

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1020

"Enough!"

Alexander suddenly yelled. His voice echoed in the room, startling Margaret, who immediately stopped crying.

She looked at him with wide eyes, not knowing why he had suddenly gotten angry.

Alexander had always been a firm person, but for the sake of his grandfather and seeing how they were his elders, he had always been more lenient on them.

However, they were going overboard.

While changing the policies in recent years, Alexander had quietly kicked out all the moles in the company. He had not planned on kicking Ralph out if the latter had been honest with his work.

However, Ralph was cunning. His greed for personal gain was too strong, and it did not take him long to get into trouble as he managed a branch.

Hence, he could only be booted out.

did nothing and got a small

of dissatisfaction in status as elders to talk are my elders, don't forget that I'm the family's patriarch. Have you all glared at Margaret

Did Grandpa's grandmother threaten him this way when Grandpa was the family patriarch? Did speechless by his

she had her, and her life in the Russell family had always been smooth father married a woman

her background was not up

However, she was gorgeous.

had inherited her good looks, but this was her grandson, looking at him was like looking when Patrick died, Margaret was