

Mr Han 2791

Chapter 2791: Extremely Difficult

“Now that I have the evidence, of course I won’t go back to him. However, I am afraid that he will bring trouble to my family, so I have rented a house beforehand and I will bring my parents there to stay to prevent him from harassing them.” Jiang Yujie pursed her lips.

“This is not a small matter. After all, I know what Lu Qiyuan is like, so I don’t underestimate how shameless he can be,” said Jiang Yujie. “I have thus prepared very early on. Before there’s a result, I will hide with my family and will not go to work.”

Her original job was in Lu Qiyuan’s company.

She obviously could not go anymore.

The rent for the house was paid from Jiang Yujie’s own pocket.

As she had been with Lu Qiyuan, naturally, Lu Qiyuan had to give Jiang Yujie some pocket money.

Jiang Yujie did not pretend to be pure. She used the pocket money he gave for her daily expenses.

But she was not lavish. If there was some leftover, she would leave it without planning to save it.

She forced herself to spend Lu Qiyuan’s money, because she wanted to save her own salary for renting the house.

From the moment she decided to be with Lu Qiyuan, she had already started planning her escape in the future.

From leaving Lu Qiyuan to the time when he would go to jail, she had to have a place to hide.

So she did not spend a single cent of her salary.

She could only spend Lu Qiyuan’s money.

Due to this, she felt disgusted when she spent his money, so besides spending on daily needs, she did not use most of it.

She did not plan to take away the leftover as well.

The salary that she had earned herself was enough for the rent for some time.

She just had to wait for Lu Qiyuan to be dealt with and sent to jail.

Once Jiang Huaizhou was released from jail, there probably would not be good jobs for him.

After all, he had a history of entering jail, and people would not care whether he was framed or not.

But as long as they worked hard as a family, they would be able to live a decent life.

At that time, she would find another job. Without Lu Qiyuan in the way, it should not be hard to find a good job with her resume.

Jiang Yujie thought about her life in the future and felt that there would be more happiness than suffering.

That was enough.

Han Zhuoli did not hesitate. He knew that Jiang Yujie must be concerned about it, but she was just too embarrassed to rush them.

In front of her, Han Zhuoli contacted Mo Jingcheng.

To be safe, Han Zhuoli even made another copy.

Jiang Yujie saw with her own eyes that Han Zhuoli had submitted the evidence to Mo Jingcheng.

Mo Jingcheng was already the assistant director; various departments were naturally under his charge.

So it was definitely not wrong to give it to him.

“I will ask someone to send you back first,” Lu Man said to Jiang Yujie.

Jiang Yujie shook her head. The evidence was submitted and it was Mo Jingcheng whom it was given to, so Jiang Yujie was already relieved.

Mo Jingcheng was the assistant director and was the next director by default; it was obvious.

Mo Jingcheng’s father was a general in the army.

A man like him would not allow someone to use unfair tricks under their watch.

For the first time, Jiang Yujie felt that she was so near to her family reuniting.

She was completely relaxed.

Because of that, she could even smile. “I can just go back by myself. There’s nothing to worry about now. I have already troubled you with so much, I can’t do that anymore.”

Only God knew how extremely difficult it was for her to smile when she’d had to cope with Lu Qiyuan.

She was always forcing herself to smile.

Jiang Yujie even felt that she probably had the potential to be an actress..

Chapter 2792: A Cruel and Unscrupulous Person

Seeing that Jiang Yujie insisted, Lu Man did not say more.

She only urged her, “If you have anything that you need help with, let me know. As long as Lu Qiyuan is not caught, you can’t say that you’re safe, so during this time, please don’t be courteous to me. Don’t be scared to trouble me.”

Lu Man smiled. "Honestly, you have already asked me for help for such a big thing. You have already troubled me with most of the things, so it doesn't matter if you do it one or two more times. Since I am already involved in this, I will help you until the end.

"Besides, I am Lu Qiyuan's blood-related daughter, but he dared to touch me without holding back." Lu Man laughed sarcastically. Not to mention what he did to his ex-wife Xia Qingwei.

In the past, Xia Qingwei had already divorced Lu Qiyuan.

But no matter what, she was the wife that went through hard times with him.

In his hardest times, she was the one who held on to him.

Ignoring the fact that Lu Qiyuan could abandon her without any hesitation, he even hurt her like that after a decade.

"Lu Qiyuan is a cruel and unscrupulous man," said Lu Man coldly. "So as long as he's not caught and has not lost his freedom, as long as he's still outside, there's no saying what he will do."

Jiang Yujie thought about it. Of course she would not put on a tough front in this kind of matter. She said, "I will be careful and try my best to avoid it. If... if I can't hide, then I will be shameless and ask for your help again."

Lu Man smiled.

Jiang Yujie did not know about Lu Man's pregnancy.

But seeing that she was in Han Zhuoli's office, she felt that she should not disturb them.

She also had a lot of things to deal with, so she left.

Jiang Yujie rushed out of the Han Corporation to drive back to her parents' place.

Ever since Xia Qingyang created that mess, they became the butt of the neighbors' jokes.

Jiang Yujie's parents had asked her to break up with Lu Qiyuan only to be declined by Jiang Yujie.

Her parents were so angry that they did not want to recognize her as their daughter. Jiang Yujie had never returned since then.

That time, because of the gossip of the neighbors, Jiang Yujie wanted to pick up her parents and move to a different place.

However, her father was stubborn and did not want to leave.

Thinking about this, Jiang Yujie let out a huge sigh.

She returned today to persuade her parents to leave.

But this was different from last time. This time, she must bring her parents away.

And she had to be quick.

Lu Qiyuan would soon discover that she had taken away the evidence.

Even if it was just a copy, Jiang Yujie had already decided not to return to him. How could Lu Qiyuan not feel that something was strange?

So she must take her parents and move houses immediately today.

Or else, she wouldn't be at ease.

Lu Qiyuan knew where her parents stayed.

Jiang Yujie regretted the flaw in her plan. She should not have let Lu Qiyuan know.

With a heavy burden in her heart, Jiang Yujie parked the car below her parents' house.

It was the summer holiday, and the children were very free.

The compound was filled with five- or six-year-old kids playing around downstairs.

Only kids this old would come out to play during this time.

Kids who are this age could not group up and go somewhere far themselves.

Their parents would be worried, so they only allowed them to play downstairs.

As for kids who are older, they would group up to go watch a movie, go to a theme park or to various fun places.. Who would still play around downstairs?

Chapter 2793: Are They Even Educated

And it was at this age that kids could not hide anything.

Many of them did not even care about manners.

They did not know what they could say and what they could not.

They only copied what their elders said at home.

Jiang Yujie parked her car and got out.

Those kids recognized her.

After all, when Jiang Yujie got together with Lu Qiyuan, she had just graduated.

When she went to school, she stayed here.

So, upon seeing her, a brat pointed at her. "It's her, it's the vixen. Shameless!"

"It's her, I recognize her! Some man's mistress!"

These were all kids who were five or six years old. At such a young age, did they even know what mistress meant?

“Vixen, who’s together with an old man!”

“My mom said to not learn from her! Embarrassment!”

“Mistress, she’s a mistress!” A little boy hopped around and pointed at her.

The parents and elders at home talked frequently about how Jiang Yujie was taken in by an old man for money.

She wore glamorous clothes and even drove.

But she was still a mistress. It was shameful.

Besides, she did not seem to be bringing back money to her family.

Because of this, people did not see her in a good light.

As she faced the criticisms of these kids, Jiang Yujie’s expression did not change for even one second.

They looked like kids, but she felt like these faces that looked so innocent were actually the most innocent devils in the world.

“Whose kids are these?! It’s outrageous! Are they even educated?” Mrs. Jiang rushed out and held Jiang Yujie, protecting her while scolding those kids.

The buildings in this poor compound were not tall.

The shouting of the kids was heard clearly by Jiang Yujie’s mother at home.

Her heart jumped, thinking that Jiang Yujie was back.

Ever since they argued and separated, they had no idea if Jiang Yujie was really angry at them or just did not want to come back to enrage them, and that was why she had not returned since.

Mr. Jiang was stubborn, but Mrs. Jiang could not just let her daughter go.

Her mother would secretly call Jiang Yujie while Mr. Jiang was not home.

In the end, she still missed her daughter.

She wanted her daughter to visit.

So when she heard the noises of the kids downstairs, she leaned over the window to take a look.

Jiang Yujie was really back.

How could Mrs. Jiang watch Jiang Yujie being bullied?

She rushed down immediately.

Those kids did not think they were wrong and even stuck out their tongue at her.

“She is a mistress!”

“She’s shameless!”

“We can say whatever we want! Your family is bad for bringing up a daughter like this!”

“Whose kids are you? These words are all spoken by the adults at home, right?” said Mrs. Jiang furiously.

She did not believe that these immature kids could know about these by themselves.

Either it was taught by the adults at home...

Or when the adults at home were talking, they did not keep their kids away, causing the kids to listen to everything.

When the kids came out, they copied the adults.

No matter which one it was, it was enraging!

Mrs. Jiang was about to follow the kids to ask the people at their home what their intention was.

But Jiang Yujie pulled her. “Mom, let’s go home. I have something to tell you.”

Seeing her serious expression, Mrs. Jiang froze, thinking that she had broken up with Lu Qiyuan.

However, there was no sign of sadness on her face. Instead, she looked refreshed and even happy, so it did not look like something bad had happened..

Chapter 2794: How Could It Be True Love?

Mrs. Jiang was confused.

“Fine.” Mrs. Jiang nodded and went upstairs with Jiang Yujie.

But if Mrs. Jiang was honest, she really hoped that Jiang Yujie came back this time because she had broken up with Lu Qiyuan.

So she returned to make up with them.

Even though Jiang Yujie’s eyes look refreshed, her face was pale.

Her eyes were red and swollen, like she had just cried.

Mrs. Jiang felt strange.

When she heard the shouting of those kids, she’d felt furious.

But now that she had calmed down, she knew that even if she was angry, she could not go to people’s houses to question them.

It was Jiang Yujie who did those things, bringing them shame.

It’s true that they should not criticize her like that.

But her family did not have any confidence to refute.

Mrs. Jiang let out a huge sigh. Her eye bags were slightly flushed, and her head was down as two teardrops dripped secretly.

The stairs were narrow, so only one person could walk at a time. Two people could walk at a time, but it was just a little cramped.

So Mrs. Jiang and Jiang Yujie walked one after the other.

Mrs. Jiang walked in front and secretly wiped away her tears.

"You..." said Mrs. Jiang. "You came back because you broke up with that man?"

Jiang Yujie paused for a few seconds and said, "Let's talk when we're inside."

Mrs. Jiang did not say anything else.

The two rushed upstairs. Mrs. Jiang was scared that there would be neighbors coming out to watch, so she sped up.

When the two entered, Mr. Jiang came out from the living room.

Seeing Jiang Yujie, he had a long face. "You're back this time because you broke up with that man? I told you before, if you don't break up, you can't come back!"

"Yes, I broke up with him," said Jiang Yujie.

Mrs. Jiang was surprised. The tears that she had held back flowed out.

Mrs. Jiang cried as she hugged Jiang Yujie. "Good, good. It's good that you broke up. Yujie, don't do stupid things like that again. Even if we don't have any money, our lives are not miserable. You can find someone of a similar age and live an ordinary life. It's so good."

Mr. Jiang paused for a while and said, "It's good that you broke up."

"After a while, when this thing dies down, there will be fewer gossips too," said Mr. Jiang.

Jiang Yujie nudged Mrs. Jiang.

Mrs. Jiang let her go as she heard Jiang Yujie say, "I didn't get together with him for money."

Mr. Jiang said angrily, "How could it be true love?"

That old man, even if he had maintained his health, he was still old.

Jiang Yujie, a young lady who had just graduated, truly in love with Lu Qiyuan?

Mr. Jiang paused as he remembered that Jiang Yujie had not dated before.

She had no experience and was naive when it came to relationships. Upon meeting Lu Qiyuan, who was a mature man with a successful business, her true love was taken away as she was bewitched by Lu Qiyuan.

“Don’t say anything more.” Mrs. Jiang tried to convince Mr. Jiang. “It’s good that she broke up with him. Let’s start fresh and forget the past.

“Yujie, you’re doing fine. Don’t be tricked by Lu Qiyuan’s sweet words. If he comes to find you again... don’t believe him no matter what,” Mrs. Jiang said to Jiang Yujie.

Mrs. Jiang turned around to discuss with Mr. Jiang. “Even though the gossips may be gone after a long time, we still have to endure for a long time after all. How can we not allow Yujie to come back until the rumors are gone? Besides, even if there are fewer rumors, if Yujie appears, the people around will still talk behind her back..”

Chapter 2795: Hidden Deep

Honestly, even if Jiang Yujie did not come back, Mrs. Jiang had had enough of the judgemental glances and gossips of those people.

“The two of us are still staying here, but I’ve had enough of their words,” said Mrs. Jiang. “Since we want to start fresh, then let’s move houses. We’ll just rent a house outside first, then sell this house through an agency. After selling it, we can take a look and buy a suitable house. Let’s move somewhere nobody knows us. We can start fresh.”

Mrs. Jiang’s face was full of hope. Mr. Jiang also pondered, very tempted to agree.

In the past, Jiang Yujie was not willing to leave Lu Qiyuan, so Mr. Jiang held on and did not leave this place.

He wanted Jiang Yujie to feel uncomfortable inside.

Did she not insist on staying together with Lu Qiyuan?

Could she watch her parents being criticized and looked down on by people while feeling justified and at ease being with Lu Qiyuan?

But now, Jiang Yujie had already broken up with Lu Qiyuan, so Mr. Jiang was unwilling to stay here to continue enduring the insulting words and judgemental glances.

“Alright, let’s move,” said Mr. Jiang. “But we won’t use the money that you got from Lu Qiyuan. We have the money to rent the house. Once we have sold this house, if we can buy another house, then we will buy it. If we can’t, then we will keep on renting. In conclusion, we don’t want Lu Qiyuan’s money!”

“I didn’t take his money. Every cent that I have now was earned and saved by myself,” said Jiang Yujie.

Jiang Yujie paused and said, “I didn’t get together with him for the money.”

Mr. Jiang wanted to say something but Jiang Yujie stopped him and said immediately, “Listen to me first.

“If I’d said this before, you might not have believed me, but now, I have fulfilled my goal and I have done everything I can do, so I think I can already tell you,” said Jiang Yujie.

“What is it?” asked Mrs. Jiang hurriedly.

“My older brother was framed,” said Jiang Yujie. “He was framed by Lu Qiyuan. When I went to visit my brother before, I asked him whether there was anything fishy. He only told me about his suspicions about Lu Qiyuan after I asked him a few times.

“You know Big Brother’s character; he would never do something wrong like that. He was framed, and I can’t let him stay in jail, suffering for something that he didn’t do.”

“You...” Mrs. Jiang froze. She did not expect that Jiang Yujie had done it for Jiang Huaizhou.

But for Jiang Huaizhou, she made such a huge sacrifice.

“You did it for Huaizhou?” asked Mr. Jiang, dumbfounded.

“First, I went to Lu Qiyuan’s company and was successfully hired. While I was his assistant, I found some clues, but other than that, I didn’t acquire anything. I knew that such an important thing must be hidden deep by him,” said Jiang Yujie.

“However, since it’s such an important evidence, why did he keep it?” Mr. Jiang did not understand.

Mr. Jiang was old, and his experience and knowledge were not as adequate as Jiang Yujie’s.

After all, Jiang Yujie had experienced many things.

So he could not understand.

Jiang Yujie said, “To frame my brother, how could he do it alone? The suspicions that even my brother could think of, how could nobody think of it back then? And I have seen the evidence. There were many loose ends..”

Chapter 2796: Took Things Too Hard

“If we investigated it in detail, we’d see that Lu Qiyuan could never have framed him successfully. Back then, we found a lawyer too, but my brother was still sent to jail. What does this tell you? It means that there were people who helped Lu Qiyuan. Either he cleared off the loose ends or he bribed someone.

“Which meant Lu Qiyuan must keep this evidence. If anything happened, it would be his life-saver. With that, as long as those who helped him back then do not want to be involved, they have to keep on helping him,” explained Jiang Yujie.

Mr. Jiang was silent. He understood.

“I discovered that if I stayed only as his assistant, I didn’t know how long I’d have to endure; perhaps even after my brother is out, I still wouldn’t have found any evidence. This is not just a problem of my brother’s freedom, it’s about his reputation. Even after he is released, he has to live his life with the label of someone who committed a crime and was sent to jail.

“I know that even if I found the evidence and overturned the verdict, there would still be people who won’t believe him or misunderstand him. But at least we would have done it,” said Jiang Yujie. “And I also want to prove my brother’s innocence as soon as possible. If he can be freed earlier, why must he suffer in jail? He’s clearly innocent.”

“So you...” Mr. Jiang’s voice was hoarse, as though his words were stuck in his throat, unable to come out.

Jiang Yujie nodded. “So I seduced Lu Qiyuan. As only his assistant, I didn’t know how many years it would have taken to gain his trust, and I couldn’t have obtained the evidence that he has hidden. I became his woman and stayed by his side. In that way, I gained his trust easily.

“Plus, his relationship with Xia Qingyang was getting worse. The more Xia Qingyang fought with him, the more he thought that I was good.” He even thought of marrying her.

But how could she marry a jerk like him!

Just being with him, she had to try her best to not puke!

“Slowly, he trusted me more. That gave me a chance to finally obtain the evidence,” said Jiang Yujie. “Since I have the evidence already, naturally, I won’t need to be by his side, pretending.”

“You...” Mrs. Jiang’s mouth twitched as her face got covered in tears.

She did not even think of the possibility that Jiang Yujie and Lu Qiyuan got together for this reason.

“Yujie, why did you...” Mrs. Jiang could not speak.

She wanted to say, why did Jiang Yujie take things so hard?

Even if she wanted to say it’s for Jiang Huaizhou, how could... she involve herself.

She gave her all to be with Lu Qiyuan...

This was such a huge sacrifice!

But... but Jiang Yujie was saving Jiang Huaizhou, so Mrs. Jiang could not say anything.

“Then... then now... that you have the evidence, Huaizhou...” Mr. Jiang asked Jiang Yujie hesitantly.

Jiang Yujie had made such a huge sacrifice, and Mr. Jiang did not feel good.

However, he was also concerned about Jiang Huaizhou.

Jiang Yujie finally exhaled and smiled. “I have submitted the evidence. Regarding this, I asked for help from others. They are very dependable.”

She did not tell them about Lu Man, even if they were her parents.

After all, no matter who Lu Qiyuan was, he was still Lu Man’s blood-related father.

It was not like she did not trust her parents..

Chapter 2797: Because of Her Selfishness

She was just worried that they would not be able to keep the secret and would accidentally spill the beans, telling others about Lu Man. That would not be good.

“Then... then... your brother...” said Mrs. Jiang, frozen.

“Yes.” Jiang Yujie smiled and choked. “It must work this time. My brother is coming out. He’s going to be free soon.”

Mrs. Jiang’s lips were shaking.

The fact that Jiang Huaizhou could be released and gain his innocence made one feel overjoyed.

However, what Jiang Yujie sacrificed and lost could not be regained.

The time she spent with Lu Qiyuan would be the blemish of her life.

Some people would forget, but there would always be people who remembered.

Those who remembered would remember her intentions.

But there would also be people who remembered this stain, not caring why she did it.

This would follow Jiang Yujie forever.

As long as there were people who remembered, there would be people who’d look down on her and attack her using this matter, rubbing salt on her wound.

Jiang Yujie was still so young. She still had to marry and have children.

But with this thing following her, it would be fine if her other half did not know.

But what if he knew?

This would affect her whole life!

Just because of this, Jiang Yujie’s life was going to end too?

Mrs. Jiang thought even more.

“Bam!”

There was a noise suddenly.

Jiang Yujie and Mrs. Jiang both looked over, surprised.

They saw Mr. Jiang giving himself a tight slap.

“Dad!”

“Old Jiang!”

Jiang Yujie and Mrs. Jiang called out at the same time.

Half of Mr. Jiang's face was already swelling. It was even red.

"It's all because I am useless. I couldn't help Huaizhou. I don't have the skills, so Yujie had to choose this way. As a father, I did not trust my own son and did not even understand Huaizhou like Yujie did." Mr. Jiang's eyes were red.

"I am sorry," Mr. Jiang said to Mrs. Jiang. "For my son, Yujie had to..."

Mr. Jiang's eyes were red. "Back then, I promised you that I would be good to Yujie."

Mrs. Jiang shook her head. "What are you talking about? Huaizhou is also my son! Besides, when Huaizhou got into trouble, if you weren't worried about Yujie, how would you not have helped Huaizhou with all you have?"

"If you were all alone or... or Huaizhou was an only child, you would definitely not have cared about other things so much. Even if you were reduced to poverty and there was no result in the end, you would have given it your all to help him," said Mrs. Jiang.

"It's because of us, I know. You couldn't abandon us just to help Huaizhou," said Mrs. Jiang.

When Jiang Huaizhou got into trouble, it was a bottomless pit. Besides, even lawyers who were convincing could not save him; they could only help Jiang Huaizhou reduce his sentence.

"When I married you, you're not the only one who promised to treat Yujie like your own daughter and to treat her well. I also promised to treat Huaizhou well as if he's my own son," said Mrs. Jiang, crying. "I am not good enough. It's me who still had selfishness in the end, being biased towards Yujie."

"So now, Yujie is the one who paid the price. Back then, if I had made up my mind to help Huaizhou with you wholeheartedly, things won't be like this right now." Mrs. Jiang also regretted it.

Because of her selfishness, she could not save Jiang Huaizhou.

Now, it was Jiang Yujie who sacrificed herself to do it..

Chapter 2798: Both of You, I Am Sorry

If time could be turned back, if she could make another choice, she would definitely save Jiang Huaizhou even if she would lose her fortune.

Mr. Jiang shook his head.

Honestly, as a stepmother, Mrs. Jiang already did well.

He could not ask for more.

Furthermore, back then, as a father, he also did not... did not persist until the end.

"It's not like that," said Jiang Yujie, shaking her head. "Back then, even if you tried your best, you could not have saved him."

“Back then... back then, it’s my fault for saying impulsive things. That time, Lu Qiyuan had colluded with others to destroy the evidence against himself. As such, no matter what we could have done back then, it would have been useless. Even if we lost our possessions, we could not have saved him.

“If our family lost everything and had nothing left, there would not be me, and I won’t be able to get near to Lu Qiyuan, not to mention find the evidence and save Big Brother.”

“But you still shouldn’t have...” Mr. Jiang was anxious.

But Jiang Yujie had done it, and it was for Jiang Huaizhou.

If Mr. Jiang still said something bad, he would be cruel.

“I promised you mom that I will treat you like my own daughter, but now, you had to hurt yourself to...” Mr. Jiang, who was a strong man, had tears flowing out from his bloodshot eyes.

He slapped himself again.

“It’s because I am useless, causing you to sacrifice yourself. I even... I even scolded you before,” said Mr. Jiang, crying. “You’re right. What you said before was right. I didn’t believe Huaizhou at first, then I didn’t believe you. You are both my children, I should know you two best.

“Both of you are not people who would go against your moral values for money, but I didn’t believe you, not even one of you.” Mr. Jiang covered his eyes. “I am sorry. Both of you, I am sorry.”

“Dad, don’t say that,” said Jiang Yujie. “You’re already very nice to me. When Mom and I came here, don’t think that I don’t remember because I was young. Actually, I remember everything.

“It was too profound, so I can’t forget. I remember how perturbed I was back then. Mom told me that I was going to have a dad and I would have a new home. Actually, I was afraid, because you were a stranger. I was afraid that you won’t like me and won’t be good to me. I was scared that you would accept my mom but not me.

“I was scared... scared that you would think that I was a burden and only accept me because of my mom. So I was careful. I was afraid to make mistakes, causing you to dislike me and my mom to be troubled. I also knew that you have a son who would be my older brother. I was afraid that he would dislike me.”

Nobody could understand the fear that she had back then. Even Mrs. Jiang could not truly empathize.

And she was so young; her fear of the unknown was so great. Her loneliness hovered around.

“I was afraid that he won’t be happy and won’t accept me. In the end, he won’t even accept my mom.” Children of single parents were known to mature earlier.

She was one of them.

She was not even five years old back then. Before the other kids could even think about all these, she already had so many worries.

"I was also afraid... afraid that you would take my mom away. I was afraid that after she got married, she would not love me because of you. I was afraid that she would... hurt herself, bearing everything just because she wanted you happy.."

Chapter 2799: Protect You for Life

Jiang Yujie cried as she said, "But I am lucky; you're so nice, and Big Brother is also nice. I remember when I first entered this house, you brought me to look at my room, which was specially prepared for me. Big Brother did not reject me either. I still remember what he looked like while saying to a scared me, 'Little sister, from now on, I am your older brother.'

"I know you treat me like your own daughter. You are strict when I make mistakes, but usually, you spoil me. Big Brother also kept protecting me. When I was bullied outside, he would make them pay, avenging me. When he came back full of injuries, he also had to get hit by you. Even then, he still kept on protecting me.

"When we grew older, he graduated from university and started to work. He told me that it's hard to buy a house in B City. We're just an ordinary family, so he didn't want you to buy him a house. Instead, he wanted you to leave the money for me. He didn't want this house as well and wanted to leave it to me. He worked hard by himself. He's a man and he could earn to pay for his daily needs. I'm a girl and I didn't need to worry too much, as long as I was happy. Perhaps he couldn't really make me a princess, but he was willing to try his best to make my life easy.

"However, this house was originally his," said Jiang Yujie. "Even blood-related siblings are not as good to each other as he is to me. Dad, you and my brother have never made me feel like I was an outsider. You have never made me feel like I was not blood-related.

"We're a family, but I still can't forget the gratitude that I have for you all. It's you who accepted me from the first day," said Jiang Yujie. "For my older brother, what can I not do? All this time, he has protected me. Since I could do it and had this solution, then I had to protect him."

Mr. Jiang wiped his face. "I won't say anything else. Yujie, you just have to remember that for your enormous sacrifice for Huaizhou, we will never do anything to wrong you for the rest of our lives.

"We will protect you for life! From now on, nobody can talk bad about you regarding this," said Mr. Jiang.

Jiang Yujie cried and laughed as she nodded. "Dad, let's pack up and move."

"Why? Move now?" Mr. Jiang did not reject the idea, but he did not expect it to be so quick.

Mrs. Jiang also wiped away her tears and looked at Jiang Yujie with a face full of surprise.

Jiang Yujie nodded. "I stole the evidence from Lu Qiyuan. Since I have stolen it, I will definitely not return, and I don't dare to work there anymore. After he finds out that I have disappeared, he will definitely suspect something. His finding out that I have stolen the evidence from him is just a matter of time.

“If he’s fast, he will find out by afternoon today. If we’re lucky, then it will be tomorrow latest. By tomorrow, when he finds out that I didn’t go to the office, he will feel suspicious,” said Jiang Yujie. “So we have to leave immediately.”

Jiang Yujie was afraid that Mr. Jiang had his concerns, so she explained immediately, “I have rented a house. Don’t worry, I paid for the rent from my own pocket. It’s the salary that I have earned myself.”

She pursed her lips. “While being with Lu Qiyuan, it’s impossible that I didn’t spend his money at all, or else it would be too suspicious. However, I didn’t value his money, so I didn’t spend much, just on daily needs. I didn’t touch what’s left, nor did I bring any back. What I have is from my usual salary..”

Chapter 2800: This Car...

“You don’t need to say anything more,” said Mr. Jiang. “How can I blame you now? Ignore the fact that you didn’t use Lu Qiyuan’s money. Even if you used it, so what?”

He did not have any right to reprimand Jiang Yujie.

“However, I am still happy that you didn’t use it. I am still very happy,” added Mr. Jiang.

Jiang Yujie also turned her tears to laughter, immediately saying, “Then let’s not delay anymore. Let’s pack up.”

Jiang Yujie was afraid that they would pack too much and take too long, so she said, “The house that I rented is just a temporary accommodation, so you only need to take your daily necessities and enough clothes to change into.

“It’s not like we’re not coming back here. The purpose of renting that house is to prevent Lu Qiyuan from sending people to attack us before he’s caught. Back then, he did not even let Lu Man, his own daughter, and a wife who has spent more than a decade of hardships with him, off the hook, not to mention us.

“This is a huge matter which will make him go to jail; he will definitely not let us off the hook. Who knows what kind of insane things he will do? He could frame my older brother for a bidding. Now it’s something that his freedom and properties depend on. He’s the kind of person that can sacrifice anything for his own benefits, so why will he let us off the hook?”

“He knows that we stay here. I’m afraid that he will do something, so I secretly rented a house at a discreet place for us to hide in for a while. After he’s caught, we won’t need to hide anymore and can still come back, so we don’t need to pack everything.

“When we return next time, whether we want to continue to stay here or move houses, we can talk about it when that time comes. It’s not too late to pack up by then,” said Jiang Yujie.

“Okay, okay, okay.” Mrs. Jiang nodded. Without delaying any further, she dragged Mr. Jiang to pack up immediately.

Jiang Yujie also helped.

Jiang Yujie's stuff had already been secretly moved to the new place.

So Mr. Jiang and Mrs. Jiang just needed to pack some clothes and toiletries. There was not much to pack.

It would be enough if the two carried a backpack each.

Mrs. Jiang was terrified that Lu Qiyuan would come, so she was already panicking. "We're done packing, let's leave immediately."

Jiang Yujie nodded and brought Mr. Jiang and Mrs. Jiang downstairs to the car.

Mr. Jiang and Mrs. Jiang both noticed that Jiang Yujie's car was different from the one that they saw last time.

But they also remembered that Jiang Yujie had not been back for so long.

The two did not say much and got in the car.

When Jiang Yujie drove out of the compound, Mrs. Jiang asked hesitantly, "Yujie, this car..."

Jiang Yujie explained, "Didn't that car get smashed by Xia Qingyang? Lu Qiyuan wanted to buy me another one but I declined, saying that it's fine to just fix it at the automobile sales service shop. Because of that, he thought that I was super nice.

"Actually I was unwilling to have more connections with him. I drove that car of his before, and I also used my own money to secretly buy a second-hand car," said Jiang Yujie. "I thought about it. To hide from him, it's more convenient to have a car of my own, just like how I rented a house secretly to hide from him. This car was not expensive because I had to save money to rent the house.

"And even when we appeal, we have to get a lawyer, so I had to save the estimated lawyer fees," said Jiang Yujie.

Mrs. Jiang waved her hand, afraid that Jiang Yujie had misunderstood what she meant.. "I don't mean that you've spent Lu Qiyuan's money, I just..."
