Chapter 341: There're Still... Still Matters to Attend To

"No wonder you're the leader, you make sense!"

When they arrived at the elevator, Lu Man looked apologetic. Yet before she could even speak, Han Zhuoli said, "No need to feel apologetic, just deal with the matter first. I'll order a meal, you can give Mom a call, let her know that we can't head back for dinner today."

"Alright," Lu Man smiled. Taking advantage that the elevator had yet to come, she stood on her tip-toes and kissed Han Zhuoli on the lips.

This man knew exactly what she was thinking even before she said anything.

How could they have so much chemistry!

It must be because he understood her exceptionally well and cared for her.

Han Zhuoli was just so thoughtful and considerate towards her.

At that moment, Han Zhuoli's gaze changed and his pupils darkened.

Lu Man felt nervous for a moment. Just as she thought that Han Zhuoli was going to press her against the wall, the elevator door opened with a "ding".

Lu Man let out a sigh of relief and hurriedly slipped into the elevator.

Seeing that, Han Zhuoli had a mischievous smile on his face.

When dealing with other people, she was extremely intelligent, yet right now she was acting so dumb.

What was the point of running into the elevator?

Wasn't it even harder to escape from him in the closed confined area of the elevator?

Han Zhuoli strode into the elevator. His heated gaze fell onto Lu Man's face as his finger pressed the close button behind him.

Lu Man choked for a moment and subconsciously curled up into a corner of the elevator.

Coincidentally or not, the corner that she had curled into was precisely the blind spot of the surveillance camera.

Han Zhuoli laughed gently as he walked over and trapped her in the corner of the elevator.

Lu Man's slim figure was squeezed in. Without another word, Han Zhuoli kissed her, the trace of happiness, mischief still in his eyes.

Lu Man didn't even realize when the elevator reached the top floor. She was directly carried by Han Zhuoli out of the elevator and straight into the office.

Suddenly, Lu Man's back hit the sofa. She was already quite breathless from being kissed so intensely by him.

Thankfully, Han Zhuoli still remembered that they still had matters to attend to and released Lu Man.

Lu Man's cheeks were flushed a light pink. She took in deep breaths, trying to catch her breath. But she couldn't recover anytime soon.

Han Zhuoli was rather annoyed that they had work to do. Otherwise, right now, he would have been embracing her tightly in his arms and kissing her senseless.

Even so, he just couldn't hold back and pecked her lightly on the lips another two more times.

His eyes caught the fair skin at her earlobe gleaming beneath the light layer of powder. It was like a glowing piece of soft white jade and even carried a light fragrant scent to it.

He swallowed hard and his hot breath blew onto her earlobe.

Nervous, Lu Man almost closed her eyes and her long and curly lashes fluttering lightly.

When Han Zhuoli's hot yet soft and moist lips touched her ear lobe, Lu Man trembled violently. A soft moan uncontrollably escaped from her mouth.

Han Zhuoli's breath hitched. His hands subconsciously wrapped around her waist tightly. Turning his head slightly, he kissed her earlobe sensuously.

His lips felt her soft earlobe, they trembled greatly. Even he didn't know what he was so nervous about.

The scent on her earlobe was sweet like candy. Han Zhuoli couldn't resist and sucked it entirely into his mouth.

Lu Man whined softly and pushed him. "There're still... still matters to attend to."

Han Zhuoli harshly took in a deep breath, sucking a belly full of her fragrant scent.

Although yearning for more, he still released her, only to see that Lu Man's ear was flushed red completely.

Yet clearly, he had only touched her ear lobe.

Looking at her like this, Han Zhuoli smiled a little out of pride.

Well, this little girl did have quite the reaction to him!

Lu Man's eyelashes fluttered as she peeked at him, her pearly eyes glistening and shining brightly.

This alluring look of hers almost made Han Zhuoli lose all his self-control and he hurriedly took a couple of rushed steps back.

He saw that Lu Man right now wasn't calm at all either. This woman who had always been so calm and composed was dumb right now too; she couldn't think of anything.

Chapter 342: A Slap in the Face

Hence, Han Zhuoli couldn't help but smile a little. He took his phone out and gave Xia Qingwei a call first.

"You won't be coming back for dinner?" Xia Qingwei had seen the news online too and was worried now. She had even thought of asking them more about it once they came back.

"You saw the news online too?"

"Yes, I was just thinking about asking you two about it," Xia Qingwei said frankly.

"Don't worry, we are dealing with this problem right now. An ex-fan of Yu XingZhou stood up for Lu Man and spoke for her, but is currently being attacked online by other fans. Lu Man didn't want this little child to get hurt, so right now we are dealing with this urgently. It won't take too long. We'll eat at the company first," Han Zhuoli explained briefly.

"Sure sure, I won't bother you two anymore then. Hurry along with your work."

After hanging up the phone, Han Zhuoli ordered for delivery.

By that time, Lu Man had calmed down too. She took two deep breaths, reorganized her train of thought, and started to contact a couple of independent media companies with whom she had a rather good relationship.

Time was short and this matter was extremely urgent. Since she herself wouldn't be able to make sure to post it all over the web, she needed to have a couple of independent media companies create a piece of sensational news first and then leave it to the netizens to circulate it, this way it would still have a pretty decent effect.

She first sent them the two surveillance camera videos in order; she got some of them to first release the one at Han Corporation's entrance, and the rest of them to release the surveillance camera video by the side of the road.

The media companies sequentially released the two surveillance camera recording taken from different angles.

Even though the surveillance camera recordings didn't have any audio, from the image, one could still tell that the waving fan was purely just waving and saying hello, and that she completely wasn't thinking of touching Yu XingZhou.

On the other hand, that bodyguard looked ferocious and evil and even took the chance to bully others.

Xu Ningxian kept refreshing her Weibo and saw all those comments of fans attacking her.

Back in the day, they were all her good friends, but in just a blink of an eye, they all turned against her. It was as if all their friendships never existed before; it made her feel dejected and disappointed.

On the other hand, Xu Ningxian's desk mate still felt that Yu XingZhou was rather handsome even though she wasn't a fan of him.

She also knew that Xu Ningxian was once Yu XingZhou's fan.

After knowing what had happened tonight, she chose to support Xu Ningxian too.

Just then, her desk mate Ye Qianqian called her.

Xu Ningxian answered the call and heard her saying excitedly. "Ningxian, quick, look at Weibo."

"Huh? What's there to see? I have been looking at it all this time." Xu Ningxian was confused.

"No, how about this, I'll forward it to you. Take a look at my post and you'll know. Hehe, all those obnoxious and rude Yu Xingzhou fans, must feel like it's a slap in their faces right now!" Ye Qianqian said, her anger dissipating.

After hanging up the phone, Xu Ningxian alighted from the train. As she walked around, she received the Weibo post forwarded by Ye Qianqian and took a look.

A famous entertainment gossip Weibo account "Eight Skin Entertainment" had posted a video. It was the video taken from the angle of the Han Corporation surveillance camera.

Even though there was no audio in the video, the image was very clear and sharp.

Xu Ningxian immediately reposted it too. After that, she realized that not only "Eight Skin Entertainment", but many other famous media companies had also released similar content on their account.

Xu Ningxian excitedly opened her private message. "Older sister, did you do this? The videos online?"

Other than Lu Man, she couldn't think of anyone else.

Especially because the video was from Han Corporation's surveillance camera.

"Don't let others know," Lu Man replied.

"I definitely won't say it, thank you so much, Older sister!" Standing on the streets, Xu Ningxian was excited and emotional. She covered her smile with a hand, but tears had already welled up in her eyes.

She didn't make a wrong judgment of character, and she didn't like the wrong person.

Even though Lu Man wasn't very famous right now, she had already decided to become Lu Man's fan.

She believed that Lu Man will definitely get famous and become a super popular idol.

Chapter 343: Positive Energy

Unlike Yu Xingzhou, who did not care about fans, Lu Man was someone who really cared about fans.

Being protected by her idol, she was very touched.

Furthermore, Lu Man's fighting ability was too strong, right!

After Lu Man was done chatting with Xu Ningxian, she opened a new fake account on Weibo, and as discussed earlier with "Eight Skin Entertainment", they enacted a conversation.

Subsequently, "Eight Skin Entertainment" sent out a Weibo post.

Small account: Sister Eight, regarding tonight's news on Yu Xingzhou, I have actual evidence, but can you add blur out my profile picture, I don't want to be found out by his fans, his fans are too crazy.

Eight Skin Entertainment: Alright.

Small account: My older sister's classmate works in Han Corporation, that day, when the argument started, she just happened to be on the first floor and filmed it, the video is very clear, and their conversation was also recorded.

After this post, "Eight Skin Entertainment" released the video.

The video clearly showed that Xu Ningxian was just waving and did not go overboard.

On the other hand, it was that security guard who had wrongly accused Xu Ningxian and had even called for the other fans to attack Xu Ningxian together.

Moreover, all this while, Yu Xingzhou did not care about it at all.

On the other hand, it was Lu Man who had been attacked by Yu Xingzhou's fans earlier, but did not care about the past and instead helped to protect Xu Ningxian. whatever she said, it was agreed with by the mature and logical online netizens.

How could this be the person that Yu Xingzhou's fans were criticizing and scolding harshly for lacking in manners and bullying them?

On the contrary, Yu Xingzhou's actions were too disappointing, instead of protecting his fans, he even taught his fans to ask for leave from school just to chase celebrities.

Not all of Yu Xingzhou's fans were that crazy, crazy to the point they were unable to tell what was morally right and wrong because of their blind love for their idol.

Upon seeing the truth in the video, some fans started to be moved.

"Oh my gosh! It's actually... it's actually like this. At that time, what was Zhou Zhou doing? How could he just let his bodyguards bully his fans and not do anything?"

"Do the fans at the scene not have any ability to tell right from wrong? Why would they foolishly help that evil bodyguard bully an innocent girl?"

Some people went to Xu Ningxian's Weibo account to apologize. "I'm sorry, I misunderstood you."

Now that the truth was out, the fans who had been very wild and arrogant suddenly became a lot quieter.

Yet there were still quite a few fans who could not accept the truth. "This video must have been edited!"

However, they were instantly rebutted by a lot of people. "There were no pauses in the video, where would it be edited?"

"It's good to have a brain, I hope that some people would also have brains."

"The three videos can act as proof together and can be compared, so come and tell me where is it edited?"

They were joined by even more users who commented, “Lu Man’s words are full of positive energy.”

“That’s right, a celebrity should be like this, a role model should not be like Yu Xingzhou, teaching his fans bad things.”

“Lu Man is acting in Greedy Wolf Operation , just because of her, I will support it.”

“Count me in, I want to see how Lu Man acts. From now onwards, as long as her acting is not too bad, I’ll be her fan.”

“ Greedy Wolf Operation is an energetic, lively movie, having an actor who is also filled with positive energy. I approve! I approve! I approve!”

From that instant, Lu Man’s reputation gradually increased.

The Greedy Wolf Operation’s reputation did not fall because of the threats of Yu Xingzhou’s fans, instead, it increased to another high because of Lu Man.

Even those who were initially reluctant to watch the movie wanted to see how Lu Man acted and decided to go and watch the movie.

Chapter 344: I’ve Been Quite Busy Recently, Don’t Come And Find Me

After all, in the videos sent by those netizens earlier, Lu Man’s face was not very clear.

Some netizens even found out Lu Man’s current job. “Hahahaha! Yu Xingzhou’s fans have kicked a metal board. Lu Man is a top-notch public relations officer, and you guys really dared to provoke her? You didn’t do anything to Lu Man and instead caused yourself to be in a lot of trouble. Let me bend my waist and laugh loudly!”

“This way of doing things is 666 1 , Yu Xingzhou’s fans just came out in the day to badmouth Lu Man, and at night, the tables were turned, is it that Lu Man started to attack?”

“It does seem like that, her acting might not be professional, but she’s a professional in this area, you want to outplay her? Unless you also find a professional team, it’s impossible.”

“A professional team might also not be able to outplay Lu Man; after all, how many professionals have gotten the Gold Finger Award?”

“I heard that Du Lin was quiet for very long before he suddenly became very popular again, and that was Lu Man’s work.”

“666! if Lu Man wants to enter the entertainment circle, who would be able to go against her? This fighting power, too good!”

“This is practically like being able to command the winds and rains! I can’t take it anymore, I’m going to change from a mere fan to a truly loyal fan. Such a strong woman.”

Meanwhile, Lu Man had just finished eating dinner with Han Zhuoli, and found that the number of her fans on Weibo was steadily increasing.

Before this, she only had a few hundred fans, but now the total had already exceeded 100,000.

However, in front of many celebrities, it was not worth mentioning.

Although Lu Man had yet to debut officially in the entertainment circle and Greedy Wolf Operation had yet to air, she already had a group of fans, these results were excellent!

Having saved Xu Ningxian from an attack, Lu Man felt happy.

Whereas, at this moment, Yu Xingzhou was feeling horrible.

He had just wanted to badmouth Lu Man, but in the end, not only had he not managed to cause Lu Man's reputation to fall but had also caused his popularity to drop down by a lot.

Furious, Yu Xingzhou kept pacing the room. Seeing that, Wang Lu scolded him harshly, "Continue on acting! I told you not to provoke Lu Man! Now she's made a move, do you think that Han Zhuoli would not know? You mislead your fans, however, as long as it's a person acting out, one can easily see the mastermind behind it; it's you who started it all this, do you think everyone is an idiot!"

"Then why didn't you say it earlier? You are wise only after a mishap happens, what's the use of that!" Yu Xingzhou said angrily.

"Didn't I remind you before?" Wang Lu was extremely livid; it was obvious that Yu Xingzhou could not make a comeback in the future ever, and thus, Wang Lu was lazy to waste more efforts on him. "I already said it before, didn't you hear me then? I had told you to control yourself, and not to offend people everywhere! When you're outside, if you're pretending, you need to pretend better, just treat it as acting. You just got a bit popular, yet you're already so arrogant that you don't know your own name."

Wang Lu walked to the doorway, and pointed at him, "You can continue to pretend, I won't bother with you anymore! Anyway, after this whole thing, you'll definitely be totally banned by Han Zhuoli till you die!"

Wang Lu angrily opened the door to leave, and Yu Xingzhou heard the sound of the door closing before he returned to his senses.

Finally, the realization of his future being dark dawned upon Yu Xingzhou.

Reluctantly taking up his phone, he made a call to a rich lady. "CEO Li, it's me, Xingzhou."

Originally, this CEO Li had some intentions towards him originally, but he felt that he was a popular celebrity while the other party was just so old, so he did not want to service an old lady.

However, now, he was left with no choice at all.

"Didn't you say that you want to go to the Maldives for a holiday? I can accompany you," Yu Xingzhou lowered his voice, making his voice more seductive.

"There's no need, the plan has been canceled," CEO Li said coldly, "Right, I'm quite busy lately, don't contact me anymore."

Chapter 345: No Sense Of Loyalty

When CEO Li coldly hung up the phone, confusion could be seen clearly on Yu Xingzhou's face.

Could it be that everything was really over for him now?

Climbing off the sofa, Yu Xingzhou went and opened the door of the small fridge near the coffee table. He then took out a bottle of pre-mixed cocktails and then opened another secret compartment inside the fridge; it had ice inside.

He then poured the ice into the pre-mixed cocktail and raised his head to take big gulps of it.

The drug pierced through his nervous system, making him high and feel like everything right now was his dream, and he felt himself float in the air.

It was just that Yu Xingzhou did not think that Wang Lu who had just left would actually return.

Having met Yu Xingzhou's assistant on the way out, he remembered that there were still some things he had not grabbed on the way out and thus, he came back with the assistant.

Since the assistant had Yu Xingzhou's house's keys, he did not knock either.

With the keys, the assistant directly opened the door and entered with Wang Lu.

Surprisingly, the two of them saw Yu Xingzhou's abnormal look.

That was absolutely not the look of a normal drunkard.

Furthermore, Yu Xingzhou was holding a typical mixed-cocktail which honestly had no alcohol content, so he should not be drunk at all.

Wang Lu frowned and happened to see the ice on the table. At that instant, his face scrunched up, and he went to take a look. After confirming it, he suddenly turned his head to look at the assistant.

The assistant was also stunned, "Brother... Brother Wang, this is..."

"Go quickly!" Pulling the assistant with him, Wang Lu quickly left. "I don't want to be implicated and brought down by him!"

All this while, the assistant was stunned and standing still. Luckily, Wang Lu still had some conscience and remembered to pull the assistant out.

Only after they exited, did the assistant ask, his face pale as he had yet to calm down, "Brother Wang, Yu... Yu Xingzhou, he's taking..."

However, Wang Lu did not wait for the assistant to finish speaking and his face darkened. "I didn't think that he had such guts!"

Before this, a tourist had already taken photos of Yu Xingzhou seeming to take drugs, but since the photo was not clear, he had just covered it up and put it aside past it.

In private, Yu Xingzhou told him that he was curious, and others urged him to tag along to try some marijuana. But the truth was that he had never touched that thing before and had only tried it that one time.

At that time, Wang Lu had blindly believed him.

Who knew that he was actually secretly keeping Ice!

“Brother Wang, then what should we do now?” The assistant was flustered.

The best thing for them would be to keep Yu Xingzhou’s drug addiction hidden from the public eye forever, otherwise, if Yu Xingzhou was over, even their career would go down the drain.

Wang Lu knew that he definitely could not let Yu Xingzhou implicate him.

Taking out his phone, Wang Lu called 110. “Hello, police officer, I want to report a case. Someone is taking drugs.”

Meanwhile, the assistant was stunned watching this the side; he had not thought that Wang Lu would personally report Yu Xingzhou for drugs.

Taking drugs was definitely not a small matter. Yu Xingzhou was a rising star, and now that someone had caught him taking drugs, his future in the entertainment circle would be completely ruined.

Even if he continued to struggle in the entertainment circle, he would never be able to make it.

Wang Lu was very clear, it was best to report him right now rather than Yu Xingzhou being caught later on and letting Yu Xingzhou implicate and affect Wang Lu’s career too. After all, if he could not even control his own celebrity and keep him in check, letting him have and let him so many scandals under him, then in the future, no talented celebrity would be willing to follow him.

Thus, he reported Yu Xingzhou right away. Anyway, Yu Xingzhou himself wanted to die, so it was not his fault.

After Wang Lu gave them the address of Yu Xingzhou’s home, he pulled the assistant and left hurriedly.

The assistant still did not feel at ease, and asked, “Brother Wang, is that good? If we don’t report, perhaps no one would know — ”

“If you’re worried, you can go back to look after him!” Wang Lu said coldly.

Hearing that, the assistant did not make any noise .

Wang Lu harrumphed, “Do you think I have no sense of loyalty?”

Seeing that assistant was still quiet, Wang Lu said, “Yu Xingzhou is such an idi*t, how can I be loyal to him? Even if you are loyal, he won’t remember the good things about you. Furthermore, he is taking drugs, before this, he had already had a photo of him taken while doing drugs overseas. However, just because there was no actual evidence, and his fans supported him a lot, this case was not dug deeper into by anyone. But now, he’s back in the country, and he still doesn’t know how to control himself! This way, he would be caught eventually, at that time, not only his but even your and my career will also be affected. Anyway, there’s no need to mention about how I’ll be affected. You’ve been his assistant before, and how could you not know that he's doing drugs? At least others will feel that you were hiding the drugs for him and protecting him. Then, who in the industry would dare to ask you to be their assistant? They would be scared sh*t that their reputation would be ruined by you."

Chapter 346: Fired Up

After being silent for quite a while, the assistant finally agreed. "I get it, I'll leave with Brother Wang."

Satisfied, Wang Lu smiled and brought the assistant to sit in the car, but he was not in a hurry to leave.

No matter what, he had to see for himself the police coming and arresting Yu Xingzhou.

All this while, Wang Lu was oblivious to the fact that Da Xiong had already followed Lu Man's instructions, and had brought people to hide and wait outside near a wall.

Coincidentally, the conversation Wang Lu had with his assistant was heard by Da Xiong and the rest.

They exchanged glances as they did not really think that Lu Man would accurately guess all these events.

Heavenly psychic!

"Quick! Quick! Prepare yourselves! Once the police arrive, get ready to take photos!" Da Xiong instructed softly, scared of getting heard.

At that moment, everyone fired up with and neither their waist was sore nor their legs painful, and they were also no longer sleepy.

Although Yu Xingzhou was not famous enough, being involved in a case for drug abuse already increased his fame, so it was worth reporting!

Once they would release this exciting piece of information tonight, in the following two days, all the headlines would be taken up by Yu Xingzhou.

Meanwhile, at his home, Yu Xingzhou was in a drunk and drowsy state, he was sitting on the floor with his back against the sofa and his head resting on the seat of the sofa. His body kept swaying and staggering while he was holding a cigarette in his hand.

Puffing out a cloud of white smoke, his eyes narrowed as he relished it.

It was a good way to escape reality for a while; in his drug-induced la-la land dreamland, he temporarily forgot all the troubles awaiting him in the real world.

"Ding dong! Ding dong! Ding dong!" The doorbell rang quite a few times.

Currently in his la-la land, even upon hearing it, Yu Xingzhou pretended as if he did not hear anything, not wanting to stand up.

"Peng! Peng! Peng!" The police started to knock the door hard. "Open the door!"

However, Yu Xingzhou just took a gulp of beer, not wanting to bother with it.

With the doorbell ringing continuously and the sound of the door being knocked loudly, disturbed by the noise the neighbors in the opposite apartment came outside to take a look.

The old man living in the opposite apartment poked his head out, and the old lady followed behind.

When the two of them saw a group of police standing outside, they were shocked and scared.

“What... what is it? Police officers, did something big happen?” The neighboring old man stuttered, his eyes shining with a gossipy light.

“Do you know if this person is at home?” The police officer asked.

“He’s at home.” The old man nodded. “Originally, there were two people inside, and after that, one of them left, and then returned with another person, but both of them again left. So now, there’s still one person inside.”

“...” The police officers did not ask the old man how he knew so clearly, as long as there was a person inside, it was fine.

“It’s the police, if you don’t open the door now, we’re going to break through the door,” That police officer yelled from outside.

Yu Xingzhou blurred heard the word ‘police’, but at this moment, fear was unknown to him, his brain had become numb already and his reactions much slower.

He slowly climbed up from the floor and stumbled to the door. Opening the door, he slurred his words, “What do you want?”

Seeing his look, the police knew right away that he was high on drugs right now and his luck happened to be bad to be caught red-handed. “Take him away, go and test him!”

“Rest of you, come and search the house!”

“What are you all doing!” Confused, Yu Xingzhou asked, his two hands had already been handcuffed.

When the police brought his men into the house, he saw the Ice lying on the table. “Bring it all away!”

As the police brought Yu Xingzhou police out of the house in handcuffs, Da Xiong and his men hid under in the grass and took photos.

“Who’s there!” The police officers noticed and yelled, looking over at the same time.

Anyway, they were just taking photos, it was not against the law.

Such a mere thing, Da Xiong had done this many times and was not fazed or scared at all. He and his brothers came out of hiding to take the photos openly.

Chapter 347: We Can Work Together

Still in a daze, Yu Xingzhou was oblivious to everything and even looked directly at the camera, showing his face full of confusion.

“Stop taking photos!” The police officer yelled. Covering Yu Xingzhou’s face, and told his colleagues, “Let’s go quickly!”

But Da Xiong followed them and asked, “Police officer, what’s wrong with him? Did he take drugs?”

The police officer did not reply, and Da Xiong kept taking photos until Yu Xingzhou was pushed into the car.

“That’s it for today!” Da Xiong waved his hands, and went back towards his car with his brothers, ready to go their separate ways home.

“Brother Xiong, our luck was so good today! Earlier, I thought that no matter what, we would need to wait for one to two weeks, but on the first day itself we got such exciting scoop!”

Da Xiong was elated too. “Yes, I also did not think that it would be so successful!”

Da Xiong hurriedly gave Lu Man a call. “Miss Lu, we’ve managed to get the photos, what do we do after this?”

“So quick?” Lu Man did not think that it would be so successful either. “How about this, tonight, you guys can first expose that there is some popular young male celebrity who was caught taking drugs, but don’t mention the name. Just put a photo, and expose a letter like Y, and let the public guess. First, get it trending and since there are not a lot of young male celebrities whose surname starts with Y in the entertainment circle, and also Yu Xingzhou already having some drug incident news, many people will guess it to be Yu Xingzhou. You can first give a hint and then tell them the results tomorrow. Wait till tomorrow, once it becomes a hot search and soars high, expose Yu Xingzhou.”

“Alright, alright, alright.” Overjoyed, Da Xiong held the phone in his right hand, while his left rubbed his knee in excitement for tomorrow’s news. “Miss Lu, how about we work together in the future?”

Lu Man was stunned by Da Xiong’s request. “Huh?”

“Now, Tang Zi doesn’t want to work in this line anymore, so in the future, if you have any news that is unsuitable for Tang Zi’s profession, you can contact! As for how you want it to trend, I’ll follow your orders.” He believed that once he started working with Lu Man, he could also leave the work office, and create his own team very soon. “Miss Lu, I really saw and admire your ability. With your support, I feel like I can become the entertainment circle’s top paparazzi.”

Lu Man: “...”

“You’re praising me too much, I don’t have that much ability,” Lu Man felt that it was better to let Da Xiong understand her accurately and not to let him have too high expectations of her. “However, we can work together. In the future, if I have any news, I’ll definitely reach out to you instantly.”

Since Tang Zi was not a paparazzo anymore, she indeed needed to find someone else to maintain a long-term working relationship.

Excited and elated, Da Xiong happily nodded continuously, not caring that Lu Man could not see him at that moment. “Of course, of course, please don’t forget that.”

“I won’t forget it, but if you have any news concerning me on your side, please tell me beforehand.” Lu Man smiled and said. “Let me be prepared.”

“Of course, this is the basis of us working together!” Da Xiong said straightforwardly.

The truth was, Da Xiong was not a bad person, he had loyalty and good morals.

Otherwise, Tang Zi would not have introduced Da Xiong to work with Lu Man.

After hanging up, Da Xiong followed Lu Man’s instructions, and first posted something on his personal account.

Da Xiong – Who Wants To Become The Number One Paparazzi: “I have a piece of reliable news, tonight at 20:15, a young male celebrity with a surname Y was caught taking drugs.”

Da Xiong’s account was quite famous on Weibo and was also verified.

As soon as he sent out that news, there was a large response.

Someone even instantly listed all the young male celebrities with Y surnames.

And Yu Xingzhou was ranked first.

Chapter 348: Lying To Yourself

Yu Xingzhou’s fans: “We won’t accept this!”

“Our Zhou Zhou is so busy now, how would he have the time to take drugs.”

Meanwhile, all the other young male celebrities released their statements to the press.

As for those who were busy filming, they just took a selfie with their film crew to proclaim their innocence.

In the end, only a few were left who did not upload anything on their Weibo.

Some actors were taking part in activities overseas, while some were filming currently, but all had people vouch for their innocence for them.

As for Yu Xingzhou, neither Yu Xingzhou nor his manager came forward to make a statement. Even his assistant kept mum.

Not able to stand these accusations anymore, Yu Xingzhou’s fans rushed to Da Xiong’s Weibo and started scolding him.

Having worked in this line for a long time, it was not new for Da Xiong to be scolded, hence he was neither fazed nor scared at all.

Following that, he sent out another Weibo post. “I dare to publish this news because I have evidence. Today, I’ll first release some snapshots. Tomorrow, I’ll release actual photos of the young male celebrity, whose surname starts with ‘Y’ being brought away by the police!”

Seeing the post, Yu Xingzhou fans were stunned; they had discussions among themselves, and somewhere in their heart they actually felt, it really... it really could be Yu Xingzhou.

Because only Yu Xingzhou was the one who had yet to prove himself.

An enraged fan commented, "It must be Lu Man! Otherwise, how can there be such a coincidence where Zhou Zhou gets in trouble the same day!"

"Right, let's go find Lu Man!"

Hence, a large group of Yu Xingzhou's fans went to Lu Man's Weibo and started scolding her.

This time, they did not care about logic at all and spouted nonsense. Anyway, they could not openly talk about the young celebrity caught in a drug case as wouldn't it be equivalent to admitting that it was Yu Xingzhou?

So, there were all different kinds of harsh comments and scoldings on Lu Man's Weibo, and it made people find it funny.

Somehow Lu Man managed to attract fans in a short time, and most of them were just silent, waiting to watch the drama unfold. However, seeing how these fans were fighting brainlessly, they all could not stand it.

Although Lu Man did not have a fan club yet, all those temporary members awaiting the show formed a fan club and fought against Yu Xingzhou's fans.

"What are you here to do in your frenzy? Isn't it directly confirming that Yu Xingzhou takes drugs?"

"Is it Lu Man who made Yu Xingzhou take drugs? Why are you here looking for trouble for Lu Man?"

"It's good to have intelligence, I hope that you all will have it."

"I don't want to say anything else, but an idol attracts the same kind of fans like him. Your actions did not add any good points to Yu Xingzhou, alright?"

Lu Man was unaware of the war on the internet as once she had finished settling it she did not bother to take notice of it anymore.

On the next day, at 9 am, with the help of few writers from different media outlets and the technical boys working long hours, Da Xiong finally sent out the picture of the scene where Yu Xingzhou was being taken away by the police.

The Internet exploded once again.

"It's really Yu Xingzhou!"

"I want to see what his fans have to say now!"

"Yesterday, they kept messing around the whole night, arrogantly cursing on Lu Man's Weibo, but now they're the ones embarrassed!"

Yu Xingzhou's fans were silent.

In the fan groups, some people were crying as they were seeing all this on their phones.

Bawling their eyes out, some wrote, "How could it be Zhou Zhou?"

"It must be a misunderstanding! It can't be Zhou Zhou!"

"There are a lot of possibilities as to why he was brought away, don't listen to the lies of the people on the Internet."

"It's already at this juncture, do you all want to continue lying to yourselves? Didn't you all see Yu Xingzhou's expression in that photo?"

Following that comment, the person also sent over the photo. "See that dazed look, it is obvious that he took drugs, his gaze is scattered and his mind is in a trance. I don't know, when this fan club became like this, anyway, I can't continue being a fan anymore. From the time I saw the video of him treating his fans harshly yesterday, I started to doubt, is he really worth me liking him? I'm sorry, I can't be that kind of person who likes someone such an extent where I will consider all his sins and wrongdoings as appropriate. I'm leaving the group, you guys can do whatever you want."

Chapter 349: Domineering

After saying that, the person instantly left the group.

With someone taking the lead, slowly, there were a lot of people leaving the fan club.

There were even some people who expressed their opinion before leaving. "Do you all know? Now when I go out, I'm too embarrassed to say that I'm Yu Xingzhou's fan, it's just too embarrassing."

After saying that, he left the fan club too.

While some people left quietly, without saying anything.

The once crowded group suddenly became a lot emptier.

"Let those people leave! Those who left are not even Zhou Zhou's loyal fans and aren't worthy of liking Zhou Zhou!"

"Right, we need to stay strong and wait for Zhou Zhou to come out!"

"What's wrong with taking drugs? He takes his own drugs and did not affect anyone else!"

"Don't you think that it's too coincidental? We just went to badmouth Lu Man yesterday, and at night, Zhou Zhou got in trouble. First was the video at the door of the Han Corporation being exposed, then it was him being reported for taking drugs."

"You're right! Now that you mention it, it's really too coincidental!"

"How coincidental, it must be Lu Man who did it!"

"Let's go find Lu Man! As long as Zhou Zhou doesn't come out, we won't let her live well!"

Therefore, all the fans rushed over to Lu Man's Weibo and accused her. "Lu Man, it's you who caused trouble for Zhou Zhou, if you have the ability, stop hiding!"

"A coward! You dare to do it but you don't dare to admit it!"

"You schemed and caused Zhou Zhou to get into trouble, we won't let you go!"

Originally, Lu Man was busy working, and it was You Lili who informed her through QQ. "Lu Man, your Weibo is exploding."

"En?" Lu Man responded, "I'll take a look."

"Yu Xingzhou's fans have caused you to start trending again," You Lili said and sent Lu Man a screenshot.

Seeing that, Lu Man smiled; it was quite good, the movie had yet to air, and her popularity was almost soaring higher than that of Zhang Shuidong already.

Upon opening Weibo and seeing those comments, Lu Man gave it a thought before making the first post on her Weibo after all the problem happened. "It's me who did it, there's nothing to hide about. If Yu Xingzhou dared to incite his fans to badmouth me, then he should have to accept my revenge. You all are right, I'm taking revenge against him, my temper has never been good, anyway. If I don't do something, won't it seem like I'm too unprofessional? Hide? I never hide. Yu Xingzhou's fans, listen well. If you want to continue making trouble, I'll make so much trouble that Yu Xingzhou will never be able to rise again his whole life. You guys can think it through."

Lu Man's domineering reply made everyone a bit shocked and speechless.

No matter whether they were passers-by or Yu Xingzhou's fans, everyone was at a loss for words.

They had never seen someone who would stand out themselves to confront the other party's fans!

Seeing Lu Man's words, everyone remembered, Lu Man was not a professional actor, she was just an actor in the Greedy Wolf Operation.

However, she was an extremely good public relations officer!

She could make Du Lin popular from behind the scenes and that meant she could totally ruin a person as well!

Yu Xingzhou in front of them was the best example!

"Hahaha! Domineering! Too domineering! Yu Xingzhou's fans, you all have probably forgotten Lu Man's real profession!"

"666, I'm already so convinced I can't say anything already!"

"I really admire Lu Man's domineering attitude, if you dare to provoke me, I'll mess you up!"

"Yu Xingzhou's fans, are you surprised? Are you shocked? Next time, when you try to badmouth someone, you have to see who it is, some people cannot be bad mouthed by you!"

Xu Ningxian joined in excitedly. "Calling in support of Lu Man!"

“I suddenly realized something. If Lu Man enters the entertainment circle, who would dare provoke her in the future? Whoever provokes her would fall down from their popular status, this is a bit scary!”

Chapter 350: Meeting

“The person above has spoken the truth.”

“Too domineering! In the future, I’ll be Lu Man’s fan!”

No one had thought that Lu Man would so directly attack back even attract fans with her domineering attitude.

Her Weibo followers directly increased from 100,000 to 700,000.

You Lili and rest of the employees were astonished upon seeing it. “Lu Man, what kind of trick is this?”

“Don’t ask me, I myself don’t dare to believe it.” Lu Man was astounded too. “I just wanted to attack back, I really did not think that anyone would follow me because of that.”

Feeling a bit helpless, Lu Man smiled faintly. “You guys may not believe it, but it was purely because I could not stand those fans.”

Sister Li shook her head in confusion. “Someone who can clearly tell what these netizens are thinking and touch the hearts of netizens, I really admire such ability.”

She had never seen someone who gained fans herself by threatening someone else’s fans.

No one really knew if it was Lu Man’s threat that worked. The remaining loyal fans of Yu Xingzhou really did not dare to make trouble for Lu Man again and did not even dare to comment under the Greedy Wolf Operation’s official Weibo page anymore.

All of them were scared to unleash Lu Man’s fury again and cause Yu Xingzhou to no longer be able to come out at all.

These small fans, how could they know anything! They just saw Lu Man’s schemes which very easily caused Yu Xingzhou to be detained.

In their eyes, Lu Man had already become an existence similar to the demon king.

They could not afford to offend her.

Thus, Lu Man managed to get peace until Saturday.

On Thursday Han Zhuoli went to Hollywood for some business and could only come back the next week.

Meanwhile, Lu Man decided to go and buy clothes herself. After all, the Greedy Wolf Operation was premiering soon and all her clothes were either formal or casual, she did not have a single outfit suitable for a movie premiere.

Moreover, it was her first screening so no matter what, she had to wear something decent.

Thus, on Saturday, Lu Man went to a shopping mall.

The brands in the shopping malls ranged from luxury brands to those brands that were a little less luxurious.

As for those high-end luxury brands, Lu Man definitely could not afford, thus she locked her sights on those smaller brands having slightly luxurious products.

The price range of these brands was acceptable and would not embarrass the production group either. This time, she would definitely not let people criticize her for not caring about the movie premiere.

Lu Man had chosen a shop and was just about to enter to take a look when she heard someone call her, "Lu Man!"

Lu Man turned her head around to look and was shocked to see Shen Nuo and the Old Madam.

"Old Madam, Auntie," Lu Man greeted with a smile on her face. Pleasantly surprised she asked, "How coincidental, you two also came for shopping here in the mall?"

"Yes, how coincidental! Haha..." The Old Madam's laughter was especially fake.

Shen Nuo who at the side secretly scoffed in her heart, this Old Madam had given a call to the Han Zhuoli who was far away in Hollywood and found out that Lu Man would go to buy clothes for the movie premiere today, and thus she forced her to tag along over here and pretend to have a coincidental meeting !

Shen Nuo was also amused; Old Madam was already so old, yet she was actually learning from the young people to come up with methods to strike up conversations to deal with her own granddaughter-in-law.

Moreover, it was also because Lu Man had reported too much in detail to Han Zhuoli, and when the two of them talked, Lu Man had even told him precisely when, where and which brands she was going to visit, otherwise, how could the Old Madam have been able to meet her here so coincidentally?

"You also came to shop here in the mall?" The Old Madam asked, pretending not to know.

"Yes, the movie I filmed recently is going to be aired soon, and the director wants me to attend the movie premiere. So I came to see if there were any suitable clothes," Lu Man explained with a smile; it seemed like she did not suspect the reason the Old Madam appeared here at all.
