

Mr Han 3131

Chapter 3131: What Is This Godly Setup!

“He’s good-looking, and he’s a real boss in life! What is this godly setup!”

“So is Wei Wucai dating Yan Zhiqing?”

“Yan Zhiqing is a winner in life! Not only is she from a wealthy family, but she also knows the powerful members of the eight great families. And now, she is even dating someone from the eight great families.”

“Never mind all that. Wei Wucai is so good-looking. Who cares what he does? Even if he doesn’t do anything, considering his appearance, I am willing to provide for him for the rest of his life!”

“Wake up! Even if he is unemployed, he is a member of the Wei Family. You can’t afford him.”

“Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing are both from the eight great families, meaning that they didn’t even consider giving outsiders a chance! Outrageous!”

“Wait! Wait! You all seemed to have forgotten that Wei Wucai is not a hedonistic son of a wealthy family. He has a job. Did you forget that those netizens referred to him as their boss? This means that he has his own company.”

“Yes! Yes! Where did those people go?”

And so, Yu Wenhan and the other four were tagged a crazy amount of times.

Hu Changmo said as he was reading the comments, “It’s my first time receiving the same treatment as Master Qian.”

The others nodded in agreement.

“All you have to do is click on their accounts and check out their profiles. Wei Wucai doesn’t have an introduction, and his account is not verified, but his employees should have a complete profile,” a quick-witted netizen said.

And so, the netizens clicked on the accounts used by Yu Wenhan and the others.

It was just like what that netizen had said. Wei Wucai’s main page was empty.

But Yu Wenhan and the others all had a very complete profile.

They had added their introduction and company as well as their roles in the company.

Many netizens saw that they were working for Ledepic More, but most of the netizens were unfamiliar with this company.

They had no idea what this company did.

But some netizens were very interested in learning about films and had acquired a deep knowledge of movies.

Although they weren’t professionals, they were very interested in this industry.

They knew about filmmaking companies and visual effects companies, as well as other companies that offered professional services in this industry.

Naturally, some netizens who studied filmmaking recognized Ledepic More.

“OMG. It’s Ledepic More. Are these people employees of Ledepic More?”

“They called Wei Wucai their boss? Does this mean that Wei Wucai is the CEO of Ledepic More?”

“OMG. Too powerful!”

“What does that mean? Can someone explain? What is Ledepic More? Is it that powerful?”

“Why don’t you search it up yourself? Ledepic More is the best visual effects company in the country. It is ranked internationally and is not considered inferior to the top four visual effects companies. Let me describe it this way. If it is a local film that has enough funds to cover the cost of special effects, Ledepic More can render special effects that are on par with the special effects seen in those Hollywood blockbuster movies.”

“Compared to the four major visual effects company, Ledepic More is less costly.”

“Ledepic More is also very famous among Hollywood studios. Search it up yourself. Ledepic More was one of the visual effects company that was in charge of the CGI for the epic movie ‘Time Traveler.’ The director of that movie personally said that Ledepic More had rendered most of the special effects in the movie.”

“There were even news articles stating that Ledepic More might be in charge of making special effects for Maclean’s ‘Planet Toca 2,’ a movie that has received a lot of attention and expectations. Compared to the four major special effects companies, Ledepic More provides high-quality service at a cheaper price. And so, this means that the director would be able to allocate more money to buying film equipment while ensuring that more special effects are created for the movie.”

Chapter 3132: You Have No Idea

“Wow! If so, this company has made this country proud!”

“He is handsome and capable. Instead of working in a field related to the Wei Family’s business, he created such a powerful visual effects company. Does Wei Wucai himself possess excellent technical skills?”

“I would assume so. If not, he wouldn’t have advanced into this field. If he has no skills or knowledge, wouldn’t that mean that he had only invested money while not knowing anything about this industry?”

“Skilled Techie! Powerful!”

“Aren’t most people with advanced tech skills bald? Why is Wei Wucai still so handsome? I seriously doubt his technical skills!”

When Zhong Liqiang saw this comment, he immediately objected, “How could they doubt our boss’ technical skills! Our boss is more powerful than all of us here. He is the one who led this company to where it is today. Because of our boss' computer skills, this company was able to be widely known internationally!"

"Indeed. These people are truly outsiders of this industry," Wu Zegang said. "The most difficult special effects that were added to those movies were rendered by our boss."

Without Wei Wucai, this company would just be a mediocre special effects company. This company would just end up being one of the many special effects companies in the country and would have never achieved the success they had today.

Their success today was all thanks to Wei Wucai. Because of Wei Wucai, their company was able to have a place in Hollywood.

"No! For the sake of our boss, I must correct them!" Yu Wenhan shouted and proceeded to respond to that comment. "Our boss is the most powerful one among us techies. Our boss is still in charge of rendering the most difficult special effects. Basically, without our boss, this company would have become mediocre."

Hu Guangmo added another comment. "Yes, our boss created this company himself. While he is the CEO of this company, he is also coding scripts with us. It took many steps to get to where we are today. You have no idea how skilled he is!"

Some netizens burst out in laughter. "They are giving very good compliments."

"You all have changed my mind about programmers! Hella funny!"

Zhong Liqiang blinked. "What's going on? Do they not believe us?"

Before anyone knew it, a laptop had already appeared in Wei Wucai's hand. Wei Wucai then found a random area and sat down.

"Boss?" Wu Zegang called out in confusion.

"Take a few pictures," Wei Wucai said. "The picture that the reporters took during noon today was not very clear. The netizens are doubting you all, right? You can just take a few pictures of me and post it online to prove to the netizens."

"Okay." Yu Wenhan grabbed his phone and prepared to take a picture.

Wei Wucai added, "But be careful. To prevent leaks of information about the movie, please make sure that nothing used for filmmaking is in the picture."

Because of this, Wei Wucai didn't dare to move the movie props over.

If he had, the photo would seem more authentic.

"Alright." Yu Wenhan nodded.

"Wait." Upon seeing that Yu Wenhan was about to snap the picture, Wei Wucai called out again.

"What?" Yu Wenhan reminded himself that the person in front of him was his boss and he must remain as patient as possible.

Even if his boss was troublesome and pesky, he would still need to forgive him and tolerate him. At the same time, he should look at his boss with the brightest smile.

“Make this picture seem like it was taken secretly. Don’t make them think that I was intentionally posing for a photo,” Wei Wucai reminded him.

“Alright.” Yu Wenhan nodded

“Remember to keep the computer screen out of the picture. Otherwise, they can easily tell that it’s fake,” Wei Wucai added. “There is one more thing, which is the most important thing to remember.”

Chapter 3133: Faking It

“Boss, please tell me.” Yu Wenhan’s smile looked even more friendly.

“Please be sure to make me look better,” Wei Wucai said.

“No problem.” Yu Wenhan thought to himself, “There are so many reminders, but the last one is the easiest to achieve.”

After all, Wei Wucai looked good from every angle.

Yu Wenhan waited for a while to see if Wei Wucai still had any other instructions.

But Wei Wucai urged him and said, “Why aren’t you starting?”

“Can we start now?” Yu Wenhan asked. “Do you have any other instructions?”

“None. Just take the picture,” Wei Wucai said.

And so, Yu Wenhan took many pictures of Wei Wucai from different angles.

Wei Wucai then picked a few that he liked the most.

They zoomed in on the pictures to make sure that there were no details regarding the movie production process.

Yu Wenhan then posted the pictures. “Our boss is working now. I risked my life to take these pictures. His account has nothing, but you can find his pictures on my account!”

Because this was a trending topic, many people started following Yu Wenhan and the others on Weibo.

All the fans were checking out Wei Wucai through his employees’ Weibo.

And so, the employees were gaining followers like crazy.

“Damn! He’s too handsome!”

“I remember now. I heard that Ledepic More is going to be in charge of creating the special effects for Wu Mosen’s new movie. Did Wei Wucai join the production crew because he is the CEO?”

“Not only is he good-looking, but he also has strong technical skills. What a supreme being!”

“Ah! A working man is truly charming! So handsome.”

“He is basically the male lead of a TV show! What kind of supreme being is this!”

Wei Wucai was very satisfied as he read the comments that were showering him with compliments and praises.

It seemed like no one objected to him and Yan Zhiqing dating.

“I am so jealous of Yan Zhiqing. Why is she so lucky in life?”

“Yup. Yan Zhiqing is a winner in life! She was already ahead of us in the game of life at birth. She is good-looking and can do whatever she wants. And now, she is dating someone this excellent.”

“Being in that social circle, it’s easy for her to meet excellent people. Even if we wanted to, it’s difficult for us to meet someone that excellent. This is the reality.”

Yu Wenhan and the others saw these comments. They couldn’t help but turn to stare at Yan Zhiqing, who was currently filming.

Yan Zhiqing was still filming and had no idea about this. She hadn’t even said anything about this, but Wei Wucai had made complete arrangements regarding the matter.

And now, he had even arranged a boyfriend for her.

Yan Beicheng naturally saw these comments.

He was constantly paying attention to them.

When he saw the netizens’ comments, he was so angry that he immediately said, “What’s wrong with these netizens’ eyes? Can’t they see that Wei Wucai is putting up a pretense? I told them that Wei Wucai and Zhiqing are just friends. Why don’t these people believe me!”

Yan Beicheng stared at Wei Wucai’s picture and sneered, “This boy is doing it intentionally. He’s obviously posing for this picture!”

Lin Chu smiled and asked, “What did he say about Zhiqing?”

Yan Beicheng hadn’t told her about the conversation, but Lin Chu knew about it. The girls had gone outside after lunch.

Yan Beicheng and Wei Wucai were the only two left in the RV, and Yan Beicheng must have asked Wei Wucai what he thought about Yan Zhiqing.

Lin Chu thought to herself that if Wei Wucai had hesitated or if he hadn’t given Yan Beicheng a sure answer...

This sure answer didn’t have to be affirmative.

Chapter 3134: Barely Satisfactory

He just needed to give one.

Did he like her or not?

Yan Beicheng would never have accepted an ambiguous answer or an answer conveying an uncertainty of feelings.

If he was unsure, why would he be flirting with Yan Zhiqing?

If Wei Wucai had given that kind of answer, Yan Beicheng would not have responded with such courtesy, nor would he have merely roasted Wei Wucai a few times.

Obviously, if Wei Wucai had answered no...

That he had no feelings for Yan Zhiqing, Yan Beicheng would have asked Wei Wucai to keep a safe distance from her.

He would have asked someone to watch over Yan Zhiqing here on set. He would have never left Yan Zhiqing by herself and would have gotten someone to watch over her constantly.

But as of now, Yan Beicheng hadn't done any of those things.

And so, Lin Chu guessed that Wei Wucai's answer had still satisfied Yan Beicheng, despite it being barely satisfactory.

If not, Yan Beicheng would not be sitting here and roasting Wei Wucai.

As expected, Yan Beicheng said, "That fella has a good eye. He knows that Zhiqing is exceptional."

Lin Chu smiled and said, "Did he admit that he likes Zhiqing?"

"Yes." Yan Beicheng nodded and said, "However, because he wants to be close to Zhiqing, he admitted to her that he was gay. I am just waiting for the day when his lies are exposed so that I can know how he intends to explain to Zhiqing about this." "

"He clearly likes her. He is even willing to allow her to mistakenly think that he likes guys," Lin Chu said. "Honestly speaking, you are satisfied with him, aren't you?"

If Yan Beicheng was not satisfied, he wouldn't have done nothing when Wei Wucai had revealed his identity online.

If Yan Beicheng was unsatisfied with Wei Wucai, he would have denied that Wei Wucai was Zhiqing's boyfriend when the netizens were merely guessing.

Yan Beicheng would have erased Wei Wucai's pictures the moment Yu Wenhan and the others had posted them.

But right now, Yan Beicheng was all talk but no action.

This meant that he was satisfied with Wei Wucai.

Yan Beicheng pouted and said, "I guess barely satisfactory."

Yan Beicheng was not the only one who saw the news about Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing.

Wei Wucai's mother, Dong Muping, saw the news too.

Since the matchmaking meeting for Wei Wucai and Luo Qingxian had failed, Dong Muping had been feeling very uneasy.

She felt very sorry towards Mrs. Luo.

Because of Wei Wucai's cold treatment, Luo Qingxian had felt disrespected.

Wei Wucai didn't tell his mother about the mess that Luo Qingxian had caused.

Wei Wucai was not a talkative person, nor was he someone who would talk bad about others.

Wei Wucai didn't think it was worth it, and he didn't have the energy to talk about the good or the bad things done by a woman who had no relation to him.

In addition, he was busy with work, so he didn't talk to Dong Muping about it.

In Wei Wucai's opinion, Luo Qingxian had nothing to do with him.

No matter how bad Luo Qingxian was, it had nothing to do with him.

However, this made Dong Muping very angry. She deeply believed that Wei Wucai would remain single forever if he continued behaving like this.

Dong Muping had even suspected that Wei Wucai was single not because of his bad personality.

It was because he didn't want a girlfriend and was intentionally behaving this way.

However, because Wei Wucai was working on set, there was no chance for her to nag him.

She had to stay home and endure her urge to nag him.

Suddenly, Dong Muping saw so many trending topics and immediately felt energized.

Yan Zhiqing was an actress. Being part of the entertainment industry, her working environment was very complicated.

Chapter 3135: Together

But Dong Muping was not worried at all.

If it were someone else, Dong Muping would have been worried that the young lady had seen too much and had become unrealistically ambitious or that her life experience had become too complicated.

However, she knew Yan Zhiqing well as she was familiar with Yan Zhiqing's family. She had nothing to worry about.

Dong Muping was very happy and searched up all the news about the two.

She knew her son well.

Usually, you would never be able to find anything about him on the internet.

Why did information about Wei Wucai become so easily searchable online after news about him and Yan Zhiqing came out?

In addition, if his employees had never gotten his permission, would they have dared to post his pictures online?

Wei Wucai's employees could deceive only those netizens who did not know Wei Wucai well.

Did they really think that those young fellas would risk their lives by secretly snapping a photo?

Considering Wei Wucai's reaction speed, if he was unwilling, who would have been able to take a picture of him?

Dong Muping wanted to call Wei Wucai immediately, but she was worried that he might be working. And so, she had no choice but to remain patient.

Suddenly, she remembered that the news had reported that Yan Beicheng had visited Yan Zhiqing.

And so, Dong Muping called Yan Beicheng.

The call quickly went through. "Beicheng," Dong Muping said.

"Hello, Auntie." Yan Beicheng's polite voice sounded on the phone.

"Are you still on set?" Dong Muping asked.

Upon hearing an affirmative answer from Yan Beicheng, Dong Muping immediately asked, "Is Xiao Cai still busy?"

"..." Yan Beicheng then asked, "You saw the news online, right?"

"Hehehe." Dong Muping felt really awkward.

She suddenly recalled that Yan Beicheng was Yan Zhiqing's elder brother.

She had been dazzled by joy and had forgotten about this.

"Erm... Beicheng, my son Xiao Cai is a very good kid. He is reliable, and his business is doing well. Most importantly, he has never been in a relationship. Although I have introduced girls to him, none of them worked out as he drove them all away. You are aware of this," Dong Muping said.

"But this means that Xiao Cai would never be friendly to any other girls. He would treat only the girl he loves well." Dong Muping was trying very hard to help create a good image of Wei Wucai in front of his future brother-in-law.

"Cough." Yan Beicheng could sense that Dong Muping, who knew that it was difficult for her son to build his own family, was desperately campaigning for Wei Wucai.

"Auntie, Xiao Cai and Zhiqing are not dating," Yan Beicheng explained.

Although Wei Wucai had admitted to liking Yan Zhiqing, they were not dating yet.

“Pictures of Xiao Cai were taken because he is working on the movie production where Zhiqing happens to be a cast member. Therefore, pictures of them were taken while they were working together,” Yan Beicheng explained.

Dong Muping thought to herself that she knew her son well.

He had even posted his own pictures for netizens to see.

However, Dong Muping obviously couldn't say this to Yan Zhiqing's older brother.

She was very careful and said nothing unnecessary. All she said was this: “Is that so? I thought they were together and I was so happy.”

She intentionally implied that she would be very happy if Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing were really dating.

“Did you call me for this?” Yan Beicheng said, refusing to acknowledge the hidden meaning behind Dong Muping's words.

Chapter 3136: How the Tables Have Turned

Dong Muping smiled and said, “No. I just wanted to ask if he was busy with work. If he's not working, I am going to give him a call. I don't dare to call him abruptly as I am worried that he might be working and that my call might disturb him.”

Yan Beicheng tilted his head to look towards where Wei Wucai was located and said, “Oh. He's not working.”

Wei Wucai was scrolling on his phone and was watching the netizens' comments in real time.

Therefore, Yan Beicheng betrayed Wei Wucai without any hesitation.

“Alright. I got it.” Dong Muping thanked Yan Beicheng and hung up the phone. She then gave Wei Wucai a phone call.

When Wei Wucai saw that it was a phone call from Dong Muping, he calmed himself down and proceeded to pick up the call. “Mom.”

“What's going on? I saw news about you and Zhiqing potentially dating?” Dong Muping asked in excitement.

Although Yan Beicheng had admitted to nothing, Dong Muping didn't believe anything he said.

After all, the girl's family usually behaved in a more reserved manner.

“You saw the news too?” Wei Wucai said as the corner of his mouth curved up.

“Of course. That's the reason for this abrupt phone call,” Dong Muping said with a smile. “When do you plan to bring her home for us to meet?”

Wei Wucai looked up and glanced over at Yan Zhiqing, who was currently being filmed, and said, “I will bring her home when I find the chance.”

“Are you two really dating?” Dong Muping sat up in excitement, involuntarily leaning forward.

“Soon,” Wei Wucai whispered as he stared at Yan Zhiqing in the distance.

“Why is your voice suddenly so soft?” Dong Muping, thinking that it was weird, asked, “Are you scared of someone hearing you?”

Dong Muping paused for a second and said, “Are you whispering because you are scared of others hearing you?”

Dong Muping suddenly raised her voice. “Is this a one-sided love?”

Wei Wucai froze. He said persistently, “Of course not.”

“Hehe! Don’t lie to me! Yan Beicheng himself said that you two are just friends!” Dong Muping, feeling sorry for her son’s inability to meet her expectations, said, “Look at this! You are not that capable. Even this crush of yours is one-sided!”

“No, it’s not,” Wei Wucai said.

“Okay. Stop being stubborn and just admit it.” Dong Muping sneered and said, “Previously, you drove away so many girls. And now, you finally met someone you like, but this love is one-sided. Hehe, how the tables have turned!”

Wei Wucai felt speechless.

Why did it feel like Dong Muping was happy to see him suffer?

“Just work hard,” Dong Muping said. “Zhiqing is beautiful. She is excellent in so many ways. Not only does she have a good personality, but she loves herself and lives a clean life. People love girls like her. Someone else might take her away first, and you will cry when that happens.”

“Mom...” The corner of Wei Wucai’s mouth twitched. What kind of mother wanted her son to suffer?

“Don’t assume that I was just scaring you,” Dong Muping said. “Tell me, have you ever experienced courting a girl?”

Wei Wucai felt speechless.

Oh no! He was stuck on the question.

“You have a lot of experience driving away girls. Were there any girls who stayed despite being pissed off by you?” Dong Muping continued torturing him with questions.

However, when Wei Wucai heard the last question, he wanted to answer yes.

The girl who stayed was Luo Qingxian, who was most likely mentally ill. Not only did she stay despite being pissed off, but she also refused to leave him alone.

“Mom, please don’t worry. I will definitely bring...” Wei Wucai said in a fierce and confident tone.

Chapter 3137: Not Having Feelings for Anyone

When he was about to finish his sentence, he suddenly lowered his voice again. "...Zhiqing home."

Dong Muping felt so speechless.

The corner of her mouth twitched.

She thought to herself, "If you are so confident, why don't you say it out loud?"

At this moment, Dong Muping believed what Yan Beicheng had said.

Yan Zhiqing really only considered Wei Wucai a friend.

However, Dong Muping also thought that humans should remain somewhat hopeful.

And so, she asked, "Are you going to bring Zhiqing home as her boyfriend?"

Wei Wucai nodded confidently and said, "Definitely."

"Alright." Dong Muping decided to give Wei Wucai a chance to prove himself as she said, "Then try your best while you two are still working together."

"Okay..." Wei Wucai responded while the corner of his mouth was twitching involuntarily.

"Let me know if you need help with anything." Dong Muping felt very desperate to provide some assistance.

"Alright..." Wei Wucai agreed.

"Boss," Hu Guangmo called out, telling Wei Wucai that it was time to work.

Wei Wucai immediately said to Dong Muping, "Mom, I have to work now."

"Alright. Alright. Go ahead," Dong Muping hurriedly responded.

Dong Muping had just hung up the phone when she got a phone call from Old Mrs. Wei.

Dong Muping immediately answered the phone. "Auntie."

"Hey! Muping, who were you calling for such a long time? My calls couldn't get through," Old Mrs. Wei said.

Wei Wucai's father, Wei Hezhang, was the cousin of Wei Zhiqian's father.

Wei Wucai's grandfather and Wei Zhiqian's grandfather were brothers.

Wei Zhiqian's grandfather was the eldest while Wei Wucai's grandfather was the second in the family.

However, Wei Wucai's grandparents had both passed away. Wei Wucai's family would usually go to Old Mr. Wei's house for the family gathering held on New Year's Day.

Wei Wucai's family and Wei Zhiqian's family were not on the same branch of the family tree.

Nevertheless, both families were still closely knit.

To Old Mr. Wei and Old Mrs. Wei, Wei Wucai was just like their biological grandson.

Although Wei Wucai was really their nephew's son, Old Mr. Wei and Old Mrs. Wei had never mentioned the word nephew when referring to Wei Wucai.

They just referred to Wei Wucai as their grandson.

However, some outsiders who weren't aware of this thought that there was no place for Wei Wucai in the Wei Family.

Dong Muping smiled and said, "I was on the phone with Xiao Cai."

"Eh?" Old Mrs. Wei asked in surprise. "You saw the news about Xiao Cai and Zhiqing, right?"

"Yes, I saw it. So I called him immediately." Dong Muping didn't hide any secrets from Old Mrs. Wei. After all, she was close to Old Mrs. Wei.

"What did Xiao Cai say?" Old Mrs. Wei immediately asked.

"Sigh! I don't want to talk about it anymore. Xiao Cai is useless. He is good at making girls mad. That's basically his talent. But when he has to court a girl, he can't do it well."

"Sigh. So are you saying that the two are not officially together?" Old Mrs. Wei asked.

"Not yet. Although Xiao Cai refused to admit it, I can tell that Zhiqing only sees him as a friend. It's a one-sided love," Dong Muping said.

"But that's good too. He finally has someone he likes. It's better than not having feelings for anyone and still wanting to work to get out of that single life but not knowing who to work hard for," Dong Muping said.

Dong Muping wasn't speaking with any ill intent. She was just talking about Wei Wucai.

Chapter 3138: Seems Cold but Secretly Saucy

But her words accidentally made Old Mrs. Wei feel sad.

Wei Zhiqian was the one who didn't have feelings for anyone. Hence, he was a person who had no one to work hard for to get out of that single life.

"I think Xiao Cai wants to court Zhiqing," Dong Muping said. "They happen to be working on producing the same movie, which means he can use this chance to spend time with Zhiqing."

"That's good. That's good." Old Mrs. Wei was happy as well. "Zhiqing is a good girl. I didn't expect Xiao Cai to share such fate with Zhiqing."

The two talked for a while. After that, Old Mrs. Wei hung up the phone.

Old Mrs. Wei was happy for Wei Zhiqian, but at the same time, she was worried for Wei Zhiqian.

Although Wei Wucai's love was one-sided, he at least had someone he liked.

At least he had someone to work hard for.

He wasn't like Wei Zhiqian, who was unaware of the whereabouts of his future wife.

What should she do with this troublesome grandson of hers!

While Old Mrs. Wei was worrying for Wei Zhiqian, Wei Wucai had already handed over the rest of the work to his subordinates and was contacting Weibo.

He wanted to ask Weibo to verify his account.

He had made up his mind. If Weibo refused to add the Verification symbol to his account, he would just hack Weibo and do it himself.

Wei Wucai was too lazy to apply and wait for Weibo to verify his account. It would take too long.

A staff member of Weibo did not expect the CEO of Ledepic More to personally contact Weibo and request for his account to be verified.

In the past, they would have asked the caller to wait for the verification to be approved as per usual procedures.

But Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing were topics trending online and were currently the hottest topics.

Weibo was also paying close attention to Wei Wucai.

And now, it was Wei Wucai who had contacted them, which rarely happened. In addition, the request for account verification was an easy task, and so, they naturally agreed without any hesitation.

This staff member of Weibo had a feeling that more trending news about Wei Wucai would pop up in the future.

There must be a place for the netizens to watch, right?

And so, around five minutes after Wei Wucai had contacted Weibo's staff member, the verification symbol was added to his account.

The verified introduction stated that he was the CEO and founder of Ledepic More.

The introduction was outstanding.

Wei Wucai was very satisfied as he looked at the new information on his home page. However, he still controlled himself and didn't upload any selfies.

However, some observant netizens still noticed the changes on his main page.

"Wei Wucai just logged in. His account has been verified as well."

"I can't believe he logged in secretly. He seems cold but is secretly saucy. Hahahahaha!"

"Why does he suddenly seem so cute?"

"He secretly logged in. His account homepage, which was previously just a blank space without any content, now has a verification symbol. Could it be that he has feelings towards Yan Zhiqing? He likes her, right?"

“Yeah. If not, he wouldn’t have bothered. He just needed to stay silent. By doing this, he made it easier for people to remember him.”

“Wei Wucai stealthily logged in and even verified his account. It’s like he’s scared that we won’t know who he is. Why does this feel so sweet? He’s doing it for Yan Zhiqing, right?”

As Wei Wucai read the netizens’ comments, the corner of his mouth turned up into a proud smile.

It was rare for him to think this way, but he really thought that the netizens here were pretty smart.

Yu Wenhan had already finished his work. He tilted his head to the side and saw that Wei Wucai was still looking at his phone.

Yu Wenhan thought to himself that the netizens were right. His boss seemed cold, but he was secretly saucy.

Such a long time had passed, but Wei Wucai was still reading the netizens’ comments.

Chapter 3139: Why Had This Man Suddenly Become So Willful?!

While walking over, Yu Wenhan caught a glimpse of Wei Wucai’s phone screen and asked, “Boss, have you followed Yan Zhiqing on social media yet?”

“Mm?” Wei Wucai suddenly became motionless.

He had never used his Weibo account before. Prior to today, no one knew he was the owner of Ledepic More aside from a small group of people he knew in real life.

He did not even have any content on his homepage, so there was even less reason for anyone to follow him.

As such, he had zero followers and fans.

Coincidentally, just as Yu Wehan finished speaking, a netizen raised a question.

“Hang on. If Wei Wucai truly has something going on with Yan Zhiqing or perhaps likes her, why hasn’t he followed her? Yan Zhiqing hasn’t followed him either.”

“Oh? That’s true. The two of them don’t even have a mutual follow. Could it be that they were just trying to attract public attention?”

“Yan Zhiqing doesn’t need to promote herself. In any case, she has never done any promotional stunts from the creation of her account until today. Of course, it’s inevitable that she will sometimes be included in hotly searched news articles. But she’s not intentionally promoting herself.”

“I don’t believe it’s a promotional stunt. If she wanted to do it, she would have done it long ago. She didn’t have to wait until now. Yan Zhiqing is probably the one actress who needs promotions the least in the entertainment circle.”

“That’s right. She has no need to wait until now to use a romantic scandal as a promotional stunt. Yan Zhiqing alone is a hot topic. She just needs to do any random thing and it would become news.”

“Then is it possible these two people truly are just friends? After all, Yan Beicheng said that the two people were only photographed together because they were working together.”

“It’s possible they were just there for a communal meal with the cast and crew, and the two of them just so happened to get photographed. If this matter were about a different celebrity, I might still suspect them. But since it’s about Yan Zhiqing, I can’t quite believe it’s a promotional stunt.”

After all, Yan Zhiqing had never done promotional stunts or had any sex scandals.

She was simply too pure and magnanimous.

Wei Wucai never imagined that the netizens would actually voluntarily clarify the facts and quiet things down instead of making things more controversial.

There was still this sort of manipulation going on...?

Didn’t all netizens love seeing controversial things?

Why was it that those on Yan Zhiqing’s side could even take the initiative to clarify the matter? It seemed that they were wanting to suppress it?

Wei Wucai hurriedly followed Yan Zhiqing.

After that, he refreshed the page and found that his number of fans was growing incessantly.

His homepage was just a blank space without any content, but that did not stop netizens from following him.

After looking this over, he kept refreshing the comment section.

He was afraid that the netizens weren’t quick-witted enough to have realized it.

“These people... Why won’t they come take another look at my homepage?” Wei Wucai asked, feeling so anxious that he got angry when he saw that no one had noticed it.

“It’s because there’s nothing on your homepage. Why would they look at it? Since no one’s looking at it, of course no one will notice it,” Yu Wenhan said exasperatedly.

“But when they see that someone said I haven’t followed Yan Zhiqing, won’t they come looking for proof?” Wei Wucai said in dissatisfaction.

Why didn’t they have even the slightest thought of confirming the facts?!

Just after saying that, there was actually a netizen that came to look at his homepage.

“Wei Wucai followed Yan Zhiqing!”

“I saw it too. When I went to look at his homepage earlier, his follows were still at zero. All of a sudden, there’s one follow now. It can’t be that Wei Wucai is silently scrolling through our comments right now, right?”

“Pffft, he can’t be that adorable, can he?”

“He followed her, he followed her. I feel that Wei Wucai truly has feelings for Yan Zhiqing.”

“Yan Zhiqing still hasn’t followed him though,” another netizen replied.

“Wei Wucai, can you see our comments? If you are seeing our comments, then have Yan Zhiqing follow you too.”

Wei Wucai felt speechless.

Beside him, Yu Wenhan was silently scrolling through the comments on his phone. When he saw this last comment, he almost burst into laughter.

Right then, Yan Zhiqing had just finished filming a scene and went back to rest.

Fang Qiaohan gave her a freshly brewed cup of hot coffee and the film script.

Yan Zhiqing would make use of her break time to analyze her scenes again and familiarize herself with her lines as best as she could.

This time, however, Yan Zhiqing did not get the chance to look at her lines.

She had just sat down, but before she could even flip through the script, Wei Wucai came over.

Yan Zhiqing had yet to notice Wei Wucai. With her head lowered, she was about to open the script book when she felt it had suddenly become dark just above her head.

A faint shadow had also appeared on the script book she’d placed on her thighs.

Yan Zhiqing unconsciously raised her head up to see what it was and just so happened to find Wei Wucai lowering his head to look at her face.

“What is it?” Yan Zhiqing asked puzzledly.

Wei Wucai pulled over a folding chair and sat down beside her. “You haven’t followed me on Weibo.”

Yan Zhiqing felt speechless.

“You use Weibo?” Yan Zhiqing asked in surprise.

It wasn’t because she was being aloof that she hadn’t followed him. Yan Zhiqing had simply not thought of it at all.

“I’ve had an account for quite a few years already.” Wei Wucai’s words very much seemed to imply that he felt aggrieved because of her.

Yan Zhiqing felt speechless.

What was this?

Did Wei Wucai mean that he felt rather aggrieved because he’d had an account for a few years already, but she hadn’t followed him all this time?

Yan Zhiqing blinked and let out two dry laughs before explaining, “We weren’t close in the past, right? We’d only met a few times at most. Moreover, I didn’t even know you had an account.”

“You know now,” Wei Wucan said.

Yan Zhiqing felt speechless.

What had happened?

“Sure, sure, sure. I’ll follow you now,” Yan Zhiqing said while turning on her phone.

Without much thought, she asked, “So have you followed me?”

“I have,” Wei Wucan said with complete confidence.

This made Yan Zhiqing feel very embarrassed.

Who knows when Wei Wucan had followed her... yet she had never followed him back all this time. This was somewhat embarrassing.

Yan Zhiqing pressed open the search box and asked, “What’s your account handle?”

“It’s my name,” Wei Wucan said.

Yan Zhiqing nodded, found him through the search, and went to his homepage.

Yan Zhiqing felt speechless.

This person had absolutely nothing on his homepage!

Why did he want her to follow him so much?

“Oh, right. When did you follow me?” Yan Zhiqing asked while following him.

Wei Wucan felt speechless.

Yan Zhiqing’s fans increased in number with every passing minute.

Thus, it would be impossible even if she tried to search for Wei Wucan in her endless sea of followers.

Yet she heard Wei Wucan say, “Just a moment ago.”

Yan Zhiqing felt speechless.

“Yet you still reproached me for not having followed you?” Yan Zhiqing said immediately. “Didn’t you only just follow me too?”

Wei Wucan felt speechless.

Yan Zhiqing decided not to lower herself to Wei Wucan’s level. After all, she was very forgiving towards her friends.

“I’ve already followed you.” Yan Zhiqing let Wei Wucan look at her phone.

Wei Wucan nodded in satisfaction. “It’s only right that good friends follow each other.”

Chapter 3140: Gone Mad from Wanting to Be Famous

At this time, Yan Zhiqing still had yet to realize something was not right.

Naturally, Wei Wucai would not tell her precisely why he came to find her in such a rush and have her follow him.

Wei Wucai just sat beside her rather than leaving.

He refreshed the comments page once more.

He was pleasantly surprised to find that some keen-eyed netizens had noticed that Yan Zhiqing had followed him.

Moreover, they even took a screenshot of Wei Wucai's followers.

"Yan Zhiqing just followed Wei Wucai. The two of them are mutual follows now."

"Yan Zhiqing is the only person Wei Wucai is following. I don't believe there's nothing going on between them."

"Agreed."

"I agree too. At least, Wei Wucai definitely likes Yan Zhiqing."

"I feel the same way. Ever since last night, Yan Zhiqing and Wei Wucai—these two involved parties have never come forth to clarify the facts, which means they're probably waiting for the situation to cool off on its own. I feel it's more likely they're in a tacit agreement on the matter."

"Moreover, don't you guys feel that Wei Wucai's behavior really leaves room for imagination? Just after some netizens said there's nothing on his Weibo, he immediately verified his account."

"After that, some netizens mentioned how, if they were friends, how could they not even be following each other, let alone if they were involved in a romantic scandal? They also said it seems more like a misunderstanding and that the relationship between the two probably isn't that good."

"So he immediately followed Yan Zhiqing. This is the result of him always refreshing the comments page and constantly spying on us through his phone screen."

"I'm adding on to the previous comment. After he followed Yan Zhiqing, he once again saw some netizens say that although he followed Yan Zhiqing, Yan Zhiqing still had yet to follow him. Just a while later, Yan Zhiqing followed him in the end too."

"Hahahahahaha. This image you've all put together makes me feel like Wei Wucai is really adorable. What's with that? He's being particularly urgent in wanting us to think he's in a relationship with Yan Zhiqing."

"This man's gone mad from wanting to be famous."

"Can the previous commenter please use a bit of your brain when you talk? Wei Wucai was born into the Weis. When some netizens tagged Wei Zhiqian, he immediately appeared and confirmed Wei Wucai's identity. Wei Wucai's position in the Wei Family can be seen clearly from how close he is with Wei Zhiqian."

"Even if we disregard what the previous commenter said, Wei Wucai is the owner of Ledepic More. Does he need promoting? What a joke!"

This was all thanks to Wei Wucui deliberately making himself known to reporters and revealing how attractive he was.

Additionally, Yu Wenhan and the others had just uploaded Wei Wucui's photo.

It allowed Wei Wucui's face to fiercely attract a whole bunch of fans in this short period of time.

Consequently, Wei Wucui now had many fans.

The kind of fans who would agree that everything he said was right just because he was attractive.

"He doesn't need promoting just because he's the owner of a company? Can you brainless fans stop joking around? His special effects company can't escape the entertainment circle. Does he not want to raise the reputation of his company? Doing promotional stunts is one of the fastest ways of achieving that.

"For example, there were not many people who knew of Ledepic More initially. But after this matter, everyone who went online to search it up now knows about this company. Due to this increase in reputation, his company will be able to receive more work offers for movies and television series. This is essentially free advertising for his company, and it's more useful than arranging for a commercial."

"Aiyo. The previous commenter—sure, you're smart. But can you not be so somber?"

"I'm a special effects student. Previous commenter, you probably don't know that Ledepic More is legendary in our industry. Special effects students who want to work in this field—we all put our efforts into striving toward entering Ledepic More. We all want the glory of entering that company.

"You can't even imagine Ledepic More's position in this industry because you're in a different line of work. Moreover, speaking frankly, Ledepic More does not need recognition from people outside the industry. They are extremely well-known in the industry, and those movie and television productions are all queueing up in wait for their availability. Wei Wucui does not need to promote his company at all. He even receives work offers from Hollywood; would he need to do a promotional stunt in the domestic entertainment circle that's not worth a damn thing?

"On the contrary, Wei Wucui doesn't need to seize this opportunity to use someone else to raise his company's profile. Rather, many people want to develop a good relationship with Wei Wucui. As his company has done the special effects for many movie and television productions, he has a very wide network of contacts in the entertainment circle. You can't even imagine it; his network is much wider than that of any high-profile director.

"If his romantic scandal were with any other actress, I would even suspect the actress was using Wei Wucui to promote herself. Or perhaps she was pursuing him to get herself some resources. But the party in question is Yan Zhiqing. The person who needs the least promotion and the least likely to pull promotional stunts—the first person that comes to mind when I think of these is Yan Zhiqing.

"You place these two people who would never pull promotional stunts together and tell me that they're doing a promotional stunt? What a big joke."

“Stop harboring pointlessly dark intentions. If you still don’t get it after seeing that netizen’s explanation about Ledepic More, you should just go search for a bit on the internet. Then you’ll know just what sort of existence Ledepic More has.”

After that, there was even a netizen who, in passing, took a screenshot of a news article from an overseas source and even considerately wrote up a translation of it in red font.

“Those who can understand the language, read the original text. Those who can’t, read my translation. This is an article an overseas news media company released regarding Ledepic More’s assessed value. They even placed Ledepic More alongside the top four special effects companies, placing it into the top five. Wei Wucai is in possession of such a high-profile company, yet you’re telling me he needs promoting?”

Nevertheless, another netizen said, “But without this scandal, who would know that Ledepic More is this awesome? This company is amazing, but it’s pointless if no one knows how amazing they are.”

“I am begging you. Can you use your brain and think a little? Do they need you to know? Do they need your acknowledgment? There are many amazing people in every specialist field. Do nuclear warhead researchers need people to know who they are? Do the academics in the Chinese Academy of Sciences need you to know about them? Look at you, thinking you’re so awesome. You take yourself as such an important person that everyone wants you to know who they are?”

Wei Wucai watched as this initially rather harmonious discussion suddenly broke out into a quarrel.

However, it was fortunate that there were not many people who harbored dark intentions.

When a few of them emerged, they were drowned out by the vast number of netizens.

Nonetheless, Wei Wucai felt that there could not just be ordinary netizens among these commenters.

He could see that among them were some people who were trying to influence public opinion.

It seemed that someone was trying to blend in with these netizens and seize the opportunity to defame Yan Zhiqing.

However, Yan Zhiqing’s every aspect was too good; it was truly impossible for someone to defame her.

As such, it appeared that those with bad intentions were suppressed by the other netizens’ criticism.

But in reality, it was that these people who wanted to take advantage of Yan Zhiqing’s crisis for personal gain realized they could not achieve their goal with this method, so they withdrew.

That was why it looked as if that group of netizens was very quickly suppressed.

Yan Zhiqing was able to rest for another half an hour.

Upon seeing that things temporarily seemed to be unproblematic for Yan Zhiqing, Fang Qiaohan let Yan Zhiqing have a look at the new comments.

