

Mr Han 51

Chapter 51: Use Your Charm to Get Her

Han Zhuoli coughed slightly and sat back down, tidying his collar. "I'm so handsome, how could someone be completely indifferent towards me?"

"Oh!" Mo Jingcheng suddenly became interested. "You have a target? Who is it? How does she look like? Do you have a photograph of her?"

"No," Han Zhuoli did not even want to respond to him, and turned to ask Chu Tian, "What kind of men do you women like?"

"I can't represent all the women," Chu Tian took a look at Mo Jingcheng, her eyes full of emotions. "But I like the kind of men like big brother Mo. Mature, steady, not frivolous.

Even though he was also a wolf who stole her, the white rabbit, back to his den, she was willing to let him steal her.

"Although the kind of man a woman likes can be among any of the several kinds of men, based on their looks and personality, the type of men they hate are the same. That type is frivolous men, those who start being too touchy as soon as they meet, that's behaving like a hooligan. Those men are disrespectful, so why would any woman like them?"

Han Zhuoli heart thumped, and thinking about it, it seemed like he had truly made a mistake.

But it was Lu Man who had shamelessly thrown herself at him and had even kissed him the first time they met.

Seeing his reaction, Chu Tian knew that something must have definitely gone wrong in the middle.

Even though Han Zhuoli always kept a poker face outside, but when he was with friends, he would not try to hide his true self.

Chu Tian then gave him a piece of advice. "If you genuinely like that girl, then you must be serious, don't think of getting too close to her whenever you see her, you must take things slowly, use your charm to get her."

Han Zhuoli looked like he had realized something and nodded. "Alright, I know now."

Meanwhile, Lu Man was still in the hospital room looking after the unconscious Xia Qingyang, whereas Lu Qiyuan, Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi were in the car heading home.

Earlier, Xia Qingyang had, in a momentary slip, not concealed her true self at the hospital, and hence was currently feeling apprehensive.

"Qiyuan, are you... angry with me?" Xia Qingwei asked carefully, still hiding her grievances, and acted as if her husband was her everything she grabbed Lu Qiyuan's arm, "I just can't bear to hear people speak badly of you and Qi Qi. They can speak badly of me, but they can't say bad things about the both of you.

You're both so good and did nothing wrong at all, the truth is that you are both innocent, then what right do they have to say that about you two?

"Especially you, Qiyuan, you have suffered so much grievances for us mother and daughter, I can't stand it when people misjudge you. They have never experienced it before, so what right do they have to scold you? If they want to blame someone, they should blame me, everything is my fault..."

"Mom, don't say it like that," Lu Qi hurriedly consoled Xia Qingyang. "It's all for our sakes, you've always not been able to stand dad being misunderstood by others."

"Yes, I know you the best." Even Lu Qiyuan's expression became better, and he reached out to hug Xia Qingyang's shoulders.

In the many years they had been together, Xia Qingyang had always had a gentle and weak look to her in front of him, although she was not natural and poised like those ladies from rich families, she was still gentle and pleasant.

However, at the hospital, Xia Qingyang had been fierce-looking, and seemed even more shrewish than the marketplace shrew.

Hence, Lu Qiyuan could not help but be suspicious about whether Xia Qingyang's true personality was indeed like that?

Even if it was, it could not have been possible for her to have put on an act for so many years.

But now that he heard Xia Qingyang's explanation, he finally felt relieved.

Yes, wasn't she like that all because of him?

He knew, Xia Qingyang cared the most about him, and even thought of him as more important than her own self.

Moreover, he enjoyed the way Xia Qingyang of treated him, unlike Xia Qingwei.

Lu Qiyuan's face darkened as he thought about Xia Qingwei's accusations and how she had gone crazy back at the hospital. Thus now more than ever he felt that Xia Qingyang much better.

Lu Qi's eyes brimmed with tears. "Dad, how about... how about we just give up, don't go and ask older sister for help anymore. I don't want to see you getting wronged."

Chapter 52: Who Cares About How Han Zhuoli Looks at Her

"Look at yourself, you're scared that I'll be wronged, but for me, you'll let yourself be wronged. Yet Lu Man doesn't care one bit if I'm being wronged or not, or if I feel bad or not. Moreover, with that kind of behavior, she still has the cheek to blame me for being biased?" Lu Qiyuan felt touched by Lu Qi's sensibility but he was also angry as Lu Man had disregarded their familial ties.

“Dad, don’t say it like that. I think that older sister is just unhappy with how well you’ve treated me all these years. Because, before I came into the family, she was the Lu family princess, your only daughter, and enjoyed your sole doting on her. However, when I came, I took a part of that affection, and thus she’s unhappy, feeling that, I have stolen her position. I can understand that very well,” Lu Qi said. Although it looked like she was trying to console Lu Qiyuan, she was actually speaking ill of Lu Man, making him even angrier.

“Hmph! You already said it, before you came, she had already enjoyed so many years of being doted on as the only daughter, so what’s wrong with giving you some affection? She has already gotten so many years of affection and has even enjoyed much more advantages, as a Lu family daughter, than you, so what does she feel is unfair?? You have suffered so many grievances, so of course, I have to treat you better. She doesn’t even understand such simple logic. Honestly, she’s being selfish and even has a bad temper. Just like now, no matter what we say, she will still refuse to help you!” Lu Qiyuan became extremely furious as he spoke.

Should Lu Qiyuan be called stupid?

No, He was not stupid.

Otherwise, he would not have been able to develop such a big family business.

Moreover, it did not matter whether it was a small or a large business, if one did not have the ability to do business, they would only lose money.

Since Lu Qiyuan could develop the business so big, making Lu family very rich he was definitely not stupid, otherwise, he would have long been scammed out of his money by people.

Yet even if a person was smart when it came to business, it did not mean that he was smart in all other aspects of life.

Nonetheless, Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi could act very well and had been continuously badmouthing Lu Man in front of Lu Qiyuan all these years, completely brainwashing Lu Qiyuan.

Furthermore, in the past, Lu Man was also not the kind of person who would hide things and with her bad temper, she would often explode with Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi’s provocations. Also, being unaware of Lu Qi’s true identity, she would constantly blame Lu Qiyuan for being unfair and would always fall into the traps set by Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi.

Moreover, a person would eventually get convinced about something, if someone was continuously saying it next to his ear every single day.

“Qi Qi, don’t do foolish things, dad will definitely not let you go to jail.” Lu Qiyuan said.

“Dad.” Moved by his words, she could not bear to part with Lu Qiyuan. Looking at him, she said sincerely, “Dad, thank goodness I have you, you’re so good to me.”

On the contrary, Lu Man would never immerse herself in admiration for him and tell him such things, it was only Lu Qi, who would do this.

On the other hand, Lu Man did not know that currently Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi were bad-mouthing her again. However, even if she knew right now, she would not pay any heed to it.

Anyway, after so many years, she was already used to it and it was nothing new for her.

Moreover, right now her whole mind was on Han Zhuoli. She could really not fathom his thoughts.

Did he belittle her so much that he would flippantly kiss her every time they met?

Annoyed, Lu Man contemplated whether it was due to her conduct the first time they had met; she had removed all her clothes covering herself only with a towel and had actively buried herself in Han Zhouli's embrace; moreover, she even had taken the initiative to kiss him, which may have left an impression being an easy woman and hence he felt that he could take liberties with her.

Disturbed by these thoughts, Lu Man kept tossing and turning, unable to sleep on the small temporary folding bed beside Xia Qingwei's bed.

It was only until the sun had started to rise that Lu Man decided not to think about it anymore as anyway after returning the money to Han Zhuoli, there would not be many opportunities for them to meet each other again.

Moreover, as the money would be returned through Alipay, they won't need to meet in person.

Chapter 53: From Now On, Lu Qi's Happy Days Come to An End.

Only when Lu Man closed her eyes and told herself that, she could finally calm down and try falling asleep.

However, she was worried that she would still be asleep when Xia Qingwei wakes up, hence she slept only for two hours and quickly woke up.

After she had freshened up a bit, she recalled the ruckus the Lu family had raised and took out her phone to search it up on the Internet.

As Tang Zi had brought a lot of people with him yesterday, he was not the only one reporting the news.

The paparazzi had attached photographs and released the news. Moreover, the netizens who were present there yesterday were also involved in sharing everything they knew on the internet. Hence the internet exploded with photographs and videos.

At first, Lu Qi's fans could not believe it. They even questioned whether the Lu family mentioned in the articles was indeed Lu Qi's family.

Also, in the world, there were many people who shared the same name, or maybe someone intentionally hired an actor to accuse Lu Qi?

In the entertainment industry, people often used all sorts of methods to tarnish someone's reputation. Everyone had seen this many times before.

Thus, once the fans started questioning, the paparazzi immediately released photographs of Lu Qi's embarrassed figure surrounded by paparazzi. They even marked out the background to prove that it was indeed at the hospital.

Moreover, the paparazzi had also captured Lu Qiyuan and Xia Qingyang in the photographs. Hence, Lu Qi's fans could barely refute the claims.

Yet, there were still some die-hard fans who refuted, "Who knows when these photographs were taken, maybe they only chose to post it now?"

However, the paparazzi said nothing. But, the next morning, they uploaded the video they had filmed.

Lu Qiyuan and Xia Qingyang's faces were clearly visible in the video and even their words were all clearly recorded. The video also recording the embarrassed Lu Qi hastily leaving the hospital.

Even though the scene was messy, it was enough to let others recognize.

This time, even the die-hard fans were speechless.

Could it really have been Lu Qi?

If not, why was she so insistent on forcing her sister to turn herself in?

Moreover, in the video, Lu Man had emphasized that she would never be the scapegoat.

Due to the uproar, Lu Qi's agency released an official statement, stating that this was all a pack of lies and that someone was trying to push the blame onto her.

However, it was futile. Nobody believed it.

It could be said that from now on, Lu Qi's happy days had come to an end.

"Man..." Lu Man heard a soft voice calling her and quickly put her phone down. Looking upwards, she saw that Xia Qingwei had opened her eyes.

"Mom, how are you feeling?" Lu Man quickly strode over to her bedside.

"I'm pretty alright." Xia Qingwei had just woken up and was a little weak.

"Wait here, I'll get the doctor over to take a look," Lu Man said as she pressed the bell.

Immediately a nurse came over and seeing that Xia Qingwei was awake, she called the doctor.

Upon examining Xia Qingwei, the doctor said, "Not bad, she just needs to rest well."

"Mom, do you want to sleep a little longer?"

Xia Qingwei looked at the sky outside and then looked at clock hanging on the wall. It was already 7 p.m.

"No, I've already slept for such a long time. I underwent an operation yesterday, right?"

“Yes, the operation was successful. Now, you just need to rest well.” Lu Man was relieved too.

From now on, she was going to look after Xia Qingwei on her own.

“Yesterday, Lu Qiyuan had brought that mother-daughter pair over. What happened after?” Xia Qingwei was still worried about it. She anxiously held onto Lu Man’s hand.

“It’s alright now. My friend came after that and thus they couldn’t do anything to me. Instead, their behavior was exposed on the Internet and things aren’t looking too great for them.” Seeing Xia Qingwei worrying, Lu Man held her back and raised the head of the bed a little. “Mom, rest assured, I’ll be fine. I won’t let them get what they want. Your health is the most important thing now. You have to rest and get well soon, so don’t think about any unhappy matters.”

Chapter 54: Aren’t We A Family?

“Yes, I have to rest well and get better, only then can I protect you.” Xia Qingwei held onto Lu Man’s hand remorsefully. “Originally, I thought that leaving you with the Lu Family was for your own good. No matter how heartless your father was to me, you were still his own flesh and blood, so I believed that he wouldn’t mistreat you and being with him would be better off than suffering with me. Yet, who knew that he barely has any shred of humanity left in him!”

However, Lu Man felt that Lu Qiyuan was not inhumane. It was just that he gave all of his love and sympathy to Xia Qingyang and Lu Qi, thus there was none left for her and Xia Qingwei.

“Man Man, tell me the truth. What ‘hurting someone’ or ‘going to jail’? What exactly is going on?” Xia Qingwei asked.

Thus Lu Man had to tell her everything in detail. “After I woke up, the lamp that had injured someone was in my hands and Lu Qi was nowhere to be found. Hence, I knew that they were probably trying to frame me, so I quickly ran away. But who’d have known that they would still refuse to give up.”

“Those bastards!” Fury burned up in Xia Qingwei’s eyes. Lu Man was his daughter too, yet he ill-treated her so badly!

She had been pregnant with Lu Man for 10 months, thus for her, her daughter was more important than her own life!

Hence, Xia Qingwei’s heart ached.

“Mom, don’t get too agitated, don’t forget that your heart isn’t well and you’ve just finished an operation. I have explained everything to you in detail as I was afraid that you will get angry in case I had lied to you. Yet, you are furious upon hearing the truth, do you want me to worry to death?” Lu Man hurriedly tried to soothe Xia Qingwei. “Mom, you’re all that I have now. If anything is to happen to you, who will love me?”

“Right.” Xia Qingwei took a couple of deep breaths before she managed to calm down. “Even though your dad doesn’t treat you as his daughter anymore, I’m still here. Mom will always love you.”

Lu Man smiled and nodded. "That's right. If anything, I still need you to help me take charge of the situation."

After finally calming down and comforting Xia Qingwei, Lu Man quickly went to brush her teeth. After that, she went to the hospital canteen to buy some porridge for Xia Qingwei.

Moreover, now she also needed to have someone around to help her. Hence Lu Man could not even go back home to prepare something better for her. Only when Xia Qingwei would recover a little, she could leave for a moment.

On Wednesday, probably afraid that others would beat him to it, Tang Zi took advantage of the 9 o'clock peak hour, when everyone was on their way to work, and released the photos and video he had taken, including the recording that Lu Man had passed to him.

All this concrete evidence not only proved that Lu Man was forced to be a scapegoat but also solidified the matter that Lu Qi cheated with Lu Man's ex-boyfriend.

There were even some "do-gooders" who really went to find the after-sales of Brand C and discovered that the serial number of Lu Qi's bracelet and the engraving on it, and immediately uploaded it on the Internet.

However, Tang Zi first sought Lu Man's permission, before releasing the news, and Lu Man was completely alright with revealing all these, even if it would involve her.

"This matter will have a grave impact on Lu Qi. I, on the other hand, won't be affected that much. Let the netizens dig if they want to. Hopefully, they might even dig up how Xia Qingyang ruined my mother's marriage and how the Lu Family has been bullying me." Since the impact that it would have on Lu Qi was more beneficial than detrimental.

"Great! Hearing these words, I can freely do whatever I want." Tang Zi rolled up his sleeves, planning to put on a big show.

Eventually, Lu Qi found out about this matter but only after hearing it from her manager. She almost went crazy upon taking a look at the uproar on the Internet.

"Dad, Mom, how could Elder Sis do this! She's clearly laying down a trap for us! It's alright that she doesn't like me and is trying to frame me, but how could she do this to you... Dad too? What would others think of us after hearing this recording? Hasn't Dad already suffered enough yesterday? Because of her, were we not already humiliated enough? How could she try to frame us like this! Aren't we her family?" Lu Qi cried. She was genuinely crying.

She was crying over her future acting career; it was very likely that she would never be able to make a comeback ever again.

Chapter 55: That Unfilial Thing, Probably Never Ever Treated Him as Her Father!

Even if this matter tides over and she need not go to jail, it would be a miracle in the entertainment career if she could ever become famous again.

Sleeping with higher-ups, hurting someone and being a third party.

No matter which, it was enough to make her suffer greatly.

Even if the evidence of her hurting the director was insufficient, with what Tang Zi had released, it was enough to make the netizens infuriated and lose her fans.

Lu Qiyuan got angrier seeing Lu Qi cry. "I'll find Xia Qingwei! I can't handle Lu Man, but I don't believe that even she can't!"

Lu Man trying to plot against Lu Qi had made already Lu Qiyuan furious. However, it seemed that she was trying to against him too!

That unfilial thing, probably never ever treated him as her father!

For the sake of this matter, Lu Qiyuan did not go to the office and went straight to the hospital.

***

"Who are you? Why are you stopping me from entering?" Upon arriving at the hospital, Lu Qiyuan immediately asked the nurse for Xia Qingwei's room number.

Recognising him from yesterday's ruckus, the nurse was unwilling to say anything.

However, he kept claiming that he was just here to visit his ex-wife. Hence the nurse could not stop him and reluctantly told him the directions to Xia Qingwei's room.

Lu Qiyuan rushed over, his face grim and sour. Yet, before he could even touch the door handle, he was suddenly held back by two men who appeared from nowhere.

"Is that Lu Qiyuan's voice from outside?" Xia Qingwei frowned. Upon mentioning Lu Qiyuan, her face was filled with disgust. She even felt like vomiting the porridge she had just eaten.

"Mom, you've just undergone your operation, you shouldn't move around recklessly." Lu Man moved Xia Qingwei's hand away. "Don't worry, just rest here, it'll be fine. You have heard what Dad said just now, probably someone must have stopped him. No matter who it is for what reason, it is definitely beneficial to us. I'll just go out and take a look. This is a hospital, he can't do anything to me even if he plans to do so."

"Then just leave the door open when you leave. Pass me your phone too. If anything goes wrong, I'll immediately call the police!" Xia Qingwei said.

Feeling uncomfortable, Lu Man said, "But, Auntie Chai is still in here, it's not just us. Dad is making such a ruckus outside, it will affect Auntie Chai."

Xia Qingwei let out a breath. "I was being too anxious that I did not even consider that."

No matter what, they could not inconvenience others because of their own family matters.

"It's fine," Auntie Chai immediately said. Auntie Chai was also listening attentively when Lu Man was speaking to Xia Qingwei. She was interested in gossip.

Besides, she could not fall asleep now either. She might as well leave the door open and be a busybody. "Just leave the door open, it's more reassuring."

Xia Qingwei apologized, "Auntie Chai, I'm really sorry. These few days must have been a huge inconvenience to you because of us."

"It's fine, it's fine." Auntie Chai waved her hand. "It's all because of that worthless ex-husband of yours. He keeps coming to find trouble with you guys. It's not that you are asking for it either."

"Sister Chai, thank you so much," Xia Qingwei replied gratefully.

"We're both in the same hospital room, it's normal for us to help one another." Auntie Chai nonchalantly waved her hand.

However, as Lu Qiyuan kept shouting outside, Xia Qingwei's face turned cold. "The CEO of a big company is shouting and making a ruckus out there like a hooligan, is he not ashamed?"

Lu Man smiled sarcastically as she walked out. "A man is known by the company he keeps. Usually, Xia Qingyang would cry, make a fuss and even threaten suicide to get her way. After living with her for so many years, it must have influenced him one way or the other."

However, Xia Qingwei would never behave the same way as Xia Qingyang.

Chapter 56: Lu Qiyuan Subconsciously Froze. However, His Hand Was Already Held Back by the Bodyguards Han Zhuoli Had Left Behind

Besides, Xia Qingwei only found out about what Xia Qingyang had done after she had brought Lu Qi along to meet Xia Qingwei.

Xia Qingyang had knelt before Xia Qingwei and had cried profusely, saying that she had let Xia Qingwei down. She had even begged for Xia Qingwei to let her be with Lu Qiyuan, or else she would commit suicide right in front of Xia Qingwei as she was too ashamed to face her.

Moreover, Lu Qi, who had been calling 'Auntie' for all these years, became her own husband's daughter out of the blue. It was expected of Xia Qingwei to have gotten extremely livid.

However, who would have known that Lu Qiyuan would chance upon Xia Qingyang kneeling and begging. He immediately reprimanded Xia Qingwei for bullying Xia Qingyang, and in a fit of anger, he decided to divorce her then and there.

Xia Qingwei was a prideful woman and since she knew that his heart was long gone, she did not even try to stop him and signed the papers without a fuss.

Lu Man smiled coldly. It's true that a crying child would always be fed first.

Moreover, a man is influenced by the company he keeps. Since Lu Qiyuan has lived together with Xia Qingyang for so many years, how could he not have been influenced?

Also, Lu Qiyuan must be blind to believe that Xia Qingyang was like a weak, gentle and pitiful little flower.

Standing at the door, she saw two men holding back Lu Qiyuan, not letting him enter the room.

"Lu Man!" When Lu Qiyuan saw Lu Man, he could no longer hold back the anger that had piled up within him. "You unfilial creature! I don't care if you don't wish to help the family out, but how dare you try to plot against us!"

Thus, Lu Man did not play dumb either. "That was considered as plotting against you? I was just trying to protect my own rights, that's all. If you did not have any ill-intentions behind your word, why would they have been recorded? Now, if you want to talk about plotting, all of you were the ones who tried plotting against me first. Why? Is that only you are allowed to plot against me, but I'm not allowed to reveal your scheme?"

"How dare you still have the face to admit it!" It looked like she was completely unapologetic, and in fact, even pleased with herself.

"How could I have given birth to a bastard creature like you!" Lu Qiyuan raised his hand, planning to slap Lu Man on the face.

In her previous life, the only time that Lu Qiyuan laid a hand on Lu Man was when she had gone to the Lu family house and had hit Lu Qi. But that was after she was released from jail and found out that Xia Qingwei had already passed away. But Lu Qiyuan had hit her just to make her let go of Lu Qi.

However, in this life, Lu Qiyuan had already slapped her indiscriminately on her face a long time ago.

Moreover, when he had slapped her, there was not even a slight hesitation about hitting his own biological daughter. It was as if his heart felt no guilt.

"Lu Qiyuan!" Ignoring her own injuries, Xia Qingwei rushed out furiously. "Who are you calling a bastard! You are the bastard instead! What right do you have to scold Lu Man!"

Hearing Xia Qingwei's voice, Lu Qiyuan subconsciously froze. However, his hand was already held back by the bodyguards Han Zhuoli had left behind.

Thus, even if Xia Qingwei had not said anything, not say a word, it was impossible for him to even lay a finger on Lu Man.

"Mom!" Lu Man quickly rushed over to help Xia Qingwei. "Why did you come out? Quick, go back to the bed and lie down."

Seeing that Xia Qingwei's breath was rushed and uneven, Lu Man became extremely anxious. "Mom, you have always told me to not let you worry. Also, if I had hidden anything from you, you would have definitely gotten furious. If I hid anything from you, you would be angry with me. But what about now? I'm also angry and displeased that you are being so reckless with your body! Hurry back now!"

Xia Qingwei held onto her wound. Thankfully, it did not open. "Alright, alright, alright. I'll go back now. Don't be angry."

Then, she heard Lu Qiyuan shouting at the door, "Who exactly are you people! Let me in!"

Chapter 57: Stop Humiliating Yourself

Since there were people holding him back at the door, Lu Man was not worried. Only after she had settled Xia Qingwei down did she walk to the door.

"You two are?" Lu Man asked the two bodyguards.

"Miss Lu, I'm Zhou Cheng and he's Xu Hui. We were sent by Mr Han to protect you. Mr Han was afraid that some people would not give up and come here to create a mess again," Zhou Cheng said.

When Lu Qiyuan overheard that they were Han Zhuoli's men, he stiffly took a breath, alarmed and suspicious.

Even Lu Man was surprised. What was Han Zhuoli doing?

He had actually taken the effort to leave two men here to protect her! Even if Han Zhuoli had already helped her twice, she still did not believe that Han Zhuoli was simply just a good Samaritan who would help others without any reason.

Besides, from all the rumors about Han Zhuoli that she had heard in her past life, none of them was ever related to him being kind.

At least like now, Lu Qiyuan would not be to enter the hospital room and harass Xia Qingwei.

"Thank you. I'm grateful that you're here," Lu Man thanked them sincerely. "Could you help me to chase him away? We don't welcome him here."

"No problem." Zhou Cheng gladly twisted Lu Qiyuan's wrist. Together with Xu Hui, with both of them on each side, they started dragging Lu Qiyuan out.

"Let go of me. Lu Man, is this how you treat your father? Let others see! Is there anyone else as unfilial as you!" Lu Qiyuan shouted furiously. It was extremely embarrassing for him to be dragged out, by the wrist, by others like this.

Zhou Cheng immediately pressed on his waist. Suddenly, Lu Qiyuan felt as if he was being choked and could barely catch his breath.

It was so painful that his face turned pale, he was unable to speak another word.

“Mr Lu, nonetheless you’re still the CEO of a big company. Even though you’re not as famous as Mr Han, you should still try to stop humiliating yourself in public,” Zhou Cheng warned quietly by Lu Qiyuan’s ear.

Hence, Lu Qiyuan dared not speak a word, even if he could.

Remembering his status and identity, he knew that he needed to maintain an image.

“Chase him away immediately. Don’t let him come close,” Lu Man replied resolutely. “Thank you.”

As they went past the nurse station, Lu Man saw the nurse looking at them, her face was full of shock. Lu Man went up and said, “Hi, I’m really sorry but you must have known about this man who came here a few days ago and caused a huge ruckus. Could you do me a favour? He’s definitely not here to visit any patients. He barely even wants my mother to recover. Just now, because of him shouting loudly and being vulgar, my mother rushed out of the bed despite her wound still not healed right after her surgery.”

Upon hearing that, the nurse anxiously asked, “How’s that patient’s wound? Did it open?”

“I looked at it briefly. It seemed to be fine. However, could I trouble you to have a closer examination? After all, with my father there, I couldn’t take a proper look at it. Besides, I’m not as professional as you are,” Lu Man said, her face looked troubled and pale. The nurse knew that it must have been because of Lu Qiyuan, who had made her feel bad and troubled.

Moreover, everyone in the hospital knew about the huge fight that day. They knew that Lu Qiyuan and Lu Man’s biological mother had a divorce and that even treated Lu Man like a step-daughter.

Looking at Lu Man’s tired figure, the nurse felt sympathetic. “Alright, I’ll go and take a look now. Rest assured, this time it was the hospital’s fault for not being more attentive. In the future, we will definitely stop him from disturbing patients ever again.”

Chapter 58: If This Isn’t Bullying, What Is This?

“Thank you so much, I’ve caused trouble for you all.” Lu Man said gratefully, her face full of appreciation for the nurse.

The nurse had seen how she was being bullied by her own father and her step-mother, and Lu Man already felt pitiful enough, but now Lu Man was even more worried that she would cause trouble for the hospital, thus the nurse felt that Lu Man had it tough.

But this was Lu Man’s family matter, and she could not meddle, thus she would just do whatever she could to help Lu Man in other ways.

“It’s nothing, letting him come here to make noise would also disturb other patient’s rest,” the nurse said.

After Lu Qiyuan heard that, he was furious.

What kind of person did they take him for!

Yet, as he was still being subdued by Zhou Cheng, he could not even say anything.

Lu Man saw with her own eyes that Zhou Cheng and Xu Hui had thrown Lu Qiyuan out of the main door of the hospital. Lu Qiyuan looked like a mess, which was out of the ordinary, his hair was messy and even his clothes were crumpled. No matter who sees him, they would not believe he was the boss of a large company.

Lu Qiyuan wanted to point at Lu Man and scold her, but he cared more about his image, and he could not bring himself to do it in the crowded streets.

Not caring about him anymore, Lu Man turned around to return to the hospital.

When she returned to the hospital room, the nurse had just finished checking Xia Qingwei wound.

After that, she told Xia Qingwei, "You must control your emotions, no matter how angry you are, you can't ignore your own health. Your body is no one's but your own, you can't harm yourself because of some people, there's no advantage to that, and you'll even make your daughter worried and anxious."

Xia Qingwei nodded, "I know now, this time I was too impulsive."

"Really, thank you so much," Lu Man said gratefully.

"It's nothing," the nurse really felt that Lu Man as a young girl had it tough. Taking a look at Lu Man, the nurse felt that she was indeed very young. The nurse remembered that the other day when Lu Qiyuan brought people to cause trouble, she had heard Xia Qingwei say that because of that younger daughter, Lu Qiyuan had forced Lu Man to quit school.

Even though she did not say anything to Lu Man right now, when she had gone back, she told all her colleagues about what Lu Man had been through.

"On the Internet, Lu Qi's image is that of an affluent second generation heiress. However, her management company has been opened by the Lu family, and the company has her as their only celebrity, and she often brings capital with her for the movies or shows she acts in. Even though they are so rich, they still force their older daughter to quit school just to be Lu Qi's assistant, if this isn't bullying, what is this?" When the nurse returned, she was very angry.

"This Lu Qiyuan must have something wrong with his brain, I even heard that Lu Qi is his step-daughter, not his biological daughter, whereas Lu Man is his own biological daughter. Even if he has something wrong with his brain, he can't treat his own biological daughter so badly!" A colleague said in shock, finding it incredulous that someone would do something like this.

Since the hospital was so big, there were some people, who were Lu Qi's fans. However, after seeing and hearing about that incident themselves, they all stopped being fans of her.

Currently, the discussion of what had happened with Lu Qi was intensifying online, and the hospital staff were using online names to expose what had happened.

Moreover, the tip-off this time also included Lu Qiyuan.

Instantly, the whole Internet was scolding both Lu Qi and Lu Qiyuan, and there was no one standing on their side.

However, Lu Man did not know about these things yet.

The two of them knew that Lu Man definitely had a few things to ask them, and so had stayed there.

“Thank you for you did just now. Are you both going continue staying here?” Lu Man asked.

“Yes, Young Master Han had us stay behind and specifically told us to look after this place,” Zhou Cheng replied.

“I didn’t see you both until just now, where were the two of you?” Lu Man asked, finding it strange that had not seen them she heard Lu Qiyuan’s shouts.

Seeing that Lu Man had no intention of being angry, Zhou Cheng heaved a sigh of relief and said smilingly, “We were scared that if we stand here, it would make all of you feel uneasy, and we were also scared that you would misunderstand us, so we’ve been hiding nearby all along. Just like now, we would have appeared only if something happened.”

Chapter 59: She Must Say Thank You to Han Zhuoli

“Both of you should drink some water.” Lu Man gave a cup of water to each of them. “It’s must have been hard on both of you, staying here all the time to ensure that everything is okay, and even if you wanted to drink water or use the washroom, you couldn’t easily leave your spot.”

The two of them were indeed thirsty and hence did not reject her. Taking the water offered they gulped it down quickly.

Lu Man wanted to get more water for them, but they stopped her saying that one cup was already enough for them.

“May I ask, what’s the reason that why Young Master Han is doing this?” Lu Man asked.

Zhou Cheng shook his head. “We don’t know either, Young Master Han told us to stay behind and make sure everything is okay, so we stayed behind to guard you and your mother, we can’t ask anything else concerning this.”

“Alright.” Lu Man sucked in her lips. “I won’t act tough and say that I don’t need your help. Just like today, if you two not here, I probably could not have dealt with the problem, so I will still have to trouble you to guard this place in the future.”

“Of course, it’s no trouble,” Zhou Cheng smiled, feeling that his burden was finally lifted, “I was even scared that after you found out about our existence, you would no longer let us stay here.”

"I'm not that oblivious, I'm very clear of my current situation," Lu Man said, "Now the two of you don't need to hide anymore, so why don't you come into the hospital room."

"No need, no need," Zhou Cheng rejected Lu Man's offer. "The hospital room isn't big, if we go in, it'll be too crowded and it's also inconvenient. We'll just sit here, if anyone comes, we can instantly see."

No matter what Lu Man said, they both refused to go in, thus Lu Man could only let it be.

She returned to the hospital room, and upon seeing her enter Xia Qingwei immediately asked, "Who are the two young men outside?"

"It's my friend's people, he was worried that my dad would come and cause trouble, so he left two of his people behind to guard the place." Lu Man could only categorize Han Zhuoli as her friend.

"Is it the friend from yesterday?" Auntie Chai asked, interested.

Lu Man could only nod. "Yeah."

"Of course," Auntie Chai gave a big smile and said, "He's tall and handsome, and he also seems noble and dignified. His face is extremely good looking. In my opinion, among all the male celebrities of today, there's no one that can compare to him. He had even rushed forward to pay for your surgery fees."

"My surgery fee isn't a small sum, Man Man 1, what kind of friend is he that he was able to help you pay such a large amount all at once. Does he always bring that much money around?" Xia Qingwei felt it was a bit unrealistic.

However, Lu Man did not know how to explain that to her and saw that Auntie Chai, who was at the side, was listening intently.

Lu Man's heart sunk, Auntie Chai was a good person, but she had loose lips and loved to gossip.

"We met at my job and we have worked together before. He just happened to see me and helped me out since he trusted my morals."

Xia Qingwei believed what Lu Man said, she too believed in her daughter's morals.

"Have you returned the money yet?" Xia Qingwei was still thinking about it, she did not feel at ease owing someone so much money.

"Not yet," Lu Man said, "My card is at home and I haven't returned home these past few days."

Hearing that, Xia Qingwei quickly urged her, "Then you should quickly go home to get the card and return the money to your friend. To keep owing someone so much money, I just don't feel at ease, and I also feel embarrassed."

Chapter 60: Lu Man Hurriedly Entered, and Saw the Young Person Sitting on the Floor, Face All Bruised Up

Furthermore, the two bodyguards would definitely report to Han Zhuoli about what had happened today.

If she did not say anything, she would be acting like an ingrate.

“Alright, I’ll return home to get the card now, then make lunch and bring it over. You can’t keep eating hospital food.” Since there was no one else to care for Xia Qingwei, Lu Man had no choice but to buy food from the hospital cafeteria every day.

“You can go back first, don’t worry about me.” Xia Qingwei wanted her to stop worrying. “It’s just a few hours, I’ll be alright.”

Seeing her, the two immediately stood up.

“Big brother Zhou, big brother Xu, I need to make a trip back home and prepare lunch for my mom, I’ll have to trouble you to make sure everything is okay here,” Lu Man said, feeling embarrassed.

“There’s no need to be so polite, you can just call us by our names,” Zhou Cheng immediately said, he could not afford Lu Man calling him ‘big brother Zhou’ so politely,

No matter for what reason Han Zhuoli had for making them stay behind, it was obvious that Lu Man was special in Han Zhuoli’s eyes.

Moreover, Zhou Cheng and Xu Hui had been under Han Zhuoli for quite a long time now, but they had never seen Han Zhuoli look at any woman more than once.

Han Zhuoli was the CEO of the Han Corporation, the ruling company of the entertainment circle, even though he was a part of the flashy entertainment circle, he was not at all involved with any women, but no one would believe them even if they told others.

Yet he was exactly like that.

However, Lu Man was the only one, for whom Han Zhuoli had made an exception.

Hence, Zhou Cheng and Xu Hui did not dare to belittle Lu Man at all.

Even if it was not to the extent of treating her like she was the future CEO’s wife, she still had to be treated with whatever respect she deserved.

“Yes, yes, there’s no need to be so polite with us,” Xu Hui said, “From the two of us, why don’t you choose one of us to go with you?”

Lu Man rejected their offer. Even though they were left behind by Han Zhouli, they were not her personal bodyguards, so she was embarrassed to make use of them like that.

Zhou Cheng said, "How about you let Xu Hui follow you. Since Lu Qiyuan could bring people to the hospital to catch you, it's hard to say that he won't bring people over to your house to catch you. If there's really any problems, with Xu Hui there, it'll be less worrisome."

Giving it a thought, Lu Man felt that he was right. He had not considered everything, and with Lu Qiyuan and Xia Qingyang's desperate attitude like that of a cornered animal, it was possible that they would actually do that.

Hence, Xu Hui followed her home.

Moreover, since Zhou Cheng and Xu Hui's car was parked at the hospital parking lot, it prevented her the trouble of taking public transport.

Upon reaching her doorway, Lu Man intended to open the door but found that something seemed wrong with her door lock.

Naturally, Xu Hui also noticed, and he instantly pulled Lu Man behind his back and said softly, "Wait outside first, you can enter after I make sure that nothing is wrong."

Lu Man nodded.

Xu Hui lightly turned the door handle, there was no sound at all and the door opened just like that.

Lu Man's face darkened, Xu Hui gave her a hand sign, telling her to be careful, and then entered first by himself.

Whereas Lu Man waited anxiously at the door, not wanting to hinder Xu Hui, and did not make any noise at all. However, she only stretched her neck to peek inside upon suddenly hearing the sound of fighting.

It was followed by the sound of something crashing, it was most likely that someone was being thrown onto the ground.

After a while, she heard Xu Hui yell, "Lu Man, you can enter now."

Earlier when they were on their way to her house, Lu Man had asked Xu Hui to directly call her by her name.

She was not Xu Hui and Zhou Cheng's boss or superior and was just receiving help from the two of them, and so she did not have the face to be arrogant.

Lu Man rushed inside and saw a young man sitting on the floor, his face all bruised up and hands tied behind the back by Xu Hui using curtains. If it was not for the fact that his hair was being pulled on by Xu Hui, it would probably have been too painful for him to even sit straight.
