

Mr Han 2691

Chapter 2691: My Hubby Looks Good Too

The first thing that he saw was Shi Xiaoya's picture.

"It looks so good." Han Zhuoling smiled.

Shi Xiaoya watched from the side. She thought that Han Zhuoling was smiling like an idiot.

Of course, even if he was an idiot, he was a handsome idiot.

Han Zhuoling turned his head and smiled at Shi Xiaoya. "My wife looks so good."

Shi Xiaoya blushed. She suddenly realized that she was really married now. She was a wife now.

She did not feel single anymore.

Before this, even if she was together with Han Zhuoling, she was still single in terms of her identity.

Her name was still in the household register of the Shi family.

But now, it had been transferred to Han Zhuoling's household register.

They really... became a family.

Both their marriage certificates were in Han Zhuoling's hands.

Shi Xiaoya leaned over and looked at the pictures on the marriage certificates.

"My hubby looks so good too," said Shi Xiaoya quietly.

She was not used to this new identity and form of address. The moment she said it, she felt so embarrassed.

Her ears were red and burning.

It was as if smoke was going to emerge the next second.

Han Zhuoling was stunned. It was as if his acupoints had been pressed and he could not move.

Shi Xiaoya also held her breath nervously. Was... was he scared by her?

Did she change too fast?

As she was thinking this, Han Zhuoling turned his head suddenly. "What did you call me just now?"

Shi Xiaoya opened her mouth, unsure of what to do. Her whole face was red.

Was... was she too forward?

Right after, Han Zhuoling placed the marriage certificates on his lap and said to Shi Xiaoya, "Say it one more time?"

Shi Xiaoya's face was completely red. Now she was too embarrassed to say it again.

Han Zhuoling did not want to let it go. He held Shi Xiaoya's arm and said, full of expectations, "What did you call me just now? Say it again."

Shi Xiaoya looked away. She was too embarrassed to look at him and asked, "Where are we going to next? Do we go home or to the family home to let our elders know that we've gotten our marriage certificates?"

"Don't change the subject," said Han Zhuoling, smiling. "After you say it, we can discuss that."

Shi Xiaoya fidgeted in her seat uneasily. She felt his burning breaths blowing over her face.

Shi Xiaoya was so nervous that she sucked her lower lip out of habit.

If she did not say something, Han Zhuoling would not let her go.

Shi Xiaoya's lips shook, then she finally gathered some courage and said, "Hubby..."

Shi Xiaoya lowered her head and did not see that Han Zhuoling was smiling like an idiot.

He laughed silently. Only the faint sounds of air could be heard.

It was rare that he was smiling so happily.

He saw that Shi Xiaoya was too embarrassed to raise her head, so he lowered his head and looked for her lips.

He placed his face below Shi Xiaoya's face and went for her lips.

Then, he pushed her against the back of the seat.

Shi Xiaoya could only hold his shoulders and let him kiss her.

After a while, Han Zhuoling let her go.

Shi Xiaoya's face was burning and her lips were numb. Then, she heard Han Zhuoling say quietly, "From now on, call me that."

Unable to hold back, Shi Xiaoya also started laughing.

The two were really... married.

It felt like a dream.

The first thing Han Zhuoling did after he sat back was to check whether the marriage certificates were alright.

After checking, he put away the marriage certificates carefully.

Then, he answered the question that Shi Xiaoya had asked to change the subject. "Let's go to your parents' place."

Chapter 2692: I Really Want to Knock Some Sense into This Naughty Kid

Shi Xiaoya was surprised. "We're not going to the family home first?"

After all, the two elders were there; no matter how you looked at it, they should go to the family home first.

"I am marrying the baby girl of your family. You're the girl loved by your parents and your older brother, so of course we have to tell them first," said Han Zhuoling. "Besides, if we go to the family home, we will definitely have to inform my parents, uncles and aunts, Zhuoli, Lu Man, and Zhuofeng. Won't father-in-law and mother-in-law be the last to know then? We can't do that."

In the end, they still did what Han Zhuoling said and went to the Shi residence first.

Shi Nancang was still working. Shi Xiaoya knew that if she did not tell him such big news, he would be angry.

So Shi Xiaoya called Shi Nancang.

But Shi Nancang was currently having a meeting; his phone was on silent and he did not pick up.

Shi Xiaoya gave it a thought and sent Shi Nancang a WeChat message. "Brother, I've gotten my marriage certificate. I am going to Mom and Dad's place with Zhuoling to let them know."

She was afraid that Shi Nancang would blame Han Zhuoling for doing it before informing them, so she added, "I wanted to go to his family's home first, but Zhuoling insisted on going to Mom and Dad's place to let them know."

After sending the message, Shi Xiaoya let out a sigh.

Shi Xiaoya wanted to be cheeky and surprise her parents, so she did not tell them.

She was worried that Shi Nancang would see the message before her parents reached home.

So she sent Shi Nancang another message. "Don't tell Mom and Dad. I want to surprise them."

It really happened the way Shi Xiaoya feared. After half an hour, they still had not arrived at the Shi family's house.

But Shi Nancang's meeting had already ended.

As he walked out of the meeting room and was turning off the silent mode on his phone, he saw Shi Xiaoya's message.

The moment he saw the message, he swore.

He scared the staff and the managers of the various branches behind him.

"That br..." said Shi Nancang angrily.

He wanted to say brat but thought that it was not suitable as Han Zhuoling was older than him.

So his words got stuck in his throat.

Shi Nancang strode into the office and called Shi Xiaoya.

As soon as Shi Xiaoya picked up, she heard Shi Nancang's fierce questioning. "You're so bold now, huh? You won't even let your family know beforehand when you're going to get your marriage certificate. You just went straight away. You didn't even tell us in advance!"

Shi Xiaoya realized that she had been careless.

However, Shi Nancang's voice was too loud. Even through the phone, Shi Xiaoya's ear hurt from his voice.

She held her phone farther away. Only after Shi Nancang had finished shouting did she put the phone back to her ear.

"Brother, sorry. I was careless." Shi Xiaoya could not find an excuse.

It's true that they had only decided to do this at midnight yesterday.

If they said that it would not have been convenient to inform them at midnight, it would make sense.

But there had been so much time to do it in the morning, including the time when they were queueing up. Shi Xiaoya had not even thought of it.

This was indeed her fault.

"You're really...!" Shi Nancang said angrily.

What was the use of saying sorry now?

They had already gotten their marriage certificate; he could not make them divorce now.

"You have gotten the marriage certificate already?" Shi Nancang still asked.

Shi Xiaoya nodded. "Mhmm. We just got it. It's still hot. Do you want to see?"

Shi Nancang was speechless. "..."

He really wanted to knock some sense into this naughty kid.

After getting a definite answer from Shi Xiaoya, Shi Nancang felt like his family's cabbage had been snatched away by a pig..

Chapter 2693: Family's Cabbage Had Been Snatched Away by a Pig

He was frustrated.

"I don't want to see it!" said Shi Nancang angrily. "My family's cabbage has been snatched away by a pig. As if this is not frustrating enough, you sent me a message without even greeting me, saying that you have gotten your marriage certificate."

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. "..."

“Brother, lower your voice.” Shi Xiaoya turned around to look at Han Zhuoling’s face.

She saw that he was still smiling, and she let out a sigh of relief.

Perhaps getting the marriage certificate made him really joyful.

“Now you’re avoiding me?” said Shi Nancang, unhappy.

It sounded to Shi Xiaoya that her own older brother sounded like an unreasonable girl.

“No. Your voice is too loud. Zhuoling is beside me and can hear everything,” said Shi Xiaoya.

Shi Nancang was speechless. “...”

So the Han Zhuoling whom he had described as a pig had heard everything from the side?

“Cough.” Even Shi Nancang felt scared when thinking about Han Zhuoling.

He thought to himself how people really could not keep a mature girl from marrying. Han Zhuoling was right beside her and could hear him, but she did not tell him that earlier!

Shi Xiaoya held back her laughter, saying, “We’re almost home. Are you coming?”

“Wait for me, I am going back now,” said Shi Nancang.

Shi Xiaoya reminded him again, “Don’t tell Mom and Dad for now. I’ll tell them myself. Otherwise, it would sound like I am hiding it from them.”

“Got it,” Shi Nancang agreed and added, “You already know this, so why did you still go and get your marriage certificate without saying anything?”

Shi Nancang was not against her getting the marriage certificate.

She was already living with Han Zhuoling, and Han Zhuoling had proposed.

The two had gained the approval of both families.

The Shis and the Hans had also met many times.

Even before Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya got married, the two families had already treated each other like family.

Furthermore, Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin had already been treating Han Zhuoling like their son-in-law before Han Zhuoling had even proposed.

After Han Zhuoling proposed, they regarded him even less as an outsider.

They gave Shi Xiaoya to Han Zhuoling with a peaceful heart.

So, he was not against the two of them getting their marriage certificate.

He just felt frustrated that the two of them did not even say anything and just suddenly got their marriage certificate.

Shi Xiaoya knew that she had been unreasonable, so she allowed Shi Nancang to lecture her.

Finally, after Shi Nancang finished, Shi Xiaoya said, "Brother, I understand that I was negligent."

"Hmph, hmph." Shi Nancang sneered. "Think about how you're going to tell Mom and Dad."

Shi Xiaoya was really worried now.

She hung up.

At first, Shi Xiaoya had been very excited.

But after calling Shi Nancang, she even wanted to make Han Zhuoling drive slower.

Han Zhuoling had heard almost everything from Shi Xiaoya's and Shi Nancang's conversation. He saw that Shi Xiaoya had a moody expression.

The young lady who was happy and excited before looked moody now.

Secretly, Han Zhuoling remembered Shi Nancang.

After receiving such joyful news today, he had scared Shi Xiaoya.

"You've got me." Han Zhuoling held Shi Xiaoya's hand. "If Father-in-law and Mother-in-law are not happy, let them blame me."

Shi Xiaoya thought about it. With Han Zhuoling there, her mom and dad would not dare to do anything.

So, Shi Xiaoya decided to hide like a coward behind Han Zhuoling and let him take all the bullets..

Chapter 2694: Take Off Your Pants to Fart

After half an hour, they reached the Shi residence.

Han Zhuoling parked the car and both of them went to the entrance.

The lock was a fingerprint lock, and Shi Xiaoya could open it herself.

However, when they stood at the entrance, Shi Xiaoya stopped. She did not move.

Han Zhuoling waited quietly for her. Shi Xiaoya said with a conflicted expression, "I'm still nervous."

Her mom was fine. Given how much Du Yiqin liked Han Zhuoling, even if she was shocked, she would be happy after a while.

The difficult part was her dad. He would definitely have the same attitude as Shi Nancang.

"I'm here," said Han Zhuoling. "It's my fault for not informing our elders."

As for getting the marriage certificate, clearly, there was nothing wrong with it.

From Han Zhuoling's perspective, the only wrong thing was that they did not inform the elders beforehand.

Of course, Shi Xiaoya also thought so.

Shi Xiaoya took a deep breath. She could not avoid it anyway; she had to say it.

Shi Xiaoya opened the door bravely.

The two of them walked to the courtyard. After walking for a while, they arrived at the door of the house.

Shi Xiaoya unlocked the door once again and the two of them entered.

The sound of the door opening caught the attention of Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin, who were already in the house.

Shi Guanzhong was the chairman of the board by name. He had already left everything in the company to Shi Nancang and had started his early retirement life.

Shi Nancang handled the company very well. Shi Guanzhong did not need to worry about anything, so he enjoyed life in his house peacefully.

He attended various activities every day and was even in a golf club. When he had nothing to do, he would go fishing, going as far as T City to fish.

Or he would go on a vacation with Du Yiqin.

They would only choose one city at a time. No matter if it was overseas or in the country, they would stay there for a month and enjoy their vacation.

There were not a lot of people the same age as Shi Guanzhong who were as laid back as him.

Most of them were still worrying about their companies.

They did not trust their children's management and must watch the companies themselves.

Some of their children were really not cut out for it, so they had to deal with it themselves.

Some did not want to give up their authority. Even if their children were not bad, they were not willing to step down.

From Shi Guanzhong's point of view, in that last scenario where their children were doing great but they still would not let go, weren't they being a bother?

Besides, as people get older, their judgment would become worse and they would become more stubborn.

In fact, the actual people who would hold back the company would be them.

So it would be better to leave it to the young people.

It was nice to be so laid back every day.

When Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling entered, Shi Guanzhong was examining the new robot that he had just bought.

It was the type of cute little robot that could talk and serve food in hotels.

“Eh, after I am done examining it, let it try serving us meals tonight,” said Shi Guanzhong. “Let it go to the kitchen. Once Auntie Zhou is done cooking, have her put the food on the robot and it will send it to the dining room.”

Auntie Zhou heard this from the side and estimated the distance between the kitchen and the dining room.

She thought that going through all this trouble was like taking off your pants to fart.

At that moment, they heard noises from the door.

“Hmm? Who came back this time?” Du Yiqin felt that it was strange.

She thought that it was either Shi Nancang or Shi Xiaoya.

Because only people from their family could unlock the door.

Indeed, after a while, they heard Shi Xiaoya’s voice before seeing her. “Mom, Dad, Zhuoling and I are back..”

Chapter 2695: Did Not Get into Trouble

Du Yiqin got up hurriedly and went to the door.

Even Shi Guanzhong stopped examining the robot and got up.

The two of them only managed to go halfway before Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya entered.

“Dad, Mom,” Shi Xiaoya greeted.

Han Zhuoling followed along, “Dad, Mom.”

Han Zhuoling had been calling them that very early on. Even when he first came back home with Shi Xiaoya, he had been bold enough to call them that.

After a long time, even though the youngsters were not married, Du Yiqin and Shi Guanzhong had gotten used to it.

Every time Han Zhuoling greeted them that way, they would only realize it after answering back. They thought in their hearts that brainwashing was scary.

“Why did you guys come back at this time?” asked Du Yiqin curiously. “You two don’t work anymore?”

This was a working hour.

The two were both busy with work usually. They would not have time during this period.

“Dad, Mom.” Shi Xiaoya smiled sweetly, trying to soften the blow.

How could the couple not understand their own daughter?

Her behavior meant that she was guilty of doing something that would anger them.

Ever since she was young, whenever she made them angry or got into trouble, she would behave like a baby beforehand, making them unable to deal with her.

Shi Guanzhong raised his alertness level immediately. "What? Did you get into trouble?"

Du Yiqin was clearly suspecting the same thing as Shi Guanzhong.

However, she thought it was weird. Shi Xiaoya was already so old; ever since she started working up to when she got a boyfriend, she had never really made them worry.

Even though Shi Xiaoya was a little spoiled, she was mature when it came to handling matters.

Even after Du Yiqin burned her brains out thinking, she could not think of any trouble that Shi Xiaoya could have gotten into.

Besides, what trouble could she have gotten into that Han Zhuoling could not protect her from?

If even Han Zhuoling could not protect her, that would be like fighting god.

"Dad," Shi Xiaoya protested with dissatisfaction. "Do I look to you like I get into trouble all the time?"

Shi Guanzhong chuckled. "You don't get into trouble often, but when you do, you behave like this. How can we not know?"

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. "..."

"I really didn't get into trouble," said Shi Xiaoya.

How could getting a marriage certificate with Han Zhuoling be considered getting into trouble?

Du Yiqin did not fully trust her and asked, "Then why did you and Zhuoling not go to work and come here today?"

Upon her mother mentioning this, Shi Xiaoya felt guilty again.

The expression on her face made Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin unable to believe that she did not get into any trouble.

The two prepared their hearts quietly.

They saw that Han Zhuoling's expression was not bad; it even had a hint of joy.

The trouble should not be too big.

They thought that Shi Xiaoya could not have gotten into any big trouble.

"Dad, Mom, let's sit down first, okay?" said Shi Xiaoya. "Let's talk after we sit down. Let's stop standing around."

Du Yiqin became even more suspicious of her, but she still sat down with Shi Guanzhong.

Shi Guanzhong was more straightforward. "You're scared that we'd be too surprised that we won't be able to stand on our feet?"

"..." Shi Xiaoya did not know whether to laugh or cry. "Impossible! It's really not something bad!"

Listening to her, Du Yiqin was at least a little more relaxed.

They thought that what Shi Xiaoya said was also right. They could not be talking while standing.

So they all sat down.

"Alright, tell us. What is it?" Du Yiqin asked impatiently.

Shi Xiaoya nudged Han Zhuoling. Did he not say that he would cover her?

Obviously, Han Zhuoling would not back down, so he took out two marriage certificates from his pocket..

Chapter 2696: How Could They Show Off Their Affection to Their Parents?

He placed them carefully on the tea table in front of Du Yiqin and Shi Guanzhong.

He even rotated them so that the words "marriage certificate" were facing them right-side up.

Shi Guanzhong had no words. "..."

Du Yiqin was the same. "..."

Were they dazzled?

Du Yiqin blinked a few times and took another careful glance. There were still two marriage certificates in front of her.

Shi Guanzhong looked at the marriage certificates, then looked at the couple opposite him. He was dumbfounded.

They had not seen each other for only a few days, and now, all of a sudden, there were two marriage certificates?

Du Yiqin was more straightforward. She took the marriage certificates and opened them.

Inside were clearly pictures of Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya.

The date was today.

It was fresh out of the oven!

Han Zhuoling explained, "Dad, Mom, I'm sorry for not informing you earlier. We were being negligent. We only decided this at midnight. I wanted to marry Xiaoya and be officially together with her, so when I thought of getting our marriage certificates, I could not wait to get it done immediately."

“We rushed there impatiently and did not think of anything else but getting it done,” said Shi Xiaoya. She could not really push everything to Han Zhuoling, so she also started talking.

“We even forgot to inform people at the family home, not to mention you guys,” said Shi Xiaoya.

Shi Guanzhong was discontented at first, but when Shi Xiaoya said that, he could not express his dissatisfaction; even the grandparents, whose seniority was the highest, had not known.

“We only thought of other things after we’ve gotten our marriage certificates and felt that we have completed a major life event. We only remembered that we had forgotten to tell our elders after getting the certificates.” Shi Xiaoya pursed her lips, embarrassed. “But we have already gotten our certificates, and it’s too late, so this is the only thing we can do.

“Besides, I wanted to head to the family home first, but Zhuoling insisted that we come here first,” said Shi Xiaoya.

Han Zhuoling tilted his head slightly, looking at how Shi Xiaoya was protecting him so seriously.

Han Zhuoling had a hint of laughter flowing out of his eyes like water.

This little girl clearly said that she would leave everything to him and make him walk in front of her, blocking the bullets from her parents.

In the end, he had not even said a lot, and before Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin had the chance to show any emotions of anger, the little girl had already started protecting him.

The hint of joy in Han Zhuoling’s eyes could not stop showing.

Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin felt frustrated when they saw this.

Did these two kids not come to gain their favor?

Why were they being all lovey-dovey now?

Shi Xiaoya noticed Han Zhuoling’s gaze. When she turned her head, she was facing Han Zhuoling’s face, which was full of joy.

Shi Xiaoya blushed slightly and smiled at Han Zhuoling.

When she turned and looked at her parents, her cheeks did not stop blushing but became even redder.

It was as if it had become pink from being steamed. Even by just looking, they could feel that her face was burning.

Han Zhuoling’s fingers fidgeted. He was barely able to stop himself from pinching her cheeks.

After all, his mother-in-law and father-in-law were still here, and it was unknown whether Du Yiqin and Shi Guanzhong were angry.

Even after they had gotten their marriage certificates and Shi Xiaoya had officially become Mrs. Han, Han Zhuoling felt that he still had to control himself..

Chapter 2697: He Could Be So Jealous

Right after, they heard Shi Xiaoya say, "Zhuoling said that I have always been spoiled and loved by you guys. Now, he's married to such an important..."

Shi Xiaoya felt embarrassed to say it out loud, even a little ashamed. "Baby. It's natural to come here first."

Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin were smart and they understood what Han Zhuoling meant.

Han Zhuoling only left out one thing, which was that marrying Shi Xiaoya was the Han Family taking advantage.

Knowing that her own daughter had such an important place in her son-in-law's heart, how could Du Yiqin not be happy?

She laughed immediately.

When Du Yiqin laughed, Shi Xiaoya let out a sigh of relief. At least she already laughed, so it would be impossible for her to make a stern face and get angry again.

Shi Guanzhong cleared his throat. "If you know that these kinds of things will make us angry, then don't do it again next time."

Shi Guanzhong saying this meant that he was not angry anymore.

Shi Xiaoya let out a sigh of relief. However, before she even finished, Shi Guanzhong said, "If there's a next time, we won't be so easy to coax!"

Du Yiqin added, "That's right. You guys went to get your marriage certificates quietly. We only learned about it after you have gotten them; it doesn't feel too good.

"It's not like we don't approve of your marriage. We have long been seeing Zhuoling as our son-in-law. It's not a problem no matter when you get your marriage certificates. On the contrary, we feel at ease that you're married." Du Yiqin glanced at Han Zhuoling.

She was very satisfied with her son-in-law and was not concerned at all.

However, back when Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya were not married, she had still felt a little uneasy.

"So, try to remember us next time," said Du Yiqin.

The parents were not angry; they were just sad.

Du Yiqin's last sentence made Shi Xiaoya's eyes red.

She felt awful. "Dad, Mom, sorry. We won't do it again."

Du Yiqin smiled. "Alright, alright. From here on, you two are officially one family."

Du Yiqin smiled at the couple sitting opposite her.

Shi Xiaoya was now officially under Han Zhuoling's protection. Du Yiqin felt that her own daughter had become someone else's.

It was like... giving half of herself away.

Before they were married, she had felt uneasy, afraid that something would happen.

If they were to break up, Shi Xiaoya would suffer the most.

However, now that they were married, she was reluctant to let Shi Xiaoya go. She felt conflicted.

After a short while, Shi Nancang returned.

Even though Du Yiqin and Shi Guanzhong were now fine, Shi Nancang still had a moody expression.

Shi Xiaoya had to make him happy.

Fortunately, she only had to focus on Shi Nancang now.

Shi Xiaoya held Shi Nancang's arm. "Brother, don't be angry. I know that I'm wrong. I promise this won't happen again."

Han Zhuoling's face turned dark as he watched.

Even if Shi Nancang was Shi Xiaoya's older brother, seeing how close Shi Xiaoya was to Shi Nancang was an eyesore.

Han Zhuoling let out a dry cough.

But now, Shi Xiaoya's attention was fully on Shi Nancang, so she did not hear anything and did not notice Han Zhuoling's dark expression.

Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin noticed it. They did not expect that Han Zhuoling, a mature man whom everyone was terrified of, could be so jealous and have such a petty side.

The couple had forgotten all about their sadness as they watched excitedly from the side..

Chapter 2698: Between Me, Your Brother, and Your Husband Han Zhuoling, Who Do You Like More?

Han Zhuoling was even jealous of Shi Xiaoya's brother; that was too much.

Shi Xiaoya did not notice, but Shi Nancang did.

He raised his eyebrows and provoked Han Zhuoling silently.

Han Zhuoling was speechless. "..."

He could not pull Shi Xiaoya over in front of his father-in-law and mother-in-law.

Control.

He had to control himself.

However, Shi Nancang was adding fuel to the fire.

He was clearly not angry, but he wanted to see Han Zhuoling's aggrieved expression, so he acted like he was still angry.

Seeing that Han Zhuoling could not take it anymore, Du Yiqin really wanted to remind her son to quit it while he was ahead. He was no match to Han Zhuoling.

He could not dig his own grave like this.

Unexpectedly, Shi Nancang asked Shi Xiaoya, "Xiaoya, tell me, between me, your brother, and your husband Han Zhuoling, who do you like more?"

Du Yiqin was speechless. "..."

Aiyo, this son of hers was really digging his own grave!

However, she was also really curious about Shi Xiaoya's answer.

Han Zhuoling's face turned even darker.

This Shi Nancang was so childish!

He even asked this kind of childish question!

However, Han Zhuoling also paid attention, wanting to know what Shi Xiaoya's answer would be.

It was rare that he was this nervous, but now, his heart was skipping beats.

He was excited but anxious.

He was excited about Shi Xiaoya's answer, but he was also afraid that she would say that she liked her brother more.

However, even if Shi Xiaoya said that, Han Zhuoling would comfort himself by thinking that Shi Xiaoya was just trying to make Shi Nancang happy.

He should not have the same mindset as Shi Nancang.

Shi Nancang was waiting confidently for Shi Xiaoya's answer.

He also thought that Shi Xiaoya would say that just to make him happy.

Unexpectedly, Shi Xiaoya released his arm.

Before Shi Nancang could react to the sudden change, he heard Shi Xiaoya say, "Of course I like Zhuoling more."

Shi Nancang was speechless. "..."

His face was frozen.

How... how could it be like this?

Was she not trying to make him happy?

Why was she not willing to say something nice to make him happy?

Who would want such a younger sister?

Han Zhuoling let out a sigh, finally feeling relieved.

He smiled.

There was no need to mention how proud he was.

Shi Nancang was furious. "You... you're just trying to make me angry."

Shi Xiaoya knew that Shi Nancang was setting a trap for her!

He wanted to make Han Zhuoling angry.

Obviously, she knew that she could try to make Shi Nancang happy.

However, she knew that Han Zhuoling was also very petty.

Even if she made Shi Nancang happy now, she would suffer when she went back.

She would have to suffer from Han Zhuoling's petty temper.

Han Zhuoling could make her stay in bed and repeat a hundred times that she liked Han Zhuoling.

Just thinking about it made Shi Xiaoya feel despair.

To ensure that she would not suffer when she went back, she had to sacrifice Shi Nancang.

"Brother." Shi Xiaoya looked at Shi Nancang, not knowing what to say. "You're so old already, stop being so childish."

Shi Nancang was speechless. "..."

"Explain to me how I am old? Aren't I... younger than my brother-in law?" Shi Nancang stomped his feet.

Han Zhuoling was speechless. "..."

He was watching from the side without talking; why did he have to take a bullet too?

Du Yiqin smiled as she interrupted Shi Nancang.

She said to Shi Xiaoya, "Alright, now we know about you getting your marriage certificate. You should hurry to the family home and let the elders know. It's better to be early regarding this matter.. Stop lingering here."

Chapter 2699: Was He Even Their Biological Son?

They could not let a long time pass before informing the elders of the Han Family that they had gotten their marriage certificates.

Putting herself in other people's shoes, Du Yiqin thought that it would not be good, so she rushed them to leave.

Besides, if the Han Family's elders heard about it any later, they might have grievance against Shi Xiaoya.

Whether she was overthinking or not, she had to think for her own daughter. She must avoid troubles that could be avoided.

Shi Xiaoya nodded and said to Han Zhuoling, "Let's hurry to the family home."

Han Zhuoling thought for a while and said, "Alright. My family members will definitely want to celebrate together. Let me book a place for celebration tonight and let our two families celebrate together."

"Okay, okay, okay." Du Yiqin smiled as she nodded. "This is a good suggestion. It's decided."

Such great news had to be celebrated.

Du Yiqin also wanted to celebrate for them.

Two families celebrating together might make it more lively, and there would not be a first or a last.

So, they decided.

Du Yiqin rushed them to leave.

They sent Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya out, watched them get into the car, and waited until their car had disappeared. Only then did they return to the house.

Shi Nancang had rushed home from work, so he had to go back.

Just as he was leaving, he saw that Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin were heading in.

Shi Nancang said, "Dad, Mom, I'm going back to work. I'll attend the celebration at night after I am done with work."

Just as he finished speaking, he saw that there was something wrong with Shi Guanzhong's and Du Yiqin's expressions.

"..." Shi Nancang subconsciously took a step back. "Why are you looking at me like that?"

Their gazes were terrifying.

Du Yiqin patted his shoulder. "Don't leave in a hurry just yet. You want to head to work in a hurry, but why don't you know how to hurry up and find a partner?"

Shi Nancang was speechless. "..."

What the hell?

Was going to work related to finding a partner?

Du Yiqin said, "Your younger sister is already married. As an older brother, you don't even have a girlfriend. Being surpassed so much by your younger sister, don't you feel ashamed?"

Shi Nancang was speechless. "..."

“Why... why is it my fault all of a sudden?” Shi Nancang’s face was frozen. “You guys haven’t rushed me at all before.”

Shi Guanzhong and Du Yiqin had great chemistry. Facing his son’s questioning, Shi Guanzhong said heartlessly, “We were scared that your younger sister would feel pressured if we kept rushing you.”

“No...” Shi Nancang was confused. “Why would Xiaoya feel pressured if you rushed me?”

“If we kept rushing you, Xiaoya would feel that she had to find a partner quickly too. Wouldn’t that be stressful?” explained Du Yiqin.

Just because they were scared that Shi Xiaoya would misunderstand, they did not rush him?

“Now that Xiaoya is married, we can rest assured and begin rushing you.” Du Yiqin let out a sigh. “You’re also not young anymore.”

Shi Nancang was speechless. “...”

He was only 28; how was that not young?

Who else was not a baby?

“You keep taking your time. Perhaps you want to be like Han Zhuoli and Han Zhuoling, looking for a girlfriend only when they’re old?” said Du Yiqin.

Shi Nancang was speechless. “...”

Did they know that they were using the Han Brothers as a bad example?

Shi Nancang said in a straightforward manner, “If Han Zhuoling had not waited until he reached this age, he wouldn’t have met Xiaoya. It’s the same for Han Zhuoli! Those who marry earlier won’t be able to meet good partners.. Besides, Han Zhuoling had been married before, but didn’t he divorce? He was waiting for Xiaoya.”

Chapter 2700: Brothers in the Same Boat

Du Yiqin was speechless. “...”

She knew clearly that her son was chopping logic, but she still felt that what he said made sense.

“So I am not in a rush. Someone meant for me will eventually appear,” said Shi Nancang, striking the iron while it was hot.

“It’s not like that...” Du Yiqin was clearly not as firm as before.

Although she knew that it was not like that, she did not know how to explain it to him all of a sudden.

Shi Nancang took this chance and said, “Then I’m off to work! See you tonight!”

Before Du Yiqin could react, Shi Nancang had already rushed out of the door rapidly.

Du Yiqin was speechless. "..."

"This young brat! Why is it so hard to make him find a girlfriend?" said Du Yiqin, frustrated.

"It's fine," said Shi Guanzhong, full of certainty. "All that's left is him. We're both so free anyway. If we help him together, how can he not be able to find one?"

Du Yiqin gave it a thought. It was indeed so. She nodded. "Yes, yes, yes. That's it."

Shi Nancang did not know that his own parents were already sharpening their weapons to help him find a girlfriend.

In the coming days, he would be brothers in the same boat with Wei Zhiqian.

As for Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling, Shi Xiaoya was still the one driving to the family home.

Even if Han Zhuoling was already not tired due to the excitement, Shi Xiaoya was still worried.

Han Zhuoling did not fight with her about it. He sat peacefully on the front passenger's seat and took out the marriage certificates once again.

The marriage certificates were actually very simple; there was only little information inside, without many words.

Han Zhuoling had already gone through the font size and stenciled words a few times.

He had even memorized the font size.

Shi Xiaoya was curious about how long Han Zhuoling intended to look at them.

However, seeing how much he liked them, Shi Xiaoya also could not stop herself from smiling.

The look this man had when looking at the marriage certificates was a little stupid.

It was not convenient for Shi Xiaoya to do it as she was driving, but she really wanted to take a picture of this look of his.

She felt a little regretful.

Han Zhuoling caressed the marriage certificates, barely able to wait to take a picture of them to post online.

But he remembered that the elders at home did not know yet. If he posted pictures online and let them find out from online sources, it would not be good.

Han Zhuoling could only suppress his desire to brag about his marriage certificate.

However, the family home was too far away from the Shi residence; they were on opposite ends of the earth.

To go from one side to the other side of B City, it would take some time.

They had finally arrived at the family home. Just as the car stopped, before Shi Xiaoya could even turn off the engine, Han Zhuoling had already rushed out of the car.

Shi Xiaoya burst out into laughter. She turned off the engine, pulled out the key, ensured that everything that needed to be turned off was off, then got out of the car.

Although Han Zhuoling was in a rush, he still waited at the side.

When he saw that Shi Xiaoya was out, he dragged her through the gate.

The gate opened. When they entered, there was a reminder on the family home's security cameras.

The screen lit up automatically.

When Auntie Sun saw it, she went to the porch to take a look.

Then, she saw Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya, who were walking in the courtyard.

"Madam, the oldest young master and Xiaoya are here," said Auntie Sun.

Old Mrs. Han was surprised. "Hmm? Why are they here at this time? What day is today?"

"Today is Friday," said Auntie Sun.

"Something's wrong. Shouldn't they be working?" Old Mrs. Han got up and went to the porch.

Indeed, she saw Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya outside.
