not here.

Du Yiqin then ran to the toilet secretly with her phone and closed the door, saying in a small voice, "I think it might be around noontime, so probably around 11 AM or so. We still have to wait for Nancang to come to our house to fetch us to go over together."

“Your dad and Nancang discussed it. They want to ambush you, so they didn’t tell me what time we’re going over. They want to make a surprise visit to see how you and Xiaoya are like at home,” Du Yiqin said in a small voice.

Han Zhuoling: “...”

It’s definitely Shi Nancang who instigated this!

Du Yiqin then said, “I told you secretly, they don’t know about this. Later, when we go over, you better not sell me out.”

“I definitely won’t do that,” Han Zhuoling said. “Rest assured.

“Thank you very much, Mom, you really treat me well,” Han Zhuoling said sweetly.

Han Zhuoling was sweet-talking, yet his voice still sounded especially proper.

So the words he said sounded exceptionally convincing and felt especially sincere.

Du Yiqin was touched by his sincerity and felt delighted. “Don’t worry, I will stand on your side!

“You called just to ask about this?” Du Yiqin asked.

“There’s one more thing.” Han Zhuoling still remembered his original motive for calling. “When you come, can you bring Xiaoya’s childhood photos over as well? I would like to take a look at them.”

Du Yiqin understood the moment she heard that. Han Zhuoling wanted to understand how Shi Xiaoya was like when she was young.

It was evident that he really loved Shi Xiaoya.

Du Yiqin naturally agreed and said, “Sure, I’ll bring them over for you.”

After ending the call, Han Zhuoling quickly cleaned up and packed up.

Actually, there was not much to pack.

Usually, after the two of them went to work, the helper auntie would come and clean up their rooms.

By the time they came back, the helper auntie would have left.

It was only during the weekends, when he wanted to have some couple time with Shi Xiaoya, that he did not ask the helper auntie to come over.

After he went to blow dry his hair, he checked and saw that his home clothes were quite neat and suitable to entertain guests.

At this moment, Shi Xiaoya placed the breakfast dishes on the table one by one and asked, “How are you done packing and cleaning so quickly?”

“Just now, I gave Mom a call.” Han Zhuoling came over and sat down.

Shi Xiaoya indeed misunderstood and thought that Han Zhuoling was referring to Lin Liye.

Right after that, she heard Han Zhuoling say, “Mom said Dad and your older brother plan to ambush us. They’re not going to tell us when they are coming and then suddenly come over, to see how we are like usually.”

Shi Xiaoya then knew that the “Mom” Han Zhuoling was calling was referring to Du Yiqin.

“But Mom told me all about it,” Han Zhuoling said.

For some reason, when he said those words, it seemed as if he looked a little proud.

Shi Xiaoya thought to herself, “We are not even married yet, and he’s already on pretty good terms with his future mother-in-law.”

Han Zhuoling rarely went to the company now on weekends unless he had really very important work to do. Usually, for work that was not that important, he would just finish them at home.

So, after eating breakfast, he still went to his study as usual to handle some work matters first.

Shi Xiaoya learned of the estimated time that Shi Guanzhong and the two would come, so she started preparing the ingredients needed for lunch.

With perfect timing, when she was done preparing everything, Shi Guanzhong and the other two arrived.

Chapter 2098: Really So Innocent?

Shi Nancang still had Shi Xiaoya’s house card.

Luckily, after Shi Nancang learned that Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling were living together, he did not dare to come as and when he liked as he had done in the past.

But he still felt that his younger sister had been taken advantage of and was unhappy with Han Zhuoling.

This kind of feeling he had was similar to Shi Guanzhong’s.

Even if Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling had already grown old together as a couple in the future, Shi Nancang and Shi Guanzhong’s attitude would not change.

But attitude was attitude—they still had to respect their boundaries.

Leaving the house card with Shi Nancang was just in case anything happened, in case any unexpected situation came up.

But he would not be able to come as and when he liked as he did in the past.

What if he bumped into an awkward situation?

The moment the three of them came in, Shi Guanzhong called out loudly, “Xiaoya, where are you, are you both at home?”

When Shi Xiaoya heard the voice, she came out to see them and pretended to look surprised as she said, “Dad, Mom, Older Brother, why didn’t you guys tell me first before coming? So that I could have prepared as well.”

Shi Guanzhong saw that their scheme worked and was very pleased, so he smiled and said, "We didn't tell you deliberately. We just wanted to come and see what you both usually do at home."

"What are you doing?" Shi Nancang noticed that Shi Xiaoya came out from the kitchen.

He instantly scoffed.

Usually, Shi Xiaoya did not do anything at home.

After she got together with Han Zhuoling, she actually had to personally do housework?

Could Han Zhuoling not afford a helper or what?

"Why, do you still need to do the housework by yourself?" Shi Nancang asked in displeasure.

"No." Shi Xiaoya quickly explained, "Didn't you guys say you were coming over today? But you didn't say what time you were coming. I planned to personally prepare a full table of dishes, but it would be too late if I wait until you guys come over and prepare last minute. So I was thinking, whether you guys came before lunch or before dinner, I can prepare the things beforehand first, so the moment you all come, I can immediately start cooking."

When Shi Guanzhong heard that, he said happily, "My daughter is really grown up now. You can even personally prepare a meal for us to eat."

Shi Nancang threw a look at Shi Guanzhong, thinking to himself, "Was Dad really so innocent now?"

"Why are you cooking personally? Where's the helper auntie?" Shi Nancang asked.

Shi Guanzhong also immediately reacted.

Right!

Why let his dear daughter do the housework at home!

He had been immersed in the joy of having Shi Xiaoya personally cook for them and had not realized this at once.

Shi Xiaoya then explained, "Usually, this is done by the helper auntie. It's just because you all are coming today, so I wanted to personally cook."

Shi Xiaoya frowned. "Isn't this good? I was thinking, there are not many chances where I can personally cook for you all. The last time was during New Year, actually. But that time, I only prepared a few dishes out of a full table of dishes. There are still many dishes you all haven't tried before. Just perfect, today, I can use the chance to prepare them."

How would Shi Xiaoya not understand Shi Nancang's thoughts? She complained a little and said, "Older Brother, why do you make it sound as if I usually suffer and tire myself out at home?"

Shi Nancang ground his teeth. This little girl, she did not appreciate it even when he was being nice to her!

"Okay, okay, okay," Du Yiqin quickly interjected and said, "Stop talking already. My daughter's cooking is really not bad. She takes after me in this regard. During the New Year, I even said that your cooking is too good and wondered when I can have a chance to try the dishes you cooked. I didn't think that today, I can eat them again."

Shi Xiaoya felt really reproachful when she heard that. "Mom, I'm really at fault for this. There are not even many times when I cook for you all to eat. How else can I be filial to you all?"

Chapter 2099: Daring

"Silly girl, why are you beating around the bush?" Du Yiqin poked her forehead and said, "You're busy with work usually. Forget cooking for us, even when you were staying here alone, how many times did you cook for yourself? Don't you always order takeout as well?"

"Even if you stay together with Zhuoling, most of the time, it's the helper doing the cooking usually, right?" Du Yiqin said. "And let's not talk about you. Even a normal family's daughter, when at their parent's home, aren't they always being pampered by their parents? At home, they really won't let them do a single bit of housework. It's only after marriage that they have to cook for their husband and children and do housework."

"Are they all unfilial, then? It's just us as parents feeling bad for our daughter. Don't be so formal and beat yourself up about it in the process. You cooking a few times personally for us is already very good. If you do it too many times, we won't be able to bear to let you," Du Yiqin then rubbed the reddened spot on Shi Xiaoya's forehead where she had just poked her.

She knew that Shi Xiaoya's skin would redden easily. Du Yiqin knew very well how much force she used when poking her and naturally would not bear to really poke her hard.

When she saw the red mark on Shi Xiaoya's forehead, she still could not help but feel her heart ache.

She massaged it twice while saying, "To us as parents, as long as our children are doing well, don't need us to worry about them, and have nothing that makes us anxious or fearful happen to them, that's already being filial to us."

Shi Xiaoya held Du Yiqin's hand and swayed it twice.

In front of Du Yiqin, she was totally like a little girl who had not grown up yet. "Then I will still be preparing a table full of dishes this afternoon for you all to try anyway."

"Okay, okay, okay." Du Yiqin smiled and said, "Do you need my help?"

"No need." Shi Xiaoya hooked her arm around Du Yiqin's elbow and went to the living room. "You all can just sit here and wait, or if you want to walk around and take a look, it's fine too. Our living room has a staircase connecting both floors as well."

Shi Xiaoya pointed to it for them to see.

"I have already prepared the ingredients, so I just need to cook them. There's nothing much I need help with," Shi Xiaoya said.

When Shi Guanzhong saw that there was no one in the living room, he asked, "Where's Zhuoling?"

Shi Xiaoya pointed to the floor above and said, "He's working in the study above. You guys wait for a while, I'll call him to come down."

"We installed a staircase, but if we were to renovate the whole layout completely, it would be a major project, so the original layout remains unchanged. My original bedroom is still my bedroom and is empty here. I still use my original study. Zhuoling uses the study above. If I need to shoot videos, I won't need to worry that the noise will affect him."

Shi Guanzhong nodded and said, "Don't call him, then. He's working, so let's not disturb him. We can call him after he's done."

"Don't mind us too. We will just take a look around ourselves," Shi Guanzhong said.

Although he said that, Shi Xiaoya still went upstairs to call Han Zhuoling.

Or else, if Han Zhuoling knew that she did not tell him when they came, he would complain to her as well.

Shi Xiaoya was quite daring towards Han Zhuoling now.

Shi Guanzhong really did not feel good disturbing Han Zhuoling at work, so he was not just saying it out of courtesy.

He had also heard of how much of a workaholic Han Zhuoling was in the past.

But now that he was together with Shi Xiaoya, he actually would stay at home during the weekends.

This already made him very surprised.

Maybe he did not have important things to do when working at home.

But the work that went to Han Zhuoling was definitely not some casual work, so naturally, he did not feel good to disturb him.

But just as Shi Guanzhong was thinking about this...

Chapter 2100: Witnessed a Major Hypocritical Scene

Shi Xiaoya did not even knock on the room door and just pushed the door to the study open and went in.

Shi Guanzhong and the three of them noticed it as well, as they did not hear Shi Xiaoya knocking on the room door.

In fact, Han Zhuoling had told Shi Xiaoya about this early on.

That there were no secrets between the two of them, so there was no need for the rule to knock before coming in.

They were all family in their own home, so there was no need to knock no matter which room they went into.

Shi Xiaoya pushed the door open and said to Han Zhuoling, "Dad, Mom, and Older Brother are here. They just came in."

When he heard that, Han Zhuoling immediately put aside his work and followed Shi Xiaoya downstairs.

"Dad, Mom, Older Brother," Han Zhuoling immediately greeted when he saw them.

Shi Nancang would feel his teeth hurt every time he heard Han Zhuoling call him Older Brother.

Han Zhuoling was quite a few years older than him!

First Young Master Han was really not an average person, and even then, he still managed to call him "older brother" so smoothly.

He was really a man capable of accomplishing big things!

Shi Guanzhong, who had agreed previously with Shi Nancang that they would gang up to make things difficult for Han Zhuoling, suddenly defected when he saw Han Zhuoling at this moment.

"We suddenly came over, did it disturb you from work?" Shi Guanzhong asked considerately.

Shi Nancang: "..."

Did his dad's attitude need to change so quickly?

Before they came, they'd already agreed that they would pick and find fault with Han Zhuoling and monitor him, so that he would improve on his flaws.

Who knew that, after they came, he'd witness a major hypocritical scene?

Han Zhuoling quickly explained, "No, I can do my work anytime. Family is more important."

Shi Nancang grumbled in his heart. He did not think that there would come a day that Han Zhuoling could be so glib-tongued.

If his opponents saw this, especially those who'd lost to him, they would surely be shocked beyond words.

"Zhuoling, you keep Dad, Mom, and Older Brother company. I'll go and prepare lunch," Shi Xiaoya then said to Han Zhuoling.

"Go on." Han Zhuoling nodded.

Du Yiqin then reminded her, "Just prepare a few dishes. There's not a lot of us anyway, we don't need to eat so much."

"Don't worry, Mom," Shi Xiaoya said and returned to the kitchen.

"Dad, Mom, Older Brother, please sit down," Han Zhuoling said. "I'll go and make some tea."

"Don't busy yourself, we will be eating soon," Du Yiqin said.

Han Zhuoling smiled and said, "It's fine. We can drink some tea before eating to cleanse our stomach, so we can eat more of the dishes Xiaoya prepared later."

After saying that, Han Zhuoling went to take the tea leaves.

There was a tea set placed on the coffee table.

Han Zhuoling made the tea for them.

Shi Guanzhong took a sip.

Han Zhuoling then asked, "Dad, Mom, Older Brother, do you want to take a look around our place?"

Shi Guanzhong had that same idea when Han Zhuoling mentioned it, so he agreed to it heartily.

Han Zhuoling then showed them around the house.

The floor that Shi Xiaoya was on, Shi Guanzhong and the trio were all very familiar with it.

So, the main point was the floor above.

"For the floor above, after I bought it, I discussed with Xiaoya before connecting it with the floor below. This made it a little more convenient. Anyway, we are not planning to sell this flat, so we will keep it as such, and we decided that it would be fine even if we connected the two floors."

As Han Zhuoling explained, he brought up their future plans. "My mom has already ordered a villa to gift it to us as our marital home. Her intention is to suit Xiaoya's wishes, to see whether Xiaoya is more used to staying here or moving to the villa after we get married. Either is fine. If we move to the villa, this place will be empty and kept for the memories."
