

Mr Han 3041

Chapter 3041: Almost a Kiss

"..." Yan Zhiqing nodded, indicating that she understood.

"They would also download porn," Wei Wucai said honestly.

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

Wei Wucai was clearly treating her as a bestie. He even told her these types of things, showing his sincerity.

"However, I was not interested in those things at all. They even asked me to watch it with them. I tried it, but it was really boring. I didn't feel anything." Wei Wucai was not lying at all.

Back then, Yuan Jiangyi and Hao Donghuai had dragged him along to watch some Japanese pornography.

However, all three of them felt nothing.

Yuan Jiangyi thought that the actress was ugly.

Hao Donghuai thought that the acting was too fake.

As for Wei Wucai, he just didn't see anything good in it.

Everything about it was bad.

And so, the three never watched such things again.

However, it was possible that they stopped watching because they had too much training.

They didn't have much energy left to use. And so, there was not much use for those.

Yan Zhiqing looked at Wei Wucai in admiration. But then, she asked, "That does not really mean you really like boys though?"

Yan Zhiqing paused for a moment. They were the only ones in this dressing room right now, but Yan Zhiqing was still worried that someone might be eavesdropping on the other side of the wall.

She had recovered now and her face was no longer blushing.

She hesitated slightly before she decided to lean towards Wei Wucai.

Seeing her furtive look, Wei Wucai knew that Yan Zhiqing had nothing good to say!

Wei Wucai narrowed his eyes and leaned over as well.

Yan Zhiqing was mentally prepared this time. Even when Wei Wucai leaned over, Yan Zhiqing did not back away nervously.

In fact, she moved forward a bit more, acting as though she was in a competition with Wei Wucai.

Wei Wucai did not realize how physically close he was to Yan Zhiqing.

He glanced over at the tip of her nose above her lips.

He then intentionally exhaled, breathing out some hot air onto her nose.

Yan Zhiqing froze. Her nose felt warm.

She felt as though an electric current flowed through her nose, making it feel numb.

Yan Zhiqing's ears shuddered as she felt very uncomfortable.

With much caution, she secretly glanced over at Wei Wucai.

She then saw that Wei Wucai was not looking at her at all. Instead, he appeared to be listening attentively.

His face was tilted.

Yan Zhiqing adjusted her position slightly so that she could see the side of Wei Wucai's face.

At this moment, their faces were very close to each other.

They were so close to each other that Yan Zhiqing could not even get a full view of Wei Wucai's face.

She could only see one part of his face.

Coincidentally, the first thing she saw was Wei Wucai's nose.

Wei Wucai's nose had always looked tall.

When Yan Zhiqing looked from the side, she could see the arch of the nose even clearer.

Yan Zhiqing saw that even when she was looking closely, he was still good-looking.

She could find nothing wrong with his face.

His deep-set eyes, thick brows, tall nose... Even the shape of his chin was perfect.

His lips looked lovely.

Even the shape of his facial bones was beautiful.

Wei Wucai kept his eyes downcast. His eyelashes were long and thick, casting a light shadow under his eyes.

"Why aren't you saying anything?" Wei Wucai asked in confusion. As he spoke, he turned and looked at her.

However, because the two were really close to each other, the moment Wei Wucai turned his head, the tip of his nose touched Yan Zhiqing's nose.

Chapter 3042: There Is a Girl

His lips were almost touching her face. At this moment, his lips were right at the corner of her mouth.

The air that they exhaled mixed together.

It was as though they were going to kiss.

Them being so close to each other that it was almost intimate messed up Yan Zhiqing's breathing.

Her eyes fluttered, showing how nervous she was.

The blush that had just faded crept up to her face again.

As Yan Zhiqing faced Wei Wucai's perfect face, which was magnified before her eyes, she could no longer keep herself calm.

Her heart was beating faster and faster. She kept her eyes downcast, but she couldn't help but notice Wei Wucai's lips.

"What is it?" Wei Wucai asked.

As though in a trance, Yan Zhiqing saw Wei Wucai's lips opening and closing. He appeared to be saying something.

After a while, Yan Zhiqing finally came back to her senses. She finally recalled what Wei Wucai had just asked.

Yan Zhiqing quickly looked away, no longer brave enough to look at his face.

She glanced over at Wei Wucai's earlobe, thinking that it would be okay to just look at his ear. This would at least distract her slightly.

But then, she noticed that his ear looked very beautiful as well.

She had truly never gotten a good look at Wei Wucai before at all.

Now that she had looked at his face carefully, she realized that every feature of his face was beautiful.

Yan Zhiqing felt like she had gone dumb.

When Wei Wucai asked her a question, she wouldn't answer.

Wei Wucai was not impatient. In an understanding tone, he prompted, "Zhiqing?"

The two were so close to each other. When Wei Wucai spoke, Yan Zhiqing could feel his breath on her nose and lips.

It was as though the breath he exhaled was kissing her lips.

Her lips felt so hot.

Yan Zhiqing's lips couldn't help but tremble. It was as though Wei Wucai's lips were on hers.

Yan Zhiqing pinched her palm.

She said inwardly, "This is your sister. Your sister."

How could she have such thoughts about her sister?

She had never felt anything for him previously. But upon the discovery of him being gay, she felt attracted to him. Unacceptable!

In addition, even if she felt something for him, her feelings for him would go to waste as he was not attracted to women.

Yan Zhiqing kept her eyes downcast. She couldn't understand why she would feel attracted to Wei Wucai.

"I just... I just wanted to ask..." Yan Zhiqing muttered in confusion.

Her voice was so soft that it was as though she was muttering to herself.

Nevertheless, because Wei Wucai was close to her, he heard what she was saying.

However, even Yan Zhiqing had no idea what she herself was saying.

She muttered slowly, pausing and continuing.

Wei Wucai remained patient as he listened.

The corner of his mouth curved up as he enjoyed looking at how absent-minded she appeared.

As he watched Yan Zhiqing's mouth open and close, Wei Wucai took a big gulp of air.

Suddenly, he felt like putting his lips on hers.

Wei Wucai felt like he couldn't focus as well, which rarely happened. As Yan Zhiqing's mouth opened and closed, all the thoughts in his mind flew away.

He could barely hear Yan Zhiqing's voice. "All the teammates you train with are men, right?"

"There is a girl," Wei Wucai said. "She is the only girl in the Hidden Shadows."

When Yan Zhiqing heard this, she felt a little uncomfortable.

However, on second thought, Wei Wucai liked men, so why would she feel uncomfortable?

However, the thought of that girl knowing Wei Wucai since he was young, and at different stages of his life...

Chapter 3043: King Kong Barbie

Suddenly, Yan Zhiqing felt a bit envious.

If it were in the past, she definitely would not have had this sort of feeling.

She would never have had the desire to find out about Wei Wucai's past.

In fact, she had not been interested at all in his past, present, or future.

However, Yan Zhiqing's feelings had changed now.

“But none of us dared to provoke her, so we just treated her more or less like a brother,” Wei Wucai said.

After all, she was a rascal who would take a life whenever she took action.

She never talked nonsense with anyone.

She was truly unrestrainable.

“Aside from her, what about the others?” Yan Zhiqing finally regained her usual composure somewhat. It was probably due to the relationship Wei Wucai had with the female team member he was currently talking about. Consequently, Yan Zhiqing’s heart calmed down.

“You spent every day with so many guys of similar age to you, but you never had feelings for even one of them?”

The corner of Wei Wucai’s eye twitched.

Fortunately, his team members were not around.

Otherwise, if they heard what Yan Zhiqing had just said, they would definitely mock him when they went back!

Even if they knew that he was a straight man, they would still deliberately act as if they were afraid he would fall for them.

...Especially Yuan Jiangyi and Hao Donghuai.

Wei Wucai could not help trembling at the thought of Hao Donghuai, that big guy, acting like a King Kong Barbie.

“No,” Wei Wucai said nonchalantly. “It’s just that there has never been a woman I liked.”

Wei Wucai was being very crafty by saying this. He only said that there was no woman he had ever liked—not that he did not like women.

Unfortunately, under the effects of Wei Wucai’s charm, Yan Zhiqing’s mind was not working so well.

So, she did not him slyly change the main point.

“However, I’ve never liked any of the men I’ve encountered in the past either. Ultimately, it’s just that I’ve never taken a fancy to anyone,” Wei Wucai said. “Regardless if they’re men or women. If we’re talking about girls, my family has introduced many to me. I’ve met girls with all sorts of appearances and personalities, but I’ve never felt anything for any of them.

“I think this is probably just my own problem,” Wei Wucai continued. “Moreover, since I don’t like the girls, why should I waste their time and happiness? So, sometimes, I would show a lousier version of myself to make them dislike me rather than let them have good feelings about me only to be left hanging, unable to advance or retreat.

“You could say that I just needed to be a bit cold to them, and that would have been good enough. However, take Han Zhuoling for example. Isn’t he plenty cold? I’ve also never seen Han Zhuoli give a warm look to other women. Same with your brother. But they still can't stop the women from hoping and being unwilling to give up on them.

"Those girls my family introduced me to were also somewhat prideful. I merely made it clear that I was refusing to date them, then they said that they too felt I wasn't good enough for them."

Yan Zhiqing could not help but feel regretful.

She had truly deeply misunderstood Wei Wucai in the past.

It was out of a sense of responsibility and not wanting to drag them into muddy waters with him that Wei Wucai made the situation clear to the other party.

Although his words were not pleasant to hear, at least he did not leave them hanging, wasting their time and feelings.

This was way better than those men who were garbage.

Yan Zhiqing was currently feeling a bit moved as she heard Wei Wucai say, "Since I'm going to be disliked by them anyway, I might as well tell them how I really feel. Otherwise, even if I were to consider their needs, be more caring towards them, and try hard to not hurt their feelings... Ultimately, I would still be unable to avoid being loathed or even resented by them. In that case, that would be a great loss to me."

Yan Zhiqing was speechless.

Indeed, she was too naive and had felt moved too early.

She absolutely never expected that this was what Wei Wucai actually thought.

Chapter 3044: Wei Wucai's Intention

Although she thought that there was something weird about his explanation, Yan Zhiqing could not specify which part made no sense.

"However, I think it is normal for me to not have fallen in love with anyone before. If you think about your brother and Han Zhuoli, it took a long time for them to finally meet the one."

Yan Zhiqing nodded. Wei Wucai continued, "I have always been busy. There was work to do at the Mount Lan Compound as well as for this company.

"And so, there is not much time left for other matters. I didn't have the chance to meet new people." Wei Wucai said, "Anyway, I haven't met anyone I liked. And so, I am in no rush to find one."

Yan Zhiqing leaned back on the chair, creating some distance between her and Wei Wucai.

As long as Yan Zhiqing kept her distance and stayed slightly away from Wei Wucai, she would feel less nervous and more at ease.

She knew she had almost misbehaved earlier.

She wondered if Wei Wucai had noticed her reaction.

Yan Zhiqing entered into a period of self-loathing.

She thought to herself, as a professional actress, was she not able to hide her inner voice?

Wei Wucai didn't notice, right?

Yan Zhiqing thought of how fortunate she was as she looked down and took a few bites of the lettuce.

She then looked up and peeked at Wei Wucai.

Coincidentally, Wei Wucai looked down as well.

Suddenly, their foreheads bumped together.

It wasn't hard. It was more like a light bump.

The table was not big enough. As a result, whenever Wei Wucai lowered his head, he would easily hit her forehead.

Unconsciously, Yan Zhiqing raised her hand and rubbed the area that she had bumped.

Wei Wucai's skin looked soft and delicate. However, men generally have rougher skin than women. They are not that delicate.

Still, his skin felt soft and warm.

As Yan Zhiqing massaged her forehead, Wei Wucai said, "Sorry for bumping into you."

He looked really worried. As he spoke, he stood up and reached across. He then wrapped his hand on her forehead, placing his thumb on the bumped area.

The other four fingers were placed along her hairline.

His thumb was touching the bumped area. His fingers were touching the skin around her hairline.

These areas of her skin felt so hot.

Yan Zhiqing could distinctly feel the little ridges on Wei Wucai's fingers.

From a young age, Wei Wucai had had to go through a lot of rigorous training.

And so, his fingers had become calloused, feeling rougher than other people's fingers.

At first glance, his fingers looked long, thin, fair, and elegant. He had the hands of the son of a noble family.

His hands looked very refined.

And yet, if one flipped his hand over, they would see callouses, which were caused by years of training, on his palm and fingertips.

One side of his hand looked like the hand of a young nobleman, but the palm of his hand appeared very strong, making him look very manly and reliable.

The palm of his hand felt rough and was not as soft as that of others.
But when Wei Wucai touched her, she didn't feel uncomfortable at all.
Wei Wucai carefully massaged the bumped area.
Actually, the bump shouldn't hurt at all.
Yan Zhiqing had no idea that Wei Wucai had done this intentionally!
He had intentionally bumped into Yan Zhiqing's forehead.
And so, Wei Wucai had controlled how hard he would bump into Yan Zhiqing.
It was just a light bump. It wouldn't have hurt Yan Zhiqing at all. He knew this clearly.
He was just taking the opportunity to touch Yan Zhiqing's forehead.
Yet Yan Zhiqing, being a dummy, still had no idea.

Chapter 3045: She Looked Down on Wei Wucai

The sudden touch left Yan Zhiqing stunned.
Even when he continued pressing his fingers on her forehead, she remained stupefied.
Yet Wei Wucai still pretended to act like a gentleman. He appeared very worried as he asked, "Did I hit you too hard?"
Yan Zhiqing felt her entire face burning.
This burning temperature spread wherever he touched.
Her face, neck, and different parts of her body were burning.
Even her heart skipped a beat.
When the heat spread to the top of her head, her scalp started feeling numb. It felt as though electrical currents had spread to the tips of her hair.
Yan Zhiqing lifted her head and saw Wei Wucai's worried expression.
She could see her face reflected in his eyes.
Through his dark pupils, Yan Zhiqing could see herself looking slow and dumb.
Did she really look this dumb in front of him?
Upon that thought, Yan Zhiqing regained her senses. She pulled back and touched her own forehead as she answered, "I'm fine. It doesn't hurt. It was just a light bump."
Wei Wucai stopped while things were still good, putting his hand away.
He was worried that Yan Zhiqing might see through his tricks.

Even so, he still appeared concerned as he said, "But your forehead is red."

Actually, her forehead had turned red because he kept rubbing it.

However, Wei Wucai decided to keep this a secret.

Yan Zhiqing said, "It's alright. It must have turned red because I kept rubbing it. I didn't feel anything at all."

Yan Zhiqing had no courage to mention that Wei Wucai had massaged her forehead.

If she had talked about it, she would recall what she had seen earlier.

She dreaded thinking about it again and was really scared that she might lose control of herself.

While Yan Zhiqing was not looking, Wei Wucai's eyes narrowed.

Didn't feel anything?

He had hit her on the forehead and had rubbed her forehead with his hand. He was touching her. How could she say that she felt nothing?

She clearly looked down on Wei Wucai!

She really thought he was gay!

"Good," Wei Wucai said calmly.

He smiled and said, "But I never thought that things could be so peaceful between us."

Yan Zhiqing recalled how incompatible they used to be, like water and fire.

She couldn't stand his existence, and he couldn't stand her existence either.

They never saw eye to eye and would glare at each other whenever they saw each other.

It was truly unexpected for them to remain calm around each other. They even became friends and were having food together here.

Yan Zhiqing really did not expect that she would blush because of Wei Wucai.

Everything changed so quickly that Yan Zhiqing herself was not mentally prepared.

"Yes... Yes..." Yan Zhiqing said in a flustered tone. "I did not expect this as well."

With this, she started laughing.

"I wonder if it could be chalked up to how nothing is permanent in this world," Yan Zhiqing said with a smile.

Wei Wucai was speechless.

Could the impermanence of the world be used to describe this?

Although he grew up at the Mount Lan Compound, he never stopped studying.

It was peculiar to chalk up this situation to the impermanence of the world.

The two had a good time chatting with each other.

Most importantly, Wei Wucai did a very good job at flirting with Yan Zhiqing.

And so, they had no idea that an uninvited guest had arrived at the filming site.

The set was not open to outsiders.

However, they just so happened to be filming outside today, so there was no way they could stop people from coming over.

It was unknown as to what Luo Qingxian had done, but she did manage to sneak in.

Almost everyone here was famous. Even those who were less known by people looked familiar.

And so, Luo Qingxian did not casually walk around the filming site, looking for someone.

She looked around the site but did not see Yan Zhiqing at all.

Chapter 3046: The Winner in Life

While Luo Qingxian was walking around, she saw Shi Xiaoya get out of Yan Zhiqing's car.

They had just finished lunch, which was why they decided to take a walk outside to improve digestion.

B City's air quality was very good today. The sky was blue and clouds filled it. The weather was good, and there was no sight of any haze.

Luo Qingxian might not be able to recognize the others in Shi Xiaoya's group.

However, she immediately recognized Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuofeng.

Shi Xiaoya was a makeup artist and a famous makeup vlogger. She was widely known because of her relationship with Han Zhuoling.

She often attended dinner parties with the Han Family. In fact, Luo Qingxian had met Shi Xiaoya at one such dinner party.

Luo Qingxian's mother was a friend of Wei Wucai's mother. Luo Qingxian graduated from Jixia Academy and was Shi Xiaoya's classmate. This indicated that the Luo family was not some small fry.

Luo Qingxian got to know Shi Xiaoya first because they were classmates. However, because they were not friends, they rarely contacted each other.

Before Shi Xiaoya started dating Han Zhuoling, Shi Xiaoya would attend some cocktail parties or auctioning events with the Shi family.

However, because of her work, she didn't attend the parties that often.

Out of ten parties held, Shi Xiaoya would only show up to three of them.

During that time, Luo Qingxian looked down on Shi Xiaoya.

But who could have expected that Shi Xiaoya would go through a total transformation and start dating Han Zhuoling!

She wasn't just any girlfriend. She had even successfully married Han Zhuoling and became a Young Madam of the Han Family.

It confused Luo Qingxian as to how Shi Xiaoya, someone unremarkable, succeeded.

As for Luo Qingxian, she had to struggle so much just to befriend anyone from the eight great families.

Even Wei Wucai, who wasn't a lineal descendant, refused to acknowledge her existence.

In Luo Qingxian's opinion, Shi Xiaoya must not be as innocent, carefree, and desireless as she presented herself to be.

She presented herself as someone who didn't rely on others and who only focused on building her career.

If Shi Xiaoya truly had no desire, how did she successfully take down Han Zhuoling?

Clearly, Shi Xiaoya must be a very cunning person. She must have put in so much effort to get the success she had today.

And now, not only was Shi Xiaoya's relationship with Han Zhuoling getting better, but her career was also skyrocketing. Shi Xiaoya was going to be a successful career woman.

With the help of Han Zhuoling, everything in her life became even better.

She even successfully became the makeup artist for the lead actress in Wu Mosen's new movie.

Shi Xiaoya harvested both a loving relationship and a successful career. She was a winner in life.

How could anyone not be jealous of her!

Luo Qingxian herself was extremely envious of Shi Xiaoya's successful life.

Everything went well for her. She didn't have to struggle and nothing bad happened to her.

From childhood, Shi Xiaoya had been loved by everyone in her family. She was the center of attention in their house.

When she started work, her career took off so smoothly. There was no struggle at all.

At a young age, she married a talented man who was like a rare gem.

The more Luo Qingxian thought about it, the more crappy she felt.

Luo Qingxing thought of herself as someone who wasn't inferior to Shi Xiaoya. And yet, she was not as lucky as Shi Xiaoya.

After Shi Xiaoya married Han Zhuoling, she met Shi Xiaoya at a party again.

Shi Xiaoya attended the party as Mrs. Han.

Previously, when Shi Xiaoya had attended parties as a member of the Shi family, Luo Qingxian would approach her and engage in some small talk.

Luo Qingxian did not actually want to talk to Shi Xiaoya.

She just wanted to know what Shi Xiaoya was up to and how the progress of her career was.

Chapter 3047: Her Lie

If Shi Xiaoya were unknown and if her career were to be stagnant, Luo Qingxian would have been very happy.

If she were to hear that Shi Xiaoya was struggling, she would have been even happier.

Unfortunately, Shi Xiaoya never had the chance to make her happy.

Later on, Shi Xiaoya started attending dinner parties as Mrs. Han and Luo Qingxian could not even get near her.

This was because Shi Xiaoya was always beside Han Zhuoling.

As for Han Zhuoling, he was truly someone she was unqualified to speak to...

Only the ones who did business with the Han Family could have a brief conversation with Han Zhuoling.

People like Luo Qingxian were considered mere family members of the invited guest, so she represented no one.

She couldn't approach him at all.

She could only watch Shi Xiaoya talk with women who were even more reputable than her.

She could not get into that social circle at all.

Even if she had the right to attend the dinner parties, she couldn't include herself into some social circles.

Within these social circles, there were strict rankings that no one talked about.

Once, when Shi Xiaoya went to get some dessert at the dessert area with Lu Man...

Luo Qingxian had taken her chance and went to talk to Shi Xiaoya.

She approached Shi Xiaoya using her identity as Shi Xiaoya's classmate. She also wanted to get to know Lu Man.

Lu Man was the next Madam Han.

Lu Man and Shi Xiaoya were not aloof and cold people. They responded politely and even had a brief conversation with Luo Qingxian.

Although Shi Xiaoya did not like Luo Qingxian, she wouldn't be disrespectful to her.

On the other hand, Luo Qingxian herself was all smiles when she was in front of them, but her face darkened the moment she turned away.

The jealousy in her heart was so intense that she could no longer prevent it from showing on her face.

In her opinion, Lu Man and Shi Xiaoya's politeness was just arrogance.

They were like the rich giving alms to the poor.

Because they looked down on her, they intentionally appeared easygoing.

Clearly, Luo Qingxian's jealousy was so intense that her mind got crippled.

When she heard from Lu Xiuse that Wei Wucai was also part of the production crew and that he was currently engaging in a flirty relationship with Yan Zhiqing...

Luo Qingxian was mindful of what she had been told.

She knew that Lu Xiuse had told her these things to use her as a pawn.

Lu Xiuse and Yan Zhiqing were not in a good relationship. Everyone in the entertainment industry as well as the netizens knew about this.

Lu Xiuse wanted to keep the hostility between them a secret and remain a fake friend.

But Yan Zhiqing refused.

Yan Zhiqing didn't care at all. She didn't care about being liked by some random netizen.

Yan Zhiqing was very tough.

She publicly announced her conflict with Lu Xiuse.

Lu Xiuse was caught off guard. Before she could even explain anything, Yan Zhiqing had already destroyed her reputation of being in a good relationship with everyone in the industry.

She could no longer pretend to be a fake bestie.

In addition, Lu Xiuse had initially auditioned for the female lead role, but she failed.

And Yan Zhiqing took the female lead role.

In the end, Lu Xiuse could not even get a supporting role.

In Luo Qingxian's opinion, Lu Xiuse did it to herself.

Lu Xiuse hated Yan Zhiqing so much because of old and new grudges.

And so, when Lu Xiuse told Luo Qingxian about the flirtatious relationship between Yan Zhiqing and Wei Wucai, it's because she wanted to harm Yan Zhiqing using Luo Qingxian's hands.

But Luo Qingxian herself was unsure of whether something was really happening between Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing. She wasn't sure if Lu Xiuse had lied to her and was just using her to harm Yan Zhiqing.

Because of this certainty, Luo Qingxian did not come here right away after learning about everything from Lu Xiuse.

However, while she was still away, she kept thinking about it and couldn't let it go.

Chapter 3048: Not Helping Her Would Be Looking Down on Her

The worrying thing was that, if she really did not show up, then she would miss out on this opportunity.

...And she would be letting Yan Zhiqing benefit too easily.

Although she did not have the mindset that she had to have no one else but him...

Luo Qingxian was simply dissatisfied. Wei Wucai had actually yet to fall for her?

Just because of those looks of his, he was even treating her with disdain?

Of course, Luo Qingxian was simultaneously very curious as to precisely what Wei Wucai did for work.

She kept feeling that Wei Wucai was not as ordinary as he seemed; at least, not like how he described it.

He was definitely hiding something from her.

So, Luo Qingxian was ultimately unable to bear it anymore and wanted to come over to see.

However, she also knew that Wu Mosen's cast and crew were very good at keeping their work confidential.

They did not allow reporters to enter the set, in the utmost effort to prevent information related to the film from getting leaked in advance.

So, if Luo Qingxian wanted to enter the set, she had to think of a way to get someone to bring her inside.

Consequently, Luo Qingxian once again contacted Shi Xiaoya, thinking of having the latter fetch her and bring her onto the set.

Naturally, Shi Xiaoya refused and said, "I've signed an agreement. I can't randomly bring in outsiders."

As for Han Zhuoling, he was her husband, so he was not considered an outsider.

Moreover, Han Zhuoling had justifiable reasons for going over to the set as the Han Corporation was one of the investors of "Left and Right."

So he would not be leaking information about the filming situation of the movie.

When Shi Xiaoya heard Luo Qingxian's request, she felt the latter had to be doing this because she was aiming for Wei Wucai.

To begin with, Shi Xiaoya was not the kind of person who would intervene in someone else's romantic matters.

Regardless of what the matter was, it was the problem of the people involved; she would not interfere.

However, Shi Xiaoya was fully aware that Wei Wucai simply had no feelings at all for Luo Qingxian, so it was clear Luo Qingxian was coming over to bother him. As such, Shi Xiaoya was naturally unwilling to help her.

Moreover, there was already something going on between Yan Zhiqing and Wei Wucai.

As expected, Luo Qingxian became very unhappy upon hearing Shi Xiaoya's refusal.

"Xiaoya, aren't we old classmates? I've never asked you for help with anything before. This is a rare time that I've approached you for a favor, and it's not even a big one. So why won't you help me?"

"What? Are you looking down on this old classmate of yours now that you've become Mrs. Han?" While Luo Qingxian held her cell phone, a sneer appeared beside the mouthpiece.

Shi Xiaoya furrowed her brows and tightly pursed her lips in displeasure.

What did this have to do with her looking down on Luo Qingxian?

Just because Luo Qingxian had not asked her for help before, she should agree to help now that Luo Qingxian was asking?

And that not helping her would be looking down on her?

There was nothing Shi Xiaoya should or should not do regarding this matter.

She did not owe Luo Qingxian anything, so nothing was affecting the number of times she should help the latter.

Shi Xiaoya had to help Luo Qingxian just because she came asking for a favor?

There was no such logic.

What was that about how Luo Qingxian had never asked her for help before?

And so Shi Xiaoya had to help her now that she was asking?

Luo Qingxian had not considered Shi Xiaoya at all.

Luo Qingxian was truly too self-important.

Shi Xiaoya said with complete bluntness, "Previously, at the anniversary of the school's founding, didn't you ask me to help you ask around about what relationship Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing have? It seems like this isn't your first time asking me for help."

"But you didn't help me that time, right?" Luo Qingxian said in a very logical manner.

"This isn't even a difficult thing. For you, it's just as easy as lifting a hand. Why are you so unwilling to help me?" Luo Qingxian said in annoyance.

Since it was just a small thing, what did it matter if Shi Xiaoya helped out?

It would be no trouble at all for Shi Xiaoya.

So why was this person so bad?!

In Luo Qingxian's view, if someone was unwilling to help with a simple task, they were a bad person!

Shi Xiaoya needed to help her with this favor. Otherwise, that meant Shi Xiaoya was being unreasonable.

Chapter 3049: To Be Honest, Who Are You to Me?

"However, to me, it's not as easy as that. I've signed an agreement. If I violate it, I'll get fired from the production crew. That means this isn't actually such a small thing. This favor of yours... I won't be helping you with it," Shi Xiaoya said coldly.

"But you're Han Zhuoling's wife! The Han Corporation has invested in that movie. Moreover, you're not simply a staff member," Luo Qingxian countered.

Shi Xiaoya raised her eyebrows. She did not expect Luo Qingxian to be so knowledgeable about the situation.

"Even if you violate the rules of the agreement, they won't be able to fire you," Luo Qingxian said hurriedly. "So, this is still considered a small matter to you. You don't have much to worry about at all, so why won't you help me?"

Shi Xiaoya was truly angered into a smile. "Even if they won't really fire me, it will still depend on how much they respect Zhuoling. But I clearly know the rules. If I don't abide by them, it's a deliberate violation. It would cause Zhuoling, the Hans, and myself to get discredited.

"It would also bring shame upon my family who raised me. What would others say about Zhuoling, the Hans, my family, and me?" Shi Xiaoya said coldly. "I am clearly able to abide by the rules, yet I deliberately want to break them? Why would I?"

"I don't actually want to have to use this sort of prerogative, nor do I want to do this sort of matter that would get me called despicable and loathsome. I'm in compliance and am unwilling to violate the rules, so why must I break them because of you? To be honest, who are you to me? You want me to receive malicious comments from others and let the many people of the families behind me suffer the same fate just to help you?"

Shi Xiaoya did not care how angry Luo Qingxian would become or how dramatic she would be when feeling that she was being looked down upon.

Shi Xiaoya was very clear on Luo Qingxian's view on the situation.

She just could not be bothered to expose the latter.

No matter how she considered it, Luo Qingxian was someone who did not normally contact her anyway.

Regardless of how Luo Qingxian thought about this, Shi Xiaoya was unable to control Luo Qingxian's mind.

However, this did not mean she was completely ignorant about Luo Qingxian's thoughts.

It seemed to Shi Xiaoya that Luo Qingxian was actually suffering from an inferiority complex.

So, regardless of what the other party expressed, Luo Qingxian would ultimately always feel like they were looking down on her.

“Additionally, you asked why I won’t help you?” Shi Xiaoya appeared to recall something funny.

Luo Qingxian was a distance away from her phone, but she still heard Shi Xiaoya’s laughter.

“Then I too want to ask you... why should I want to help you?” Shi Xiaoya asked in return.

Unexpectedly, Luo Qingxian was not stumped by the question. “Of course, it’s because you can. Moreover, you won’t suffer any losses! Since it’s such a simple thing to you, why are you unwilling to help me?”

Shi Xiaoya felt that it was truly very pointless to keep going around in circles like this with Luo Qingxian.

Thus, she said, “Then think whatever you want. Clearly, our values are incompatible. Or perhaps it’s because you’re too selfish. As long as it is something beneficial to you, you feel as if it should be given to you.”

Upon seeing that Shi Xiaoya wanted to refuse doing her the favor and did not have the slightest bit of hesitation, Luo Qingxian said immediately, “Shi Xiaoya, I was your classmate!”

“So what if you were my classmate? I have many old classmates. There were so many students in our class, but none of them are like you, asking for unreasonable request from me as though you have the right to do so. You even feel that I’m in the wrong if I don’t help you.

“Do you think you’re so charming that you can get everyone to revolve around you?” Shi Xiaoya said coldly. “So helping you is something I ought to do, and if I don’t do it, I’m in the wrong. I really want to ask you... just what makes you think this is the case?”

Chapter 3050: Aiming for Wei Wucai

“I never said it like that! Don’t randomly label me as being unfair!” Luo Qingxian immediately said. “It’s just that I feel it’s such a simple thing. Since it’s such a simple thing, why can’t you help me with it? Could it be that if you were to encounter an old lady crossing the road, you wouldn’t help her across even though it’s such a very simple thing for you to do?”

“It’s just you who thinks it’s a very simple matter,” Shi Xiaoya said coldly.

“Moreover, don’t compare yourself with a weak old lady. Are you an elderly person, or are you disabled? Will you suffer any losses if I don’t bring you onto the set? If you’re in neither of those categories, stop thinking of yourself as someone important!” Shi Xiaoya said without any restraint at all.

Luo Qingxian became so angry that she kept stuttering “Y-Y-You—” and was unable to say a second word.

“Shi Xiaoya, are you unafraid of people finding out about you behaving like this?” Luo Qingxian said sternly.

“What do I have to be afraid of?” Shi Xiaoya did not quite understand Luo Qingxian’s train of thought. “Even if people find out, what about it?”

Who would feel that she was being unreasonable because of this?

Anybody would feel that there was nothing wrong with what she had done!

As for Luo Qingxian, her way of thinking was simply unlike that of an ordinary person. Shi Xiaoya did not want to bother responding to her.

“If you’re unwilling to help an old classmate with even a small matter, is it possible for your reputation to stay good?” Luo Qingxian answered Shi Xiaoya’s question with a question.

In any case, Shi Xiaoya was not afraid. “Okay, so you’re saying that you want to spread this news for me?”

Thinking that Shi Xiaoya was finally having some qualms about the situation, Luo Qingxian said complacently, “If you don’t help me, my request won’t be fulfilled. That means I will definitely go find someone else who can help me. In passing, I will talk about how you could have helped me but weren’t willing to. So I had no choice but to ask someone else for help.”

“Go ahead then.” Shi Xiaoya did not mind it at all. “I too can, in passing, talk about just why you came to find me for help.”

When Luo Qingxian heard this, her complexion paled.

“You know why?” Luo Qingxian asked.

“You are aiming for Wei Wucai, right?” Shi Xiaoya said bluntly.

“Nonsense!” Luo Qingxian could not help raising her voice. “You’re slandering me!”

Luo Qingxian was someone who would feel inferior to someone who had a higher status than her.

Regardless of what the other party did, she would feel that they were looking down on her.

However, she also treasured her reputation a lot.

When she was facing someone she deemed inferior to her, she would be especially arrogant and adopt an appearance to show that the other party was not worthy of her being charitable.

When it came to Wei Wucai, Luo Qingxian was inferior to begin with.

However, she kept insisting on coming to bother him, which was in total contradiction to her usual personality.

The thing Luo Qingxian was currently afraid of was that others would find out that she came asking for Shi Xiaoya’s help to sneak into the set just to chase this one man, even though Wei Wucai was clearly out of her league.

It would be extremely embarrassing!

Who knew how those people she normally associated with would talk about and mock her behind her back?

So, when Shi Xiaoya said that, Luo Qingxian truly became very afraid of the consequences.

Shi Xiaoya, on the other hand, was unafraid of Luo Qingxian talking to others about her or how the latter might add false details to the story. She was very indifferent about it all.

Indeed, it was because she was relying on Han Zhuoling.

With Han Zhuoling supporting her, no one would dare talk bad about her to her face even if they did it behind her back.

When they should be polite, they would still be polite.

After all, not everyone was as senseless as Luo Qingxian.

Luo Qingxian flaunted herself as someone intelligent. However, Shi Xiaoya really could not figure it out. What benefits did Luo Qingxian gain by offending her like this?

Shi Xiaoya did feel a bit arrogant by thinking this, though.