

Mr Han 2661

Chapter 2661: Pack Up

Han Zhuoling's threat was very effective towards Montrealle.

If the Han Corporation withdrew, Wu Mosen's movie would lose a lot of funding.

It was the same as a house losing more than half of its foundation.

It was not easy to find a sugar daddy who was as rich as the Han Corporation. There were a lot of rich companies that could be the source of their funding, but not every one of them was willing to invest like how the Han Corporation was investing.

The others considered the returns of those investments while the Han Corporation did not think that money was important; as long as the results of the movie were good, the Han Corporation would make up for whatever that was lacking.

A lot of movies went over their budget as they were being shot. At this time, a sugar daddy like the Han Corporation would really be needed.

Not to mention, the Han Corporation's theater chain could ensure a high box office sales in the country before the movie was even released.

The benefit of having the second biggest ticket warehouse in the world could not be thrown away.

If the Han Corporation was to withdraw, forget about how they could not find another big boss that could ensure high box office sales before the movie was even in theaters

It would be hard to find an investor last minute.

When one compared that to Lian Qingyin, who was just an employee of their company...

Between one person and the Han Corporation, obviously, they would choose the Han Corporation.

So Montrealle agreed to Han Zhuoling's request without hesitating.

True, it felt a little uncomfortable that the Han Corporation had used their riches to interfere with the assignation and dispatch of their company's employees.

But they were outsiders and did not have a foundation, so they could only agree.

"Alright, pack up and come back immediately! The mess that you have made has to be cleaned up by the company!" said Montrealle unhappily.

Without waiting for Lian Qingyin to say anything, Montrealle hung up.

But now that he was awake, he thought for a while and remembered that he still had to deal with the aftermath.

So, he gave Wu Mosen a phone call.

Hence, the moment Lian Qingyin's call was hung up, Wu Mosen's phone started ringing.

Wu Mosen saw that it was Montrealle calling. "Mr. Montrealle."

"Wu," called Montrealle. "I'm so sorry to give you trouble due to the changes in our company's employees. I have gotten Liliane's phone call. She said she's in the interview with you guys?"

Liliane was Lian Qingyin.

"Yes," answered Wu Mosen.

He was not like those people and would not use his identity as the director to use a casting couch.

Wu Mosen did not like such things. His relationship with his wife was excellent, and he did not understand what was so good about a good-looking appearance.

He focused on his work and his family life. These already took up every bit of his time, and he was not willing to think about other things.

As long as it did not affect his values, Wu Mosen was someone who was good to talk to.

However, if he was to really get angry... He was a famous director, after all; what situations had he not been in? What had he not experienced before?

It was not like Wu Mosen could not be offended. He had a good temper until someone really angered him. If not for that, he would not mind at all.

Originally, he was still wondering whether it was really necessary to talk to Montrealle because of Lian Qingyin.

If Lian Qingyin's matter was not huge and he talked to Montrealle because of that, he would seem narrow-minded.

But if he did not do anything, Wu Mosen would not be able to take it.

He hated it the most when others ordered him around in his own production.

If it was a professional's advice, it was fine. Even if he did not agree with it, he would not be upset..

Chapter 2662: Shameless

Take how he would often argue with the scriptwriter when discussing the storyline. This did not actually affect their relationship, let alone cause them to hold grudges against each other.

What annoyed him the most was when a totally unprofessional person, who used their position for personal gain, criticized his work.

So, Wu Mosen truly could not swallow his anger towards Lian Qingyin.

Who knew that this would happen so coincidentally? Montrealle actually took the initiative to call him.

In that case, Wu Mosen could not be blamed for speaking frankly with Montrealle.

“We’re having some disagreements and are currently in a debate. Louis has arrived. He said he’s here to replace Liliane,” Wu Mosen said.

“That’s right,” Montrealle said. “Due to some reasons, we have no choice but to replace Liliane. I know you’ve already started working together, so replacing one person now would mean you’ll have to figure out each other’s work style, and there will inevitably be some inconveniences right at the start. This is so sudden, and I didn’t even inform you beforehand... Please forgive me.”

Montrealle spoke very courteously, so Wu Mosen naturally spoke politely in return. “It’s fine. We haven’t worked with Liliane for long anyway. It won’t affect us much even if we get a replacement now; we have yet to work together much.”

From one side, Lian Qingyin heard Wu Mosen’s words very clearly.

She stared fiercely at Wu Mosen.

If Wu Mosen had said that they were already working extremely well with Lian Qingyin and that they had built rapport, perhaps she still would have had a bit of a chance.

However, Wu Mosen had unexpectedly just said that she had not been working with them much and that it would not affect anything if they switched her out.

In that case, Montrealle truly would not hesitate at all.

“Director Wu, we’ve always had pleasant collaborations. Are you saying such impertinent words just because we have differing opinions?” Lian Qingyin said loudly.

She spoke this loudly on purpose. She wanted to let Montrealle, who was on the other end of the call, hear her words clearly!

She wanted Montrealle to know that Wu Mosen was deliberately opposing her.

Wu Mosen’s expression suddenly darkened. How could he possibly not figure out Lian Qingyin’s intentions?

She actually interrupted him while he was in the middle of a call.

Wu Mosen was simply too polite. He had not said anything when Lian Qingyin and Montrealle were conversing earlier.

With a dark expression, Wu Mosen walked a distance away. Since Lian Qingyin was this shameless, he no longer needed to hold back out of consideration for her.

Wu Mosen said to Montrealle in a heavy tone, “Mr. Montrealle, I totally had no intentions of telling you about this as I didn’t want to seem petty. However, due to what Lian Qingyin yelled earlier, I feel I must clarify the matter.

“Lian Qingyi used her position for personal gain. Just because she wanted to target a makeup artist, she interfered with the scriptwriter’s and my decision,” Wu Mosen said coldly. “That makeup artist has amazing abilities, but because Lian Qingyin has a personal grudge against the makeup artist, she does not want to allow the makeup artist to join the team. This isn't actually a big issue, but she is interfering with my work. For now, she's just interfering with selecting the makeup artist. But what if she interferes with other matters in the future? If we start out like this, we won't be able to continue working well later.

"It's precisely because I've been thinking about all these that I am unwilling to agree to her request from the start. It's because I just can't let her start out with us like this. However, do you know what she said to me?" Wu Mosen sneered. "She actually said she's the person in charge over here, so whatever she says goes. Whatever she says will be whatever happens. Haha. Even I, the director, have to give in to her. In all my years of directing, I've never had anyone say such words to me directly.."

Chapter 2663: The Difference

"If she is so capable, then she can just be the director. Why am I even needed? She has the final say over everything." Wu Mosen was really angered.

He could still hold it in at first.

Yet after Lian Qingyin had shouted so much, Wu Mosen really did not want to put up with her anymore.

Montrealle knew Wu Mosen. Wu Mosen would not fly into a rage so easily.

That Wu Mosen had been angered to this state, it was clear that he was not simply wronging Lian Qingyin.

Montrealle then said, "Wu, I didn't expect Liliane to be so excessive. When she was at our headquarters, her performance had always been quite good. If not, I wouldn't have sent her to open up the market there. But now that I know of this issue, I naturally won't allow her to behave unscrupulously.

"Don't worry, from today onwards, Louis will take over her work. I believe you both will work very well together. Liliane won't interfere with your filming anymore," Montrealle said. "If you have any differing opinions with Louis that can't be resolved, just let me know."

Wu Mosen would definitely not do that.

And he felt that Lu Zeqing did not look as abnormal as Lian Qingyin.

At least for now, he did not have any personal grudges as Lian Qingyin did.

Wu Mosen ended the call and walked back. He smiled, extended his hand to Lu Zeqing, and said, "Welcome, welcome. Let's have a good partnership from now on."

"I will ask you, Director Wu, to please guide me along. If you have any requests, please let me know. As long as I can do it, I will definitely cooperate with you," Lu Zeqing said, smiling.

Lian Qingyin saw that the two of them seemed to be interacting quite well with each other and had clearly cast her aside.

This difference made Lian Qingyin unable to take it.

Clearly, a few minutes ago, she could still confront Wu Mosen and mess with Shi Xiaoya's future.

Yet now, she just got cast aside!

Wu Mosen and Lu Zeqing were done exchanging formalities. Although Wu Mosen had gone to the corner of the room to talk to Montrealle, the room was only so big, so he could not have gone too far no matter where he went.

When Wu Mosen mentioned Lian Qingyin, he could not contain his anger, so his voice subconsciously got a little loud.

Hence, everyone had actually heard very clearly what Wu Mosen had said just then.

Of course, that included Lian Qingyin and Lu Zeqing.

Lu Zeqing had heard all of that. He naturally also learned the reason why Lian Qingyin was confronting Wu Mosen when he first came in.

Lu Zeqing turned to look at Han Zhuoling.

It could be said that a large part of the reason he had been able to replace Lian Qingyin was Han Zhuoling's support.

When Han Zhuoling went to discuss with Montrealle, he had also looked for him.

He made it very clear that he would support him getting that position.

Now that he knew Lian Qingyin had been picking on Shi Xiaoya the entire time, Lu Zeqing realized why Han Zhuoling went to look for Montrealle to negotiate and why he wanted to support him and pull Lian Qingyin down.

Lu Zeqing secretly thought that since that was the case, he definitely had to help Shi Xiaoya.

It could be considered a tacit agreement between him and Han Zhuoling.

Han Zhuoling helped him get what he wanted, so he naturally had to return the favor to Han Zhuoling to some extent.

As he thought of that, Lu Zeqing then said to Wu Mosen, "Director Wu, has the interview just now ended?"

Wu Mosen smiled and said, "Actually, I think we can end it already. But Miss Lian was the judge previously, so she had seen the performance of various makeup artists already. You, however, haven't seen them or familiarized yourself with them before, so do you want to take a look?"

"Well, there's no need for that," Lu Zeqing said, smiling..

Chapter 2664: Isn't It Good That You Have Me to Help You?

“After all, who to pick, what kind of makeup style to use, and whose makeup style is more fitting for which role, these are things that you, Director Wu, and Writer Hu know best. I haven’t even seen the script before, so how can I be a judge? If I want to make orders and interfere in things before even looking at the script, then that’s not helping, that’s adding to the trouble.”

When Lian Qingyin heard that, she clearly felt that Lu Zeqing was scolding her indirectly.

And Lu Zeqing seemed to really throw a look in her direction.

Even Wu Mosen glanced at her.

Lian Qingyin could be very sure now that the two of them were really scolding her indirectly. They were actually just talking about her!

Lian Qingyin’s expression looked really ugly, but Wu Mosen was very happy that Lu Zeqing had said that.

Everyone should just stick to doing their own job and stop thinking about interfering in everything.

Lu Zeqing was someone who knew his place, so it would be good for both sides once they started working together.

Lu Zeqing then turned and said to Lian Qingyin, “CEO Lian, there’s nothing for you to do here now. As for the remaining matters, I can liaise with Director Wu directly.”

Lian Qingyin pursed her lips tightly in anger. But what else could she do?

Montrealle had made it very clear over the phone. There was no use even if she insisted on staying.

In the past, with Han Zhuoling around, Lian Qingyin would definitely not have left so easily.

But today, the men she had sent to attack Shi Xiaoya had failed, and those people even got arrested and taken back to the police station.

Black Market would not expose her, so she need not worry.

But how could Lian Qingyin really not worry?

She was worried whether or not she would be exposed, so her mind was not really here anymore.

There’s also the fact that Han Zhuoling had probably heard what she had said earlier, though she did not know how much of it he had managed to overhear.

Thus, at this moment, no matter how thick-skinned Lian Qingyin was, no matter how warped and bizarre her logic was, she could no longer stay there calmly.

She had even got stripped of her position right in front of Han Zhuoling. Hence, all the more Lian Qingyin could not take the blow.

She almost forgot that, actually, it was Han Zhuoling who had taken her position away.

Now that she suddenly remembered it, Lian Qingyin stared at Han Zhuoling with an even more heartbroken look. “Zhuoling, I tried so hard and finally managed to clinch the position I had today just so that I can help you. But why did you... why did you have to find such a person to replace me?”

“I wanted to help you. As long as I am around, would you lack any kind of partnerships? No matter what conditions you raise, I will definitely agree to them!” Lian Qingyin said.

She looked like the female lead of a heart-wrenching romance drama right now.

When Lu Zeqing heard Lian Qingyin’s words, he raised his eyebrow slightly.

Was there something wrong with Lian Qingyin’s mind? She really dared to say anything and everything right now.

Lu Zeqing suddenly felt a little useless. He actually lost to such a crackpot back then?

So, love makes a person become a fool?

Lu Zeqing was holding his phone in his hand at this moment, and he swiftly lowered his head to unlock his phone with the face recognition function.

All of Lian Qingyin’s attention was on Han Zhuoling right now, so she did not notice Lu Zeqing’s actions.

His actions were really not obvious to begin with, so they were not easy to notice.

Lu Zeqing quickly started a voice recording and put the phone in his pocket.

He heard Han Zhuoling say, “You think the Han Corporation will be short of partnerships without you?”

The Han Corporation had a monopoly status within the domestic market.

It had always been others who pleaded for a partnership with the Han Corporation. Why would they need any kind of “help” from Lian Qingyin?

“But this also shows my heartfelt sincerity! Isn’t it good that you have me to help you?”

Chapter 2665: Are You Protecting Me?

“Even if the Han Corporation isn’t short of partnerships, with me around, you can save a lot of trouble. And when it comes to our work partnerships, I can let you be in complete control and power. No matter what you say, I will do it. I will agree to all the requests that you make.

“Even if you asked me to transfer our interests to you, I could do that too. And Men Xue is also one of the top companies in Hollywood. With my help, the Han Corporation’s development in Hollywood would also be much smoother. With me helping you all, what’s not to love?

“Even if the Han Corporation doesn’t lack partnerships in the country, what about in Hollywood? You all still have very big room to develop and advance. I can totally help you with that. I can definitely make sure that the Han Corporation receives the topmost priority for investments in Hollywood. All these things, will any other company be able to do it?

“Even if those companies plead with you to work with them, can they be like me, letting you set all the terms and conditions and making sure that you will profit even if it’s at my company’s expense? When they plead to work with you, they would also have to consider their own interests. I am the only one who would not calculate the gains or losses and forever prioritize your needs. You can do whatever you like!”

In this whole room, Lu Zeqing was probably the happiest one out of all of them.

Oh my goodness.

Lian Qingyin, please, say more things. If you say even more, you don't even need to go back to the US anymore.

At first, when he heard the first two lines of what Lian Qingyin had said, he had already quickly started a voice recording on his phone.

He was thinking that he might be able to record something.

But at that time, Lu Zeqing did not have much hope. He just thought that Lian Qingyin probably would not be that stupid to keep saying things that people could use against her.

When she subconsciously said those two lines, it might have been a slip of her tongue.

She might have accidentally revealed her true thoughts, so Lu Zeqing really did not hope that Lian Qingyin would continue saying more like an idiot.

Who knew, Lian Qingyin was really such an idiot. She actually only cared about “confessing” her true feelings to Han Zhuoling and forgot that there were other people there.

To be able to record these words was really an unexpected surprise for Lu Zeqing.

With these words, Lian Qingyin could forget about staying on in Men Xue.

Han Zhuoling scoffed and stopped talking to Lian Qingyin.

What else was there to say to her?

Saying even one word more would be a waste of time.

Han Zhuoling just let Wu Mosen's assistant call the security officers.

Since Lian Qingyin refused to leave, let the security officers take her away.

“Talk to me!” Lian Qingyin actually got anxious when she did not get a reply from Han Zhuoling.

“Zhuoling, why won't you talk to me!”

Shi Xiaoya frowned. Lian Qingyin's condition was really alarming.

She stood in front of Han Zhuoling and shielded him behind her.

Alas, Han Zhuoling was too tall, so Shi Xiaoya could not cover him at all.

That good-looking face of his was still completely exposed.

Han Zhuoling reached out and placed a hand on Shi Xiaoya's shoulder, then pulled her into his embrace.

He treated Lian Qingyin as if she did not exist and lowered his head, leaning close to the side of Shi Xiaoya's face. He watched as Shi Xiaoya blushed when he leaned in closer and closer.

His breaths landed on her face softly. When he leaned in close, he could even see the fine hairs on her face.

"Are you protecting me?" Han Zhuoling asked with a hint of delight in his low voice.

His voice was way too soothing to the ears. His low voice was both moist and slightly hoarse.

His low, hushed voice could only be heard by the two of them.

When Han Zhuoling was speaking, his lips almost brushed against Shi Xiaoya's ear.

Shi Xiaoya's ears reddened, and she trembled a few times involuntarily..

Chapter 2666: I Won't Interfere

His voice felt as if it was vibrating against her ear.

When she heard that, Shi Xiaoya turned to look at him and replied honestly, "I don't like her seeing you. Who knows what she's imagining in her mind when she looks at you!"

Anyway, whatever Lian Qingyin imagined would definitely not be anything good.

Previously, at Lin Liye's place, Han Zhuoling only wanted to chase Lian Qingyin out when he held her elbow.

But that expression of hers looked so shy and elated, it was as if Han Zhuoling had done something intimate with her.

Shi Xiaoya really did not dare to underestimate Lian Qingyin's imagination, so she subconsciously wanted to shield Han Zhuoling.

Han Zhuoling also felt disgusted when he thought of Lian Qingyin.

He knew that Shi Xiaoya was right.

When Lian Qingyin stared at him, he even felt goosebumps all over his body.

But as long as he took a look at Shi Xiaoya, his mood would instantly get better.

He then heard Shi Xiaoya say, "But you're too tall, I can't cover your face."

"It's fine, I can lower my head," Han Zhuoling said.

But in front of so many people, he could not do something too intimate with Shi Xiaoya.

If he could, he would even bury his face directly in the crook of her neck.

"I already called the security officers. You bear with it for a while more," Han Zhuoling said.

Shi Xiaoya: "..."

What did she need to bear with?

Why did she sound like an overly jealous person when Han Zhuoling said that?

Was this because she was jealous?

Han Zhuoling loathed Lian Qingyin to begin with, so she did not need to worry that he would have any thoughts about Lian Qingyin.

No matter how many looks Lian Qingyin gave him, it was as if she was giving them to a blind man.

Han Zhuoling himself was the one who needed to bear with it.

Being stared at by Lian Qingyin like that, Han Zhuoling would be the one who felt disgusted.

The two of them just started chatting in hushed tones like that.

Shi Xiaoya completely did not know how intimate they looked to other people.

Lian Qingyin hated that she could not just go up and drag Shi Xiaoya away from Han Zhuoling's arms. Yet at this moment, the security officers rushed in.

They looked quite familiar. Six of them were the ones whom Lian Qingyin had called over to chase Shi Xiaoya away before.

Those six security officers did not chase Shi Xiaoya, but at this moment, they came to chase Lian Qingyin away.

As Wu Mosen's assistant was leading the security officers in, Wu Mosen said at the same time, "Please escort Miss Lian out. Don't let her come here anymore."

The security officers were stunned and still did not really understand what was going on.

Wu Mosen then said, "This Miss Lian will no longer represent Men Xue to be in charge of the affairs in the country, so she will have nothing to do with our firm anymore. Thus, you all can just escort her out. Take a good look at her now. Don't ever let her come in again after this."

The security officers nodded and understood. If the soft way did not work, they would have to drag Lian Qingyin out the hard way by force.

Lian Qingyin was livid.

These people!

When she called them over to chase Shi Xiaoya away before, they had hemmed and hawed.

Yet now that it was her turn to be chased away, these security officers' movements were swifter than any other.

Could it be that she could not even compare to Shi Xiaoya?!

In the end, she got half-dragged by the security officers, so Lian Qingyin could only leave.

Han Zhuoling then let go of Shi Xiaoya and returned to that formal and stern demeanor.

He said to Wu Mosen, "Director Wu, Xiaoya came for the interview. As for the results, I won't interfere with them.

"When Xiaoya decided to come and compete for the makeup artist role in the production crew, she already told me that she wanted to rely on her own capabilities. If she got selected, it was a confirmation of her abilities. If she did not get selected, then she definitely has room for improvement," Han Zhuoling said..

Chapter 2667: Radiating Positivity All Over

"She wanted to compete fairly. But though she went by the rules, she ended up meeting with unfairness, wherein other people used means outside the rules of fair competition to replace her," Han Zhuoling said with a laugh.

"My Xiaoya said before that this would still be because she was not capable enough, that her capability was not high enough for others to ignore those who had connections and insist on just choosing her," Han Zhuoling said.

Shi Xiaoya even said that her capability now was indeed not that good.

In the case of her teacher, Liu Jingping, it had always been other people looking for him and asking him to do makeup for them.

At Liu Jingping's standard, he never needed to go for interviews. Even when there were plenty of choices, it had always been others who knocked on his door to look for him.

But Shi Xiaoya still needed to compete against many other people, which showed the gap between them.

In front of real capability, everything else could be passed over.

Shi Xiaoya's mentality was very clear-cut.

When Wu Mosen and the others heard that, they thought to themselves that Shi Xiaoya's mentality was way too upright. She was just radiating positivity all over.

They just did not know whether it was true.

Perhaps it might just be Han Zhuoling making Shi Xiaoya sound good.

Han Zhuoling then said, "So, I won't interfere with the results of your selection. I know Director Wu prioritizes the quality of the production above all else. If not, you would not have quarreled with Lian Qingyin just now. It's precisely because of this that when I previously mentioned helping Xiaoya pull connections to let her enter the production crew, Xiaoya objected. She did not want to put anyone in a difficult position. If she was capable enough, she would not need all these connections."

Lu Zeqing thought to himself that Han Zhuoling was really very considerate of Shi Xiaoya.

He even said such words. Wasn't it just so that Wu Mosen could have a better impression of Shi Xiaoya?

Han Zhuoling gave a faint smile and said, "So, you don't need to worry about me. Only when Xiaoya is chosen because someone truly saw her capability and chose her for it would she be really happy. If she got chosen simply because of me, she would actually feel very disappointed."

Han Zhuoling glanced at them and then said to Shi Xiaoya, "I will go outside and wait for you."

Shi Xiaoya did not expect that Han Zhuoling would say those words.

She really deeply got to know that this man really was carefully considerate of her at all times.

Some things that she did not think of at first, he had already considered for her.

Shi Xiaoya's heart felt warm. Even if she appeared calm and composed during her interview just before, she had still been affected by the car accident earlier on.

She did not feel as magnanimous and calm as she appeared to be at all.

But after she saw Han Zhuoling, she completely felt assured.

Even if Han Zhuoling did not do anything and just stood in front of her, Shi Xiaoya would still feel assured and would not have anything to be scared of anymore.

At first, she had still felt a little worried, but now, she completely felt at ease.

Han Zhuoling came back, so her pillar of strength also came back.

As if he was a calming crystal that had settled into place in her heart.

Shi Xiaoya nodded obediently at Han Zhuoling and smiled at him.

Han Zhuoling looked deeply into her eyes. He thought of how she had met with danger when he was not around, which made his heart feel uneasy.

Even if he was sure that she was fine now, in one piece and not injured, he still could not help feeling fear in his heart.

At this moment, Shi Xiaoya's smile seemed to have hit him right in his heart, casting a warm, sunny glow on that lake of worries he still felt.

Han Zhuoling's heart also calmed down a little.

It was not just Han Zhuoling who could make Shi Xiaoya feel assured.

Shi Xiaoya could also make Han Zhuoling feel assured.

Han Zhuoling smiled at her and left the room to wait outside..

Chapter 2668: As If He Saw a Tail Lift Up Behind Han Zhuoling

In the room, Wu Mosen and Writer Hu discussed for a while and said, "To be honest, both of us are very satisfied with your designs."

Writer Hu smiled and said, "Even without Mr. Han, your capability is still enough for the two of us to recruit you."

"As for which characters' makeup you will be in charge of, we still need to go back and discuss further. We still need to choose the others and assign characters to them as well. After we are done with the assignments, Writer Hu will let you know of the initial character background. Of course, it will be slightly more detailed than the background given this time around."

"When the time comes, you will need to design a few more makeup styles based on the character's background, so we can select the makeup style that best fits the character," Writer Hu said. "As for exactly which characters you will get, I'll go back and discuss this properly with Director Wu."

"Sure." Shi Xiaoya nodded.

Actually, the reason why the two of them could agree so readily was more or less because of Han Zhuoling as well. She knew that.

But she could also be sure that her capability had indeed caught their eye.

When they were listening to her explain just before, the surprise and satisfaction on Wu Mosen and Writer Hu's faces could not be concealed.

The excitement in Writer Hu's eyes seemed as if she wanted to smack the table and recruit her on the spot.

Han Zhuoling's sudden appearance had just accelerated the speed at which they confirmed her and made the two of them more sure of their choice.

It was because of her capability, but also to give Han Zhuoling face.

But Shi Xiaoya did not think there was anything bad about this. Anyway, her capability had already received recognition.

When Han Zhuoling showed, he had said what had to be said and told Wu Mosen and Writer Hu that he definitely would not interfere.

Yet they still chose her, so Shi Xiaoya readily accepted it.

All the more she would not complain and scold Han Zhuoling for interfering without knowing better.

She was not so pretentious.

After confirming matters with Wu Mosen and Writer Hu, they came out of the room together.

Han Zhuoling was sitting outside, his eyes staring blankly at the door to the room. He just stared squarely at it, waiting for her to come out, and did not do anything else.

Shi Xiaoya was the first to come out, so the moment the door opened, she saw Han Zhuoling's blank stare.

He was clearly such a cold and sullen person, yet at this moment, that stare made him look a bit like a cute little puppy.

Shi Xiaoya blinked and even thought she was mistaken.

That pitiful look really made one's heart ache.

Shi Xiaoya's heart got heavily knocked by Han Zhuoling's stare.

It was not only Shi Xiaoya. Lu Zeqing, who was behind her, was taller than Shi Xiaoya by a head.

Even if Shi Xiaoya was walking in front, she would not be able to block Lu Zeqing's view.

So, Lu Zeqing also happened to see this look of Han Zhuoling's.

Lu Zeqing: "..."

He must have seen a fake Han Zhuoling.

Meanwhile, when Han Zhuoling saw the door open, his eyes lit up because Shi Xiaoya was the first to come out.

Han Zhuoling's initially expressionless face instantly broke into a grin.

Lu Zeqing felt as if he saw a tail lift up behind Han Zhuoling, swaying from side to side.

He quickly shut his eyes tight before opening them again after around two to three seconds.

Han Zhuoling had already stood up and walked towards Shi Xiaoya.

He had indeed seen wrongly. How could there be a tail behind Han Zhuoling!

But the way Han Zhuoling looked at Shi Xiaoya really made him seem like a giant-sized, loyal dog.

No wonder he saw wrongly just then.

Even though there was really no tail behind Han Zhuoling, as long as he was looking at Shi Xiaoya, he would look as if he had grown a tail behind him.

"It ended already?" Han Zhuoling asked as he walked over and held Shi Xiaoya's hand..

Chapter 2669: I Think You Have a Guilty Conscience

Shi Xiaoya nodded. "Mm, we ended already. Director Wu and Writer Hu decided to hire me, but they haven't confirmed which character I will be taking on. They still need to go back and discuss it further."

Han Zhuoling nodded and did not make any comments.

Lu Zeqing suggested at this moment, "Director Wu, the sky has already turned dark now. It's almost time for dinner too. Do the two of you have any plans after this? If you have no plans later, shall we have dinner together? It'll be my treat."

“It’s rare that Young Master Ling is here too, along with Miss Shi. This is my first day at work, so why don’t we have a meal together?” Lu Zeqing said.

Writer Hu did not mind. He was going off together with Wu Mosen.

Wu Mosen thought about it and said, “Sure. What about Young Master Ling and Xiaoya?”

Usually, Han Zhuoling would not participate in this type of lively occasion.

But he thought of how Shi Xiaoya would be entering the production crew to work soon.

She would surely be taken care of by Wu Mosen.

So Han Zhuoling asked Shi Xiaoya, “What do you think?”

“I’ll listen to you.” Shi Xiaoya did not have any opinions. For such matters, she naturally prioritized Han Zhuoling’s opinion.

Han Zhuoling nodded and gave a small smile before saying, “Then let’s go together.”

The group went downstairs together. It was also a coincidence that all their cars were parked nearby.

With Han Zhuoling around, Shi Xiaoya naturally did not need to sit in that badly damaged car of hers anymore.

But Han Zhuoling still insisted on going there to take a look, wanting to see how badly her car had been damaged.

Shi Xiaoya was very scared that Han Zhuoling would be angry after he saw it. She could already imagine Han Zhuoling’s reaction after he had seen it.

Anyway, she was fine now, so she did not want Han Zhuoling to worry and said, “There’s no need to look at it. I can just tell Xiao Yu to drive it away. It’s nothing much.”

If other people heard it, perhaps they would think that Shi Xiaoya had a guilty conscience.

That it was actually not a big issue, but she had exaggerated things. Now that Han Zhuoling wanted to go and take a look, Shi Xiaoya had started to panic.

But Han Zhuoling knew Shi Xiaoya way too well.

She definitely would not lie to others. Since she was trying to stop him from going to take a look, he thought it might have been very severely damaged.

Since that was the case, all the more Han Zhuoling had to go and take a look.

He wanted to see how severe the damage was that she did not even dare to let him take a look.

“I think you have a guilty conscience, and that’s why you don’t dare to let others look!” a sinister female voice interjected.

Everyone turned to look in shock. Lian Qingyin actually had not left!

She had left earlier but had been waiting here all along.

This woman must be crazy!

Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling were talking, but she suddenly jumped in out of nowhere, which really gave people quite a scare.

Han Zhuoling's face fell. He quickly pulled Shi Xiaoya and shielded her behind him.

Seeing this subconscious reaction from him, Lian Qingyin just felt that her heart broke into pieces.

"Why are you still here!" Guo Yujie said unhappily.

They told her to leave long ago, yet she still stayed here.

This scene looked like a reverse of the situation earlier on.

Previously, because Shi Xiaoya came late, Lian Qingyin had told her to leave.

Yet Shi Xiaoya did not leave and was determined to stay behind.

Didn't Lian Qingyin's assistant say the same thing?

Yet now, it became Lian Qingyin who was told to leave but refused to do so.

Guo Yujie then asked her the same thing.

When Guo Yujie thought of this, she almost wanted to laugh, but the timing was not appropriate for her to do so.

"I came over to drive my car and leave and just happened to bump into you guys," Lian Qingyin said coldly.

"Miss Shi keeps stopping you all from going to take a look. Could it be that her car had not been damaged at all?" Lian Qingyin scoffed lightly. "You made yourself sound so pitiful in front of us earlier, and you even said that Director Wu can go and take a look himself if he did not believe it. Wasn't that just because you thought that Director Wu wouldn't have the time to go and take a look? You are quite bold, actually, daring to lie about anything and everything.."

Chapter 2670: Han Zhuoling Is Also Very Angry

"I think you are the bold one, slandering someone the moment you open your mouth to talk!" Guo Yujie said angrily.

"I know you are afraid that I will worry," Han Zhuoling said to Shi Xiaoya, ignoring Lian Qingyin. "But I have to take a look and know. Even if you don't let me look now, I will still be able to see it later on."

Guo Yujie said mockingly, "Xiaoya, let's put aside not letting Young Master Ling see. Since Miss Lian put it this way, let her have a good and clear look at it."

"Okay." Shi Xiaoya did not care about what Lian Qingyin said, but since Han Zhuoling insisted on seeing it, Shi Xiaoya could only agree.

Previously, when Wu Mosen and Writer Hu heard from Shi Xiaoya that her car got very badly damaged, to be honest, they were a little curious whether or not it was as serious as Shi Xiaoya had made it sound.

Wu Mosen naturally would not say that it was out of curiosity. He would just say that he heard Shi Xiaoya mention it previously, so he was very worried and that was why he suggested going to take a look.

Lian Qingyin did not expect that Shi Xiaoya would really dare to agree.

So she felt a little guilty now.

She wanted to leave secretly, but Han Zhuoling saw her from his peripheral vision and said coldly, "Miss Lian."

It was rare for Han Zhuoling to take the initiative to talk to her, but this kind of attention was something that Lian Qingyin did not want at all at this moment.

She stood stiffly, and Han Zhuoling said sarcastically, "Since Miss Lian suspects my fiancée so much, why don't you come and take a look at exactly how badly her car had been damaged?"

Guo Yujie reacted quickly and immediately dragged Xiao Yu to go over to Lian Qingyin's side.

The two of them flanked Lian Qingyin on both sides, making her unable to run away secretly.

Everyone had not walked for long before they saw the spot where Shi Xiaoya's car was parked.

When Wu Mosen and Writer Hu saw it, they both gasped.

"Xiaoya, you came all the way here in this car?" Wu Mosen was dumbstruck just from looking at it.

There was no spot on the car in front of them that was still in a good condition.

There were dents on all sides of the car.

Shi Xiaoya saw that Han Zhuoling's expression looked really ghastly. She quickly hugged his elbow and explained, "Although the car looks so severely damaged that it's scary, actually, the interior isn't damaged at all. It didn't affect the driving function at all."

"No..." Writer Hu had also been stunned that he did not speak for quite a long while. "Although you can still drive it, coming all the way here in this would have still..."

Earned you quite a few stares, right?

"Because the car is fine, we just drove straight here. I didn't want to waste time waiting for another car and switching to it," Shi Xiaoya said.

Guo Yujie said coldly, "This is what Miss Lian talked about when she said that our Xiaoya lied. Didn't Miss Lian say previously that it was just a minor accident, a minor scratch? Could your minor scratch damage a car to this extent?! You even said just now that it's because Xiaoya is guilty that she doesn't dare to let other people take a look. Xiaoya indeed doesn't dare to let other people take a look. Because this car had been damaged way too severely, she did not dare to let other people take a look! It's not because of the so-called guilty conscience that you talked about!"

Shi Xiaoya saw Han Zhuoling's expression turning increasingly awful and quietly prayed in her heart for Guo Yujie to stop talking.

She was talking about Lian Qingyin right now.

But Han Zhuoling was also angry. She would be the one getting scolded after that.

Han Zhuoling took in a deep breath, his body stiffening all over. He turned and said to Wu Mosen and the others, "My apologies, we agreed to have dinner with everyone just now. But I didn't know earlier that this car accident was actually so severe. I am really worried, so I'll have to take Xiaoya to the hospital for a checkup first."

Seeing that the car had been damaged to this extent, Wu Mosen and the others felt chills down their spine just from looking at it.

They did not expect before that it was so serious either.
