

Mr Han 421

Chapter 421: Who Can Bully Her

“Yes, I like her that much,” Han Zhuoli quickly changed his words. “No, I love her.”

Han Zhuofeng’s unwillingness to admit defeat was clearly written on his face.

No matter what, he still felt that Lu Man was unworthy of Han Zhuoli.

Or perhaps he should say that there is no woman alive who is worthy of Han Zhuoli.

Seeing that there was no way he could convince him, Han Zhouli was too lazy to waste more time talking to him. “I don’t care if you accept Lu Man or not, she doesn’t need you to accept her, and nor doesn’t she need to care about your opinion. However, there is one thing, what you think should remain in your heart, I don’t care, even if you are just pretending, you need to be polite to her! Just think about it this way, if you’re not polite to her, it means you’re not being polite to me. Now, do as you wish.”

As to Lu Man’s good parts, how could Han Zhuofeng, this kind of person whose intelligence was lacking see it?

Han Zhouli was happy that there were so many dumb people in the world.

Otherwise, if they were all smart, how many people would be fighting with him for Lu Man!

Seeing Han Zhuoli’s stern gaze that was issuing him a warning, Han Zhuofeng nodded his head quickly. “Alright, I know.”

“Let’s go,” Han Zhuoli turned to return to the house.

Han Zhuofeng followed behind him, and grunted unhappily, “But, I definitely won’t smile at her!”

Han Zhuoli sneered, “Do you think that she cares about your smile?”

Han Zhuofeng disagreed, Lu Man wanted to marry to Han Zhuoli, so she would have to curry favor with everyone in the Han family, and make everyone in the Han family like her as she would want everyone to have a good impression of her.

So obviously Lu Man would care about that.

Lu Man would definitely have to curry favor with him and she would also have to rescue her image in his heart.

But who knew that Han Zhuofeng had totally anticipated it wrong.

When he returned to the living room, Lu Man did not even spare him a glance.

She was smiling and talking to everyone, but when it came to Han Zhuofeng, she just ignored him as if he was invisible.

Earlier, Han Zhuofeng looked down on her, but now, to his shock, Lu Man was the one who looked down on him?

What right did she have!

Seeing his younger son suffer such treatment, Han Dongping gave a cold hmph in his heart. Lu Man had no manners, and could not be brought along to social or formal occasions, she didn't even know to interact with everyone.

However, the Old Madam and Shen Nuo felt otherwise, finding it quite interesting.

Because Han Zhuofeng was the youngest child in the family, he had been spoiled since young and was a bit of an arrogant, spoiled brat.

In the whole family, he only feared and listened to Han Zhuoli.

Surprisingly, today, he had to keep quiet in front of Lu Man.

The Old Madam only wanted to say one thing. "Serves you right! Don't you know that if you provoke Lu Man, you won't have a good ending!"

She even advised Lu Man, "Lu Man, when you start going to the school, if you have anything, just find Zhuofeng. He's a bit of a bully, he might be lacking in other talents, but he is such a bully that no one dares to provoke him."

"..." Reluctant to help Lu Man, Han Zhuofeng tried to protest. "Grandma, I go there to study, why do you make it sound like I go collect ransom from people."

"It's the same thing," the Old Madam said nonchalantly.

Han Zhuofeng: "..."

It was no way the same thing, alright!

The Old Madam then instructed Han Zhuofeng. "Zhuofeng, take care of Lu Man in school, don't let others bully her."

Han Zhuofeng pursed his lips unhappily. "Grandma, Lu Man is older than me, and in her class, she's the oldest. How can someone bully her? This isn't kindergarten. Anyway, didn't you see Lu Man's prowess in the entertainment circle? Who can bully her!"

"Young brat, why are you so rude!" The Old Madam was so angry that she wanted to hit him.

Han Zhuofeng saw Lu Man was sitting next to the Old Madam and saw that she had no intention of stopping Old Madam Han from hitting him.

Chapter 422: She Saw him As A Weak Chicken

Although the Old Madam was obviously not going to hit him, Han Zhuofeng could not help but get angry!

What a petty sister-in-law his older brother had found!

Seeing Han Zhuofeng's angry look, Lu Man stifled a laugh and stop Old Madam Han. "Grandma, don't worry, if there's anyone bullying me, I'll definitely find Zhuoli as soon as possible. If Zhuoli is not there, I'll go and find Mo Jingcheng or others."

As for Han Zhuofeng?

Haha, he can queue up!

When Han Zhuofeng heard it, he got even more enraged, so she didn't even consider him as an option!

"It's me who — " Han Zhuofeng wanted to say that even if she came to find him, he would not help her.

In the end, as soon as he said those two words, Han Zhuoli's shot out a cold warning look at him.

Han Zhuofeng instantly stopped talking and shortened his neck like a quail.

"However, if Zhuofeng is bullied by people, he can also come to find me," Lu Man said, smiling.

Han Zhuofeng: "..."

She was treating him like a weak chicken!

Han Zhoufeng instantly looked towards Han Zhuoli, wanting to complain to him, Older Brother, look at Lu Man, how can she bully people like that!

But who knew that as soon as he looked over, he would become indignant, wanting to kick the chair.

Han Zhuoli was beaming with pride, and looking at Lu Man with a soft, loving gaze as if at this moment, Lu Man was the only person in his eyes and his whole world.

His Man Man was even excellent at bullying people.

"You're not her opponent," Han Zhuoli said proudly at Han Zhuofeng.

Han Zhuofeng was so angry he clutched at his chest.

Why was it that when Lu Man bullied people, she was praised?

After having lunch at the old family house, Han Zhuoli was about to drop Lu Man back home in the afternoon.

"Older Brother, wait for me, I'll come with you guys," Han Zhuofeng followed them out.

Han Zhuoli said, impolitely, "Eldest Uncle and Eldest Auntie are still there, why are you leaving with us?"

"I'm not going home, I want to go to the studio, can you just drop me off on the way?" Han Zhuofeng asked.

This was the part where Han Zhuofeng was better off than others, when other people overcoming all kinds of problems to finish filming, Han Zhuofeng had already bought a film studio to be his work office, and when he had nothing to do, he would film some things as practice.

Han Zhuoli would also invest to let him film some low-budget web dramas.

Han Zhoufeng never advertised for it or found celebrities, he just found students in the school; he was just practicing his skills.

“Where’s your car?” Han Zhuoli asked.

“Hehe, I didn’t drive over, I came in Dad’s car,” Han Zhuofeng explained with a goofy smile on his face.

However, it would be strange if Han Zhuoli and Lu Man indeed believed him.

“Get in the car,” Han Zhuoli said.

“Alright!” Han Zhuofeng answered happily and rushed to claim the shotgun seat.

“Go to the back!” However, when Han Zhuofeng’s hand just touched the handle, Han Zhuofeng said coldly.

Left with no choice, Han Zhuofeng could only sit behind, and leave the shotgun seat for Lu Man.

Lu Man cursed in her heart, she had heard of younger sisters being over possessive of their brothers but this was a rare sight; Han Zhuofeng had an older brother complex as a younger brother.

The whole ride, Han Zhuofeng purposely ignored Lu Man and only talked to Han Zhuoli.

Han Zhuoli decided to drop him off at the studio first, and when the car was stopped below the studio, Han Zhuofeng was very unhappy. “Older Brother, why didn’t you send Lu Man back first?”

Lu Man laughed in her heart, this was the first time she heard Han Zhuofeng take her name and even then it was out of jealousy.

“Of course, it’s because I’m his girlfriend,” Lu Man said nonchalantly.

With a girlfriend, what was a younger brother, he would obviously be the third wheel!

Chapter 423: As per old sayings, the Oldest Sister-In-Law Is Like A Mother

Han Zhuofeng: “...”

Yet Han Zhuoli was still smiling dotingly, not feeling like Lu Man was bullying Han Zhuofeng at all.

Han Zhuofeng lost his cool. “If I have a girlfriend, I would definitely send her home first.”

“Oh,” Han Zhuoli asked stiffly, “Then do you have a girlfriend?”

Han Zhuofeng: “...”

How hurtful!

“That’s true, when you have a girlfriend, you would be driving your car to send your girlfriend home, there would be no need for you to ride in my car,” and follow beside him and Lu Man like a third wheel.

Han Zhuofeng: “...”

Hmph!

He really did not know what medicine Lu Man had fed Han Zhuoli for him to be so infatuated with her and treated her better than his younger brother.

Green with envy, Han Zhuofeng hastily opened the door and got down the car. "Then I'll go now."

"I won't send you off," Han Zhuoli said.

Lu Man felt that Han Zhuofeng's heart had been hit too many times today, so her tone was a lot better than that of Han Zhuoli. "See you."

"There's no need, I don't feel like we'll have many opportunities to meet again." Han Zhoufeng voiced his thoughts, who knew how long Han Zhuoli would be dating Lu Man.

Lu Man wanted to be in the entertainment circle, and it was too dirty and messy. It would be her first time entering such a glitzy, glamorous place, she might be swept away.

At that time, if she lost herself, then could she still continue with Han Zhuoli?

Of course not!

However, as soon as he said that, he saw Lu Man smiling at him.

In Han Zhuofeng's eyes, Lu Man's smile was especially strange.

She smiled till he got goosebumps and kept feeling like something was not right.

Just then he heard Lu Man say, "You forgot that I'm also going to the National Drama Academy? At that time, I'll definitely meet you again."

Han Zhuofeng: "..."

"We're leaving," Han Zhuoli said, then started the car and drove away swiftly.

Instantly, Han Zhuofeng was overcome by the feeling of being abandoned.

In the car, Han Zhuoli told Lu Man, "Don't lower yourself to his standard, he has a childish temper, spoiled by my eldest uncle till he's very stubborn."

"I can tell." Lu Man smiled lightly, not taking to heart Han Zhuofeng's attitude.

Han Zhuoli looked at Lu Man, actually, she was also only older than Han Zhuofeng by two years.

Han Zhuofeng's life had been smooth-sailing ever since he was born, there was Han Zhouli to shoulder the responsibilities as the family head and his own brother, Han Zhuoling, who would take over Han Dongping's company.

Hence, Han Zhuofeng was free to do what he liked and thus he joined the National Drama Academy and chose to become a director.

All his life, he faced no trouble and as he was the youngest among them, he was spoiled and pampered by everyone.

Even though he was only two years younger than Lu Man, in front of the calm, wise and big-hearted Lu Man, he was like an insensible, stubborn child.

Han Zhuoli's heart ached for Lu Man, because of her tough past, she had to grow up so soon and shoulder all the responsibilities unlike the people her age.

Han Zhuoli's right hand left the steering wheel, and he reached out to hold Lu Man's hand. He held her hand and placed it onto his thigh.

Her palm was soft and warm, and through his pants, he could feel the softness and warmth emanating from her palm.

Han Zhuoli pressed it and said, "You don't need to be polite with that brat. If he's rude to you, you can bully him to your heart's content. He's insensible, you can educate him, there's no need to care about what he thinks. You're his elder, it's only right for you to teach him a lesson."

Lu Man: "..."

How did she become his elder?

Han Zhuoli took a look at her, and explained with a cheesy smile on his face, "You're his elder sister-in-law, so aren't you his elder? As per old sayings, the oldest sister-in-law is like a mother."

Lu Man: "..."

Hahaha, this explanation was so cheesy.

In the blink of an eye, the New Year break got over.

The universities started school a bit late after the Winter holidays, so Lu Man went back to work first.

Chapter 424: There Is No If

Han Zhuoli had even said that she would not need to resign and she could keep her position at Han Corporation while she was away studying at school. Even if she wanted to film and did not have time to work, they could give her a position as a special consultant for the Public Relations Department.

At that time, they definitely would not keep her on the payroll but if she was willing to take up any case, they would pay her according to the assignments she would take up.

It was even what Lu Man had strongly requested of Han Zhuoli, otherwise, based on Han Zhuoli, he wanted to leave a position for Lu Man, and she would get paid every month even without taking up any cases.

As the lady boss of the Han Corporation, why couldn't Lu Man have some special treatment?

Han Corporation was Han Zhuoli's, and Han Zhuoli was Lu Man's, so Han Corporation also belonged to Lu Man's, there was nothing wrong with that.

But Lu Man did not want that, if the others in the company got to know, they would feel indignant and even if they did not dare to say it out loud, they would definitely talk about it in private.

Lu Man did not want Han Zhuoli to be judged by people like that, after all, he was the CEO of Han Corporation and he needed to be impartial and look after his employees.

When she was studying, she could occasionally take up a case to earn additional money and that was enough for her.

After working for around half a month, it was almost time for school to start.

When Sister Li and others saw Lu Man clearing up her things on the table, they knew that she was probably not going to come back to work in the future, and they felt a bit sad about parting with her.

"I'll still come back to take a look once in a while," Lu Man smiled and said, "If there are no other plans during my holidays, I'll be thick-skinned and come back to work, at that time, don't despise me."

"We definitely won't despise you!" Sister Li and the rest hurriedly assured her.

Brother Zhang smiled and said, "Originally we wanted to have a farewell party for you, but we felt that that was not good. After all, you haven't quit yet, and you will come back eventually. We'll just treat you as a member of the Public Relations Department, and you would still come back to work."

Sister's Li was upset about Lu Man's departure and her face clearly showed it. She even jokingly scolded Brother Zhang, "Look at what you're saying! Lu Man would be able to come back only if she doesn't become a celebrity. Of course, we want her to be popular and have no time to come back!"

"Right right right," Brother Zhang hurriedly admitted his mistake, "I said the wrong thing, I said the wrong thing."

"I have signed a contract with the Han Corporation," Lu Man tried to lighten the atmosphere, "I will be just like other celebrities under Han Corporation. If I have anything I will come to the Han Corporation, even if it's not concerning public relations, I'll still come back."

Chen Shimian chirped, "Is your manager the CEO?"

Everybody: "..."

It sounded very logical.

"..." Lu Man was also stunned, "I don't know, no one has told me who's my manager. But I'm about to start attending school, and I don't have any activities planned, so I probably won't need a manager."

Before this, Lu Man had yet to consider this problem in detail, but now hearing Chen Shimian mention it, she thought about it, could it be that Han Zhuoli really wanted to be her manager?

This was way too much!

Who would dare to discuss things with Han Zhuoli!

Furthermore, he was so busy, how could he have time to take up a part-time job as her manager.

Even if Han Zhuoli really wanted to do it, she would reject it right away.

After packing up her things, Sister Li and the rest walked Lu Man to the entrance of the company.

Wu Lize finally opened his mouth and said his first sentence, "If there's anything you need help with, then come back and tell me... tell us. We are a professional team, after all, we have more strength in numbers."

"Alright," Lu Man smiled and nodded.

Seeing Lu Man leave, Wu Lize could not help but think, if that day at the hospital, his mother had not said that, would it have been different for him and Lu Man?

It was just, there was no if.

After taking a day off and resting at home, Lu Man got ready to go to school.

Chapter 425: You're Going To Let Her Bully Me Like That?

What Han Zhuoli had helped her register for day school, Lu Man thought that it was quite good already.

There were not a lot of lessons, and although it would take quite some time traveling, she could go spend time with Xia Qingwei every day.

And at her age, she really did not know how to interact with the girls from her class who were 18 or 19-years-old, there would probably a gap in understanding due to their age difference.

Thinking about how she was 22-years-old now, and her classmates were 18 to 19-years-old, she did feel quite a bit of stress.

On the other hand, Han Zhuoli's thinking was even more simple.

If Lu Man stayed in the hostel, it would be so hard to meet Lu Man.

Lu Man was very thankful that she started school from the second semester of the first year, that way, she would escape the military training session; she really did not really like military training.

During her day off, she followed Han Zhuoli to buy some things she needed for school.

Lu Man had lost touch with school life for close to three years, and she was anticipating as well as nervous about going back to school.

Having lost touch with school life, Lu Man was a bit confused about what to buy for school.

Even Han Zhuoli was clueless about it, so he directly called Han Zhoufeng.

And he decided to have Han Zhoufeng buy school stationery and necessities.

Han Zhuofeng's face was black as he came out. Back then, he had said that he would not see her again, but very soon, they were meeting again.

Who knew that as soon as they met, Lu Man would still greet him with a smile. "Hello, we meet again."

Han Zhuofeng: "..."

Han Zhoufeng suddenly felt that Lu Man was really was at par with Han Zhuoli in terms of enraging people.

Han Zhuoli smiled as held Lu Man's hand, his Man Man had such high attack power, leaving Han Zhuofeng at a loss for words as soon as they met.

Han Zhuofeng harrumphed, "If it wasn't my older brother calling me out, I wouldn't have come."

"En." Lu Man nodded, not paying him any heed. "Anyway, your older brother did it for me."

Han Zhuofeng: "..."

This woman was so unfriendly!

Feeling wronged, he wanted to complain and looked at Han Zhuoli. "Older Brother, are you going to let her bully me like that?"

"She's your elder, this is not called bullying, you have to be filial," Han Zhuoli said with a straight face.

"..." Han Zhuofeng was really going crazy. "How is she, my elder!"

Lu Man maintained a smile but her heart was not calm. "Don't ask, it's for your own good."

As expected, she heard Han Zhuoli say, "The oldest sister-in-law is like a mother."

Han Zhuofeng: "..."

He wanted to go home now, was it still in time?

In the end, Han Zhuofeng, under the pressure of Han Zhuoli, brought Lu Man to the stores where she could buy the necessities and stationery for school.

But since she was a day student, she didn't need to buy a lot of things.

After shopping, Han Zhuoli brought Lu Man back to school and shoed Han Zhuofeng away. "Alright, you can go play by yourself."

"..." Han Zhuofeng finally felt the troubling feeling of being kicked to the curb after he had outlived his usefulness. "On the last day of my holiday, you called me out, and ruined it for me, now that you finished using me, you are kicking me away?"

When Lu Man heard his words, she wondered, why was behaving like a spurned lover?

This child really had a serious brother's complex.

"You can dream on!" Han Zhuofeng opened the car door and sat in the back seat. This time, he did not forget that he could not steal Lu Man's shotgun seat. "Don't forget that I'm also studying at the Drama Academy, what's wrong with me going back to school to take a look? Anyway, I want to go with you two."

Han Zhuoli looked at Han Zhuofeng like he was looking at a dumb person before getting in the car with Lu Man, and driving to the National Drama Academy.

The school did not allow cars inside, and Han Zhuoli did not want to use some special privileges here, so he stopped the car at the entrance of the school.

As the school was starting tomorrow, many students came back to school early, and the campus was bustling with students.

Chapter 426: Who Is This Woman Being Rude To!

Seeing Han Zhuofeng, everyone looked over.

Han Zhuofeng was the most popular person in their school; it was publicly acknowledged that he was the best looking in the Drama Academy and his family background was mysterious.

No one knew what family background Han Zhuofeng had, but they knew that his family was definitely very rich.

Han Zhuofeng had never purposely shown off or boasted in front of others. From a young age, he was brought up like a prince, and so his actions unknowingly reflected his noble upbringing.

Thus, Han Zhuofeng was very popular in the school, and a lot of girls were chasing him. However, it was just that he liked no one in particular.

At this moment, the students saw Han Zhuoli standing next to Han Zhuofeng. Han Zhouli's aura was even better, stronger and charismatic. When Han Zhuofeng was compared to Han Zhuoli, he clearly lacked the powerful aura he normally had and became an ordinary person.

Quite a few people found Han Zhuoli to be familiar, but since they had just seen him in the press, they couldn't identify him when they saw him in person.

It was just that Han Zhuoli was really too outstanding, and as soon as he entered the school, everyone's attention was only on him.

The students could not help but be curious, who was the person walking beside Han Zhuofeng, a high-profile person, and even attracting their attention. He ought to be someone high profile too.

But before they could get a clear view and identify him, the three of them had already disappeared into the office building.

They first went to the office for the performing department as Lu Man needed to report to the school, and collect the textbooks.

"Teacher Li, hello, I'm Lu Man, I came to report."

"I know you," Teacher Li did not have a good expression, and took out a form and gave it to her. "Fill it up, then go to our instructor to collect the books."

Han Zhuoli frowned, who is this woman being so rude!

Lu Man did not know what problem Teacher Li had, already having problems with her before even getting to know her well.

She shook her head at Han Zhuoli, trying to pacify his anger. She took up the pen and was about to fill the form when she heard Teacher Li speak, "I don't care what relation you used to transfer here, but since you're already in this school, then study well, and be a good student, don't bring stir up trouble or dirty the school's name."

The principal had already informed the head of the department that there would be a transfer student into the performing arts major and that the student was Lu Man who had starred in Greedy Wolf Operation. At that time, Han Zhuoli had not told the principal about his relation with Lu Man at all, and the principal did not dare to guess, nor did he ask Han Zhuoli.

And thus, he did not bother telling his subordinates about it.

The head of the department was displeased with Lu Man transferring in without any achievements or scholarship.

Other people had to work hard to secure admission in the Drama Academy, they needed to have good humanities grades and pass the test for the course they wanted.

But just because Lu Man participated in the Greedy Wolf Operation, and had used her connections, she did not need to go through the test, and directly transferred in.

Such a special treatment was disapproved by the head of the department.

The entertainment circle was messy, and as an outsider, Lu Man suddenly participated in the Greedy Wolf Operation, and claimed that she did not have any backer. The head of the department found it hard to believe.

Who knows what dirty dealings she had done to be able to get into the Drama Academy.

"Don't think that just because you starred in Greedy Wolf Operation, you are better than people in school, don't bring those messy things from the entertainment circle into the school!" Teacher Li said, not trying to be courteous or polite at all.

These days, all the budding starlets who became famous were young, attractive and good looking and they all chose to join the National Film Academy.

On the other hand, the National Drama Academy was much more low-key, and rarely had any young people who became famous while they were still young.

Lu Man signed her name, and at the last stroke, she suddenly used a bit of force force on the tip of the pen and stopped for a while before she put the pen down.

Chapter 427: Is Our Principal Someone You Can Call Over So Easily?

“Teacher Li.” Lu Man straightened up. “Why are you dissatisfied with me?”

“What kind of attitude is this!” Teacher Li glared at Lu Man, “Who are you directing your bad temper at!”

Furious, Han Zhuoli let out an angry laugh, Teacher Li’s words had so many hidden meanings, and now he was blaming Lu Man for having a bad attitude?

“Call your principal here,” Han Zhuoli said in a low voice.

“Who are you to call the principal? I’m disciplining my student, strangers shouldn’t interfere!” Teacher Li lashed out at Han Zhouli.

Already enraged enough, Han Zhuoli snickered, “You’re mocking my girlfriend indiscriminately in front of me, and you’re refusing to let me say anything?”

“I asked you to call the principal over, are you going to call him or not?” Han Zhuoli asked one more time in a serious tone.

“Is our principal someone you can call over so easily? Ignorant!” Teacher Li frowned.

Han Zhuoli took out his phone and called Zheng Tianming in front of Teacher Li. “Find the phone number of the principal of the National Drama Academy. Tell him I’m at the office, and get him to come over as soon as possible.”

Anxious and dubious, Teacher Li stiffened a little, but when he heard what Han Zhuoli said, he sneered disdainfully.

He was so pretentious!

He even ordered the principal to come over as soon as possible.

Teacher Li could not be blamed for not knowing who Han Zhuoli was, how would he be able to interact with him?

Although Han Corporation invested a lot in Drama Academy every year, Han Zhuoli had never made an appearance.

Even when the buildings were named after the Han Family, Han Zhuoli never came to cut the ribbon at the opening ceremony.

Lu Man said coldly, “Teacher Li, why don’t you say what’s really on your mind, don’t keep muttering to yourself and don’t think that I don’t get the malice in your words.”

“What did I say? I was just telling you about your duty as a student from the start to the end. I’m your teacher, is there something wrong with me educating you? How Come good advice turned into malice, why is it that you don’t want to listen? Or is it that you feel like you feel that what I said has indeed some relations with you and you can’t let people know?” Teacher Li hit the desk suddenly.

Lu Man laughed coldly, "If you dare to say it straight, I'll even respect you a bit. I chose the Drama Academy because this place teaches people how to act, and the people who graduate from here are highly skilled, talented actors. But to my surprise, the teachers here don't care about the truth and can not differentiate right from wrong, coming to a conclusion about students even before they get to know the student, and they judge students in the most disgusting way, it really shocked me."

"What did I hide? What is it that I did not say?" Teacher Li was so embarrassed and frustrated that he lost his cool. "What I said was very ordinary, you're using your guilt to twist my meaning!"

Lu Man laughed coldly, "I'll give you a sentence, if you have Buddha in your heart, you see people as Buddha; if you have sh*t in your heart, you see people as sh*t. You're dirty in your own heart, your thinking is dirty, don't disgust me with your thoughts!"

Han Zhuofeng was having an eye-opener at the side.

Even if she had Han Zhuoli backing her, he had never seen anyone confront a teacher in the school.

Before this, Lu Man had been really very polite and courteous with him.

"Leave now!" Furious, Teacher Li got anxious and pointed a finger at Lu Man's nose. "My school can't afford to have such a vile, undisciplined student! I don't care what connections you used to transfer into the school, leave now!"

Who knew that as soon as he stretched his finger up, it was grabbed by Han Zhuoli, and bent upwards, Teacher Li yelled out.

"Who are you pointing at!" Han Zhuoli said angrily.

The other teachers in the office had been silent spectators but when they saw the argument turned violent, they all came up to try to stop them.

"If there's anything you want to say, just say it, there's no need to resort to violence!"

"Stay calm, stay calm, don't be too impulsive!"

Chapter 428: Unable To Accomplish Anything, But Able To Ruin Everything

"Teacher Li is a bit hot-tempered, just let go first."

Some people instead of dousing the fire, added fuel to the fire. "You are all too much! Why are you making trouble! Teacher Li is instructing his student, how can you be so violent? Is it that if teachers try to educate students and their words are not nice to hear, they have to be beaten up?"

"What are you all doing!" When Principal Zhang strode in he saw the chaos in the faculty room.

And when he saw Han Zhuoli standing in the middle, he started to tremble with fear.

"Everyone stop!" Principal Zhang yelled angrily.

All the teachers immediately stopped what they were doing.

Even Han Zhuoli let go of Teacher Li's hand, and then took out a handkerchief, cleaning his hand in disgust.

Teacher Li was tending to his index finger and kept moaning in pain.

However, when he saw Han Zhuoli's actions, blood rushed to his head.

He was about to point an accusing finger at Han Zhuoli, when the thought of how his right finger was almost broken came to his mind and he hurriedly put his hand down.

"Principal!" Teacher Li climbed up from the ground and said, "Such a vile, arrogant student can't be accepted by our school! She's too much!"

Principal Zhang shot daggers at Teacher Li; not only could Teacher Li achieve anything good, but he was also excellent in running everything!

Principal Zhang ignored Teacher Li completely and did not even think about his fierce image of a principal as he tried to placate Han Zhuoli.

"Young Master Han." Anxious, Principal Zhang asked, "You came over personally, why didn't you tell me?"

"I brought my girlfriend to report and collect the textbooks," Han Zhuoli said coldly with as face as black as the bottom of a pot. "I originally thought that it was a small matter and we would leave after settling it. But who knew that I would be met with such people, it's really an eye-opener for me. If I hadn't come over today and my girlfriend were to be alone, how aggrieved would she be?"

"What's going on!" Principal Zhang glared at Teacher Li angrily and asked him.

Teacher Li trembled, no matter what, he did not dare to admit it. In front of Principal Zhang, he could no more show his fangs. "Principal, there's a misunderstanding here. They are spouting nonsense, don't listen to them! When Lu Man came to report, I just... I just asked a few things of her as a teacher like to study well and work hard. Who knew that they would make a mountain out of a molehill."

Principal Zhang directed his stern, sharp gaze at the other teachers. "What were Teacher Li's exact words?"

Some people lowered their heads, and no one dared to say anything.

Although Teacher Li did not say it out loud, the meaning between the lines was especially mocking, even an idiot could understand it.

Suddenly someone from the same department as Teacher Li came forward and grumbled, "Principal, what Teacher Li said was right. For the sake of the student, he said some few things to have her study hard in school, how did it turn into Teacher Li mocking her? She really has too much of a glass heart. Is it that now as a teacher, we can't even discipline our students?"

Lu Man recognized the person to be the same one who was adding fuel to the arguments just now while others were trying to stop the fight.

“As a teacher, you are disciplining me and maligning my image as a student only because I have starred in a famous director’s movie? How can you tell me to be low-key and not to bring those dirty scandalous things from the entertainment circle into the school without even getting to know me?” Lu Man said coldly, “The entertainment circle is a bad mess, but what does that have to do with me? Teacher Li, what are you insinuating? As for those dirty things, they exist everywhere, even in the corporate world too!”

“I just entered the office and said my name, nothing else, but you had an expression of which said that I should bow down to you and listen to you obediently even when you are wrong?”

Chapter 429: Regret Choosing This Place

Han Zhuoli directly confronted the principal. “He humiliated my girlfriend.”

Originally, Lu Man going back to school was a joyful occasion.

Although Lu Man did not say it, he knew that Lu Man was excited.

But who knew that something that their excitement would be spoiled like this.

Not only it aggrieved Lu Man, but it would also leave behind bad memories of her first day at school.

Han Zhuoli’s heart ached for her. “This is the place my girlfriend chose over National Film Academy. But now, I really regret choosing this place!”

When Principal Zhang heard that, how could he not know who was lying and who was speaking the truth?

Usually, Teacher Li liked to act big, and show his authority over ordinary staff and students.

But there were a lot of things that he did not understand well and he would form his own opinions without caring about the reality and randomly accuse people.

However, ordinary teachers and students did not dare to offend him and took his bullying lying down.

Principal Zhang knew about this all along, but a department head could not be dismissed without any solid proof. Thus, he could only try to reprimand Teacher Li from time to time.

But Teacher Li became more and more fearless, acting even bossier.

Just last month, a student had applied for a work-study program, and his family had saved up money and bought him a button-up shirt worth 200 yuan for his birthday. However, Teacher Li refused his request stating that if he had the money to wear a shirt worth 200 yuan, then he did not need to occupy the slot of the work-study program and removed his name from the list.

Agonized, the student’s family complained Principal Zhang, and the student burst into tears feeling indignant.

Therefore, Principal Zhang could only go to find Teacher Li personally and help the student get his name back on the list.

Displeased with Principal Zhang reprimanding him, Teacher Li did not easily concede in, making Principal Zhang negotiate with him for a long time before agreeing.

But from then on, that student was blacklisted by Teacher Li, and Teacher Li often made trouble for him.

Then there was another student who got a role in a show during one of the holidays in her second year.

It was neither a big production nor well known among the public. She had a small role but she had a decent amount of screen time.

Naturally, the student did not want to give up on this chance and made use of the holiday break to film it.

After school reopened, it reached Teacher Li's ear and he instantly expelled the student, accusing her of going against the school rules and privately went to film a television drama in her Second Year.

Thankfully, the student's family had some power, and had some connections, and only then did Teacher Li stop, but he still remembered what the girl did.

There were a lot of things that Teacher Li did, to make his presence known in school and show off his power.

"Teacher Li!" Principal Zhang said angrily, "Before this, there were a lot of such cases, yet I didn't shell out harsh punishment to you because I felt that as the department head I needed to give you face, So every time I just reprimanded you and didn't take any strict against you. However, you became more and more bold, acting on your whim!"

"Principal Zhang, you're listening to their lies and scolding me?" Enraged, blood rushed to Teacher Li's face.

"It's not them, you are the one spouting lies!" Principal Zhang said in a low, grave tone, "Teacher Li, as for your past deeds, I remember them all. Furthermore, do you really feel that Young Master Han needs to slander you? What will he gain from slandering you? No, I should say, do you even deserve getting slandered by him?"

In Han Zhuoli's eyes, Teacher Li was a small character not even worth his time, and after this one meeting, Han Zhouli would probably forget even his appearance.

He would not even leave a trace in Han Zhuoli's memory.

Chapter 430: Stop All The Investments

Haha! Han Zhuoli slandering him? He was already giving him face.

Fraudulent, dirty acts were common in the market, yet each schemer had his own standard, right?

Teacher Li didn't deserve getting slandered by Han Zhouli at all.

He was already been given face as Han Zhuoli could not bother to slander him.

“Young Master Han?” Hearing Principal Zhang address Han Zhouli as ‘young master’, Teacher Li frowned, and sneered coldly, “Where did this rich second-generation heir come from? Principal, you’re sucking up too much, it’s really embarrassing for the school!”

Furious, Principal Zhang shot daggers at Teacher Li, this person was really getting more and more out of hand!

“Rich second-generation heir? Rich second-generation heir?” Principal Zhang was really so frustrated with Teacher Li that he lost his cool. “He’s the biggest sponsor of our school. It’s CEO Han who invested to build the school library, the laboratories, the theater!”

By the time President Zhang finished saying that, Teacher Li already knew who Han Zhuoli was.

At that time, when the theater was being built, it could be said that it shocked the whole country.

There was not a single institution with its own theater.

Just because of that theatre, National Drama Academy gained an upper hand over Film Academy!

National Drama Academy and National Film Academy were always competing against each other, trying to pull the other down and refusing to give in to each other.

The National Film Academy looked down on how the Drama Academy had few stars emerging from their school, while the National Drama Academy looked down on how the Film Academy’s stars lacked acting skills.

The year the theater was constructed, many students chose National Drama Academy over National Film Academy.

Although both of them never lacked students who came to seek admission and didn’t it feel good looking at the crowd of students who came to apply?

Principal Zhang felt that it was not enough and praised, “Our school has reserved slots for students to be recruited into production teams and films, and it’s because of CEO Han! No matter whether it is a small or big production, Han Corporation never forgets to recruit students from our school. The reason why people say that the National Drama Academy’s students don’t have to worry about being unemployed is because of Han Corporation!”

“Now you’re saying that CEO Han is slandering you, a mere teacher? You even had the guts to call him a rich second-generation heir? Find me a rich second-generation heir like him!” Principal Zhang was lashed out at Teacher Li.

“All along, you never cared to find out the truth, how many people have you wrongly accused because of your prejudice and imagination? Yet you still have the face to yell at me and accuse me of embarrassing the school?”

Principal Zhang’s words made the other teachers let out a sigh of relief.

Besides the teachers on Teacher Li’s team, every one of them had been bullied or ostracized by Teacher Li before.

Usually, no matter how aggrieved they feel, they could only insult him behind his back and do nothing against him

They had really hoped for someone to teach Teacher Li a lesson someday.

Han Zhuoli's face was still black, he did not feel that this was enough.

He took out his phone and called Zheng Tianming. "How's the plan to invest in building a film and television set for the National Drama Academy going?"

Suddenly, there was a pin-drop silence in the room.

Teacher Li looked at Han Zhuoli in shock.

On the other hand, Principal Zhang was anxious and worried.

This was something their school had tried hard to have the Han Corporation invest in. After sending several proposals, Han Corporation had finally agreed, and now they were in the planning, cost estimation phase of the project.

"The estimates have already come out, and we're now preparing a detailed proposal," Zheng Tianming replied.

Han Zhuoli instructed coldly, "There's no need to prepare an agreement, we are putting a stop to the whole plan."

Zheng Tianming was stunned for a while, but instantly regained his composure and said, "Alright."

"The rest of the investment plans for National Drama Academy should be stopped too, and as for the yearly recruitment for production team and films, it can be canceled altogether," Han Zhuoli said.
