

Mr Han 3391

Chapter 3391: Sorry You Had to Witnessed Us Being Such Jokes

“However, Zhou Liangsheng, I sacrificed so much for you. In the end, when I am sick, and my life needs to be sustained, you aren’t willing to pay even a cent?” Li Zhixiao said in disbelief.

She didn’t expect Zhou Liangsheng to be this selfish.

How did she even fall for this selfish, cowardly, and useless thing?!

Because of what Li Zhixiao said, Zhou Liangsheng felt a little embarrassed. He responded, “I didn’t say that I won’t save you. We have to wait until after the physical examination, right?”

In addition, since she wouldn’t be able to live no matter how hard they tried to save her...

Why should they bother to waste the money to do so?

He didn’t understand why Li Zhixiao couldn’t understand such a simple thing.

Song Lihua could no longer stand looking at Zhou Liangsheng’s face.

Of course, Li Zhixiao did not deserve the sympathy.

Just let this be a dogfight between them.

Song Lihua then stood up and said to Zheng Binzhou and Xie Jiling, “Let’s go. Let’s not stay here and disturb their discussion about future things.”

“Yes.” Zheng Binzhou said it even more bluntly. He came over and supported Song Lihua. “Let them fight like dogs in a dogfight.”

Song Lihua smiled and rubbed her tummy as she said, “When we go back, and when I talk to the family about divorcing Zhou Liangsheng, you have to speak for me.”

“Of course,” Zheng Binzhou immediately said, “No matter what, we can’t let you continue staying with that bastard. Let’s go back and tell the family the truth. When the elders know about this, they won’t let you continue living with him.”

“Alright.” Song Lihua’s mood lightened up as she grinned.

If she hadn’t seen this today, she wouldn’t have thought that Zhou Liangsheng had betrayed her.

She might feel sad about it.

But now that Song Lihua saw Zhou Liangsheng and Li Zhixiao were fighting each other...

She felt fortunate that she found out about the type of person Zhou Liangsheng was so early. She was already pregnant, but she had no regrets about witnessing this scene.

This was her child. Her love for this kid had nothing to do with him.

She should leave Zhou Liangsheng as soon as possible to remove Zhou Liangsheng's influence on the kid as soon as possible.

If not, with a coward and selfish father like Zhou Liangsheng, it would be hard for the kid not to be influenced.

He could sacrifice his lover of many years and his own child for the sake of benefits.

In addition, he was going to sacrifice not just one but both of his kids who were his blood and flesh.

In the future, who knew what he could sacrifice?

There was a chance that he might sacrifice her and her child for the sake of benefits in the future.

And currently, Zhou Liangsheng's parents could still control him through the family business.

But even so, Zhou Liangsheng was still able to do things that defy human morals and human nature, such as taking his son's life.

If his parents were gone...

Zhou Liangsheng would have been able to make decisions by himself, and no one would be able to stop him by then.

By then, what else might he do?

Just the thought of it sent chills down Song Lihua's spine.

She could only divorce him and leave him as soon as possible.

The pain and reluctance to leave because they were husband and wife didn't matter.

Song Lihua felt none of that. She just wanted to divorce Zhou Liangsheng and cut ties with him.

In Song Lihua's opinion, she felt unsafe if she continued being his wife.

She wasn't afraid that the Zhou Family might try to fight for the custody of her son.

Because of what Zhou Liangsheng had done, the Zhou Family had no right to fight for anything.

No one would believe her if she told anyone about this.

However, Song Lihua didn't need anyone to believe her.

She just needed to tell people what Zhou Liangsheng had done. Even if people wouldn't believe her, they would think that Zhou Liangsheng had gone crazy to believe in such superstition.

He placed a curse on his wife and son for the sake of his mistress.

Even if he didn't succeed, it showed that he was evil.

He was also stupid.

In this era of science, a young person who had received higher education actually tried to place a curse.

If this wasn't such a dumb move, what was?

He was a madman who relied on spells to harm his own wife and son.

Wouldn't it be worrisome if he got custody of the baby?

Even in a lawsuit, the judge wouldn't be on Zhou Liangsheng's side.

In addition, Zhou Liangsheng was the party at fault since he cheated.

Moreover, Song Lihua did have the financial ability to raise the child.

If they were to fight for the baby's custody, the judge would normally be more inclined to give the custody of the child to the mother.

And so, Song Lihua wasn't worried at all.

The entire group left the hospital.

When they were at the hospital entrance, Song Lihua thanked Xie Jiling. "Xie Jiling, I am really thankful for you and the others who helped me. Otherwise, it would have been difficult for Binzhou and me."

Chen Xing and the others waved their hands, gesturing that this was nothing.

They felt quite embarrassed to witness somebody else's family affairs.

They were hoping that Zheng Binzhou wouldn't feel uncomfortable when they hang out with him in the future.

However, Zheng Binzhou didn't feel embarrassed at all. He remained very carefree.

"My sister is right. It's all thanks to you all here. If it were just me, I wouldn't have been able to deal with them. I had confidence and courage because you all supported me," Zheng Binzhou said.

"By the way, Sis. Don't forget to pay Jiling," Zheng Binzhou said, "Jiling risked her life today. You saw the way Master Lu acted when he received his backlash. If he were stronger than Jiling, Jiling would have ended up like him."

"Of course, I remember. What, you think I'm a swindler?" Song Lihua laughed as she said.

"No," Zheng Binzhou quickly explained, "Sis, Jiling is my classmate. She is only charging you two million. When she was exorcising for He Qingyang, she charged him five million."

Xie Jiling thought about it and remained quiet. She didn't tell them that the purifying talisman she had sold to He Qingyang was priced at five hundred thousand each.

The one she had just given to Song Lihua would just be a freebie.

"They are exorcists. They have to take payment. I can't explain clearly, but there's karma involved. If they accept payment, they won't gain any karma. If not, it will be troublesome." Zheng Binzhou explained.

Song Lihua smacked Zheng Binzhou on the forehead and said, "Enough. If you continue explaining, you will make it sound like I actually don't want to pay her!"

The embarrassed Song Lihua then said to Xie Jiling and the others, "Sorry you had to witness us making a fool of ourselves."

Zheng Binzhou was now completely relaxed. It was good that all this had been resolved.

Without any further delay, Song Lihua immediately asked Jiling for her account number.

Xie Jiling immediately provided her Alipay account number, which made the whole process quick and easy.

It made Song Lihua realize that even exorcists could still keep up with the times.

After Song Lihua had transferred Xie Jiling two million, she suddenly remembered something and asked, "By the way, what is that paper talisman you gave me earlier?"

"The purifying talisman can purify the turbid Qi within human bodies," Xie Jiling explained, "When someone is under great stress and experiencing a drastic change of emotions or mind fog, that talisman can eliminate all negative emotions."

"However, the purifying talisman's effect doesn't last very long. The energy in the talisman decreases with the usage," Xie Jiling added.

"No wonder. My tummy was hurting because I felt too agitated."

Chapter 3392: Han Zhuoling Thought He Was Going Crazy

"However, after I held onto this talisman, all the negative emotions disappeared. It felt as though a refreshing stream was flowing within me. It felt really comfortable. I became calm," Song Lihua said in surprise.

"Is it really that amazing?!" Chen Xing exclaimed in disbelief.

Xie Jiling nodded and said, "This is the type of talisman I gave you guys when you guys were stressed about your exams. If any of you have difficult upcoming exams, I will give you more."

"How much are you selling this outside?" Song Lihua asked.

She then explained, "I will definitely be in a lawsuit with the Zhou Family. I am sure I can win, but some things will inevitably make me angry. In addition, there is a chance that I will feel depressed after childbirth. Therefore, I would like to save some. Your talisman works really well."

"The price depends on the buyer," Xie Jiling said, "He Qingyang had bought some from me previously, and I sold it to him at a price of five hundred thousand each."

Song Lihua gasped.

She was going to divorce her husband, and she would be raising a child by herself. Although her family didn't need money, Song Lihua thought it would be better for her not to be too extravagant.

One for the price of five hundred thousand was a little too expensive.

Even Chen Xing and the others stuttered.

"What.. what did you say? The talisman you gave us previously was priced at five hundred thousand?" Chen Xing was so astonished.

If he had known that the talisman was that expensive, he would have sold it!

He had no idea that he once held a huge sum of five hundred thousand!

Xie Jiling nodded and said, "This is the market price. You are my classmates, so I gave it to you all as a gift. When the other students asked to buy this, I charged them three thousand per piece. However, the ones that cost three thousand are low-ranking purifying talismans. Of course, since you are just dealing with exams, you don't need a very high-ranking talisman. A basic one is good enough."

"However, even so, I still need to use my mental energy to draw these talismans. I can't offer you too much. I will give you more during exams," explained Xie Jiling.

Just in case they actually thought that these talismans were as common as cabbages.

Xie Jiling knew that Song Lihua wanted to buy. So, she said, "Since you just need talismans that'll help with your mood, you don't need high-ranking purifying talismans. The basic ones, like what I gave them would suffice. I will charge you the same price I charge the other students—three thousand a piece."

Song Lihua was not someone who had no understanding of common courtesy.

She knew that Xie Jiling charged the classmates 3000 per piece because most of the students at the school were from ordinary families. The rich students were only a handful.

To those students, the price of 3000 per piece wasn't cheap at all.

There was a reason why she didn't price the talisman according to the customer's social status at school.

It was because everyone at school was a student and should be treated equally.

If she actually started charging them differently, how would those students interact with each other?

Considering that the high-ranking purifying talisman was priced at five hundred thousand per piece, it was obvious.

Even the basic ones that Xie Jiling had mentioned would not be cheap when sold to outsiders.

Xie Jiling was just doing Song Lihua a favor.

Immediately, Song Lihua bought 10 pieces.

"I don't have so many with me right now." Xie Jiling took out two ready-made pieces and said, "You can take these first. I will ask Zheng Binzhou to bring more to you when I am done drawing."

"Alright." Song Lihua smiled and said, "We will be leaving first. We still have a lot to deal with."

Song Lihua had been tortured for a long time and was still not doing well, physically.

Even with her big belly, she looked like she could be struck down by the wind.

But obviously, she was emanating a different type of energy when the issue was resolved.

Although she was still very skinny, her eyes were sparkling, and her face was glowing red with joy.

She was no longer anxious and no longer appear depressed.

“I have learned something today,” Kuang Xiaorou said, “I didn’t expect the things that I have seen on The Strange Tales to be real and that we actually witnessed it.”

“Are you all scared?” Xie Jiling grinned and asked.

“With you here, of course, we aren’t scared. You’re too powerful,” Feng Yaqing said, “If this happens again in the future and conditions allow, you have to bring us along with you.”

Xie Jiling was speechless.

“It won’t be this easy every time. It can be dangerous, too,” Xie Jiling said.

“If it’s too dangerous, we won’t be going. We would be causing you trouble if we went, but if you think it’s an easy task, bring us along so we can learn more,” Kuang Xiaorou said.

“Sure.” Xie Jiling nodded.

Young people today loved seeking thrills.

They were willing to go to buildings known to be haunted.

And even when they knew that they would be able to see ghosts, they weren’t scared at all.

However, at least they knew to seek Xie Jiling for help.

Xie Jiling could then choose some tasks that weren’t dangerous and allow them to come along.

Just in case they went by themselves on a thrill-seeking journey due to curiosity and actually got into danger. By then, it would be too late for any regrets.

Therefore, Xie Jiling agreed.

Xie Jiling’s life then became peaceful again.

As Lu Man’s due date approached, Han Zhuoli stopped going to the office.

He stayed beside Lu Man, just in case Lu Man would give birth all of a sudden and he couldn’t make it since he was in the office.

Lu Man had already moved into the VIP suite at Chu Tian Hospital and was very much prepared.

Han Zhuoli had handed over all his work to Han Zhuoling.

He wasn’t going on business trips, and he wasn’t going to the office.

Han Zhuoling's office was piled up with work, and he was very stressed.

Initially, considering Han Zhuoling's workload in the past, this amount of workload was nothing.

However, ever since Han Zhuoling stopped being a workaholic and rested for a long time, he couldn't get used to suddenly having such a heavy workload.

However, Lu Man was giving birth soon.

He understood and could only gnash his teeth and bear the responsibility.

In the future, when Shi Xiaoya gave birth, Han Zhuoling would reasonably hand over all his work to Han Zhuoli.

However, when Han Zhuoling thought about how he would have to do work for his unfortunate little brother Han Zhuoli when Lu Man had yet to give birth.

When Lu Man gave birth to the child, Han Zhuoli would say that he would have to go on paternity leave with Lu Man.

How could Han Zhuoling endure this?

Knowing that Han Zhuoli would be taking a break for several months, Han Zhuoling felt that he was going crazy.

And now, Han Zhuoling was just counting the days for Han Zhuoli.

He would be asking Han Zhuoli to pay it back when Shi Xiaoya got pregnant.

Han Zhuoling just hoped that he could drag Han Zhuofeng over here to work as well.

Unfortunately, Han Zhuofeng studied film directing.

He had no idea how to do any of the work.

Han Zhuoling regretted not asking Han Zhuofeng to learn about finance and management while Han Zhuofeng was still studying film directing.

Lu Man was staying at a suite in Chu Tian Hospital that had a kitchen as well.

All three meals of the day were nutritious pregnancy meals specially prepared by a nutritionist at Chu Tian Hospital.

However, Lu Man would still have cravings to eat something good.

The nutritious meal was nutritious, but it didn't really taste good.

The nutritionist had rationed and prepared a nutritionally balanced meal.

There were times when Lu Man would crave crayfish or spicy hot pot.

Since the food in the restaurant was very oily, spicy, and salty, Han Zhuoli didn't feel at ease letting Lu Man eat outside.

Chapter 3393: Congratulations

He then asked Auntie He to bring groceries to the hospital and cook for Lu Man alone in the kitchen.

However, as the due date approached, no matter how much Lu Man craved such food, Han Zhuoli wouldn't let her eat that kind of food anymore.

Every day, he gave her food that would build up her physical strength without causing any other health burdens.

The doctor also recommended that Lu Man should maintain her current physique.

And now, no matter how Lu Man lay in bed, she never felt comfortable. Han Zhuoli was worried that he might push her to the side if he shared the same bed as her.

And so, he set up this smaller bed beside this big bed.

Han Zhuoli didn't dare to stay too far. He was worried that Lu Man might not be able to locate him when she needed him in the middle of the night.

And so, he had been sleeping on this smaller bed.

One day, in the middle of the night, when Lu Man was asleep, she suddenly felt intense abdominal pain.

Lu Man's sleep quality wasn't good. Even though she was wearing the bracelet Xie Jiling had given her, she still couldn't sleep well.

The bracelet could only make her feel relaxed. Not only did the bracelet keep her healthy, but it also kept her two babies healthy.

However, no matter what, carrying twins would never be comfortable.

The burden on the body was too heavy.

She always felt restless at night.

The pain happened for just a moment. However, it immediately woke Lu Man up.

However, Lu Man endured and kept her silence.

The pain happened for a moment, and she still couldn't bear to wake Han Zhuoli up.

Han Zhuoli was now resting and keeping her company.

However, Han Zhuoli was even more tired than her.

Especially during nighttime, Han Zhuoli didn't dare to sleep.

Lu Man realized that if she were in a little bit of pain and gasped, Han Zhuoli would wake up immediately and care for her.

And so, Lu Man held her breath. Unless it was pain from the contractions, Lu Man had no intention of waking Han Zhuoli up.

Such aches often happened as the due date approached.

Lu Man was used to it.

However, it seemed different this time.

Soon, Lu Man started hurting again.

It was almost as though the two little buddies were in a rush to get out.

“Zhuoli.” Lu Man had no choice but to call out to him.

Because it was really painful, she couldn’t even make a louder sound.

Thankfully, Han Zhuoli was not sound asleep.

He heard it the moment Lu Man made a sound.

He almost jumped up from his bed, conveniently turned on the light, and came to Lu Man’s side.

The series of movements happened all in one go. Clearly, he had done this many times and was very skilled with them already.

He could do them in just a few seconds, even with his eyes closed.

“It hurts...” Lu Man covered her belly with her hand. With much difficulty, she tried to open her eyes slightly. Her brows were furrowed.

It was so painful that she couldn’t get up from the bed.

Han Zhuoli held her hand.

Lu Man was in so much pain that she was squeezing his hand with force.

Han Zhuoli immediately pressed the bell at the side of the bed.

When the doctor arrived, Lu Man’s pain had reduced.

She looked like her soul had left her body.

The doctor checked his watch and started calculating the time between each contraction.

“You two.” Han Zhuoli watched as Lu Man started sweating cold drops of perspiration due to the pain. He said words of threat to Lu Man’s tummy, “Both of you, stop it! You will get out of this tummy according to the order we had agreed upon previously.”

“Get out now! Don’t make mommy hurt so much.” Han Zhuoli threatened.

Han Zhuoli said as he narrowed his eyes and said, “Is she suddenly hurting because you two are fighting for who should come out first?”

Suddenly, Lu Man’s tummy showed no more movements.

It was as though Han Zhuoli had guessed correctly.

“You two naughty kids!” Han Zhuoli immediately knew he was right when he saw Lu Man’s reaction.

“We agreed on this! Little brother, if you dare to come out first, I will beat you up!” Han Zhuoli warned.

This was his own child.

What could he do?

Aside from beating the child up, he couldn’t do anything else.

However, the threat was clearly effective.

The doctor had no idea that the two babies were this intelligent.

He just thought that Han Zhuoli had turned into an idiot because he was too nervous and happy to be a father.

That was why he was threatening the child in Lu Man’s womb who had no idea about anything.

This continued until almost morning when the doctor finally said, “It’s good enough now. We can get her in the operating room.”

The operating room was prepared while Lu Man was having contractions.

And now, Lu Man was about to give birth. Her operating room was ready.

Lu Man was pushed into the operating room. Han Zhuoli wanted to go in as well.

Chu Tian Hospital did provide such a service.

They allowed the husband to enter the delivery room.

However, Lu Man didn’t allow him to do that.

She was worried that childbirth might be too painful. If Han Zhuoli saw the childbirth from the side, he might get traumatized.

Therefore, no matter how Han Zhuoli tried to convince her, Lu Man wouldn’t agree.

Eventually, Han Zhuoli had to yield.

Han Zhuoli still tried one last time when they were outside the operating room.

But even though Lu Man was about to give birth and her stomach was really painful, she still warned Han Zhuoli, “Don’t come in!”

At this moment, the members of the Han Family as well as Wang Juhuai and Xia Qingwei had already arrived.

When Lu Man was experiencing contractions but was not in labor...

Han Zhuoli asked the doctor...

The doctor said that Lu Man's current condition showed that she would probably give birth to the babies in the morning.

And so, Han Zhuoli didn't care if it was midnight. He called the family members.

He then told them that Lu Man was giving birth soon.

If he had told them after the babies were born, his parents would scold him even if it was midnight.

As expected, after Han Zhuoli called the family, the family members prepared themselves and rushed over here.

Even Han Zhuoling, who was as tired as a cow with black circles under his eyes, came over with Shi Xiaoya.

Since Han Zhuoli had started his holiday to keep Lu Man company, he hadn't seen Han Zhuoling lately.

However, it wasn't because Han Zhuoli didn't visit Han Zhuoling. It was because Han Zhuoling was really too busy working after Han Zhuoli had dumped all his work onto Han Zhuoling.

And now, Han Zhuoli felt a little guilty to see Han Zhuoling looking so tired.

However, even though he felt guilty, he still needed to keep Lu Man company.

He could only ask Han Zhuoling to endure for a little longer.

Han Zhuoling saw Han Zhuoli's reaction. He immediately started laughing because of his ungrateful little brother.

He gnashed his teeth and said, "You better wait. When Shi Xiao is pregnant, I will get my holiday too!"

Han Zhuoli was speechless.

He knew that he would have to pay this debt back one day.

Of course, brothers were meant to help each other.

Han Zhuoli laughed dryly and said in a weak tone, "Of course. Of course."

The moment Han Zhuoli said this, he started feeling worried for Lu Man.

However, he didn't know how Lu Man was doing in here.

In addition, he couldn't hear anything.

But soon, the door of the operating room suddenly opened.

As the door opened, they could hear the loud cries of a baby.

Two nurses came out. With a smile on their faces, each of them held a baby.

"Congratulations. Mrs. Han gave birth to a girl and a boy. The girl was born first." The nurse congratulated them, "This is the older sister."

"This is the little brother," the other nurse introduced.

Chapter 3394: The Older Sister Is So Mature

Han Zhuoli didn't look at the two babies. The first thing he asked was, "Where is my wife?"

"She will be out soon," the nurse answered quickly.

They had seen people who ignored their kids and asked about their wife's condition first.

However, such people were rare.

Most people, especially the ones who had just become a dad as well as family members, would subconsciously pay attention to the kid first and ignore the mother.

There were people like Han Zhuoli, but they were rare.

And so, when the nurse saw this, she thought he was really rare.

She was a woman, too. Who wouldn't want their husband to put them first?

The woman was the one pregnant with the baby for nine months and experienced so much hardship to give birth to this baby.

The woman would definitely love the baby.

However, because of the hardship of pregnancy and childbirth, the woman would have a greater desire for her husband to give her full attention.

Both the husband and wife would pay attention to their child later on.

However, most husbands couldn't do it.

It wasn't because they didn't like their wives. At this moment, they would subconsciously pay attention to the child who had just arrived.

After the nurse said that, Lu Man was pushed out of the delivery room.

Lu Man was still lying down, but she was quite energetic.

She saw that Han Zhuoli was not holding the baby.

One of the two babies was being held by Old Mrs. Han. The other one was in Xia Qingwei's arms.

As for Han Zhuoli, he stretched his neck out and kept looking into the operating room.

When he saw that Lu Man was out, he immediately came over.

Lu Man held Han Zhuoli's hand and said, "Your words must have been effective. Those two youngsters did really well. I gave birth to them not long after I went into the delivery room. Even the doctor said that such a smooth delivery only happens at most once a year."

It hadn't even been more than 30 minutes since she entered the operating room.

"In addition, I didn't use much strength. So, I still have a lot of strength left, and I'm very much wide awake." Lu Man grinned as she said.

Although she hadn't slept for a night, she felt really energetic. Even if he asked her to sleep, she wouldn't be able to fall asleep.

Everyone then went back to the room together.

Thankfully, Lu Man's room was very big. Therefore, even with so many people present, it didn't feel crowded.

After Han Zhuoli was certain that Lu Man was doing fine and that the childbirth process wasn't difficult for her, he felt more at ease.

Knowing that the two kids had followed his orders, Han Zhuoli felt really happy.

He walked to Xia Qingwei and stared at his son, saying, "You two did a good job."

The little guy obeyed and did not fight with his sister.

The elder sister and the little brother came into this world without any difficulty.

Han Zhuoli thought that he should say some words of praise to his youngest son.

The little guy had yet to open his eyes. When he heard what Han Zhuoli said, his hand moved.

It was almost as though he was responding that he had heard Han Zhuoli.

Han Zhuoli then went to take a look at the elder sister.

The elder sister was sleeping comfortably in Old Mrs. Han's arms.

Han Zhuoli nodded and praised. "The elder sister is so mature."

Everyone: "..."

They were sleeping because they were just born. A baby this small would spend most of its time sleeping.

Xia Qingwei smiled and asked, "Have you thought of a name for them?"

"We have the names ready. Man Man and I came up with the names." Han Zhuoli said, "The character for their generation would be Lin. So, the elder sister will be named Han Linxun and the younger brother will be named Han Linzhe."

Han Zhuoli wrote down the names of his daughter and son.

"Oh. So they will be Little Linxun and Little Linzhe in the future," Old Mrs. Han said happily.

Initially, Han Zhuoli and Lu Man wanted the grandparents to name the kids.

However, the grandparents told them to name their own kids.

The grandparents knew that Han Zhuoli and Lu Man would definitely want to be the ones to name their own kids.

Even if they have to struggle to think of a good name for their child, it was a kind of happiness.

“What about a nickname? Did you think of a nickname?” Shen Nuo asked.

At t this moment, Xia Qingwei handed Little Linzhe over to Shen Nuo.

Shen Nuo was someone who really liked kids. Unfortunately, there were only two. Old Mrs. Han was holding one, and Xia Qingwei was holding the other.

She felt embarrassed to ask either one of them for a chance to hold the baby and could only watch from the side.

So, when Xia Qingwei handed her the baby, she quickly took the chance and held the baby.

The two babies were sound asleep.

Lu Man then said, “We were already struggling to think of a name for them, so we didn’t get a chance to come up with a nickname.”

In addition, considering the temper of these two babies, they didn’t know if the babies would like the fun nicknames they would have given them.

Lu Man wanted to give them the nicknames “Dada” and “Naonao” which meant fighting and quarreling.

However, Han Zhuoli said that if the two babies were given these nicknames, they might actually start quarreling and fighting.

And so, Lu Man gave up this idea.

And so, the two kids were not given a nickname.

However, it wasn’t that they must have a nickname.

Since Han Zhuoli and Lu Man couldn’t think of one, they decided to just call them Xunxun and Zhezhe.”

After a while, the nurse came in to get the babies to drink some milk from the mother.

And so, the others all left the room.

Han Zhuoli was the only one left to stay and help.

Shi Xiaoya looked at the two babies and felt really jealous.

She rubbed her belly and whispered to Han Zhuoling, “We should have a baby soon.”

Although she whispered, Lin Liye still heard her.

Lin Liye quickly pricked her ears at the side.

She had never urged them to have a kid because she didn’t want to stress Shi Xiaoya out.

However, she was honestly worried.

After all, Han Zhuoling was old.

But then, Han Zhuoling said, "There's no rush. We will talk about this after the wedding."

"If you get pregnant too early, it will be very difficult for you to attend a wedding with a pregnant belly, and the wedding dress won't look good on you."

Every bride wanted to look like a thin and beautiful princess while wearing their wedding dress.

"If you get pregnant when it's close to our wedding date, it will be too tiring for you during the wedding. It wouldn't be good if you hurt yourself because of that." Han Zhuoling said, "Therefore, to be safe, we will plan our pregnancy after the wedding."

Shi Xiaoya said this because Han Zhuoling insisted on using protective measures.

Shi Xiaoya wanted to be pregnant with his child.

After all, Han Zhuoling was old.

Both the mother-in-law and the daughter-in-law had thought of the same thing.

Han Zhuoling was the only one who thought he was young and healthy. He didn't think he was old at all.

Lin Liye then found out that it was Han Zhuoling who refused.

However, he was very considerate, and his reasoning made sense.

If they did it in a rush and got pregnant before the wedding, it would be problematic.

If something bad happened, then it would be too late for any regrets.

"Don't worry. The wedding is next month. It's really soon," Han Zhuoling whispered.

Shi Xiaoya held Han Zhuoling's arm and nodded obediently.

Lin Liye thought to herself. Why did her daughter-in-law just obey her son like that?

She was such an idiot!

Shi Xiaoya shouldn't be following Han Zhuoling's lead like that!

What if she got taken advantage of in the future?

When Lu Man was done feeding the babies in the room...

Everyone went back and looked at the two babies who had been fed and were sound asleep.

Chapter 3395: When Are You Joining?

They stayed up for an entire night.

They were excited but slightly tired.

Han Zhuoling still had to go to the office.

So, everyone left first.

Han Zhuoling went back home to get some sleep, even if it would be just a few hours of rest.

Shi Xiaoya drove, allowing Han Zhuoling to rest in the car.

Han Zhuoling was so tired recently, and Shi Xiaoya felt so bad for him.

She genuinely hoped that Han Zhuoli's maternity leave would end soon.

In the hospital room, Lu Man was tired as well.

She had given birth to the babies faster than others, but she still couldn't handle not sleeping for the entire night.

Before she slept, Lu Man was wondering if she had given birth to the kids so quickly because of the bracelet Xie Jiling had given her.

Her body was very well nurtured by the bracelet, even the childbirth process went smoothly.

Han Zhuoli held Lu Man to sleep. Before Lu Man fell asleep, she mumbled and told Han Zhuoli about this.

"We need to thank Xie Jiling." Lu Man mumbled and fell asleep.

Xie Jiling obviously knew that Lu Man had given birth.

However, Xie Jiling knew that many of Lu Man's relatives and friends would be visiting Lu Man in the hospital since Lu Man had just given birth.

The members of the eight great families would definitely be there during the first few days.

So, Xie Jiling didn't join them.

When Lu Man moved to Chu Tian Confinement Center, which was next to Chu Tian Hospital.

Lu Man's close friends and families had already visited, allowing Lu Man to finally get some rest.

Xie Jiling then came over.

The two babies laid in their cribs.

The cribs were next to Lu Man's bed. Lu Man could see them by just glancing up, so it was really convenient.

When Xie Jiling came over, she saw the tiny jade locks she had given them on the two babies' necks.

Lu Man told Xie Jiling that she had put the necklace on them immediately after delivery when they were cleaned and dressed.

Babies were easily frightened creatures. Lu Man was hoping that the two jade locks could help protect them.

The two babies were sound asleep.

When Xie Jiling came over, the two babies had just been fed.

The two would fall asleep after being fed, and they were rarely awake.

They wouldn't wake up even if there were visitors.

Previously, there were several groups from the eight great families who came to visit Lu Man.

Even when everyone surrounded the two babies and watched the two babies...

The two babies remained sound asleep without being stressed.

However, unexpected, when Xie Jiling walked to the crib and looked at them...

They suddenly opened their eyes for some reason.

They stared at Xie Jiling with their big eyes.

Logically speaking, newborn babies were unable to see people.

However, the two were staring at Xie Jiling as if they could see her.

Xie Jiling then laughed and said, "Sis, they are very in touch with the spirit."

"What?" Lu Man asked curiously.

"They can sense something different about me," Xie Jiling said, "Newborn babies are unable to see this, but they are able to sense the waves of my energy."

Lu Man was surprised and asked, "Could they be exorcists like you?"

"Not necessarily," Xie Jiling explained, "Because babies are more likely to see what ordinary people are unable to see. Therefore, it's easier for them to detect the waves of my energy than other ordinary people."

"As the babies grow older, their ability to see those waves of energy would disappear. Maybe when they grow older, they will not be able to sense the waves of my energy anymore. However, I can't say for sure," added Xie Jiling.

Xie Jiling played with the two babies and said, "The jade locks I gave them should be able to protect them from being affected by those things. Those things will not be able to get close to them. It will be like a protective layer that will block them out of the two babies' vision."

"This way, they will not be able to see those things and will not be frightened. When they grow older and cannot see those things anymore, it will be even better. The jade locks can protect them anyway," Xie Jiling said.

Lu Man smiled and said, "Do you want to hold them? Since they can sense your energy, would you like them to touch your aura as well?"

Lu Man made it sound as though the babies would be touching a godly aura coming from Xie Jiling. Hearing this, Xie Jiling blushed.

“They are too tiny. I don’t dare to hold them.” Xie Jiling had no experience holding a child.

The Xie Family was a big family, and there were many newborn babies.

However, Xie Jiling was usually busy with school and learning skills related to exorcism.

She had very limited time.

Whenever there were newborn babies in the family, she would visit with the elders.

With the elders present, she had obviously never gotten the chance to hold a baby.

After that, she had to continue studying.

Whenever she could rest, the baby had already grown up.

So, Xie Jiling had never held a baby this tiny.

And now, she didn’t dare to hold this baby even when Lu Man had given her the chance to do so.

The tiny baby looked too fragile. Their skin and bones were too soft.

Xie Jiling was worried that they would break with just a touch.

At this moment, the two babies had their eyes opened and were staring at her quietly.

For some reason, Lu Man thought that it was because these two babies couldn’t stretch their hands out.

If they could do that, they would have stretched their hands out and begged Xie Jiling to hold them.

Although the two babies had yet to learn to speak and showed no expressions on their faces....

Lu Man just thought that the two babies really fancied Xie Jiling.

It was as though they knew that Xie Jiling had protected them.

While the two babies were staring intensely at Xie Jiling, Xie Jiling shook her head and said, “I am not holding them. There are two. I can’t just hold one of them because that would be unfair.”

When Xie Jiling said this, Lu Man realized that she could sense happiness in the babies’ eyes, despite the fact that the two showed no expressions.

The babies seemed to be able to talk with their eyes.

Xie Jiling was surprised about this as well. Could the two babies be this well-behaved when they were so young?

Lu Man then told Xie Jiling about the story of the two in her belly.

Xie Jiling couldn’t help but say, “These two youngsters are not ordinary at all.”

When Xie Jiling was preparing to leave, Han Zhuofeng and Shi Xiaoya came over.

Han Zhuoling had been working. Since the wedding date was approaching, Shi Xiaoya stopped working. She was ready to join Han Zhuofeng's crew after the wedding.

As for the honeymoon, Han Zhuoling would be too busy to leave because Han Zhuoli would still be on maternity leave.

If Han Zhuoling requested a vacation leave and left, there would be no one left in the office.

Since they didn't have time for a honeymoon after the wedding as Han Zhuoling would be busy, Shi Xiaoya decided to just join the film crew.

Han Zhuofeng came in like a fiery breeze. He asked, "Second Sister-in-law, Eldest Sister-in-law will be joining the crew after the wedding. When are you joining us?"

"There's no rush. Can't I go when we have to film my scenes?" Lu Man said to Han Zhuofeng, "I still need to feed the baby. It wouldn't be convenient for me if I left too soon."

Chapter 3396: Preparation Finalized

"You are filming in B City, right? Can you just give me an early notice when we have to film my scenes? I will just film and come back here. I won't be staying on set." Lu Man started discussing with Han Zhuofeng.

The two babies were still really too young. They still had to be breastfed.

Lu Man intended to breastfeed the babies. If she would stay on set, she would not be able to feed the two babies milk. Moreover, her breast would engorge, and it would be really awkward.

Lu Man was not going to be the lead actress anyway. She had to participate in this filming to support Han Zhuofeng. In a situation like this, she could only do this to have a balanced schedule.

"Oh no. I forgot about this." Han Zhuofeng commented, feeling annoyed at himself. He quickly said to Lu Man, "I am sorry. That was careless of me. I forgot about this."

"You definitely can't stay on set." Han Zhuofeng nodded and said, "We will just do as you said. We won't film the scenes according to the order in the script. I will try to space out the dates for your scenes so that you won't get too tired."

"Alright." Lu Man happily agreed.

Xie Jiling was in the room. She minimized her presence while they were talking.

Han Zhuofeng had come in so quickly that Lu Man didn't even get the chance to introduce Xie Jiling.

Han Zhuofeng did not know Xie Jiling at all.

So, Lu Man quickly introduced, "I haven't introduced you. This is Xie Jiling. She is like a sister of mine. She is now studying at the University of B City."

As for Xie Jiling's identity as an exorcist, Lu Man did not mention that to Han Zhuofeng in the introduction.

She didn't know what Han Zhuofeng's opinion was regarding these things.

She didn't know if Han Zhuofeng would believe in these things or if Han Zhuofeng would think that exorcism was just a scam.

If Han Zhuofeng didn't believe in it and Lu Man had introduced Xie Jiling as an exorcist, Han Zhuofeng would then think that Xie Jiling was a liar. What if he would have a bad impression of Xie Jiling?

As such, Lu Man didn't say anything.

Moreover, very few people would believe and accept this unless they had personally experienced it.

"Hello. Hello," Han Zhuofeng quickly said to Xie Jiling, "My name is Han Zhuofeng, and I am the third son of the Han Family. I am older than you."

Xie Jiling didn't expect Han Zhuofeng to behave this way.

"I can tell," Xie Jiling said with a smile.

While Han Zhuofeng was talking to Lu Man, Xie Jiling had already guessed Han Zhuofeng's identity through their conversation.

When Xie Jiling saw that Lu Man's family was here, she said, "I have to go back to school. Sis, I will visit you when you are discharged."

"It's lunchtime. Why don't you stay and eat lunch together with me?" Lu Man quickly said, "The confinement center provides postpartum meals and normal meals as well. Since Zhuofeng and Xiaoya are here, let's eat lunch together."

Xie Jiling was a very lively person. She wouldn't feel embarrassed because she was in the midst of strangers.

"Yeah!" Shi Xiaoya said, "You can't leave because we are here!"

Shi Xiaoya had never met Xie Jiling before. However, there was something weird about the vibe and the feeling that someone would give you when you meet them for the first time.

This was especially true for girls.

Despite not knowing them at all, they could instinctively dislike someone just by meeting them.

There were some others whose vibe matched yours, and your first impression of them was positive despite the fact that you were unfamiliar with them.

Shi Xiaoya's interaction with Xie Jiling was obviously the latter.

"Alright then." Xie Jiling smiled and nodded.

Lu Man was staying in a suite at the confinement center.

There was a kitchen outside. However, a nutritionist at the confinement center was especially planning Lu Man's meal.

The kitchen was normally used by Auntie He to make food for Han Zhuoli.

When Auntie He heard that Shi Xiaoya and the others were staying, she immediately went to prepare food in the kitchen.

She only prepared groceries for Han Zhuoli alone, so now, there weren't enough groceries.

As such, Auntie He quickly ordered some vegetables from the restaurant in the confinement center.

Although Lu Man couldn't eat with them, she sat beside them and ate her postpartum meals.

"By the way, have you finalized the preparations for the film production?" Lu Man asked.

"The money that my two elder brothers, grandparents, second aunt, and mom gave me really helped," When Han Zhuofeng said with so much energy.

"Initially, I didn't have money to buy a high-quality setup. But I was able to make the purchase, and we will be filming with this IMAX 3D equipment so that we don't have to convert it to a 3D model later on. This can upgrade the CGI in our film to the highest quality."

"After the Spring Festival, I contacted Brother Xiao Cai and studied the CGI and VFX in the original film with another designer. We designed a few versions of the future technology. Brother Xiao Cai then discussed with his team the possibility of making an exact copy of these future technology designs in the film. And now, we have confirmed the production of at least eighty percent of the future technology designs and the VFX team is now making 3D models of those."

"We contacted the film site, and we will be using the studio previously used by Director Wu. Most of the scenes will be filmed indoors. They are assembling the indoor settings and setting up the studio. As for the scenes filmed outside, I plan to shoot the scene at the chosen location if possible. If they are post-disaster scenes, which are impossible to film outside, we will do it with VFX and CGI."

"Brother Xiao Cai told me that his company has technical skills on par with the technical skills of the four biggest VFX companies in the world. Even if the scenes were filmed and made through special effects, they will look very believable." However, it would cost more to do this than to film at the actual location.

The production teams that chose to film indoors to save money were using extremely cheap special effects.

Obviously, cheap special effects would be cheaper than filming the scene at the location itself.

After all, to film a scene at the chosen location, you would need to discuss it with the local authorities and compensate the local residents.

You would need to pay for the entire team's travel expenses.

As such, the cheap-looking special effects would be much cheaper than filming at the chosen location.

However, if the director wanted the result to look as real as possible like what Wei Wucai had made... If the director wanted the viewers to think that the film was shot at the chosen location...

That would cost much more.

However, Han Zhuofeng was not scared at all since he had the money.

He could save up money by cutting the cost of hiring actors. He could hire skilled actors and actresses who wouldn't be too expensive.

He could hire one or two that would help boost the popularity of this movie.

This way, he would be able to save a lot of money.

The money saved could then be used for the production of good special effects.

"Many of our models were made at a ratio of 1 to 1. When they make the special effects, the result will look more realistic," Han Zhuofeng said, "To be honest, I did some calculations, and the fees for the cast members turned out to be not that expensive, especially considering that you and Zhiqing gave me a huge discount. The majority of the budget was used on those things instead."

"If the result turns out good, the money was well spent," Lu Man said.

She didn't say anything else.

The VFX of a movie was very important.

However, the storytelling skill of a director was equally important.

There were too many movies with good special effects. However, people were no longer satisfied with just watching the special effects in a movie.

Chapter 3397: The Wedding

Speaking of computer-generated effects, weren't there plenty of Hollywood blockbusters using them?

The audience wanted to see such films with good stories.

At the least, they wanted films with smooth CGI, good pacing, and the ability to convey a clear storyline.

Now, there were many special effects blockbuster movies. Most of them had an adequate level of CGI, but the storytelling was so poor the plot didn't make sense.

If the storytelling were done well, Han Zhuofeng's film would be set.

However, Lu Man didn't talk much about these.

Moreover, Han Zhuofeng did his studies specializing in directing, and he accompanied many famous directors and meticulously studied directing from them. It was impossible that he didn't know about these things.

Since Han Zhuofeng was a specialist, Lu Man wouldn't pointlessly give advice.

"We will begin filming officially next month. When the time comes, we'll let the cast members with availability in their schedules enter the set and film first," Han Zhuofeng said. "But before we begin filming, we need to make an offering."

Lu Man was surprised. "You believe in this sort of thing?"

She thought that Han Zhuofeng, an energetic youth from the modern age of science and technology, wouldn't believe in these sorts of things.

"I don't really believe in it, but it's a tradition, so I think we should respect it," Han Zhuofeng said while scratching his head.

This tradition of conducting a ceremony to give offerings to the deities before starting the filming...

It was to pray for the success of the film.

For some reason, many rumors of supernatural encounters always emerged from film sets.

Although Han Zhuofeng had any supernatural encounters, there were ample legends about this kind of thing in the entertainment industry.

So, the ceremony was also to pray for the protection of the deities in hope that they would not encounter anything supernatural.

Simultaneously, they were letting the local ghosts know that the crew would be disturbing them for a while, but they would leave after filming.

It was to ask the ghosts not to meet the crew in person if their area was disturbed and to please excuse them.

Additionally, they would pray that there wouldn't be any accidents during the filming process which may result in injuries or even death.

Han Zhuofeng didn't know if praying like this would even work.

However, since even the more senior big-named directors often did it, he would do the same.

Otherwise, it would leave the cast and crew uneasy.

"It is indeed better to respect it," Lu Man said with a nod. She had personally experienced supernatural encounters in the past, so she didn't display the same skepticism as Han Zhuofeng.

"Moreover, it would be best if you're more sincere about it. Regardless of whether you believe in it or not, it's always good to be more sincere," Lu Man advised.

Han Zhuofeng said with a surprised smile, "Second Sister-in-law, I didn't think you believed in this sort of thing."

Lu Man didn't know how to explain it to him.

Should she say that she had encountered a ghost before?

Or should she mention how she was almost harmed by Lu Qi in the past?

She hadn't actually seen Lu Qi's ghost.

However, she believed Xie Jiling's words with absolute certainty.

"That's right. I believe in it. So, every time before filming, I will always pray sincerely," Lu Man said.

"However, if anything strange really happens on the set, you'd better not keep it a secret from me."

"Don't worry. Even if there truly is such a thing, I can't be so unlucky as to encounter one, right?" Han Zhuofeng still wasn't taking it seriously. "Furthermore, I've been on so many sets, and so have all of you. We have honestly never encountered anything supernatural."

"That's true." Shi Xiaoya nodded.

However, she treated this matter with more seriousness than Han Zhuofeng, who didn't think anything of it.

She had never encountered anything supernatural before, but she still believed they existed.

It wasn't to the extent of believing in ghosts and demons.

But Shi Xiaoya very much believed in supernatural happenings.

However, even Lu Man felt that Han Zhuofeng wouldn't be so unlucky that he would encounter something supernatural just when he had just become a director, especially after all this time without such encounters.

The probability of it happening was really low.

So, Lu Man didn't say much more about it.

Right when Xie Jiling was thinking that she didn't have a courtesy gift to give to them despite meeting them the first time, she heard what Han Zhuofeng said.

From what she heard, Han Zhuofeng didn't seem to believe in these sorts of things.

However, Xie Jiling still took out two protective talismans and gifted them to Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuofeng.

She didn't have the kind of protective bracelet Lu Man was wearing on hand.

That bracelet was truly very effective.

If the wearer encountered something supernatural, the bracelet could neutralize any damage many times.

The protective talismans, on the other hand, didn't have the same level of effectiveness and could only do it once.

“This is a protective talisman. Take it,” Xie Jiling said.

Han Zhuofeng and Shi Xiaoya didn’t react when they saw Xie Jiling hand over the talismans. Before they even realized what they were doing...

They had already accepted them.

When they finally realized what had happened, they were already holding the talismans.

“Although you might not really believe in this,” Xie Jiling told Han Zhuofeng, “You should still hold on to it. After all, a talisman won’t take up much space. However, it will be best if you hang it close to your skin and leave it there.”

“If you put it in your pocket, you’ll very likely forget about it when you change clothes instead of keeping it with you. Then when your clothes get washed, the talisman will get wet, and it’ll become useless,” Xie Jiling exhorted. “So, always keep it on you. Even if you don’t believe in it, it won’t be too much of a hassle to keep it with you, right?”

“Yes, many thanks.” Han Zhuofeng hung it on his neck in front of Xie Jiling.

He didn’t believe in it, but he would cherish it since Xie Jiling gave it to him with good intentions.

Xie Jiling thought it was very good when she saw Han Zhuofeng cherish it despite his disbelief.

It was indeed very difficult to believe without experiencing it yourself.

There were people who would speak sarcastically and mock you because they didn’t believe in those things themselves. Those people would think you were talking nonsense, so they would ridicule you.

Xie Jiling felt that it was fine if you didn’t believe, but you should at least respect those who did.

Although Xie Jiling had long since gotten used to getting such negative reactions from people...

She was still really happy to see Han Zhuofeng’s respectful response.

So, Xie Jiling added a little more, “This talisman is a single-use. It can only block one attack.

“If you find that this talisman is missing even one corner, you absolutely have to tell me.”

A missing corner meant the resentful spirit was not strong enough or that its attacks weren’t powerful enough.

It could also be that its body wasn’t strong or that it was just experimenting.

Regardless, if a resentful spirit could use an attack strong enough for a human to notice...

It meant that person was in danger.

So, Xie Jiling gave yet another warning.

“Okay.” Han Zhuofeng nodded, agreeing to do what Xie Jiling said.

Yet, he didn’t ask for a method to contact Xie Jiling.

It was clear that he didn’t really take the matter to heart.

Xie Jiling didn't mind it either.

In any case, if something truly happened, Han Zhuofeng would be able to contact her through Lu Man.

Shi Xiaoya carefully kept away the talisman. Even though she felt like she wouldn't encounter anything supernatural, she still felt safer carrying the talisman with her.

***

In the blink of an eye, it was already time for Shi Xiaoya's wedding.

Fortunately, Lu Man was already done with the traditional Chinese one-month confinement following childbirth.

Han Zhuoling grabbed the three unmarried men, Han Zhuofeng, Zhao Gushen, and Wei Wucai, to be his best man and groomsmen.

Meanwhile, Shi Xiaoya sought out Yan Zhiqing, Guo Yujie, and Xie Jiling.

Xie Jiling did not expect that Shi Xiaoya would actually ask her to come.

Actually, it was because the number of unmarried women Shi Xiaoya was close to was getting smaller and smaller.

It was unnecessary to mention Lu Man.

Fortunately, Yan Zhiqing was still unmarried for now.

Shi Xiaoya was very glad that she was doing her wedding early.

If it were a bit later, Yan Zhiqing would have gotten married already.

Chapter 3398: Excitement

She even called invited Guo Yujie.

She counted the people and realized that she still needed one more.

So, she remembered Xie Jiling whom she had met once.

She asked Lu Man for Xie Jiling's contact information and invited Xie Jiling.

Xie Jiling didn't expect Shi Xiaoya to invite her, but she thought it was fine.

If something happened at the wedding, they wouldn't have to worry if she was present.

The two kids kept Lu Man and Han Zhuoli busy to help with the wedding.

So, they just attended the wedding as guests.

They were already seated at the table for family members.

The grandparents, Wang Juhuai, and Xia Qingwei were all seated at this table.

Lin Liye and Han Dongping were at the door welcoming guests.

Han Xijin and Shen Nuo didn't have to welcome people.

As such, the grandparents, Han Xijin, Shen Nuo, Wang Juhuai, and Xia Qingwei all took their seats really early.

They surrounded the two babies.

Lu Man handed both of her kids over to them.

She felt happy to be free.

Unfortunately, there were only two. If there were three, each of them would have been able to hold one.

However, this time, Shen Nuo and Xia Qingwei were the ones holding the babies. Old Mrs. Han couldn't hold one.

It wasn't because grandma didn't want to hold the baby. Old Mrs. Han was simply too busy getting the grandmas from other families to come and take a look at their two beautiful and smart babies.

And so, Old Mrs. Han couldn't bother to hold the two babies.

She saw Old Mrs. Wei and Old Mrs. Yan approaching.

Old Mrs. Han immediately welcomed them.

"Are you two soon-to-be in-laws becoming really close friends?" Old Mrs. Han chuckled and asked.

Ever since Yan Zhiqing and Wei Wucai started dating...

Old Mrs. Yan and Old Mrs. Wei had become really good friends.

They often caught up with each other every day.

No one knew the progress of Yan Zhiqing and Wei Wucai's relationship.

However, Old Mrs. Yan and Old Mrs. Wei were very obviously getting closer and closer to each other.

Old Mrs. Yan grinned as she said, "People say that single girls shouldn't be bridesmaids too many times. But thankfully, Zhiqing and Xiao Cai have already gotten together. So, I am not worried."

Old Mrs. Wei was much more worried than Old Mrs. Yan.

Yan Zhiqing was young, but Wei Wucai was not young anymore!

"Looking at Zhuoling and Xiaoya's wedding, I feel so jealous. We should start preparing soon, right?" Old Mrs. Wei asked in a tentative manner.

Old Mrs. Yan was very cunning.

When she heard this question from Old Mrs. Wei, she immediately tossed the blame back to Wei Wucai as she answered, "I want that, but Xiao Cai hasn't proposed yet. Wouldn't it be too early to start preparing?"

When Old Mrs. Wei heard this, she made sure to remember to go back and urge Wei Wucai to propose.

It was a pity that Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing, being the groomsman and the bridesmaid, were absent. They didn't even know that their grandmas were already plotting to start preparing for their wedding.

"They have to get married soon!" Old Mrs. Han realized that she didn't even have the chance to join this conversation.

It was fine if there was no chance for her to join, she could create the opportunity herself anyway.

Old Mrs. Han was really smart. She started by talking about the wedding. "They should get married soon and have a chubby and fair baby!"

Old Mrs. Han didn't wait for Old Mrs. Wei and Old Mrs. Yan's response. She held their hands and dragged them toward the table set up for the members of the Han Family. "Come. Let me show you the new members of our family! The two babies. They are chubby, soft, and cute."

"Man Man was pregnant with twins. It had been really difficult for her. Thankfully, the kids did a good job. They felt bad for their mother and came out really quickly. The delivery was only about half an hour."

It was normally rare to give birth to one kid so quickly, not to mention twins.

At the same time when Old Mrs. Han said that, they arrived at the table.

Lu Man heard what Old Mrs. Han said.

The corner of Lu Man's eyes twitched uncontrollably.

The babies didn't know to care for her.

It was because Han Zhuoli had successfully threatened the babies.

However, Old Mrs. Yan and Old Mrs. Wei believed what Old Mrs. Han said.

Old Mrs. Yan then said, "Man Man is so lucky. I hope it will be this easy for Zhiqing as well. Childbirth is such a difficult and painful process, but every mother has to go through this."

Old Mrs. Wei nodded and said, "Yes. It can't be helped. If not, I would have asked Xiao Cai to deliver the child for Zhiqing."

Old Mrs. Han thought to herself. "Wei Wucai hasn't even proposed yet, and you two are already talking about preparing for a wedding."

"But you two started talking about them having kids after walking only a few steps."

What about the wedding?

These two grandmas were a little impatient.

However, Old Mrs. Han thought that they must have said this because they felt jealous after seeing the Han Family's soft and chubby babies.

And so, they couldn't even bother to discuss wedding arrangements. Instead, they started talking about Wei Wucai and Yan Zhiqing having a baby.

Old Mrs. Han said, "Zhuoling and Xiaoya have been using contraception because Zhuoling was worried about the wedding. If Xiaoya got pregnant, she would be too exhausted on the wedding day. If an accident happened by then, it wouldn't be good."

"So, Zhuoling and Xiaoya decided to start preparing for pregnancy after the wedding." Old Mrs. Han started counting with her fingers and said, "It depends on luck to get twins. You can't get pregnant with twins just because you wanted to, right?"

"I have it all planned out. If Xiaoya isn't pregnant with twins..."

Old Mrs. Wei and Old Mrs. Yan listening at the side couldn't help but secretly complain.

What do you mean by what if?

Was it that easy to have twins?

It was already a pleasant surprise for Lu Man to be pregnant with twins.

if Shi Xiaoya got pregnant with twins as well, what kind of Fengshui did the Han Family have?

After all, the Han Family didn't have the genes for twins.

Yet, Old Mrs. Han was dreaming of both her granddaughters-in-law having twins.

That was quite greedy!

The two grandmas secretly complained. They then heard Old Mrs. Han say, "It's fine if it's just one. We have many kids in the house anyway. Each of us will be able to hold a child. Hehehehe..."

Old Mrs. Yan was speechless.

Old Mrs. Wei didn't know what to say.

Initially, Old Mrs. Wei thought that despite the fact that Wei Zhiqian was still single...

Wei Wucai was no longer single.

Therefore, even though she had to face Old Mrs. Han, she wouldn't be scared.

However, Old Mrs. Wei realized that she had been too naive.

Old Mrs. Han's tactics had evolved!

"Aiyo! Old Mrs. Zhao is here!" When Old Mrs. Wei saw Old Mrs. Zhao approaching, she felt like she saw her savior. Immediately, she pointed it out to Old Mrs. Han.

Old Mrs. Zhao had it worse than her.

At least, her grandson Wei Wucai was no longer single.

However, none of Old Mrs. Zhao's grandchildren had gotten out of that single life yet. It was truly a tragedy.

Obviously, Old Mrs. Zhao would experience more emotional damage.

As such, Old Mrs. Han saw her, she immediately waved at Old Mrs. Zhao and called her over.

Chapter 3399: This is My Baby

"Come take a look at my chubby grandson and chubby granddaughter." Old Mrs. Han quickly said.

Han Linxun, who wanted to chew on her fingers, suddenly stopped moving.

Who was her chubby granddaughter?!

She might look chubby, but she was really skinny!

Old Mrs. Zhao, Old Mrs. Wei, and Old Mrs. Yan gathered around the two babies. They loved them so much.

Old Mrs. Zhao even wanted to hold the baby. She was really envious.

While Old Mrs. Zhao was envious, she heard Old Mrs. Han say, "If you like kids, you should get Xiao Shen to give you a grandchild soon."

Old Mrs. Zhao was speechless.

Old Mrs. Zhao wanted Zhao Gushen to give her a grandchild as soon as possible.

However, just because she wanted it didn't mean Zhao Gushen would be able to give her one.

This was not something she could decide on.

Of course, this was not something that Zhao Gushen alone could decide as well.

Even if Zhao Gushen wanted a child, he would need someone to birth a child with him.

That damned kid was still single. Who could he birth a child with?!

Old Mrs. Zhao felt depressed thinking about it.

"It's alright. It's alright. You will get one." After the bragging, Old Mrs. Han started comforting Old Mrs. Zhao.

"Xiao Shen is so good-looking. How could he not find a girlfriend? Look at Zhaoyang. He doesn't even talk, but he has a wife and child now."

"Back then, we had no faith in Zhaoyang. We thought he would be the last one of the group to get out of that single life. But then, he found his significant other quicker than Zhuoli and Qian Zi!"

Old Mrs. Han said, "Think about it. Even Zhaoyang, whom they thought would struggle to find someone, managed to lose his status as a single man; how hard could it be for Xiao Shen?"

As Old Mrs. Han uttered these comforting words to Old Mrs. Zhao, Old Mrs. Chu happened to hear the conversation.

Old Mrs. Chu felt speechless.

Had his grandson just become an example people used when comforting someone?

She saw that no one was seated at their table. She looked around and saw that all her friends had gathered around this table.

She then walked over.

But then, the moment she arrived, she heard that Chu Zhaoyang was being used as an example to comfort someone.

Sure.

Old Mrs. Han wasn't wrong.

Chu Zhaoyang had been difficult.

But even the difficult one got married and became a dad.

And so, Old Mrs. Chu felt really proud as she straightened her back.

"What's going on? Are you talking about Xiao Shen?" Old Mrs. Chu walked over and asked.

"Yes. Yes. We are just waiting for Xiao Shen to have a chubby son," Old Mrs. Han said.

Before Old Mrs. Zhao and Old Mrs. Chu could say anything, Old Mrs. Han said, "Since we are talking about a chubby kid, you should come and take a look at Xiao Xun and Xiao Zhe."

"When they were born, they were chubby with very clear skin. They're so good." Old Mrs. Han immediately changed the topic back to her two grandchildren.

"I don't know how they grew to look like that. Usually, newborn babies have a slightly yellow skin tone. This yellow skin tone would fade slowly, and their skin would become clearer. However, when these two babies were born, their skin tone looked clear with no hyperpigmentation nor moles on their bodies."

The grandmas thought to themselves. To Old Mrs. Han, her grandchildren clearly looked perfect.

How would the youngsters of today describe this?

Yes! Her eyes had a filter for the babies.

However, when the grandmas saw the two kids...

They were shocked because the two kids did look really clean.

They couldn't see the babies' abdominal areas and limbs. However, they couldn't see any flaws in the areas that weren't covered, such as their tiny faces and hands.

“Beautiful.” Old Mrs. Yan happily teased Han Linxun.

Old Mrs. Chu took a look at Han Linzhe.

At this moment, the two showed a lot of respect to the elders. They didn’t sleep, and they were staring at them with their eyes wide open.

The two babies couldn’t actually see anything as their range of vision was limited.

However, as they stared at people with their big and round eyes, it felt as though they could actually see.

The grandmas were all really happy.

Although Old Mrs. Chu and Old Mrs. Yan had babies in their own families as well, they didn’t mind there being more babies.

And the babies in their families were already growing up.

When babies grew up and knew how to crawl and walk, they would start being naughty.

They would still be cute by then, but they wouldn’t be so cute anymore when they became naughty.

Newborn babies would spend most of their time sleeping, and this would be the time when they would be the cutest.

Old Mrs. Qi came over at this time.

She just so happened to have missed out on Old Mrs. Han’s bragging.

Of course, Old Mrs. Qi had specially calculated the time.

Based on Old Mrs. Qi’s understanding of Old Mrs. Han, Old Mrs. Qi knew that Old Mrs. Han would start bragging crazily when all her old friends arrived, and she would give them all emotional damage, especially those without chubby babies or those with grandsons who had yet to lose that single status.

So, Old Mrs. Qi didn’t rush in here when she arrived. She specially went to the washroom to tidy herself up.

Old Mrs. Qi waited for about twenty minutes and guessed that Old Mrs. Han should be done with her bragging.

No matter what, could she spend a whole hour bragging?

Twenty minutes should be enough for Old Mrs. Han’s bragging.

And so, Old Mrs. Qi came by.

As expected, Old Mrs. Han had just finished bragging.

Old Mrs. Qi greeted everyone and came to look at the two babies.

All the grandmas here cherished girls more than boys.

When a baby boy in the house grew older, he would become too naughty. He wouldn't be as quiet and cute as a baby girl.

The baby girl in the house would quietly play with her dolls on the carpet and braid the doll's hair.

The girl would then dress the doll in the clothes they like.

They wouldn't run and jump around like boys.

When the boys could finally crawl, you had to be careful.

It was all because in the blink of an eye, they could crawl anywhere.

"Xiao Xun is such a good girl. Let me hold her." Old Mrs. Qi said.

However, before Old Mrs. Qi could even stretch her hands out, Old Mrs. Han rejected her. "This is my baby. Hold your own baby."

Old Mrs. Qi was speechless.

Did Old Mrs. Han think that she was superior because she has a newborn baby?!

When she went home, she would ask Qi Chengzhi and Song Yu to give her another baby!

The grandmas joked and had fun with each other. Soon, the wedding started.

Everyone had to go back to their seats.

They went back to their tables and chatted with each other.

They didn't wait long before the music started playing.

Shi Xiaoya held Shi Guanzhong's arm and slowly stepped into the hall.

Shi Xiaoya was wearing a tube top wedding dress. The veil attached to the dress stretched all the way to the floor.

Her shoulders looked skinny and square, accentuating her slender neck.

Shi Xiaoya's posture was really good as well. Her back was very straight, and her neck was like that of a swan. When she walked, she looked beautiful and elegant.

Because Shi Xiaoya had already registered her marriage legally with Han Zhuoling...

Therefore, Shi Guanzhong didn't feel as sad similar to the fathers of other brides.

After all, he had been prepared for this day for a long time.

Shi Guanzhong was already used to Shi Xiaoya's identity as someone's wife.

Han Zhuoling had been using contraception because he thought the wedding might make Shi Xiaoya really tired.

Otherwise, Shi Xiaoya would have already had a child by now.

Therefore, Shi Guanzhong was grinning from ear to ear as he walked. He didn't look sad at all. He stepped in front of Han Zhuoling and quickly placed Shi Xiaoya's hand on Han Zhuoling's hand.

Chapter 3400: Start of the Film Shooting

The fathers of other brides would instruct the groom to take care of their daughters and not make their daughters suffer.

I showered my daughter with love, and she should not suffer at your hands.

I never dared to let her suffer. How dare you?

Such words were never uttered by Shi Guanzhong.

He never needed to say those words.

Shi Xiaoya had never suffered since she got together with Han Zhuoling.

Not to mention that Han Zhuoling adored her so much and showered her with so much love after they had gotten married.

Han Zhuoling supported whatever Shi Xiaoya wanted to do.

Even if Shi Xiaoya had to be away from home few months due to work, Han Zhuoling supported her without any second thoughts.

When Shi Xiaoya had to be on set, Han Zhuoling would go with her and stay on set as well.

Even if he would be more exhausted, he still wanted to stay with Shi Xiaoya.

They absolutely weren't experiencing the situation of feelings fading due to the couple being distant.

Even if they might have to be apart because of work, Shi Xiaoya never worried about Han Zhuoling doing anything wrong.

After Shi Xiaoya had gotten married, she still had a career and her life was the same as before she had gotten married.

The biggest difference was that there was another person in her life that showered her with love.

If Han Zhuoling hadn't aced this, who else could have done it better than him?

In Shi Guanzhong's opinion, it would be wrong of him to still have complaints when Han Zhuoling loved her daughter that much.

Action spoke louder than words, after all.

A long time before the wedding, Han Zhuoling was already very convincing.

Therefore, Shi Guanzhong didn't hesitate at all.

He gave Han Zhuoling a pat on the shoulder and went back to take his seat with a big grin on his face.

In Han Zhuoling's opinion, his marriage with Shi Xiaoya was only completed after the wedding.

The members of the Han Family felt really emotional as they watched Han Zhuoling and Shi Xiaoya on the stage.

Who would have expected the workaholic and listless eldest son of the Han Family to find someone he loved?

In the past, they thought that Han Zhuoling would end up living a mundane life like Xia Yixin.

There wouldn't be love. He would just have a companion.

But what is the point of a marriage like that?

If Han Zhuoling had never actually fallen in love before and had never experienced a real relationship...

Wouldn't his life be so sad?

Whenever Lin Liye thought about this, she felt bad for her eldest son.

However, she didn't expect that her son would come to meet the love of his life.

And build a family with love.

As Lin Liye thought about this, she had no more worries.

Even if she died now, she would have no regrets.

Although Han Zhuoling was the eldest son and was the most mature and reliable...

She was worried about Han Zhuoling the most.

Lin Liye wasn't worried about Han Zhuofeng.

Han Zhuofeng was energetic and carefree. He loved messing around, and he knew how to say the sweetest things.

Han Zhuofeng would never let himself suffer.

However, Han Zhuoling was different.

He was too cold to himself.

Han Zhuoling had finally met someone he liked and whom he desired to share a life with.

With Shi Xiaoya around, Han Zhuoling would never be lonely.

Lin Liye felt at ease because of this.

It was already time for the groom to kiss the bride on the stage.

Because they had gotten their marriage certificate early, Shi Xiaoya felt as though they were an old couple.

But now, it felt as though they were still head over heels in love, at the honeymoon phase.

When Han Zhuoling kissed her, Shi Xiaoya felt her heart race.

It felt as though today was her first day of marriage to Han Zhuoling.

Han Zhuoling let her lips go. However, he still lowered his head and touched her forehead with his forehead.

Shi Xiaoya held his face and whispered, "I will be beside you for the rest of your life."

"Deal." Han Zhuoling's arms tightened around Shi Xiaoya's waist.

Han Zhuoling thought to himself. It was true that Shi Xiaoya could keep him company for the rest of his life.

He was much older than her.

Women generally lived longer lives than men.

In the future, he would be the first one to pass away.

Shi Xiaoya could actually stay with him for the rest of his life.

However, because of how deep the love was, the one who left this world first would be considered the fortunate one.

This was because the person who would have to remain on earth would have to live the rest of their life in loneliness, thinking about the one they loved.

Even sons and daughters would not be able to replace the significant other.

You could say he was selfish, but he simply loved Shi Xiaoya so much that he didn't want her to marry someone else.

Even if he knew that it would be better if another person would take care of her when he died...

He still couldn't accept it.

He didn't want Shi Xiaoya to call someone else her husband or live with someone else.

Not to mention do even more intimate things with someone else.

Even if Shi Xiaoya would be old by then and would not be able to do anything...

But even sleeping on the same bed, having conflicts about minor things, or nagging each other...

These were all ways of showing love and happiness.

As Han Zhuoling thought about this, he felt angry and jealous.

He definitely didn't want Shi Xiaoya to do those with someone else.

And so, Han Zhuoling decided that he would live as long as he could.

He would live until Shi Xiaoya was seventy or eighty years old.

This way, Shi Xiaoya wouldn't have the energy to remarry.

Shi Xiaoya had no idea that Han Zhuoling was plotting this during such an emotional moment.

However, even if she knew, she wouldn't feel mad. Instead, she would feel happy.

Because she had no intention of marrying someone else.

Even if Han Zhuoling were gone, Shi Xiaoya would hold on to the title of Mrs. Han and never let it go.

***

Because Shi Xiaoya and Han Zhuoling had already gotten their marriage certificate, their lives went back to normal after the wedding ended.

Because Han Zhuoli was on paternity leave, the two had no time for a honeymoon.

Half a month after the wedding ended, Shi Xiaoya joined Han Zhuofeng's film crew.

Thankfully, the set was in B City.

The work that Han Zhuoling had taken over for Han Zhuoli was back on track and Han Zhuoling was no longer as busy as he had been when he first took over.

In addition, Han Zhuoling was very capable.

Therefore, even if the workload was heavy, Han Zhuoling was able to sort it out and keep a balanced schedule.

Of course, that was because Han Zhuoling was actively trying to increase his work efficiency.

Because Shi Xiaoya was on set, Han Zhuoling decided to be on set with Shi Xiaoya like how he had when Shi Xiaoya was helping with the production of the movie Left Right.

The day Shi Xiaoya went on set was the day they started filming.

On this day, the film crew and cast would have to go through a start of a film shooting ceremony to beg the gods that the filming would progress smoothly.

This was not Han Zhuofeng's first time doing this. He was very familiar with the procedures.

In addition, he didn't have to prepare anything for this ceremony.

The film crew members prepared everything. Han Zhuofeng just needed to follow through with the steps of the ceremony.

Since Shi Xiaoya had already arrived, she participated the start of a film shooting ceremony with the other production crew members.

Han Zhuofeng stood in the center at the front. With a few main cast members, he took the incense sticks and bowed three times.

Then, he placed the incense stick on the incense burner.

But then, a few of the incense sticks that were burning suddenly extinguished.

Han Zhuofeng noticed that one of the three incense sticks he had lit was extinguished.
