

Mr Han 311

Chapter 311: Even If They Had Nothing Better to Do, Why Think of Messing with Lu Man?

Tang Zi: Yeah.

I'm Just a Small Sockpuppet: There's a new actress in the crew, she's called Lu Man. She has hooked up with Sun Yiwu, both of them even went to a hotel together.

Tang Zi: These photos are reliable?

I'm Just a Tiny Horse: Of course, they are reliable. Let me tell you, I'm a resident living there. All of us know about this matter between Sun Yiwu and this actress. Just because we are far away from the city here, the two of them don't even bother covering up. My classmate's younger brother works at the hotel they live in. He said that Lu Man would go to Sun Yiwu every night, and the next morning, there would always be a lot of condoms found in Sun Yiwu's room.

"Did you look through all of them?" Tang Zi asked.

"Yes."

"Who did you offend?" Tang Zi asked. All this while not even once did he suspect Lu Man.

Besides, with such a big 'boss' 1 like Han Zhuoli around, how dumb would Lu Man be if she even thought of sleeping with a director just to climb the ranks?

Tang Zi was her good friend of many years, after all; he knew Lu Man so well that he never suspected her at all from the very start.

Lu Man closed her eyes and thought for a while. "I do have someone in mind, but I can't make wild guesses without any evidence. How about this? Send me that sockpuppet account and I'll get Brother Han to check on it. I've finished filming all my scenes today, and the director knows about my relationship with Brother Han, so he has always been rather kind to me and even brought the main crew along to bid me farewell."

"Alright." Tang Zi hung up the phone. "I'll try to hold back this matter with the photographs, but I can't do it for too long, Mr. Han will still have to do something about it after all."

After not too long, Lu Man received the contact from Tang Zi.

Lu Man called Han Zhuoli and he picked up on the first ring. "You're coming back tomorrow, but are you already so desperate to see me?"

"I originally was, but right now there's something even more important than this." Lu Man held back her laughter. even if she had just got some bad news from Tang Zi, she wasn't stressed at all.

This wasn't something that she couldn't handle.

Therefore, why even bother worrying about it at all.

“What happened?” Han Zhuoli was surprised. “What could be even more important than me?”

Lu Man relayed everything Tang Zi had informed her to Han Zhuoli. “That’s why I need you to help me find out who’s behind this account.”

Suddenly, there was an eerie silence with no sound coming at all from the other end of the line. Lu Man knew that Han Zhuoli was furious.

“Wait for me, I’ll immediately get someone to check it out.” Right now, Han Zhuoli could not care about chatting with Lu Man. Hanging up the phone, he instantly called Zheng Tianming.

“I’ll give you half an hour’s time.”

Stunned, Zheng Tianming looked dead-pan at his phone. He could only hurriedly get someone to investigate the matter.

As he investigated, he scolded the person, “Who is it! Are they stupid! Even if they had nothing better to do, why think of messing with Lu Man? They are sick!”

As expected, after half an hour, Han Zhuoli received a reply from Zheng Tianming. He had found out that the WeChat sockpuppet account belonged to Bai Shuangshuang’s assistant, Xiao Li.

Before this, he had found out from Lu Man that Bai Shuangshuang was always stirring up trouble for Lu Man.

Back then, Han Zhuoli had already thought of dealing with her. However, he just chose not to make his move yet. But right now, Bai Shuangshuang just made it much easier for him.

However, Han Zhuoli did not inform the Han Corporation’s Public Relations Department. He could not completely trust those people from the Public Relations department.

This matter involved Lu Man, and especially with Xia Mengxuan still in the public relations department, even before the news could leak to other paparazzi teams, it would be leaked out by Xia Mengxuan.

Therefore, Han Zhuoli contacted Wei Zilin instead. He got him to be in charge of contacting any media outlet which received this fake news and Han Zhuoli personally put some pressure on them.

Those people just thought that Lu Man was an ordinary artiste in Han Corporation. They didn’t know what background she could possibly have to get Wei Zilin to personally contact them and even get Han Zhuoli himself to put pressure on them.

Chapter 312: Lu Man Fights Back

With Han Zhuoli and Wei Zilin working together, it was almost equal to half the entire entertainment industry.

To be honest, if they really wanted to survive in the industry, they would not dare to offend them.

Originally, it was just a mere scandal involving a small and unpopular actor. However, just because it involved Sun Yiwu, it became a little more eye-catching.

Therefore, all the media outlets readily agreed to not report the news.

All these, just took Han Zhuoli an hour to settle.

After that, Han Zhuoli called Lu Man. "Everything has been taken care of, there will be no news report at all. That WeChat account belongs to Bai Shuangshuang's assistant Xiao Li."

It could be said that Bai Shuangshuang probably shouldn't think of having any chance left in the entertainment industry anymore.

"How could it be enough to just kick her out of the entertainment industry? Wasn't she trying to ruin my reputation? I'll make her reputation even worse." Honestly, Lu Man was indeed a little bit little afraid and perturbed.

After all, if not for Han Zhuoli, she really had nothing at all and definitely wouldn't have been able to avoid this.

Since that was the case, she did not have to play nice with Bai Shuangshuang either.

Through the phone, she could hear Han Zhuoli's laughter. He said, "Go ahead and do whatever your heart desires. Don't be afraid that you can't take it back or you'll go too overboard, I'm here."

"Okay," Lu Man hung up the phone and directly gave Sun Yiwu a call.

Since there was such a piece of news anyway, it would create even more misunderstandings if she did not directly contact Sun Yiwu.

She then told everything to Sun Yiwu. "I've enough evidence with me that Bai Shuangshuang did it."

Sun Yiwu was surprised as well as furious. He didn't expect that Bai Shuangshuang would be this foolish!

Having such a scandal break out during this time wouldn't help the film in any way at all!

Besides, this was all fake news too!

Unlike actors, he was the director of this film. If he had a 'scandal', the entire movie would go flop!

The public wouldn't buy any tickets!

If the movie lost its popularity and its box office, the actors would also lose their chance of becoming popular with this film!

This Bai Shuangshuang, did she even have a brain!

Putting aside the fact that Lu Man had someone like Han Zhuoli supporting her, even if she didn't have, how dare Bai Shuangshuang implicate him just to harm Lu Man!

No wonder Bai Shuangshuang never became popular even with someone rich backing her.

With an IQ and an EQ like this, if she ever becomes popular, I, Sun Yiwu, swear that I will never film another movie!

Of course, her name has already landed on Han Zhuoli's blacklist. Bai Shuangshuang couldn't even stay in the entertainment industry anymore, let alone become famous.

Therefore, Sun Yiwu was rather confident with that bold statement of his.

However, how Han Zhuoli wanted to deal with Bai Shuangshuang was Han Zhuoli's own business.

Since Bai Shuangshuang had offended him today, it could be guaranteed that Bai Shuangshuang should not even dream of getting a role in any movie or television show from now on, even if she wanted to act as a costume!

"Director Sun, other than wanting to tell you about this news, I wanted to ask you a question too. Typically, how long would a movie be played in theatres before its popularity falls and the box office sales start decreasing?" Lu Man asked.

Confused, Sun Yiwu replied, "Probably from the third week onwards. Why did you ask this?"

Not wanting to hide anything, Lu Man explained, "Bai Shuangshuang tried to plot against me, so I won't let her off so easily. It's just that the film is just starting its promotion, so I can't really do much if I want to avoid creating any negative news regarding the film. However, once the popularity of the movie starts to fade and the box office sales start decreasing, we can release any sort of news then. Whether it's good or bad news, it would still be able to instill some popularity for the movie. I've prepared quite some hot material for Bai Shuangshuang, but I'm not sure whether you would agree to me releasing any bad news regarding Bai Shuangshuang."

Chapter 313: Feel Free and Bravely Do What You Have to Do

Sun Yiwu knew that Lu Man was skilled in public relations but he didn't know this was her style.

She would tell you clearly exactly what she was about to, completely unafraid that of any consequences or changes, unafraid that you would leak her plan out.

This self-confidence came from deep within her bones.

"Alright, no problem." Sun Yiwu agreed extremely readily; it was obvious that Bai Shuangshuang had thoroughly annoyed and angered him. "And if the investors have any opinions regarding this, I'll fend them off, feel free and bravely do what you have to do."

"Thank you," Lu Man smiled and replied.

"Oh right, I have an idea. Since you're a professional, could you take a look and tell me whether it would be alright?" Sun Yiwu said, "I'm not going to lie to you, what Bai Shuangshuang did has completely crossed the line with me. I have no reason to keep her around to continue harming me, and I don't want to let her use my movie to increase her popularity. I want to delete all of her scenes."

Lu Man raised her eyebrows in surprise. "Delete all of them? Will that be alright?"

Sun Yiwu scoffed indignantly, "It will be fine. First of all, she only got the role through connections. I had no choice but to give her an insignificant side role and let her just appear in the movie for a short screen time with a couple of lines. The movie can do without her. To be honest, her role is rather redundant and excessive, it even makes the pace of the movie rather weird. After deleting her role, the pace of the movie will be a lot clearer and faster. Regarding her character removal, I won't tell her about it. She can find out about it on her own once the film premieres."

Lu Man instantly understood Sun Yiwu's intentions. "Then the effect would be even better. The audience wouldn't even know that she was in the movie once. Also, when Bai Shuangshuang finds out, as long as she continues to cause a huge ruckus on the internet, the movie will just keep trending and people will keep talking about it. If that's the case, I can release the scandal about Bai Shuangshuang earlier. It all depends on when Bai Shuangshuang blows up. As long as she can hold it back, I'll release the news at the time I originally planned to. If she can't hold it back, I'll just release it right after she blows up."

"Sure, sure." Sun Yiwu was extremely satisfied. "Let's do it this way!"

After she finished discussing with Sun Yiwu, Lu Man contacted Tang Zi. Actually, she could have contacted Han Zhuoli too, but digging up the dirt on other people was Tang Zi's field of expertise. There was no need to trouble Han Zhuoli again.

After she finished discussing with Tang Zi, Lu Man returned back the next day.

There Han Zhuoli had brought Xia Qingwei along to the airport to fetch Lu Man.

The moment Xia Qingwei met Lu Man, her heart ached tremendously. She caressed Lu Man's face and said, "You've lost weight."

"I didn't, you just haven't seen me in a long time that's all, Mom. When I was working on the set, Brother Han even found a maid to take care of my well being. Every day, she would find different ways to feed me with all sorts of nutritional foods. I feel like I've gained more weight instead."

Lu Man even pinched her own cheeks bitterly. It seemed like she really did become chubbier.

Xia Qingwei smiled, her eyes squinting in glee. "I can rest assured when Xiao Han is around."

"Mom, you're only talking about me. Don't you have anything that you want to tell me?"

For once Xia Qingwei appeared a little sheepish. "That... I was too anxious too. I can't just always let them ruin your future."

"I was just worried since you were alone in City B. What if Lu Qiyuan's sadness had turned into craziness and he came looking for trouble? Without me around, I can't look out for you. In the future, even if you want to torment them, you should still wait until I'm in City B with you."

Xia Qingwei smiled and said, "With Xiao Han around, what's there to worry about? When you weren't around, Xiao Han would come visit me at home every week. If he got too busy with his work and couldn't make time to visit, he would get Zhou Cheng and Xu Hui to come protect me too. Even if Lu Qiyuan really wanted to come and stir up trouble, he wouldn't be able to get close either. Oh right, I've heard from Xiao Han that you decided to learn acting professionally."

Chapter 314: Darling, Hubby, Zhuoli—Take Your Pick

Lu Man nodded. "I think that acting is pretty interesting. I'm not thinking of becoming an idol or celebrity, I just want to improve my acting skills. I've realised that working in this field is rather challenging. There are plenty of possibilities."

"All's good as long as you like it," Xia Qingwei didn't have any opinion against it.

In the evening, as Han Zhuoli was about to leave, Lu Man walked him to the carpark downstairs.

"I've already contacted the school for you. You can start school in summer of the next year. You'll be starting directly your 2nd year," Han Zhuoli said.

Lu Man stopped by the side of his car. "Can I start school in the second semester of the first year after the winter break? After all, I've studied one year less than others, I would miss out on learning a lot of things. If I start one semester earlier, I can take about half a year to catch up on the content from the previous semester, just in case I can't catch up in the second year.'

"Sure, I'll let the school know. It's perfect that Greedy Wolf Operation would hit theatres during the Chinese New Year period. If you start school after the new year, your chances will be pretty good," Han Zhuoli said.

Suddenly, the gaze of the man who was still just talking about serious matters started burning brighter and brighter. What was going on?

Lu Man wittingly scooted slightly to the side, but Han Zhuoli was one step ahead and pressed her onto the car door.

"Finally, You've come back. Yet I haven't even had the chance to hug you today," Han Zhuoli lowered his voice

There was a little huskiness and roughness in his deep voice. Amidst the darkness of the night, it felt a little sexy.

A month had passed by with Lu Man filming and it was already winter in B City and at night it was freezing cold.

The cold winter breeze hit Lu Man's face. It seemed to make her complexion even paler, almost making her beautiful pale skin translucent.

Han Zhuoli's finger touched the back of Lu Man's smooth hand. Then, he grabbed her hand and placed it in the pocket of his coat.

The originally frozen cold hand instantly warmed up in his pocket.

As if he didn't know what 'cold' was, Han Zhuoli hugged her waist with both arms and warmed her cold lips with his kiss.

"Brother Han..." Lu Man almost wanted to remind him that they were still out in public after all.

However, as the weather got colder, a lot of people didn't go out at. Nonetheless, she still felt uncomfortable.

“Call me Zhuoli. Just my first name, no last name,” Han Zhuoli bit her lips lightly as he said lowly.

His hot breath blew on her lips. In such a weather, it was exceptionally warm.

Lu Man mumbled, “You’re so much older than me, I can’t call you that.”

Han Zhuoli, “...”

Is this brat despising that I am too old?

Angrily pressing his hand against Lu Man’s lower back, he pressed her into his embrace. “My age might be greater than yours, but I have something else that’s even bigger.”

Lu Man’s hand in his pocket trembled slightly. Why was this man suddenly starting to flirt?

It was as if the night he had gone to the small town in South Yunnan had opened a gate to a whole new world where he would just come at her so strongly.

At the same time, she was pressed her against the car door.

“Shall we... go into the car first?”

“No. We’ll only go in after you call me Zhuoli,” Han Zhuoli was rather stubborn about it.

Lu Man: “...”

“Darling, Hubby, Zhuoli — take your pick,” Han Zhuoli said once more.

“...” Lu Man mumbled, “You are much older than me. Calling you by your name makes me feel like I’m not respecting you.”

“How could you still try to fool me!” Han Zhuoli directly pinched her waist. It wasn’t painful; instead, it felt like an electric shock, the spot buzzing with heat.

How could he not understand this brat?

“Or maybe, just like the first time in the hotel, you can just call me ‘Li’.” Just even thinking about it left Han Zhuoli excited. Back then, when this brat had called him ‘Li’, his legs had really gone weak.

Chapter 315: It Was Great to Have a Backing After All

Lu Man: “...”

That would be so cheesy and mushy. She definitely wouldn’t call him that.

If not for the circumstances that day that required her to pretend to be a vixen, she wouldn’t have called him that either.

Calling him with just one word made her look like she was insane. It was way too crazy and stupid.

Han Zhuoli's grinned, his eyes squinting in glee. He just knew that this girl wouldn't be able to stand it.

"Zhuo... Zhuoli..." Lu Man braced herself and called him with much difficulty.

Compared to 'Darling' or 'Hubby', she could probably accept this more.

However, a small part of her still couldn't overcome the discomfort in doing so because of their large age gap.

From being someone who was worlds away and unreachable to her in her past life, Han Zhuoli had somehow become a person she could call anytime, then her boss, and finally he became her lover.

To be honest, deep inside her heart, other than treating him as a lover, a part of Lu Man treated him as an older brother, or perhaps, a mentor.

No matter how intelligent she was, in terms of actual life experience, she really could not even compare to Han Zhuoli.

In her past life, she had spent the remaining few years of her life in jail and it didn't add much to her life experience.

Right now, for several issues and decisions, she had to rely on Han Zhuoli.

Han Zhuoli had taught her a lot.

Therefore, she ultimately still couldn't treat Han Zhuoli as someone equal to her.

Not only was he her boyfriend, but he was also her mentor too.

She loved him and respected him as well.

Calling him "Zhuoli" this one time, was truly extremely difficult for her.

"Ka-cha." The car door behind her opened.

Re-adjusting Lu Man in his arms, Han Zhuoli stepped back slightly. He then opened the car door and carried Lu Man in. As he kissed her, he said, "Say that again."

Her face was flushed red from holding her breath while trying to say it, but she still could not say it.

Mustering up determination, she cradled Han Zhuoli's face and kissed him.

Han Zhuoli couldn't help but laugh. "Don't think that you can get away by doing this."

This time, it was a lot more fluent than before.

Since she had just returned today and had been busy the entire day, Han Zhouli was afraid that she would get completely exhausted and thus didn't torment her further.

"Oh right, I'll report to the office for work tomorrow," Lu Man said as they parted away.

“Why are you in such a hurry? Why don’t you rest at home for a couple more days?” Han Zhuoli said.

“I just can’t sit around doing nothing. Besides, if I start work early, I can earn more money. If not, once I start school, all I’ll be doing is spend money.”

Han Zhuoli patted the top of her head, her hair soft and fluffy. “Even if you start school, that position at work will still be reserved for you. You don’t need to go to the company. If there’s any suitable case, I will directly send it to you.”

Seemed like it was great to have a backer. It could be said that she was receiving the best of all privileges one could have.

The next day, Lu Man returned to the office to cancel her leave and rejoin.

Sister Li and a couple other colleagues immediately crowded over. They were all very curious to know how it felt to film a show.

“Lu Man, how was your experience being in a film crew? I’ve seen a lot of the pictures celebrities post when they are on set. The meals they have seem to be pretty terrible,” Sister Li asked curiously.

“Yeah, those celebrities usually look pretty glamorous all the time. However, when they are actually working, they really don’t seem to have a comfortable life like us here. Moreover, most of the filming locations aren’t really great, they often have to shoot in places far away from the city. There the freshly prepared meals aren’t really available so easily, hence they usually have to eat boxed lunches. Also, boxed lunches definitely taste bad. Unlike us, while working they don’t get to sit in an office and still get the time to go out and grab something nice for lunch at noon.”

“You came back to work, so do you not plan to act any more in the future?” Sister Li asked again.

“I’ll probably work until the new year. After that, I plan to focus on learning to perform. After trying it out this time, I’ve discovered that acting is pretty interesting.”

Xia Mengxuan pursed her lips and scoffed. “You sure have been planning it out well. Do you think that just because you want to act, people would hire you to act? Did you really get so overconfident just because you had a small role in ‘Greedy Wolf Operation’? Now you are even going to learn to perform, wanting to join some small performing arts school. However, no one will even acknowledge that degree.”

Chapter 316: You Sure Care a Lot!

Lu Man smiled and said, “It’s really been long since I’ve seen you all, I really missed you guys. This morning’s coffee to freshen everyone up will be my treat.”

“Haha, then I won’t stand on ceremony with you then. In the future, if you really become a huge celebrity, I would even boast that I once had a big celebrity treat me to coffee,” Sister Li said, smiling.

Chen Shimian joined in the fun too. “Lu Man, give me an autograph later and also take a picture with me too. Once you become famous, I’ll send it to my friends and show off to them.”

“Well, I should give you an autograph after I become famous then. My celebrity autograph would be different from my normal signature too,” Lu Man jested.

Upon hearing that, everyone burst into laughter.

Right then, Lu Man received a phone call from the delivery boy. He had already reached the office reception and asked Lu Man to come down to collect it.

“I’ll come along with you,” Sister Li said, worried that Lu Man wouldn’t be able to carry everything.

Therefore, both of them headed down together.

When they reached the entrance of the office to collect the coffee from the delivery boy, they realized that it was bustling with people.

“Why are there so many people?” Sister Li asked, curious.

All of them were young ladies, and most of them even looked like they were still students. “Don’t they have a class today?”

“Some of them are university students, while some had skipped school,” a security officer by the side overheard and answered.

He shook his head in disappointment. “Just now, I heard them saying that Yu Xingzhou was coming over. I think it’s fine for kids nowadays to chase after celebrities, but they shouldn’t skip school just for this. It’s already difficult for their parents to earn money, and their parents have to put in so much money for their education. How could they just skip classes?”

Some university students present there did not have classes while some others had even skipped classes. However, what was worse was that there were even high school students who had skipped class to chase after celebrities.

The security officer was a middle-aged man. His children were schooling right now too.

He didn’t earn much, but he, too, was still doing his best for his children to receive a good education.

Hence, the security officer empathized with them greatly.

“Yu Xingzhou, I know about him. He just became famous after acting in a young adult show. As soon as he gained popularity, he became so snobbish and arrogant. When he went overseas to attend a fashion week, he was even caught taking drugs there. How could people still admire him and become a fan of his? Right now, there are so many handsome celebrities who really have a good image too. Won’t an idol like this lead the children astray?” Sister Li explained.

Yu Xingzhou becoming popular was something that happened this month. Lu Man had been closed off and busy filming, so she didn't know about it.

"How could you say that! Our Zhou Zhou isn't someone like that. The reporters spread this fake rubbish rumor, don't you dare spout such rubbish! Besides, did we spend your money skipping class? You sure care a lot! Care about your own children first!" A young girl who was standing close by Lu Man and Sister Li overheard Sister Li's words and immediately confronted them.

Infuriated, Sister Li rebuked her. "How could you be such an irresponsible child!"

"You are ridiculous instead. We didn't even talk about you guys, why are you talking bad about us? Whatever we do, it's our own choice, you have no right to judge and criticize us. We don't need your understanding, we aren't interfering with your matters, so what right do you have to interfere in ours!"

Sister Li was so furious that she wanted to chastise her. She clearly had a mouth full of words, waiting to be spilled, but she couldn't say anything.

Lu Man pulled Sister Li behind her and faced that young lady, her face stoic and cold. "Who taught you such manners? Could it be that you learned it from that idol?" Lu Man asked coldly, "For the sake of an unrealistic idol, you are sacrificing your own education, you will be the one who loses out in the future, anyway. Whether you do well or not in the future, what does that have to do with us? However, your lack of manners and character, no matter who taught you, would always point towards your parents. Having good manners while speaking is basic etiquette. Making others look down on your parents upbringing because of your manners is completely your fault."

Chapter 317: Are You Possibly Even Thinking of Hitting People?

Lu Man was someone who could even scold Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi to the extent they would want to run away and start afresh a new life altogether. This young girl before her was no match for her.

"You.. you..." She stuttered for ages, refusing to give in. Yet, she still couldn't find the words to rebut her similar to how Sister Li was just now.

"Zhou Zhou! Zhou Zhou!"

"Zhou Zhou, I love you!"

The girls went gaga over him. Even the girl from just now couldn't be bothered with Lu Man, she turned away and waved frantically at Yu Xingzhou.

At that moment, a dashing handsome young man wearing sunglasses appeared. Even with his fans screaming out of excitement right in front of him, he still had a face of arrogance and aloofness.

By his side stood four big and broad security guards. They kept pushing the fans to the side.

Upon being pushed, all those skinny and weak young girls stumbled one after another, yet they continued to squeeze and push forward. "Zhou Zhou, look at me, Zhou Zhou!"

“Stay away!” The bodyguard roared at the fans. The young girl from just now stretched her hand out to wave at Yu Xingzhou. “Pa!” the bodyguard smacked her elbow away. “I’ve already said to stay away!”

Even though she had a thick coat on, the hit was very painful. It hurt so much that tears welled up in her eyes. “I... I just wanted to wave so that Zhou Zhou could see me.”

“You’re lying! You just wanted to touch him!” The bodyguard would never admit that he had wronged someone.

“No, I’m not, I was just waving,” the young girl said pitifully.

Feeling sympathy, Sister Li said, “He’s too overboard. Yu Xingzhou doesn’t see all this?”

The girls around her started blaming that young girl one after another. “She’s way too out of hand, how could she touch Zhou Zhou! Our Little Boat family 1doesn’t have a fan like you. Leave! How dare you touch Zhou Zhou!”

“Take a picture of her face and expose her. In the future, she will not be allowed to appear in any Zhou Zhou fan club.”

The girl was so anxious that she started crying. “I really didn’t...”

The bodyguard smiled smugly.

“This... this person, how could he be worthy of having any fans at all! What are his fans even thinking!” Livid, Sister Li sniggered.

“What are you saying!” One security guard had sharp ears. He overheard what Sister Li said and stared furiously at her as if he was ready to hit her any second now.

Lu Man furrowed her eyebrows. Clearly, the fact that the bodyguards could openly be so violent and wild right in front of Yu Xingzhou himself meant that this wasn’t the first or second time this happened. Yu Xingzhou was definitely allowing all this to happen.

“Are you even thinking of hitting people?” Sister Li was enraged. He must think he is so impressive, being so unreasonable right at the entrance of their company!

At that moment, Lu Man went forward to drag the young girl over. The young girl who was hit on the elbow was the one who had quarreled with Sister Li and her before.

Lu Man rolled up the young girl’s sleeves and saw that her thin elbow was completely swollen and red all over.

“You still want to want to be a fan of someone like him?” Lu Man pointed at Yu Xingzhou. “You were wronged and also hit, but what has he said?”

“Zhou... Zhou Zhou definitely doesn’t know...” The young girl said stuttered immediately.

He was so handsome and even his name sounded so poetic and beautiful. How could he be like this? He definitely wasn’t.

“When the fans of other celebrities are treated violently when held back by the bodyguards, the celebrities always call them out and scold their bodyguards for such behavior, worried that the fans might get hurt. When they’re chased and stalked by stalker fans, even if they are angry, they also advise their fans that safety comes first and they should follow in a cab rather than running around. It wasn’t safe for them and it was easy for an accident to happen too. Some fans fell down on their own and the celebrities even immediately helped them up. But what about Yu Xingzhou? There are so many celebrities that you can be a fan of, yet why do you have to be a fan of someone who doesn’t care about his fans?”

Lu Man was angry at these children. Why weren’t they treating themselves better? Why were they willing to be disrespected by this man who did not care about them at all?

Chapter 318: Really Different From What I Imagined

“What are you saying!” At that moment, Yu Xingzhou’s manager shouted, “Don’t speak rubbish!”

“You’re still wearing your sunglasses? Is it that your eyes can’t look at the light?” Lu Man insulted Yu Xingzhou. “After you reached here, did you even greet your fans? Look at their age, can’t you see that they’re still in school? They skipped school just to see you, yet you don’t lead them in the right direction! Is it that tiring to say a sentence to ask them to go back to school? As long as you say it, they’ll definitely listen to you!”

“Who are you!” Wang Lu was angry and flustered. “An employee of the Han Corporation? What right do you have to talk to me here!”

Furious, Sister Li said, “I really feel bad for the children who are your fans!”

Yu Xingzhou laughed mockingly, turning his head to ask the fans, “Do you all feel wronged?”

“Not at all!” Those fans started to yell loudly.

“Ah ah, Zhou Zhou talked to me!”

“Not wronged at all! Not wronged at all! Zhou Zhou look at me!”

“Good kids, you all are my good daughters,” Yu Xingzhou said, “However, skipping school is not good, the next time you come, remember to ask for leave.”

Ask for leave to chase stars? Which teacher would allow that!

Even if these children really asked for leave, they would be lying.

How could it be that Yu Xingzhou did not know?

But he was not the kind to teach the right things.

As long as there were people liking him and chasing him, it was enough; as to whether the actions of his fans were good or not, that was not his concern.

Lu Man turned her head to look at the young girl and saw her wobble as if her whole life had lost its meaning.

Lu Man sighed, the girl in front of her, even if what she said had angered her just now, she was just a child who had been lied to, after all.

“Let’s go, I’ll bring you to the infirmary to put some medicine.” Lu Man took the other hand which had not been hit.

The Han Corporation had its own private infirmary, and Sister Li followed them there.

Looking at the young girl, made her think about her own daughter, and that was why she was so angry.

Once she goes home, she really needed to educate her daughter properly, she could like anyone in the world but just not this Yu Xingzhou.

Lu Man brought the young girl to the infirmary, by the time the doctor saw the injury on her hand, it had already swollen so much that it looked like a baguette. “Who hit her so hard?”

As the doctor helped the little girl put on medicine, he said, “You said that you were injured because of that celebrity, but do you know how much your parents would be hurt? Child, listen to this Auntie’s advice, it’s alright to chase celebrities, but you need to chase someone who’s worth chasing.”

The little girl started to cry, feeling sad. When she raised her head, her eyes were full of tears. She looked at Lu Man and her mouth trembled twice before she finally asked, “Older sister, is it... is it that he is really not worth liking?”

“You already saw everything just now, ask yourself, if he’s worth it or not,” Lu Man sternly said, “However, since you asked that, it means that you already have the answer in your heart.”

Taking the paper towel from Sister Li, the little girl wiped her tears dry. “Actually, I saw everything just now, I was standing with you both, and I saw that his smile was especially mocking. But as soon as he turned around to face the fans, his smile changed. He... probably... is really different from what I imagined.”

“It’s good that you clearly know now, so do you know what to do now?” Lu Man asked.

Seeing that the little girl was not very sure and hesitating a bit, Lu Man said, “Now, take the medicine and return to school, go to class, and from now on, just to chase celebrities, no matter how much you like them, you can’t skip school. Of course, if it’s a celebrity who is worthy of your admiration, they would not agree to let you skip school and would also convince you to go to school. If you really like them, then you must work hard to improve yourself, and in the future, if you might have an opportunity where you can use your own ability to get close to your idol. Then you can work by your idol’s side or become someone who collaborates with them, there are several different possibilities.”

Chapter 319: Remember To Go to the Movie Theater to Support the Movie During the Holidays

"I... I know now." The little girl nodded and seemed to have regained some energy. "Older sister, what do you work as?"

"I work in Public Relations, there are several types of Public Relations, there are those that are specifically for companies and those that are just for the entertainment circle. I'm dealing with the entertainment circle. If a celebrity has a scandal or needs to promote or present themselves to the public, it's under my scope of duties," Lu Man explained simply.

"Then I want to work in the Public Relations Department in the future." The girl eagerly said, "I'm going to be taking my college entrance exams this year, I'll put my first choice as the Public Relations Department in the National Media University. In the future, I also want to become an outstanding Public Relations officer. I hope that I would never need to help my idol get out of a problematic situation, but I can help him to get more popular.

"Your way of thinking is good." Lu Man smiled. "But based on how you chase celebrities to such an extent, you've skipped quite a lot of school right? If you want to be able to go to the National Media University, you'll need to work hard."

The girl was so embarrassed her face was red as a beet. "I know."

"Older sister, what are you called?" The girl asked.

"Lu Man," Lu Man smiled and said.

Sister Li hurriedly said, "She's not just a PR professional, she has also acted in Director Sun Yiwu's new movie, the Greedy Wolf Operation. Remember to go to the movie theater to support the movie during the holidays."

The girl nodded her head continuously in awe. "Older sister is so awesome! I'll definitely go and support."

"Alright, then hurry back to school, be careful on the way back." Lu Man hurried her.

"Yes." The girl nodded and took the medicine from the doctor.

"How much does this cost?" The girl asked.

The doctor waved his hand. "There's no need, this is for you."

"Thank you," The girl felt grateful and thanked them.

Without the influence of Yu Xingzhou, the girl was quite polite.

"Then I'll leave now." The little girl walked to the door, and suddenly turned her head back. "Right, I'm called Xu Ningxian. Older sister, Auntie, just now... I was very rude to you, I'm sorry."

"It's no problem, no problem." Seeing that the girl became sensible again, Sister Li was happier than anything else, why would she care about that minor unhappy incident.

Only after walking Xu Ningxian till the exit of the company, did both, Lu Man and Sister Li, return to the office.

As soon as they returned, Xia Mengxuan opened her mouth and harrumphed, "You took so long to bring coffee, the coffee is probably already cold."

"Why do you care? Whether it's cold or hot, there's none of your business!" Sister Li rolled her eyes at her.

Xia Mengxuan was so furious that her face turned green and she did not say anything else.

"I'm sorry, just now, I met with some problems at the door, so the coffee is not very hot anymore," Lu Man apologized and said, "I'll order the coffee one more time."

"No no no, that's such a waste," Brother Zhang walked over and took a coffee to test the temperature. "It's still alright, it's not cold, we can drink it."

Chen Shimian also came over to take the coffee and felt that it was quite good.

"What kind of problem did you face just now?" Taking a mouthful of coffee, Brother Zhang asked.

"It really angered me to death." Sister Lu let out a rough breath, then quickly told them about what happened at the company's entrance downstairs.

Brother Zhang also shook his head in disappointment. "The children these days, they can't tell right from wrong, as long as someone looks good and makes an effort with their image, these kids will admire the person."

"It's just these children are still young, that Yu Xingzhou is really too much." Sister Li sighed.

At that moment, You Lili walked over. "Manager told us to go to the meeting room, there's a customer here."

Thus, everyone quickly parted and took their coffees into the meeting room.

As soon as they entered, Sister Li was stunned for a while and pulled on Lu Man hurriedly.

Meanwhile, Lu Man had also recognized the person in the meeting room, it was Yu Xingzhou's manager, Wang Lu.

However, Yu Xingzhou was not there, they did not know where he went.

Chapter 320: There's No Crisis She Cannot Solve

The truth was, right now Yu Xingzhou was visiting the Artist Department to brag about his popularity in front of some celebrities who had yet to become famous and needed to come to the Artist Department from time to time.

"So you two are from the Public Relations Department!" Wang Lu also recognized Lu Man and Sister Li.

Not knowing about the unpleasant interaction between them that had happened just now, Wu Lize politely introduced them. "Sit down first, this is Wang Lu. Mr. Wang is Yu Xingzhou's manager."

Finally, everyone knew why Yu Xingzhou came to the Han Corporation today.

Yu Xingzhou was also an artist signed on by the Han Corporation, and he was extremely fortunate, becoming famous with just one web series.

Although currently, web series were getting a lot of attention, they still could not match up to the dramas aired on television, and there were actually not a lot of newcomers that could become famous because of web dramas, and Yu Xingzhou was one of them.

After becoming famous, Yu Xingzhou started to become arrogant, and it was rumored that he was acting like a diva.

Not long ago, there were people who even took videos and screenshots of Yu Xingzhou's interactions with the organizers to prove that Yu Xingzhou was indeed acting like a diva, scolding his assistant and insulting his fans behind their backs.

At that time, Yu Xingzhou's popularity had yet to stabilize, and with this kind of news being exposed caused him a very large backlash.

"I can't take this job." Brother Zhang had always had that kind of temper. Back then, because he had a misunderstanding of Lu Man, he had straightaway refused to teach Lu Man.

Similarly, right now, he directly said that he could not take this job.

Just now, he had heard Sister Li and Lu Man speak of Yu Xingzhou outrageous behaviour, misleading the fans even more.

Moreover, his fans were mostly young students, and Brother Zhang himself had a young daughter. Thus, as he related those students to his daughter, he could not stand it even more.

"I also can't accept it." Chen Shimian had yet to get married, but since his master had already rejected it, he obviously needed to follow him.

Suddenly, Wu Lize's expression turned a bit ugly, hence Chen Shimian hurriedly tried justifying his statement. "I'm lacking in ability, as for this crisis, I really don't know how to solve it, I'm sorry!"

At that moment, Wang Lu's face turned black.

It was just acting like a diva that caused his public image to be bad, what was so hard to solve about it.

Sister Li shook her head, "I'm sorry, recently I've had a lot of cases on hand, and have no time."

"You have a large department, yet no one can take up this case? Then what's the use of the Han Corporation having a Public Relations Department," Wang Lu grumbled.

"Who said there's no one?" Xia Mengxuan stood up.

She had finally attracted Wang Lu's attention. Xia Mengxuan then straightened her back and tidied her clothes as if doing that would let Wang Lu notice her and sign her on as a celebrity.

Lu Man lifted her eyebrows, she really did not expect that Xia Mengxuan to still harbor the dream of becoming a celebrity.

"Xia Mengxuan, what are you saying?" Brother Zhang scolded unhappily.

However, Xia Mengxuan did not pay him any heed and continued smiling. "I said, we still have someone in the Public Relations Department, she can definitely solve it, moreover, she also has the time to solve it."

Surprised, Wang Lu asked "There's someone who can solve it?"

"It's Lu Man. She's our Public Relations Department's pride, there's no crisis she cannot solve," Xia Mengxuan said.

Wang Lu looked at how Xia Mengxuan was pointing at Lu Man, and his face turned even more black; it would be strange if this woman could take up the case!

"Just her?" Wang Lu pretended to be unimpressed.

"Haha, Mr. Wang, don't look at how young Lu Man is, you might not know this, but, she received the Best Newcomer Award in the Gold Finger Award Ceremony," Xia Mengxuan introduced Lu Man to the best of her ability.

This award, Mr. Wang knew as well. "You got the Gold Finger Award?"

"I won't receive this case," Lu Man ignored him straight-away; it was already quite good that she did not harm Yu Xingzhou's reputation, why would she help him get a good reputation?

Let him improve his reputation and continue teaching his fans bad things?

"Lu Man, Sister Li, and Brother Zhang cannot take the case because they already have too many cases at hand, but you got a month's leave before this, and just came back today, so you don't have any case and have a lot of free time, so why can't you take this case?"
