

Mr Han 2531

Chapter 2531: Humble

She then thought of her unlucky son who was still single.

Then she took the chance to ask them to have a meal together and called Wei Wucai.

Dong Muping was not scared that Wei Wucai would not come.

He rarely came back. She knew that her son was obedient.

If she said she wanted to eat with Wei Wucai, Wei Wucai would definitely come.

Dong Muping also knew that Wei Wucai was smart and would definitely know her true intentions.

Wei Wucai had already promised her that he would go on blind dates, so Dong Muping was not even worried that Wei Wucai would not come.

But when Wei Wucai came in, Dong Muping still let out a sigh of relief.

This son was as dependable as ever.

Wei Wucai stopped and greeted courteously, "Mrs. Luo and Miss Luo."

Even though he was not passionate, he was well-mannered.

In Mrs. Luo's eyes, he was very satisfactory.

To Mrs. Luo, Wei Wucai looked very dependable and mature.

It was not important for a man to know how to sweet-talk a woman. It was more important for a man to be calm and steady so that he and his wife can live a good life together.

Since this was a blind date, love was not important.

If both could accept each other and if the guy was dependable and could ensure that her daughter would still live a good life after marriage, then all was well.

Mrs. Luo's first impression of Wei Wucai was at least very good.

"Hello." Mrs. Luo smiled, satisfied. She then said to Dong Muping, "Your son is such a fine-looking man; he is so handsome. From what you said before, you were being too humble."

Who wouldn't like it when others compliment their children?

Dong Muping smiled so happily that it seemed as if her eyes had curved into crescents. "You are flattering me."

Mrs. Luo covered her mouth as she laughed. "If I had such an outstanding son, I would bring him out every day to show off. You're such a good person; you're too humble."

They had heard that Dong Muping had a son, but they did not know what he looked like.

There were many people who guessed that maybe her son was very ordinary, so she felt ashamed to bring him out or talk about him to other people.

The people from the Wei Family were all very outstanding. Whether it was men or women, they looked good.

Wei Rongxuan, who had divorced because she and her ex-husband fought too much, was made known through many news articles about her affairs.

However, it was undeniable that Wei Rongxuan had a beautiful face; a face so beautiful that it could bring doom to the kingdom and its people.

And so, many people guessed that Wei Wucui looked ordinary, and Dong Muping chose not to talk about him to prevent people from comparing him with the other members of the Wei Family.

Now, looking at him, they found he was not ordinary at all. He was extraordinary.

Wei Wucui's looks, not only among the Wei Family but even in the whole country, were one of the tops.

Instead of saying he looked handsome, it was more suitable to say he looked gorgeous.

He was gorgeous but not girly.

He still looked manly.

How did he manage to appear both gorgeous and manly?

Mrs. Luo and Luo Qingxian thought it was weird.

Usually, boys who looked pretty would make people think that they were too girly.

However, Wei Wucui did not emanate that type of aura.

He showed this calm manliness that made people feel at peace.

They did not know that it was because Wei Wucui had trained at Mount Lan Compound from a young age.

Naturally, he had built a masculine body.

With his clothes on, he looked skinny, like a model.

But actually, his muscles, though they were not as huge as those of bodybuilders, had beautiful and strong lines.

Back then, the thing that Fang Jiaran loved to do the most was to find a perfect spot to observe the training done by the men at Mount Lan Compound.

This was because no matter what season it was, hot or cold, they trained without their shirts on.

Chapter 2532: Why Did He Think of Yan Zhiqing for No Reason

Then Wen Ren felt too jealous and dominated Fang Jiaran, not allowing her to watch again.

And it was precisely because Wei Wucai worked in Mount Lan Compound that Dong Muping rarely talked about Wei Wucai's work.

After all, many missions that Mount Lan Compound did were supposed to be confidential. Even the internal training at Mount Lan Compound was confidential.

Although she did not know much, actually, to avoid trouble, she just decided not to mention it at all.

Or else, if she told other people that her son was from Mount Lan Compound...

Outsiders were really curious about Mount Lan Compound. If they learned that her son was someone from there, they would definitely have many questions to ask.

She knew that. To avoid trouble, she was not willing to talk about it.

And as there were things she did not even know about, it was all the more impossible for her to talk.

But if other people felt that she knew but deliberately refrained from saying anything, then that would offend people as well.

So Dong Muping decided not to say anything at all.

Dong Muping smiled and said, "Since you are already here, then I will go out and shop with Mrs. Luo. The clothes that the two of us buy, youngsters won't be interested in. If we drag Miss Luo to go and shop with us, I will feel quite bad. How perfect, then. With you here to keep her company, the two of us can go off to shop."

Dong Muping stood up. Mrs. Luo understood her intention. Dong Muping was purposely creating an opportunity for the two young people.

Seeing how enthusiastic Dong Muping was, Mrs. Luo felt even more happy.

If they really became a match, with a mother-in-law like Dong Muping, things would really be quite good.

Hence, Mrs. Luo went off together with Dong Muping.

Only Luo Qingxian and Wei Wucai were left in the room.

Seeing how handsome Wei Wucai was, Luo Qingxian instantly felt really satisfied.

Luo Qingxian was just judging him based on his looks right now. Anyway, the suitors whom her family introduced to her would definitely come from pretty good family backgrounds, so she did not need to ask about the other party's family background at all.

They were all in the same social circle. Who did not know about each other's family backgrounds?

So she did not need to worry at all about what the other party's background was like.

She just hoped that she could find a good-looking and handsome man.

If they lived together, he would be pleasing to her eyes.

And she would feel proud when she brought him out too.

A handsome husband from a reputable family, who wouldn't be envious of that?

Speaking of that, actually, even though the suitors recommended by their families all came from reputable family backgrounds, not every person who had a reputable family background was handsome.

Some looked ugly and repulsive.

Luo Qingxian would rather find someone who had no money but had good looks. Anyway, her family was rich, so she could just support the other party after they got married.

At least she would not feel repulsed looking at that face.

If she found someone from a reputable family but was ugly, she really could not accept it.

Alas, these were not things that were within her control.

Their marriages had always been tied together with the family interests.

She did not have a choice at all.

If she could have a choice within the circle, it was already not bad.

This time, she had extremely good luck and actually got Wei Wucai as her blind date.

Luo Qingxian blushed and said shyly, "I'm sorry, I didn't expect it either, that our parents..."

Wei Wucai did not have any feelings towards Luo Qingxian.

Of course, this was only their first time meeting. What feelings could he have?

As for how Luo Qingxian looked, he did not mind either.

To say something shameless, he had long become immune after looking at this face of his in the mirror every day.

The average pretty woman would not be able to stun him at all.

Except for that face of Yan Zhiqing's...

Wei Wucai was stunned for a moment. He frowned slightly.

Why did he think of Yan Zhiqing for no reason?

It was probably because he had just seen her outside. That was why he thought of her all of a sudden.

Chapter 2533: So Useless

But it was true that Yan Zhiqing was pretty.

And she grew even prettier as she got older.

When she was 18 years old, although she was pretty, she looked a little young. And because she had a willful personality, she got many points deducted.

But as she grew older, became mature, and was not so willful anymore, she grew to look even more alluring as well.

Of course, as for her personality...

Wei Wucai did not think it got any better.

With that hot temper of hers, she would jump up at the slightest thing.

Luo Qingxian did not expect that it was as if her shyness and coyness just then all went to the eyes of a blind man. Wei Wucai did not feel anything at all.

She heard Wei Wucai say, "Did you all order food just now?"

"Not yet," Luo Qingxian said. "We planned to order together after you came, but I didn't expect..."

Wei Wucai could tell that Luo Qingxian was trying hard to change the topic to the blind date.

Wei Wucai did not take the hint and picked up the menu, passing it over to her as he said, "Miss Luo, feel free to order what you want to eat."

"I don't eat much usually," Luo Qingxian said. "But I'm not picky with food either. I can eat sour, sweet, and spicy food. You can just order based on your tastes."

Since she said that, Wei Wucai casually ordered some dishes.

Luo Qingxian: "..."

She was just being casually polite and testing if the other party was considerate enough.

Usually, under such circumstances, even if the man ordered the dishes, he should ask for her opinion before ordering each dish.

She did not expect that Wei Wucai would really take it that she was very easygoing.

Luo Qingxian felt a little unhappy. While they waited for the dishes to be served, Luo Qingxian asked, "Previously, I didn't really hear much about what you do, Mr. Wei. What position do you hold at Wei Feng?"

"I didn't enter Wei Feng," Wei Wucai said. "Our Wei Family is different. In the Wei Family, besides the main household, only a few people can work in the company. I don't have the right to."

He was just pacifying Luo Qingxian by saying that.

The eight great families would all send their descendants to Mount Lan Compound while they were young to learn some basic self-defense.

After all, they had extraordinary backgrounds, so gangsters would surely harbor ill designs towards them.

Kidnapping and threats, these dangers were ever-present around them.

So the eight great families would send their children to Mount Lan Compound to train from a young age. That way, they could at least have some basic self-defense abilities.

After all, even if they had bodyguards with them, accidents could still happen.

Bodyguards also had moments when they would fail.

What if the people beside them got bribed?

You might as well rely on yourself rather than on others.

As for the children who went to Mount Lan Compound, aside from the appointed successors to the family master for each family, if Mount Lan Compound spots some others whom they felt had talent and potential, they could make a suggestion to the family and ask if they could let the child stay behind.

If the family agreed, that child would continue receiving training at Mount Lan Compound.

This was what had happened to Wei Wucai.

But could just anyone be scouted by Mount Lan Compound?

It was very, very rare.

The people who could enter Mount Lan Compound were all very impressive people.

But Luo Qingxian did not know that, so she felt a little disappointed when she heard that.

“Then what is your work now? Do you run your own company?” Luo Qingxian asked further expectantly.

Wei Wucai smiled plainly and said, “No. I’m not the type to start my own company. I work for someone else. As for what I do, it’s pretty similar to being a detective, doing some investigations.”

He was indeed working in the intelligence department at Mount Lan Compound, so he was not lying either.

Luo Qingxian grumbled to herself. Wei Wucai was so good-looking, but why was he so useless?

He did not even have a proper job.

She did indeed feel earlier that the most important part was the person’s looks, that even if his job was average, she would just provide for him.

But saying it was one thing. Of course she would hope for her husband to be both handsome and rich.

Chapter 2534: Don’t Have Any Relation at All

Only then would she feel proud when she brought him out.

If not, when her best friends saw that her husband was pretty useless in all other aspects aside from having good looks, she would definitely be ridiculed to death by them and not be on par with them.

“Why did you think of doing this job?” Luo Qingxian asked. “The Wei Family has so many businesses and properties. You can enter any of those companies, right? If nothing else, starting your own small business would have been good too. If you work for other people, how difficult would that be?”

If you work for other people, you won’t earn a lot too, right?

Wei Wucai secretly raised a brow in his heart and said, "I am not suited to running a business, lest I empty my family fortune. Our Wei Family's requirements are very strict. You can't enter the company just because you want to. My capability isn't good enough, so I didn't manage to get in. My parents also know that I'm not cut out for business and might make us go bankrupt, so they might as well let me go out and work a stable job. That's what I think too.

"Anyway, even if I don't earn much from my job, I am from the Wei Family, after all. My family would get its fair share of dividends from our family businesses as well. But the dividends all belong to my father. I don't have any. In the future, I will at most inherit my father's shares," Wei Wucai said.

"After all, my family isn't part of the direct family line of the main family," Wei Wucai said a little self-deprecatingly.

When Luo Qingxian heard that, she felt that Wei Wucai was a little too useless.

He just had a good-looking face and had the title of the Wei Family with him, but in fact, he had nothing.

Even if the two of them really got together, that would not be considered a union between the two families.

Because he had no say in the Wei Family, much less for the family's business matters. Then that was not much use for her family either.

But Luo Qingxian still found it a little difficult to part with Wei Wucai's looks.

"Mr. Wei, have you ever thought of coming out to start your own business? Even if you're doing investigative work, you can open your own business for something related to that," Luo Qingxian said.

Wei Wucai finally could not take it. He raised an eyebrow and asked, "Miss Luo, we don't have any relation at all yet and you're already anxiously trying to plan for my future?"

Luo Qingxian's face instantly reddened when Wei Wucai exposed her intentions so directly. "I didn't mean it that way."

"Then whatever it is that I do, does that have anything to do with you?" Wei Wucai did not try to be polite at all.

Previously, he had given his agreement to Dong Muping that he would restrain himself and not say things that would make the other party unhappy.

But he really did not have any feelings for this Luo Qingxian, so he planned to just get things over and done with after having a polite meal with her.

It would not be good if he just abandoned her there without a thought after her mother had left her behind.

This would not be appropriate, and it would put Dong Muping in a spot too.

Alas, this Luo Qingxian was actually really planning on having a blind date to try and find out what exactly he worked as.

He naturally could not tell her about Mount Lan Compound, so he secretly changed the topic to make Luo Qingxian look down on him and give up on her own accord.

The people who came from these families mostly looked down on others and were utterly prideful.

They would naturally look down on the kind of job he had just described.

But then, while it would have been fine if she only looked down on it, she actually even tried to plan and scheme for him and kept trying to get him to start his own business and make it out on his own.

She really had to put in so much effort for him.

Wei Wucai strongly resisted the urge to roll his eyes.

This was only their first time meeting, and they were just having a meal together.

On their first time meeting for a meal, she had already pushed the progress all the way to marriage. She could be said to be really positive and to have a lot of initiative.

Luo Qingxian's embarrassment turned into anger due to his words. And as he was spot on about her intentions, it made it even more difficult for her to back down.

Luo Qingxian's expression stiffened and she said, "I was just giving you a suggestion."

Chapter 2535: Sincerity

Luo Qingxian felt very embarrassed after Wei Wucai said those words, so she said, "After all, you're not young anymore. Let's not talk about our social circle, but just among the eight great families, which of them around your age isn't accomplished and successful? Meanwhile, you still work in a small office for other people."

Hearing what Wei Wucai had said previously, Luo Qingxian naturally thought that Wei Wucai's workplace was probably a very average detective agency.

"Even if I am not accomplished, I don't need you to worry about it, Miss Luo," Wei Wucai said. "As for me, I don't have great ambitions. I just like to keep this job of mine that nobody looks well on. In this lifetime, this is about all that I will achieve. Miss Luo, you don't need to worry for me about this anymore."

Luo Qingxian pursed her lips. She finally could not help but scoff.

He was useless and had no great ambition. What a waste of a good-looking face.

At this moment, his phone happened to ring.

Wei Wucai picked up his phone and glanced at it before saying, "I'm sorry. I have to go out and take a call."

Wei Wucai took his phone and went out. Actually, it was not anything serious.

It was just Yuan Jiangyi feeling bored, so he especially called him to have a chit-chat.

Wei Wucai rolled his eyes and said, "Hao Zi and Boss are both there. How would you not have anyone to chat with?"

The "Hao Zi" that Wei Wucai was referring to was the team leader of the Day Shadows, Hao Donghuai.

As for "Boss," that was the head of their intelligence department, Fang Boran.

"Hao Zi is just a boorish man. Talking to him will lead the conversation nowhere," Yuan Jiangyi said.

Wei Wucai: "..."

But Wei Wucai would rather stand on the corridor and chat with Yuan Jiangyi than go back and face Luo Qingxian.

He was about to chat more with Yuan Jiangyi when he saw the door to a room open.

That room happened to be the one that Yan Zhiqing had gone into.

Wei Wucai was not a busybody originally, but when he saw that, it was as if he got possessed and could not help but walk over.

"Dead," Wei Wucai said to Yuan Jiangyi through the phone.

"What?" Yuan Jiangyi was confused by what he had said.

Why did he suddenly say "dead" when they were chatting well.

"Our conversation is also dead now," Wei Wucai said. "Goodbye."

After he finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

"Hello! Hello!" Yuan Jiangyi shouted twice at the call that had already ended, but there was no response.

He then put down his phone and said to his phone, "What the f*ck, what is going on?"

Meanwhile, in Yan Zhiqing's room, she was staring with a cold expression as Lu Xiuse just shamelessly started seducing the CEO of the entire corporation, Edwood.

Seeing how passionate she was, she appeared as if she was on the verge of sweeping away the dishes on the table and just doing it there and then with Edwood.

Lu Xiuse's hand had just reached over to Edwood's lap, inching up from his knee, slowly caressing it, teasing Edwood until his heart itched and he felt restless.

These Westerners were pretty open when it came to such matters between men and women.

Now that Lu Xiuse had taken the initiative so passionately and it was consensual, Edwood would naturally not reject.

Who knew if he would give the brand endorsement to Lu Xiuse just like that, but Lu Xiuse would be able to get some benefits from it anyway.

CEO Luo was sitting beside Yan Zhiqing. He leaned over, smiling as he said, “Miss Yan, look, Miss Lu has shown us her sincerity too for the sake of the brand endorsement.”

CEO Luo had drunk quite a lot. He reeked of alcohol all over now, and even his words were a little slurry. He was intoxicated and had lost his self-control.

Yan Zhiqing wondered, if CEO Luo was clear-headed, would he still dare to speak to her like that?

Chapter 2536: You're Drunk

But at this moment, all of CEO Luo's bad alcohol breaths spewed onto her face.

Yan Zhiqing turned up her face in disgust and asked mockingly, “Lu Xiuse is showing her sincerity to Edwood now. So then, before this, did she also let you and Deputy CEO Zhang see her sincerity?”

CEO Luo had a look of yearning on his face and even licked his lips.

His perverted, despicable smile disgusted Yan Zhiqing.

“Haha, of course she showed us. She didn't just show us, but she also let us experience it physically.” The foul smell of alcohol spewed out again from CEO Luo's mouth as he continued, “Me and Deputy CEO Zhang together, hahaha...”

“Xiuse is such an amazing person. Are all the people in your entertainment industry as smooth-running as her?” CEO Luo was swaying, as if he could no longer sit still in his seat.

He suddenly put his hand on Yan Zhiqing's knee and said, “Miss Yan, do you know why Xiuse can sit here today?”

“That's right. At the start, we really only just invited you over. For things like brand endorsements, of course it's better to discuss things one-on-one. But Xiuse came to discuss with me and Deputy CEO Zhang beforehand. She begged us very sincerely.”

CEO Luo licked his lips and said, “We were moved by her sincerity, so we also arranged for her to be here.”

Yan Zhiqing felt disgusted and pushed CEO Luo's hand away without trying to be polite at all.

She understood what CEO Luo's words implied, and she also understood how exactly Lu Xiuse showed the two of them her sincerity.

Based on what CEO Luo implied in his words, she actually showed her sincerity to both of them at once.

Two men and one woman...

Just thinking of that scenario made Yan Zhiqing so disgusted that she wanted to throw up.

CEO Luo lowered his head and looked at the hand that Yan Zhiqing pushed away. He was intoxicated, and his lust took over his senses.

He thought to himself that though Yan Zhiqing was begging them, she still dared to put on airs around them.

So he put his hand firmly on Yan Zhiqing's lap.

"CEO Luo, you're drunk," Yan Zhiqing said coldly.

Mou Danqiong also came over, wanting to get CEO Luo away from her.

Unexpectedly, CEO Luo gave an evil grin and said, "Yan Zhiqing, do you still want this brand endorsement or not? This endorsement deal of ours is not something the Yan Family can give you with just a word. Turbo is not a domestic brand, its foundations are not in the country, so no matter how big your Yan Family's influence is, it won't be able to control it!

"Let me tell you, if I can convince Edwood and the others today to arrange for Lu Xiuse to come over, then with just a few words from us, we can similarly stop you from becoming the spokesperson for this brand!"

"CEO Luo, you are drunk!" Mou Danqiong's face hardened and turned dark. This man was really gutsy. Did he have a death wish?

She wanted to take CEO Luo's hand away from Yan Zhiqing's leg. Alas, she actually could not move it.

CEO Luo's hand tightly grabbed Yan Zhiqing's leg and just would not move.

"At first, Edwood was indeed quite keen on having you, but who asked you not to show your sincerity like how Lu Xiuse did? Look at how Lu Xiuse performs. That there looks like someone who is really trying very hard to compete for this," CEO Luo said.

On the opposite end of the table, Lu Xiuse had already climbed into Edwood's arms.

Edwood's hands also very impolitely reached into her clothes.

"But no matter what, Edwood doesn't understand the situation in the country and wouldn't always be here. So, to celebrities in the country, exactly who will be more suitable and can take on this endorsement, doesn't it still depend on our word?"

CEO Luo laughed gleefully. After trying Lu Xiuse, he felt a little airy and arrogant.

He thought of how Lu Xiuse, an A-list female celebrity in the country who was entering the international scene, also had to curry favor with him, take off her clothes willingly in front of him, and do her best to serve him.

Chapter 2537: What a F*cking Bastard

With such licentious behavior, she did not look like the glamorous female celebrity that people admired at all.

She was utterly slutty.

No matter how elegant she was in front of others, when she had to plead with them, wouldn't she still need to be played around with wantonly by them?

"As long as we say a few words to Edwood and the others, you can become the brand's spokesperson. Conversely, we can also say a few words and you won't get a chance at all."

He gave such a long-winded talk, but he was just saying that Edwood and the others would not always be in the country and did not understand the situation here.

When the cat's away, the mice will play.

It would be very easy for CEO Luo and Deputy CEO Zhang to muddle over things.

But even if it was not easy to muddle them over, seeing how Edwood behaved right now, it was not possible to get this brand endorsement in a proper manner.

"Miss Yan, you saw Miss Lu's sincerity already. Where's yours?" CEO Luo gave a perverted smile as his hand was about to move up.

Yan Zhiqing's face was cold and stiff. She scoffed and said, "What a f*cking bastard."

"Eh?" CEO Luo's expression soured. No matter how drunk he was, he could still understand that Yan Zhiqing was cursing him.

CEO Luo's face fell.

Beside him, Deputy CEO Zhang, who was also drunk, had been watching CEO Luo chat with Yan Zhiqing.

When he heard that Yan Zhiqing actually just cursed them outright, Deputy CEO Zhang's expression immediately soured and he said, "Miss Yan, watch your words! CEO Luo is talking to you nicely, so why did you curse him? Do you still want the brand endorsement?"

Yan Zhiqing stood up at once and said, "I don't give a damn about your damned endorsement! Every single one of you is a f*cking bastard who does disgusting things. Simply because you've met a few shameless women who'd do all they can to throw themselves at you, you forget who you actually are. You can't even keep it in your pants when you see a woman, as if you've never seen a woman before in your life!"

Yan Zhiqing raised her leg and kicked hard at the back of CEO Luo's chair.

She really had to thank herself for especially going to train and insist on going to the gym regularly because of her acting career.

The girls from the eight great families did not need to go to Mount Lan Compound to undergo the harsh and strict training.

But their families would still especially hire professionals to teach them self-defense.

Girls, especially when they were still children, did not have much strength to begin with, so it was not feasible to expect them to rely on strength and martial arts skills to protect themselves. They could only teach them how to use the things around them to protect themselves.

But after she grew up, Yan Zhiqing went to pursue acting as her career.

She had filmed for an action film before, and the main leads were action stars who came from martial arts backgrounds.

Yan Zhiqing was worried that her actions would look weak and ugly because she never trained before, thus affecting the scenes she filmed.

The production crew and the director did not put out any requests. It was Yan Zhiqing who went to find a professional to learn from.

Afterward, she persisted with the training.

Right now, the muscles on her body were still proportionate. Her figure was smooth and slender and had a nice firmness to it.

But as she persisted with her training, she naturally also managed to build up her strength over time.

CEO Luo was fat and looked like he was quite heavy.

But he still got kicked to the floor along with the chair by Yan Zhiqing.

“Bang!” A loud thudding sound was heard, which made even Edwood and Lu Xiuse on the opposite end stop what they were doing.

Lu Xiuse covered her mouth in shock as she stared at Yan Zhiqing.

Her eyes, however, were filled with intense jealousy.

If not because Yan Zhiqing had the Yan Family backing her up, how would she dare to be so brazen!

It was precisely because she had no backer, no background, that she had no choice but to rely on selling her body in exchange for resources.

Meanwhile, Yan Zhiqing could be so reckless.

If she had Yan Zhiqing’s background, would she need to aggrieve herself to serve these people!

Thinking of what CEO Luo and Deputy CEO Zhang had done together to her body, Lu Xiuse felt so disgusted that she wanted to puke.

Chapter 2538: Are You Crazy!

If she had a background similar to Yan Zhiqing’s, she could also cherish herself and look down on them!

But why did she not think that, actually, she was also earning quite a lot now? No one forced her to do anything.

It was simply that her desire and greed had no bounds.

Even if she really had a background like that of Yan Zhiqing, she would still want to have even more and not know how to be contented.

“Yan Zhiqing! What are you doing!” CEO Luo berated in anger and embarrassment. “You can forget about getting this endorsement! I was reminding you nicely out of goodwill. What do you think you’re doing!”

Yan Zhiqing ignored him and said to Mou Danqiong, “Elder Sister Mou, open the door.”

Mou Danqiong did not know what Yan Zhiqing planned to do, but Mou Danqiong still trusted her ability to adapt and respond in such situations.

It’s true that Mou Danqiong was Yan Zhiqing’s manager.

But most of the time, Mou Danqiong would prioritize Yan Zhiqing’s opinion.

After all, she came from the Yan Family, so Yan Zhiqing’s intelligence was not average.

Yan Zhiqing could accomplish what she had today because of her good judgment.

Amid the chaos, everyone’s attention was on Yan Zhiqing.

So when Mou Danqiong went to open the door, no one could care enough to stop her.

And they did not know what Yan Zhiqing planned to do.

They felt that Yan Zhiqing was probably going to leave.

Anyway, she could not do anything too embarrassing.

Yan Zhiqing needed to save some face, after all.

But they clearly underestimated Yan Zhiqing.

Mou Danqiong went to open the door.

It was right at this moment that Wei Wucai noticed that the door had opened, so he walked over.

To prevent the others from coming over to close the door, she stood by it.

She was not afraid that Yan Zhiqing would be at a disadvantage.

The door was wide open, and Sheng Yue was the Yan Family’s territory.

She was really not worried that anything would happen to Yan Zhiqing.

Yet the moment she opened the door, she saw Wei Wucai walking over.

But he did not go in. He just stood at the door and looked inside.

Mou Danqiong: “...”

Forget it. Anyway, Wei Wucai knew Yan Zhiqing, so he could just watch if he wanted to.

She could also feel more assured with a grown man around.

If something went wrong, Wei Wucai could help out too.

Mou Danqiong glanced at Wei Wucai’s pretty-boy face. He could... right?

“What do I think I’m doing?” Yan Zhiqing took up a bottle of beer from the table and just poured it right over CEO Luo. Once she’d poured about half of it, she shifted down to pour the rest over his crotch and said, “I’m helping you to cool down. Don’t just keep thinking about your little friend in your pants all day.”

The beer cascaded out from the bottle, wetting CEO Luo’s crotch completely.

As the weather was hot, the beer had been chilled in ice beforehand.

Now that it gushed down all at once, it felt so cold that CEO Luo shivered.

Yan Zhiqing said it was to help him cool down, and it really cooled him down too much.

CEO Luo shivered from the chills.

And as that was the most precious spot for a man, that area was especially fragile.

Being shocked by the sudden freeze, CEO Luo just screamed out loud.

How could he still think about other nonsense?

“Yan Zhiqing!” Deputy CEO Zhang shouted in rage as he stood up.

But when Yan Zhiqing glanced at him, Deputy CEO Zhang felt scared and staggered backward subconsciously.

Yan Zhiqing scoffed twice mockingly. Deputy CEO Zhang finally realized what he had done and stopped retreating.

Deputy CEO Zhang pointed at Yan Zhiqing as he shouted. “Are you crazy?!”

“Yan? Yan who?! Why don’t you take a look at whose territory you’re standing on right now! You standing on my Yan Family’s territory and you still dare to show such hypocritical behavior and take advantage of me? I think you guys are the crazy ones!”

Yan Zhiqing casually threw the empty beer bottle aside and said, “I don’t care how other people show you their sincerity. What they are willing to sacrifice is their problem, I can’t do anything about that and it’s none of my business.. Even if she’s being all clingy and gross in front of me, I can’t do anything about that, and I don’t care either.”

Chapter 2539: Do You Know the Consequences of Offending Us?

“But if I didn’t provoke you people, you all better not think of harboring any designs on me too!” Yan Zhiqing patted her leg.

It was right at the spot that CEO Luo had just touched. “What a disgusting f*cker!”

Edwood and Chanders did not understand what she said, but it did not prevent them from understanding that Yan Zhiqing was cursing the others.

Judging from Yan Zhiqing’s outraged expression, could she possibly be saying something nice?

Edwood pushed Lu Xiuse aside. Lu Xiuse almost fell to the floor from his push.

She quickly went back to sit properly on her seat.

Edwood stood up. He actually maintained his demeanor and did not behave upset and outraged like CEO Luo and Deputy CEO Zhang did.

He had just been engaged in such indecent behavior with Lu Xiuse just then, yet now, he was looking all prim and proper, standing up with his back straight.

In Yan Zhiqing's eyes, he was just a despicable person faking his decency.

"Miss Yan, is this your attitude when discussing brand endorsement deals?" Edwood asked coldly. "No matter what, you shouldn't hit people."

"You doubt my attitude when discussing the endorsement, but I doubt your sincerity when discussing the endorsement. Are you looking for a spokesperson suited to your brand, or are you looking for a spokesperson who can satisfy your needs in bed?"

Yan Zhiqing pointed at CEO Luo, who was slumped on the floor, and said, "This is exactly how the head of the country branch of your company whom you hired is like. From what I can tell, the things that you all do don't match the luxurious and elegant image of your brand. I would rather not endorse a brand like this."

Just looking at the actions of these few, she knew this matter would be exposed sooner or later.

Especially as any celebrity with a bit of fame would always have paparazzi following them around.

Actually, Lu Xiuse's matter had already been caught on camera by the paparazzi. They just did not release it yet.

It also had to do with how Lu Xiuse networked with them in private.

"Do you know the consequences of offending us?" Chanders also stood up and said, "You think you are only offending this one brand of ours? With this attitude of yours, other brands wouldn't want to use you either."

"And our brand is held under the same corporation as quite a few other luxury brands. If you offend us, you can also forget about getting any resources from the other brands under our corporation," Chanders said coldly.

"Then so be it." Yan Zhiqing did not care. "As for whether I really can or cannot get it, what you say doesn't count. Let your corporation's CEO talk to my Yan Family about it, then."

Edwood was stunned for a moment.

He did hear about the Yan Family before, and he heard that the family had some influence in the country.

But no matter how impressive, they were only impressive in the country.

They even wanted to compare themselves to world-class reputable families?

What a joke.

And to even let their corporation's CEO speak to the Yan Family.

Did they have the right to be spoken to as equals?

Edwood thought to himself that just because Yan Zhiqing's family had some standing in the country, Yan Zhiqing became so proud and arrogant that she thought that there was no problem that her Yan Family could not solve.

Life would surely teach her a lesson.

Yan Zhiqing did not know what Edwood was thinking about deep down. If she knew, she would scoff and call him an idiot.

He even managed to become a brand's CEO like this.

Yan Zhiqing turned and walked out.

"Don't go!" CEO Luo finally clambered up from the floor.

How could he let Yan Zhiqing leave just like that?

Today's matter had caused quite a scene. What if Yan Zhiqing went around spouting rubbish?

He had to wrap things up properly first.

And Yan Zhiqing had hit him. He looked so pathetic now. How could he take it lying down?

CEO Luo also did not know what he was thinking.

After all, he did not dare to offend the Yan Family, but he just felt angry and unable to suck it up, so he just wanted to stop Yan Zhiqing from leaving first before thinking about anything else.

Chapter 2540: Why Are You Here?

As if doing that could make him look less embarrassing.

CEO Luo did not think much and just ran over, wanting to grab Yan Zhiqing's elbow.

Yan Zhiqing did not take CEO Luo seriously at all, so she did not turn back and kept walking.

It's just that, when she reached the door and saw that Wei Wucai was there as well, she was stunned for a moment.

"Why are you here?" Yan Zhiqing asked.

Thinking of what she had just done and said, she suddenly felt a little embarrassed.

Although she did not do anything embarrassing, she just did not want Wei Wucai to see whatever happened just then for some reason.

Anyway, it was not a good thing at all.

Wei Wucai was about to say something when he suddenly reached out towards her.

Yan Zhiqing thought that Wei Wucai wanted to grab her and dodged instinctively.

Wei Wucai's hand was seen flying right past the side of Yan Zhiqing's body.

Yan Zhiqing even thought that Wei Wucai's aim was quite bad.

With such a slow reflex, how did he manage to survive in Mount Lan Compound?

Unexpectedly, she heard a tragic scream coming from behind her.

Yan Zhiqing turned around and then understood that the person Wei Wucai had wanted to grab was not her but CEO Luo, who was behind her.

If Wei Wucai had not grabbed CEO Luo, then CEO Luo would have grabbed her.

Although she was not scared that CEO Luo would do something to her, as long as CEO Luo touched her, she would feel disgusted.

Luckily, Wei Wucai had stopped him.

Wei Wucai was seen gripping CEO Luo's wrist and twisting it, his expression not changing at all.

"Ah!" CEO Luo screamed. Being twisted by Wei Wucai like that, he felt that even his elbow was being twisted into the shape of a twisted donut.

CEO Luo had to bend his knees to prevent his elbow from being twisted too badly. In the end, he collapsed on the floor once again.

This time, Yan Zhiqing reacted very quickly. She moved and hid behind Wei Wucai in a flash.

Wei Wucai tilted his head slightly and glanced at her.

He could not help but give a faint smirk.

She was quite capable usually, but at this moment, she did not hesitate at all to hide behind him.

It was rare that he could see a moment like this when she trusted him so much.

This feeling was pretty good.

Yan Zhiqing really did not think at all and just did this intuitively.

In this kind of chaotic situation, Wei Wucai was the person she trusted the most.

Even though the two of them were always bickering, at critical moments, Wei Wucai was really trustworthy.

And he was someone from Mount Lan Compound, so the sense of security she felt with him was really ten out of ten.

She was wearing high heels. She was quite tall to begin with. With the added height from her heels, her height shot past 1.7 meters.

But when she hid behind Wei Wucai, he could still cover her completely.

He was like a tall and sturdy shield, protecting her in front and making her feel especially secure.

Yan Zhiqing did not even notice herself that she had subconsciously grabbed Wei Wucai's shirt tightly.

Wei Wucai felt it and thought to himself, Since when was this girl so close to him?

CEO Luo screamed in agony on the floor and even pointed at Wei Wucai as he shouted, "Who are you!"

"Uncle?" A woman's voice rang out in astonishment.

Yan Zhiqing turned and saw Luo Qingxian but did not recognize her.

Luo Qingxian had waited in the room for Wei Wucai for a long time. The dishes were all served, but Wei Wucai did not return.

Luo Qingxian did not feel that it was appropriate to start eating when Wei Wucai was not around.

But most importantly, Luo Qingxian was afraid that Wei Wucai had left without saying a word and just ditched her there.

Just now, before Wei Wucai answered the call, the conversation between the two of them had not been very promising.

Wei Wucai even mocked her and made Luo Qingxian pent up with anger.

She waited for a long time and did not see Wei Wucai come back. Luo Qingxian thought to herself, Wei Wucai could not be so ungentlemanly as to secretly leave, right?!
