

Mr Han 2881

Chapter 2881: I Accept Your Conditions

“What are you scared of?” said He Qingyang softly. “Zhengbai is your son, so is he my son.”

He continued, “How can I let anything happen to him?”

He Zhengbai did not say a word. After Yang Lin heard this, she asked, “Then do you have a plan? Can you promise that nothing will happen to Zhengbai?”

He Zhengbai also looked at He Qingyang anxiously.

“We rent a house first,” said He Qingyang. “Find those clueless landlords or those that don’t require a tenant ID. Many people will skip a lot of steps to save costs. A shabby last-minute accommodation for those migrant workers to stay in is fine too.

“Give some money and rent it for some time,” said He Qingyang, “Then, get Lu Qi there and light it on fire, burning her to death.

“If she turns to ash, what can they investigate?” said He Qingyang, “Even the room you stayed in, no matter what trace you leave, it will be burned to a crisp by the flames. By then, who can they connect it to?”

However, the fact that he still had to do it himself made He Zhengbai a little worried.

But this was already on He Qingyang’s plate.

And He Qingyang had planned it himself.

Now, He Zhengbai could not even regret it.

And he could not make a fool of himself.

He Zhengbai understood too well that He Qingyang hated people who had no ambitions and courage.

Even his own son had to have courage and wisdom to be valued by him.

He would do anything to reach his goal.

He Zhengbai did not want to lose to his older brother He Zhongsong, and he wanted to be valued by He Qingyang. If he didn’t do it, he would suffer when it’s time to divide the family property. So he had to keep having something to show for.

Just like his attitude towards Lu Qi now. He had to make a decision when it was time to decide.

‘Whether she used to be his own girlfriend or fiancée. Whether there was true love or it was just an act.

Even if Lu Qi had given her all for him, when it was time to abandon her, he could not be soft-hearted.

He Qingyang would find a house.

He Zhengbai would not need to show himself.

This made He Zhengbai a little relieved.

At least He Qingyang's stance was to make sure that he was safe.

During this time, He Zhengbai did not contact Lu Qi.

Lu Qi was not in a rush as well.

Anyway, the one who was impatient to get a divorce was not her.

Yes, her photos were with He Zhengbai.

However, she also had leverage over him.

So she was not afraid that He Zhengbai would post her photos.

But the problem was Sun Jingfei; she could calm herself down.

'Whether Sun Jingfei believed her or not, Sun Jingfei did not come and find her.

Lu Qi felt that even if she did not believe it, she had to at least have doubts.

After all, she had said so much, and in the end, He Zhengbai could not even refute it.

Anyone would have doubts in that situation.

If there were doubts, they would come to her for proof.

However, Sun Jingfei did not.

Even if she believed it, she still did not come to convince Lu Qi to divorce He Zhengbai.

Lu Qi felt that this woman was too calm.

She was like Lu Man, and Lu Qi did not like that.

Just as Lu Qi was wondering how long He Zhengbai was going to let her wait, she got a phone call from him.

"Accept your conditions," said He Zhengbai through the phone.

"Which one are you accepting?" Lu Qi still remembered that she gave him two choices.

"Divorce me half a month earlier and I will give you a hundred million," said He Zhengbai, gritting his teeth.

Chapter 2882: Why Are We Meeting So Late at Night?

Through the phone, Lu Qi could hear the sound of him gritting his teeth.

But He Zhengbai had to behave like this so that Lu Qi would not suspect anything.

He Zhengbai knew this clearly, so he intentionally acted as if he was reluctant.

However, Lu Qi was not surprised about He Zhengbai's choice.

If He Zhengbai had chosen to divorce her a day early to save fifty million, then Lu Qi would have had to put her guard up.

He Zhengbai definitely wanted to get rid of her as soon as possible.

If he did not rush to get rid of her to save money, this meant that He Zhengbai had other plans against her.

After hearing He Zhengbai's choice, Lu Qi let out a sigh of relief.

If He Zhengbai was willing to cooperate, everything would be simpler for everyone involved.

However, Lu Qi did not know that He Zhengbai chose this purely because Lu Qi was going to die. He therefore did not need to give her the money as well.

So no matter what he chose, he would not suffer a loss.

But he knew that this choice could put Lu Qi's mind at peace.

As expected, without any suspicions, Lu Qi answered, "Okay."

"At 11:30 tonight, let's meet. I will give you the money in person," said He Zhengbai. "I need to take pictures of the evidence as a record to prevent you from denying that I have paid."

Being cautious, Lu Qi said, "Why are we meeting so late at night?"

He Zhengbai thought that, obviously, it had to be late at night.

It would not be convenient for him to make a move if it was in the day.

But to Lu Qi, He Zhengbai explained, "I have no interest in you at all now. Do you think that I want to do anything with you? In broad daylight, what if people saw us? Don't forget, I have already told the public that we have no relationship at all.

"What if people took pictures of us meeting and thought that we have some sort of relationship, like that we fell back in love or something?" said He Zhengbai, full of dislike. "I am with Sun Jingfei now. If bad news is created because of this, it'll not be easy to explain to the Sun family."

Lu Qi accepted He Zhengbai's explanation, but she was still itching with irritation.

She had already shed all pretenses of cordiality with He Zhengbai and they definitely did not have any feelings anymore. There was no possibility for them to continue on.

However, when she heard He Zhengbai talk about another woman unscrupulously, Lu Qi was still filled with hatred.

"Okay," Lu Qi agreed.

He Zhengbai immediately stated the address.

Lu Qi had never even heard of that area.

She hung up and searched it online, and she found out that it was an area that was still developing.

She thought that He Zhengbai was being detailed.

He was scared that people would find out, so he chose a place that was so remote.

B City was huge; expanding outwards in circles.

Now, the city covered a vast area.

‘There were only second-hand houses in the city area.

New houses could be built only in even more remote places.

This new building was naturally in a more remote place.

As it was still being built, nobody went there often.

The people there were all construction workers.

However, at the time that He Zhengbai mentioned, even the construction workers would be resting.

Either they stayed in sample houses or they went out drinking.

Those staying in the sample houses would be resting after being exhausted from a whole day’s work.

There were also some who had brought their wives, so they would not go out drinking every day.

However, the single ones did not have this concern.

After their day’s work was finally over, it was boring being alone, so they would call their pals to go out and have fun..

Chapter 2883: The One Who Burned Lu Man to Death Was He Zhengbai

In fact, there were not many people in the sample houses at night.

It could be said that He Qingyang was really thorough in planning.

He made people rent a sample house here for a month.

The worker that rented the house to him felt that it was free money to be earned.

These sample houses did not have any documentation. They were built last minute for the convenience of the workers and did not have any safety standards.

There was someone who even wanted to rent this type of house.

And the amount he gave was not little, so of course that worker was happy.

After talking to his pal, he took some money out to pay rent so that he could stay with his pal for some time.

He could earn the rest of the money back.

Since it was a house with no guarantee, he would definitely not ask He Qingyang for ID nor ask to sign a contract.

After the payment, the deal was complete.

If anything happened afterward, there was nobody that could be found.

He Qingyang saw this, so he chose that place.

Lu Qi drove and followed the GPS to the place He Zhengbai said.

As it was a building that was still in construction, there was no light at night.

This place had not been developed, so there were no bus stops or subway stations.

Furthermore, during this time, even the sample houses around them had no lights.

Everyone was resting.

Lu Qi followed He Zhengbai's directions and, after entering, found a sample house located in the most inner part.

Although this sample house was small, it came with a courtyard.

The courtyard was divided into two.

The neighboring house was being rented by other people. They had built a barbeque stall back when the weather was still warm.

At night, the residents and the people who worked here would come to drink beer and eat barbeque.

The owner of the stall also took over the courtyard of this house.

Although it was a courtyard, actually, it was just a plain land that was simply fenced up.

Now, the weather was cold, so the barbeque stall was not open anymore.

The owner switched to selling some home cooking, like ribs with rice and such, and sold three meals a day to the construction workers.

At night, they would close and leave on time.

So now, the sample house that He Zhengbai directed her to was only a plain land on the left and an empty house on the right.

Lu Qi used the flashlight function of her phone to shine her way in. She frowned as it was hard to walk on this uneven land.

He Zhengbai, who had been waiting in the house for a long time, saw the light outside, but he still did not dare to show himself.

'When he saw that it was Lu Qi and confirmed that nobody followed her, he opened the door and greeted her. "Here!"

Lu Qi had wanted to find someone to come with her.

But she did not have any friends, and she could not afford to pay people to come with her, so she could only come by herself.

It was also because no matter how bad they fought, Lu Qi did not imagine He Zhengbai would do such a horrible thing to her.

Who would expect that her past lover and her current husband would want to kill her when disagreements arose?

Lu Qi did not know that in their past life, the one who burned Lu Man to death was He Zhengbai.

No matter how ruthless Lu Qi was, she had actually never thought of taking Lu Man's life.

It was He Zhengbai who said that if people knew that she had an older sister who was in jail for eight years, it would be disadvantageous to Lu Qi.

Not to mention, after Lu Man came out of jail, she already knew about He Zhengbai and Lu Qi.

She had created a mess in the Lu family already.

Out of shame-fueled rage, who knew whether she would expose the fact that Lu Man's partner cheated with Lu Qi?

What if she said that Lu Qi snatched He Zhengbai, who was once Lu Man's fiancée?

Chapter 2884: Trajectory

The two b*tches got together after betraying Lu Man.

After all, in their past life, nobody knew about Lu Man's existence.

'When Lu Man was sent to jail, Lu Qiyuan had used different means to suppress the news.

After all, his daughter going to jail would not be nice to hear about and would affect the stock price of his company.

Besides, there would definitely be people investigating Lu Man's past, doxing her.

Then, how she was treated by the Lu family would be all out in the open.

It would not be nice to hear about it.

Lu Qiyuan also knew that he had been terrible to Lu Man.

If not for his attitude, Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi would not have dared to treat Lu Man like that too.

The source of everything was still him.

Lu Qiyuan was scared that someone would find out about Lu Man's past, thus affecting him.

So he suppressed the news.

Even after Lu Man was out of jail, there was still nobody who knew about what happened to her.

Lu Man was basically betrayed and framed by Lu Qiyuan, Xia Qingyang, Lu Qi, and He Zhengbai together.

Lu Man did not have any hope for Lu Qiyuan anymore.

She also found out the truth about He Zhengbai and Lu Qi.

How could Lu Man hold it in?

Spurred by immense rage, it was very likely that she would spill the beans about her past.

He Zhengbai and Lu Qi were successful in their careers, had many fans, and had a great reputation.

How could they let Lu Man destroy their careers?

So He Zhengbai said that before Lu Man could destroy them, they should make a move and destroy Lu Man first.

He Zhengbai told Lu Qi about the many disadvantages of keeping Lu Man alive, and he finally convinced her to kill Lu Man.

Once Lu Man was dead, the two would have no more worries.

They could pretend that Lu Man had never existed in this world.

Even if Lu Man was dead, nobody would care.

He Zhengbai did not know that in the past life, it was also He Qingyang who gave him the idea.

After learning that He Zhengbai wanted Lu Man dead, He Qingyang gave He Zhengbai the idea to burn Lu Man to death.

Then, there would be no trace left.

But in the past life, He Zhengbai and Lu Qi were dragged in by Lu Man, dying with her.

In the next life, many things were different.

However, some trajectories still had not changed.

But while the trajectory did not change, the people did.

In the past life, after Lu Man came out of jail and went back to the Lu family, she saw with her own eyes that Lu Qiyuan and Xia Qingyang were sitting opposite He Zhengbai and Lu Qi.

The family of four was living happily together.

At that time, He Zhengbai and Lu Qi were getting ready to marry each other.

But now, it was Lu Qi who went to the He residence and saw He Qingyang and Yang Lin sitting opposite He Zhengbai and Sun Jingfei.

They were more like a family than when it was Lu Qi.

Lu Qi and He Zhengbai had not even divorced yet, but Sun Jingfei was already like the daughter-in-law of the He family.

In the past life, Lu Man was looked down on by the helpers of the Lu family.

And in this life, Lu Qi was looked down on by the helpers of the He family.

In the past life, Lu Man had rushed out in anger, fighting with He Zhengbai.

In this life, it was Lu Qi who rushed out, making a mess.

In the past life, He Zhengbai wanted to burn Lu Man to death.

In this life, He Zhengbai used the same method, but he wanted Lu Qi dead.

In the past life, Lu Man had experienced those things towards the end of her life.

In this life, it was Lu Qi who was experiencing the same things.

But now, He Zhengbai and Lu Qi had no clue.

The two had no idea what they had gone through in the past life.

If the two knew, they would probably get the creeps.

Chapter 2885: What Are You Doing!

Now, Lu Qi saw He Zhengbai appear at the entrance. She pursed her lips and walked over.

“Why did you choose this place?” complained Lu Qi.

She followed He Zhengbai into the room.

The house was rented last minute; the setup of the previous worker did not change.

The moment she entered, a strong stench of smoke, combined with the smell of stinky socks, hit Lu Qi’s nose.

It almost made Lu Qi vomit.

He Zhengbai had been staying here for a while. At first, he could not bear it as well.

However, after staying here for so long, he began to get used to it.

Lu Qi covered her nose and did not even dare to open her mouth.

It was as though if she opened her mouth, the stench would enter through it and dirty her mouth.

She saw that He Zhengbai had nothing with him; he did not bring anything.

“Where’s the money?” asked Lu Qi impatiently.

“I brought a check,” said He Zhengbai as he took out a checkbook from the inner pocket of his suit.

He opened it, intending to write it on the spot.

Dissatisfied, Lu Qi said, “Why didn’t you write it beforehand?”

“I will write it in front of you so you can have a look,” said He Zhengbai.

However, the house did not have the lights on, so He Zhengbai could not see clearly.

He said, “Turn on your phone’s flashlight and shine it for me.”

Lu Qi frowned. Unwillingly, she said, “Then why don’t you turn on the lights in the house?”

Only a little bit of the house’s interior could be seen from the light from outside.

Obviously, He Zhengbai could not turn on the light. If he turned it on, everything would be exposed.

Because of this, He Zhengbai came early and took out all the light bulbs.

He explained to Lu Qi, “This house does not have any lights. This kind of last-minute sample house doesn’t even have proper wiring. How can it have lights?”

Lu Qi pursed her lips as she turned on the flashlight of her phone, shining it on the checkbook.

He Zhengbai frowned and said, “Come here next to me. Don’t shine the light in my eyes, I can’t even open them.”

“Why do you have so many problems?” said Lu Qi impatiently.

But thinking about the money, she walked to He Zhengbai’s side and shone the light coming out of the phone camera on the desk.

He Zhengbai pretended to take out a pen and was about to write on the check.

Unexpectedly, he got up suddenly and pulled Lu Qi.

Lu Qi did not expect He Zhengbai to do this all of a sudden. Without even realizing it, she fell from He Zhengbai’s pull.

There were wooden desks and stools in this sample house.

They were all built from old abandoned materials or leftover ones that were picked up by the workers.

The wooden stool that they picked up was already made. The angular square stool had splinters coming out of it, and its paint was flaking from its edge because it was so old.

Lu Qi crashed on the wooden stool.

She did not stand steadily and fell down together with the wooden stool.

Her lower back, hip, and legs all crashed on the wooden stool.

Her lower back hit the corner of the wooden stool. Tears of pain flowed out. Her whole body was in agony.

Her hip was jammed into the space in between the legs of the wooden stool, and her leg knocked against the leg of the wooden stool.

Lu Qi was in so much pain, she could not even roll around, not to mention stand up.

He Zhengbai dashed to the side, took out a bottle of petrol that was hidden in the dark, and poured it on Lu Qi.

'When she smelled the petrol, Lu Qi began panicking.

"He Zhengbai, what are you doing!" Lu Qi covered her face with her hand, but there was still a lot of petrol that was poured over her face.

Lu Qi was so scared that she wanted to stand up immediately.

However, the more she panicked, the harder it was for her to stand..

Chapter 2886: Let Go of Me!

Now that Lu Qi was covered in petrol, He Zhengbai did not dare to touch her.

He lifted another wooden stool and smashed Lu Qi with it.

Just like in the movies, when the stool was smashed against Lu Qi's body, its legs broke straight away.

It was unknown how much strength He Zhengbai had used.

Lu Qi was frozen in pain. The places that were hit felt numb to the bone from the pain.

Even her mind was blank. Her vision went dark for a moment.

"B*tch! You dare to threaten me and ask for a hundred million?" said He Zhengbai, gritting his teeth.

'The wooden stool in his hand was already broken, so he picked up one of the legs that broke off from the stool and smashed it against Lu Qi's body continuously.

Lu Qi did not expect He Zhengbai to be so ruthless.

It seemed like he was really going to kill her.

Lu Qi was in so much pain that even her head hurt. She was suffering.

She gritted her teeth and crawled forward suddenly, hugging He Zhengbai's arm tightly.

"He Zhengbai! Do you want to kill me?" Lu Qi let out a shrill scream.

He Zhengbai was still smashing the wooden stick against Lu Qi's body over and over again.

"Let go! Let go of me!" He Zhengbai hit Lu Qi using the stick with all his strength.

But Lu Qi held on tightly to He Zhengbai, unwilling to let go.

She was even spitting blood from her mouth.

The blood that Lu Qi spit shot on He Zhengbai's pants.

He Zhengbai started panicking.

He wanted to kill Lu Qi, but he could not leave any trace for people to investigate.

Lu Qi's blood on his pants was obvious evidence.

Seeing that the stick was useless, He Zhengbai panicked and started using his leg to kick her.

'One of his legs was held on by Lu Qi, so he used another leg to kick Lu Qi's head.

Lu Qi could not take it anymore and let go.

He Zhengbai immediately jumped back.

Now, not only did his pants have blood, but it was also stained with the petrol on Lu Qi's body.

So He Zhengbai did not dare to stay too close to Lu Qi.

He took out a lighter from his pocket quickly, lit it up, and threw it on Lu Qi.

Lu Qi jumped in fear and screamed.

She already had no strength from the pain, but an unknown strength emerged and she rolled around, causing the lighter to fall off her body.

However, the fire from the lighter lit up the petrol on the floor.

This type of sample house had no safety measures at all. It would burn immediately.

In addition, there were wooden tables and chairs lying around, and there was also a wooden bed.

'The tiny flame of the lighter rapidly spread around the moment it touched the petrol.

When it touched the wooden furniture, the flames became even more ferocious.

As fast as lightning, the flames sprang up towards the sky.

Following the petrol on the floor, the flames jumped towards Lu Qi's body.

'As Lu Qi's body also had petrol, the speed of her escape could not be on par with the speed of the fire spreading.

It was just in the blink of an eye that the ferocious flames were already on her body.

Lu Qi was wearing a jacket and had even chosen a hoodie to disguise herself.

However, even so, it could not stop the flames.

The flames burned her clothes to ashes in the blink of an eye and reached her body and face.

'The burning pain made Lu Qi jump.

"Ah!" Lu Qi wanted to find a place that did not have any petrol to extinguish the fire on her.

He Zhengbai did not dare to delay any further. He wanted to run out and prepare to lock Lu Qi in the house, burning her to death..

Chapter 2887: Then Let's Die Together

"He Zhengbai!" Lu Qi probably realized that she was not going out alive.

She let out a shrill scream as she pounced on He Zhengbai.

He Zhengbai was already at the door, but he was held on tightly by Lu Qi from behind.

It was like He Zhengbai was carrying Lu Qi.

As Lu Qi was behind him, and He Zhengbai could not throw her off no matter how hard he struggled.

He extended his arms to the back, but it was not easy to exert force in that position.

Lu Qi held on tightly to He Zhengbai with both arms and legs.

"You want to kill me, right? You want to kill me!" Lu Qi was furious, her eyes so wide that they were going to drop out.

'When He Zhengbai was pouring the petrol on her, she had used her arm to protect her face.

So there was no petrol on her face.

'When the flames were almost at her face, it was not so fast anymore.

The flames on Lu Qi's body also stuck to He Zhengbai's body.

Lu Qi held on to He Zhengbai with all her might, wanting to die together with him.

The tears that flowed out from Lu Qi's eyes were evaporated by the heat from the flames.

It was as though she could not feel the pain anymore.

She was furious.

If there was a next life, she hoped that she would not meet He Zhengbai again.

She was still so young!

She did not expect He Zhengbai to be such a prick!

He failed the deal; he was unwilling to spend money nor take a step back.

He wanted to just kill her.

How did she like such a prick!

Lu Qi felt an infinite amount of regret.

How nice would it have been if she had not met He Zhengbai in this life?

Even if she'd met He Zhengbai, it would have been nice if she was not deceived by his outer appearance and did not get together with him.

So many things would not have happened.

She would still have been the Lu family's beloved youngest daughter.

Her parents would still be here and would not be in jail.

Her family would not have had a downfall.

But now, her parents were in jail and nobody could help her.

She became someone who could be bullied by everyone.

He Zhengbai cheated on her and wanted to divorce her.

She was just angry, but was not really sad.

She was still young, so even if she divorced, it was not a big deal.

She could just treat it that she was blind and met a b*tch. She could just find another person in the future.

It was easier to find an investor while being single anyway.

She would not bring trouble to herself or the investor.

The investor would be more willing to take her over.

Who knew that He Zhengbai would want to kill her!

Lu Qi was crying tears of blood.

She was still so young, but she had to end her life here.

Lu Qi was filled with hatred. She had an unlimited amount of hatred and anger but nowhere to vent it to.

She just felt that if she died with He Zhengbai, He Zhengbai would die without being able to release his anger and hatred.

In those final moments, He Zhengbai suddenly exerted force, wanting to throw Lu Qi off him.

Although Lu Qi's body was being burned by the flames, her mind was clear like never before.

She could not let He Zhengbai escape.

She could not die for no reason!

If she died and let He Zhengbai escape, it might be tantamount to letting He Zhengbai escape this whole thing just like this.

She might really die for no reason, but He Zhengbai would not be caught.

Lu Qi knew that death could not be avoided, and even if she survived out of luck, what could she do?

Her face and body were ruined by the fire.

She was finished.

She would have to have such an ugly appearance and suffer unending pain. It was better if she died.

“Prick!” screamed Lu Qi. “You want me dead, right? Then let’s die together!”

After she finished speaking, Lu Qi opened her mouth and took a big bite of He Zhengbai’s ear.

With boundless hatred, Lu Qi wanted to bite He Zhengbai’s ear off..

Chapter 2888: Went Dead Still

It was as though she was a cannibal; she bit He Zhengbai’s ear with all her strength.

She was so filled with hatred and anger that she forgot the pain of being burned.

She put all her focus on her mouth, wanting to bite off He Zhengbai’s ear.

As Lu Qi bit, she used all her strength to tear it.

He Zhengbai’s ear was really torn off.

Blood emerged from his ear and flowed down.

He Zhengbai felt the agony coming from his ear. He could not even feel the blood flowing on his face.

“ah!” screamed He Zhengbai in pain. “Let go! Let go!”

Lu Qi was behind He Zhengbai; even if He Zhengbai wanted to hit her, it was impossible.

For one, he could not exert any strength.

Lu Qi was covered in flames.

He Zhengbai was still made out of flesh and blood, so how would he dare to touch her?

After a while, He Zhengbai’s body was also covered in flames.

He Zhengbai did not care about whether Lu Qi died anymore; he just wanted to escape.

However, how could Lu Qi let him escape?

She kept dragging He Zhengbai inside while tearing at his ear.

Lu Qi suddenly felt that the strength in her mouth had weakened.

She was biting something and could even taste the thick taste of blood.

Subconsciously, she tore He Zhengbai's ear off.

"Ah!" He Zhengbai let out a shrill scream. His voice broke as he went into agony.

Lu Qi spit out He Zhengbai's ear.

He Zhengbai crashed onto the floor.

"Ugh!" Lu Qi also crashed.

Her back crashed onto the sea of flames, and in front, she was pressed on by He Zhengbai.

She felt that she was going to be smashed. She could not bear it anymore and let go.

He Zhengbai immediately crawled towards the door.

Lu Qi wanted to chase after him, but she could no longer do so.

Her legs were burned to a crisp and she could not move an inch.

The flames reached her chest and burned her throat. She could not speak anymore.

Lu Qi lay in the sea of flames, tilting her head and seeing a faint figure.

She saw He Zhengbai up in flames but still trying to crawl outwards.

He finally crawled out successfully.

Lu Qi suddenly wanted to laugh, but she realized that she could not laugh anymore.

The next second, her eyes went dead still and she was engulfed by the flames.

He Zhengbai had just gotten out when he rolled on the ground, using the sand and the rocks to extinguish the fire on him.

He had not rolled out too far.

In the house, the flames had reached the gas.

With a bang, the house exploded.

He Zhengbai flew very far due to the shockwave from the explosion.

He Zhengbai escaped, luckily.

However, it was uncertain whether it was better that he managed to escape or just died.

Perhaps it was a natural survival instinct. He Zhengbai did not have time to think too much. He just wanted to save his life.

But after he saved his life, there was only unending agony left for him.

The flames and the sound of explosion drew the attention of the people around.

They immediately called the police.

The firefighters and the police both came.

The firefighters were extinguishing the fire while the police called 120, sending He Zhengbai to the hospital for emergency treatment.

He Zhengbai's face was beyond recognition; nobody could recognize him.

His clothes were already burned to a crisp.

His whole body was black.

A few pieces of cloth stuck to his body. Having combined with the blood and flesh, they could not be torn off.

But now, He Zhengbai was already unconscious and could not feel any pain.

The cloth on his body was already stuck together with the blood and it was completely black..

Chapter 2889: Whether He Could Live

When it was torn off, a layer of his skin came off as well.

There was also cloth left from his pants on his legs.

The doctors and nurses kept these and handed them to the police.

Nobody knew whether the flames and the explosion tonight were an accident, a planned accident, or... a murder.

They kept everything that was on He Zhengbai and gave it to the police as evidence.

He Zhengbai's current state was terrible.

One of his ears was gone, and that wound was already burned.

The blood had stopped flowing out.

But his face and body were burned to black.

Most of the skin on his body had been burned and was covered with blisters of all sizes.

Even his private part had been burned, rendering it useless.

With his current state, whether he could live or not was unknown.

eK

The next day, Lu Man was in Han Zhuoli's office.

Ever since she started coming to work with him every day, Lu Man gradually got used to it.

If Han Zhuoli was busy at noon and had to socialize, or if he had a meeting and needed to eat during that meeting, Lu Man would go to the Public Relations Department and eat with her former co-workers.

Her days were very fruitful.

Now that she was four months pregnant, her stomach was beginning to get bigger.

Lu Man was eating fruits on the couch in Han Zhuoli's office.

Han Zhuoli did not have anything to do now, so he stayed with Lu Man.

Then, Zheng Tianming entered after knocking on the door a few times.

"What is it?" Han Zhuoli thought that it was about work.

But after Zheng Tianming entered, he looked at Lu Man, then at Han Zhuoli, before saying, "CEO, Madam, I just received news about Lu Qi and He Zhengbai. Do you guys want to know about it?"

Han Zhuoli was speechless.

He talked about Han Zhuoli's wife's ex-boyfriend the moment he entered. Was this suitable?

Zheng Tianming pursed his lips and said, "If you guys don't want to know, then pretend I didn't ask."

Lu Man inserted her fork into another piece of watermelon and said, "Is it long? If it's long, then sit down and tell us. I have nothing to do anyway. Let's hear it."

Since Lu Man said that, Han Zhuoli would not say anything more.

Zheng Tianming did not dare to sit together with Han Zhuoli and Lu Man.

Besides, it was not convenient to talk if all three of them sat on the couch.

Although there was a single couch at the side, that was the master seat, so he could not sit there.

He dragged a chair and sat down, then he told Han Zhuoli and Lu Man, "Lu Qi is dead."

Lu Man was speechless.

Han Zhuoli was speechless.

They did not expect this. They thought that Lu Qi had done something wicked again.

They did not expect such big news.

Lu Man did not know what she was feeling.

In Lu Man's past life, Lu Qi was one of the people who destroyed her.

In the past life, when she was dying, she'd had to drag Lu Qi and He Zhengbai to die with her.

However, in this life, Lu Qi was becoming more and more miserable.

Lu Man watched how Lu Qi got herself into her current situation step by step.

So Lu Man had already gradually gotten over it.

She did not pay attention to Lu Qi's current life anymore; she did not care about Lu Qi and He Zhengbai at all.

In this life, these two people were already not on her radar.

Now that she heard about Lu Qi's death, Lu Man froze for a while.

She was not sad.

She just felt that the people who had unlimited glory died really early in this life.

Even earlier than the last life.

But in the last life, Lu Qi was dragged into the flames by her.

In this life, how did Lu Qi die?

Chapter 2890: The Things That Should Be Burned and the Things That Shouldn't Be Burned Were All Burned

Lu Man asked.

Zheng Tianming said, "She was burned to death."

Lu Man froze and looked at Han Zhuoli subconsciously.

Clearly, Han Zhuoli did not expect that.

Lu Man had already told the experience of her past life to Han Zhuoli.

Han Zhuoli knew that Lu Man died in the fire.

'And when she died, she dragged Lu Qi and He Zhengbai together.

Han Zhuoli did not see it himself, but he felt sad just by listening to Lu Man.

He did not expect that Lu Qi would also be burned to death in this life.

"What happened?" Even Han Zhuoli was interested.

Zheng Tianming shook his head. "The police is still investigating. The fire was too big, so there's nothing left; everything has been burned. It happened at Jincheng Garden."

"Isn't Jincheng Garden the newly developed real estate?" asked Han Zhuoli.

“Yes. Lu Qi probably met with He Zhengbai there.” Zheng Tianming’s mouth twitched. “It happened yesterday midnight, probably around 11:30 PM to 12 midnight. As it was a new project and was still being built, the place that they met in was a simple sample house of a construction worker located around the real estate.”

He explained, “That kind of sample house has many hidden dangers. After the fire was lit, it increased in size rapidly. In the end, it reached the gas tank, causing an explosion.

“As for the cause of the fire, the police is still investigating.”

“You said that Lu Qi and He Zhengbai met there?” asked Lu Man.

She thought that it might be because their discussion did not have a good ending while they were discussing there.

She did not pay attention to Lu Qi and He Zhengbai anymore; she only knew that their marriage was not happy.

She was pregnant now and did not attend any events. However, she heard a lot of news about the entertainment industry from Hu Zhonghui.

Hu Zhonghui was concerned that since she was going to be out for too long, she would not be able to keep up with the updates of the entertainment industry.

So even if Lu Man was not accepting any jobs, whenever there was news, Hu Zhonghui would still tell her to prevent Lu Man from being cut off from the entertainment industry.

So Lu Man also knew about how Lu Qi relied on unspoken rules.

Looking at the development between Lu Qi and He Zhengbai, it was just a matter of time before they broke up.

She did not think that the two would go to a sample house at midnight for a date.

What kind of interest was this that was so special?

“Yes.” Zheng Tianming nodded. “Because He Zhengbai was found outside the sample house that exploded.

Upon mentioning He Zhengbai’s sorry state, even Zheng Tianming’s face became twisted.

“It was too terrible.” Zheng Tianming hissed.

“His whole body cannot be recognized due to the burns. None of his skin is intact; everything was burned. That face... ugh...” Zheng Tianming shook his head. “Obviously, it’s ruined.

“There are a few parts of his body where a layer of skin was torn off. Even there...” Zheng Tianming looked like it was difficult for him to talk.

Lu Man was confused. Where?

She only reacted after a few seconds.

So it was there.

Lu Man's gaze floated around awkwardly.

Han Zhuoli coughed. Why was he talking about other men's private parts in front of Lu Man?!

Zheng Tianming said immediately, "Anyway, things that should be burned and shouldn't be burned were all burned. He Zhengbai hasn't even woken up in the hospital. He went through emergency treatment the whole night and then entered the ICU. Until now, he's still in danger of dying. Anyway, it's not very likely that he will wake up."

He added, "Oh, right, one of his ears was torn off. It's forcibly torn off."
