

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1039

Wanting to spend quality time with his wife, Alexander did not expect to bump into the two people when they arrived at the hotel.

As they had made a reservation beforehand, the dishes were served quickly after they were seated, and they ate quietly as if they were hungry.

However, they were not gobbling up the food. After a moment of silence, Lily asked despite herself, "Don't you feel that there's something off about Ms. Riggs just now?"

"You felt it too?" Alexander looked up at her, not surprised by her observation.

'It's not odd that she shares my thought, as she has an observant eye. What's bizarre is that Ms. Riggs was somewhat different than what she used to be.'

"So I didn't get the wrong impression."

her observation confirmed by her before, she assumed she was imagining things. However, since Alexander agreed with her, then the woman the sneak attack. You know, kickboxers exude a certain type of air. "It's difficult to put into words, but I could tell she it too." Nodding, Alexander would reveal it somehow. Besides, got near her just now. This was not like everyone has heard about is fearlessly arrogant. Even though she was scared because she had been wounded

Ms. Riggs has a twin?" Lily thought for a thought about it as well, with the outside world. No one has heard that Ms. Riggs has a sister, and being the only child, her parents gave her heard that after she was nearly kidnapped when she was young, they treasured her even more and she stayed on the island until she came of age. Heather was