Chapter 2251: Imitate This If You Both Can Do It

The production team did not let the guests enter the villa to choose.

If they all went in together at once, it would be too messy.

So they chose to use a projector and play videos of each room once.

"I'll choose the first room," Han Zhuoling said.

"Okay, then, Han Zhuoling chose the first room, the Unparalleled Balcony Sea View Room," Chi Xingrui said. "Let's invite the guest to now decide whether you will choose a guest with lower points to stay together with you."

"Of course." Han Zhuoling's tone sounded as if he said, "Do you even need to say this?"

"I choose Xiaoya," Han Zhuoling said while smiling.

Everyone all catcalled and cheered.

Shi Xiaoya's face reddened. She still could not help but laugh as she walked towards Han Zhuoling.

Han Zhuoling's gaze just fixed on Shi Xiaoya all the way, watching her as she walked over.

When she was only halfway there, he extended his hand out to her.

Shi Xiaoya could not help but smile at him, her pair of round eyes curving into crescents as she smiled.

She walked over and just placed her hand on his.

She stopped beside him, and the two of them just continued holding hands like that.

Han Zhuoling turned around, staring at her with a gentle gaze.

Chi Xingrui quickly let the camera focus on the two of them and zoomed in with a closeup of their hands that were clasped together.

"Despite this, Ni Xue still dared to hit on him. What was she thinking?" Lan Jiexin said in a low voice to Peng Zhen.

Anyone with eyes could see how good Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya's relationship was. There was no room for a third party to get in between them.

"I don't think she intends to be very insistent on it either. She's just casting her net wide and trying it out, in case she gets it," Peng Zhen said in a hushed voice.

It looked like the two of them also knew that Ni Xue had just lost her sponsor.

"Now, let's invite Cao Jingcheng and Zhang Jian, who are in second place, to come and choose their rooms," Chi Xingrui then said.

When the two of them were done choosing, Chi Xingrui asked, "Will the two of you choose to share a room?"

Zhang Shuidong and Lin Yantao both knew that they would definitely be chosen by Zhang Jian and Cao Jingcheng.

They were on good terms with each other, especially as they were still filming now. It would be very easy for them to get hate if they enjoyed a room by themselves, and they would get bashed by the audience and the other party's fans.

Indeed, Cao Jingcheng then said, "Brother Zhang, are you willing to share a room with me?"

When Cao Jingcheng spoke, he switched to a Northeastern accent.

He was clearly a Southerner, yet who knew he could actually imitate that accent quite well?

Zhang Shuidong then also used the Northeastern accent to reply to him, "What else am I to do if I'm not willing!"

He was really afraid that Cao Jingcheng would go back on his word, so Zhang Shuidong quickly ran over to his side.

Unexpectedly, Cao Jingcheng actually imitated what Han Zhuoling did just now, extending his hand towards Zhang Shuidong.

Zhang Shuidong was excited the moment he saw that.

No wonder he was the Best Male Actor. His acting skills came whenever he wanted them to.

He was a grown old man imitating Shi Xiaoya being shy and smiling sweetly as he put his hand on Cao Jingcheng's.

And he performed way more exaggeratedly than Shi Xiaoya did.

Everyone laughed out loud.

Zhang Xiangyou slapped his thigh hard as he said, "It's fine if Brother Cao is the best at teasing, but he actually led Teacher Zhang's image astray as well!"

Peng Zhen also laughed 'til she had tears in her eyes. "I didn't expect Teacher Zhang to be so funny too HAHAHA! I feel like my rice bowl[1] isn't safe! If you both come and do comedy, what am I supposed to do?"

Zhang Shuidong stood beside Zhang Xiangyou, and Zhang Xiangyou instantly looked at him lovingly.

Shi Xiaoya also laughed like crazy, her face and neck reddening at the same time. She just leaned right into Han Zhuoling's embrace from laughing too hard.

Han Zhuoling hugged her and supported her to prevent her from collapsing from laughing too hard.

Shi Xiaoya looked out from Han Zhuoling's arms at Zhang Shuidong and Cao Jingcheng and said, "Imitate this! Imitate this if you both can do it!"

Chapter 2252: I Don't Know How to Set This Up

After saying that, Shi Xiaoya even purposely nudged her head in Han Zhuoling's chest cutely.

The corners of Cao Jingcheng's lips twitched. Liu Chuanhui and the others even started cheering at the side, "Right! Do it! Do it!"

Cao Jingcheng went all out and opened his arms wide at Zhang Shuidong as he said, "Brother Zhang, come here."

Zhang Shuidong laughed in anger and said, "I'm not coming!"

"Aiya, it's fine!" Cao Jingcheng said insistently. He just pulled Zhang Shuidong into his arms to hug him and even patted his back and said, "This is called brotherly love!"

Zhang Jian naturally chose to share a room with Lin Yantao.

Zhang Jian also did the same gimmick and extended his hand towards Lin Yantao.

Lin Yantao held hands with Zhang Jian, and they looked at each other lovingly.

The two of them were even more unreserved and did not even hesitate before hugging each other.

Even Shi Xiaoya had no tricks left.

She could not possibly kiss for them to see.

Alas, Zhang Xiangyou added fuel to the fire and started saying, "Xiaoya! Give us a kiss! Let's see if they'd still dare to imitate that!"

Shi Xiaoya laughed 'til her stomach hurt as she said, "Better not! I think we can't underestimate their limits. If they really kissed, the show will be banned."

"You little punk, what are you cheering for!" Zhang Shuidong scolded him jokingly. "It's your turn now! Didn't you get four points? Quick, choose!"

Zhang Xiangyou casually chose a room.

Actually, the rooms were more or less the same. The size of the rooms was more or less uniform, along with the views. The difference was not that big.

"Then Xiangyou, do you also want to invite a guest to share a room with you?" Chi Xingrui asked.

Zhang Xiangyou did not know whether to cry or laugh as he said, "How can I invite anyone! The remaining guests are all ladies."

Zhang Xiangyou turned and bowed deeply to the remaining guests, Lan Jiexin, Peng Zhen, and Ni Xue.

"I'm sorry, the three of you. No matter what, I can't invite any of you to share a room with me. That is not suitable, way too unsuitable!" Zhang Xiangyou put his fists together and said, "Then I will... I will enjoy a room to myself!"

After Zhang Xiangyou said that, he jokingly ran over to the group that had chosen their rooms.

"There is one last room left," Chi Xingrui then said. "Lan Jiexin has three points. Let's invite Lan Jiexin to choose whether she wants to invite a guest to share a room with her."

Lan Jiexin smiled happily as she held Peng Zhen's hand and said, "Then I will definitely choose my teammate! Our team will have to stay together as one whole."

Afterward, the two of them walked hand in hand towards the opposite group.

Lan Jiexin was very tactful when she spoke in this manner.

It was not that she would not choose a certain someone.

She could only choose one person between the two.

Choosing the teammate with whom she was closer would make the audience understand it.

Who would go and choose the opposing team's member for no reason?

In this way, people would not think that she did not choose Ni Xue because she did not like her.

It was just because she prioritized choosing her teammate first. This was a very reasonable and understandable reason.

In the end, Ni Xue was the only one left behind.

The last room had been taken by Lan Jiexin.

"Then, for Ni Xue, who's in the last place, because she did not earn any points for her team in the team competitions and did not get invited during the room choosing segment, she will now receive the punishment," Chi Xingrui said.

After Chi Xingrui said that, there were staff members who came up and presented a tent.

"Ni Xue will spend the night in this tent. The tent has to be set up manually, it's not the automatic type," Chi Xingrui explained. "You can ask the other guests if they can accept having the tent pitched within the villa's courtyard. If not, you have to find a suitable place nearby."

Ni Xue: "..."

Setting up the tent in the villa's courtyard was not any better, okay?

Ni Xue thought about it. She then walked up to Zhang Xiangyou as she said coquettishly, "Xiangyou, do you know how to pitch a tent? I don't know how to set this up."

Chapter 2253: A Little Scared

When everyone saw that, they thought to themselves, "Why don't you just say upfront that you want to exchange accommodations with Zhang Xiangyou?"

Unexpectedly, Ni Xue actually really asked, "Erm... can the two of us swap?"

Zhang Xiangyou felt really put in a spot.

Deep down, he certainly did not want to swap.

He did not want to be in a tent either!

And he won the room with his own capability, so why should the winner have to be the one giving in?

If it was about being gentlemanly, no matter which other person it was today, whether it was Lan Jiexin or Peng Zhen, he would be quite happy to do it.

But for Ni Xue, forget it.

Ni Xue even appeared like a weakling when she brought up such a request just now. Actually, she was just forcing him to give up his room.

If he did not, he would be ungentlemanly and would be criticized by her from a moral perspective.

The more Ni Xue was being like this, the more he did not want to give in, on the contrary.

Yet the cameras were still rolling, so it was really not appropriate for Zhang Xiangyou to say “no” outright.

Or else he would be bashed by keyboard warriors as being so ungentlemanly as to bully a girl.

A grown man like him, couldn't he just swap with a girl?

He would be bashed to death by Ni Xue's fans, affecting his popularity.

He was not stupid.

No one who'd made a name for themselves in the entertainment industry was a fool.

Ni Xue caught this point, and that was why she asked him in front of the camera.

How brilliant she was. She'd slacked off in the team competitions, and now that she was going to be punished, she acted pitiful, thinking she could just muddle her way through.

The others all could not stand it.

Han Zhuoling was about to say something, but amid the crowd of production team members opposite him, Lu Dongliu said very loudly, “You can't swap rooms, or else the penalty segment would lose its meaning. If you lost, you will have to accept the penalty. If everyone did something like this, where whoever loses would want to plead for leniency and swap with someone else when they are about to receive the punishment, it would be unfair to the person who won. Why should the people who won based on their own merit be punished instead? I think the audience would not want to see this happening either.

“Our show aims to be fair and just, to reward the winners and punish the losers. If everyone broke the rules, could this show still go on?” Lu Dongliu did not mince his words at all when he said those words.

Also, he was indeed being firm.

The variety shows under his belt were all explosively popular. It could be said that every show he did became popular.

How many celebrities whose popularity had long died down and who'd long been forgotten by the audience became popular once again after being on his shows?

Lu Dongliu had now been called the top variety show director in the industry.

He was a popularity-churning machine.

The industry had already come to a silent consensus that whoever it was that wanted to make a popularity comeback, going to Lu Dongliu's show was the foolproof way.

He had deep-rooted connections within the industry, which went way beyond normal celebrities but rather involved those A-listers who had their own companies and owned sizeable shares in various major media companies. Other celebrities really could not afford to easily offend Lu Dongliu.

Lu Dongliu's own backer was Dong Hua Station to begin with.

If you offended Lu Dongliu, you would not be able to attend any of Dong Hua Station's shows, which would make you lose out on one huge viewership platform. This in itself was a very disadvantageous situation.

Much less Lu Dongliu himself.

Hence, when Lu Dongliu said that so bluntly without giving her any face at all, as someone who did not even have solid roots in the industry, even if Ni Xue felt angry, embarrassed, aggrieved, and furious, she would not dare to say no to Lu Dongliu, much less throw a temper.

But Ni Xue lowered her head, and tears started streaming down her face as she sobbed softly and said, "I'm... I'm sorry. I didn't mean to break the rules on purpose. I was just... just a little scared."

Zhang Xiangyou's face had even turned dark.

If she said that, wouldn't he have to initiate the swap with her?

Lan Jiexin and Peng Zhen exchanged glances and nodded their heads slightly.

Chapter 2254: Sponsor Daddy Is Even Here Watching

Lan Jiexin said, "Director, can you let Ni Xue stay with us? The three of us can squeeze a bit."

Truth be told, they did not want to share a room with Ni Xue either.

They still did not know that there were cameras inside the room too.

It's just that it was just this one night anyway. They would just bear with it.

It was not good to let Ni Xue keep crying like that.

To be honest, if there were no cameras there, they would not have cared even if Ni Xue cried a waterfall. They would not even say a word.

But in front of the cameras, won't they have to show their friendliness and care?

Or else they would be attacked by keyboard warriors and fans.

Those people would point out that the two of them were women, but they did not even bother helping out.

But Lu Dongliu rejected it again and said, "No. One room can only have two people at most. We must abide by the rules. If you are to receive the penalty, you should accept the penalty. Actually, it's just sleeping in a tent, it's not like you'll be sleeping on the streets. The temperature is suitable for that now. It's not too cold or too hot at night, and the weather is just nice. Sleeping in a tent isn't a very difficult ordeal.

"And our production team's staff also sleep in tents, including myself." Lu Dongliu's words rebutted Ni Xue's previous words.

Liu Chuanhui said in surprise, "How come? You all aren't staying in a hotel?"

"This mountain is full of high-end villas. Our production team can't afford to waste our budget like this." Lu Dongliu laughed as he said, "Sponsor daddy is even here watching."

Everyone turned to look at Han Zhuoling.

Was it not true?

Sponsor daddy was here!

They all forgot about it!

"If we too stayed in the villas here, it would be way too luxurious. Our budget doesn't allow us to burn our funds like that," Lu Dongliu said. "If we stayed in a normal hotel, in a place very far down at the foot of the mountain, it won't be convenient for us to shoot. If the guests here have any issue and want to look for us, we won't be able to arrive in time to resolve the matter, so we just pitched tents outside."

Everyone nodded and said, "I see."

Zhang Shuidong said very sincerely, "Ni Xue, it's because you didn't attend the first episode. I don't know if you watched it. The first episode that we participated in was located on a deserted island. We all slept in tents. And that island's weather was not as good as it is here.

"There was a huge difference in temperature between day and night. In the day, it was hot, but at night, it was especially cold. All the guests and the staff had to sleep in tents outdoors. Actually, it's not something very difficult. It will just be this one night tonight, try to overcome it!"

Actually, everyone all felt deep down that, since you came to participate in the show, you should adhere to the show's rules.

You want to come to the show to boost your own popularity but don't want to suffer. How could there be such a sweet deal?

It was not like you were some A-list big shot who could throw some big shot temper.

And speaking about big shots, Best Male Actor Zhang Shuidong was here, as well as the internationally renowned celebrity Cao Jingcheng.

They'd had their fair share of suffering in the previous episodes too.

They did not even say anything, yet Ni Xue really thought she was something.

And actually, Ni Xue was quite foolish.

If you slept in a tent alone, although the conditions were a little poor, that would become a topic!

The production team would surely give you quite a few scenes.

Especially if you portrayed yourself to be suffering a little more yet enduring it and finding joy amid the suffering, making some jokes while pitching the tent clumsily. These would all be scenes that could go on camera.

As long as her performance was good, the official broadcast version would certainly have a fair share of scenes with her in it, and she could even attract a wave of fans.

Zhang Shuidong and the others with experience had already thought of these things.

He thought to himself that Ni Xue served herself right for not getting famous if she could not even think of these things.

Chapter 2255: Do I Need a Meal from You Guys?

Given her short-sightedness, even if she found another sponsor to invest heavily in her, she would not be able to get famous.

Lin Yantao even deemed in his heart that Ni Xue would never get famous even in the future!

And Ni Xue?

Seeing that the staff in the production team were also in the same situation, what else could she say?

She could only accept her fate.

However, everyone still helped her to pitch her tent first before entering the villa.

Ni Xue, on the other hand, stayed in the tent alone to fume and be upset.

It was all because of Han Zhuoling. He had to choose Shi Xiaoya, that was why there was an odd number of male and female guests left.

If he'd chosen a male guest, there would have been a spare room for her, and she would not need to stay here!

At this moment, the director in charge of following her said outside the tent, "Teacher Ni, I came here to give you supplies."

Ni Xue thought to herself, "What supplies?"

She opened the tent cover curiously and saw the director putting a big bag down. The director said, "There are toiletries inside, a self-heating hotpot and mineral water, and tomorrow's breakfast. It will be hard on you for you to only eat these."

Ni Xue's rage blew up at once. "I can't even go into the villa to borrow theirs to use? Even for dinner and breakfast, I can't go and eat the hotel's food?"

"I'm sorry, this is all included in the penalty," the director said with an apologetic smile. "And the hotel only provides toiletries and breakfast for two per room."

"Hah!" Ni Xue scoffed. Did they think she's stupid?

“The ones provided for the guests are free, but if I want to go and eat, I can pay for it individually, right?” Ni Xue asked coldly. “If your production team is not willing to pay this for me, it’s fine, I can do it myself.”

“My apologies, but this is part of the penalty for the show. I hope you can cooperate with us,” that director persuaded her kindly. “How about this? When the show ends, our production team will treat you to a meal. Take it as us making it up to you, for the grievances you had to endure in the show.”

“Do I need a meal from you guys?” Ni Xue said furiously. “You guys just went too far with this!”

She took the backpack and opened it. The bread and milk inside really made one lose appetite on sight.

The others would be eating good food in the hotel, with a great meal at night and a steaming hot buffet for breakfast.

And her?

She would be here eating this self-heating hotpot?

Eating cold bread and milk here!

“I wonder where we went too far?” Lu Dongliu said as he walked over.

He was checking on the situation with each pair, and from afar, he saw that this side seemed to be in a tense situation.

Lu Dongliu then walked over.

As he walked over, he happened to hear everything that Ni Xue said.

To Lu Dongliu, Ni Xue did not dare to be so stubborn and insistent.

Lu Dongliu then sad, “This show has finished shooting for the whole season. In all the previous episodes, there would be penalty segments every now and then. There were many punishments that were much more arduous than this. This time, because you are a female guest, we took this into consideration and lowered the difficulty level of the punishment. If it were a male guest today, the punishment would not have been so simple.”

“Actually, to be honest, yours doesn’t even count as a penalty. Staying in a tent and eating instant food are all normal happenings in the past episodes. All the guests had had to do that, with no exception. No one ever complained about it before either,” Lu Dongliu said.

“Today, it’s just that the other guests are staying in better accommodation and eating better food, so you feel the imbalance.” Lu Dongliu scratched his eyebrow lightly and said, “If you think our production team is not treating you fairly, you can go to a hotel and pay for a room out of your own pocket.”

Chapter 2256: Did Not Even Know That She Got a Good Deal

Ni Xue suspected in her heart, was Lu Dongliu really that easygoing?

Indeed, right after that, she heard Lu Dongliu say, "But if you do this, our show can't continue filming. In that case, I'm sorry, but I can only remove all the scenes that you have already shot previously. I can't let the audience think that our show is a joke.

"This is a segment that was agreed-on, after all, yet it could be adjusted just because a guest was not happy.

"Our show still has to shoot for Season 2, Season 3, and so on," Lu Dongliu said. "If you break the rules now, in the future, we won't be able to explain ourselves to other guests. People who are of higher celebrity status than you can also come and tell us, even Ni Xue can change the rules, why can't I?"

"You have your own difficulties, and I have mine," Lu Dongliu said. "We should be understanding of each other, actually. You came to join our show, and the terms have already been written down in the contract in black and white. You have to cooperate with our various segments. As long as we are not going overboard with our requests, you have to cooperate with us.

"Is our penalty request going too far? Does it endanger your wellbeing, harm your health, endanger your personal safety, or ruin your reputation? None of these apply. We are just asking you to sleep in a tent and eat a little more simply.

"All variety shows need to have special effects. It just so happens that the effect for this episode lies with you. And this is a special episode. It draws on the popularity accumulated over the past several episodes of the show. I can promise you, the viewership ratings for this episode will be especially high," Lu Dongliu said. "As the only member being punished in this episode, you will have many more scenes. Have you thought of that?"

Lu Dongliu even spoke about this already, so Ni Xue finally understood.

"Whether you want to continue filming or you want to leave, you can decide," Lu Dongliu said coldly.

"Director Lu, I was immature and misunderstood the production team's intentions." Ni Xue immediately bowed down and lowered her stance.

"Many thanks for cooperating." Lu Dongliu left after saying that.

That director saw that Ni Xue was finally willing to cooperate and had also accepted the conditions.

The follow director did not dare to stay for much longer, afraid that Ni Xue would suddenly change her mind and would want to continue pestering. The follow director quickly chased after Lu Dongliu to leave.

Lu Dongliu felt tired in his heart right now.

Why did he have to meet a few pea-brains in every episode?

If he did not make things clear, they would not be able to understand it.

If it was a smart person, even if he suffered a little, he would still be happy to do it.

But Ni Xue did not even know that she got a good deal.

Just wait.

Ni Xue's EQ was like that.

After this episode aired, she would really have a lot to deal with. Who knew how badly she would be bashed by the audience?

Lu Dongliu stroked his chin and thought for a while before he quickly called Chi Xingrui over.

"I have an idea," Lu Dongliu said to him.

Chi Xingrui waited for Lu Dongliu to continue speaking.

Lu Dongliu then said, "For our special episode, let's broadcast two versions. One version will be for the television station and online streaming. The other will be an extended version."

"Won't this be the same format as that of other variety shows? They split theirs into a usual version and one members' exclusive version, wherein the members' exclusive version included more scenes that had been edited out by the television station," Chi Xingrui said, feeling puzzled.

This could not have been the thing that made Lu Dongliu so excited.

Indeed, Lu Dongliu said, "I'm not talking about that kind. I'm talking about the real and complete version.

"For the content that we film, besides some longwinded and unnecessary scenes to be cut, the rest of it will not have a single scene cut at all," Lu Dongliu said, "no matter whether it's the guests' minor interactions with each other or our production team discussing issues. Most importantly, all the scenes showing the uncooperative behavior that Ni Xue had displayed today, we will not cut any of those out."

Chapter 2257: Don't Blame Him for Using Her

"It's similar to a live-stream, but we've already recorded it, and we will upload all of that online to broadcast," Lu Dongliu said. "I also just thought of this idea. We could have just done a 24-hour live-stream otherwise.

"But saying that is too late now. So I'm thinking, we can change up the format of the live-stream. Anyway, if we really live-streamed for 24 hours, the audience would also not have time to glue their eyes to the screen from day to night. We will still present all the content, but the audience can slowly watch it whenever and wherever they want. Whenever they have time, they can continue watching it. They won't miss any scenes."

When Chi Xingrui heard that, he felt that this was plausible.

"Good idea! Up 'til now, there doesn't seem to be such a broadcast format. And we are broadcasting this on our own platform, so we don't need to liaise with other video platforms," Chi Xingrui said as he nodded. This was the convenience of having their own online video platform.

"Gather the show's program and publicity planning staff, let's have a mini-meeting. This is just a rough idea of mine, we still need to discuss the details to produce a complete plan," Lu Dongliu said. "We have to do this ASAP. The show will air this weekend. Right after the show airs, we will upload on the video platform for members the television station version and the complete unedited version."

Chi Xingrui immediately went to call those people.

Lu Dongliu turned back and glanced at Ni Xue's tent.

Ni Xue should also not blame him for using her.

If she had not made trouble out of nothing, even if the complete version came out, it would not cause any negative impact on her.

Just like how this complete version would not cause any negative impact on the other guests.

So, everything was still up to herself.

However, Lu Dongliu indeed got inspiration from Ni Xue's attitude.

He was only persuading Ni Xue just then and advising her that receiving punishment was actually a very good way to increase her scenes.

Actually, on the flip side, Ni Xue behaving like this was also a very good gimmick and conflict point that could draw the audience's eyeballs.

Putting it in the official broadcast version with the television station was clearly not very appropriate, and it was not very suitable for editing either.

But if they aired the complete version online, then this last special episode of Survivor might really just become a big big hit, surpassing all the previous usual episodes.

Lu Dongliu gathered the staff on his end and started the discussions while Shi Xiaoya and the others also entered the villa.

There were a total of three floors and six rooms.

There were two rooms on every floor, which could fit all 11 of them in one villa.

"Ey, there are cameras in here too." Peng Zhen noticed the cameras all around the living room.

At the corners of the ceiling, on the table, on top of the shelves, they were everywhere.

"Don't tell me there are cameras in the rooms too." Zhang Jian just casually said that, but it actually alerted everyone.

They had quickly gone back to their rooms first and tidied themselves up at the same time.

Yet the moment they entered the room, indeed, they saw that the rooms also had cameras installed.

"Will these be recording for the show too?" Shi Xiaoya was stunned.

But luckily, quite a lot of variety shows have such a format now, so they would not really cause much discomfort.

Just that, in this way, they would have to be careful of their every word and action in the rooms too.

Han Zhuoling plainly glanced in the direction of the camera.

The staff who had been manning the camera all this time felt utterly pressured by that cold glance of his.

Before he even had time to think, his first reaction was to subconsciously, quietly, turn the camera in another direction.

Chapter 2258: What's So Fun About It

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

Was he so unprincipled?

"What are you scaring people for?" Shi Xiaoya said in amusement.

Han Zhuoling even felt wronged as he said, "I didn't scare him, I just glanced at him."

Hence, the staff turned the camera head back quietly again.

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

Do you need to be so scared?

Han Zhuoling saw that too and glanced at it again expressionlessly.

The camera turned away again...

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

Why did she suddenly feel that it was a little cute?

Shi Xiaoya walked over in amusement and said to the camera, "Why are you so timid?"

The camera silently raised itself upwards by 45 degrees, as if it was looking up at the sky sheepishly.

Han Zhuoling saw that Shi Xiaoya's attention was actually drawn away by a camera.

And she actually started interacting with it.

But behind this camera was someone who was controlling it.

Wasn't Shi Xiaoya interacting with other people indirectly? And there was an 80% possibility that she was interacting with a man.

Han Zhuoling felt very jealous now.

He just took the ornamental handkerchief on the table beside him and covered the camera with it.

The camera instantly blacked out.

"Stop looking at it. What's so fun about it?" As Han Zhuoling said that, he carried Shi Xiaoya up into his arms.

Before Shi Xiaoya could react, she had been picked up by Han Zhuoling and placed sitting on the cabinet.

Almost at the same time, Han Zhuoling kissed her.

Shi Xiaoya subconsciously held on to his shoulders. In that instant, she could not think of anything at all.

Her mind went blank.

Only her lips could feel his kiss. She could feel the scalding hot warmth from his lips, feel him filling her whole mouth.

But what Han Zhuoling wanted to do now was not just to fill her whole mouth.

This damned camera was all to blame for that!

Han Zhuoling clasped her waist and had to stop.

If he continued, he was afraid that he really would not be able to hold it in.

Shi Xiaoya did not even dare to show her face.

When their lips parted, Shi Xiaoya immediately buried her face in Han Zhuoling's shoulder like an ostrich, refusing to lift her face up no matter what.

"There are still other cameras here," Shi Xiaoya said in a small voice.

She just hid in his arms, too embarrassed to come out.

"If not because there are other cameras around, I would have carried you onto the bed long ago," Han Zhuoling said in a low voice.

He lowered his head slightly, his lips pressing against her ear. "And the production team will edit afterward."

"But there's also so many other staff watching," Shi Xiaoya mumbled.

There were people behind the cameras.

Han Zhuoling instantly looked at another camera.

That camera instantly turned away to avoid his gaze.

At this moment, Han Zhuoling did not know at all that Lu Dongliu intended to broadcast a complete version.

Without the edits, the netizens would see this whole part of their interaction.

Han Zhuoling of course did not have the kink of getting intimate with Shi Xiaoya in front of so many pairs of eyes.

He just could not help it for a moment.

So at this moment, he also let her go.

"We'll be eating in a while. Do you want to shower first? You've been tired for the whole day." When Han Zhuoling asked her that, she carried her down from the cabinet.

"Yeah, yeah." Shi Xiaoya nodded fervently.

But her words actually gave Han Zhuoling an idea. "Yeah?"

He carried Shi Xiaoya down, but he had not let her go. His hands were still on her waist.

At this moment, all the more he would not let go.

Chapter 2259: Would He Come for Their Lives?

His hands clasped tightly onto the back of her waist and he suddenly pressed her into his arms, leaning in tightly.

Shi Xiaoya's abdomen subconsciously shrank back, heating up furiously.

"With so many cameras around, it won't be good, right?" Han Zhuoling said with a low chuckle.

That voice was low and hoarse but so magnetic. It sounded exceptionally seductive.

"But..." Han Zhuoling lowered his voice, not letting the mic capture it.

He leaned in closer to Shi Xiaoya's ear and said softly, "But if you want it so badly, I won't say no."

His much lower voice became even more seductive.

Luckily, it was not picked up by the mic, so the staff could not hear it.

Or else Shi Xiaoya would be too embarrassed to see anyone.

She smacked him in a huff and said, "I'm not! Don't misunderstand what I meant!"

Han Zhuoling hugged Shi Xiaoya, trapping her in front of the cabinet. "I'm sharing a room with you. We'll clearly be sleeping together at night, yet we can't do anything. If I'd known earlier, I won't have come and participated in this show. It's too torturous."

When he said this, Han Zhuoling did not purposely lower his voice.

The camera could also record it clearly.

A few staff controlled the equipment in the rooms provided by the hotel. There was a row of screens before them, filled with the scenes from each room.

When they heard Han Zhuoling's words, they instantly fell speechless.

"Young Master Ling doesn't know we're going to publish a complete version," someone at the side said. "Say, if this show airs and the audience hears everything that Young Master Ling said, will he come after our lives?"

Everybody: "..."

"Should we tell Director Lu first, so he could go and give Young Master Ling a warning?" another person said. "I'm afraid he might even say some R-18 content."

"Right, right."

This suggestion was agreed upon unanimously.

"I... I'll go and bathe first!" Shi Xiaoya secretly pinched his abdomen and said in a small voice, "You, quickly calm down on your own!"

When Shi Xiaoya said that, her face was all red.

Han Zhuoling chuckled lightly and planted a kiss on Shi Xiaoya's lips again before he let her leave.

Shi Xiaoya quickly went to her luggage to dig out fresh clothes to bring into the bathroom.

When they set off from that hotel in the morning, they did not bring their luggage out.

But during the filming, the production team did ask the guests' respective assistants to help pack the guests' luggage and send it over.

So when the guests came into the villa, their luggage was all there.

They could each take their own luggage and go into the rooms that they chose.

Shi Xiaoya entered the bathroom, so the cameras in the room could only shoot Han Zhuoling.

Yet they saw Han Zhuoling also take out a new pair of clothes, then hesitate for a few seconds outside the bathroom before opening the door and going in.

The staff: "..."

This was a massive single-dogs-abuse venue.

Shi Xiaoya was bathing inside, and Han Zhuoling also went in with his clothes. What else could they do?

Shi Xiaoya had just removed her makeup and her clothes and went in wanting to take a quick shower.

Yet she did not expect that Han Zhuoling would actually come in!

"Why did you come in?" Shi Xiaoya asked in shock.

Han Zhuoling shook the clothes in his hand and said, "I came in to bathe."

Shi Xiaoya: "???"

"If the two of us bathe together, it will go a little faster," Han Zhuoling said, as if it was true.

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

Are you sure?

When had bathing together with Han Zhuoling gone quickly before?

However, Shi Xiaoya was not worried.

Anyway, afterward, she could just ask the production team to edit out the scene of Han Zhuoling entering the bathroom after she went in.

Poor Shi Xiaoya, she was still too young.

Chapter 2260: Young Master Ling's Beginner's Tutorial Experience

She did not know of the production team's plans yet.

Although Han Zhuoling went in, he did not do anything this time, and the two of them were done showering very quickly.

Although there were no cameras in the bathroom, there were some outside, so he was worried that the sound could be heard.

And if they took a long time, it would easily make people's imaginations run wild.

No matter how much he wanted it, he was not urgently in need of it in this moment. He still had to spare a thought for Shi Xiaoya's face.

So the two of them very quickly tidied up and went to gather with the other guests.

The production team did not need to think of a games segment for them.

Zhang Jian, Zhang Xiangyou, Cao Jingcheng, these people all loved to play.

Even Liu Chuanhui and Lin Jingyan, those seniors, as long as it was not a physical activity, they were pretty spontaneous.

So after everyone had dinner, they started playing a few games together.

Zhang Xiangyou suddenly asked, "Xiao He, you're good at PUBG. Then what about Honor of Kings?"

"Average," Cheng He said. "PUBG relies quite a lot on luck. If you're unlucky, even a gamer god can get eliminated. As for Honor of Kings, I played League of Legends before, but it seems a little different from mobile games. I tried it a few times before, but I wasn't very used to the game controls on my mobile phone. But after I got used to it, I was pretty okay."

"Then let's play two rounds." Zhang Xiangyou instantly got his spirits up and said, "I still believe that a professional gamer god will be very impressive no matter what game he plays."

"Come, come, I'm in too," Zhang Jian said as he rolled up his sleeves.

Cao Jingcheng also played this and asked, "Xiaoya, do you play this?"

"Yeah, but I'm too much of a noob at it," Shi Xiaoya said, feeling a little embarrassed.

"Don't worry, I'll ask Xiao He to pull you along," Lin Jingyan said.

Who'd have guessed that Lin Jingyan played that as well?

The people who did not know how to play were Zhang Shuidong, Liu Chuanhui, and Han Zhuoling.

Cao Jingcheng said jokingly, "Brother Zhang, Brother Liu, the two of you can't be like this. You're both clearly around the same age as Brother Lin. Even brother Lin keeps up with the trends. The two of you are falling behind."

How sly of an old fox Liu Chuanhui was. The moment he heard that, he said cheekily, "The two of us indeed are not keeping up with the trends very well. But Young Master Ling is younger than us, yet he doesn't know how to play either. You can't say such things that imply Young Master Ling is old and can't keep up with the trends."

Cao Jingcheng: "..."

He was a sly old fox indeed!

Han Zhuoling did not mind hearing any other things, but he just could not stand others saying that he was old.

“What kind of game is Honor of Kings? I will try it too,” Han Zhuoling said. He tilted his chin up a little and continued, “I’m quite fast at learning things. I also got the hang of PUBG after learning how to play it.”

Shi Xiaoya then downloaded the game for Han Zhuoling.

After the game was downloaded, Han Zhuoling wanted to join them eagerly.

“You can’t,” Shi Xiaoya said, feeling bad for him. “Our status is different, so we can’t pull you along. And you still have to go through a beginner’s tutorial.”

Han Zhuoling: “...”

“So that means you all will be chummily competing for the rankings while I stay behind alone to go through the beginner’s tutorial by myself?” Han Zhuoling said, raising his eyebrow.

The others: “...”

They could not tell that Han Zhuoling was actually quite a jealous person!

What’s wrong with them playing a game together?

He became so jealous when they were just going to play a game!

The people present had all been through the PUBG session previously.

So they were not too surprised.

Cao Jingcheng said, “Aren’t there eight of us? This game is played in teams of four. Four of us can play first, and the rest can wait for you.”

“Why should we still split into two groups, then?” Zhang Jian said. “We can wait together, and we can also take a look at Young Master Ling’s beginner’s tutorial experience.”

Everyone instantly understood Zhang Jian’s point.
