

Mr Han 2671

Chapter 2671: The Pressure Coming from the Man Beside Her Had Already Dropped to a Dangerously Low Level

So when they heard Han Zhuoling say that, the three of them instantly felt that this had to be done. How could they still ask them to go and have dinner with them?

Lu Zeqing said, "Definitely. It's actually such a serious car accident. Why did Miss Shi still think of coming for the interview immediately? Situations like these are excusable. We would have been able to switch to another day to hold the interview."

"Yes, it's better to go and have a checkup so that we can be assured. We can have dinner anytime. Anyway, we are all in the country now. There will be many chances ahead of us," Wu Mosen said.

"Xiaoya, you are really... a little too serious! Quick, go to the hospital for a checkup so that we can be assured as well. You met with such an accident just so that you can come for the interview. If something really happened to you, we would also..." Writer Hu said.

"I'm really fine..." Shi Xiaoya said, quickly waving her hands.

She felt her scalp turning numb.

The more they spoke, the more horrible Shi Xiaoya felt her "death" would be later on.

The pressure coming from the man beside her had already dropped to a dangerously low level. She was trembling from head to toe beside him.

Did the people opposite them not feel it at all?

Han Zhuoling turned and glared harshly at Lian Qingyin, then said, "I will definitely get to the bottom of Xiaoya's car accident. Whoever did it, none of them will be able to get away scot-free."

Lian Qingyin could not help but shudder.

If it was under normal circumstances, as long as Han Zhuoling took the initiative to talk to her, no matter what he said, Lian Qingyin would be able to imagine a full page of sweet-nothings on her own.

But this time, when faced with Han Zhuoling's fierce and vicious stare, although the words he said clearly did not have any serious threats in it and he was just stating a fact...

Lian Qingyin still felt as if every word in his sentence were like razor-sharp ice daggers, piercing right into her heart and seeping right into her blood and bones, with the dagger handles dissolving along with them.

It was painful and cold, making her shudder all over.

Ever since she came back and faced Han Zhuoling, Lian Qingyin had never been scared.

But now, she was really scared and subconsciously started trembling.

Perhaps it was because she had a guilty conscience to begin with, but she was really very scared that Han Zhuoling would go and investigate.

What if... what if he could really find out that she was the mastermind?

She really did not have much confidence in Black Market.

And when she saw how Han Zhuoling looked like now... he seemed really bent on getting to the bottom of the matter.

Lian Qingyin put on a strong front and scoffed coldly, thinking to herself, Why was Shi Xiaoya not dead yet!

How good it would be if she got rammed to death!

She lowered her eyes, her expressions changing rapidly.

She then seemed to grumble in a small voice, "Who knows if this was really the car that got crashed into? It might even be possible that she told the driver to purposely crash the car to this extent while driving it by himself."

Wu Mosen and the others were dumbfounded. They all turned and looked at Lian Qingyin like she was a madwoman.

Was this person really normal?

The cold air pressure around Han Zhuoling suddenly plunged, as if it turned him into an ice shard.

Lian Qingyin shuddered and braced herself to say, "Since I have already seen it, then I will get going first."

This time, no one stopped her.

But Lian Qingyin was really not walking steadily. Only she knew that when she was talking, her legs and tummy both felt wobbly and jelly-like.

In Wu Mosen and the other's eyes, they could also tell that her steps were a little flurried.

What could scare her to this extent?

They could not help but link Shi Xiaoya's car accident to her.

Lu Zeqing and the others did not dare to let Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya stay on any longer.

After all, the car had been damaged too severely, so they still had to let Shi Xiaoya go to the hospital for a checkup quickly.

Han Zhuoling did not stand on formalities with them.. He suggested having dinner another day and brought Shi Xiaoya to leave with him.

Chapter 2672: Don't Talk to Me Right Now, I Am Very Angry

Shi Xiaoya's car that had been damaged to tatters was driven to the automobile sales service shop for repair by Xiao Yu.

Aside from looking horribly damaged, actually, the driving functions were not affected.

So Xiao Yu first drove this badly damaged car to send Guo Yujie home before driving to the automobile sales service shop.

Han Zhuoling escorted Shi Xiaoya into his own car before going around to sit in the driver's seat. He drove off and headed to the hospital.

Han Zhuoling's face was cold and stern. He did not speak a word at all throughout.

The pressure level in the car felt dangerously low and made one feel really suppressed.

Shi Xiaoya was scared when Han Zhuoling did not speak.

In the past, when she had just gotten to know him and was not very familiar with him, she had already felt that he gave people a lot of pressure when he did not speak.

Just one glance from his expressionless face would be enough to scare people to death.

Afterward, once both of them slowly got closer, Shi Xiaoya still could not completely relax in front of him at first.

But as she interacted with him more and more, she slowly got less scared of him.

And in front of her, Han Zhuoling would not create an uncomfortable silence even when he did not talk a lot.

After the two of them officially got together, all the more Han Zhuoling did not behave so coldly.

Every time he saw her, his face would always have a warm smile on it.

That smile extended from the corners of his lips all the way up to his eyes. Although his smile was faint, the happiness in his expression ran deep.

And thus, Han Zhuoling's image seemed to have been completely shattered.

He became warmer and warmer around her.

Shi Xiaoya liked to act cute in his embrace. She clearly was not the kind to act cute, but around Han Zhuoling, she just could not help it.

Han Zhuoling also never got tired of it and liked it a lot.

Every time he saw her, there would always be a warm look in his eyes.

Since the time the two of them got together, there was never a moment of uncomfortable silence between them.

True, the two of them could not possibly have endless things to say every time and would have moments where both of them were quiet.

That kind of silence, however, did not make one feel uncomfortable or awkward. It was actually quite heartwarming.

Even if they stayed by each other's side quietly without a word, they would still feel comforted.

It was different now.

Shi Xiaoya stole a glance at Han Zhuoling's side profile.

His face was sullen, and he was emanating cold air all over.

Shi Xiaoya's heart trembled fearfully; she felt both guilty and scared.

She tried quite a few times to open her mouth but did not manage to make a sound at all.

They were halfway into their journey when Shi Xiaoya finally mustered enough courage and braced herself to say, "Zhuoling, I am really fine. I don't need to go to the hospital for a checkup. I am really not hurt at all. Didn't you confirm it just now?"

Han Zhuoling's thin lips were tightly pursed. The thin lip line that already appeared extremely strict at first when he was not laughing looked even more frightening now that it was tightly pursed.

After Shi Xiaoya spoke, silence was what greeted her.

Shi Xiaoya had thought that Han Zhuoling did not plan on replying to her when she heard Han Zhuoling say, "Don't talk to me right now. I am very angry."

Shi Xiaoya roughly knew what he was angry about, so she felt so guilty that she did not even dare to act cute and plead with him.

When they reached the hospital, Han Zhuoling brought Shi Xiaoya in to get a checkup.

He still did not talk to Shi Xiaoya the whole time they were there and just listened to Shi Xiaoya answer the doctor's questions at the side.

When the examination results were out, Shi Xiaoya was confirmed to be fine, just that she had a bit of a bruise on her knee.

It was because when the car was being rammed into, the impact of the crashes caused her knee to knock against the car door, leaving a bit of a bruise behind, but it was not a big issue.

After repeatedly confirming that there were no other issues with Shi Xiaoya, the two of them then left the hospital.

They got into the car.

Shi Xiaoya lowered her head obediently and was about to fasten her seatbelt...

When she realized that Han Zhuoling did not move at all.

He did not fasten his seatbelt or start the car.

Shi Xiaoya paused for a moment and stopped trying to fasten her seatbelt buckle.

Her hand loosened, and the seatbelt slipped back into place.

Han Zhuoling turned to face her and said, "Now that I am sure you are fine, I have to have a good talk with you about this."

Shi Xiaoya looked like a child that was getting scolded by the teacher for doing something wrong, and she sat still obediently.

Her legs were closed and her hands were also placed on her knees properly.

She looked so honest and obedient.

If it was a different situation, Han Zhuoling would have laughed long ago.

But now, he really was not in the mood to laugh.

"Do you know why I'm angry?" Han Zhuoling asked in a low voice.

Shi Xiaoya moved her lips and said, "You're angry that I met with an accident, yet the first thing I did was to go to the interview?"

He did not expect that she really knew the answer.

Han Zhuoling did not know whether to be angry or laugh.

He was angry that she clearly knew he would be angry about this, yet she insisted on doing it, not knowing how to cherish herself at all.

And yet he wanted to laugh because she had telepathy with him and could instantly think of this point and understand his thoughts.

This kind of chemistry was something that the average person did not have.

With that, Han Zhuoling could no longer bring his anger up anymore.

He sighed and said, "In my eyes, nothing is more important than you. After you met with such a dangerous situation, had I been around, the first thing I would have done is to drag you to the hospital. Is that nuisance of an interview more important than your safety? No matter how important your work is, it won't be as important as you.

"When I think of how you sat in that torn and tattered car and even drove in it for a while, I feel extremely unnerved and scared." The car was very quiet. Only Han Zhuoling's low voice and Shi Xiaoya's breathing were audible.

His voice was tinged with restraint, but his voice still trembled despite that restraint.

The accident this time had really scared him.

Shi Xiaoya hung her head in guilt.

She understood what Han Zhuoling meant.

She wanted to apologize, but she knew that it was not appropriate for this matter.

She then heard Han Zhuoling say, "I carefully protected you, unable to let you get hurt even slightly or suffer even a small bit of grievance. Yet you, whom I cherished and protected so much, did not care about your own safety at all and felt that your work was more important than you yourself? How can I not be angry?"

He felt a sense of helplessness, the kind where his efforts had all gone to waste.

Shi Xiaoya could understand how he felt.

It was like when a daughter had been pampered lovingly until she was grown up.

They could not bear to let her do even a bit of chores at all or let her suffer, just so that she could grow up happily.

Yet after she grew up and got married, she ended up suffering at her husband's place.

Besides having to work every day, she still had to busy herself with doing the household chores, washing the clothes, and cooking. In the future, she would even have to bear children and take care of them.

If their financial situation did not allow for it, all the more she could not behave like a daughter at home as she did in the past, getting pampered lovingly by her parents and leading a luxurious lifestyle.

Be it materially or emotionally, there would be a drastic slip in the quality of her life.

When the parents see that their daughter had lost her past elegance and beauty, with her figure going away day by day, her hands getting rougher and rougher, and her fingertips getting coarser and coarser from doing chores...

The daughter whom they had pampered so lovingly at first started slogging her guts out for her family and even had to take care of her in-laws, so she would certainly have some conflict and disagreements with them. All the more she would not be able to be as carefree as she had been at home.

Although it was not very appropriate to use parental love for their daughter as a metaphor for the relationship between Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya...

Chapter 2674: Stopped Feeling Angry Long Ago

Han Zhuoling really pretty much felt this way right now.

"I was wrong," Shi Xiaoya said obediently as she hung her head low.

“What did you do wrong? I protected you, afraid that you will get hurt, but that’s just me being overly concerned. In your eyes, your work is more important. Making some sacrifices for work, there’s definitely nothing wrong with that,” Han Zhuoling said in a sullen voice.

He still felt angry.

So his tone sounded angry as well.

The mastermind this time was Lian Qingyin, but he was angry that Shi Xiaoya did not treat herself with care.

When he first saw Shi Xiaoya, he did not know that the car had been so severely damaged.

When he saw that Shi Xiaoya was indeed fine, he felt assured.

But after he saw how badly the car had been damaged, he could imagine how dangerous it had been at that time.

Yet Shi Xiaoya did not take it seriously and her first reaction was to go to work.

This was what he was angry about.

He would deal with Lian Qingyin, but these were two separate things. Shi Xiaoya’s issue had to be addressed as well.

“Don’t be angry anymore,” Shi Xiaoya said softly as she plucked up her courage to hold his hand.

Seeing how soft and cute she looked, Han Zhuoling did not know what to do with her anymore.

But he still felt really suffocated in his heart.

Shi Xiaoya just felt that she knew her own condition, that she was really not injured.

But she also knew that she had indeed put her work before her own wellbeing.

“I won’t do this next time.” Shi Xiaoya wrapped both of her hands around his hands.

The soft tip of her thumb caressed the back of his hand, making Han Zhuoling’s heart itch with her touch.

He lowered his eyelids, but he still tried his best to maintain a sullen expression.

Seeing his expression, Shi Xiaoya could only try her best and say, “This kind of thing won’t happen again. I will definitely put my own wellbeing ahead of my work and prioritize my own safety. I won’t risk my life like this anymore, much less make you worry.

“I know I was wrong. I know you’re worried for me and cherish me, but I became the one who didn’t cherish myself, and that’s why you’re angry.” Shi Xiaoya’s voice was soft and weak. “Before this, I really didn’t notice that I had this problem. It’s probably because no one told me that, so I just got used to it.

“You are right, so I won’t behave like this anymore.” Shi Xiaoya shook his hands a few times and said, “Don’t be angry anymore, alright?”

Han Zhuoling secretly sighed. She was being so soft like this. How could he still be angry?

He stopped feeling angry long ago.

But he was just worried that she would not remember the lesson this time and still do the same thing again next time, so he pretended that he was still angry.

But this little girl did not know how difficult it was to put on a cold and hard look in front of her.

Just as Han Zhuoling was about to say that he was not angry, he suddenly saw Shi Xiaoya move.

Han Zhuoling stared at her, his expression not changing, wondering what Shi Xiaoya wanted to do.

He felt a little curious, so he decided to maintain his current expression no matter what she did.

He then saw Shi Xiaoya move a little in the passenger's seat, trying to move closer and closer to him.

Then her knees got obstructed by the gear and storage compartment between the driver's seat and the front passenger's seat. Shi Xiaoya thought about it and lowered her head and bent her back while also bending her knees and struggling to stand up in the car.

The space in the car was limited, so no matter how high the roof of the car was, it would not be able to let a person straighten his or her back while standing up.

Even if Shi Xiaoya bent her legs, her head was still crouched down, the back of her neck and shoulders sticking against the roof of the car.

Just looking at her standing like this made Han Zhuoling empathize with how uncomfortable that felt.

How uncomfortable that was.

He frowned and wanted to make her quickly sit down properly and ask why she was standing so uncomfortably.

But before he could say that, his frowning action made Shi Xiaoya misunderstand..

Chapter 2675: I Panic When You Get Angry

But before he could say that, his frowning action made Shi Xiaoya misunderstand.

She thought that Han Zhuoling was still angry.

At first, she felt a bit like giving up already.

The moment she stood up, she realized that she must have been crazy to be bold enough to seduce Han Zhuoling.

Furthermore, it was cramped inside the car and it was not easy to move around it, so she wanted to give up.

Just as she was about to give up, she saw Han Zhuoling frown.

He frowned!

Shi Xiaoya was shocked and immediately changed her idea of giving up.

She gritted her teeth and cheered for herself, thinking that she must make this man happy.

This man had never been angry at her before.

But now that he was angry, he was like a child; it was extremely difficult to make him happy.

Shi Xiaoya made up her mind, and with one leg kneeling on her own seat, her other leg crossed over the obstacle between the two seats. She sat on Han Zhuoling's lap, facing him.

Fortunately, Shi Xiaoya was very skinny, so she could be that agile, being able to extend her legs from the front passenger's seat to the driver's seat in a cramped space.

Han Zhuoling did not think that Shi Xiaoya was capable of doing that. It was like a stroke of genius.

She stood up with such great difficulty just to sit on his lap?

It was a rare sight to see Han Zhuoling stunned. He looked at Shi Xiaoya blankly as his jaw dropped.

Before his mind came back, his hands already had an idea of their own as they held Shi Xiaoya's waist.

Shi Xiaoya saw his reaction and knew that he was not angry anymore.

She immediately showed him a sweet smile.

She smiled until her eyes curved into crescents.

Without waiting for Han Zhuoling to say anything, Shi Xiaoya leaned in and planted a kiss on his lips, saying, "Don't be angry anymore, alright?"

After saying that, she buried herself in his arms, saying, "I panic when you get angry."

Han Zhuoling swallowed.

This girl was squeezing herself into his embrace.

But she was doing it on his lap.

His hands went from the sides of her waist to the back of her waist.

The summer clothes were already very thin, and his palm was extremely hot.

It was like a searing heat burning through her thin shirt and onto her skin.

Shi Xiaoya fidgeted subconsciously.

She was too sensitive towards his touch. She felt it the moment he touched her.

Furthermore, the two already had such a good chemistry.

Their chemistry was so good that she had developed an instinct. As long as he touched her, she would know exactly what he meant.

Whenever he casually touched.

Whenever he gently touched.

Whenever he touched her unconsciously during intimate times.

Whenever he touched her with a burning passion.

She could clearly differentiate whether his feeling was of burning rage when he touched her.

Like now, the burn was too much.

Shi Xiaoya's face started burning. She felt even more uneasy as she sat on his lap.

Both her hands were still placed on his shoulders. At this moment, she felt that she could not put her hands anywhere on his body. It felt way too hot.

The little girl that had been quite brave just before suddenly wanted to retreat right now.

She got timid all of a sudden.

Seeing her like this, Han Zhuoling felt that she just wanted to be like a hedgehog and curl herself up into a ball.

Han Zhuoling secretly laughed when he saw her timid behavior.

Chapter 2676: So... Insensitive

As long as it was his body, it was no good to touch anywhere.

She thought about how to successfully return to the front passenger's seat without angering him.

But who would have thought that before she even moved, Han Zhuoling would already see through her intentions.

His palms pressed against her lower back. Not only did he not let her go, but he even pressed her towards himself. "Don't move."

His voice was very hoarse.

When Shi Xiaoya was pressed by him, she fell towards him.

His lips were right on her forehead.

She had already done countless intimate things with him.

But this was different.

Because of the cramped space, they were stuck together like glue.

It was her first time being like this with Han Zhuoling in the car.

And the moment she looked up, there was Han Zhuoling's face, which could not be any nearer.

He looked so handsome; even at such a close distance, nothing ugly could be found on his face.

She had no idea how he was able to look like that. No matter how closely she looked at him, she could not find anything bad about his facial features.

Looking at this face, which looked good even when magnified, Shi Xiaoya could not help but blush as her heart skipped a beat.

No matter how close she was with him, she could not help but dream whenever she looked at him.

She was the only person who would dream about her own man.

Shi Xiaoya was whispering to herself in her heart while her forehead was pressed against his lips.

“The moment you move, I will have a reaction.” Han Zhuoling’s lips were still pressed against her forehead.

Shi Xiaoya looked down and could see his chin and the moving Adam’s apple as he talked.

Shi Xiaoya’s forehead and lower back were being burned by him.

Who would have thought that right after Han Zhuoling finished saying that, he would hold her waist and press her towards himself?

Shi Xiaoya took a deep breath. There was no need for Han Zhuoling to say anything. He had already explained using his actions.

Shi Xiaoya did not dare to move. Her lips had been shaking the whole time.

Han Zhuoling thought that she wanted to say something important, but in the end, she said, “So you’re not angry now?”

Han Zhuoling was shocked and broke out into a laugh.

This little girl was still thinking about him being angry.

She even said it at such a time.

Han Zhuoling held her waist and let her feel it. “Do I look like I am in the mood to get angry?”

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. “...”

Her face was flushed.

She thought that with his condition now, he really would not have time to get angry.

So she asked him whether he was angry.

Shi Xiaoya felt uneasy and wanted to move, but she did not dare.

His dick was very fierce and was pressing hard against her.

“Then... then what do we do now?” asked Shi Xiaoya.

They could not do it in the car.

They were still in the parking lot outside of the hospital.

There were a lot of people!

Han Zhuoling lowered his head and buried it into her shoulder. "Let me rest for a while."

Shi Xiaoya did not move and was unsure of whether he would be able to rest.

Because his head was on her shoulder, and he was facing towards her neck...

Every time he breathed, the burning breath was blown to her neck, tickling Shi Xiaoya.

The skin that was blown on by his breath became red, as if it was burned.

Han Zhuoling was slightly drunk. He clearly did not drink, but he was made drunk by her charm.

This little girl was so soft. How could he be angry at her?

Chapter 2677: Smells So Good

He leaned over her neck and sniffed. "Smells so good."

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. "..."

It sounded so rude.

This man was clearly angry previously, but now, he was already acting like a gangster. He changed so fast.

Shi Xiaoya did not dare to move. She was unsure of how long she had to wait for Han Zhuoling to return to normal.

She was burning and did not even dare to take a deep breath.

Then she remembered how long Han Zhuoling always lasted. It had always taken a long time for him to finish.

It was always her who could not take it anymore. Even when she did not have any strength left and was begging continuously, it was pointless.

Han Zhuoling even said unhappily that she was always lying down and he was always the one moving, so how could she be so tired?

To that, Shi Xiaoya was at a loss of words.

So now, she did not know how long she had to wait.

Just when she was wondering in her head, Shi Xiaoya's phone rang.

It was an unknown number, so Shi Xiaoya picked up.

Unexpectedly, it was from the police.

After talking for a while, Shi Xiaoya hung up and said to Han Zhuoling, "It was the police. The two people who crashed into me have been caught. Because there were security cameras, the two were not able to escape. Afterward, a lawyer who claimed to represent them came to talk to them for a while.

"Even though the two confessed, when asked why they crashed into me, they said that they collaborated with my workshop, but they were unhappy about the partnership so there was some form of conflict. Because of that, they hated me and looked for a chance to crash into me.

"The police probably didn't believe their explanation, so they called me and asked if I know them," said Shi Xiaoya.

She frowned. "I am just a makeup artist; since when did I have any collaborations? I have always only brought Yujie along with me to work. In terms of collaboration, at most, I would do makeup for celebrities who were attending events, or do makeup for a production crew.

"In these two situations, there were many employees, but I did not really interact with them. I was only in charge of the celebrities' makeup and couldn't interact with anybody else, let alone have any conflicts," said Shi Xiaoya, frowning. "When I go to work, I only interact with the celebrities and their assistants. Occasionally, I would talk to their managers. As for others, there were no interactions."

The two people might have been sent by those people.

"Those who are unhappy with me are probably Yuan Yina, Liu Enxiao, and Jiang Yuhan," said Shi Xiaoya. "Yuan Yina and Liu Enxiao are both makeup artists. They had some conflicts with me due to work matters, but I saw Yuan Yina when I attended the interview today and she didn't know about the car accident. As for Liu Enxiao, she doesn't have any position in the world of makeup artists; she is even far behind Yuan Yina."

She was the makeup artist in Lu Dongliu's production team who became Survivor's permanent makeup artist out of luck.

But just when she was given a chance, she dug her own grave.

So Liu Enxiao did not have the capability to find someone to ambush her.

That was because Liu Enxiao was already struggling for an opportunity, so she would not have time to sabotage Shi Xiaoya.

Shi Xiaoya expressed her opinion. "As for Jiang Yuhan, ever since she knocked on your door during the shooting of Survivor, I haven't heard about her.. It was as if she disappeared from the entertainment industry."

Chapter 2678: Don't Dare to Look

As Shi Xiaoya spoke, she looked towards Han Zhuoling.

This was too obvious. This man must have done something.

“Yes, I banned her,” Han Zhuoling admitted. “No one dares to support her or to invest in her. She can only find work in some small places now.”

After considering all the suspects, it was concluded that Yuan Yina and Liu Enxiao could not be the culprit. It could only be Jiang Yuhan. Although she had received an industry ban, she was previously famous and had gained a lot of money from it. This meant that she had the financial capability and the people to do this thing for her.

However, Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya did not suspect her.

“The police thought that those two were dishonest. They had lawyers helping them, so there’s not much they could do,” Shi Xiaoya said. “And so, they wanted me to take a look at it.”

Han Zhuoling nodded and said, “We can go there now and see what’s up with those two.”

Because of this change of topic, Shi Xiaoya felt that her face was not as burning hot as it had been earlier.

While Han Zhuoling wasn’t paying attention, she hurriedly crawled back to the passenger seat.

“Click.” She had already buckled up her seatbelt. It was one smooth move to the passenger seat.

Han Zhuoling laughed internally as he watched her actions. He knew that she was trying to escape as quickly as possible.

Such a coward.

Shi Xiaoya let out a sigh of relief.

She was really worried that someone might have seen through the window.

When she saw that Han Zhuoling had started the car, she asked before giving it any thought, “Are you feeling better now?”

Han Zhuoling froze as he saw that Shi Xiaoya had glanced at his crotch when she was asking that.

Han Zhuoling was speechless. “...”

The corner of his mouth curved up. “If you look at it a couple more times, it might start rising again.”

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. “...”

She was not going to look anymore.

She did not dare to look anymore.

Seeing her behaving in a cowardly manner, Han Zhuoling thought to himself, “She might be able to escape now, but can she escape when the night comes?”

She could tempt him all she wanted now, but she would suffer the consequences when they get home tonight.

And so, he started the car and drove to the police station.

After they explained the reason for their visitation, the police officer who was responsible for Shi Xiaoya's case came over.

"I am sorry for asking you to come over. I just wanted to see if you would be able to recognize those people. They claimed that they had conflicts with you," the police officer said.

Shi Xiaoya nodded and said, "Did they say that they had direct conflicts with me? They did not say that the person who planned this had conflicts with me?"

The police officer nodded and said, "They adamantly said that no one had sent them here. They were the ones who had conflicts with you and they wanted to teach you a lesson."

Shi Xiaoya glanced over at Han Zhuoling and then said to the officer, "That would be impossible. It is true that I work in a competitive field and there is a possibility that I might have offended some celebrities. While I was on the way here, I thought about the coworkers and celebrities who had conflicts with me and all of them are girls. Maybe those girls had hired these two people to attack me. The ones who directly had conflicts with me were not men."

The police officer nodded and said, "The statement they gave to us did not sound wrong, but I did not believe them. Why don't you take a look at their pictures and think about it more? Maybe you missed something."

"Okay," Shi Xiaoya said as she took the pictures.

She frowned and shook her head as she said, "I don't know them."

"Are they still in the interrogation room?" Han Zhuoling asked.

"Yes," the police officer answered.

"Can you take us there and let us have a look?" Han Zhuoling asked.

"Yes.. Come with me," the police officer said as he led them inside.

Chapter 2679: They Are Just Small Fries

They followed the police officer to the interrogation room and saw a person sitting in an empty and small room.

"This is one of them. The second one is in another room. We can't put them in the same room," the officer explained.

"Think about it. Do you really not recognize this person?" the police officer asked Shi Xiaoya.

The interrogation room had unidirectional perspective glass, allowing Shi Xiaoya to see inside without going in.

The person in the interrogation room would not be able to see them.

Shi Xiaoya observed carefully and shook her head again as she answered, "I really don't know him."

And then, Shi Xiaoya went to the other interrogation room. She could see the other person through the one-way mirror.

“I don’t know both of them,” Shi Xiaoya said as she shook her head.

“I still think that these two were told to do this by someone.”

The police officer nodded. He did not mention that if these two people adamantly took the blame, then there was really nothing they could do.

This was the last clue.

“We will think of more ways to deal with this,” the police officer said. “We won’t close this case so quickly.”

Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya then left the police station and went back home.

They changed into their lounge wear. Han Zhuoling then gave Wen Ren a call.

He did not leave to make this call. Instead, he had Shi Xiaoya listen in on the phone call.

Since this had something to do with Shi Xiaoya, there was no need to hide anything from her.

Wen Ren picked up his phone right away.

This was his personal phone number and not many people had it.

Therefore, he always answered right away when someone called this number.

When Wen Ren saw that it was Han Zhuoling, he answered without any hesitation.

“Yo, Old Han,” Wen Ren said casually.

His voice sounded rebellious.

Wen Ren, a father with two kids, was not young. And yet, his temperament did not change.

As Han Zhuoling was the eldest of the three sons of the Han Family, Wen Ren called him Old Han. As for Wei Zhiqian and the other older ones, they called Han Zhuoling Zhuo Zi.

As for Han Zhuofeng, everyone called him Xiao Han, which meant Little Han.

Han Zhuoling, feeling speechless, thought to himself, “I am not that old, but Wen Ren called me Old Han like I am some old person.”

“Help me find information on these two people.” Han Zhuoling explained what had happened today to Wen Ren.

Just by reading the information of the two people at the police station once, he remembered everything. And now, he accurately provided Wen Ren the information of the two people.

Wen Ren scratched his sideburn and said, “They are some small fries. It will be hard to investigate with just their information.”

Immediately, Wen Ren said, “It will take some time. Although the intelligence agency is able to do a very thorough investigation and can acquire very detailed information, they usually wouldn’t find or use the information of such small fries.”

Han Zhuoling then said, "They must have been hired by someone. I have already asked my men to start the investigation with this clue."

"Alright. Let me handle it all. Your men are not going to be as professional and as efficient as the members of the Mount Lan Compound."

Han Zhuoling smiled and said, "Alright. Then I will leave it to you."

As the saying went, different fields have different specialties. It was true that the Mount Lan Compound would know better about how to deal with these things.

If Han Zhuoling could solve everything by himself, why would they need the police?

What else could the the Mount Lan Compound do?

"Lucky for you, Wei Wucai is taking his vacation in B City. I will ask him to tell you the details," Wen Ren said.

"Sure."

Han Zhuoling then hung up the phone and pulled Shi Xiaoya into his arms as he said, "Sorry. It all happened because of me."

Considering the way Lian Qingyin had behaved, it was obvious who had truly caused the car accident.

Chapter 2680: Saw That He Was Hurt

He also made people check on Lian Qingyin.

But he did not know what means Lian Qingyin had used to make sure that her relationship with those two people could not be found out.

Even indirect contact was not found.

However, this did not stop Han Zhuoling from being certain that this was done by Lian Qingyin.

Because Lian Qingyin's behavior was too obvious.

Shi Xiaoya asked, full of suspicion, "You mean Lian Qingyin?"

When she saw that Han Zhuoling kept quiet, Shi Xiaoya said, "Although I, too, think that this matter has something to do with her, we still can't find any proof. It's unclear why, but the two have blamed everything on themselves and wouldn't dare to say anything else."

Actually, what other reason could there be?

It must have been because of some benefits.

But they did not know how huge the benefits that the two received was to be willing to keep their mouth glued.

The two had basically tried to deliberately murder someone. If the lawyer was skillful, even if the case could not be ruled as a normal car accident, they could lean towards that and lighten the punishment.

However, with Han Zhuoling, it was impossible to wish for a lighter punishment.

If the two could bait out the person who commanded them, then a lighter punishment would be possible.

If they would not let it go, Han Zhuoling would make sure they received a harsh punishment.

So, what benefits did the two receive to be able to persevere like this?

“It’s also possible that it’s really not her who did it.” Shi Xiaoya smiled. “Besides, even if she really was the one who did it, how is it any of your business? Why do you have to apologize to me because of what she did? Are you apologizing for her? If it is so, then I’m gonna be angry. Who is she to you that you have to apologize to me for her?”

Shi Xiaoya really did irritate Lian Qingyin.

She also knew that the reason Han Zhuoling apologized to her was not what she had stated.

She only thought that she got involved because of him.

Because Lian Qingyin liked him, she hated Shi Xiaoya and wanted to hurt her.

But she did not wish that Han Zhuoling would feel such guilt.

Especially when this matter had been caused by Lian Qingyin.

Shi Xiaoya did not want to make Han Zhuoling have anything to do with Lian Qingyin just because of this.

Even if it’s just his name that was put together with Lian Qingyin’s name because of this, she would feel terrified.

“No!” Han Zhuoling hugged Shi Xiaoya tightly.

He thought about his words carefully, wondering how it could make this little girl misunderstand.

Han Zhuoling’s face was full of confusion and anxiety as he was afraid that she had misunderstood.

This man, who had always been so calm, had never looked this anxious.

Shi Xiaoya’s heart was softened by how he looked.

“Don’t misunderstand. It’s impossible that I would apologize for her. I just...” Han Zhuoling explained anxiously.

“I know. You just think that she tried to hurt me because of you,” said Shi Xiaoya.

Han Zhuoling buried the little girl in his embrace and complained, “You said that even though you knew! It was so hard for me to hear!”

This big man’s serious face was full of hurt.

Shi Xiaoya was heartbroken by how he looked and realized that she could not bear looking at the hurt and sad expression on his face.

So this was how it was when he was heartbroken because of her.

When she saw that he was hurt, she felt a pain in her heart.

Shi Xiaoya leaned over and kissed him on the lips.. “But what does it have to do with you? It is because she likes you, but did you make her like you? Did you deliberately seduce her?”
