Chapter 2471: Abnormal Brain and Shamelessness

Lu Man rudely rolled her eyes and said, "Enough of this. The public has nothing to do with this. Who doesn't know that our relationship is down the drain? People online know about how you and your mom treated me and my mom in the beginning. That's why I don't hang out with you and I didn't call you no matter what happened. The public understands. If I have called you for anything, people would say that I am being lowly and have been acting this whole time.

"Besides that, since when did I care about other people's opinions?" Lu Man sneered. "You yourself said that I married a good man; my husband is Han Zhuoli. Not only is my hubby good to me, but everyone in his family also treats me well. It feels like I have two homes. As for my career, it is true that it is rising up and everything is going smoothly.

"Since I am living such a good life, why should I care about you? I don't care about what others say. My husband is so powerful that I am able to act in whatever show that I want and can collaborate with whoever I want. Even if my popularity is affected negatively, I will have shows to act in and events to participate in."

Lu Man sneered and said, "So why should I care about the opinions of others? Why should I care about you?"

"I have been avoiding you to death, so why should I invite you to my wedding?" said Lu Man coldly, "You don't even deserve to appear at my wedding.

"Don't even think about trying to socialize at my wedding, don't think about it. I won't give you this chance. Furthermore, the people that we invited are people who are very close to us. Nobody would be so blinded as to get their eyes on you, so stop dreaming."

Lu Man was being very blunt.

Even at this time, Lu Qi could be so thick-skinned as to talk about their relationship as sisters.

She really threw away her self-worth to gain whatever benefit she could.

If Lu Man did not snap at her and make Lu Qi give up, it would be uncertain how many times she would pester Lu Man.

"You!" Lu Qi was so enraged that her face turned red. "Lu Man, I am still your younger sister!"

"What sister?" Lu Man said bluntly. "Stop joking. You have never seen me as an older sister and I don't see you as a younger sister. Besides that, your mom is the mistress; my mom's despair was caused by your parents. Even so, you still want to come to me for benefits? Do you think that I am dumb, or have you become so dumb as to still be so hopeful?"

"I think it's the second one," Han Leilei interrupted.

Han Leilei's response was well coordinated, showing great collaboration with Lu Man.

Zheng Yuan and Pan Xue laughed out loud, not giving Lu Qi any respect.

It was very obvious that they were mocking Lu Qi.

“Since you’re so thick-skinned, go and seek forgiveness from your dad. Even if he’s not doing well now, he should be doing better than you. You and your dad had a tight-knit relationship last time. It was at least 20 years of relationship. As for us, we were never close. Instead of seeking my help, how about you go and beg your dad? The possibility of success may be a bit higher.” Lu Man gave Lu Qi a “clear” direction to go to.

Lu Qi’s expression changed, as if she really took in what Lu Man said and was actually considering it.

Zheng Yuan and the other two were dumbfounded.

There was nothing normal about Lu Qi’s brain and shamelessness.

But Lu Qi’s expression of consideration immediately disappeared as she realized that something was not right with Lu Man’s words. “Lu Man, you are crossing the line with your words! What do you mean my dad? You are talking as though we don’t share the same dad.”

“My dad is Wang Juhuai,” Lu Man responded.

Chapter 2472: The One That I Am Insulting Is Not Human

“Hah!” Lu Qi said sarcastically, “So why are you still acting as the victim? Even you tried to gain Wang Juhuai’s favor. Because you know that Wang Juhuai is more powerful than your own dad and can bring you benefits, you treat him better than your own dad and don’t even see your biological father as your own dad.”

Lu Man said impatiently, “You don’t need to use the ‘blood relation’ card. You can ask the public whether they would think I am a bad person if I didn’t consider Lu Qiyuan as my dad. However, those in their right mind would not say anything. Of course, there would be some keyboard warriors standing on their moral high ground and saying things. There would also be some others who can’t see the good in people and must always show off their intelligence by disciplining others.

“Although you don’t fall in the same category as them, there’s some similarity,” said Lu Man.

While Lu Qi was enraged by what Lu Man said, she was also curious about the similarity.

As a result, Lu Man laughed mockingly as she said, “You are all idiots.”

A barrage of thoughts flew by Zheng Yuan’s and the others’ minds, saying, “666[1].”

“You!” Lu Qi was so furious that her mouth became crooked. “How dare you insult people!”

“I didn’t insult anybody.” Lu Man shrugged as she put on an innocent face. “It doesn’t count if the ones I am insulting are not humans.”

Lu Qi was trembling in anger. Not only did Lu Man call her an idiot, but she also said that she was not human.

Lu Man was too lazy to hang around Lu Qi. “Stop wasting my time here. If you have the time, you should go and convince Lu Qiyuan. That would be more realistic.”

Lu Man said this as if she was advising Lu Qi.

Lu Qi thought that Lu Man must be feeling that she was clever, but cleverness might overreach itself.

She thought that Lu Man just wanted to chase her away and stop her from pestering her, so Lu Man had mentioned Lu Qiyuan.

But Lu Man forgot that Lu Qiyuan might really be useful.

Lu Qi pursed her lips and asked, "Are you not inviting even Dad to your wedding?"

"You're talking about Lu Qiyuan?" Lu Man laughed. "I have a father, so why should I invite him?"

"Alright, alright." Lu Qi nodded slowly. "So, you will ask Wang Juhuai to walk you down the aisle?"

Lu Man had already guessed Lu Qi's intention. Lu Qi wanted to find Lu Qiyuan and cause an argument.

"Yes." Lu Man nodded without trying to hide anything. "If you have gotten the answer that you want, you should go and say whatever you want to Lu Qiyuan. Perhaps these can help you gain some favor from him."

Lu Qi froze. Her expression changed from one to another.

She did not think that Lu Man would know all her thoughts!

Suddenly, she did not dare to stay with Lu Man.

It was like none of her thoughts could escape Lu Man's eyes.

She was afraid that the longer she stayed, the more her thoughts would be seen through by Lu Man.

Even the fact that she was getting bullied by the He family and did not gain any benefits was seen clearly by Lu Man.

However, thinking logically, Lu Man could not read minds. There was no need to be afraid.

But the more she talked to Lu Man, the more fear she had in her heart.

In the end, Lu Qi could not even say goodbye as she fled hurriedly.

Her sudden change shocked Zheng Yuan and the others.

Pan Xue asked directly, "What is going on with Lu Qi all of a sudden? Wasn't she being arrogant a while ago? Why did she run away all of a sudden? Also, she ran away so hurriedly, it was as if someone was chasing her from behind."

Han Leilei laughed as she said, "She's probably scared."

Chapter 2473: A Wise Person Behaving Like a Fool

"What's there to be afraid of?" Pan Xue pointed at herself. "We can't beat her up, right? Even though I really want to beat her up."

Zheng Yuan laughed as she explained, "She probably thought that whatever thought she had couldn't escape Lu Man's eyes. She felt scared, so she didn't dare to stay any longer."

Pan Xue said mockingly, "That's just her being stupid."

Han Leilei laughed. "Pfft, you're calling people stupid while you have a one-track mind?"

"It's fine if I have a one-track mind, as long as I don't dig my own grave. Don't I have you guys?" Pan Xue laughed thoughtlessly.

"Sure, sure, sure," said Zheng Yuan, laughing. "Why do I get the feeling that you're a wise person behaving like a fool?"

"That's who I am," said Pan Xue proudly.

"Man Man, asking Lu Qi to find Lu Qiyuan is like giving her a tip," said Han Leilei. "Even though Lu Qiyuan is not doing so well now, if those two made up, they may plan something to trouble you. Even if you're not scared, it will be annoying."

"She's right," said Zheng Yuan. "Why did you tell that to Lu Qi?"

"Relax. Lu Qi won't be able to do anything," Lu Man said as she laughed

That was because Lu Qiyuan still had Jiang Yujie by his side.

Jiang Yujie would never let Lu Qi's wish come true.

Coincidentally, this could let Lu Qi understand how it felt like to be plotted against by her stepmother and abandoned by her own father.

Jiang Yujie was still Lu Qiyuan's assistant. Her position did not change because of her relationship with Lu Qiyuan.

Even in the office, she acted professionally and did not do anything that troubled Lu Qiyuan.

But because Xia Qingyang came to the office and caused a big fuss, the whole office knew about Jiang Yujie and Lu Qiyuan.

However, Xia Qingyang had been put in jail, and Lu Qiyuan had divorced her.

Although Lu Qiyuan had not married Jiang Yujie, the whole office knew that they shared an especially good relationship.

Even if an employee of the company looked down on Jiang Yujie, they wouldn't dare to say anything out loud.

Not only would they not dare to say anything, but they would even try to please Jiang Yujie.

Other than that, in recent years, those who could become the final winner had tricks up their sleeves; there were many people who admired her and were jealous of her. After some time, there was nobody who looked at Jiang Yujie weirdly.

Lu Qiyuan even thought that Jiang Yujie was clever and professional.

She would never talk about their private matters during work. It was still like before they had gotten together.

Besides, as her experience grew, Jiang Yujie was getting better at her job and was becoming more capable; she could do anything properly.

Lu Qiyuan also trusted her more and more and started to let Jiang Yujie handle the more important work.

Lu Qiyuan had yet to allow her to handle tradings that could not be revealed to the public. However, she was allowed to handle work related to those tradings. After all, Lu Qiyuan thought that Jiang Yujie would not be able to find out about the secret tradings even if she were to handle work related to them.

Jiang Yujie could then find evidence from these projects and use the evidence to track the origin of the projects.

Furthermore, Lu Qiyuan had no one he could trust.

The one that was closest to him now was Jiang Yujie.

Jiang Yujie was trying her best to win Lu Qiyuan's trust.

Something that made Lu Qiyuan like her even more was the fact that Jiang Yujie said she was not in a hurry to get married.

It was hard for Lu Qiyuan to remarry right now because he had just divorced Xia Qingyang.

When Xia Qingyang had just been placed in jail, Lu Qiyuan had wanted a divorce immediately and was then heavily criticized by the public

Chapter 2474: Touched to the Core

They said he was ruthless as he abandoned his ex-wife when she was into trouble.

At first, Lu Qiyuan was not heavily criticized.

After all, he was the victim.

It was Lu Qi and Xia Qingyang who had transferred his properties.

But Lu Qiyuan was bad because of his bad history. It was him who had abandoned Xia Qingwei and Lu Man and had done all kinds of bad things to them.

He was then betrayed by Xia Qingyang. There were people who criticized Xia Qingyang, but more people applauded.

They said that it was karma. He had wronged his original wife, so now he was betrayed by his mistress.

Xia Qingyang went to jail. This had been finalized.

Yet Lu Qiyuan was still doing well outside of prison.

How could Lu Man let Lu Qiyuan live a good life?

So Lu Man had hired a group of ghostwriters to stir up chaos, saying Xia Qingyang was not right but Lu Qiyuan was not innocent as well.

The two were like dogs biting each other.

Gradually, people started to think that Xia Qingyang was not someone to be wary of but Lu Qiyuan was the ruthless one.

There were netizens who said that if Xia Qingyang had had evil intentions from the start, she would not have started transferring his properties only after 20 years of being married to him.

If she had wanted to, she would have done so earlier.

Surely, Lu Qiyuan had done something wrong to Xia Qingyang. In anger, Xia Qingyang did not want to let Lu Qiyuan live a good life, so she transferred his properties, causing this scene of two dogs biting each other.

Then, Lu Qiyuan and Xia Qingyang were criticized, and there were even people who gloated about their misfortune, saying they deserved it.

At that time, Jiang Yujie said, "Under these circumstances, if we get married, the public will think that you were cheating on Xia Qingwei, so she transferred your properties as revenge.

"What she did was wrong, but since you're the one who's at fault first, there will be people who'd sympathize with her," said Jiang Yujie. " However, this was not what had actually happened. Both you and she stopped having feelings for each other. She started treating you worse, which was why you started dating me. Even before I appeared, you'd wanted to divorce her, didn't you?

"She clearly wronged you first, so you lost feelings first and wanted to divorce. You also met me." Jiang Yujie's expression was full of defense for Lu Qiyuan. "However, if we married right now, the public will assign all faults to you.

"I can wait. Let's wait until the fuss about Xia Qingyang dies down, then we'll go get our marriage certificate," said Jiang Yujie. "I have thought about it. We can just get our marriage certificate, but we don't need to hold a wedding. If we hold a wedding boldly, surely people will think about the fuss between you and Xia Qingyang.

"The company is already in a difficult position. Your reputation affects the partnerships of the company. If you are criticized by people, those partnerships will be affected as well," said Jiang Yujie. "So, before the company gets better, we should keep it low-key."

Lu Qiyuan looked at Jiang Yujie, who was saying all these earnestly. He was touched to the core.

Whatever Jiang Yujie said, it was thoughtful of him.

She followed him blindly. If it was other people, how could they not want to get married?

They would urge him to marry them so they could have peace of mind.

How could they not want a wedding?

But, for his sake, she did not want any of this.

She was thoughtful of him and made this sacrifice for his sake.

Lu Qiyuan was touched to the core.

Jiang Yujie saw that Lu Qiyuan had been quiet for a long time, so she asked anxiously, "Qiyuan, are... are you angry? Are you... are you unhappy with me for crossing the line and meddling with about so many things?"

Chapter 2475: She Would Never Let Others Ruin Her Plan

"I... I was just stating my opinion. I have no intentions to interfere and make decisions for you. If you don't like me being so nosy, then I... I won't say anything anymore."

Seeing that she was feeling uneasy, Lu Qiyuan hugged her immediately. "How can I? I am not upset. I am just touched. You stupid little girl, why are you so stupid? You always think of me first and never think about your own benefits.

"You said you're not in a rush to get married. Aren't you scared that if it drags on, I won't marry you and would get closer to other women?" asked Lu Qiyuan, touched to the core.

They were not like normal couples. Right now, the whole company knew that Jiang Yujie belonged to him.

If they were to break up, he would not be affected, but Jiang Yujie would become a laughingstock.

In the past, Xia Qingyang had wanted to gain more benefits for herself, which was why she had forced him to divorce Xia Qingwei and marry her.

However, Jiang Yujie was not in a rush to marry for his own sake.

Such a stupid girl!

Jiang Yujie was so terrified that her eyes turned red immediately and tears welled up in them.

Her lips shivered as she asked Lu Qiyuan, "Will... will you not want me? Will you abandon me to be with someone else?"

"No, I won't!" said Lu Qiyuan. "Stupid girl, you've been doing everything whole-heartedly for me. If I abandoned you and wronged you, would I even be human?"

Lu Qiyuan hugged her tightly as he talked.

While Lu Qiyuan could not see, Jiang Yujie sneered.

How many times had he done something wrong to people?

And now, he pretended as though he was a person who valued relationships.

She spoke about not marrying him because she really did not want to marry him.

For the sake of her elder brother, she was willing to commit to Lu Qiyuan, but she would not marry him and be tied to him.

After all, it would be troublesome if they got married.

“Yujie, don’t worry. We will get our marriage certificate later and we won’t have a wedding, but I will not betray you!” said Lu Qiyuan, meaning he agreed with Jiang Yujie’s suggestion.

How could he not agree?

Everything Jiang Yujie suggested was beneficial to him.

Even if Jiang Yujie had not mentioned it, Lu Qiyuan would have thought of a way to coax Jiang Yujie into agreeing.

He did not think that Jiang Yujie would suggest it herself without him coaxing her.

Lu Qiyuan was moved even more.

And after experiencing what had happened with Xia Qingyang, to him, this woman who thought of him whole-heartedly and was willing to do anything for him was too precious.

From his perspective, Jiang Yujie was a little stupid, but he adored her.

“After the company is stable and nobody remembers what happened with us, I will organize a grand wedding for you,” Lu Qiyuan promised.

These words went into Jiang Yujie’s ear and came out from the other.

But she still said using a kind and sweet voice, “Okay.”

Because of this, Lu Qiyuan trusted Jiang Yujie more and more.

With Jiang Yujie as his assistant, he could have peace of mind as she could handle all kinds of work.

Because of the trust he had in Jiang Yujie, nobody in the company dared to talk bad about her.

Lu Qi had no idea that Jiang Yujie already had this amount of control.

Jiang Yujie was a lot more clever than Xia Qingyang.

Xia Qingyang had invaded only Lu Qiyuan’s personal life.

But Jiang Yujie controlled his work and his life.

Even if Lu Qiyuan had any bad thoughts and he was controlling his public and private matters, she could find out about them immediately.

She would never let others ruin her plan.

Chapter 2476: True Colors

Even if Lu Qiyuan wanted to go out and “have fun,” he must go through her.

Due to the fact that Jiang Yujie was still Lu Qiyuan’s assistant, when Lu Qi came, Jiang Yujie was there.

While Lu Qiyuan was in the office, Jiang Yujie stopped Lu Qi outside.

All the employees knew Lu Qi.

Because of the fuss about transferring properties, Lu Qi had ruined her relationship with Lu Qiyuan.

Even though only Xia Qingwei went to jail, people knew the role that Lu Qi had played in all this.

But unlike Xia Qingyang, Lu Qi and Lu Qiyuan were father and daughter.

All the employees knew Lu Qi. They could not predict the interaction that would occur between Lu Qiyuan and her, but they thought that a father and his daughter could not possibly avoid each other for their entire lives.

Lu Qiyuan had already completely fallen out with Lu Man, but Lu Man and Lu Qiyuan did not have a real relationship. Now, Lu Man had Wang Juhuai and Han Zhuoli backing her up, so she did not need him.

But Lu Qi was different. Lu Qi and Lu Qiyuan had had more than 20 years of relationship.

In addition, Lu Qi was a petty person.

If they stopped her and did not let her go in, she would scorn them, who were innocent employees. Then, what would they do if she and Lu Qiyuan made up?

And so, the receptionist did not stop her from going upstairs.

Jiang Yujie saw Lu Qi and stood up to stop her. "Miss Lu."

Lu Qi said coldly, "Step aside."

"Miss Lu, are you looking for the CEO?" said Jiang Yujie in a gentle voice. "The CEO has some important work right now and is not available to see anyone."

"I am here to find my dad, it's none of your business!" Lu Qi said angrily. "You b*tch, how dare you stop me?"

Jiang Yujie stopped smiling and said sternly, "Miss Lu, please show some respect."

"Huh! Why are you acting? You seduced my dad and are still acting professional? Piss off!" Lu Qi said angrily.

"When we are in this company, I am the CEO's assistant and we do not talk about our private matters. I hope that you can also be professional, Miss Lu. If you really have something to say, you should talk to the CEO privately or wait until he is done with his work."

Jiang Yujie showed a pondering expression and then said, "How about you have a seat and wait for a while?"

"I am here to see my dad. How dare you tell me what to do? I want to see my dad. No matter how busy he is, he will see me. This is a matter between father and daughter. You're just an outsider. How shameless of you to tell me what to do."

When Jiang Yujie saw that Lu Qi was still being extremely shameless, she became too lazy to continue pretending. Her expression darkened immediately.

Lu Qi saw that Jiang Yujie had started showing a menacing facial expression.

Lu Qi sneered. "These are your true colors. You were acting like such goody two shoes, it makes me want to puke."

Lu Qiyuan's taste was as bad as ever; he was always attracted to this type of woman.

Even though her mom was Xia Qingyang, Lu Qi had to say that Lu Qiyuan's taste was bad for him to have been attracted to her.

Jiang Yujie smiled coldly and walked towards Lu Qi, almost touching her.

She leaned towards Lu Qi's ears and said, "You plotted against your own dad with other people, and now you want to reconcile with him? Why? What do you need your dad's help for? Is your husband not helping you with the things concerning the He family? Or maybe you're plotting against your dad together with the He family again?"

"Hehe, if I were you, I won't be so shameless. Yes, I did seduce your dad, but I did not betray my own family."

Chapter 2477: Scheme

"Unlike you. You even set up your own mother just so you can marry He Zhengbai. Why? After you've set her up and the He family is done using you, they decided to wash their hands off and not care anymore?"

Jiang Yujie scoffed mockingly. "Tsk tsk. You can't get any benefits from the He family, so you came back to look for your father again. Don't give me that look as if you despise me. I despise you too. Given your despicable behavior, what right do you have to look down on others?"

"You sl*t! This is none of your business!" Lu Qi was extremely infuriated and just stretched out her hand to push Jiang Yujie away. "Stay away from me!"

Actually, Lu Qi did not use much strength. Her hands had only lightly touched Jiang Yujie and she did not even get the chance to exert force before Jiang Yujie suddenly exclaimed "Aiya" and fell backward onto the floor.

Her elbow slammed against the hard floor, making her tears fall instantly from the pain.

Lu Qiyuan had heard the ruckus outside. When he came out, he happened to see Lu Qi pushing Jiang Yujie down.

"Yujie!" Lu Qiyuan rushed over to protect Jiang Yujie.

Jiang Yujie remained sitting on the floor, leaning into Lu Qiyuan's arms.

To make it more real, she had purposely used her elbow to knock against the floor when she was falling down.

At this moment, her face had turned pale from the pain, tears coming out of her eyes. She did not even need to pretend. This was definitely the most realistic reaction.

"Qiyuan," Jiang Yujie said breathlessly in pain.

Lu Qiyuan quickly helped her up and questioned Lu Qi, saying, "Why did come here and make a scene again!"

Jiang Yujie held on to Lu Qiyuan's elbow and said, "Miss Lu wants to come and find you, but you were busy working just now, so I asked Miss Lu to wait a while until you are done with work. Who knew..."

Jiang Yujie hesitated as if she could not bring herself to continue talking, then said, "She got angry and thought... she thought that I am just an outsider, yet I am still telling her what she can and cannot do, so she pushed me down in a fit of anger."

Lu Qiyuan was indeed enraged. "Lu Qi, who allowed you to come to my company to make a scene!"

Jiang Yujie quickly pressed on Lu Qiyuan's elbow and said, "She was also very angry. It's probably because she still can't really accept our relationship. Don't blame her. This... is quite difficult for people to accept."

Lu Qi really did not expect that there would actually come a day when she would get schemed on like that!

"Jiang Yujie, stop acting!" Lu Qi said furiously. "You were clearly the one—"

"Enough!" Lu Qiyuan just cut her off and said, "Who allowed you to come in? You can just live your life peacefully with the He family. I didn't go and settle scores with you, yet you actually had the audacity to come and look for me!"

Jiang Yujie actually wanted to know what exactly Lu Qi came to do.

If it could be useful to Lu Man...

So, Jiang Yujie said to Lu Qiyuan, "Qiyuan, let's not talk here, or else it will let the company's employees make a joke of us again.

"If there's anything to talk about, why don't we go into your office first?" Jiang Yujie said in a small voice.

Lu Qi thought it was strange. Jiang Yujie was actually willing to help her?

Wasn't Jiang Yujie trying to stop her from seeing Lu Qiyuan just before?

Why was she even taking the initiative to persuade Lu Qiyuan to hear her out now?

Lu Qi felt puzzled deep down, but soon after, she thought that this Jiang Yujie was probably thinking of shoring up Lu Qiyuan's good impression of her, and so she deliberately pretended to be kind and understanding, as if she even wanted to help them father and daughter patch up.

She pretended to be innocent and with no motives at all, as if she only cared about Lu Qiyuan.

Seeing how Lu Qiyuan looked so happy, Lu Qi then thought that she had guessed Jiang Yujie's thoughts correctly.

She lowered her head slightly, pursing her lips in disdain before following Lu Qiyuan into the office.

When she saw that Jiang Yujie actually wanted to come in as well, she immediately said, "This is a family matter between me and my father. What are you coming in for?"

Chapter 2478: It's Fine

"She's just an assistant." Lu Qi scoffed. "At work, you are just an assistant. What right do you have to interfere in our private affairs? In private, you are just my dad's lover. You don't even have status, so what right do you have to come in and discuss together with us?"

Jiang Yujie did not rebut her. Her face just turned pale as she looked at Lu Qiyuan without saying anything.

Lu Qiyuan huffed angrily. "Yujie is my fiancée. We will get married not long after this. To me, she is not an outsider."

Perhaps to Lu Qiyuan now, Lu Qi was the real outsider.

Lu Qi had this feeling, but she did not want to admit it.

No matter what, she was the one who had blood ties with Lu Qiyuan. How could Jiang Yujie compare?

But Lu Qiyuan did not think so. If not for Jiang Yujie reminding him not to earlier, he would have embarrassed himself outside again.

So now, only Jiang Yujie truly thought for his sake.

Lu Qi cared only about herself.

If not, why did she not think just then that making a scene outside would be embarrassing?

"If you have anything to say, quickly say it. If not for Yujie, you won't even be able to step into this office today," Lu Qiyuan said pointedly. "If you're not going to say it, then leave."

"Dad, you... why are you treating me like this now? You would never be like this in the past," Lu Qi said. She could not help but look at Jiang Yujie.

Was it because Jiang Yujie had sown discord between them?!

"You don't need to look at her! She never said anything before," Lu Qiyuan said coldly. "When she's with me, she cares only about my matters. As for other matters, she never cared about them before. It's you, actually. You always try to think of ways to sow discord between my and Yujie's relationship."

To Lu Qiyuan's eyes, just because of this, Lu Qi had already fallen to a lower status.

"The things that you and your mother did, don't tell me you forgot about them so quickly? You still have the shame to come and call me Dad?" Lu Qiyuan scoffed. "I don't dare to have a blood-sucking daughter like you. I treated you so well in the past, yet you even wanted to help outsiders swindle my family fortune. I finally managed to keep all these things after much effort. Now that you've come, are you planning to cheat me of the last bit of wealth I still have left?"

Lu Qiyuan was really scared of Lu Qi now. He just wanted to stay far away from her and did not dare to want her for a daughter anymore.

Lu Qi was even scarier than Lu Man.

He hated Lu Qi even more now.

Although Lu Man did not acknowledge him, she did not scheme to get his money.

Actually, when he thought about it on his own, even after all these years since he fell out with Lu Man, Lu Man really had not made him lose his assets.

The only people who made him lose assets were Lu Qi and Xia Qingyang.

After thinking through all these, Lu Qiyuan felt his jaw hurt.

These two good-for-nothing wastrels!

In Lu Qiyuan's eyes, compared to money, what was kinship even?

As long as they did not touch his money, they were good people!

Lu Qi indeed denied it. "Dad, that was all done by Mom behind my back. I didn't even know about all these things. When Mom fell into trouble, only then did I know that she actually did so much. If I'd known, I would definitely have stopped her. How can outsiders be compared to family? Why would I then scheme with an outsider to get your assets?"

"I know my mom did this because of me too. She thought that she was doing this for me. She was never smart, but her heart was all on me," Lu Qi said. "But no matter what, she did wrong. But Dad, this matter really has nothing to do with me."

Lu Qiyuan scoffed mockingly out loud. Of course he would not believe Lu Qi's bullshit.

"And I came this time not because I want to scheme for something. I never thought of getting anything from you. I just have something to tell you," Lu Qi said.

Chapter 2479: If You Don't Want to Say It, Just Get Out

"Say it," Lu Qiyuan said in annoyance.

He did not believe Lu Qi.

How could Lu Qi not be scheming?

Given how she and He Zhengbai had been married for so long yet no one outside knew about it, and there wasn't even a wedding held, how could things be well between the two of them?

Usually, when he was socializing during business gatherings, he would bump into him often.

But he had seen many times that He Zhengbai was with other women.

If they were the average models or little-known celebrities, that was fine.

But the women he was seeing were legitimate debutantes. These kinds of women were not to be casually played with by him.

If He Zhengbai dared to do this and Lu Qi did not react at all, Lu Qi's situation with the He family would then become obvious.

She had definitely been controlled tightly and strictly by the He family, without any bit of autonomy at all.

And even previously, there had been no news of Lu Qi at all, as if she did not exist at all.

Lu Qiyuan then guessed that during that period of time, Lu Qi might even have had her personal freedoms controlled by the He family.

Who knew what kind of compromise she made now for her to be able to come out and show her face?

Anyway, he did not believe that Lu Qi came simply for his sake. There was definitely a bigger advantage at stake for Lu Qi.

Perhaps she just came to use him.

Lu Qiyuan was not utterly stupid either.

He saw through Lu Qi now, so he naturally would not behave like he did before, being led away by the nose by her.

"Dad, you know that Lu Man is going to hold a wedding soon, right?" Lu Qi asked.

Lu Qiyuan replied, "Hmm?"

"So you really didn't know," Lu Qi said. "She gave out invitation cards at school today. She gave them to the classmates she was usually on good terms with, as well as to her teammates who went to New York to compete with her before, including students from other schools. She gave all of them invitation cards."

Lu Qi raised an eyebrow and said, "She gave them to so many unrelated people, yet she did not even inform you about it.

"And I even asked her who will walk her during her wedding. Guess what she said? She said that of course Wang Juhuai will walk her," Lu Qi said with sarcasm written all over her face. "I asked her, isn't she going to inform you? Guess what she said?"

Lu Qiyuan had had enough of Lu Qi asking him to guess with every other sentence. "Quickly say it. If you don't want to say it, just get out!"

Although he was annoyed with Lu Qi, more of it was attributed to his anger towards Lu Man.

Lu Man had actually informed so many people but did not inform him.

Even things like walking the bride into the venue were also left to a stepfather like Wang Juhuai.

She was clearly not treating him as her father anymore.

Lu Qiyuan clearly knew that Lu Qi was saying this to anger him, but he still could not help being angry.

So he vented his rage on Lu Qi.

Lu Qi minced her lips aggrievedly and said, "It's Lu Man who made you angry, so why are you venting it out on me? She said it herself, that she didn't have a father like you. She probably didn't think of inviting you at all.

"I don't care what you think my motive is for telling you all these. Anyway, she went overboard on this matter. This is an indisputable truth," Lu Qi said.

"Outsiders all know that you and Lu Man are not on good terms, but you two are father and daughter, after all. She didn't even invite you to such a huge event like her wedding. The person who'll be walking her in is Wang Juhuai, and the person who'll be sitting at the main hosts' table as her father is also Wang Juhuai.

"You are just like an outsider with no relation to her at all. She never even thought of inviting you at all," Lu Qi said. "She didn't invite me, which I can understand, actually. Anyway, our relationship has never been good. No matter how close the blood ties between siblings are, there are many cases where they fall out with each other completely. But you and Lu Man are different. You two are father and daughter. This is a relationship that cannot be disputed no matter what. How can she put a stepfather like Wang Juhuai on that seat and not ask for or care about you at all?"

Chapter 2480: Selectively Gullible

"If outsiders hear that she didn't even invite you to her wedding, you will become a laughingstock in everyone's eyes," Lu Qi said.

Indeed, Lu Qiyuan was really extremely angry.

When Jiang Yujie saw that, she ran through her thoughts twice quickly and said before Lu Qiyuan could speak, "Then what do you want? You want your dad to go settle scores with Lu Man? To go and ask for an invitation directly?"

"Lu Man didn't give you an invitation either, right? I'm guessing that with your thick skin, you definitely went to ask for one before this. Did Lu Man give it to you? But judging from your reaction, Lu Man didn't. So, you came to look for Qiyuan. Since Lu Man didn't give you an invitation, you won't let Lu Man off, but you shouldn't have come to make use of your father!

"All along, did you not make use of him many times? When did it ever end well? The moment you run into something and want to achieve your own ends, you would make him come out and do it for you. In the end, when things go south, he'd still be the one paying the price for it. And you? Nothing ever happened to you.

"Even today, it's still the same. You didn't manage to get an invitation from Lu Man, so you came to make use of your father. When you receive benefits, you never think of him. The moment you run into a problem, then you think of him."

Jiang Yujie hugged Lu Qiyuan's elbow and said, "As an outsider, I'll just be frank. No matter what Lu Man did, she didn't scheme to get Qiyuan's assets and didn't use him to achieve her own ends. You keep saying that your and Qiyuan's father-daughter relationship runs so deep, but up until now, aside from making Qiyuan lose his assets and embarrassing him in front of the public, what else have you given him? What, aside from losses, did he ever get from you?"

“Because of you, the management company he had set up for you closed down. That was for you to have films to act in, but the money he had invested in you all went down the drain. When he was ill and hospitalized, your husband used that period of time to try and cheat him of his money. Now, after the company has suffered so many blows and hasn’t yet recovered fully, what did you even help him with?”

“Speaking of that, Miss Lu, you always tell Qiyuan to go and get benefits from Lu Man, but actually, you’re not that worse off either. You are married to He Zhengbai now. You are the He family’s daughter-in-law. Lu Man and Qiyuan’s relationship isn’t good, so there’s no point pinning hopes on her. But you and Qiyuan’s relationship is so strong. When you came here today, isn’t it because you want to patch up with Qiyuan?”

“Then help our company. The He family had swindled away quite a lot of money from the company. This time around, treat it as you returning it to us. There’s no loss in that. Since you want to help your father so much and say you’re innocent, since you say that Xia Qingyang was the one who did all of that and it has nothing to do with you...” Jiang Yujie pretended to think for a moment before continuing, “Then prove it.”

“It’s very difficult for Qiyuan to ask for money from Lu Man, or else he would not have remained unsuccessful after so many years. But it shouldn’t be too hard if he asks you right? After all—” Jiang Yujie even said with a hint of mockery, “you’re so filial. No matter what you did, it’s all for Qiyuan’s good. Now, shouldn’t it be time for you to show it?”

Jiang Yujie looked up at Lu Qiyuan and asked, “Qiyuan, do you think what I said is right?”

Lu Qiyuan was a person who was selectively gullible.

Whoever he thought was trustworthy, he would just believe that person naively.

Just like how he had believed everything that Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi said back then. This time, he did not trust Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi and felt that Jiang Yujie was good, so he believed Jiang Yujie’s words even more.

And Jiang Yujie’s words made sense too.

He thought that they made sense.

He had tried to go over to Lu Man’s side before. It was no use.

And with that Han Zhuoli around, he probably would not dare to provoke them.

If he provoked them, besides Lu Man not helping him, his company might just go bust.
