

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1059

"I'm okay, Mom!

Margaret focused on Ralph, anxious to know what had happened to him. However, Ralph stomped and said, "I have something urgent to ask you."

"You..." After getting yelled at, Margaret choked and sighed helplessly, "Okay, I don't care about what happened to you. What do you need?"

Ralph looked left and right, ensured no one was around and approached his mother. He said, ' Mom, do you know if our family has any heirlooms?"

He was concerned about finding the secret handbook, but when he saw his mother's sudden reaction, he felt suspicious. After all, Margaret and Hugo had been married for years, so how could she not know about the handbook?

Margaret was taken aback by his question. Seeing that he was so mysteriously swaying everyone away, she asked, "What kind of heirloom? What kind of treasure do you want?"

might just curious. Don't we have the kind of generational heirloom in our family?

was puzzled. "Secrets? What secrets? Our family isn't in the food industry. Why would there be any secret

It's a secret

she not

Didn't Dad send him to learn it for a while? How did you forget? We only talked about it two days ago! You know, the secret

Margaret finally understood. "Oh,

"Yes!" He was overjoyed.

Margaret kept shaking her

'What a disappointment!

Alex's kickboxing is so good? He even injured Heather, and she insisted that our family must have a secret. Mom, you and about anything. Do you think I have dementia?" Margaret said unhappily, "Our family doesn't do kickboxing. When your father sent Alex to learn, I thought it