

Mr Han 2941

Chapter 2941 It's Painful Not Seeing You

Jiang Yuhan had also despised Lu Man.

Add to that, they were competitors. However, that kind of bad competition would not cause Lu Man to do anything.

She would just be disgusted.

It wasn't until Jiang Yuhan had crossed the line that Lu Man took action. She would not eliminate someone just because that person was impolite to her.

If it was so, then she would have too many enemies, and she would not be able to deal with all of them.

Han Zhuoling was afraid that there would be people who would make Shi Xiaoya unhappy without doing anything big. Shi Xiaoya had to work here for a long time, and her work would already be tiring enough. If her mood was ruined every day, then that would be awful.

"Hurry up and go back," said Shi Xiaoya softly.

This place was very far from the city. Han Zhuoling did not go to work just to send her here.

Shi Xiaoya knew that he had a lot of work at hand to deal with.

Looking at the time now, after Han Zhuoling returned to the office, he would definitely have to work overtime.

If she was not there, Han Zhuoling would not rush home. He would definitely work for a very long time at the office.

So Shi Xiaoya also urged him worriedly, "Don't think that since you won't need to go back home early and be with me, you can keep working overtime. You'd be like your old self, not knowing when to stop once you start. You might as well live at the office then."

"Okay." Han Zhuoling smiled as he nodded, feeling warm inside.

In the past, nobody would have told him that.

In the past, he was not in the country, so even if Lin Liye wanted to supervise him, there was no way to do so.

They were in different time zones and not right in front of each other, so even if Lin Liye wanted to control him, she could not.

In addition, Xia Yixin would not care about how he was.

So nobody told him such things before

Now that he was being instructed earnestly by Shi Xiaoya, Han Zhuoling did not feel that she was naggy or controlling. Instead, he felt overjoyed that Shi Xiaoya told him these; he felt warm.

“Don’t worry. Even when you’re not with me, I will arrange my schedule properly. I won’t work to death like before,” said Han Zhuoling. “If you’re still worried, I can just video call you following the old schedule. If you’re working and can’t pick up, I will send you a picture or a video.”

Yan Zhiqing felt bitter as she watched from the side.

These two people were literally forcing people to want to date.

A thick, stinky scent of love came from these two, suffocating the others.

But most importantly, these two were already husband and wife.

But they still behaved as though they were dating; it was too triggering.

If Yan Zhiqing was not trying her best to endure it, she would have separated them immediately.

After hearing Han Zhuoling’s promise, Shi Xiaoya could not help but laugh.

“Okay, then. If I don’t pick up, you should send a short video to me,” said Shi Xiaoya.

“Then you should also send one to me, or else it’d be too painful not seeing you,” said Han Zhuoling softly.

If this was before, nobody would have expected Han Zhuoling to say these things.

Han Zhuoling would probably have felt ashamed and would not have been able to say it.

And as his face was serious and controlled, it was not suited to saying these cheesy words.

This scene could not even be imagined.

However, it seemed like Han Zhuoling was freeing himself more and more; he did not feel like what he said was cheesy or impactful to others at all.

Saying these words was like a piece of cake; he did not feel stressed at all.

Chapter 2942 I Have Never Been Separated from You for So Long

However, although Han Zhuoling’s voice was not too loud when he was saying those things, it was not too soft either.

Wu Mosen, Writer Hu, and Yan Zhiqing were standing with them. Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling did not go to the side and whisper to each other. At first, Shi Xiaoya thought that they were not going to say something that could not be heard by others, so she did not go to the side with Han Zhuoling.

Who knew that Han Zhuoling would say that it would be painful?

And it was heard by Yan Zhiqing and the others.

Yan Zhiqing’s expression made it look like the world was ending. She did not expect these kinds of words to come out from Han Zhuoling’s mouth.

Yes, she also heard Yan Beicheng and Lin Chu tell each other such things every day.

However, Yan Beicheng and Han Zhuoling did not have the same personality.

So though she was already used to the former...

After hearing Han Zhuoling say such a thing with a serious face, she felt unwell.

Shi Xiaoya blushed as she pulled Han Zhuoling to the side immediately. "Every day, after I finish my work and it's still early, I will video call you straight away. But production crews' working schedule has always been unstable, I'm afraid, with people working from dawn until dusk. Sometimes, to fulfill the requirement of the script, we have to shoot at night.

"So after I finish my work, it may be midnight already," said Shi Xiaoya. "At that time, you'll be resting already."

After Han Zhuoling heard this, he felt bad for her.

Shi Xiaoya urged him to rest properly and not to work without stopping.

In the end, Shi Xiaoya had to do that herself.

However, it was because Shi Xiaoya had to follow the production crew's schedule; she could not control it herself.

So there was nothing to be done. Han Zhuoling said, "No matter what time it is, whether it's four or five in the morning or one or two at midnight, as long as you're done with work, video call me. Don't worry about whether I'm asleep.

"I will sleep first. Once I hear the ringtone of your call, I will wake up. Anyway, I have to see you and ask whether you're doing well with the production crew," said Han Zhuoling.

Shi Xiaoya nodded. "Okay."

Han Zhuoling thought for a while and said, "Anyway, it's already getting late. Should I just stay here? Even if I go back to the office now, I can't work for long."

Shi Xiaoya's eyes widened. "Then won't you need to wake up very early tomorrow? This place is far from the city, and it's easy to get caught in a traffic jam in the morning. You will have to leave extremely early. You can't do that. It'll be too tiring. Go back today. If you can't make it, then don't go to the office, just rest at home so you won't need to wake up early tomorrow."

Anyway, Shi Xiaoya would not let Han Zhuoling rush here and there no matter what he said.

So Han Zhuoling could only give up on the idea of staying here. "Then I'll come during the weekends."

Shi Xiaoya could agree to that.

No matter what, even if Han Zhuoling was reluctant, he had to leave. Shi Xiaoya sent Han Zhuoling to the car. Han Zhuoling lowered the car window. "I'm leaving now."

"Mhmm, stay safe on the road. I don't have any work today anyway. I officially start tomorrow. So once you're back, call me," said Shi Xiaoya.

“Okay,” Han Zhuoling agreed. He stared at Shi Xiaoya without leaving.

Shi Xiaoya was blushing from his gaze.

Then she heard Han Zhuoling sigh. “Haih, I have never been separated from you for so long.”

“Hearing you say this, I suddenly feel a little regretful taking this job.” Shi Xiaoya really felt a little regretful.

At first, her wish was to become an internationally-recognized makeup artist.

Chapter 2943 What Happened to Her Benevolence

But now, she suddenly realized that such things were not important anymore.

Being with Han Zhuoling and having him next to her was the most important thing.

She suddenly did not value work as much.

“I don’t dare to obstruct my wife’s future,” said Han Zhuoling, chuckling.

As he said that, he motioned with his finger, asking Shi Xiaoya to come closer. Shi Xiaoya saw this and lowered her head, almost putting her whole face through the car window.

Then, right after, Han Zhuoling held the back of her head and pulled nearly half of her body through the car window.

At the same time, Han Zhuoling leaned over and kissed her lips.

Han Zhuoling released her, but as though he was not finished yet, he licked her lips.

Shi Xiaoya’s face felt like it was on fire.

“Go on in,” said Han Zhuoling. “I’ll leave after seeing you enter.”

Shi Xiaoya also wanted to watch him leave.

Han Zhuoling said, “If you don’t go in now and I take one more glance at you, I will want to take you away.”

Shi Xiaoya laughed and could only leave first.

But even so, she still kept turning her head.

Every time she turned her head, she could see Han Zhuoling looking at her.

Yan Zhiqing could not take it anymore and pulled Shi Xiaoya away. “You two are crossing the line. Although you guys are not old couples, you guys got married after dating for a pretty long time. You’ve been together for so long; you don’t have to make it so hard to separate.”

“You don’t understand.” Shi Xiaoya looked at Yan Zhiqing with the gaze she used to look at single people. Yan Zhiqing felt that she was being showered by Shi Xiaoya’s gaze with pity, which was telling her that she did not understand their reluctance as she was single.

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

Shi Xiaoya's style had been ruined by Han Zhuoling!

"How can you do this to me?" Was treating a single person like this a good thing?

Shi Xiaoya was embarrassed by Yan Zhiqing's grievous accusation. She felt that she had crossed the line by not thinking about the feelings of single people. Embarrassed, Shi Xiaoya smiled. "Then... then you should also find one."

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

Could she just find one at will?

She was always busy shooting films. How could she have time to find one?

Besides, in the entertainment industry, those she met were troublesome.

She really did not want to find one within the industry.

As for depending on her family's connections to arrange a blind date, Yan Zhiqing did not really want that either.

Yan Beicheng, Chu Zhaoyang, and now, Han Zhuoli, all of them did not find someone through blind dates.

Han Zhuoli would have rather remained single his whole life while being hated by Old Mrs. Han than to go on blind dates.

It was not that blind dates were bad, but Yan Zhiqing felt that she was more likely to discover the good in someone through spending time with that person slowly.

As opposed to relying on first impressions on a blind date, where people assess each other's stats to decide whether or not to continue the relationship.

However, her kind of work did not allow her to meet her other half through normal socializing.

Yan Zhiqing also felt frustrated.

Shi Xiaoya pondered and asked, "You want to find one and you're not against dating, right?"

Yan Zhiqing smiled and said, "Of course not. Dating is such a good thing, so I am not against it."

"Actually, you don't need to just meet people from work. Don't we know quite a few friends of our family too?"

"But we've known them for very long. If we really had feelings for each other, we would have gotten together already. We wouldn't have waited until now."

Chapter 2944 Every Time Wei Wucai Was Mentioned, Yan Zhiqing Would Get Angry

Yan Zhiqing said, "Besides, honestly, I actually don't like people who are too ambitious and self-motivated.

"I am usually busy with work. If that person is also busy, then we won't have many chances to be together. No matter what kind of relationship it is, if the two are not together, they will drift apart.

"And it's also related to my past experience. As I have seen those who show their ugly side when fighting for power, all the more I don't like that type.

"Actually, I am not into fame and fortune just because I have this job. Compared to my older brother and the others, people are actually more familiar with celebrities. Celebrities are chased by people whenever they go out. However, I actually like an ordinary life more.

"But because I like to perform, I entered this industry. Since I chose the career that I like, I have to bear the influence that comes with this career, which I don't like. For example, being watched by people, lacking privacy, rarely being able to enjoy a calm life, things like that.

"However, when it comes to relationships, I prefer an ordinary one. My other half doesn't need to have high aspirations or huge accomplishments. As long as we can live our simple lives together, then it's good enough for me," said Yan Zhiqing.

Shi Xiaoya did not expect that Yan Zhiqing wanted such an ordinary relationship even though she was in a complicated place like the entertainment industry.

"This is not easy," said Shi Xiaoya.

Yan Zhiqing did not like blind dates.

Even if Shi Xiaoya met someone like this and introduced him to Yan Zhiqing, Yan Zhiqing would not be happy.

However, if Shi Xiaoya had to say it, she felt that Wei Wucai was not bad.

Besides, there were also sparks between Yan Zhiqing and him.

However, Shi Xiaoya did not dare to say this. That's because every time Wei Wucai was mentioned, Yan Zhiqing would get angry.

Shi Xiaoya truly wanted to mention this to Yan Zhiqing and make her think about why she was not so angry when it's other people.

Her attitude regarding Wei Zhiqian was special. What was the reason?

However, Shi Xiaoya also did not dare to say this.

Because if she said it, Yan Zhiqing would be furious.

She was such a stubborn girl.

With Shi Xiaoya silently concerned for Yan Zhiqing, the two returned to their own rooms.

As the main actress, Yan Zhiqing received better treatment.

Her room, for instance, belonged to her alone.

Yan Zhiqing's assistant also had a room.

However, that room was not as good as Yan Zhiqing's.

If Shi Xiaoya were to use her identity as the Young Madam of the Han Family and not the makeup artist of the production crew, she would definitely receive the same treatment as Yan Zhiqing. However, Shi Xiaoya did not want herself to get special treatment.

Yan Zhiqing was the main actress of this movie; her receiving treatment like this was because of work, so it was justifiable. If she did this because of personal reasons, then it would be crossing the line.

According to the work ranking of the production crew, Shi Xiaoya could not enjoy the same treatment as Yan Zhiqing.

The employee who had arranged these accommodations wanted to give Shi Xiaoya special treatment, but the person herself had declined.

Shi Xiaoya felt that it was not suitable.

However, if she had to be treated like a normal employee, the production crew would feel sorry.

Not to mention the others, Wu Mosen was the first one who felt sorry.

In the end, though Shi Xiaoya stayed in the same room as Guo Yujie, it was in the same hotel as Yan Zhiqing.

As for other employees, they lived in another hotel.

Chapter 2945 First Female Lead Actress

To this, Shi Xiaoya did not decline.

Since the production crew insisted, she did not decline anymore.

It was just right that she was staying in the same hotel as Yan Zhiqing so they could take care of each other. The two went back to their own rooms and unpacked their luggage.

Guo Yujie sent her a WeChat message, saying that she was stuck in a traffic jam.

She would probably arrive in another half an hour, so Shi Xiaoya unpacked first.

After Yan Zhiqing returned to her room and unpacked her things, she took out the script to have a read.

The script she had received was only for a small portion.

The rest of the script was not given to her due to either confidential reasons or due to it still needing to be edited.

So the lines that Yan Zhiqing could memorize right now were only a small portion.

But even so, she had already revised the part she had received repeatedly.

Not only did she memorize her own lines, but she even memorize the lines of the other actors.

The character that Yan Zhiqing was playing this time was Yan Jiayin, who was the female lead.

In the beginning, she was only a pure female student who was patriotic and just.

However, as she had not seen true cruelty, she lived in an ivory tower, thinking that she had to contribute to this dilapidated country.

She thought that the citizens who had closed themselves off to live their simple days did not know about the danger that the country was in.

She thought those capitalists who were living the high life in international settlements only cared about earning money but did not stop to think about how they were going to survive if the country fell into ruins.

She thought that she had seen through all of this, and with great passion, she traveled the streets, making speeches and giving out flyers.

The Yan Jiayin back then was pure and clueless.

However, through coincidence, she met the dancer Ying Ying.

At first, she looked down on Ying Ying. Then, Ying Ying used different means to let her experience the high life, causing Yan Jiayin to gradually sink into it. On one hand, she could not accept the devastation outside, but this was like another world, with people living out such beautiful days.

On the other hand, she could not stop getting tempted by the life here.

The hardships outside were too tiring.

Whenever she could not bear it, she thought about escaping to this place and also about the days when she would not have to worry about being hungry.

Through Ying Ying, Yan Jiayin met Prince Chen and Second Master Li. From them, she received completely different perspectives. She found out that her old thoughts were too naive.

However, Yan Zhiqing felt that Yan Jiayin indeed knew that her old thoughts were too naive.

On the other hand, she was just giving herself an excuse to sink into this life.

Yan Zhiqing had not yet received the rest of the script and did not know in detail how it would develop.

She only knew the outline. In the end, Yan Jiayin mixed with Prince Chen and Second Master Li, but she still had the final bottom line in her heart.

When she saw the true look of the outside world again at a critical time...

Yan Jiayin remembered her old self.

Once again, she returned to her passionate self.

However, she was more mature than her old self; she would not be so naive as to depend only on passion like how she did last time.

After Second Master Li passed away, Yan Jiayin became like him.

After Yan Zhiqing learned about this character, she had immediately registered for the audition.

No matter what, she had to get the role of Yan Jiayin.

This was because this character Yan Jiayin was very challenging.

From the start to the end, the changes in her personality and state gifted this character with an extremely complicated persona.

Chapter 2946 How Much Skills She Had

This was an extremely rare and tempting character for an actor.

Yan Zhiqing wanted to challenge herself by taking on this character and improving her acting skills. She would gain more experience from it.

Of course, the stress that came with it would be bigger. If she did not act well, she would ruin a character who was meaningful, and this would be the same as ruining a movie.

At the same time, the actor would be criticized terribly by the audience.

If she did not have the skills and still wanted to take on this role, she would ruin a character and a good movie.

Did she not know what level of skills she had?

However, what kind of criticisms had Yan Zhiqing not heard before?

What kind of contempt had she not seen before?

Just because she was from the Yan Family, even if her skills had had huge improvements, even if her career accomplishments were great, it could still be rejected by the sentence, "If I have her family background, I can also do it."

This had been said by countless people.

Even so, Yan Zhiqing had never given up before. Her passion for this job was not affected by these negative things.

No matter what those people thought and whether they acknowledged her, if they wanted to deceive themselves, thinking that her success was all due to her background, then they could continue thinking so.

As long as she knew the effort she put in and how much she had given, as long as she knew that her earnest results were due to her own hard work, it was enough.

Yan Zhiqing did not depend on her family or the Han Family's help to get this character.

She depended on herself to get it.

Wu Mosen wanted to use new faces, but it did not mean that he must use new people.

That was because newcomers would not be able to handle this character's complexity.

Wu Mosen had wanted to give it to Lu Man.

Unfortunately, Lu Man was pregnant and could not act.

When he saw Yan Zhiqing, Wu Mosen found out that she really suited the character Yan Jiayin. Yan Zhiqing had not acted in a lot of movies these past few years. However, every movie she had acted in was excellent.

Because of this, it could be seen that Yan Zhiqing valued quality over quantity.

So the audience in the country was not tired of Yan Zhiqing's face.

She acted in movies every two or three years, and she did not attend any variety shows. Even with endorsements, she only accepted big brands.

She maintained a good image, so the audience had had no chance to be tired of her.

Wu Mosen wanted a fresh face, but newcomers could not be trusted.

So in the end, he chose Yan Zhiqing.

This was also one of the reasons Wu Mosen had wanted to choose Lu Man in the beginning.

Lu Man had not acted in a lot of movies. Although it was widely talked about every time, thinking back carefully, one would find that Lu Man's exposure was not huge.

In addition, Wu Mosen had also watched Lu Man act before.

Whether it was in the movie that she acted in or in the competition video that went viral online later on, Wu Mosen had witnessed Lu Man's skills.

The character of the dancer Man Yun, which Lu Man performed, had especially left a huge impression on him.

So the first one Wu Mosen thought of was Lu Man.

However, it was obvious that Lu Man could not accept any roles in her current state.

Wu Mosen felt regretful at first because it was rare to recognize an actor with only a glance.

It was also the first time he had met such a suitable candidate; this situation could only happen through luck.

So at first, he thought that it was rare that he could decide on the first female lead so smoothly. But the happier he was, the more disappointed he got.

And then he saw the performance of Yan Zhiqing during her audition. He found that Yan Zhiqing was different from Lu Man. She gave a different feeling

Lu Man was more suited to playing Yan Jiayin during the latter parts; Lu Man's eyes looked as though she had been through a lot.

On the other hand, Yan Zhiqing was more suited to playing the middle part, when the situation was not as complicated.

However, Wu Mosen had still witnessed Yan Zhiqing's level of performance, which surprised him.

Then, he straight away decided on Yan Zhiqing.

While Yan Zhiqing was trying to figure out the character, she got Han Zhuofeng's call.

Han Zhuofeng was an assistant director in the production crew and was mainly here to learn from Wu Mosen.

Yan Zhiqing also knew about this and felt that this production crew was... just like home. Everyone was familiar.

If Yan Zhiqing felt that way, Shi Xiaoya felt that even more.

This movie had been invested in by her husband's family, so her husband had a say in the production.

Her brother-in-law was the assistant director, and the first female lead was a family friend.

Her working environment this time was beyond excellent.

There was family everywhere she went; she did not feel any stress at all.

"Big Sister Zhiqing." The moment Yan Zhiqing picked up, Han Zhuofeng called her name.

"What is it?" asked Yan Zhiqing. "Almost every member of the main production crew is here and we'll officially start shooting tomorrow. Director Wu says that we should have a meal together tonight to familiarize ourselves with each other," said Han Zhuofeng.

The entertainment industry was actually not huge. Whenever they attended events or acted in movies, they could always see the same people.

However, there were very few who had good relationships with each other; many disappeared after collaborating with each other.

In the end, they were still not close to each other.

Even worse, no matter how much time they spent together in a movie, some had never spoken more than a few sentences to each other.

Let alone have a good relationship, it was already good enough to not fall out with each other.

"Okay," Yan Zhiqing agreed easily. "Should I go down now?"

"Yeah. I will wait for you guys in the hall," said Han Zhuofeng.

Before Han Zhuofeng called Yan Zhiqing, he had already contacted Shi Xiaoya.

As expected, a while after Yan Zhiqing hung up, Shi Xiaoya knocked on the door.

Yan Zhiqing opened the door. Guo Yujie was also there. "We're going now?" said Yan Zhiqing. "When you're ready, we'll go," said Shi Xiaoya, smiling.

"I am ready. Let me take a bag," said Yan Zhiqing.

She turned around and took a tiny bag, which had been placed on the table. She carried it on her shoulder and followed Shi Xiaoya.

This suburb did not have any tourist attraction. The studio was also newly built and was not open to the public. So right now, there were not many tourists here.

e were

While the three were taking the elevator to the first floor, other than the production crew members, they did not see other people.

When they reached the first floor, they saw Han Zhuofeng waiting there.

After seeing the three of them, Han Zhuofeng waved. "Big Sister Zhiqing, Sister-in-law."

When Shi Xiaoya heard him say "Sister-in-law," she felt a feeling of intimacy rise up

"Have you all tidied up?" Han Zhuofeng asked them.

"We've tidied up. We even rested a while just now," said Shi Xiaoya, smiling.

Actually, they did not feel tired as they did not run around today.

"I even got a call from my big brother asking me to take care of you," Han Zhuofeng said to Shi Xiaoya.

Yan Zhiqing rolled her eyes. "Your big brother is too pragmatic! He just asked me to take care of Xiaoya. When telling you that, did it not cross his mind to ask you to take care of me too?"

Chapter 2948 Comforting Her or Triggering Her?

Han Zhuofeng said, "Does that need to be specifically instructed by my big brother? How can I not also take care of you?"

Yan Zhiqing sneered. "Your EQ is much higher than your big brother's."

Han Zhuofeng then asked, "Can you say this again in front of him?"

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

This was bullying, right?

If she had the guts to say such a thing in front of Han Zhuoling, she would have said it just now when Han Zhuoling was still here.

Was she not just acting big in front of Han Zhuofeng?

Why did Han Zhuofeng expose her?! She only complimented him for having a high

EQ!

Yan Zhiqing decided to take back her compliment.

Right after, Han Zhuofeng said, "Besides, how can my big brother ask me to take care of another woman? Even if it's you, he can't. My big brother doesn't do this."

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

Her eyes twitched. "Your big brother is not here, so he asked you to complete his mission of showing off his affection?" "Hmm? How did you know?" said Han Zhuofeng naturally, without feeling even a tiny hint of shame.

"My big brother specifically urged me to constantly remind everyone in the production crew about their relationship even if he's not here," said Han Zhuofeng.

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

"Bye, I am full. I don't want to eat any more." Yan Zhiqing had a poker face as she waved her hand at Han Zhuofeng, turning around to return to her own room.

This inhumane world was filled with evil intentions towards single people.

And Han Zhuofeng was single himself, but he still triggered her like that; he was really not understanding at all.

"Zhiqing! Zhiqing!" Shi Xiaoya pulled her immediately. "Don't go! Don't... don't stoop to the same level as my brother-in-law."

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

Was Shi Xiaoya comforting her or triggering her?

She had always just called Han Zhuofeng "Zhuofeng," but now Shi Xiaoya was calling him "brother-in-law." Was this not triggering to her?

Yan Zhiqing's expression was filled with grief and indignance. "Xiaoya, you have also learned bad things from them. You're not the Xiaoya that I once knew."

Shi Xiaoya blushed and said, embarrassed, "What... Zhuoling is not here and I miss him a lot, so I have to keep mentioning him to cure my lovesickness. Only then can I feel like he's still close to me."

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

She felt despair.

Shi Xiaoya was once such a kind girl.

Ever since she married into the Han Family, her style had been changed badly by them.

She became really bad!

Yan Zhiqing said that she was going to leave, but she was just saying it for fun.

In the end, she still had to go with Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuofeng with a cramped expression.

Because of geographic reasons, there were not a lot of restaurants around. There was a commercial district a little further away.

Previously, Wu Mosen had been following up with the building of the studio, so he was very familiar with the area already.

So he knew the roads around here quite well.

He reserved a restaurant in the commercial district nearby.

The restaurant was not huge, but it was grounded.

It was like a market with food stalls, but it also had private rooms.

It was a very good place for them to develop fellowship.

Because the restaurant was lively and not as formal as big restaurants, it was actually more suited for fostering fellowship and was easier to relax in.

Wu Mosen really valued harmony within the production crew.

When everyone's relationship with each other was good, their chemistry during the filming would be better too.

The official shooting would start tomorrow. As it was Wu Mosen's movie, no matter how big the star was, he valued every one of them.

Chapter 2949 That Would Be Awkward

Everyone arrived at least a day earlier.

The actors who were not playing very important characters or who were not famous had arrived a few days earlier.

Yan Zhiqing, Shi Xiaoya, and Guo Yujie followed Han Zhuofeng to this restaurant.

As soon as the car stopped, they could already smell the scent of barbeque that came out.

Han Zhuofeng also came here two months earlier with Wu Mosen.

So he was also familiar with this restaurant.

"This restaurant's barbeque is delicious," said Han Zhuofeng, introducing the restaurant. "Although this place is not eye-catching, its dishes are delicious. They have flavors gained from frying in a wok and they smell amazing." "I love this kind of restaurant." Yan Zhiqing smiled and said, "Whenever I am shooting, if I am not tired afterward, I would bring my assistant along and look for this kind of small restaurant to eat in. If I am too lazy to move, I would order delivery.”

“Me too,” said Shi Xiaoya, smiling.

They were not picky in terms of restaurants and were not people who had to choose big ones.

Instead, they liked the style of this kind of small restaurant even more.

The four entered the restaurant. Obviously, Han Zhuofeng and Wu Mosen were also here.

The boss was familiar with Han Zhuofeng. When he saw Han Zhuofeng, he smiled. “Xiao Han, you’re here.” The boss had a smiley face and was extremely friendly.

He did not know that Han Zhuofeng was the famous Youngest Master of the Han Family. He only saw Han Zhuofeng as the assistant director of this production crew.

So he did not feel distant. He treated Han Zhuofeng like how he would treat an ordinary young fellow from the neighborhood.

He felt that it must not be easy for this young guy to come out to work at such a young age.

Then, he caught a glimpse of Yan Zhiqing.

The boss recognized her with one glance. “Aiyo... this... isn’t this...”

Yan Zhiqing smiled. She was not like those people who would not admit it and tell others they were mistaken. Yan Zhiqing always admitted it openly, and before the boss even recognized her, she introduced herself. “Hello. I am Yan Zhiqing.” That was to prevent the boss from recognizing the wrong person and calling the wrong name. That would be awkward.

Luckily, the boss did not recognize her wrongly. After hearing Yan Zhiqing’s words, he did not show an awkward expression.

He was just surprised. “Aiyo, I didn’t expect you would also come to our small restaurant. I am honored by your presence. Tonight’s meal will be on me.”

“We can’t do that.” Han Zhuofeng smiled and said, “It’s not easy for you to run a restaurant, so how can we do that? Besides, we have a house full of people tonight; it will not be cheap. Our director is rich. You don’t need to save money for him.”

Of course, it was on Wu Mosen tonight.

Yan Zhiqing smiled and said, “Do you want me to take a picture with you so you can hang it on the wall?”

The boss was shocked. It was his first time meeting a celebrity who would take the initiative to request a picture together.

The boss nodded immediately to such a good thing. “Of course, yes! I just... just didn’t expect that you would mention it yourself.”

Honestly, whoever paid attention to the entertainment industry would know about Yan Zhiqing's family background.

The boss was naturally not unfamiliar with it.

She was the daughter of a great family and was a celebrity at the same time. She was born into glory, and now her glory was getting greater and greater. Those who did not understand Yan Zhiqing and judged only her identity would feel that she was an arrogant person. Especially when the image that Yan Zhiqing showed others was a cold one.

And recently, Yan Zhiqing had been obsessed with red lipstick.

Her makeup seemed imposing.

Chapter 2950 Why Are You Here?

In the usual photos uploaded by journalists, she was always wearing sunglasses and red lipstick, looking as though she was extremely cold.

The boss did not expect that Yan Zhiqing was so approachable in person.

"Honestly, you're different from what I imagined. Usually, in the videos that the fans post online, there are many celebrities who ignore people. When they go out, their bodyguards will open a path for them, and the assistants will even ask the fans to back off. They can't even talk to those celebrities." The boss sighed.

Yan Zhiqing said, smiling, "Actually, it depends on each individual. There are many people who are the same as me."

The boss chuckled and did not say anything more.

If he said anything more, he would be creating hatred towards Yan Zhiqing.

He quickly took a picture with Yan Zhiqing and even asked her for an autograph. After he was done, the boss gave Yan Zhiqing a thumbs up. "We really can't judge someone completely based on impressions. After seeing you in person today, I came to know that you're extremely good. From now on, I am your fan. If anyone talks bad about you, I will be angry at that person!" "Okay, then, I'll leave that to you," said Yan Zhiqing, smiling. "I didn't expect that I can gain a fan when I came out to have a meal."

Just as she finished talking, she saw Wei Wucai strolling out with hands in his pocket.

Yan Zhiqing was so shocked that her eyes almost popped out.

Shi Xiaoya was also so shocked that she moved a few steps towards Han Zhuofeng. "What is Wei Wucai doing here?"

Before Han Zhuofeng could answer, they heard Wei Wucai say, "You said that you're already here. When I guessed that you guys should be here but didn't see anyone, I came out to take a look."

"Why are you here?" Yan Zhiqing asked, surprised.

"Oh, don't you know? My company is in charge of the special effects this time," said Wei Wucai calmly.

“What in the world?” Yan Zhiqing took two steps back in shock. “You... why are you in charge of this? No... you have a special effects company?” “Of course.” Wei Wucai raised his eyebrows. “I can’t just depend on my job at the Mount Lan Compound. We all have our own side businesses.”

Yuan Jiangyi, for instance. As a world-renowned hacker, other than working at the Mount Lan Compound, he also had his own tech company. Sometimes, he would also take on some hacking tasks just because his hands were itchy.

Of course, other than a few people, nobody knew that Yuan Jiangyi was the famous hacker “Yi Person.”

The Wen Family did not lack money. And given the kind of jobs they did, there would definitely be risks.

So the reward was not small.

However, the fellows at the Mount Lan Compound were not people who had no ambitions, being satisfied just with working there.

Because of that, based on their own means and skills, they started businesses that belonged to them alone.

The Mount Lan Compound also supported them. As long as their work at the Mount Lan Compound was not affected, no matter what plans they had, the Mount Lan Compound did not care.

The Wen Family was no different. Although their main one was the Mount Lan Compound, they also had various businesses.

Wei Wucai and the others all went in the direction of technology.

Yuan Jiangyi started his own tech company.

Because of the relationship between the Wei Family and the Han Family, Wei Wucai started his own special effects company and partnered up with the Han Corporation. When there was no work at the Mount Lan Compound, he would join the work at his own company.

When Wu Mosen came to him for collaboration, it was a coincidence that there was no work to be done at the Mount Lan Compound.
