

Mr Han 2421

Chapter 2421: Suspect

Han Zhuoli felt that Xia Qingwei's thinking was indeed very logical.

If the two cases were connected and they treated them as a serial case to solve, they might find new perspectives and leads from there.

So Han Zhuoli told Han Zhuoling about this.

Luckily, the Han Corporation had set their roots solidly here so they had their own connections and means.

They had connections with the underworld too.

"Did you ever suspect Wang Qianyun and Lin Jinshu?" Han Zhuoling said through the phone.

Han Zhuoli's heart skipped. As he was a bystander, Han Zhuoling's judgment and thoughts would not be affected by so many things, and he would naturally come up with more ideas and think faster.

Now Han Zhuoli's heart was all on Lu Man. Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei's thoughts were all on Yijun who had been snatched away.

The three of them would not be able to look at this incident with a more rational mind.

Only Han Zhuoling and Han Zhuofeng, although they were also worried, still had more space to think about this matter.

The moment Han Zhuoling mentioned that, Han Zhuoli instantly reacted. "Wang Qianyun wanted to deal with Lu Man while Lin Jinshu hates my mother-in-law, so she targeted Yijun. This does make sense.

"And, previously at the Mega Charity Gala, their attitudes had actually been quite suspicious, now that I think back on it," Han Zhuoling said. "Given how much Wang Qianyun pestered you and our attitude towards her at that time, she actually did not say anything and did not behave as she did in the past, speaking words to make you two sound like you are close.

"Clearly, she had still been pestering you previously, yet she suddenly thought things through within such a short period of time? I don't believe it," Han Zhuoling said in a somber voice.

Wang Qianyun had pined for Han Zhuoli for more than a decade. Yet she could give up within a few months?

It was impossible no matter how you thought about it.

"That kind of forbearance must definitely have been because she had been planning something," Han Zhuoling said in a low voice. "It's our fault that we actually didn't get our guard up because of that."

But they were not clairvoyant. Who would have been able to think of so many things?

"If we investigate Wang Qianyun and Lin Jinshu now, it won't be too late," Han Zhuoli said.

Hence, Han Zhuoling immediately went with Han Zhuofeng to start investigating Lin Jinshu and Wang Qianyun.

Xia Qingwei and Wang Juhuai remained in the police station, waiting to see if there were any new discoveries.

Xia Qingwei had countless negative scenarios playing out in her mind. She was afraid that she might never see little Yijun again in her life.

The police asked them to go back to wait for news.

But how could Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei go back and wait? They would rather stay here to do so.

“Those people... What would those people do after they’ve snatched Yijun away?” Xia Qingwei said in a small voice. “I really don’t understand, why did they have to capture Yijun? He’s such a small child. Why!

“If there was really any enmity, just target us adults! What did they take the child for!” And Yijun was still just a baby that did not know anything.

Young babies at this age were extremely unstable.

Yijun was weaned off early and was no longer drinking breast milk. Since last month, he had started drinking milk formula.

But someone still had to feed him!

Those people who kidnapped him away, how would they have the patience to feed him milk?

Yijun would bawl out loud when he got hungry. What if those people got annoyed by his cries?

Would they hurt him?

Even if those people were merciful and willing to feed him milk formula...

A baby’s immune system was weak. If the baby was not used to that milk formula and started vomiting or got a fever, all kinds of situations would follow one after another.

Those gangsters were kidnapers. If they could target a young baby, how could they be considered humane at all?

And they were committing a crime. If Yijun fell ill, all the more they would not bring him to the hospital.

Chapter 2422: Letter

If Yijun could not hold out...

Babies’ bodies were weak to begin with and would fall sick easily. Falling sick was an uncomfortable feeling, so they would keep crying and refuse to sleep. If they refused to sleep and refused to keep quiet, disturbing those gangsters.

How would they deal with him?

Xia Qingwei's mind kept having such thoughts. She sat on the chair, covering her face, bending the upper half of her body over, leaning hard against her knees. Her whole person was crouched into a ball on the chair.

Wang Juhuai hugged Xia Qingwei. His eyes were reddened. He was clearly very worried, but there was nothing he could do.

He really hated the helpless feeling he felt because he could not do anything right now and was not in control of anything.

He felt too useless.

He could only wait for the police's results to come out while there was nothing else he could do.

Where did they bring Yijun to?

Who exactly was the one who captured him?

Where should they go and look?

It was as if he was trying to find a needle in a haystack. He did not have a single clue at all.

Han Zhuoli, who was in the hospital, suddenly thought of someone at this moment.

Fu Yinxiu!

The Wen Family's intelligence organization was like a spider web in the country, densely weaved across 9.6 million square kilometers of rivers and mountains from which nothing could escape...

And Fu Yinxiu's Spines enjoyed the same reputation and status here.

Spines had an interest in expanding its operations in the country, but they only limited it to the economy.

They would not touch on any of the Wen Family's interests within the country.

This was the chemistry both sides had with each other.

Han Zhuoli instantly called Chu Zhaoyang, because Chu Zhaoyang and Fu Yinxiu's relationship was quite good.

To put it more accurately, he had known Fu Yinxiu's wife since he was young, so they were on really good terms.

Of course, there was no romance between them.

If not, the two of them would have gotten together long ago.

And Chu Zhaoyang's wife, Gu Nian, was one of the very outstanding officers within the Spines Intelligence Department.

For the incident here, they could ask Spines to help them investigate, and their speed should be faster than that of the police.

Han Zhuoli smacked his head. His mind had gotten more dense because Lu Man was unconscious now. He actually forgot about such an important thing.

He spoke to Chu Zhaoyang about the situation over here. Chu Zhaoyang said, "I will contact Fu Yinxiu immediately."

After they ended the call, a few minutes later, Fu Yinxiu personally called.

Han Zhuoli then switched to video call, because together with Fu Yinxiu was also the supervisor of the intelligence department, Bian Daoren.

Gu Nian had been discovered by Bian Daoren, who had pulled her into the Spines Intelligence Department.

Bian Daoren was not his nickname. His last name was really Bian, and his first name Daoren.

But Bian Daoren really lived up to his name.

He indeed had a way when it came to divination.

Han Zhuoli told Fu Yinxiu about the situation in detail.

"Got it. I will immediately send people to investigate," Fu Yinxiu said.

"Many thanks." With Fu Yinxiu's help, Han Zhuoli heaved a sigh of relief.

"You're too polite." Fu Yinxiu hung up and immediately tasked people to investigate it.

Han Zhuoli also told Han Zhuoling about it for both sides to work together, lest Fu Yinxiu sent someone over and Han Zhuoling did not know.

Afterward, Han Zhuoli then told Wang Juhuai about this matter.

Knowing that Fu Yinxiu had also intervened in this, Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei could finally feel a bit more hope in their hearts.

Wang Juhuai had just ended his call with Han Zhuoli when he received a call from Wei Zhong.

Just now, when Wang Juhuai was speaking to Han Zhuoli, Wei Zhong had already called.

But the call could not go through, which had made him extremely anxious.

"Sir, you finally answered," Wei Zhong said anxiously. "A letter was sent here. It's regarding little Young Master. I opened it to read first. The other party made it clear not to report to the police. I will take a photo of the letter and send it to you first."

Chapter 2423: Let Slip

Wang Juhuai opened the photo that Wei Zhong had sent over.

There was a piece of paper in the photo, printed with Song Style Chinese characters: "If you want to find your son, divorce Xia Qingwei. I know you all already called the police. But this matter is not to be shared with the police. Or else, you can forget about finding him! I think you already guessed who I am, so I want to remind you, if you tell the police, it's fine if they catch me, but you can forget about seeing your son again for the rest of your life."

Wang Juhuai read it together with Xia Qingwei.

When they saw the first line, which was the other party asking for them to divorce, actually, the two of them already had their guesses.

It was Lin Jinshu!

If they really had to suspect, even Wang Juhuai's parents would also become one of the suspects.

Because the two of them, especially Lu Wenqing, had never been satisfied with Xia Qingwei.

They did not like her when they were young, and that was true until now, when Xia Qingwei and Wang Juhuai were already married.

Lu Wenqing had also always felt that Wang Juhuai was on the losing end.

Given Wang Juhuai's current fame and status, it was not a problem for him to find a young lady.

There were so many girls around, yet Wang Juhuai had to insist on being together with an old woman like Xia Qingwei.

And she was already so old and could no longer give birth.

Luckily, after Xia Qingwei gave birth to Yijun, Wang Juhuai's parents became a little more accepting of her.

But because of Yijun's caregiving issue, the two sides fell into conflict again.

Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing had simply been chased back to the US by Wang Juhuai. If there were no other unusual happenings between them and Xia Qingwei, their relationship might probably never get patched up in this lifetime.

It was not that Xia Qingwei never suspected them, but she did not immediately say it.

Those two were Wang Juhuai's parents, after all. This kind of suspicion was too severe, so it could not be easily spoken out loud.

Afterward, when she thought through it carefully, it did not seem like something Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing would do either.

Although Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing did not like her, they liked Yijun.

Even if they wanted Yijun and sent someone to snatch him away, they would not use such extreme methods.

So the only suspect left was Lin Jinshu.

Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing had reasons to make Wang Juhuai divorce Xia Qingwei, but so did Lin Jinshu.

If the child was with Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing, it was impossible that the two of them would not let Wang Juhuai see his child again for the rest of his life.

Xia Qingwei then asked Wang Juhuai, "Could it be... Lin Jinshu?"

"I have three suspects in mind now." Wang Juhuai looked at Xia Qingwei and said, "One is Lin Jinshu, and two others are... my parents."

The look of shock on Xia Qingwei's face could not be concealed.

She really did not expect that Wang Juhuai would actually suspect his parents too.

"After all, they had a past record and wanted to take Yijun away," Wang Juhuai said. "I am worried that they are the ones who sent people to snatch Yijun away, and then sent this letter to threaten and scare us. They will be able to raise Yijun and make us divorce like this."

"But they won't harm Yijun," Xia Qingwei said. "If it's them, they wouldn't send those hooligans to go and snatch Yijun away, and they wouldn't say such threatening words like not letting you see your son again."

"Perhaps they are just scaring me, not that they want to harm Yijun. They just want to make me think the other party will harm him, so as long as I divorce you, they would achieve their goal," Wang Juhuai said. "Of course, Lin Jinshu is more suspicious."

"If it's her, then there is a possibility that she will hurt Yijun," Wang Juhuai said. "No matter what, we can't let slip any suspect. If it's not my parents, keeping quiet would indeed be for the best."

Because of this letter, Wang Juhuai indeed did not dare to inform the police just like that.

Chapter 2424: Have You Decided

He then returned to the hotel first with Xia Qingwei to take the original letter.

That letter had been placed in a clear plastic ziploc bag similar to those used for storing evidence, the bag sealed.

"What if there are fingerprints on the letter?" Wei Zhong said. "Just in case, I learned from those detective shows and placed it in here."

"That's good." Wang Juhuai took the letter that was carefully stored and brought Xia Qingwei to go and find Han Zhuoling.

Bian Daoren was with Han Zhuoling right then, and he immediately tasked someone to inspect the letter.

Wang Juhuai mentioned the three suspects he had in mind.

"I am suspecting Lin Jinshu more," Han Zhuoling said. "I was just on the phone with Zhuoli. Both of us think that Lu Man getting hurt and Yijun getting snatched away are incidents that can be connected together. Coincidentally, at the Mega Charity Gala previously, Wang Qianyun's attitude was also different from the past. At that time, we didn't think that they would actually resort to committing crimes."

“But now, pairing Lu Man and Yijun’s matter together, plus this letter, the likelihood of it being Lin Jinshu and Wang Qianyun is a little bigger,” Han Zhuoling said.

But those two people’s brains might not be in a very good state. They could only think of such despicable and lowly ideas.

But since Wang Juhuai had said Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing were also likely suspects, Han Zhuoling would not let go of this lead either.

His men went to investigate Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing while Bian Daoren sent people to investigate Lin Jinshu and Wang Qianyun.

At this moment, Wang Juhuai’s phone rang.

The caller was an unfamiliar number.

When Wang Juhuai took it out, Bian Daoren saw the number calling in on his phone screen from his peripheral vision and immediately pressed on his hand, stopping him for a moment.

When Wang Juhuai looked over, Bian Daoren said, “This is a number from a burner phone. I think it might very well be the person who had kidnapped Yijun and sent you that letter.”

Wang Juhuai instantly understood what Bian Daoren meant.

Bian Daoren waved and someone immediately came over and placed a very small thing that was similar to a card reader on Wang Juhuai’s phone. He then opened the tablet and began tracking the number.

“You can answer now,” Bian Daoren said.

The other party thought that by using a burner phone number, it would not be possible to be tracked.

But in fact, as long as that burner phone made a call through the telecommunications network, they would be able to track the number.

The only way they would not be able to track it would be if they lacked facilities and technological sophistication.

Many of the tech products that the Wen Family had were not available to the police.

They could only purchase or rent it from the Wen Family. Some were even limited to renting out but were not for sale.

Those technologies were in the hands of the Wen Family itself.

It was the same for Spines as well.

Wang Juhuai turned on the loudspeaker. “Hello.”

“Wang Juhuai.” The other party used a voice changer.

It sounded like a very hoarse, male voice.

“Who are you?” Wang Juhuai asked.

“You don’t need to know who I am,” the other party said. “You saw that letter, right? Have you decided on it?”

“Is Lin Jinshu the one instructing you to do this?” Wang Juhuai immediately asked.

“Who is Lin Jinshu? I don’t know her. You don’t need to try to cheat me either. Of course I can’t tell you who I am,” the other party said. “You just need to tell me whether you have decided and whether you want to divorce Xia Qingwei.”

“Why exactly do you want me to divorce Qingwei?” Wang Juhuai asked. “The only person who will want to make us divorce... apart from Lin Jinshu, I can’t think of anyone else.”

“I said before, you don’t need to try and cheat me! I don’t know any Lin Jinshu, but judging from what you say, looks like there are quite a few people who want you to divorce,” the other party said.

Chapter 2425: Decision

“Let me warn you. If you try to uncover my identity without divorcing Xia Qingwei, then from now on, you can forget about seeing your son ever again.” The anger in the other party’s tone was still so apparent even under the guise of the voice changer.

Wang Juhuai certainly did not dare to take this risk. “Okay, I will stop asking. What exactly do you want by calling?”

“I’ve said this many times already. Have you decided?” the other party asked.

Wang Juhuai said, “Before that, can you tell me why you must insist that we divorce?”

“Looks like you don’t want to see your son again,” the other party said. “Fine, I know your decision now.”

“Wait! Wait!” Wang Juhuai urgently said. “I agree to your request!”

The other party did not hang up. “Looks like your so-called deep love between husband and wife only comes as far as this. But it’s true, no matter what, it can’t be compared to your son’s life.”

Xia Qingwei covered her mouth, her tears falling in an instant.

Was the other party really planning to harm Yijun?

She clutched Wang Juhuai’s elbow tightly and said, “Yijun, Yijun, is he...”

Wang Juhuai held back his tears forcefully and sucked in a deep breath.

He did not even dare to ask to hear Yijun’s voice.

If Yijun did not cry or make a fuss and refused to make a sound, the other party would surely hit Yijun to make him believe.

Wang Juhuai took a deep breath and said, “But we didn’t register our marriage here. If we want to divorce, we have to go back to our country to sign the papers. We won’t be able to divorce here. So if we were to divorce, we can’t do it now immediately.”

“Hah. Don’t think of dragging things and playing for time. If you really want to divorce, you can go back now to do it,” the other party said.

“But my son is still in your hands, how can we leave?” Wang Juhuai immediately said.

“I know the Han Family people are still here. Do you not trust them?” the other party said. “I can promise you, as long as you sign the divorce papers in the country and come out with the divorce certificate, I will immediately return the child to the Han Family members. Before you come back, you will be able to hear news of your son’s safe return.”

The other party paused for a moment and said, “You have up until midnight tonight. If you’re sitting on the flight back home before then, I will know your answer. But once it’s past midnight and you still haven’t left, then you can forget about seeing your son again.

“You still have 13 hours of time. You can think about it.” After the other party finished speaking, without waiting for Wang Juhuai to say anything more, the person hung up the call.

Wang Juhuai immediately asked, “How is it? Did you find it?”

The person that Bian Daoren found was Gu Nian’s colleague Krum.

Gu Nian was in the country branch of Spines back home. Most of the time, she was cooperating with the police to do some intelligence-related work.

Initially, there was a period of time when she was here, working together with Bian Daoren.

Krum made an OK gesture and said, “Found it.”

Bian Daoren saw the location displayed on the tablet screen and said, “Inform the police. At the same time, inform the Second Guard. Tell them to send a team of people. In case the police officers make a misstep, they can immediately fill the gap to make sure nothing goes wrong in the operation!”

“Understood!” Krum immediately went to arrange the matter.

Xia Qingwei gaped and hesitated for a moment before asking, “Can we... can we come along?”

Bian Daoren thought it was some difficult issue. When he heard this, he smiled and said, “Of course you can. But while we are carrying out the mission, you both have to stay in the car and not move around, because we don’t know what exactly is the situation over at the other party’s side and how dangerous it is. Until we save Yijun and pass him to the two of you, both of you cannot leave the car. Can you both do this?”

Chapter 2426: Discovery

“Yes,” Wang Juhuai immediately answered.

Xia Qingwei also promised that she would stay in the car.

And so, everyone, including Han Zhuoling, departed together.

The police had also received a message from Spines.

The police were surprised that Wang Juhuai was able to get help from Spines.

Anyone with a career in law enforcement knew that Spines would only work with the major crime division or any other departments responsible for serious crimes.

Their department would have never gotten a chance to work with Spines.

A collaboration with Spines because of Wang Juhuai was unexpected.

And so, none of them were unhappy that Wang Juhuai sought out Spines for help.

As a matter of fact, they were looking forward to working with Spines.

The police immediately set off towards the location that Spines had sent them.

Bian Daoren as well as the Second Guards of the Spines were the first to arrive.

Bian Daoren and Wang Juhuai parked their cars very far away as they were afraid of alerting their targets.

The Second Guards sneaked closer and surrounded the villa.

The moment Wang Juhuai arrived there, he knew that his parents had no part in this.

This was because his parents would have never been able to afford the properties here.

His parents did not have enough money to buy houses in this area.

And so, Wang Juhuai felt a sense of relief.

If his parents were truly behind this abduction, he would never be able to look at Xia Qingwei without feeling ashamed of himself.

Thankfully, his parents were not guilty.

However, if Wang Taihong and Lu Wenqing were not guilty, there would only be one suspect left.

Lin Jinshu!

Wang Juhuai had divorced Lin Jinshu a long time ago. And so, he was no longer aware of the number of properties in Lin Jinshu's name. He was not sure if Lin Jinshu owned this villa.

However, Wang Juhuai still thought that there was a high chance that Lin Jinshu owned this villa.

The Second Guards had stealthily surrounded the villa.

They hid behind the trees and within the bushes. There were only the sounds of the wind blowing by the plants and the rustling of the rising leaves and waving grass.

It was as though the Second Guards hiding never existed.

Even though Wang Juhuai had seen how they had hidden, he could not find even one of them.

There were two Second Guards who each occupied a vantage point.

Soon, responses sounded through Bian Daoren's walkie-talkie. "Lin Jinshu discovered in the villa, but no sight of the baby."

Xia Qingwei could feel her heart beating in her throat.

Did Lin Jinshu hide Yijun somewhere else?

Was this Lin Jinshu's method of protecting herself? If she got arrested, Yijun would never be found!

Could this be her plan?

Suddenly, movements could be seen occasionally within the bushes and two Second Guards were then seen creeping out of them.

Wang Juhuai and the others drove a camper van, inside which there were many professional equipment.

Krum, Jia Jia, and Bian Daoren sat in front of the equipment.

Both Krum and Jia Jia were on their computers. Jia Jia was in charge of inspecting the whole surrounding area of the villa.

Krum was in charge of inspecting the inside of the villa.

While Jia Jia was still providing the two Second Guards information on the area around the villa, Krum had already hacked all the surveillance cameras inside it.

To Krum, the task of hacking into the surveillance cameras inside the villa was as easy as playing with a kindergartener's toy.

As one of the best hackers, Krum had been able to hack into even the most rigorous security system in the world, not to mention the surveillance system in this villa. To him, this was just child's play.

Only a few seconds had passed when Wang Juhuai saw the inside of the villa through Krum's screen.

Krum then controlled a tiny drone, which was just the size of a ping pong ball, and cautiously flew it towards the villa.

Chapter 2427: Found

Under Jia Jia's command, the surveillance drone successfully entered the villa, infiltrating every blind spot in there and fixing their positions in place.

Hence, every spot of the villa's interior appeared on the screens before Krum.

Just as Krum brought the interior view of the villa under his control, two members of the Second Guard had also reached the exterior of the villa.

The two infiltrated the villa from the front and back respectively. Krum said to the two, "There's also a basement in the villa. The child might very likely be hidden in the basement."

"Roger that," the two Second Guards said.

At this moment, the police also arrived.

Bian Daoren got off the car and met with the police officer leading the team.

"I am worried that there might be people with guns inside who might harm the child, so I sent two people in to infiltrate first," Bian Daoren said. "My apologies, we acted on our own first."

"The child's safety should be our priority," the police officer said. "As for what's to be done next, we can cooperate together."

"On our side, two people had gone in first to find the child and make sure he is safe. After that, the mission will be all yours," Bian Daoren said.

"Okay." The police officer nodded in agreement. "But are you sure the child is inside?"

"We're not. But if the child is not there, we have to catch the people inside first. We are sure there are people inside. We are sure of catching the people inside before they can react, so the other party won't have time to inform their accomplices. Once we catch them, we will be able to find out the child's whereabouts," Bian Daoren explained.

Krum looked at the screen as he said to the Second Guards, "Looks like we found the right place. There's an 80% likelihood that the child is in the villa. Eight steps away from the corner, turn in front of you. There is a man there."

Krum zoomed in on the screen and said, "There's a gun."

When the Second Guards received that info, they took out a very thin, tube-like thing, inserted it on a palm-sized screen, and extended it outwards.

They stopped at the wall just before the corner turn, revealing less than a centimeter of the top camera.

They saw that the other party was just smoking in the corridor, and his back was even facing them.

So he retracted the camera and took out a tranquilizer gun from his waist, then just shot it towards the back of the man's neck.

The whole process was soundless. The other party did not even know that someone had infiltrated as he fell unconscious.

Before he dropped to the floor, the Second Guard rushed forward to catch him, lest the sound of him falling on the ground would be so loud that it would expose them.

This tranquilizer dosage was enough to ensure that this man would stay asleep for a whole day.

The other Second Guard also put down another man.

The two of them met up in front of the basement.

The door to the basement was not locked. The Second Guards opened it silently.

Through the door opening, they saw a woman inside, standing in front of a baby cot.

That woman did not do anything else. She just kept her head lowered and stared at the baby, but her face was contorted with jealousy and hatred.

The Second Guard gestured the number "1" at his partner and raised the tranquilizer gun.

With another gunshot, the tranquilizer needle flew across the air in a flash with a faint sliver of light, piercing into the other party's neck silently.

Thump. That woman collapsed on the ground.

The two Second Guards entered. They checked the face of the woman, at the same time sending the image over to Krum.

Krum immediately informed Bian Daoren and said, "The other party's identity is confirmed. It is Lin Jinshu."

Bian Daoren nodded and said to the police officer, "My men found the baby."

The police officer nodded and immediately waved his hands, saying, "Let's move."

The police surrounded the villa and charged in.

For safety reasons, the two Second Guards did not dare to bring Yijun out right away, lest they met any hooligans along the way.

They were not scared themselves. They were just afraid that some mishap might happen to Yijun as a result.

The current situation did not necessitate them to break out of the villa forcefully.

Chapter 2428: Did Not Cry or Make Trouble

So, the two Second Guards stayed in the basement and did not move.

They waited for the police to come in and sweep the place thoroughly.

According to what Krum had said, there were still a few people in the villa, but there were not many of them.

Very quickly, they heard fighting noises coming from upstairs.

The few people upstairs were like a motley crowd to the police, so they very quickly subdued them.

"The scene is cleared," Krum said. "You can come out now."

Hence, one Second Guard carried Yijun while the other Second Guard dragged Lin Jinshu up.

Yes, dragged.

The Second Guard did not treat Lin Jinshu so well as to carry her and take care of her, lest she bumped or knocked into something.

He just picked Lin Jinshu up by her back collar and dragged her upstairs.

They saw the police handcuffing and taking away the hooligans that Lin Jinshu had hired.

The Second Guard just threw Lin Jinshu over to the police officer and said, "I'll leave her to you."

The police officer immediately got someone to take Lin Jinshu away.

The Second Guard carried little Yijun and returned to Bian Daoren's side.

When Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei saw Yijun being brought towards them from afar, they could no longer stay in their seats.

Bian Daoren came and opened the car door. "Thankfully, the mission is a success!"

Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei immediately got off the car and said, "Thank you so much, really... We are really so grateful and thankful! I don't know... I don't know how I can thank you properly."

"We're all family, no need to stand on formalities," Bian Daoren said with a smile.

Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei could not wait for the Second Guard to carry Yijun over. When they saw the Second Guards walking over, they quickly ran to them.

"Yijun!" Xia Qingwei called. She quickly took little Yijun from the Second Guard's hands and said, "Thank you so much, thank you both so much."

The little kiddo did not seem to have gotten a scare.

He was wide awake now, his black, dark eyes rounded and widened. He did not look like he was scared at all.

Now, he was being carried in Xia Qingwei's arms and seeing his parents surrounding himself, especially close to him.

And so, the little kiddo also broke into a wide smile happily and laughed out loud cutely.

He even extended his hand, wanting to touch Xia Qingwei and Wang Juhuai.

Xia Qingwei's tears fell onto little Yijun's face. Little Yijun got tickled by the ticklish feeling from her teardrops falling on his face, and he reached up to rub his face wildly.

"Daddy and Mommy are here, we are both here," Xia Qingwei said, crying.

It was only now that she was hugging the little kiddo in her arms that she really felt secure.

Wang Juhuai also wanted to carry the child.

Xia Qingwei passed little Yijun carefully into Wang Juhuai's arms.

She then carefully checked if there were any injuries on the little kiddo.

Luckily, the little kiddo was not injured.

This child was way too obedient.

Ever since he got kidnapped, he did not cry or make trouble.

Perhaps he knew that his environment was not safe, so even if he was hungry, he did not dare to cry and wail like he did usually.

He quietly lay there, sucking his thumb, twiddling his fingers, and just did not cry.

When he got too hungry, he just fell asleep.

He did not give the bad guys a chance to hit him or abuse him.

Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei brought little Yijun back.

But because of the scare this time, they did not dare to leave him in the hotel and carried him around wherever they went.

They had just found their child and could not bear to be away from him even for a moment.

Even though Lin Jinshu had been caught, the matter was not over.

Bian Daoren and Han Zhuoling still had to continue searching for the mastermind behind Lu Man's accident.

The two of them had already fixed their target on Wang Qianyun, who was always together with Lin Jinshu.

Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei brought the baby back to the hotel.

The two of them did not bring milk formula with them wherever they went, and little Yijun was hungry.

Perhaps he knew that he was safe now.. With his parents around, he could act cute and be willful again.

Chapter 2429: Why Does Older Sister Keep Sleeping

So in the car, he started crying and wailing loudly again. He cried really loudly and demandingly, exerting more effort than usual.

Even Xia Qingwei felt really embarrassed. They were still in Bian Daoren and the others' car.

People had worked so hard to save the little kiddo, yet they still had to put up with the noise from the child's bawling.

Xia Qingwei kept on pacifying and coaxing him, but to no avail.

It was as if the little kiddo was throwing a tantrum.

But the little kiddo had just been saved from an extremely dangerous situation. Xia Qingwei could not bear to be fierce to him and felt really troubled.

Seeing the awkward situation Xia Qingwei was in, Bian Daoren smiled and said, "It's fine. Children are like that, don't worry."

They finally made it to the hotel, and Xia Qingwei and Wang Juhuai said their thanks once again.

The two of them were sincerely grateful.

They then carried little Yijun and returned to their room.

Auntie Liang had been reproaching herself the entire time. She was the one who had lost little Yijun.

But Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei were not unreasonable people. They knew that, actually, this was not Auntie Liang's fault.

The hotel they stayed in was located in a very famous, high-end district in New York. It was one of the places with the best security.

No one had expected something to happen here.

And Lin Jinshu came prepared. Auntie Liang could not have expected that either.

So the two of them would not blame Auntie Liang because of this.

But Auntie Liang could not get over her conscience and felt too ashamed to see them.

All along, Auntie Liang had been extremely diligent and did not make a single mistake from the start of Xia Qingwei's pregnancy up until little Yijun was born.

This time was not Auntie Liang's fault either.

But with the lesson learned this time, Auntie Liang really did not dare to bring little Yijun out to play anymore.

Xia Qingwei prepared some milk formula for little Yijun and fed him until he was full before bringing him to the hospital together with Wang Juhuai.

When they reached the hospital, they found to their disappointment that Lu Man had yet to come to.

"Man Man hasn't woken up?" Xia Qingwei asked, holding on to some hope that perhaps Lu Man had woken up halfway when they were not around.

But they were still disappointed in the end.

Han Zhuoli shook his head. When he saw little Yijun in Xia Qingwei's arms, he smiled and said, "You found Yijun."

Xia Qingwei nodded. "This time, it's really all thanks to you for engaging the help of Spines. That's why we could find him so quickly."

After saying that, Xia Qingwei carried little Yijun over to the other side of the hospital bed.

She looked at Lu Man, who was still in a coma, lying peacefully on the bed with no reaction at all.

She had just found her son, but her daughter was still lying on the hospital bed in a coma.

Xia Qingwei suppressed the heartache she felt and said to the unconscious Lu Man, "Man Man, did Zhuoli tell you that Yijun had been kidnapped by some people?"

"But luckily, this child has a good fortune and a blessed life. Not long after he was taken away, we managed to find him, so you don't need to be worried as well," Xia Qingwei said. "I brought Yijun over. Don't you want to wake up earlier to see him too?"

“This little kiddo is so callous and heartless. He didn’t even know to be scared when he was kidnapped. He didn’t even cry. But because of this, he didn’t suffer, so it’s also quite a good thing,” Xia Qingwei said gently.

“I’m not worried about Yijun now, I am just worried about you.” Xia Qingwei carried little Yijun over to Lu Man’s side.

Little Yijun had long learned to roll his body over.

As he lay beside Lu Man, the sterile smell of the hospital did not manage to mask the very familiar sweet scent on Lu Man’s body.

Little Yijun rolled beside Lu Man, kicking his legs out like a gigantic and slightly fat earthworm, wriggling over to the side of Lu Man’s face.

He lifted his small hands and went to touch Lu Man’s face.

Lu Man had injured the back of her head. Her face was not injured, so they were not worried that little Yijun would touch her wound.

Little Yijun also felt puzzled that Big Sister kept sleeping.

Chapter 2430: Let Him Wail

He touched Lu Man’s face, his little hands grabbing a bit before he turned to look at Xia Qingwei.

Although he did not know how to talk, it was as if his face was full of question marks.

Xia Qingwei then said to Lu Man, “Man Man, Yijun is also asking, why are you still not awake? Zhuoli stays by your side 24 hours a day and has never left even once. Wake up so that he can feel assured.

“All of us are worried about you. The doctor clearly said that there’s no problem, but why won’t you just wake up?” Xia Qingwei said. “Quickly wake up, alright?”

Little Yijun had been used to having Lu Man around to play with him. As long as he saw Lu Man, he knew that this older sister would be tiring him out with play.

But he didn’t mind, because he himself felt that it was quite fun too.

But today, when he saw Lu Man again, Lu Man actually did not react at all.

Just now, when little Yijun pinched her face, it was because he wanted to play with her.

He thought that she was sleeping, so he wanted to pinch her awake.

Alas, even after a long time of pinching, she did not react at all.

Little Yijun was angry and anxious. His little hands landed atop Lu Man’s shoulders.

He wanted to shake her awake, but his strength was not enough at all. He could only smack and smack, his strength so little that it was practically insignificant.

When little Yijun saw that Lu Man did not wake up no matter what, his bearish temper acted up. "Wah!" He wailed and started crying out loud.

Xia Qingwei even thought that perhaps little Yijun's cries might be able to arouse Lu Man from her coma.

It was fine even if she was aroused because she was disturbed, as long as Lu Man could wake up.

Little Yijun was just crying without actually tearing.

Every time he turned into a naughty child, he would start crying without tears streaming down his face. As he was faking his cries, he did not drop a single tear at all.

At the start, they would even be deceived by him.

But after a few times, Xia Qingwei and Lu Man could tell very clearly whether he was really crying or fake crying.

At this moment, little Yijun was fake crying.

Xia Qingwei said to Wang Juhuai and Han Zhuoli, "Let him be. Let him wail. It would be great if he could wail and make Man Man wake up."

Hence, Han Zhuoli and Wang Juhuai did not stop little Yijun.

They did not find it noisy either. What if little Yijun really managed to wake Lu Man up with his cries?

Lu Man had not woken up even as the days passed, so everyone was panicking and worried.

And the most worried person was Han Zhuoli.

Because Han Zhuoli knew a little more than they did.

The others did not know that Lu Man returned because she got revived.

Ever since he heard Lu Man say that, Han Zhuoli had always been worried.

He was worried that one day, Lu Man would suddenly disappear from this world and no longer exist.

That the Heavens would suddenly take her life back.

Han Zhuoli had been afraid of this all along.

And now, Lu Man got hurt.

But the doctor clearly said that the injury was not that serious, yet Lu Man just did not wake up.

During these last few days when Lu Man was unconscious, his heart had been on tenterhooks. What he feared the most was that Lu Man would really just continue sleeping like this.

Leaving only a shell of her body behind, with her soul long gone.

And they still would not know it.

“Man Man.” Han Zhuoli held Lu Man’s hand and said, “Hear this. Yijun is crying in anger because of you. Because you refuse to wake up. Quickly wake up now.”

Little Yijun saw that no matter how he wailed, Lu Man refused to acknowledge him.

He slowly got tired and stopped wailing.

He lay beside Lu Man and fell asleep.

Xia Qingwei then carried him up again.

Han Zhuoli said, “Dad, Mom, you both take Yijun back first. After experiencing such a huge incident today, be it Yijun or you two, all of you got a huge scare. Have a good rest.. If Man Man comes to, I will inform you both at the very first instance.”
