

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1001

In the darkness, Lily felt a strong wind blowing in her direction. She leaned back and ducked swiftly, avoiding the palm that flew across the air. She stood up just in time to receive another punch from the attacker.

The fists came at a breakneck speed, and each punch was ruthless and decisive.

It seemed like this group of people were not ordinary thieves or kidnappers.

Judging from their skills, they seemed to be more robust than the thugs who had kidnapped her in Westwood.

They came prepared and moved like the wind, not allowing Lily to catch her breath.

If it were not for the fact that Lily had been practicing with the Lodge family for many years, she might have died long ago.

Bang! Bang!

The two fists collided with evenly matched strength. It was hard to tell who would win.

However, right at this moment, the whole house lit up again.

"The power must have tripped. I've turned on the backup power for now, and I'm getting the main power source fixed immediately. Go and report—"

The maid paused mid-sentence when he saw the scene in the living room before screaming.

When the light came on, Lily could finally see who had attacked her.
