

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1036

Lily looked at Heather. Although Heather wore a mask when she attacked Lily, Lily sensed something different about Heather and that she no longer gave off an oppressive feeling.

Ralph mistook Lily's gaze as being hostile and shouted, "Hey, I'm talking to you. Did you hear me? Alex, is this how you teach her to behave?"

"Well, I don't know how." Alexander nodded and continued before Ralph could make fun of him, "Why don't you show me how you would do it?"

Ralph was speechless. 'Teach Heather how to behave? Are you kidding me? I'm lucky enough that she doesn't beat me to death. How am I supposed to tell her what to do?'

However, he could not admit he was afraid and simply coughed. "You know Heather has suffered an injury thanks to you, and yet you're playing games with me? Apologize now!"

looked at him and then at 'Heather.' "Sure, he said as he suddenly goosebumps as not dare to look into his eyes. Her gaze shifted to the upward-moving elevator, wishing it could move faster. She was used to acting like Heather when she was outside, but she "Ralphy, why waste our time on these uncouth people? I don't want to see them. Let's stay there and only tried to impress her. The truth was that he would not know what to do if Alexander refused to apologize.

is much more cultured than yours! Take my advice. Don't just bring anyone back home. Not everyone let it go, I'll not hold it against you, my nephew. Remember, I won't go easy on you if quickly stepped back toward them. Ralph hurriedly and Lily watched as the elevator doors