

Mr Han 3151

Chapter 3151: Why Are You Here?

The group pondered about it and thought that this plan would work.

They usually reported celebrity news, so they never really cared if the news story they reported was true.

Han Zhuoling had just arrived on set with the medicine.

Compared to Yan Beicheng, it was not as troublesome for Han Zhuoling to visit the set.

When Yan Beicheng visited the set, the security officer even went inside to ask for permission.

Han Zhuoling had invested in this movie, so it was proper of him to visit the set.

The security officer let him in without even asking.

Han Zhuoling was still walking on the set and had not even seen Shi Xiaoya when he was recognized by the production crew members.

At the same time, Wu Mosen's assistant also saw Han Zhuoling and came over to greet him.

"Young Master Ling," the assistant called out.

"I came to see Xiaoya to give her some medicine," Han Zhuoling said.

The assistant was shocked. His expression conveyed his deep concern over this. "Is Xiaoya sick?"

"Not really. She just hasn't been sleeping much these days. Her head hurts, so I went to buy headache relief strips for her," Han Zhuoling explained.

"Oh." The assistant let out a sigh of relief. "Xiaoya is in the dressing room. I will bring you over there."

The assistant brought Han Zhuoling to Shi Xiaoya's dressing room.

At this moment, Shi Xiaoya was doing Yan Zhiqing's makeup.

When she saw Han Zhuoling, she was surprised and asked, "Why are you here?"

Shi Xiaoya checked the time and said, "That's not right. Why did you wake up so early? Why don't you rest a little more? Is it about work?"

Han Zhuoling took a box of headache relief strips out and gave it to her. "I went around to see if there are pharmacies open. You can keep a box here. I will leave the rest in the hotel room."

Han Zhuoling continued, "I intentionally bought more. You haven't been getting enough sleep here, so you will most likely continue to suffer from headaches. It's better to be prepared. There are also other people on the set. If their head hurts or if their head feels hot, they can use it too."

"So you woke up so early to buy headache relief strips for me?" Shi Xiaoya felt so emotional that she didn't know what to say.

Without having to think about it, she knew that there weren't many pharmacies that were open.

She didn't know how long Han Zhuoling had spent searching and how much he had driven to find an open pharmacy.

"I can't let you work with a headache, right? It'd feel horrible." Han Zhuoling smiled and said, "In addition, I don't feel like sleeping if your head hurts. Just apply a headache relief strip first. If you still don't feel well, I will call a doctor over to check on you."

In Shi Xiaoya's opinion, there was really no need to be so dramatic. She had a headache because she hadn't rested well.

The headache would go away after she had applied two headache relief strips.

That was exactly what she told Han Zhuoling.

Han Zhuoling nodded and said, "Anyway, if you are still not feeling well, just let me know. Don't endure it just because you are afraid of troubling me."

"Sure." Shi Xiaoya nodded.

Han Zhuoling had gone around searching for an open pharmacy because she had a headache.

And now, it's time for him to go to the office.

He hadn't even had the time to rest.

"You didn't sleep well either. Is it really okay for you to drive to the office?" Shi Xiaoya looked at Han Zhuoling worriedly.

"It's fine," Han Zhuoling said with a smile. "Did you forget? I have always slept very little. I've been like this since a long time ago, so I'm used to it."

He had only changed this sleeping habit because he started dating Shi Xiaoya.

He had been resting a lot more since. It was indeed a little difficult to wake up early suddenly.

However, Han Zhuoling didn't tell Shi Xiaoya this.

He was worried that Shi Xiaoya might blame herself.

Han Zhuoling checked the time and said, "I have to go. Don't forget to apply this."

Chapter 3152: Wei Wucui's Face Randomly Appeared

Yan Zhiqing was watching from the side and was a little jealous.

She thought she could live fine by herself.

Even though she was single, she was still doing excellent and lived well providing for herself.

In addition, she had a reliable brother named Yan Beicheng. She never had to worry about being a victim of bullying.

She didn't need to adjust to anyone. She was by herself. There was never a daily quarrel that would enrage her.

Yan Zhiqing had always thought that this state of hers was good.

But she suddenly felt a little jealous as she watched Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling's interaction.

It is extremely good to have someone protecting you and keeping you company.

To have someone who would worry about your health. To have someone who would think ahead even before you said anything.

For example, Shi Xiaoya didn't tell Han Zhuoling anything. She was even worried about Han Zhuoling's lack of sleep.

But Han Zhuoling secretly went to buy medicine for her, searching from store to store.

He was so thoughtful.

Yan Zhiqing didn't care if her partner wasn't wealthy. She herself was very wealthy.

She cared more about such tiny emotional moments.

When you were sad, there would be a person who was next to you, letting you know that you were not alone and that he would always keep you company.

Yan Zhiqing realized that even her elder brother could not play this role for her.

Her brother had a wife.

She couldn't always bother her brother for such small matters.

If it happened often, who wouldn't get annoyed?

You really needed a person who would spend their entire life with you.

That person would keep you company when you are sad and would lend you a shoulder when you need it.

Yan Beicheng had his own family.

He's not just her brother. He was also someone's husband and someone's father.

She still needed that one person who belonged to her.

This had never occurred to her before. At this moment, she felt like going into a relationship and spending the rest of her life with someone.

Yan Zhiqing felt a little sad as she thought about this. She wondered if she would meet someone.

Wei Wucai's face appeared in her mind when she had this idea.

Yan Zhiqing hurriedly shook her head back and forth.

Why would she think of him!

In the first place, he didn't like girls! There's no use thinking about him!

So why would she think about him!

Yan Zhiqing forced herself to come back to her senses and stop thinking nonsense.

When she saw that Han Zhuoling was still worried, Yan Zhiqing prompted with a smile, "Why don't you use the headache relief strip now? Your head is still hurting."

As expected, Han Zhuoling was looking at Shi Xiaoya. He obviously wanted to see Shi Xiaoya apply the headache relief strip before he leaves.

The headache relief strip that Han Zhuoling had bought had no negative impact on one's beauty.

It was just a small circular patch that was slightly bigger than a coin.

According to the instructions, this patch should be placed on an acupuncture point on the back of one's neck.

Therefore, even if she applied the strip, no one would know what she had stuck on her.

Upon seeing that Shi Xiaoya had applied the strip, Han Zhuoling felt at ease.

He then left quickly.

Shi Xiaoya touched the headache relief patch. The cloth of the patch even had the smell of Chinese medicine.

Her skin had warmed up the patch.

Shi Xiaoya felt as though Han Zhuoling was still here.

The warmth of Han Zhuoling's index finger still lingered on the patch.

Shi Xiaoya couldn't stop smiling.

Most importantly, her face brimmed with a contented smile that was as sweet as honey.

Yan Zhiqing could no longer look at Shi Xiaoya as she said, "That's enough. He already left. No matter how sweet your smile is, he won't be able to see it. Your smile will only irritate me."

Shi Xiaoya came back to her senses. She blinked twice.

Chapter 3153: Who First Popped into Your Mind

She then smiled at Yan Zhiqing and asked, "Are you jealous?"

Yan Zhiqing rubbed her chin and said, "Honestly? I am a little jealous."

"Stop touching. You just rubbed off some makeup." Shi Xiaoya hastily smacked Yan Zhiqing's hand off and applied a little more makeup on her chin.

She changed her brush and continued doing Yan Zhiqing's makeup. She then said to Yan Zhiqing, "If you are jealous, then get a boyfriend. Find someone who is good to you and constantly has you in his heart. One who remains next to you regardless of what happens. One who is very reliable."

Yan Zhiqing was very obedient. To make it easier for Shi Xiaoya while she was doing her makeup, Yan Zhiqing didn't dare to move.

She didn't even dare to move her mouth too much. She carefully moved her lips as she said, "Of course I know that is good. However, I am not lucky enough to find someone like that! People like my brother and Han Zhuoling are as scarce as hen's teeth."

She continued, "People like that are indeed one in a million. Not every guy can be like them, considerate and thoughtful to their wives. I want to find someone, but it's not like I can find one within a short period of time."

Yan Zhiqing sighed and said, "I am most afraid that I would eventually not find a person like that. I don't want to just accept someone below that standard. Will I really end up being alone for the rest of my life?"

Shi Xiaoya thought to herself, how was it possible for Yan Zhiqing to remain alone?

Wei Wucai would have to be asked if he would allow this.

"But do you have anyone you like right now? It's been so many years. You must have had feelings for one or two people, right?" Shi Xiaoya asked.

"I have never." Yan Zhiqing, feeling a little embarrassed, explained, "In the past... How do I explain this... I can't even say it's because I was a teenager going through puberty and being overly self-conscious. Anyway, now that I think about it, I don't like who I used to be.

"Back then, I was very proud. I looked down on so many people. I saw flaws in everyone I met. Actually, I had a lot of flaws too. Anyway, whenever I met someone, I would seek to find fault in them first. That's why I've never had feelings for anyone." Yan Zhiqing had spoken honestly.

Shi Xiaoya hadn't expected Yan Zhiqing to candidly speak about the flaws she had in the past.

"But you are different now," Shi Xiaoya said. "Therefore, you are really likable now."

Yan Zhiqing laughed happily and said, "I think so too."

Shi Xiaoya asked, "So when you were thinking about wanting someone to be with, no one popped into your mind?"

Yan Zhiqing froze and stubbornly said, "No... no."

She refused to admit that Wei Wucai's face had appeared in her mind.

Shi Xiaoya knew that Yan Zhiqing was hiding something. She wondered if she was thinking about Wei Wucai.

Shi Xiaoya stopped asking.

She hastily finished doing Yan Zhiqing makeup and bid her to prepare for today's filming.

Thankfully, today's filming didn't take too long.

They actually finished the shoot by seven at night.

The group hurriedly tidied up. The cast members hastily removed their makeup, took off their costumes, and changed into their own clothes. All of them either went back to the hotel or went to eat dinner together.

Wei Wucai came looking for Yan Zhiqing at this moment.

As they were part of the same production crew, the other cast members witnessed their interactions.

They all thought that Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing would most likely become a couple.

Without exchanging words, all of them left silently, giving them space.

Wei Wucai noticed this. As for Yan Zhiqing, she remained carefree and did not notice anything.

Chapter 3154: Pregnant?

When she saw Wei Wucai here, she immediately said, "There have definitely been a lot of reporters these past two days. It's not convenient for us to eat outside. Let's just eat at the hotel. I will ask Qiaohan to pick up the delivery when it gets here."

"Then... should we eat in my room?" Wei Wucai asked.

Yan Zhiqing recalled that she was supposed to have a meal with him alone.

She thus answered, "We had food in your room yesterday and it left behind a smell. I feel so bad. Let's eat in my room today."

If Yan Beicheng found out about this, he would die from anger.

He had instructed her yesterday not to stay in a room with Wei Wucai alone.

Whether it's Wei Wucai's room or her room, both were not permitted.

Yet Yan Zhiqing forgot about it after only a night.

Not only was she going to have dinner with Wei Wucai alone, she was going to take Wei Wucai into her room.

"Okay." Wei Wucai would obviously agree without any hesitation.

The group went back to the hotel together.

All of them went back to their own rooms.

The reporters in the hotel wouldn't be able to take the elevator upstairs because a room card was needed to unlock the hotel floor buttons.

Therefore, they didn't need to worry about Wei Wucai being pictured going into Yan Zhiqing's room.

However, Wei Wucai honestly wanted a photo to be taken.

Yan Zhiqing asked Wei Wucai for his opinion as she was about to order the food.

Wei Wucai answered, "We had hotpot last night and during noon today. Let's not get hotpot. Just order the usual stir-fry dishes."

Stir-fry dishes didn't have a strong smell and wouldn't cause her room to smell.

Yan Zhiqing searched on the food delivery app. Possibly due to the fact that she was hungry, she wanted to eat whatever she saw.

"Should we order from this Seafood Cafe?" Yan Zhiqing turned and showed Wei Wucai her phone.

"Since it's just the two of us, I think we can order the portion for two or three people."

The fact was, such food had a strong smell, and food with rich seasoning could easily cause weight gain.

But fortunately, this was seafood, and seafood did not easily lead to weight gain.

In addition, Yan Zhiqing remembered that when Wei Wucai had hotpot, he ate from the spicy half of the hotpot.

This meant that he was able to eat spicy food.

"Alright." Wei Wucai nodded. "However, wouldn't you get pimples if you ate spicy food during every meal for the past two days?"

Yan Zhiqing felt speechless.

Why would he ask such a realistic question at this time?

"I can eat a little bit of spicy food and I can rinse some with water before I eat them." Yan Zhiqing had a good appetite and didn't care about losing weight anymore.

Wei Wucai thus nodded and said, "Let's order that, then."

Yan Zhiqing gave the delivery service Fang Qiaohan's phone number and told Fang Qiaohan about it.

Coincidentally, Fang Qiaohan had also ordered food delivery and was already eating with Guo Yujie in the hotel room.

Yan Zhiqing was still waiting for her food delivery.

Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling were not a public figure like Yan Zhiqing was and didn't share the same worries as her. No one would follow them outside, so they picked a restaurant nearby and had dinner there.

"You have to eat food outside every day because of me," Shi Xiaoya said apologetically.

The food outside used a lot of oil. The ingredients and seasoning used might not actually be good. In fact, some of the ingredients and seasonings might not even be considered qualified.

However, because they didn't see such things, they were able to eat it while pretending that they knew nothing.

Such dishes were not as delicious as home-cooked food, especially if you ate too much of it.

In addition, Han Zhuoling had overworked himself in the past, causing poor digestive health.

Shi Xiaoya was worried that if this continued for too long, Han Zhuoling would suffer from poor digestive health again.

Due to ordering food delivery and eating outside every day, even she felt a little heavy. What more Han Zhuoling?

The two picked a restaurant that looked pretty good and ordered mainly dishes that were light.

While they were waiting for the food, Han Zhuoling got a phone call from Old Mrs. Han.

"Grandma?" Han Zhuoling was surprised to receive this call. Old Mrs. Han rarely called of her own accord.

Normally, she wouldn't call if nothing happened.

And so, Han Zhuoling asked, "What happened?"

Old Mrs. Han's voice was very cheerful. It sounded as though she had called to gossip.

It didn't sound like she had encountered anything bad.

And so, Han Zhuoling was not worried.

He then heard Old Mrs. Han say, "Zhuoling, is Xiaoya pregnant?"

"Eh?" Han Zhuoling was shocked when he heard what Old Mrs. Han said. "No. When did that happen? I had no idea. Who told you that?"

"It was reported online." When Old Mrs. Han realized that the news was not true, her voice immediately sounded less energetic. "Is she not?"

"No." Han Zhuoling almost felt unsure because of what Old Mrs. Han said.

He immediately asked Shi Xiaoya, "Xiaoya, are you pregnant?"

He had asked this while Shi Xiaoya was drinking water.

Then Shi Xiaoya suddenly heard Han Zhuoling's question. She wasn't expecting it at all.

The water got stuck in her throat.

"Cough! Cough, cough, cough!" Shi Xiaoya hurriedly placed the cup down and pulled some tissues to wipe her mouth with.

Han Zhuoling wiped her mouth as well and patted her on the back.

"Why were you so shocked?" Han Zhuoling paused for a second and asked confusedly, "Perhaps you are really pregnant?"

“What!” Shi Xiaoya, not knowing whether to laugh or cry, said, “I was just surprised. Where did this rumor come from? I didn’t even know I was pregnant.”

Shi Xiaoya hurriedly said, “No... I am not pregnant. I am not pregnant. I am seriously not pregnant.”

While Han Zhuoling was staring at her, Shi Xiaoya felt as though she wasn’t explaining this clearly enough.

The two hadn’t been using contraception ever since they registered their marriage.

However, they had done their calculations. Their wedding was scheduled to take place in May of next year, which just so happened to be the time when Lu Man would be giving birth and completing her month of postpartum confinement. She would then be able to be a part of the wedding.

Even if they got pregnant because they didn’t use contraception...

She wouldn’t look pregnant now.

Even if she would already be a few months along, it wouldn’t affect the wedding.

She still wouldn’t look pregnant at that time, so it should not stop her from wearing her wedding dress.

And so, they didn’t use contraception.

Shi Xiaoya hadn’t had such an experience.

However, she thought that she would have sensed it if she were pregnant.

Her life wasn’t affected at all. It was the same as before.

In addition, her period came on time.

Wait, why was she thinking about this?

She’s not pregnant, so who’s the one spreading the rumor?

Han Zhuoling gave her another cup of water.

He had Shi Xiaoya drink some water so that she could soothe her throat and feel better.

“If I were really pregnant, I would have sensed something,” Shi Xiaoya said with difficulty. “I feel energetic every day, and my... it’s always on time...”

She was already Han Zhuoling’s wife.

However, when mentioning things like her period, Shi Xiaoya still felt embarrassed to say it out loud.

“So there is no way I am pregnant.” Shi Xiaoya thought that this was so weird as she said, “How did something that I didn’t even know spread out as a rumor?”

Han Zhuoling nodded and said to Old Mrs. Han, “Grandma, Xiaoya is not pregnant. We didn’t even know about this. We didn’t even do any tests, so how did this rumor get spread out?”

Honestly, Han Zhuoling felt slightly disappointed.

Chapter 3155: Soon to Join the Ranks of Those Who Have Children in the Later Years of Life

Initially, he had not thought in this direction.

As Shi Xiaoya was still young and the two of them had not used contraception...

It was only a matter of time before Shi Xiaoya got pregnant.

As such, Han Zhuoling had never placed any special consideration on this matter, simply deciding to let nature take its course.

Shi Xiaoya was not pregnant yet, but Han Zhuoling was not worried about that.

After all, it had not been long since the two of them stopped using contraception.

But who knew where Old Mrs. Han heard the rumor from? She suddenly went to ask about it.

The moment Han Zhuoling heard about it, he could not hold back his anticipation.

He even thought that Shi Xiaoya had already gotten an examination done and knew she was pregnant.

But she kept it a secret from him because she wanted to give him a surprise.

Thus, Han Zhuoling had been filled with great anticipation.

However, when he found out from Shi Xiaoya that this whole thing was just a big misunderstanding...

Han Zhuoling could not help feeling disappointed.

It was only then that he realized he had been anticipating having a child with Shi Xiaoya all this time.

He had been wanting to let nature take its course. Yet when he thought she was pregnant, he finally realized he was actually this excited...

And that he had such great anticipation for their child's arrival into the world.

While Han Zhuoling was sorting out his feelings, he heard Old Mrs. Han say, "It's news on the internet. They said you went to a pharmacy early in the morning and then went to the set to deliver something to Xiaoya, suggesting the possibility that Xiaoya is pregnant."

Han Zhuoling felt speechless. "..."

So this was how the misunderstanding came about.

With this, Han Zhuoling knew Shi Xiaoya truly was not pregnant.

It wasn't that he doubted her.

It's just that Shi Xiaoya did not have much experience in this aspect.

Much like Lu Man, what if Shi Xiaoya got pregnant and didn't show much sign of it, so she didn't know?

In the end, the rumor was actually because he had gone to a pharmacy early in the morning, leading others to misunderstand.

Han Zhuoling explained, "I went to a pharmacy in the early morning because Xiaoya had not been getting enough sleep all this time while she's working with the crew. She could only sleep for five hours every day, and some days, she would get even less. As the casts' makeup artist, she needs to wake up earlier than many of the other crew members. And unlike the cast who can leave after they finish filming, she needs to stay on the set until the end of the day."

Hearing this, Old Mrs. Han felt sorry for Shi Xiaoya and said, "Xiaoya, this child, she really works too hard."

"So, precisely because she hasn't been getting enough sleep, she had a really severe headache when she got up early this morning. I was afraid she would just go to work with the headache. It was too hard for me to bear, so I went to a pharmacy to buy some medicated strips for her headache," Han Zhuoling said. "I never expected that just this would feed the imagination of others and cause them to say that Xiaoya's pregnant."

Old Mrs. Han was also a bit disappointed.

Initially, she had made this phone call in excitement and anticipation. She never imagined it was actually all just a misunderstanding.

"So it's like this. It's fine, it's fine. That's just a misunderstanding, then," Old Mrs. Han said.

Shi Xiaoya was still young anyway.

Old Mrs. Han was an old lady, after all. It was natural that she would be happy and in anticipation upon hearing that a younger member of her family was expecting a child.

That said, it was fine that Shi Xiaoya was not pregnant. After all, this was not a matter that could be rushed.

"Have the two of you eaten yet?" Old Mrs. Han asked.

"We're eating right now. Xiaoya got off work earlier than usual today," Han Zhuoling answered.

Old Mrs. Han knew that Han Zhuoling was currently treating the hotel as his home every day because of Shi Xiaoya.

However, Old Mrs. Han thought this was a pretty good thing.

It would prevent some temptresses from thinking they could take advantage of Shi Xiaoya's absence and make a move to take her place just because she's not around.

Coincidentally, by doing this, Han Zhuoling could make it known...

That the relationship between him and his wife was great. They could not bear to be apart for even a short time. It would make those who still had intentions towards him stop as soon as possible.

"Oh, oh, oh. Then you two hurry up and have your meal," Old Mrs. Han said hurriedly. "I won't disturb you anymore."

Old Mrs. Han hung up the call and then thought of how Lin Liye might have also seen the false rumor on the Internet.

She was afraid Lin Liye would go and ask the couple about it.

Initially, she and Lin Liye had not intended to give the couple any pressure about having a child, but after her phone call with them, she felt she had already given them some pressure. So this wasn't good.

Consequently, Old Mrs. Han rang Lin Liye without delay.

"Mom," Lin Liye immediately called out when she picked up Old Mrs. Han's call.

"Oh, Liye, have you seen the rumor on the Internet about Xiaoya's pregnancy?" Old Mrs. Han asked.

"I just saw it and was about to ask Zhuoling what's going on," Lin Liye replied.

"Hey! Don't ask about it," Old Mrs. Han said. "I just asked him. It's all just a misunderstanding."

Old Mrs. Han took a moment to explain it to Lin Liye.

"I guessed that you must have seen it as well and wouldn't be able to resist asking them. But I thought that if we both go ask them about it excitedly and in anticipation, they'll think we're rushing them. There's no way to explain this either. The more we try, the more they will misunderstand and end up feeling more pressured," Old Mrs. Han said.

With that, Lin Liye immediately understood. "I understand, Mom. I won't ask them. It's enough that I know this is just a misunderstanding and that Xiaoya isn't actually pregnant."

"Yes, good." Old Mrs. Han happily hung up the call.

Shi Xiaoya took a sip of water and looked at Han Zhuoling. She asked, "Are you hoping for us to have a child earlier?"

"It's not that I'm hoping for it, per se. I'm just letting nature take its course," Han Zhuoling said. "Once I know that our child will soon be born into this world, I will be very happy, of course. This is human nature. But for now, I'm not in a hurry to have a child."

He continued with a smile, "Haven't we only just stopped using contraception? Since when has a pregnancy occurred right after stopping contraception? That's why I'm not worried. Didn't Zhuoli and Lu Man prepare for their pregnancy for quite a long time? Wasn't it like a year?"

"In any case, I'm quite anxious about it," Shi Xiaoya said. "I want to hurry up and give birth to a child for you."

Han Zhuoling pondered this slowly and suddenly felt something was not quite right with her words.

"Why?" Han Zhuoling narrowed his eyes. "Is it because you think I'm getting older, so you want to have a child as soon as possible?"

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. "..."

Was this man a roundworm inside her stomach?

Or was he able to read her thoughts? Did he possess X-ray eyes or something?!

How did he know what she was thinking?

She... She did indeed have such thoughts...

Shi Xiaoya felt that Han Zhuoling was not particularly young anymore. In fact, he would soon join the ranks of those who had children in the later years of their life.

If they didn't put in more effort now, Han Zhuoling's arms and legs would become like those of an elderly by the time their child grew to a lively and playful age. Without the energy to play with his child, what would he do then?

Even if it weren't to the extent of having the arms and legs of an elderly person, he certainly would not have the energy to keep up with a child's vigor.

If their child went to him so they could play, he would probably have a bitter and pressured expression. He clearly would not have the physical strength to do it, yet he would not be able to admit it, needing to take into consideration his image and dignity as the child's father.

He would force himself to play with his child and then return home terribly exhausted.

Upon thinking about it, he could only blame himself for being soft-hearted.

While thinking these things, she was faced with Han Zhuoling's narrowed eyes.

Shi Xiaoya immediately laughed dryly. "Hehehehe... How could that be? Why do you think that way? You're still..."

The words "hale and hearty despite your years" almost emerged from her mouth.

Fortunately, Shi Xiaoya had restrained herself in time and didn't actually say those words out loud.

"You're still so young!" Shi Xiaoya's face was filled with surprise. "How could you feel you're too old now? Why do you feel this way?"

Han Zhuoling laughed.

He felt that it truly wasn't a waste for Shi Xiaoya to stay here with the cast and crew.

At the very least, she had gained a lot of improvement in her acting skills.

This act of hers was just like the real thing.

Chapter 3156: Wrong Perception

Although he knew that she was just humoring him, Han Zhuoling still felt very happy.

"I am young," Han Zhuoling said.

"Wait a minute. Why did you ask me all of a sudden?" Shi Xiaoya decided to counteract by asking this.

Han Zhuoling was not worried at all. He said unhurriedly, "Because you are much younger than me. Although I am not old, I am worried that you might have an incorrect perception because of our huge age difference."

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. "..."

"No, no. Definitely not." Shi Xiaoya denied it adamantly.

Han Zhuoling nodded with satisfaction as he said, "Then there's even more reason for us not to worry."

Shi Xiaoya was speechless. "..."

Shi Xiaoya thought to herself, "It's better if we still worry a little bit."

Han Zhuoling was really not young anymore.

However, the thought itself was kept hidden in Shi Xiaoya's heart.

Fang Qiaohan took the delivery and sent it to Yan Zhiqing's room.

Within only a few days, Wei Wucai could go into Yan Zhiqing's room. Fang Qiaohan really wanted to give Wei Wucai a thumbs up.

This was something that many people wanted to do but could not achieve.

If Yan Zhiqing suddenly announced her relationship with Wei Wucai soon after this, she wouldn't be surprised.

But Fang Qiaohan didn't say anything about Wei Wucai going to Yan Zhiqing's room and spending time with her alone.

She gave them the delivery and left.

Yan Zhiqing didn't order wine. Instead, she asked for two bottles of cooling cold tea.

This was just in case she got pimples from eating too much of these strong-flavored food.

She poured Wei Wucai a cup and gave herself a cup.

Yan Zhiqing held the cup and said, "Although you said that you don't mind it, I thought that I should still apologize to you. You got involved in this because of me."

Wei Wucai didn't say anything about not being bothered by it. He just held his cup up.

He took a sip and said, "You do still have to be careful, though it's good that it's me. If it was someone else, this would have been inappropriate."

If Yan Zhiqing started being such good friends with some other guy, he wouldn't be able to tolerate it.

He needed to take a precaution about this.

"Yes. I know." Yan Zhiqing had no idea what Wei Wucai was actually thinking. She just nodded and said, "I definitely wouldn't do that."

“Don’t simply allow some men into your room,” Wei Wucui instructed.

Yan Zhiqing rolled her eyes and said, “What kind of person do you think I am! How can I simply bring someone into my room? If someone misunderstood again, I would be so grossed out by it.”

Wei Wucui smiled and said, “Are you mad?”

Yan Zhiqing hmped and started pouting.

Wei Wucui then said, “I was just worried about you. You are very simple-minded. You wouldn’t think much about it, but you can’t stop others from overthinking.”

Yan Zhiqing nodded and said, “I know. You are not the same as them.”

Initially, Wei Wucui was very happy to hear this from Yan Zhiqing.

His heart even skipped a beat.

However, as he thought about it, he realized that something wasn’t right.

Yan Zhiqing must be thinking he was not the same as them because she thought he was gay!

Wei Wucui’s good mood instantly went away.

The corner of his mouth twitched as he asked, “You don’t think I would do anything to you because you assume I am gay?”

At this moment, one could clearly see Wei Wucui’s artful language.

He added the word “assume.”

This meant that Yan Zhiqing herself was the one who had assumed that he was gay.

But Wei Wucui never admitted to it.

It was Yan Zhiqing’s assumption!

However, if Wei Wucui thought that Yan Zhiqing would not be able to do anything to him in the future because of his playful use of language...

He would be very much wrong.

By then, who would care about his artful use of language!

“No! No!” Yan Zhiqing hurriedly waved her hand.

She saw Wei Wucui being bothered by it, and his tone sounded very unhappy.

Yan Zhiqing wondered if Wei Wucui had kept his sexual orientation a secret because he didn’t want others to see him as abnormal.

But Yan Zhiqing felt wrongly accused.

She had never discriminated against him!

Although they had a different sexual orientation, they were really just attracted to a different type.

There was nothing to discriminate against.

For example, some people are attracted to a certain type of person while others are attracted to another type.

Such matters become normal if you think about it this way.

Yan Zhiqing hurriedly explained, "I am not saying that because of this. I just thought that you are a good friend of my brother and very trustworthy. To me, you are not just a friend. You are like a brother."

Yan Zhiqing's smile looked very sweet as she said, "You are about the same age as them and are someone from the same generation as them. Aren't you taking care of me like I am someone from a younger generation?"

Yan Zhiqing was saying this to convince herself.

After being questioned by Shi Xiaoya this morning, Yan Zhiqing couldn't lie to herself anymore.

This morning, when she saw Han Zhuoling giving Shi Xiaoya the pain relief stickers...

She couldn't help but feel envious, and the first person that popped into her mind was Wei Wucai.

However, she knew that Wei Wucai had a different sexual orientation, and a romantic relationship between him and her was impossible.

Yan Zhiqing couldn't allow herself to continue this way.

Yan Zhiqing had thought it through while she was taking a break from acting.

Being part of the same production crew, she would have to see him every day. There was no way she could avoid this.

And so, she could only remind herself again and again to keep a clear head.

Once the shooting of this film had ended, there should be no reason for her to see Wei Wucai anymore. She would not have many chances to see him so frequently.

By then, she would be busy and he would be busy as well.

She would be able to distance herself from him without trying.

When that time comes, she probably wouldn't think much about Wei Wucai anymore.

Wei Wucai did not expect to be viewed as an older brother.

However, it didn't matter to him.

Wei Wucai took this opportunity to say, "Since you said so, if you have any worries in the future, you can let me know."

He continued, "As you are a girl, there will be things that are inconvenient to tell your brother about. You can just tell me and I will help you. After all, considering the type of person I am, it would be convenient to tell me about it."

Considering that he was gay, if he played the role of an older brother, it would be very convenient.

Yan Zhiqing nodded and said, "Okay."

She added, "You should know that I usually try to avoid having too much interaction with people of the opposite gender. Otherwise, it might cause a rumor to spread." However, she considered Wei Wucai's suggestion and thought it to be suitable.

She would never have to worry about these things if the person she interacted with was Wei Wucai.

Even so, she would still have to avoid having too many interactions with Wei Wucai.

This was because she was afraid that she would not be able to keep her heart safe.

"I don't even have to tell you about what would happen if I interact with anyone in the entertainment industry. A misunderstanding can happen if I happened to appear in the airport at the same time as them, not to mention if I was found to be friends with any one of them. If it was someone outside of the entertainment industry, they would think that I was dating someone who doesn't work in the entertainment industry, that it could be an arranged marriage to connect two families." Yan Zhiqing shook her head as she said this.

"Therefore, I try to avoid such interactions. You just happened to be pictured this time. However, we, who are innocent, shall let our innocence speak for itself," Yan Zhiqing said.

Wei Wucai didn't expect her to have such a deep insight regarding this matter.

Chapter 3157: Learning to Be Bad at a Young Age

Despite being in this industry, she was able to remain insightful and rational.

Some people might think that Yan Zhiqing was able to keep this aloof attitude in the entertainment industry because of her powerful background.

However, human beings are bound to be influenced by their environment if they remain in that place for a long time.

The only thing that varies is the level of influence.

However, Yan Zhiqing was able to keep a clear head. She was not fully immersed.

This was very difficult to achieve.

Honestly, if you tried it yourself, you would know how much effort is required to accomplish what Yan Zhiqing had achieved.

Wei Wucai couldn't help staring at Yan Zhiqing.

He didn't even notice that he was staring at her.

Yan Zhiqing was taking food for herself when she noticed Wei Wucai staring at her.

Yan Zhiqing froze. She was stunned and didn't know how to react.

Subconsciously, she started biting on the tips of her chopsticks. Her eyes drifted off to the side. She was afraid to stare back at Wei Wucai.

She didn't understand why he was looking at her this way, and she didn't know what he wanted to do.

If she didn't know better, she would have thought that he had feelings for her.

"Why are you biting on your chopsticks and not eating?" Wei Wucai came back to his senses. He asked that question when he saw Yan Zhiqing behaving this way.

Before his eyes was a girl whose cheeks were red, and this redness spread to the tip of her ears. In the dim light of the hotel room, she looked particularly beautiful.

Wei Wucai suddenly realized that the girl before him looked even more delicious than the food on the table.

"I am eating." Yan Zhiqing hurriedly took the chopsticks out of her mouth.

But some of her saliva smeared the tip of the chopsticks.

Yan Zhiqing took some tissue and wiped the tip of the chopsticks clean.

She then continued taking food.

Wei Wucai wanted to say that he didn't mind her saliva at all. In fact, he wanted her to take some food with that pair of chopsticks and feed it to him.

The two were eating when the doorbell of Yan Zhiqing's room suddenly rang in rapid succession.

While the doorbell was still ringing, rapid banging on the door sounded.

Obviously, the sounds indicated that the people at the door did not have any good intentions.

Wei Wucai frowned. He tensed up and became alert.

Yan Zhiqing stood up in shock as she said, "Who is it? Why are they knocking like this?"

The person at the door couldn't be Fang Qiaohan or anyone she knew.

Even an ordinary staff member of the production crew would not knock on the door like this.

Unless it's about something urgent.

But if something urgent happened at this time, Wu Mosen would have already contacted her.

He wouldn't have had people banging on the door so urgently.

To avoid a misunderstanding, Yan Zhiqing turned on her phone and cast a glance at it. She checked her messages, missed calls, WeChat messages, as well as any other phone applications that people could use to contact her. And yet, no one from the production crew had contacted her.

“I don’t think it’s anyone from the production crew,” Yan Zhiqing said. “If it is something urgent, isn’t it more convenient to just give me a call? They didn’t have to knock on my door at this time. If someone saw this, it wouldn’t be good for me either.”

Wei Wucai nodded and said, “I will open the door. Stay here. Don’t show your face.”

Yan Zhiqing nodded twice. She then remembered something and said, “No. This is my room.”

Wei Wucai turned and looked at her. When she saw this, she suddenly felt guilty for some unknown reason.

She shrugged a shoulder and explained softly, “It’s already very late. It’s my room. If you opened the door and someone saw you, they might think that we...”

She continued, “It would just create a huge misunderstanding.”

“It’s better for me to open the door than to have you get injured because the person at the door came with bad intentions and you didn’t react quickly enough.” Wei Wucai stepped in front of Yan Zhiqing, blocking her way to the door as he said, “Plus, I promised your brother that I will take good care of you and not let anyone in the production crew bully you.”

He added, “I won’t allow it even if it’s in this hotel room. Plus, it’s the production crew who booked this hotel room.”

Yan Zhiqing wanted to say that Yan Beicheng had not asked Wei Wucai to take care of her.

In Yan Beicheng’s eyes, Wei Wucai was a wolf. He couldn’t possibly allow Wei Wucai to take care of Yan Zhiqing.

Before Yan Beicheng left, he even told her to stay away from Wei Wucai.

Yan Beicheng had instructed Han Zhuofeng to also take care of Yan Zhiqing while he was taking care of Shi Xiaoya.

When Wei Wucai saw the disbelief on Yan Zhiqing’s face, obviously showing that she did not believe that Yan Beicheng had given him such instructions, Wei Wucai felt a little angry.

Clearly, Yan Beicheng’s visit to the set had not been all for nothing.

Wei Wucai tapped Yan Zhiqing on her forehead snappishly.

Ever since Wei Wucai had touched Yan Zhiqing on the forehead, he no longer felt any worries whenever he engaged in physical contact with her.

His movements became much more natural.

He was able to touch her face without hesitating.

Thankfully, he was worried that he might use too much strength. And so, even though he was feeling gloomy, he only tapped her on the forehead lightly, like a dragonfly skimming the surface of the water.

He didn't use any strength at all. The tap felt even softer than a touch.

Therefore, even though he tapped her on the forehead, it didn't leave any mark on her forehead.

"Plus, we have been pictured together before. It shouldn't be an issue if they took a picture again," Wei Wucai said. "Plus, the photo of us together is still somewhat trending and will not be forgotten that easily."

Wei Wucai paused for a moment. He then heard the banging on the door sounding louder and louder.

"Of course, this will affect you," Wei Wucai said. "If someone really took pictures of us later and those pictures were leaked, I will not remain silent this time. No matter what, I will provide a public explanation. Regardless of how much of it they will believe, I will provide an explanation. I will not let you handle this alone."

Yan Zhiqing wanted to say that things like this become worse as you explain more.

However, before she could say anything, the angry voice of a woman sounded outside the door. "Yan Zhiqing! Come out! If you dare seduce a man, you should be brave enough to come outside!

"What? You don't have the guts to show your face after doing something shameful? If you dare to do it, you should be brave enough to face it!"

"Bang Bang Bang!" The woman outside the door was still smashing on the door.

"You're so young, yet you're already learning how to be bad. I'd heard that you are one of those rich second-generation heirs. You can have anything you want, but you decided to seduce someone else's man! You better come out!"

Yan Zhiqing's face darkened.

The banging on the door earlier had already sounded like bad news. She didn't expect such a slanderous statement to be uttered.

Considering that everyone knew that she was Yan Beicheng's little sister, Yan Zhiqing had always thought that people who wanted to ruin her reputation would attempt something else.

They could say that her acting skills were bad.

They could say that her life outside of work was messy.

But no matter what, they shouldn't spread lies about her seducing a married man.

After all, there were so many handsome single men in the entertainment industry. If she wanted to, she could just pick one of them and it would be someone who would give her no trouble.

How handsome could that married man be? To the extent that Yan Zhiqing would give up so many single guys for the sake of getting into a relationship with a married man?

Yan Zhiqing was no fool!

Of course, Yan Zhiqing was never someone whose life outside of work was messy, nor was she someone who'd develop an attraction solely based on looks.

Even if they wanted to spread lies about her, they shouldn't spread this type of lie.

Yet someone had really tried to spread such lies about her.

Yan Zhiqing pursed her lips tightly, appearing to have been mistreated.

Chapter 3158: You Said Something Wrong

She said softly to Wei Wucai, "I didn't."

She went on to whisper, "No matter what, I wouldn't fancy someone with a family. For me to throw all caution to the wind, he must be some god. I am not stupid."

She was not someone who usually liked to explain herself.

However, for some reason, she just wanted to give a clear explanation when it came to Wei Wucai.

She didn't want Wei Wucai to think that she was someone who engaged in casual relationships and had no moral values. She didn't want him to think that she was someone who would simply destroy someone else's family.

"In addition, I have self-respect. When I am showing my face outside, I represent the Yan Family. My culture and principles developed at a young age as well as my familial responsibilities would not allow me to make such mistakes. My pride would not allow myself to behave so shamelessly.

"I am backed by the Yan Family. I own my career. I am famous. I don't look bad. My personality is alright, but not detestable. Considering these factors, I have the qualities that make me a good potential partner. Even if I am unable to have the most excellent man in the world, I wouldn't lower my standards to the extent that I would date a married man. Does she think that there are no other men in this world?"

"I know," Wei Wucai said. "However, you are wrong about one thing."

Yan Zhiqing looked at him quizzically.

What did she say wrong?

Did he think that she was inferior?

"You are great. But even without the Yan Family, your career, and your fame, you would still be great," Wei Wucai said in a serious tone. "You don't look bad. In fact, you look beautiful. Because I create special effects for shows and movies, I have seen many women."

He explained, "Of course, I have only met those women once. They can't even be considered acquaintances."

He was worried that Yan Zhiqing might think that he knew a lot of girls and was someone who was often surrounded by them.

“Compared to all the girls I have met, you are one of the most beautiful ones,” Wei Wucan said in a serious manner.

When Yan Zhiqing heard this, she couldn't stop a corner of her mouth from curving upward.

She wanted to ask him a question but decided to control her curiosity.

Even though he was gay, he still thought she was beautiful?

“You have a good personality too. Your personality is not just alright. It is great. Considering everything about you, there are very few people who are good enough for you,” Wei Wucan said.

Yan Zhiqing didn't expect Wei Wucan to think so highly of her!

“Therefore, I don't believe a single word that the woman outside the door is saying. I don't believe even a single letter in her sentence,” Wei Wucan said. “You don't have to worry.”

The woman outside the door was still yelling.

Wei Wucan then said to Yan Zhiqing, “Since we know why she is here, you don't have to show your face. Just hide behind me. Don't confront her.”

Yan Zhiqing nodded. Wei Wucan continued, “We have to go out quickly. We can't let her yell like this. The longer she yells, the louder she becomes and the more attention she attracts.”

“Yes,” Yan Zhiqing said. She then followed behind Wei Wucan while he walked to the door.

Wei Wucan knew what decision Yan Zhiqing had made.

She didn't want to hide.

Wei Wucan looked back and said to Yan Zhiqing, “I am going to open the door.”

“Oh. Okay.” Yan Zhiqing nodded.

When Wei Wucan saw that Yan Zhiqing was prepared, he no longer waited.

While guarding Yan Zhiqing behind him, he opened the door.

The woman outside was banging heavily on the door when Wei Wucan suddenly opened it.

She couldn't stop her momentum. When the door opened, she happened to be slamming her hand downward.

She had been banging on the door very quickly. Thus, the speed of her hand slamming downward was extremely quick as well.

Yan Zhiqing was being protected behind Wei Wucan, so she couldn't see.

Actually, during that brief second, the woman's palm was about to hit Wei Wucan.

However, Wei Wucan's movement was even quicker.

Before her palm landed on him, Wei Wucan grabbed her wrist.

Wei Wucai did not spare any consideration in dealing with the woman before him.

He showed the moves that he usually used against his enemies.

However, when Wei Wucai fought previously, he was usually fighting his buddies at the Mount Lan Compound.

Or he was fighting actual enemies.

Both groups had the skills to handle his attacks.

It's not the same for this shrew. This woman could fight against Yan Zhiqing.

However, she would be no match against an average man.

Not to mention Wei Wucai.

But Wei Wucai was showing his true skills when he dealt with that woman.

It was obvious that this woman was going to suffer great pain.

As expected, the moment Wei Wucai grabbed that woman...

The woman felt as though her bones had been crushed.

"Ah!" the woman screamed. Her face contorted.

When Yan Zhiqing heard her voice, she hurriedly pulled Wei Wucai's shoulders with both her hands. Even while she tiptoed, she was barely able to look over his shoulder to see the woman in front.

It might have been because of Yan Zhiqing's job. Instead of trying to recognize the lady, Yan Zhiqing first noticed the fake nose job and the hyaluronic acid injections.

The woman had had lots of plastic surgery.

Her forehead, nose bridge, and chin were all implants.

Her temples and cheeks were either injected with hyaluronic acid or fat.

At first glance, she looked exquisite. But if you looked closely, you would see how stiff her face looked.

When Wei Wucai grabbed her wrist, she was in so much pain.

If it was an average person, they would show a huge grimace on their face.

The woman before them showed some expression of pain even though her face was stiff.

Even though her eyes were teary, she couldn't even frown.

She couldn't even make an expression of pain. She could only show it through her eyes.

Yan Zhiqing wanted to utter "tsk tsk."

How much filler did this woman inject into her own face?

At this moment, Wei Wucai had already released his grip and pushed the woman away.

The woman slammed onto the hallway across their door.

Her back hit the wall.

In embarrassment, however, she tried to keep her posture straight.

Her long hair had flipped to the front, covering her face.

She moved the long hair that obscured her face away and tried to calm herself down.

She got a clearer view of Wei Wucai who stood before her, and she thought that he looked slightly familiar.

However, due to the chaotic situation, she couldn't remember who Wei Wucai was at this very moment. She couldn't remember where she had seen him before and why she thought he looked familiar.

"Great! It's so late at night and you are alone in a room with a man. A single man and a single woman. What are you two doing?" the woman shouted. "Yan Zhiqing, you joined the film crew as a cast member. You are not here to engage in messy relationships!"

Yan Zhiqing was so angry that her face turned red. Still, Wei Wucai kept Yan Zhiqing protected closely behind him.

Even if she tried to pull or push Wei Wucai to the side, he didn't move an inch.

Yan Zhiqing was so angry that she could only tiptoe and jump while shouting at the woman from over Wei Wucai's shoulder, "What nonsense are you saying! Who are you!"

"Who am I? I am Yu Guangxin's wife! Have you no shame? How dare you seduce Yu Guangxin while on the set!" the woman yelled.

Chapter 3159: I Will Be Responsible

Yu Guangxin had a role in "Left Right," but the character he played was not very important.

However, it was great for him to get a role in this movie.

Any side characters, whether it was secondary or tertiary characters, from this movie would be able to play important characters in other movies.

In other movies and TV shows, they would either be the protagonist or the second male or second female lead.

After all, although Yan Zhiqing was the main character, there were other more prominent actors and actresses like Gao Zishan and Gu Fei.

Considering that "Left Right" was such an important movie, it was difficult to get a role in it.

In addition, because it was a movie, there was a maximum running time limit. They have to guarantee that more prominent actors, such as Yan Zhiqing, Gao Zishan, and Gu Fei, could get enough screen time.

Then, the remaining screen time, which was not much, would be divided up among the remaining actors and actresses.

Although Yu Guangxin's role in "Left Right" was not prominent, he would be considered a beautiful and talented actor.

Yan Zhiqing now knew that this lady was Yu Guangxin's wife.

However, during the past few days that Yan Zhiqing had been on the set, she hadn't even gotten the chance to chat with Yu Guangxin.

She had been spending most of her time with Shi Xiaoya as well as Han Zhuofeng.

Of course, she spent time with Wei Wucai as well.

When Shi Xiaoya was with Han Zhuoling, Yan Zhiqing's time was taken up by Wei Wucai.

Yan Zhiqing suddenly realized that she hadn't been meeting anyone else recently.

"Don't talk nonsense! I barely talked to Yu Guangxin!" Yan Zhiqing hastily replied out of anger.

Wei Wucai said coldly, "Who is Yu Guangxin? Him dating Zhiqing? Is he even good enough for her?"

"Why? Are you her new lover? Your production crew is very messy! Yan Zhiqing, did you sleep with every man in the production crew? A different one every single day!" the woman said.

She pointed at Yan Zhiqing and said to Wei Wucai, "And you don't think she is dirty at all?"

"Your mouth is the dirtiest," Wei Wucai said in a cold tone.

He noticed that Yan Zhiqing, who was behind him, was still trying to rush to the front.

Feeling helpless, Wei Wucai could only wrap his arms around Yan Zhiqing.

When he saw that Yan Zhiqing was still trying to barge to the front, Wei Wucai could only grab her arm tightly using one hand.

Her entire being was wrapped around his arm.

When he saw that Yan Zhiqing still wouldn't stop moving, he said in a helpless tone, "Behave yourself. Stop moving."

The volume of the voice was just right, not too high and not too low. It sounded gentle and slightly hoarse. She could feel the gentleness of his voice from the top of her head.

Yan Zhiqing's ears trembled and became red.

His voice, as well as the words that he had uttered, sent literal chills down her spine.

Subconsciously, Yan Zhiqing stopped moving and remained in his arms like a well-behaved kid.

She should have moved away and promised that she wouldn't rush forward anymore.

However, at this moment, she found herself loving the warmth of his arm around her and the sweet feeling of security that this hug had offered.

In addition, she could smell the fragrance of his cologne coming from his chest. Her face actually turned red and her heart started beating faster.

Her heart was beating very fast.

The screams of that lady faded away as she could only hear her own heartbeat.

"I have been with her since we arrived on the set," Wei Wucai said coldly. "None of the things you said were true. In addition, I have recorded those things you said. You have severely ruined Zhiqing's reputation.

"You will take responsibility for what you said."

"Alright! I will take responsibility! She seduced my man! You both acted in collusion!" the woman said.

At this moment, Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuofeng had received the news and had rushed over.

Wu Mosen and many people from the film crew rushed over as well.

"This must be a misunderstanding," Wu Mosen said.

"What misunderstanding!" the woman screamed. "Everyone, look! Look! Not only did Yan Zhiqing seduce my man, but she also engages in messy relationships with other guys! Despite it being so late at night, I saw this guy walk out of her room! Even now, they are hugging each other!

"Yan Zhiqing, you are a vixen!"

"Enough!" Yu Guangxin rushed over with his face covered in sweat.

However, in Shi Xiaoya's opinion, the sweat on his face was probably cold sweat.

Yu Guangxin was not loyal in his relationship.

Shi Xiaoya had seen it with her own eyes when she was working for other film crews as a makeup artist.

In one of the films that she had worked for, Yu Guangxin played the main character.

Because the film production went on for a long period of time, Yu Guangxin and an actress who wasn't very famous started liking each other.

The two even started acting like they were a couple on set.

Shi Xiaoya saw it with her own eyes.

Such things must have happened often in other places as well.

His wife must have known about his typical behaviors, which was why she became suspicious of him.

But why was she bothering Yan Zhiqing? This was something to think about.

After all, Yan Zhiqing was famous for not getting into scandals and for living an honest and good life.

As this woman was Yu Guangxin's wife, she was considered a part of this industry. It's impossible for her to not know about it.

Shi Xiaoya narrowed her eyes. She then saw Yu Guangxin coming over and pulling his wife away while shouting, "Why are you here making a mess!"

He continued angrily and impatiently, "Don't spout nonsense! You're so embarrassing!"

"I am embarrassing? If it wasn't because you aren't faithful to me while on the set, would I be here?" Yu Guangxin's wife responded angrily. "Yu Guangxin, you are like the fox that may grow gray but never good! Even after you landed a part in such a good movie, you don't cherish the opportunity! You still decided to hook up with Yan Zhiqing!"

Her loud voice scared Yu Guangxin.

Because he was angry and impatient, he hurled his wife backwards.

But he forgot that the wall was behind her.

He thus flung his wife onto the wall. His wife was in so much pain that she managed to make some painful expression with that stiff face of hers.

"What nonsense!" Yu Guangxin couldn't be bothered with his wife's pain at the moment. "There is nothing going on between me and Yan Zhiqing! I am a married man. I have a family. She does not even think I am good enough for her.

"Don't you see who she is! She is part of the Yan Family. So many single men had failed to court her. Does it make sense for her to fancy me, a married man?"

"How good am I to be fancied by her? I don't do as well as her in my career. My appearance is considered average in the entertainment industry! What good would she see in me? She can have any man she wants! But she wants me?" Yu Guangxin raged out of frustration, "Are you crazy!"

"She's a slut. It has nothing to do with how good you are!" his wife adamantly said.

Yu Guangxin lifted his hand and said furiously, "Enough! Do you want me to lose my job?!"

"If you're this scared, you shouldn't have done it. You shouldn't have hooked up with her!" his wife shouted.

Yu Guangxin really wanted to cry in front of his wife.

"I already told you that she has nothing to do with me!" Yu Guangxin was so angry that he started stomping on the floor. "Can you stop saying nonsense!"

Chapter 3160: What Right Do You Have to Intervene

"Let's go. You are leaving with me!" Yu Guangxin dragged his wife and tried to take her away.

He had decided to come back later to apologize to Yan Zhiqing.

He couldn't even begin to imagine the damage that had been done to his career.

Considering that it was his wife who had defamed Yan Zhiqing, he would suffer the consequences as well.

He had personally witnessed how Yan Beicheng had rushed to the set to see Yan Zhiqing because of unverified news.

Clearly, Yan Zhiqing was very important to him.

It was his wife that had mistreated Yan Zhiqing. Would Yan Beicheng forgive him?

"I am not leaving!" his wife shouted. "Why should I leave? Yu Guangxin, you are heartless!"

"I've suffered for so many years ever since our marriage. It was years of hard work, but you are now famous. We could finally live a good life. But you started being unfaithful!"

"What did you promise me when we got married? You said that you would treat me well for the rest of my life. When things were most difficult for you, I stayed with you and I never once left. You said that you would never do anything that would let me down.

"How many years has it been since then? How many times has this happened behind my back? In almost every television series and film you were cast in, you would sleep with a member of the cast or crew. And now, you managed to sleep with Yan Zhiqing. You are so capable!"

"Stop with your nonsense!" Yu Guangxin's eyes turned red out of anger.

He hurriedly turned towards Yan Zhiqing and apologized, "Zhiqing, I am so sorry. My wife is saying nonsense. I am sorry she disturbed you tonight and gave you so much trouble."

"You are aware of how much trouble this is," Shi Xiaoya said flatly. "Your wife has been shouting. Not only are the entire cast and crew present, but there are hotel customers here as well, and they have nothing to do with the film production. Now, all of them have heard your wife defaming Zhiqing.

"They won't care if Zhiqing is innocent. In their eyes, this would just be another news worth gossiping about, and they could spread this news around. If the reporters reported about this, Zhiqing would be the most innocent person in this scandal!"

"She did nothing wrong. Why should she be scolded like this?" Shi Xiaoya spoke angrily. "This is an issue between you and your wife, so you should have solved it between yourselves. Why would you come bother Yan Zhiqing?"

"Mrs. Yu, Zhiqing is my good friend. We arrived on the set together. I have always been around her. She barely talked to Yu Guangxin. Who told you such disgusting lies?"

But even after Shi Xiaoya and Yu Guangxin had said all these things...

Mrs. Yu remained stubborn as she immediately replied, "Are you with her at night as well? If you are not with her every night, how are you going to prove her innocence?"

While pointing at Wei Wucai, Mrs. Yu said, "This man just walked out of her room earlier!"

Wei Wucai lifted his brows and sneered before he replied, "Am I Yu Guangxin? You must be blind!"

That was what Wei Wucui had said. However, for some reason, Shi Xiaoya felt that the tone of his voice was somewhat prideful.

He seemed happy to be seen coming out of Yan Zhiqing's room.

As for Yan Zhiqing, she was still angry because of Mrs. Yu. The clueless expression on her face clearly indicated that she didn't notice the tone at all.

At this moment, Shi Xiaoya felt bad for Yan Zhiqing.

She's so clueless! What was she going to do!

"Stop it!" Yu Guangxin was so worried. "Come! Come with me!"

"I am not leaving! Until everything is cleared up, I am not leaving!" Mrs. Yu kept on pulling back with all her might, refusing to leave.

"Mrs. Yu is not wrong." Yan Zhiqing finally spoke. "While things are not yet cleared up, don't leave."

Mrs. Yu stared at Yan Zhiqing. Yan Zhiqing said to her, "I am sure you came here to catch a cheater, but why did you come looking for me? Shouldn't you be looking for Yu Guangxin?"

Yan Zhiqing asked coldly, "Why would you think it was me? For no reason at all?"

"Obviously, someone told me. She told me that she has a friend on the set and her friend saw everything!" Mrs. Yu said loudly.

"Who told you that? Who is her friend on the set? Who is she? I don't even know. I have done nothing wrong on the set, but someone here still spread rumors about me!" Yan Zhiqing said angrily.

Many of the crew members were present. They were all looking at each other.

They wanted to figure out who it was that had spread this rumor.

But everyone else looked clueless as well.

"You don't have to know," Mrs. Yu said. "I promised them I would keep it a secret. I can't be the reason why they lose their job."

"Alright. By refusing to tell us that, you are refusing to give us evidence," Yan Zhiqing said calmly. "This means that you have defamed me without any evidence. Did you see anything going on between me and Yu Guangxin when you arrived at my door? No.

"Therefore, this is libel. Defamation." Yan Zhiqing continued coldly, "And so, you will be getting a letter from my lawyer."

"I think—"

At this moment, Han Zhuoling, who had been standing beside Shi Xiaoya in silence, opened his mouth slowly.

Everyone's attention immediately turned to Han Zhuoling.

“Zhiqing will be suing you for defamation and you cannot provide any evidence. I am sure the crew would not want such a scandal to emerge, causing the movie’s reputation to take a hit,” Han Zhuoling said. “Director Wu, in this case, does Yu Guangxin have a lot of screen time?”

“Of course, I am not enforcing this. I’ll still respect Director Wu’s decision. If Yu Guangxin has already filmed a lot of his scenes and finding someone else to replace him would affect the film production progress, then we will let it go. However, if it wouldn’t affect anything much...” Han Zhuoling dared to say this because it had only been a few days since they started making this film.

How much of Yu Guangxin’s scenes could they have possibly filmed?

When Mrs. Yu heard this, she immediately became worried. She glared at Han Zhuoling and said, “This is between the crew and the cast. Who are you to butt in!”

Of course, she knew who Han Zhuoling was.

Yu Guangxin was part of this industry. Even if Mrs. Yu didn’t know a lot, she knew about the Han Corporation.

However, she did not know that the Han Corporation had invested in this film.

And now, Han Zhuoling was going to drop Yu Guangxin from this movie, causing Mrs. Yu to feel this sense of urgency.

She naturally couldn’t be bothered with anything else. She just wanted Yu Guangxin to keep his job.

On this day, Yu Guangxin finally experienced the feeling of having a wife that would ruin the family. She had basically ruined his life.

“Enough!” Yu Guangxin was flustered as he raged, “The Han Corporation has invested in this film. Tell me if that doesn’t give him a right to intervene!”

Yu Guangxin felt as though everything had turned dark before his eyes. He felt that his future career was doomed.

It had taken him so many years of hard work to achieve the success he had today.

And his wife had ruined all of it in one day!

Yu Guangxin hadn’t forgotten how his wife had supported him. Both of them had supported each other through it all.

When he became famous, he started getting more temptations and started wanting new things.

However, he thought that no matter how much fun he had, he wouldn’t divorce his wife.
