

Mr Han 2741

Chapter 2741: Return

Shi Xiaoya did not even know how she was eventually held and placed on the bar counter.

She could not place her feet on the ground. As the kiss continued, she felt herself flying up.

The only bad thing was that she was not wearing a lot and the counter felt cold after she had sat on it for a while.

However, the moment she moved, her entire body was lifted up by Han Zhuoling.

His palm supported her behind. It felt soft and hot.

It was like sitting in a cloud roasted by the burning sun.

Hot and soft.

To prevent herself from falling off, she unconsciously wrapped her arms around Han Zhuoling's waist.

She couldn't help but wrap her arms around his waist tightly.

As she did that, she thought to herself, "Han Zhuoling has such a thin waist."

She had never tried hugging his waist forcefully, so she never realized this.

However, it was summer now and they were not wearing a lot.

And when she held his waist tightly, it became obvious.

It was obviously so skinny. She couldn't help but wrap her arms around his waist even more tightly.

Han Zhuoling felt fire burning inside him. He could no longer control himself.

He lifted her up and pushed her against the fridge door, kissing her even more fervently.

The moment he released her lips, Shi Xiaoya had forgotten what she had intended to do previously. She just placed her head on his shoulder as she panted.

She felt as though all the air in her lungs had been sucked away.

Her lips were so swollen that she didn't dare to touch her own lips.

She just did it earlier and it felt hot and slightly numb.

Han Zhuoling felt fire burning in his throat as he pushed Shi Xiaoya towards the fridge even more, forcing himself on her.

"Should we go back to the room?" Han Zhuoling said in a hoarse voice. She felt her breath by his ear and it was burning hot.

Shi Xiaoya felt her ears burning hot.

When she heard what Han Zhuoling said, her mind went blank.

It was noon and it was hot outside.

Even with the curtains drawn, it was still bright in the house.

Shi Xiaoya felt very embarrassed.

“We just woke up,” Shi Xiaoya said in a soft and weak voice.

“What we’ll be doing in the room has nothing to do with sleep anyway.” Han Zhuoling chuckled and said, “It has to do with doing you.”

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. “...”

Was this man saying a sex joke?

Shi Xiaoya was so flustered that she did not know what to do.

They had been living together for a while and had reached the highest level of intimacy.

With Han Zhuoling’s persuasion skills, they have tried ridiculous positions.

As there was no one else in the house, Han Zhuoling behaved wildly.

However, it was unknown as to whether this shyness was caused by the fact that they had officially registered their marriage yesterday.

Shi Xiaoya had never felt as shy as right now in front of Han Zhuoling.

Although she had always been a little shy in front of him, she was never this shy.

At this moment, someone’s stomach growled.

The two looked down. Shi Xiaoya realized that it was her stomach that growled.

Han Zhuoling chuckled and asked, “Are you hungry?”

As of now, Shi Xiaoya could not even bother with the embarrassment caused by the punny joke. She let out a sigh of relief and answered, “I just prepared the ingredients. I was going to make lunch before you woke up.”

Han Zhuoling sighed and placed her down sadly.

“Then we can eat first...”

Shi Xiaoya thought to herself, was this man planning to complete the wedding night that they had missed right now?

“Then, what about tonight’s...” Shi Xiaoya said.

“Tonight’s what?” Han Zhuoling teased, asking as if he had no idea what she was going to say.

Shi Xiaoya knew that he was teasing her. She sulked and ignored him.

“Hmph!

“I don’t care if you want it or not!

“I am not the one worrying about this anyway.”

When Han Zhuoling saw this, he immediately stopped while things were still good..

Chapter 2742: A Date

“Did you forget? We still have to wait for news about Lian Qingyin at midnight today,” Han Zhuoling said in a sad tone. “I am so sad. We have just gotten our marriage certificates and I have just become your husband. We were always doing it before getting the marriage certificates. But ever since we had gotten our marriage certificates, we have not done it.”

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. “...”

She wanted to ask, “Don’t we still have a night before we have to deal with Lian Qingyin?”

However, eventually, Shi Xiaoya felt too embarrassed to say anything.

Shi Xiaoya’s face was red as she said, “We still have a long life ahead of us. Let’s finish up this business with Lian Qingyin this midnight, then we can relax without any worries.”

“Sure.” Han Zhuoling thought so himself.

Shi Xiaoya then prepared lunch.

The two had just woken up, and so, they did not have breakfast.

Therefore, the lunch prepared was simple. After all, it would not be good for their stomach.

With that, Shi Xiaoya cooked some noodles and made three refreshing side dishes.

It was a hot summer and they were not hungry.

Whenever Shi Xiaoya saw hot food, she felt hot.

The soup and noodles were hot. And so, some mixed vegetables were made.

While the two were still eating, Han Zhuoling said, “We don’t have much to do in the afternoon. Do you have anything you want to do?”

Shi Xiaoya thought about it and said, “How about we go shopping?”

After all, they had just gotten married. They were not going for their honeymoon trip now.

However, a date that happened after marriage would feel different from a date that happened before marriage.

“We will be going out as husband and wife instead of boyfriend and girlfriend,” Shi Xiaoya said with a smile.

Han Zhuoling pondered it and thought it was good.

And so, they ate their lunch and tidied themselves up before they left the house.

They had known each other for a long time, but they had rarely gone on dates.

The two had built their relationship while they were filming Survivor.

When they weren't filming for that show, they would meet for different kinds of businesses.

They had only met because of work.

After they started dating, Han Zhuoling had hastily and shamelessly moved into the apartment above hers. He then took down the partition between the two apartments, resulting in them living together.

This meant that they started living together not long after they started dating.

They were already so intimate, and so, they rarely went on dates.

It was convenient to see each other at home right after work.

In addition, they were both busy. Sometimes, Han Zhuoling would be available, but Shi Xiaoya would be on a business trip.

Sometimes, Shi Xiaoya would be free, but Han Zhuoling would be working or on a business trip.

They rarely had time together.

Shi Xiaoya couldn't bear seeing Han Zhuoling working so hard.

Although Han Zhuoling was not working as much as before, he was still busy.

He still had to work overtime. If he had work that could be done at home, he would do it at home.

After all, even though he still had to work at home, it also meant that he could at least keep Shi Xiaoya company.

Han Zhuoling did not know much about emotions and relationships. He just knew that he had to put in the effort.

He was not worried that Shi Xiaoya would want to be with someone else out of loneliness. He knew that Shi Xiaoya was not this type of person.

He was just worried that he might not have enough time to accompany Shi Xiaoya and that she would be lonely if she was alone.

She would be in a relationship with him, but he would never have time to be with her.

If so, what would be the difference between having him as a boyfriend and not having one?

If it's like that, then he would not be considered a good boyfriend.

Therefore, Han Zhuoling would try to work at home so that he could keep Shi Xiaoya company..

Chapter 2743: Whereabouts

There were times when Han Zhuoling would not need to work overtime.

However, Shi Xiaoya could not bear seeing him work so much.

And so, whenever he could rest, they stayed home.

Shi Xiaoya thought that the location did not matter as long as the two were together.

A date could happen anywhere.

A movie date or a dinner date outside could only be blissful if they were together.

If that was the case, then a date at home would be blissful too.

As long as Shi Xiaoya was with him, she felt happy. The location did not matter.

From her perspective, a date happened so that two people could become even more emotionally intimate.

And so, most of the time, when the two had no work, they would have a date at home.

Shi Xiaoya would cook for Han Zhuoling and the two would do anything at home.

A meal at home was easy and comfortable.

Not like in a high-class restaurant, in which you weren't allowed to talk loudly and could only restrain yourself and whisper.

The two could watch shows and talk while they ate.

However, the two had just gotten their marriage certificates. And obviously, they needed to celebrate.

They did celebrate with the older relatives yesterday.

Today, they were going to celebrate with a date.

They had no work yesterday and it was relaxing.

It was not busy this weekend. All they needed to do was to deal with Lian Qingyin at midnight.

Since they had time, Han Zhuoling thought it would be good to go on a date.

Shi Xiaoya placed all the bowls and chopsticks in the dishwasher. While she was tidying up the kitchen, Han Zhuoling secretly went to the office.

He found an authentic French restaurant with a good atmosphere and reserved a table there.

Tonight, he was going to celebrate this new marriage with Shi Xiaoya. It would just be him and her.

After he had booked a table, he went out and saw that Shi Xiaoya had finished tidying up the table.

She did not know where Han Zhuoling had gone, but she did not ask.

Although a couple should be honest with each other and not hide anything, it was not necessary to say every little thing.

For example, if one went to the bathroom and came back, did they have to report that they had gone to the bathroom?

That would be too much.

“Did you think about where to go?” Han Zhuoling asked Shi Xiaoya.

Han Zhuoling was never really interested in playing and having fun since he was young.

While kids were going to the amusement park for some rides suitable for kids or to the arcade in the mall, Han Zhuoling would rather learn another language and study the foundation while he was still young.

When he became older and reached his teenage years...

All the teens loved to go to the KTV and the cybercafe.

As for the teenage Han Zhuoling, he would rather invest the money that Lin Liye had given him into the stock market.

It did not matter whether he had lost or won. It was all for the sake of practice and gaining experience.

When he was in college, people his age were dating, playing games all night, or participating in basketball games.

As for Han Zhuoling, he participated in all kinds of sports and had started doing tangible investments in all kinds of fields.

Therefore, Han Zhuoling had never had fun and was never good at it.

If you asked him to sing some trending songs in a KTV, he wouldn't be able to sing any completely.

Not to mention his knowledge and skills for those popular games.

Back then, when he was cast in Survivor, he played two rounds of PUBG with Shi Xiaoya.

He immediately got the hang of it.

As you can see, it was not that Han Zhuoling was not good at playing games. If he spent the time to learn it, he could play it well. He just didn't have the time nor the attention for it..

Chapter 2744: Untitled

And now, Shi Xiaoya suggested that they go on a date. Han Zhuoling froze when he heard it. He then realized that he couldn't come up with anything else but the movies and food.

While he was asking Shi Xiaoya, he searched up some trending movies out in the theaters, only to find that there weren't any movies with good reviews.

The movies in theaters right now either had bad quality or were just made to earn money.

The last choice was a melancholy literary film.

Actually, there was no need to search this up. After all, the Han Corporation was a company in the media and film industry.

Han Zhuoling himself had no recollection of any recent movies that were worth watching.

There were some low-quality movies made jokingly by some small production teams, and he had no idea about those movies.

Shi Xiaoya also did not know the answer to Han Zhuoling's question.

She was not even as experienced as Han Zhuoling.

Han Zhuoling was much older than her and had seen more of the world than her.

For Shi Xiaoya, Han Zhuoling was basically her first love.

She then married her first love.

As she thought about it, she realized that it was quite sweet.

Shi Xiaoya had no good ideas about what to do for a date.

"I don't have much experience. Wait, I will ask," Shi Xiaoya said as she took out her phone and sent Guo Yujie a WeChat message.

When Han Zhuoling saw this, he was brought to a moment of realization. True! He might not know, but he could ask someone!

He must have been struck to dumbness by the joy of marriage that he had forgotten about such a simple thing.

Han Zhuoling's first thought was to ask Tong Chunian.

However, Tong Chunian was now busy dealing with Lian Qingyin.

Han Zhuoling thought about it and decided that he would not give more responsibility to Tong Chunian.

He then sent a message to the 8864 group chat, asking, "What can you do for a date? Something that's not seeing a movie and eating."

Wei Zhiqian replied, "Yo! Let me check outside the window. Did the sun just rise from the west? Did red rain just fall from the sky? Brother Ling actually asked about what to do for dates!"

Han Zhuoling replied, "...Single dogs should not come out and embarrass themselves."

Wei Zhiqian had no words. "..."

It's becoming more and more hostile for singles.

How could they scold people!

Han Zhuoling responded, "I, your brother, had just gotten my marriage certificate. I am now a man with a wife."

Wei Zhiqian replied, "...I know. I know. You don't have to show off."

Han Zhuoling had said it in the group chat yesterday and he just mentioned it again. Was he never going to stop talking about it?

In addition, Wei Zhiqian's grandma had visited him to scold him today!

Wei Zhiqian did not live in the Wei Family home.

He thought he could just avoid his grandma for a few days.

Who would have thought that Old Mrs. Wei would know exactly what he had planned!

Today, she went to his home to find him!

It was supposed to be a rest day for him, which rarely happened. He was going to sleep late at home.

He was home by himself anyway and could do anything.

And so, he did not get out of bed and was just chatting on the bed.

Yet, a pleasure so great resulted in sadness. Indeed, a huge trouble fell on him out of nowhere.

He was still chatting when his grandma suddenly came in with a feather duster and started recklessly beating him.

While this was happening, he thought to himself, how fortunate it was that he usually slept with his pajamas on and was not in the habit of sleeping naked.

Otherwise, it would have been so embarrassing when Old Mrs. Wei barged in.

"Grandma! I am an adult! How can you simply barge into my room!" Wei Zhiqian had wrapped himself in his blanket as he asked this pitifully.

Old Mrs. Wei did not normally behave this way. She barged in because what happened yesterday made her too angry.

"Even if you are very old, you are still my grandson!" Old Mrs. Wei scolded as she shook the feather duster.. "Aren't you embarrassed to call yourself an adult? If you are an adult, why don't you do some things that adults do! Why don't you go dating?"

Chapter 2745: You Deserve to Be Single!

“This is a weekend, but you’re not going out to get girls and instead playing with your phone on the bed?” Old Mrs. Wei saw him like this. She expected better from him. “I tell you, a hermit does not have a future!”

Wei Zhiqian had no words. “...”

“I am always busy with work usually. Now that I can finally rest, I want to just rest at home.” Wei Zhiqian felt innocent.

“If you don’t go out, how are you going meet young girls?” said Old Mrs. Wei. “Look at Han Zhuoling. You always say that he is a workaholic, but even while he was working, he could still get Xiaoya! You work hard and also rest hard. What about the girls? Where are the girls?”

Wei Zhiqian had no words. “...”

The old lady of his house was guilt-tripping him without giving him a chance to explain!

Old Mrs. Wei said, “I give you ten minutes. Dress up nicely and get out of the house!”

After Old Mrs. Wei finished, she left his room

Wei Zhiqian had no words. “...”

Who did he provoke this weekend?

Not only could he not rest properly, but he was even kicked out of the house by his own grandma!

But Wei Zhiqian did not dare to disobey Old Mrs. Wei.

So he could only quickly tidy up and leave the house under Old Mrs. Wei’s watch.

Old Mrs. Wei was still standing by the door, sending Wei Zhiqian out.

She even said to Wei Zhiqian, “I am going to wait here today. Don’t you come back early!”

Wei Zhiqian had no words. “...”

How did it feel to have a home but not be able to go back to it?

Now he finally felt it.

So when Han Zhuoling asked what else could be done during a date besides eating and seeing a movie, Wei Zhiqian was sitting bitterly in a cafe.

How could he know what else could be done?

If he knew, he would not be sitting alone here drinking coffee.

Wei Zhiqian was staring at his phone, gritting his teeth at Han Zhuoling through the screen.

Suddenly, a shadow covered him from above.

Wei Zhiqian raised his head and saw a pretty lady standing in front of him.

She was smiling at him.

Wei Zhiqian had no words. "..."

What was she doing, smiling at him for no reason?

Then she said, "Sir, there are no seats left in the store. May I sit here?"

Wei Zhiqian said without thinking twice, "Sorry, I want to be alone for a while. This whole street is filled with cafes; you can just randomly find another one."

After he finished speaking, he continued looking down at his phone.

The lady was speechless.

If Old Mrs. Wei was here, she would have grabbed him by the ear and reprimanded him. "You deserve to be single!"

Did he not know what the lady meant when she wanted to sit here?

He even wanted her to go to another shop.

Doomed to be alone forever!

Luckily, Old Mrs. Wei was not here, or else she would have died from depression.

Seeing the response of her grandson, when would he be able to find a wife?

Would he really not find one his whole life?

Then, Qi Chengzhi came out. "We're all bringing kids to the amusement park to play right now. You reminded me that I need to have a date with Xiao Yu, just the two of us in our own world."

Yan Beicheng: "I want to go to the holiday village in the Beijing suburbs with Nian Nian, have a dip in the hot springs, and have a vacation there for two days. Just the two of us, relaxing."

Han Zhuoling looked at all these suggestions and thought that the hot springs were not bad.

And Shi Xiaoya was currently chatting with Guo Yujie.

Guo Yujie was single, but she had dated before.

She was just single now.

Guo Yujie told Shi Xiaoya that she did everything when she dated.

"We even went to the amusement park. Don't think that it's childish to go there after you're an adult," said Guo Yujie..

Chapter 2746: What Kind of Vibe?

Shi Xiaoya liked it a lot. She was just busy with work and had no time.

In addition, it was no fun to go to an amusement park by herself.

It would only be fun to go with friends.

However, the amusement park that she wanted to go to was far away, and it was very difficult to get a group together.

When Guo Yujie reminded her of this, Shi Xiaoya almost slapped herself on the leg.

Right!

She could get Han Zhuoling to go with her!

She was single before and had had no one to accompany her.

But now, not only was she not single, she had even become someone with a husband!

What could she possibly want to do? Obviously, she wanted her husband to stay by her side!

Such a day was rare and this was a good opportunity. Shi Xiaoya said to Guo Yujie happily, "Okay. I get it!"

Guo Yujie blinked. What could she possibly be getting?

"I will ask Zhuoling to take me to the amusement park for a date," Shi Xiaoya said.

Guo Yujie felt speechless.

Han Zhuoling being seen in an amusement park? What kind of vibe would this give?

Guo Yujie felt herself running out of imagination thinking this.

Shi Xiaoya locked her phone and stared at Han Zhuoling with a smile.

Han Zhuoling lifted his eyes from his phone screen and saw Shi Xiaoya's smiley face. Immediately, he was overcome by this ominous feeling.

Then, he heard Shi Xiaoya ask with a smile, "Did you think about where to go?"

Seeing her expression, Han Zhuoling knew that she had an idea. He then asked, "What about you? Do you have any ideas?"

Initially, if Shi Xiaoya had no thoughts or ideas...

They would then visit the hot springs.

Who would have thought that Shi Xiaoya would say the following! "Can we go to the amusement park?"

Han Zhuoling was speechless. "..."

Earlier, Qi Chengzhi had just mentioned that the amusement park was a place that parents went to with their kids.

He had never expected that Shi Xiaoya would make this request.

“There is a theme park located at the outskirts of the city. There are only five of these amusement parks in the world and the fifth one is located here. I have been wanting to go,” Shi Xiaoya said. “But it felt weird to go alone and I didn’t have anyone to go with me.”

Although Shi Nancang showered her with love, they were part of different social circles.

Plus, she felt embarrassed to drag her brother to the amusement park with her at this age.

“Therefore, I had never been there since its opening,” Shi Xiaoya said.

However, Han Zhuoling had never been to any amusements parks, not to mention this theme park.

“Please! Can you please go with me?” Shi Xiaoya held Han Zhuoling’s wrist and shook his hand back and forth. She lifted her finger and gestured the number 1.

It’s just an amusement park.

It’s no big deal.

Han Zhuoling nodded as he responded, “Sure.”

Shi Xiaoya was so happy that she pounced onto his arms and gave him a kiss.

The two changed their clothes and left the house.

The theme park was huge. If a visitor truly wanted to have fun, they would need two whole days to try all the rides.

As for Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya, they left the house at noon. And so, they wouldn’t be able to try everything.

However, Shi Xiaoya just wanted to enjoy the feeling of being in an amusement park. She never had the goal of trying a certain number of amusement park rides.

And so, it did not matter.

However, because this theme park was truly too popular, one would need to line up for two hours to try out the popular rides.

The unpopular amusement rides would have a shorter queue, and it would usually take forty to fifty minutes.

Fortunately, a visitor could buy a fast-track ticket at the official website.

Therefore, Shi Xiaoya opened up the official website while they were on the way there.

The official website provided the choices of fast-track tickets for two rides, four rides, or seven rides..

Chapter 2747: Prepare Yourself

The Rapid Seven included the seven popular rides in the theme park.

Shi Xiaoya took a glance and thought that two and four rides were too few. There were still a few more things that she wanted to try which were not included inside.

The seven rides package included everything.

So she bought two tickets and two fast passes for the seven rides.

Even on weekdays, the theme park was full of tourists.

Today was Saturday, and there were even more people in the theme park.

However, it was the first time Shi Xiaoya came and she was so excited that her excitement could not be extinguished by the sea of people in the theme park.

Actually, this theme park was more catered to adults.

There were areas that were suitable for children to play in.

But most rides were pretty extreme.

As he watched the roller coaster fly by in front of him, he thought to himself that, luckily, he wore casual clothes today.

Shi Xiaoya was curious whether Han Zhuoling's expression would still be the same if he sat on that roller coaster.

She checked the rides on the fast pass and, coincidentally, this was one of them.

She immediately dragged Han Zhuoling to the entrance. "Let's go for this one first, okay? As a warm up."

Han Zhuoling looked up at the criss-cross track. "..."

"Let's go." Han Zhuoling held Shi Xiaoya's hand.

Shi Xiaoya asked, "Have you not tried these before?"

"Nope," said Han Zhuoling. "I haven't even passed by the entrance of a theme park before."

"I used to be afraid of this type, but after sitting on the cableway at Tianmen Mountain, I am no longer afraid of these," said Shi Xiaoya, smiling. "It was terrifying when I saw the cableway to the mountaintop. The route was really high up and long. Outside were pillars of mountains, tons of them. However, after getting used to it, I was fine when I sat the cableway down. And after that, I dare to ride roller coasters and other stuff."

"I have never tried all of these before." Han Zhuoling frowned slightly. "So I'm not sure whether I am scared."

"As expected. You don't look like someone who has been to a theme park before," said Shi Xiaoya.

Because of the fast pass, they were in a much faster queue than the normal queue beside them, although they still had to queue up for around ten minutes.

Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling sat down. Shi Xiaoya still felt a little nervous when she sat down.

Upon hearing the reminder that they were about to set out, Shi Xiaoya grabbed the handle tightly.

During the whole process, Shi Xiaoya was screaming at the top of her lungs with her eyes opened.

When they stopped, Shi Xiaoya felt conflicted; she felt nervous as if she had had a close brush with death, and that feeling was still lingering.

But at the same time, she felt free.

She could scream carelessly like just now; it was a way of venting, which she did not have many chances to do.

When she had just gotten down, Shi Xiaoya's legs were still a little shaky.

She almost fell when she went down the stairs.

Luckily, Han Zhuoling was right beside her and held her.

Shi Xiaoya turned around and saw that Han Zhuoling's expression was still the same. Surprised, she asked, "You don't have any reaction at all? You're not scared?"

She remembered that she did not hear Han Zhuoling scream as well.

Han Zhuoling thought that even if he was really scared, he could not scream as he needed to maintain his strong image in front of his wife.

"It's okay." Han Zhuoling's face was calm.

Only he himself knew that at the climax, he still tensed up.

"Anyway, prepare yourself," said Han Zhuoling..

Chapter 2748: The Contrast Was Huge

Shi Xiaoya pouted and smiled. She hugged Han Zhuoling's arm. It could also help with her jelly legs right now.

The two of them played around carefreely.

Shi Xiaoya bought the fast pass.

But they did not have to finish all the rides.

They walked around slowly, going for rides that they passed by.

As they were strolling, they passed by a souvenir shop. Shi Xiaoya dragged Han Zhuoling inside.

She chose a hat of a minion and wore it. There were two ways to wear this hat. Normally, it could be worn facing front, like a normal cap.

But if you flipped the hat around, it would become the hat of a minion. It was really interesting.

Shi Xiaoya also took another one and put it on Han Zhuoling.

Han Zhuoling looked into the mirror and saw how stupid he looked wearing the hat.

His first response was to take it off.

“Don’t take it off!” Shi Xiaoya stopped him immediately. “It’s so cute to wear it! Since we’re in a theme park, we should go back to being kids!”

Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling stood in front of the mirror.

Han Zhuoling looked into the mirror. The more he looked, the more he got used to it. He suddenly felt that it did not seem that stupid to wear the same hat as Shi Xiaoya.

Han Zhuoling looked at the picture Shi Xiaoya had taken. She had captured the perfect moment.

Shi Xiaoya was smiling sweetly at the mirror, and Han Zhuoling was not smiling at all.

Because he was not used to wearing a hat like this as it was for the first time, he even felt a little uneasy.

So Han Zhuoling’s pose was extremely stiff.

But the one standing beside him was Shi Xiaoya.

When Han Zhuoling saw Shi Xiaoya in the mirror, he still smiled despite how uneasy he felt wearing the stupid hat.

His eyes were smiling too.

That moment was unintentionally captured by Shi Xiaoya.

Shi Xiaoya did not expect that she could capture such a good scene unintentionally.

Even if Han Zhuoling’s expression was not very obvious, people would still think that it was such an affectionate scene.

“I took such a good picture,” said Shi Xiaoya happily.

“Yup, my wifey took a good picture.” Han Zhuoling nodded, agreeing to her seriously.

A couple passed by.

The woman saw that Han Zhuoling looked like he had strong survival instincts, agreeing to his wife no matter what she said, and the woman laughed.

She even whispered to her boyfriend, “Look at his determination. His wife is right no matter what she says. Learn something from him. Don’t give me the cold shoulder and say that I take hundreds of selfies every day and that I am a narcissist whenever I take a selfie. You must compliment me more.”

They were unsure how the boyfriend replied to her as the couple had walked away.

“...” Han Zhuoling pinched his eyebrows and said to Shi Xiaoya hurriedly, “I am not just trying to make you happy; you really did take a good picture. Of course, it’s because you look so good, that’s why the picture is good no matter how you took it.”

Everyone was speechless.

This man looked arrogant and cold, as if he was not someone to be messed with, but he was unexpectedly so scared of his wife.

Shi Xiaoya did not care how Han Zhuoling praised her. She just liked the fact that Han Zhuoling would always praise her whenever he had the chance.

The two of them strolled around carefreely. They did not have a mission to finish all the rides anyway.

When all the tourists were exhausted and drenched with sweat, the two of them found a cafe and sat inside, enjoying the cold air from the air conditioner..

Chapter 2749: He Felt That This Was a Losing Proposition

The waiter came to take the order.

Han Zhuoling wanted an Americano.

But Shi Xiaoya was not used to the taste of Americano; it was too bitter.

So she wanted a caramel macchiato.

When the coffee came, Shi Xiaoya was examining the picture that she took.

It was probably just like what Han Zhuoling had said. Because the people looked good, the picture looked good no matter how it was taken.

She had taken pictures of Han Zhuoling a few times, and every one of them was pretty good.

Every angle looked good. There was not a single bad angle.

In the pictures, because the focus was on her, the others looked inevitably a little blurry.

It made him stand out even more.

Using these rare opportunities, Shi Xiaoya even took a few selfies with him.

Han Zhuoling always smiled at her usually.

But unsure of the reason, he would stop smiling when they were taking pictures.

He looked extremely serious.

But he was still handsome.

However, in the pictures, it seemed funny that she was smiling while he had a serious expression.

Shi Xiaoya laughed as she looked.

“What are you laughing at?” She laughed even when looking at the phone by herself.

Who was she talking to that was so funny?

Most importantly, who was it?

Who was it that could make her laugh?

Han Zhuoling really cared about this.

Shi Xiaoya flipped her phone and showed him. “I am looking at our pictures. You smile at me so nicely usually, but you can’t smile when we take pictures.”

Han Zhuoling saw that it was really so. “I can’t smile when looking at the camera.”

“But I am inside too. You can’t smile even when looking at me?” asked Shi Xiaoya.

Han Zhuoling was speechless. “...”

“Then let’s take a few more pictures. I will smile,” said Han Zhuoling immediately.

He even got up and sat down on the sofa next to Shi Xiaoya.

He leaned towards Shi Xiaoya.

Shi Xiaoya took out her phone and took a selfie with him.

There were many customers in the cafe. After all, there were so many visitors in the theme park; the business of every shop must be great.

Han Zhuoling was the type of person that seemed very dependable and mature.

Unexpectedly, this type of man would also enjoy taking selfies with a young lady.

After Shi Xiaoya continuously took a few pictures, she checked the results.

After looking at the few pictures that they had just taken, Shi Xiaoya turned around and looked at Han Zhuoling. “I think you shouldn’t smile when you take pictures in the future.”

Han Zhuoling was speechless. “...”

“Why? Does it look bad?” asked Han Zhuoling, dissatisfied.

Not only did Shi Xiaoya praise him every day, saying that he looked good, but even when he looked in the mirror, he also thought that he looked pretty good.

How could he not look good in pictures?

“You look more natural when you don’t smile,” said Shi Xiaoya with difficulty. “Usually, you look pretty natural when you smile at me, but why do you look so stiff in pictures?”

Han Zhuoling was speechless. “...”

No wonder Han Zhuoling never smiled when he appeared in pictures in newspapers and magazines.

Shi Xiaoya did not dare to say that when Han Zhuoling smiled forcefully, he looked pretty perverted.

Finally, Shi Xiaoya picked out nine pictures.

They included the pictures of the two and some pictures of the theme park.

Among the pictures, there was the mirror selfie of the two wearing the minion hats in the store.

The original picture was too good, so there was no need to edit.

Even if they edited it, it would not look better than now.

So Shi Xiaoya just adjusted the filter and posted the nine pictures.

She posted on her feed: “Newlyweds going on a date..”

Chapter 2750: The Brothers of the Han Family Crossed the Line

Before she could respond to the likes and comments, she remembered that it had been a while since she had posted on Weibo.

Not including sharing posts.

After showing off her marriage certificate, she had never posted her own pictures.

Then she posted all these on Weibo.

Their picture was placed in the middle of the nine-square grid arrangement.

The eight surrounding pictures were all scenery pictures, and only the one in the center was a picture of people.

So the fans saw it instantly.

The first one that the netizens clicked on was the picture of people.

When they looked at it, they saw that even Han Zhuoling was wearing the minion hat.

The hat was actually not ugly. It was actually beautiful and chic, and it attracted attention the moment it was worn.

But that person was Han Zhuoling!

People could not even imagine how he would look like if he wore a normal hat, not to mention this kind of cute hat.

This brought too much impact to the netizens.

There were also many attentive netizens that found out that Han Zhuoling's expression was dull even though he was wearing this hat.

But his eyes were filled with joy and gentleness.

Even the corner of his mouth had a vague hint of laughter.

He was looking at Shi Xiaoya in the mirror.

The Shi Xiaoya in the mirror was smiling with all she had, and she looked sweet and gorgeous.

It matched Han Zhuoling's expression as it had a feeling of unlimited acceptance.

"Young Master Ling clearly did not have an obvious expression, but I still feel so sweet after looking at it. What do I do?"

"This is you messing around and him laughing."

"The person above, Young Master Ling is not laughing."

"Replying to the person above, his eyes are smiling."

"His eyes contain a hint of joy and you."

"This hat must have been put on Young Master Ling by Xiaoya. He was even willing to do that; he must love her a lot."

"Newlyweds are so sweet."

"This makes me want to go meet someone by chance!"

"The brothers of the Han Family, you crossed the line! We saw Han Zhuoli making supper for Lu Man at midnight, and today, we saw Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya taking cute selfies. Have you ever considered the feelings of single dogs? @Society for the Protection of Small Animals."

"Hahahahahaha, the person above, what do you mean by tagging this?"

"Single dogs are small animals too! [dog head emoji]"

Shi Xiaoya laughed because of the netizens.

The two of them finished their coffee and had passed the time when it was the hottest outside.

Now, it was almost four, and the temperature was starting to become cooler.

Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling continued to stroll around.

They used their fast pass to get on three more rides. Then, as they were walking aimlessly in the theme park, they came across a haunted house.

Strictly speaking, this haunted house was called the scary hospital.

Shi Xiaoya went to look at the advertisement sign at the entrance.

It was written that this scary hospital had specifically invited people from a country that was famous for making horror movies, and it was specially designed.

It included scenes and characters from that country's classic horror movies.

To make it as original as possible, they even used the names.

Or else it would feel like a play.

Shi Xiaoya stood at the entrance, looking at this hospital building, which looked creepy from outside, and was thinking about whether to go in or not.

She was curious and wanted to go inside and take a look, but she did not have the courage.

She knew that if she really entered, she would not sleep well tonight.

"Want to go in and take a look?" asked Han Zhuoling after seeing Shi Xiaoya's conflicting response.

"I... I am a little curious, but I don't dare to enter." Shi Xiaoya pointed at one of the movies on the advertisement sign..
