

Mr Han 3191

Chapter 3191: I Am Not That Desperate

She thought Yan Zhiqing would make things difficult for her.

“Then... Mr. Wei won't be reporting news about me and Qingxian anymore, right?” Luo Yonggang asked.

Wei Wucai raised his brow and said, “We won't publish all of them at once. We will keep them and report them once you mess with us again.”

Luo Yonggang had now realized that Wei Wucai still had so much evidence of what they had done. This was not the only one.

After all, they had done many things that could not be publicly known.

And he believed that Wei Wucai was not scaring him.

If Wei Wucai could find evidence about these things, he would have been able to find out about other things.

Luo Yonggang hastily said, “No. Never. I will watch Qingxian and make sure that she never messes with Miss Yan again.”

Luo Yonggang continued, “Miss Yan, don't worry. If I see any negative news about you, I will check if Qingxian was the one who had caused it!”

Wei Wucai was speechless.

“What negative news do you think there'd be about Zhiqing? It only happened this time because your daughter slandered her,” Wei Wucai said coldly.

Did he even know what the right thing to say was!

“Yes. Yes. Yes.” Luo Yonggang nodded hastily.

Luo Yonggang was just about to say something when he got a phone call. When he heard what the person on the other end said, his facial expression changed drastically.

“I got it.”

Luo Yonggang hung up the call and said, “Miss Yan, since we have resolved our conflict, can you at least tell Young Master Yan to let the Luo family off the hook?”

“Eh?” Yan Zhiqing raised her brow in confusion.

She then heard Luo Yonggang say, “Our company works with a lot of clients, but they are now refusing to work with us because of Young Master Yan. This has caused a huge financial loss for us.

“Miss Yan, since we have already worked out our conflicts, can you please tell Young Master Yan to be a generous person and stop making things difficult for us? We are just a small company. We won't be able to withstand such struggles. We are no match for Young Master Yan.”

But when Yan Zhiqing heard this, she laughed and said, “I can't do anything about that.”

“No...” Luo Yonggang immediately became very worried. “Miss Yan, you said that you’re forgiving us and won’t be holding us accountable anymore. Then... Shouldn’t you talk to Young Master Yan and ask him not to make things difficult for us? You... you have to keep your word. You can’t go back on it.”

“I think you misunderstood,” Yan Zhiqing said. “I have to clarify first that there is nothing that I should or should not do. Just because I forgave you does not mean that I should help you. This does not make sense at all.

“In addition, those people deciding not to work with you has nothing to do with my brother.” Yan Zhiqing continued in an innocent tone, “My brother did not do anything, nor has he told them not to work with you.

“They made that decision themselves. As for why they did so, I do not know. My brother does not know either. You have to figure it out yourselves, don’t you think?” Yan Zhiqing smiled.

“How does it have nothing to do with you?” Mrs. Luo was worried. “If it wasn’t because... they wanted to please you, why would they distance themselves from us?”

“Therefore, you just have to tell them that there’s no conflict between your family and my family.”

“Was there any conflict between our families?” Yan Zhiqing looked very confused as she said, “My brother had mentioned nothing and had done nothing. This is your family’s business. It would not be good for my brother to get involved in this.

“Perhaps you want him to even tell them that they shouldn’t do that and that they should work with the Luo family? What if they never actually wanted to work with you after analyzing the business and realizing it wasn’t profitable? Then my brother would be forcing them to work with you. That would not be appropriate.”

The Luo family did not deserve such honor.

Wouldn’t doing that mean that Yan Beicheng had stood up for them?

Even if those people wanted to please Yan Beicheng and did this without being told to do so, it still had nothing to do with Yan Beicheng.

When Luo Yonggang and Mrs. Luo heard what Yan Zhiqing said, they realized that there was no way that they could win this argument.

However, this did have something to do with Yan Beicheng!

“No, don’t go!” Mrs. Luo said quickly. “You can’t go! How can you... go back on your word? How can you break your promise?”

Luo Yonggang pulled Mrs. Luo’s arms and asked her not to make Yan Zhiqing mad.

“Miss Yan, we have come to an agreement earlier,” Luo Yonggang said urgently. “Yes, what you said was reasonable.”

Actually, in Luo Yonggang’s opinion, Yan Beicheng might have asked those people to stop working with the Luo family.

This was definitely possible.

“If you don’t think it is suitable for Young Master Yan to say anything, you can post a public notice. If you think a public notice is too serious, you just have to send an announcement that says that we have come to an agreement and we are still friends,” Luo Yonggang said.

If those people were to find out that there was no longer a conflict between them and Yan Zhiqing, they would stop worrying about whether they should work with the Luo family.

Luo Yonggang had thought it through a little too well.

However, in Yan Zhiqing’s opinion, Luo Yonggang thought too highly of himself.

“Announcement? You can announce it yourself,” Yan Zhiqing said. “Wei Wucai was the one who leaked out your and Luo Qingxian’s secrets. He did it because he was angry on my behalf. I can promise that we will not expose any more of your secrets.

“However, I can’t do anything else. After all, I have nothing to do with the other matters. In addition, you guys slandered me first, and now you’re asking me to announce that I have reconciled with you guys? I am not that desperate.” Yan Zhiqing was speaking frankly.

“As I am a generous and forgiving person, I will not beat you down any further,” Yan Zhiqing said without any emotion. “But don’t ask for anything more than that.”

“You... you...” After hearing what Yan Zhiqing had said, Mrs. Luo felt speechless for a while.

Luo Yonggang pushed Luo Qingxian and said, “You caused this mess. Your mother and I have apologized. Why are you hiding behind us? Talk to her nicely.”

However, Luo Qingxian just couldn’t bear to do it while Wei Wucai was present.

She didn’t want Wei Wucai to witness this embarrassing moment.

She would be lowering her head in front of Yan Zhiqing and begging her.

If other people weren’t present, she would have been able to apologize to Yan Zhiqing without any hesitation.

Even if she had to beg like her life depended on it, she would have been able to do it.

But when she thought of how she had behaved arrogantly in front of Wei Wucai and acted as though she was more superior than him...

Luo Qingxian felt her face burning.

She had so many complaints. Wei Wucai was the one who had been acting and who had put on a pretense, refusing to tell her the truth.

That was why she was so embarrassed today.

Luo Qingxian didn’t understand why Wei Wucai had refused to tell the truth.

Did he really look down on her?

Or did he think that she looked very funny when she was behaving arrogantly?

Or was he secretly mocking her?

Or was he scared that she'd want something from him?

Honestly, if Wei Wucai had told her the truth, Luo Qingxian would only have thought that his key qualities were on par with hers. She wouldn't have thought he was better than her.

Why would he shun her?

Chapter 3192: If Not, You Will Regret It

Regardless of how unfair she felt it was, she just didn't want to give Wei Wucai the chance to laugh at her and look down on her at this very moment.

"If that is all you intend to say, then we are done here," Yan Zhiqing said. "I have to go back quickly. I have not eaten lunch and I have to start filming again in ten minutes. I am sure you won't be so inconsiderate that you would ask me to skip lunch for your personal matters, right?"

After saying this, Yan Zhiqing started walking inside.

However, this concerned the survival of the Luo family, which was obviously more important than Yan Zhiqing's lunch.

At least, that was what the members of the Luo family thought.

Therefore, Luo Yonggang hurriedly called out to Yan Zhiqing, "Miss Yan! You can't leave like this!"

Mrs. Luo quickly pinched Luo Qingxian.

After all, she was the one who had caused these issues, so she had to be the one to say something.

Luo Qingxian had no choice. She hastily said, "Miss Yan, let's talk! Since... you are not available during noon and have to rush back, are you available tonight?"

She continued, "We won't be leaving today. We will stay here for the entire afternoon. You will have time after you are done filming, right? We can have dinner or even late-night snacks. Then we can take our time and talk more about the details."

She added, "We won't be disturbing your lunch or work."

"But you might disturb her rest." Wei Wucai was not happy about this.

He wanted to spend time with Yan Zhiqing.

The three members of the Luo family had already taken up this time during noon.

And?

Did they intend to take up her time at night as well?

What kind of absurd thinking was that!

“She wakes up at five every morning to film. Filming usually ends at around ten at night, and she would then have to go back to the hotel to get ready for sleep. She barely gets enough sleep, yet you still want to take up more of her time for that shitshow of yours?” Wei Wucui humphed ruthlessly.

“I don’t think you are here to ask for peace. You are here to intentionally cause trouble. You don’t want her to sleep enough or rest enough so that she won’t do a good job when filming. Because your lives have been ruined, you don’t want her to live a good life either!” he said scoldingly.

The members of the Luo family were speechless.

Those words were totally unreasonable!

Luo Yonggang glanced at Luo Qingxian with an expression of dissatisfaction.

Didn’t she know what the right thing to say was!

Now Wei Wucui was holding something against them, describing them as people with evil intentions.

If Luo Qingxian had known what to say, Wei Wucui would have never been able to criticize anything against them! Things would not have been this difficult!

Indeed, if intelligence was something she had, she wouldn’t have stupidly offended Yan Zhiqing.

“That’s not what I meant.” Luo Qingxian had gritted her teeth grudgingly as she listened to every word Wei Wucui had uttered for the sake of protecting Yan Zhiqing.

“How could I have known that Miss Yan would be working until late at night? I just thought that she would be available tonight, which was why I chose that time,” Luo Qingxian explained.

“You even mentioned late-night snacks. How can you not know that she works until late at night?” Wei Wucui humphed.

With Wei Wucui here, Yan Zhiqing had no chance of showing her potential combat strength.

He saw Luo Qingxian opening her mouth. It seemed like she was going to provide further explanation.

But Wei Wucui ruthlessly took back her chance of explaining as he said, “Stop bothering her. Zhiqing was very clear. Her matters with you have been resolved. I will also not expose any more of your secrets to the public.

“As for your company’s business, that is your problem. Yan Beicheng never asked those people to stop working with you. Are you going to blame Zhiqing for your business going downhill?”

“Your daughter wrongly accused Zhiqing. Now that your business is going downhill, you are blaming her for that too.” Wei Wucui sneered coldly and said, “I guess Zhiqing should take responsibility for everything that happens to the Luo family. If the Luo family earns less income, should Zhiqing pay you for the amount of money lost?”

“Why don’t you change your surname to Yan while you’re at it? Just ask the Yan Family to spoonfeed you!” Wei Wucui mocked, “You probably want that to happen, but dream on!”

Luo Yonggang felt speechless.

Wei Wucui had spoken on and on. He even answered his own questions!

Did he give them the chance to answer?

“That is not our intention,” Mrs. Luo said. “We just want Miss Yan to make an announcement that her family and my family are on good terms. It’s not something difficult to do!”

Yan Zhiqing thought, yes, it wouldn’t be difficult, but she was unwilling to do so.

She was just about to say something when Wei Wucui spoke before she could. “I have proven to you all that I know many of your secrets. I am sure you don’t doubt that.”

The three members of the Luo family remained silent, basically allowing their silence to serve as agreement with what Wei Wucui had said.

They just didn’t understand why Wei Wucui would say this.

“If you bother Zhiqing again...” Wei Wucui didn’t give them any chance to interrupt as he immediately said, “No matter where you are... It doesn’t have to be here...”

“Regardless of the location, if you bother Zhiqing again, I will expose your secrets to the public. If you bother her once, I will expose one secret. If you bother her twice, I will expose two of your secrets. If you do it three times, I will expose four of your secrets.

“You don’t have to worry about me using up all the evidence I have against you. After all, you all have done too many things in the past.” Wei Wucui smiled sarcastically and said, “Everything you have done in the past provides me with more than enough.

“And considering how you all like digging your graves, I am sure there will be more in the future. Don’t doubt it. If you do anything that cannot be publicly known in the future, I will find out about it.

“In addition, the secrets I mentioned will not be as simple as the secrets concerning your personal lives.

“I have leaked out those secrets only because I wanted to warn you guys. Regarding the business dealings of the Luo family’s corporation, there are many more things that are much more serious and cannot be known publicly. If you do not want the public to know about them, then stop bothering her.”

Luo Yonggang’s face suddenly looked very horrible.

He didn’t know if Wei Wucui was merely bluffing, but he didn’t dare to risk it. And so, he could only choose to believe him.

“I suggest that you don’t hire someone to target him. If not, you will regret it,” Yan Zhiqing said at the side.

She was really worried that Luo Yonggang would be pushed to his limits and choose to use some disgusting methods, such as hiring someone to hurt Wei Wucui.

Although Wei Wucui had a high-level combat strength, accidents might still happen.

What if there were too many people?

What if they managed to trick and trap Wei Wucui in their schemes?

When Yan Zhiqing thought about this, she couldn't help but worry about Wei Wucai.

No matter how powerful he was, he was still made of blood and flesh and would never be able to prevent an accident from happening.

The thought of this possibility left Yan Zhiqing shuddering in a cold fright and feeling very scared and anxious.

She didn't even dare to think about it.

She could not accept the possibility of something bad happening to Wei Wucai.

She couldn't even bear the thought of that.

Therefore, she gave this warning first.

"If he is capable enough to know so many of your secrets, do you think he is an ordinary man?" Yan Zhiqing narrowed her eyes as she spoke.

"In addition, if something were to happen to him or if someone were to attack him, you will be the people I think about first."

Chapter 3193: Was My Behavior Very Obvious?

"And as it would have been because of me, the Yan Family will not just sit and do nothing about it," Yan Zhiqing said. "You should also bear in mind that Wei Wucai is being supported by the Wei Family.

"It was only me you clashed against, but that has already left you struggling, resulting in you begging me. So think about it, what might happen if the Yan Family and the Wei Family were to work together against you?" Yan Zhiqing pursed her lips.

As expected, Luo Yonggang's facial expression changed. The color on his face changed.

He must have thought about secretly hiring someone to take down Wei Wucai.

But he had merely thought about it.

After Yan Zhiqing warned him, he recalled that this Wei Wucai had the backing of the Wei Family.

No matter what, the Wei Family wouldn't simply allow someone to plot against Wei Wucai.

In addition, Yan Zhiqing had already mentioned this.

The worst thing would be if something happened to Wei Wucai in the future and Yan Zhiqing would just assume that Luo Yonggang had been the culprit without even investigating the actual identity of the culprit.

That would be very unfair.

Luo Yonggang immediately said, "What? Why would I do such things? Miss Yan, you are looking down on me. I am a person who respects the law. I would never do such illegal things.

“In addition, I promise that I would never do such things. If anything happened in the future, it would have nothing to do with me!”

Luo Yonggang had no idea that Wei Wucai was a member of the Mount Lan Compound and had always been in a dangerous position.

If things were to go the way Yan Zhiqing said, then Luo Yonggang would be taking the blame for too many people.

However, Yan Zhiqing was really just trying to scare Luo Yonggang.

It would be fine as long as Luo Yonggang was scared.

“I don’t care,” Yan Zhiqing said.

Luo Yonggang felt speechless.

Weren’t they bullying people like this?

One told them not to bother Yan Zhiqing.

If they visited again, he would expose their secrets to the public.

The other then said that Luo Yonggang would take the blame if something bad happened to Wei Wucai, regardless of the actual identity of the culprit.

Truly... he had no choice but to suck it up, and there was really nothing he could do.

How could they bully people like this?

Wei Wucai remained silent at the side. The corner of his mouth curved up. He was so happy that he kept smiling.

As he watched how Yan Zhiqing tried to protect him and how she frightened Luo Yonggang for his sake, he wanted to laugh.

It felt so sweet to be protected by Yan Zhiqing. He felt extremely happy.

“We have both talked this through,” Yan Zhiqing said. “We will be going back, then. You should go back as well.”

With this, Yan Zhiqing and Wei Wucai didn’t even wait for the members of the Luo family’s reaction as they stepped through the entrance.

Fang Qiaohan was waiting by the gates.

Once they came in, the security officer locked the entrance. The three then went back inside together.

Yan Zhiqing had been hiding from Wei Wucai the entire morning, but she failed to do so during noon because of the members of the Luo family.

“Thank you for coming with me and protecting me just now,” Yan Zhiqing said in a courteous manner.

Wei Wucai nodded and said, “Thank you for protecting me as well.”

With this, Wei Wucai raised his wrist and checked the time. "The others must have already finished their lunch by now. Your lunch must be cold, right? I will order two more. Mine has turned cold as well."

"I am on a diet today. I am only eating some salad with some beef. It's cold anyway, so it doesn't matter. I was just saying that to them." Yan Zhiqing smiled and continued, "But you should order something else hot."

While they were still speaking, the two had arrived at Yan Zhiqing's van.

Yan Zhiqing then said, "You have to wait for your food delivery, right? I will go take some quick bites and take a nap. I am too tired."

With this, she even faked a yawn.

"Thank you very much for just now. I will treat you to a meal another day," Yan Zhiqing hastily said before she turned and stepped into the van.

Fang Qiaohan followed behind her. She didn't dare to look at Wei Wucai's expression.

She felt like an ostrich that had the mentality of not being afraid of what it can't see.

She forced herself to close the door very quickly, ruthlessly leaving Wei Wucai locked outside.

Yan Zhiqing crouched down. She didn't even dare to let Wei Wucai see her.

She immediately hid on the bed at the back of the van. "Pull the curtains! Close it quickly!"

The thought of Wei Wucai being outside and being able to see what was happening inside left her feeling nervous.

"..." Fang Qiaohan struggled as she asked, "Aren't you acting a little too obvious? Wei Wucai had just helped you, but you abandoned him immediately..."

She felt bad for Wei Wucai.

"How horrible is he feeling..." Fang Qiaohan said.

Yan Zhiqing felt tangled up in this situation. "Is.. Is my behavior really very obvious?"

Fang Qiaohan nodded.

"Oh no!" Yan Zhiqing regretted it. And now, she felt even more afraid to be around Wei Wucai.

Feeling torn by this, she rubbed her face and said, "It already happened. There... there is nothing I can do..."

Yan Zhiqing asked again, "Is he gone?"

Fang Qiaohan secretly lifted a tiny bit of the curtain and saw that there was no one outside.

She then answered, "He's gone. There's no one there."

Yan Zhiqing then got out of bed and moved to the table. She opened her salad bowl and started eating.

Wei Wucai was indeed not outside the van anymore.

With a serious expression, he had gone to see Shi Xiaoya.

Based on how Yan Zhiqing had acted earlier, he was very certain that she was avoiding him.

And it was a little too obvious.

Yan Zhiqing had been in such a rush to hide from him earlier that she had not been able to even come up with a proper excuse.

When Wei Wucai found Shi Xiaoya, she had already finished lunch and was designing a makeup style on paper.

The drawing paper was clipped onto the artboard and placed on her knees.

Shi Xiaoya was so focused on drawing that she did not even notice Wei Wucai approaching.

Wei Wucai had to first call out to her, "Xiaoya."

Shi Xiaoya quickly lifted her head and saw that it was Wei Wucai. She blinked and asked, "What a rare guest! Why have you come to see me at this time?"

Normally, Wei Wucai would have stayed with Yan Zhiqing during lunch break.

They would eat together, then they would do things on their own after lunch.

Shi Xiaoya, being a very observant person, would always find her own things to do after lunch. She was determined to never stay around Yan Zhiqing and Wei Wucai.

She would even drag Han Zhuofeng away.

Therefore, she thought it was unusual to see Wei Wucai at this time.

"Zhiqing is avoiding me," Wei Wucai said.

"Sit." When Shi Xiaoya heard that, she knew that it would be impossible to solve Wei Wucai's problem within a short time. And so, she pointed at the chair in front.

Wei Wucai then sat down and said, "Do you know why?"

Shi Xiaoya could guess it, but she was not sure.

She only guessed that it might have been because Yan Zhiqing mistakenly thought that Wei Wucai was gay.

She might have feelings for him but didn't dare to get closer to him.

She had to remove herself from the situation as early as possible to save herself from being entrapped even further. If she did, she might not have been able to escape. Even so, it would be impossible for Wei Wucai to have feelings for her.

However, this was just her conjecture. She never actually confirmed this with Yan Zhiqing.

Chapter 3194: Not an Ordinary Person

Therefore, it was hard for Shi Xiaoya to tell this to Wei Wucai without careful consideration.

Shi Xiaoya said, "When I was doing Zhiqing's makeup today, I asked her about it. Of course, I didn't think she was avoiding you when I asked her. I only asked her why she didn't tell you that she had left earlier.

"Zhiqing told me that she forgot about it because she was busy. She thought that since we would be together, I would tell you about it. When she was reminded of this, she didn't message you because she thought that we would arrive on the set soon.

"I thought her answer was very normal. There are times when I am forgetful. There were times when I forgot to tell Zhuoling certain things. Are you maybe overthinking this?"

"Did she tell you anything else?" Wei Wucai asked.

Shi Xiaoya shook her head and said, "No."

She thought about it and asked, "How can you be certain that Zhiqing was hiding from you? What if you misunderstood?"

Shi Xiaoya had only guessed that Zhiqing was avoiding Wei Wucai, but she was not sure.

Wei Wucai then told Shi Xiaoya what had happened earlier.

"When she was facing the members of the Luo family, she seemed smart. But when that dummy was avoiding me, she behaved so awkwardly." Wei Wucai's voice deepened as he said, "In addition, I was still around when she closed the curtain. She didn't even want me to look inside the van.

"It's not like I have never gone inside. I had lunch with her every day inside that van. But why did she suddenly refuse to let me look inside?" The thought of this made Wei Wucai feel really angry. "I think she just feels guilty."

"Why would she feel guilty?" Shi Xiaoya asked in a soft voice.

"Heh!" Wei Wucai sneered and said, "She feels guilty for avoiding me."

"Why is she avoiding you?" Shi Xiaoya asked.

Wei Wucai appeared to be struggling when he glanced over at Shi Xiaoya. "That's why I came to ask you."

Shi Xiaoya was speechless.

Wei Wucai was very straightforward as he said, "I am a guy, and I might not be as thoughtful and might not be on the same page as her. Maybe what I think is different from what is actually going on in her mind.

"That's why I came to ask you if she had told you anything. You are both girls and see things from a similar perspective. Can you help me figure out why she is avoiding me?"

Seeing the serious expression on Wei Wucai's face, Shi Xiaoya couldn't help but ask, "You do like Zhiqing, right?"

Wei Wucai glanced at Shi Xiaoya with an expression that was basically saying that the response could not be said in a few words.

The meaning of that expression was obvious. He was saying that she had asked an unnecessary question.

If he didn't like her, why would he put in so much effort for Yan Zhiqing?

Shi Xiaoya then struggled slightly before she asked, "Then... you are not gay, right?"

Wei Wucai was speechless.

"Cough. Although I didn't think you were gay, I had to confirm it." Shi Xiaoya thought she had just dug her own grave. "What if you were?"

She must have been around Yan Zhiqing too much. She had been affected by Yan Zhiqing and had started developing the habit of digging her own grave.

"..." Wei Wucai gnashed his teeth and said with a stern expression, "I am not."

"Then... Do you know that Zhiqing thinks you are..." Shi Xiaoya hesitated.

She didn't want to tell Wei Wucai Yan Zhiqing's secret.

She just thought that Wei Wucai would be smart enough to know what Yan Zhiqing was thinking.

Yan Zhiqing must have not been able to hide this from him.

This was why Shi Xiaoya dared to ask this.

As expected, Wei Wucai didn't look surprised.

When he heard what Shi Xiaoya said, he looked very serious as he proceeded to take a deep breath.

"I am aware of that." Wei Wucai gnashed his teeth as he uttered those words.

"We are talking about the same thing, right? She thinks that you are..." Before Shi Xiaoya finished her sentence...

"Gay," Wei Wucai interrupted, finishing it for her while looking very annoyed.

"Cough!" Thankfully, Shi Xiaoya had not been drinking water. If not, she would have spat it all out.

"But why didn't you explain and clear things up with her?" Shi Xiaoya asked.

"Previously, she would always glare at me and behave angrily when she saw me. Our relationship only became better after she thought I was gay. She was no longer careful around me and was no longer biased when she was interacting with me."

Wei Wucai felt helpless. "Therefore, I didn't explain it. If I had, what if she distanced herself from me again? I thought I would explain it to her after we'd gotten on well together."

"But your relationship with her has gotten better." But there was still no explanation?

Shi Xiaoya never finished her sentence, but Wei Wucai understood.

Wei Wucai was speechless.

It was because he didn't dare to explain.

Their relationship had just gotten better, but it was not solid. If Yan Zhiqing found out that he was lying to her, the relationship that had taken him so much effort to build would then break.

Therefore, Wei Wucai wanted to wait until his relationship with Yan Zhiqing became deeper. He wanted to tell Yan Zhiqing after he had successfully built a solid foundation for their relationship.

Unexpectedly, Yan Zhiqing had started ignoring him even before what he was waiting for became a reality.

Shi Xiaoya thought that Wei Wucai's trick was very unique.

If you like someone, then make them think that you are gay.

"But this would make her think that you wouldn't like someone of the opposite gender. You would never be able to start a romantic relationship. Even if you two became close to each other, you would only be as close as friends could be."

Shi Xiaoya thought about it and said, "Have you ever thought about whether Zhiqing might like you but think that it would be impossible for you to like her, so she's trying to stop herself from liking you? You pretty much..."

Shot himself in the foot!

Wei Wucai was speechless.

Wei Wucai raised his brow and said, "So are you saying that Zhiqing likes me?"

"I didn't say that." Shi Xiaoya hurriedly shook her head and said, "I am merely guessing."

"Even if she doesn't have feelings for me, she definitely has a good impression of me." Wei Wucai recalled the details of his interaction with Yan Zhiqing and felt very confident.

Shi Xiaoya was speechless.

She was just guessing, but Wei Wucai had already filled in all the gaps in the story.

He was indeed very thick-skinned.

He didn't need Shi Xiaoya to further analyze the situation.

Wei Wucai started analyzing it himself. "Zhiqing must have noticed that there is a possibility of her liking me and mistakenly thought that I wouldn't like people of the opposite sex. She thinks that there is no chance of us dating no matter what happens.

"She is afraid that she might fall too deep into this. If that happens, she might not be able to control her feelings. While her feelings for me are not yet strong, she might as well retreat as early as possible and keep her heart safe."

While Wei Wucai was analyzing this, he realized that Yan Zhiqing was truly not an ordinary person.

She was so decisive.

They were fine last night, but everything changed today.

This meant that it had taken only one night for Yan Zhiqing to make this decision.

Moreover, Yan Zhiqing had still needed to sleep.

He definitely had not caused her to spend a whole night thinking about this.

Even if Wei Wucai was confident, he was not thick-skinned enough to think that Yan Zhiqing would have stayed up all night for him.

Chapter 3195: As Many Tricks as Those Players

In addition, Yan Zhiqing left really early the next morning. She did not even have enough time to think about this.

Therefore, Wei Wucai thought it most likely happened after he had left Yan Zhiqing's room that night—
Between then and the time before Yan Zhiqing went to bed. That was all the time it had taken Yan Zhiqing to ponder and make a decision.

And she immediately set into action the things she had decided last night.

She didn't hesitate at all.

Her decisiveness clearly showed that she was someone who could accomplish great things.

Even if she had never started a career in the entertainment industry, she would still have been very impressive in whatever line of work she chose.

She would never ruin the Yan Family's reputation.

Wei Wucai didn't know if these thoughts were brought on by pride or if they were sarcasm.

Shi Xiaoya was speechless.

Shi Xiaoya looked up at the sky as she couldn't be bothered to look at Wei Wucai.

Although what he had guessed was most likely right, the way he answered it still made him seem really thick-skinned.

"These... are just your guesses," Shi Xiaoya hurriedly said. "I have said nothing!"

Wei Wucai nodded. He then heard Shi Xiaoya ask as she looked at him, "So what do you plan to do?"

Now that they were done analyzing the situation, Shi Xiaoya started paying close attention to get the newest gossip.

Wei Wucai looked away and stared at Shi Xiaoya from the corner of his eye.

Shi Xiaoya was speechless.

The expressions he made caused him to look as though he needed a beating. She even felt regretful for helping him analyze things earlier.

"I can't tell you. What if you tell Zhiqing?" Wei Wucai said.

Shi Xiaoya was speechless.

Wasn't he kicking her to the curb after she had outlived her usefulness?

"Hehe!" Shi Xiaoya was determined to let Wei Wucai know that she wasn't someone who could be easily sent away. "Aren't you scared that I would tell Zhiqing that you are pretending to be gay and won't explain the truth even though you know that she had misunderstood?"

Wei Wucai was speechless.

If Shi Xiaoya was not Han Zhuoling's wife, he would have killed her right now.

Shi Xiaoya was not afraid at all. No matter what, Wei Wucai could not do anything to her, right?

In addition, she didn't cross the line.

And so, Shi Xiaoya stopped joking around.

With her elbows on her knees and her hands supporting her chin, she smiled and stared at Wei Wucai with a curious expression.

Wei Wucai gnashed his teeth as he thought to himself about how he would not be able to win against Shi Xiaoya.

And so, he could only tell the truth. "I will just allow her to avoid me for now."

"Eh?" Shi Xiaoya didn't understand.

"You were in such a rush to discuss this with me when she had only spent an entire morning avoiding you," Shi Xiaoya said. "But now that you have deduced what had happened, you are not in a rush anymore?"

"Since she wants to avoid me, I will let her have her way. She will know through personal experience if she can forget about me and stop caring about me by simply avoiding me."

Wei Wucai's smile looked very beautiful. His smile caused everything else around him to look colorless.

"In time, she will know her own heart even more clearly. Plus, she is trying to avoid me, so if I continue to be in hot pursuit of her, it might instead evoke a sense of rebellion in her, resulting in her not wanting to see me even more and feeling more disgusted by my presence. The more I pursue her, the more likely she will escape and move even farther away from me."

Wei Wucai rubbed his fingers and started analyzing Yan Zhiqing's thought process.

His analysis of the mind was very accurate.

Shi Xiaoya watched as Wei Wucai started openly talking about his plan. She couldn't help but feel bad for Yan Zhiqing.

She was no match for Wei Wucai.

“So you are going to let her continue to avoid you. And after a long time of avoiding you and not seeing you, she will gradually become used to you not being there. Little by little, she will stop thinking about you. And then, her feelings for you will gradually fade away, and she will eventually stop liking you. What are you going to do then?” Shi Xiaoya asked curiously.

Wei Wucai was speechless.

Why did he feel like Shi Xiaoya didn't want him to live a good life?

As for Shi Xiaoya's concern, Wei Wucai was not worried at all.

“Why would that happen? We are still going to be working on the set together. We will be working together for a long time and we'll be at this location daily. Where can she hide? She will still be seeing me.” Wei Wucai had already figured Yan Zhiqing out.

“I won't pursue her of my own accord and appear in front of her to cause her to think that I am annoying. However, I will appear in front of her accidentally or somewhere far away where she can see me. I will make my presence known every now and then.

“Even if she doesn't talk to me, she will see my face every day. She will not be able to forget me even if she wanted to.”

Shi Xiaoya was speechless.

“Are you sure you've never dated before?” Shi Xiaoya felt confused.

“What do you mean?” Wei Wucai asked, puzzled.

“You have as many tricks as those players. You seem very experienced,” Shi Xiaoya said.

Wei Wucai was speechless.

He silently controlled his breathing while repeating to himself that this was Han Zhuoling's wife, someone whose life he could never end.

“I am just smart. It has nothing to do with experience,” Wei Wucai explained on his own behalf.

He was no longer willing to stay in the same place as Shi Xiaoya.

The things Shi Xiaoya said were too infuriating.

He was worried that he might die of anger because of her!

Wei Wucai had gotten the answer he wanted and had managed to figure out that Yan Zhiqing wanted to be more than friends with him. She wanted him to be her boyfriend.

And so, he felt very pleased. He no longer felt the frustration he had in the morning.

He looked up at the hazy sky and took a deep breath. He didn't even feel suffocated.

And so, Wei Wucai did not go see Yan Zhiqing anymore.

Yan Zhiqing spent her entire afternoon worrying about this.

Her behavior during noon was too obvious, which meant that Wei Wucai must have figured out what was up.

She was really worried that Wei Wucai would come to her asking questions, or being really angry.

But then, she realized that she had been overthinking.

Wei Wucai never asked her to explain, nor did he keep a straight face.

While Yan Zhiqing was filming, she saw Wei Wucai in the distance.

Occasionally, he would be concentrating really hard on his work, using his laptop or some other tools. He would even joke around with his colleagues.

He'd have a smile on his face and look easygoing. He didn't look mad at all.

Wei Wucai didn't pursue her. Instead, Yan Zhiqing herself couldn't help looking at what Wei Wucai was doing.

She then realized that Wei Wucai never even looked at her.

That night, when they were done with work, Shi Xiaoya and Yan Zhiqing prepared themselves to go back to the hotel.

Shi Xiaoya saw Wei Wucai in the distance and called out to him. When she saw Wei Wucai looking back at them, she immediately waved at him.

Yan Zhiqing was beside Shi Xiaoya. She couldn't help but hold her breath as she watched this nervously.

She wanted to avoid Wei Wucai. If she wanted to do what she had intended to do, she would have walked away right now.

But she couldn't move her legs. She stood beside Shi Xiaoya and remained frozen in place.

She waited for Wei Wucai to walk over.

Wei Wucai didn't avoid making eye contact with Yan Zhiqing.

But it wasn't like how it was in the past when he would always look at her first.

Now, he wasn't prioritizing anyone. The expression in his eyes communicated that he viewed everyone as friends.

Chapter 3196: The Feelings of Emptiness

He smiled and greeted them.

"We are going back to the hotel. Let's go back together," Shi Xiaoya said.

During noon, Wei Wucai did say that he would allow Yan Zhiqing to avoid him for a while if she wanted to do so.

Shi Xiaoya was still trying to be a good friend and was still trying to make arrangements for Wei Wucai.

Although Yan Zhiqing was avoiding him, there should at least be chances for them to interact with each other.

Yan Zhiqing, who stood at the side, started getting nervous.

After she had decided to avoid Wei Wucai, having a face-to-face interaction with him made her feel even more nervous than when she would spend time with him before.

But she didn't expect to hear Wei Wucai's response. "No. I have a dinner party with my coworkers."

Seeing the surprised expression on their faces, Wei Wucai started explaining, "We didn't have dinner gatherings because the work had just started and the schedule was tight. I was worried that they might not have enough energy and would make mistakes on the job.

"But now, we have made good progress with our work. The most difficult part of the job has been done. These past few days, they have worked hard so I am going to buy them a meal. It's rare for us to end work early, so today is a good day to do this."

Wei Wucai smiled.

"I see. So should we just go back first?" Shi Xiaoya suddenly remembered something. "You arrived here in Zhuofeng's car this morning. You didn't drive here, so how are you going to go..."

"My coworkers drove here. You don't have to worry," Wei Wucai said with a smile.

And so, there was no need to continue behaving courteously toward Wei Wucai.

Shi Xiaoya thought to herself, she had tried to create an opportunity for Wei Wucai, but he declined it. He must be determined to be cooperative and allow Yan Zhiqing to avoid him.

If Wei Wucai wanted to leave with them, he wouldn't even care about a dinner gathering with the coworkers.

Without saying anything, Shi Xiaoya immediately followed Han Zhuofeng and got into the car.

Yan Zhiqing stepped into her van as well.

But for some reason, there was this feeling of emptiness.

She quickly forced herself to make an adjustment.

She was the one who wanted to avoid Wei Wucai. And now, she couldn't stop thinking about it when Wei Wucai had already stopped bothering her. Wasn't she acting like a player?

She had no intention of being a player who breaks things off with people while also keeping them hanging onto them.

But Wei Wucai wasn't really giving her the chance to become a player.

After all, his sexual orientation was different. Even if she wanted to mess with his feelings, he didn't want her.

She came by herself this morning. Han Zhuofeng drove his own car.

Therefore, when they were going back to the hotel, Shi Xiaoya still rode in Han Zhuofeng's car.

Yan Zhiqing had no choice but to stay with Fang Qiaohan.

The lively laughters and chatters, as well as the many people that normally gathered in the van after work, were no longer there.

And now, it immediately felt very cold. The inside of the van felt cold and empty. It felt lifeless.

There were no laughters. Yan Zhiqing felt so empty inside.

When Yan Zhiqing arrived at the hotel, she no longer had to eat dinner with Wei Wucai. She started eating her diet-plan meal, which was boring and tasteless.

Fang Qiaohan ate normally. So Yan Zhiqing wouldn't feel hungry, she even rinsed her mouth with mouthwash after she finished her food.

When Fang Qiaohan stepped inside the room, Yan Zhiqing was doing her nighttime skincare routine.

Fang Qiaohan immediately asked, "Zhiqing, did you see what happened online?"

"Eh?" Yan Zhiqing froze and asked, "Why? Is it something to do with me?"

Fang Qiaohan immediately said, "Yes. Luo Yonggang and Luo Qingxian have both posted on Weibo that they are now on good terms with you and that it was all a misunderstanding. They have sincerely apologized to you and asked you for your forgiveness. Your relationships are fine now. They even tagged you in the post."

Yan Zhiqing scoffed and said, "They asked me to make a post. I refused and told them that they can make posts by themselves. I didn't expect them to actually do it."

"So what are you going to do? Are you going to cooperate with them?" Fang Qiaohan said.

"I won't say anything," Yan Zhiqing said. "Even if I saw that, I won't respond. Someone will naturally interpret the meaning of this accurately."

And so, Yan Zhiqing didn't bother with this.

Fang Qiaohan then returned to her room.

Yan Zhiqing rested early. She was getting more sleep than usual, which rarely happened.

Maybe it was because she was too tired. Yan Zhiqing was not able to wake up half an hour earlier like she did yesterday.

She woke up at the usual time.

If she left at this time, she would bump into Wei Wucai.

After spending some time pondering about this, Yan Zhiqing stopped worrying.

She got herself ready.

She glanced at the time out of habit and noticed that this was the time when Wei Wucai usually called her.

Yan Zhiqing opened the door and it was just as she had expected. There was no sight of Wei Wucai.

She waited for a while. Ten minutes went by and Wei Wucai still didn't come downstairs to her room.

While Yan Zhiqing didn't get to see Wei Wucai, she got a phone call from Shi Xiaoya.

"Zhiqing, why aren't you downstairs? Did you go to the film site by yourself again?" Shi Xiaoya asked.

"No. I am just about to go downstairs. I accidentally woke up late today," Yan Zhiqing said as she hastily closed the door and rushed downstairs.

She then realized that Wei Wucai was not there.

Shi Xiaoya, Han Zhuofeng, Guo Yujie, and Fang Qiaohan were there. The only person missing was Wei Wucai.

In Shi Xiaoya's opinion, the picture of the group today was completely opposite from that of yesterday.

Even before Yan Zhiqing asked anything, Shi Xiaoya already said, "Wei Wucai has to arrive on set earlier with his colleagues. There are some special effects that they need to create for an important scene, so they went earlier to prepare for it."

Yan Zhiqing nodded and said, "I see."

When she didn't see Wei Wucai, something didn't feel right.

The group then all went into Yan Zhiqing's van.

Yan Zhiqing had nothing to do, so she went to check the netizens' reactions to the post that Luo Yonggang and Luo Qingxian had released about them being on good terms.

Luo Yonggang and Luo Qingxian did post about them being on good terms again and even tagged Yan Zhiqing. However, Yan Zhiqing never responded.

Therefore, the netizens became really excited.

"Are they really on good terms? Why isn't Yan Zhiqing responding?"

"Are these two just imagining things?"

"Hehe. They slandered Yan Zhiqing that way. Don't you think it would require a very good temper for someone to forgive that quickly? In my opinion, Yan Zhiqing is not a saint."

"They tagged Yan Zhiqing, but she didn't even bother to reply to them. It's clear that this father-daughter duo are hyping themselves up."

“They are so scared of Yan Beicheng that they became delusional. Do they think that things will be fine if they one-sidedly announce that they have fixed their relationship with Yan Zhiqing?”

There were so many netizens commenting under Luo Yonggang and Luo Qingxian’s posts.

“You two are quite dramatic. It’s a pity that you are not making a living as an actor.”

“On good terms? Is Yan Zhiqing responding to you guys?”

“You could have lived a good life, but you just wanted to mess with her. And when she fought back, you realized that you are no match against her. If you had known about what would happen today, you wouldn’t have made such mistakes back then.”

Luo Yonggang naturally wouldn’t sit and watch himself and his daughter get mocked by people.

He hired someone to pretend to be a netizen and to comment back at those netizens who had mocked them.

“Yan Zhiqing is filming. It’s normal for her to not see these.”

A netizen immediately argued, “If they are really on good terms, they would naturally be on the same pace and would clarify together. It’s impossible for her to not know about this. Even if she was filming, it is impossible for her to not have any time to say something.”

Chapter 3197: Yan Zhiqing Was Being Like a Scumbag

Obviously, Yan Zhiqing was in control.

No matter what Luo Yonggang and Luo Yonggang did, Yan Zhiqing still didn’t do anything. She responded to all the changes with stillness, which was enough to make them feel dejected.

Yan Zhiqing realized that the following few days on the set became very quiet.

Previously, she had intended to avoid Wei Wucai.

But now, she didn’t have to avoid him anymore. Wei Wucai had stopped intentionally visiting her, so there was no need for her to avoid him.

It was possible that Wei Wucai had realized that she was avoiding him.

Because she wanted to avoid him, he stopped approaching her so as not to appear annoying.

He basically chose to distance himself from her as well.

At lunch time, Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuofeng finished their lunch first as Yan Zhiqing had finished her work late.

And now, Yan Zhiqing and Fang Qiaohan were the only two left.

Fang Qiaohan took a few bites and started chewing on the disposable plastic fork that came with the food delivery. She then said, "Zhiqing, do you think Wei Wucai knows that you are avoiding him?"

"On the first day, he still came over at noon. But these past few days, he barely came over on his own."

Yan Zhiqing knew that what she had done was not a good thing.

He had genuinely treated her as a friend and helped her so much.

But she decided not to see him anymore and stopped meeting him. In other words, she was heartless.

What she had done was hurtful to him.

It was normal for him not to come seeking rejection.

She was the one who had feelings for him. She was also the one who was worried about being entrapped in this feeling.

Wei Wucai had never done anything wrong.

Everything she had done was for her own sake. In other words, she was selfish.

"It will get better with time," Yan Zhiqing said.

Yan Zhiqing took two bites. The diet-plan meal that never really tasted good now became even more tasteless.

"Do you think what I did was really selfish?" Yan Zhiqing asked Fang Qiaohan.

"I don't know what happened between you two, so I can't just form an opinion about this," Fang Qiaohan said. "However, you two had a good relationship. It is a pity that things have turned out this way."

"He didn't do anything wrong," Yan Zhiqing said. "It was all my fault. He didn't do anything wrong. I was the one who suddenly wanted to distance myself from him."

Yan Zhiqing blinked silently and then said, "He helped me so much. If there's anything I can do for him in the future, I will do it."

This...

In Fang Qiaohan's opinion, Yan Zhiqing was being like a scumbag.

If a man had said this, he would be instantly cursed as a scumbag!

Fang Qiaohan spent one second feeling sad for Wei Wucai, who had been ruthlessly abandoned, before she continued munching on her food. She then completely forgot about all these things.

If Wei Wucai, who had been heartlessly abandoned, knew about this, he would say that even the assistant that Yan Zhiqing had hired was heartless.

They had all known each other for a while and were basically comrades that had started a whole revolution together.

But at times like this, she couldn't even say anything nice for him?

A few days passed. During these past few days, Wei Wucai never came to see Yan Zhiqing on his own.

However, they were still working in the same filming site.

Therefore, Yan Zhiqing could see Wei Wucai if she looked up.

He was always in her line of vision or always hanging around somewhere not too far and not too close.

It didn't seem like he was intentionally appearing in her line of vision.

Because whenever Yan Zhiqing couldn't control herself and would look over, Wei Wucai was busy doing his own work. He didn't even notice that she was looking at him.

On this day, the crew and cast members were going to a nearby mountain to film a fighting scene in the forest.

The crew had already requested for approval to use this location for an entire day. And so, they departed to the mountain.

Stone paving was laid along the mountain trail, allowing the residents to hike around during holidays.

However, it was only laid along one side of the trail, which meant that the residents had to hike up and down the same pathway.

The crew and cast hiked up along this stone pavement and moved to the other side, where there was no sight of anything constructed by people.

Then, they started filming.

This was a public area still visited by the residents during holidays.

They couldn't seal off the entire mountain and stop the people that lived here from visiting because they wanted to film a movie.

This right belonged to everyone. This mountain was not a privately owned land.

And so, the crew could only book this place for a day and temporarily seal off the mountain. This would stop other people from seeing and taking pictures of the scenes that they were filming here, thus preventing leaks.

They had only a day to film this scene, so they were in a rush.

It was hard for everybody.

They didn't even get lunchboxes during noon.

Yan Zhiqing and the other major cast members did not get lunchboxes.

But the extras and the other actors and actresses still needed to eat.

Because of the current situation, the crew had brought boxes of instant noodles, sausages, and bread. Everyone just ate whatever they had during noon.

Even Yan Zhiqing and the others ate these as well.

Gao Zishan and the others who had assistants were able to ask their assistants to bring some fruits and coffee as well as tea up the mountain.

They just needed to hike back up. However, this was not a hill, so they could not bring a lot back up the mountain.

During noon, everyone hurriedly took the instant noodles and bread and simply ate them for lunch before they continued filming in the afternoon.

However, the weather conspired to inflict misery.

While the crew and cast were already in a rush, a thunderstorm started rumbling in the sky above at around four in the afternoon.

Everyone looked up and saw that the sky was turning gloomy at a visibly fast rate.

A heavy veil of darkening clouds hung over them.

“Quick! Quick! Quick!” the assistant director hurriedly urged. “Film the next scene before it starts raining. Film as much as we can.”

There was this other scene that needed to be filmed in a cave. But this scene didn’t matter much as they could build a cave set in the studio. They didn’t really have to film this on the mountain.

And so, they just needed to film two more scenes.

However, a few minutes after the assistant director had stopped talking, raindrops the size of a bean started falling down heavily.

It was not a light rain. The moment the raindrops fell, a downpour soon followed.

It didn’t give people any chance of relaxing.

The moment Wu Mosen saw this, he could only order for everything to be stopped.

“Quick! Put the machines away!” Wu Mosen said.

They had bought the best gadgets.

To create a film with better picture quality and to showcase a movie with better cinematic effects in the theater, Wu Mosen had invested a lot.

Wu Mosen was able to spend so lavishly because there were always people investing in the films that he made.

Even if he was rich, he obviously couldn’t let these expensive machines get drenched.

Each of these machines cost over ten million.

Even if the production crew was rich, they couldn't waste money like this.

And so, the group hastily went to cover up the machines.

It would be best if they could find waterproof tarps or plastic bags. If not, they would just use cloths.

They were in such a rush and were using whatever they could find.

The site was so messy that no one could be bothered to care for someone else.

It was unknown as to when this pouring rain would stop.

Even if the rain stopped, they wouldn't be able to film on this muddy ground.

Moreover, there wasn't a place that could shelter them from this rain.

"Everyone, be careful. Take care of each other while we are hiking down the mountain," Wu Mosen hurriedly called out.

Chapter 3198: It Was Wei Wucai

"The film crew and the special effects crew have to take their own equipments. As for the men who do not need to take anything, take care of the women!" the assistant director shouted.

Not only was there heavy rain, but there was a strong wind as well.

The wind was blowing like crazy.

It caused very loud rustlings in the trees on the mountain.

The branches and leaves were shaking. It was unknown as to whether it was the rain that had knocked the leaves loose or if the wind had blown the leaves off.

Leaves just kept falling.

Some of the trees that had thinner trunks, especially the weaker seedlings, were getting blown back and forth.

When Han Zhuofeng saw this, he felt so worried for Shi Xiaoya.

If Shi Xiaoya were to injure herself, Han Zhuoling would rip his skin off.

As Han Zhuofeng was on his way to find Shi Xiaoya, he wondered why what popped into his mind earlier seemed familiar.

After running a couple steps, Han Zhuofeng recalled that he was told the same thing when Han Zhuoli asked him to take care of Lu Man.

As the third son of the Han Family, he was truly pitiful. Despite being single, he had to take care of his sisters-in-law every day.

If his sisters-in-law were to get injured, his brothers would skin him alive.

While Han Zhuofeng was looking for Shi Xiaoya, he thought about this bitterly. Eventually, he found her and Guo Yujie.

He saw that the two were fine and were covering their heads with a bag. Still, their shoulders and the sides of their bodies were dripping wet from the rain.

But besides these things, the two were doing fine. Han Zhuofeng thus let out a sigh of relief.

“Let’s hike down,” Han Zhuofeng said.

Because the film crew didn’t want to get a shot of the stone pavement, they had intentionally chosen the backslope.

If they wanted to hike down, they would need to hike up and go around the upward slope of the mountain.

However, the backslope was a pathway of natural mountain rocks that hadn’t been cleared out by people. It was difficult to walk on this path.

It was even more dangerous on this stormy day.

“Zhiqing is still behind!” Shi Xiaoya shouted.

The rain was so heavy and the wind was so strong. Every time they opened their mouths, the wind would blow rainwater into them.

They had no choice but to shout.

“Let me take you all around here first. It is safer on the stone pavement. I will go and look for Zhiqing later,” Han Zhuofeng said. “There are too many people and it is too messy. I don’t feel safe leaving you two here by yourself.”

While Han Zhuofeng was speaking, he looked around to check if he could find Yan Zhiqing now.

And he happened to see Yan Zhiqing and Fang Qiaohan.

“I saw them,” Han Zhuofeng said.

Shi Xiaoya saw them as well. She then said, “Let’s go to Zhiqing together.”

Han Zhuofeng nodded. He was initially worried that they wouldn’t be able to find them because it was too chaotic and there were too many people.

However, since they saw her, they might as well stay with her.

And so, Han Zhuofeng took care of Shi Xiaoya and Guo Yujie and the entire group started walking towards Yan Zhiqing.

Yan Zhiqing saw Shi Xiaoya as well.

She happened to see Shi Xiaoya waving at her and calling out, “Zhiqing, this way.”

Yan Zhiqing and Fang Qiaohan thus started walking towards them.

However, it was hard to navigate this pathway. Not only was it muddy, but there were also rocks blocking the pathway. If they weren't careful, they would trip and fall. It was very dangerous.

And so, the two didn't dare to walk fast.

The film crew members were carrying their machines and rushing forward. The size of the machines was even bigger than a person.

Unfortunately, one happened to encounter Yan Zhiqing and Guo Yujie.

Because the machine was too big, the person carrying it could barely see. He could only see where his feet were stepping and a little bit of the pathway in front. He did not see Yan Zhiqing and Fang Qiaohan who were at the side.

The person carrying the machine had no idea that he was about to knock Yan Zhiqing over when he was rushing forward.

Yan Zhiqing and Fang Qiaohan didn't see him at all.

Suddenly, Yan Zhiqing felt something bump one of her shoulders.

Yan Zhiqing felt pain in her shoulder and started staggering as a result.

She leaned forward with her back bent.

She was about to fall.

The ground was full of sharp rocks. If she were to fall, it would be lucky if she didn't hurt her face.

However, she would still be injured.

Her arms and legs would be bruised.

Fang Qiaohan rushed to pull Yan Zhiqing back, but someone moved even faster than she did.

Yan Zhiqing couldn't even control herself. She closed her eyes and accepted her fate. She was waiting to fall and was hoping that the injuries would not be too bad.

She could feel herself falling down and she was hopelessly ready for the severe pain.

Yet, unexpectedly, someone caught her halfway.

She did not feel any of the pain she had imagined. Instead, she fell into a pair of strong arms and against a firm chest.

The chest was soaking wet. Because the rain was falling so heavily, so much rain was splashing over his body. The rain also caused a smell of dirt to emanate everywhere, and this smell overpowered his body scent.

When Yan Zhiqing opened her eyes, the person had already helped her up.

She looked up and saw that the person who had saved her was Wei Wucai.

The first thing Wei Wucai had done was search for Yan Zhiqing.

When he heard Shi Xiaoya shout, he became certain of Yan Zhiqing's whereabouts.

And he immediately started rushing over here.

At that moment, he couldn't even bother to think about whether he still needed to let her avoid him.

Obviously, her safety was of the utmost priority.

Unexpectedly, when he was about to get closer to her, he saw Yan Zhiqing getting bumped and about to fall.

At that moment, Wei Wucai felt his heart jump out of his chest.

His mind went blank. He couldn't think about anything.

He just stared at Yan Zhiqing and started running towards her.

The weight of the mud held his feet down. However, this was nothing to Wei Wucai.

When he was at the Mount Lan Compound, he would have to hike up and down the mountain every morning.

When he was training back then, he also had to tie bags of iron sand around his lower legs.

He trained often on mountains like this.

This path might have been difficult for others, but it was nothing for Wei Wucai.

It was just like level ground.

And so, Wei Wucai managed to catch Yan Zhiqing in time.

"How are you? Are you hurt?" Wei Wucai asked hastily.

Yan Zhiqing shook her head and answered, "I am fine."

At this point in time, she didn't expect Wei Wucai to make a timely rescue.

It seemed like he was always the one to appear first if she was in danger.

The person carrying the machine knew that he had bumped into someone. He immediately stopped and apologized. "Miss Yan, I am so sorry. I didn't see you. It was an accident."

Seeing that he was carrying the machine and struggling to move, Yan Zhiqing answered, "It's fine. I know. You be careful too."

He then apologized again and again. Yan Zhiqing once again expressed that it was okay and asked him to leave quickly and stop standing there with the machine.

The person then quickly left with the machine on his shoulder.

"Let's go." At this moment, Yan Zhiqing couldn't be bothered to avoid Wei Wucai anymore. She spoke to Wei Wucai frankly.

Plus, after such a long time of avoiding him and after seeing him again, she couldn't bear to avoid him any longer.

Although she had seen him every day, she had been looking at him from afar.

She hadn't been this close.

And she was finally so close to him. Yan Zhiqing realized that she hadn't felt this in such a long time.

She realized that she was missing this so much.

She was not the only one who felt this way. Wei Wucai felt the same as well.

Yan Zhiqing thought that she had been secretly looking at Wei Wucai, but she had no idea that Wei Wucai had intentionally been looking away from her whenever she was looking at him.

Chapter 3199: Super Powerful Filter

Whenever she wasn't looking at Wei Wucai, he was secretly looking at her.

It was truly unexpected for two people to play the ancient game of secretly looking at each other in this modern time.

And now, Wei Wucai felt exactly the same as Yan Zhiqing.

The few days of not being together felt like a few years.

They cherished such a chance of seeing each other face-to-face even more.

When Wei Wucai heard what Yan Zhiqing said, he suddenly turned.

Before Yan Zhiqing even had the chance to let her mind run free and ponder if Wei Wucai was unwilling for her to walk with him at this moment...

She saw Wei Wucai crouch down with his knees bent.

He extended his arms backward, gesturing that he wanted to protect Yan Zhiqing.

"Come on up," Wei Wucai said.

Yan Zhiqing suddenly realized that Wei Wucai wanted to carry her on his back.

Yan Zhiqing hesitated slightly and said, "It's hard enough to walk on these rocky paths. It will be even more difficult if you carry me. I'll just walk by myself."

"I am used to such rocky paths." Wei Wucai turned his head slightly to the side and saw the silhouettes of the people behind Yan Zhiqing. "In addition, it will be faster if I carry you. If you walked on your own, I would have to worry about you stumbling."

When Wei Wucai saw that Yan Zhiqing was still unsure, he said, "If you keep delaying, we will continue being drenched in this rain."

When Yan Zhiqing heard this, she hurriedly climbed onto Wei Wucai's back.

Wei Wucai pulled her up slightly and adjusted her position so that she could be more comfortable.

He held her legs up with both of his hands. Because of how firm the support was, Yan Zhiqing felt as though she was sitting on a chair.

At this moment, Shi Xiaoya and the others came over as well.

She had witnessed how Yan Zhiqing almost stumbled and fell and was frightened for her.

Thankfully, Wei Wucai arrived in time.

With Yan Zhiqing on his back, Wei Wucai worked with Han Zhuofeng to take care of Shi Xiaoya, Guo Yujie, and Fang Qiaohan.

And they finally hiked around the peak of the mountain to the side where there were stone pavements.

The rain splashed over the stone pavement. Nevertheless, because they were stone pavements, they were not as difficult to hike on compared to the rocky mountain roads.

The stone pavements weren't always perfectly leveled. There were some inconsistencies, with some steps being higher and some steps being lower. However, the stone pavements were already considered a blessing by those who had just traveled over rugged mountain routes.

They still needed to be careful because the steps were a little slippery from the rain splashing over them.

The group walked carefully. Guo Yujie and Fang Qiaohan helped each other.

"Don't worry about us. We will take care of each other," Guo Yujie said.

They asked Han Zhuofeng to focus on taking care of Shi Xiaoya.

Things were even easier for Wei Wucai.

He carried Yan Zhiqing on his back and walked rather quickly.

The heavy downpour fell on top of their heads. In addition, it was winter.

In the midst of the strong wind and pouring rain, it felt even colder.

The rain had already soaked through the coat that Yan Zhiqing was wearing.

Suddenly, Wei Wucai placed Yan Zhiqing down.

Yan Zhiqing thought that he was tired and wanted to walk by himself.

But then, she saw Wei Wucai remove his jacket and wrap it around her, covering her head as well.

Her hair had already gotten drenched, but this was better than allowing the tempest of the storm to continue battering her face.

If the chilly wind blew on her cold and wet hair, it could cause a headache.

When he was carrying Yan Zhiqing earlier, he had been so intent on getting down this rugged mountain trail that he hadn't thought about this at first.

And now that he had realized this, it was already too late.

Wei Wucai secretly cursed himself for not being able to realize something this important.

Still, he tried to fix his mistake as he covered her up.

Wei Wucai's jacket was thicker and was waterproof.

Although the outer layer of the jacket had been drenched wet by the rain, the inner layer was still dry and warm. She could feel his body temperature, and she felt so safe.

However, because Wei Wucai had given his coat to Yan Zhiqing, he no longer had any clothing that protected him from the cold.

He was wearing only a thin knitted sweater inside, which was quickly soaked wet by the rain.

When the knitted sweater got drenched, it instantly became much heavier. When it was wet, it would also stick to your body, which would feel even more uncomfortable than other types of clothings.

"You wear it!" Yan Zhiqing immediately wanted to give the jacket back.

But Wei Wucai still placed the jacket around her shoulders while saying, "I am already wet. It will feel even more uncomfortable if I put on my jacket again. Not only will the outer layer of the jacket be wet, the inner layer of the jacket will become wet as well."

He added, "You already have it on. Just wear it."

But Yan Zhiqing wanted to reply that her clothes were wet as well.

If she wore it, the inner layer of the jacket would become wet as well.

"You still need to film. You can't get sick," Wei Wucai said. "If you are worried about me, then wear it so that we can hike down the mountain and go back to the hotel. This will at least get me out of the rain sooner."

Because Wei Wucai was worried, he couldn't help but insult her.

Yet Yan Zhiqing didn't notice this at all.

Because she no longer felt those biases and dissatisfaction towards Wei Wucai like how she had in the past. She even felt affection towards him.

And now, whatever Wei Wucai said sounded good to her.

It was automatically beautified.

The filter was powerful.

However, Yan Zhiqing didn't hear anything else. She only heard Wei Wucai say, "If you are worried about me."

Yan Zhiqing felt her face heating up.

She wasn't worried about him!

Nevertheless, Wei Wucui was basically saying that he would not be moving if she didn't wear this jacket.

No matter what, he would not be wearing the jacket after he had already given it to her.

And so, Yan Zhiqing had no choice but to wear Wei Wucui's jacket. She covered her head with the jacket and climbed up Wei Wucui's back again.

Wei Wucui carried Yan Zhiqing on his back and hiked down the mountain.

With Wei Wucui's athletic skills, he was indeed the first to hike down the mountain.

He had driven to the film site by himself.

When they departed to the foothill, he had also driven on his own.

And so, it made things really convenient.

He carried Yan Zhiqing to his car.

He got into the car and turned on the heater. He then found a clean blanket and handed it to Yan Zhiqing.

"Just wipe yourself dry. Don't catch a cold," Wei Wucui said. "Though since you were out in the rain, you are definitely going to catch a cold."

Wei Wucui only hoped that it wouldn't be too bad.

Yan Zhiqing took the blanket and proceeded to take off her coat as well as the jacket that Wei Wucui had given her.

She wanted to wipe off the water on the jacket because she was concerned about soaking Wei Wucui's car seat.

When Wei Wucui saw this, he immediately said, "Stop concerning yourself with the clothes. If the seat gets wet, then so be it. They won't get sick. Just wipe yourself dry first."

Yan Zhiqing was initially feeling a little embarrassed as she was worried about dirtying his car.

Don't guys normally love their cars?

But when Wei Wucui said that he didn't mind, she stopped caring.

She had wet hair from the rain, and water was dripping from its tips.

It was as though she had just washed her hair and had yet to wipe it.

Yan Zhiqing hurriedly wiped her hair until it was half-dry.

When she could no longer dry her hair any further, she tried to soak up the water on her body.

Her coat was drenched. And so, even the costume she was wearing inside the jacket was wet.

It wasn't as wet as Wei Wucui's clothing, though, as his had been directly soaked by the rain.

Her clothes were just damp.

Chapter 3200: Do You Still Have the Energy?

They were wet, but if she were to wring them, she wouldn't be able to squeeze any water out.

It didn't take long for the blanket to soak up water, which meant that the blanket could not be used anymore.

Wei Wucai ran the heater in the car on full blast. While driving, he was constantly checking on Yan Zhiqing through the rearview mirror.

Even when the heater was on full blast, he still saw that Yan Zhiqing was shivering from the cold.

Wei Wucai felt fine. His temperature had always been high.

The Mount Lan Compound was located in T City, and T City bordered the sea.

And so, whenever it was winter, they would spend every day training in the sea.

In the morning, they would train on the mountain while shirtless.

There was always a strong wind blowing in T City. It was even worse in the mountains.

And so, Wei Wucai was used to these things and was not really affected.

Yan Zhiqing couldn't take it.

Although filming had always been very difficult, she couldn't be as crazy as Wei Wucai.

Because of the strong wind and cascading rain outside, her body was freezing. Even if he had turned the heater on full blast, it wouldn't warm her up instantly.

When Wei Wucai saw her shivering in the back, he couldn't even focus on driving. He just felt so bad for her.

It took a while for them to finally arrive at the hotel. Wei Wucai got out of the car first and opened the door in the back.

Yan Zhiqing was just about to get out when Wei Wucai suddenly opened the door.

It was while Yan Zhiqing was leaning forward. And so, she bumped her head onto Wei Wucai's waist.

Wei Wucai was speechless.

Because Yan Zhiqing was not prepared at all. She was merely getting out of the car like how she usually did.

And so, she bumped her head hard.

However, Wei Wucai's body was not soft.

He didn't feel any pain when Yan Zhiqing bumped him. Instead, Yan Zhiqing's forehead ached and started turning red.

Yan Zhiqing rebounded after bumping into him and started falling back.

Wei Wucai hurriedly pulled her back.

But then, when he pulled her back, she hit his waist with her face.

And this time, it was not as simple as when she had just bumped her head.

Her entire face was pressed against his waist.

The force was much more gentle. It was like she buried her face in his waist.

Wei Wucai was speechless.

Yan Zhiqing felt speechless.

Even though the pouring rain, which had previously become a little bit drier, was beating on his back and soaking it wet again...

Wei Wucai didn't feel cold at all.

Instead, he felt this heat arising from his waist. He was almost going to lose it.

Yan Zhiqing bounced back. Her face felt really hot.

She had buried her entire face in his waist. She could no longer feel the dampness on his shirt. She just felt this burning heat.

"You... I..." Yan Zhiqing was dumbfounded as she stared at Wei Wucai. She couldn't even say a full sentence.

Wei Wucai didn't say anything. He just stared at her without any expression.

Yan Zhiqing stared back at his eyes and noticed that even the blackness in them seemed darker in color.

Amid this moment of panic, Wei Wucai suddenly leaned forward and crawled into the car.

Even when his face was almost touching her face, he still didn't stop.

Yan Zhiqing was so scared that she started backing away, resulting in her lying down on the seat.

Yan Zhiqing wanted to beat her useless head.

How could she just lie down like that!

She was being so willing!

Moreover... He didn't even like her that way!

Wei Wucai stared at Yan Zhiqing, who was looking regretful with a burning red face, and tried his best to suppress the smile that was at the corner of his lips.

He was worried that Yan Zhiqing would be annoyed by his subtle smile.

Wei Wucai managed to suppress the smile. He then strictly controlled his expression.

Then, he pretended to sigh out of helplessness. "Lift your head up."

Eh?

Yan Zhiqing froze. If he was asking her to lift her head, did he actually intend to kiss her?

There... was no way!

In addition, if they were to kiss, he just needed to lower his head.

Yan Zhiqing was now worrying about whether she should close her eyes.

Unknowingly, she started shifting her eyes towards Wei Wucai's lips.

Even when she had her eyes open, she couldn't see anything else.

While she was blanking out, she heard a sigh.

And she immediately felt the back of her head being cupped in his hand.

She panicked and her mind went blank. She stopped thinking and just did things out of instinct.

She must have become so dumb because her first reaction was to close her eyes.

At this moment, she had forgotten that Wei Wucai was gay!

The kisses that she had imagined did not happen.

She then heard the rustling sounds of the jacket.

In the next second, the jacket that had been blown dry by the warm air from the car heater on the drive was placed around her shoulders.

Yan Zhiqing was still stunned as she opened her eyes. She blinked and stared at Wei Wucai.

At this moment, she was still very confused.

Wei Wucai really wanted to take a picture of how dumb she looked right now.

Unfortunately, he still wanted to live for a few more years.

And so, he didn't dare to do it.

"All I wanted to do was wrap the jacket over you. It's extremely windy, rainy, and chilly outside. Since you were warmed up in the car, you might get sick easily if you were suddenly attacked by the cold outside," Wei Wucai said.

Yan Zhiqing felt speechless.

She wanted to punch herself in the head.

When Wei Wucai stood up, Yan Zhiqing felt as though the air around her had turned cold.

She regained her senses.

At this moment, she realized how stupid it was for her to think that Wei Wucai would kiss her.

How would it be possible for Wei Wucai to kiss her!

This was a one-sided love. This love must have made her stupid.

Yan Zhiqing sat up and buried her head in her knees. She felt embarrassed to look at Wei Wucai.

She didn't know if Wei Wucai had guessed what she had been thinking.

If Wei Wucai found out about it, she would never be able to face him.

What was that sentence?

I treat you as a friend, but you want to f*ck me?

Yan Zhiqing was letting her mind run wild when she suddenly heard Wei Wucai say, "Wait here. Don't move. I will be back in a bit."

With this, she saw Wei Wucai turn and walk towards the hotel entrance.

Soon, she saw Wei Wucai return with a black umbrella.

This umbrella had been specially placed on the umbrella stand at the hotel entrance for the customers who didn't bring an umbrella. These umbrellas served as a backup during an emergency.

Wei Wucai returned with the umbrella and handed it to Yan Zhiqing while saying, "You hold it."

Yan Zhiqing wanted to ask why he had taken only one umbrella.

But when she heard what Wei Wucai said, she didn't even ask and had already done what Wei Wucai asked her to do.

She was lifting the umbrella up when she realized this and her face instantly darkened.

She thought to herself, when did she become so obedient?

She was too obedient!

She was secretly scolding herself when she saw Wei Wucai bending over. He was going to carry her with her body positioned horizontally.

Yan Zhiqing, shocked by what he had done, immediately said, "I can walk by myself!"

Wei Wucai looked down at her as he asked, "Do you still have the energy after being in this rain?"

She had curled up like a ball in his arms.

Her face was leaning really close to his chest.

It was as though he could touch the tip of her nose if he lowered his head.

If Wei Wucai had never mentioned this, it would have been fine. But the moment he said this, Yan Zhiqing realized that she was very tired.
