

Spoiled by Mr. Russell by Luminous Night Chapter 281-286

Chapter 281

“Did you go to Nathaniel and force him to break up with me?” Melanie asked bluntly. Lily was confused and remained silent. “Stop pretending! Just admit what you’ve done and stop beating around the bush! I never expected that you’d have such tricks up your sleeves,” Melanie sneered at her but did not dare to approach. She still remembered that Lily knew kickboxing, so she kept a distance. “Mel, are you out of your mind?” Lily could not hold back at Melanie, “If there’s something wrong with you, go find a doctor. Don’t come here with your nonsense and expect me to deal with you. I’m not a doctor. Settle your case with Nathaniel on your own. Get out of my face! You disgust me!” After saying that, Lily also waved her hand in repulsion. Melanie’s face turned red after being humiliated. “Lily, don’t go around deceiving people! Do you still think you can get back together with him? It’s impossible!” Melanie walked forward slowly, gradually approaching Lily.

“Even if you blinded him for a while, his heart still belongs to me. Do you know what we were doing in the past few years while you were in the lab? He told me that seeing you was repulsive. He had no interest in you; I’m the only one in his heart. What else do you know besides a pile of data and test tubes? You’re not a woman at all.”

When Lily realized Melanie was approaching, she took precautions because that was the only way to deal with a phony like her. Lily shifted her weight to one side without taking a shot, and Melanie rushed forward uncontrollably.

“Ah!” Melanie leaned to one side, clutching her stomach, “Ah, my baby...” Lily was silent. “What the hell! This woman is a scammer! She never thought Melanie came over not blaming Lily but framing her instead. Lily did not see it coming at all. Melanie could still stop and hold her step from falling, but she did not. Instead, she let herself fall and hit the rock beneath. It was the plan all along.

“Quite close, but based on your angle and strength, you probably just fell on your waist and not directly on your stomach!” Lily said mockingly, squinting at her. Melanie clutched her lower abdomen and looked at her with a wailing, “You vicious woman! – You killed my child. I won’t let you go!”

Lily wanted to say something, but her eyes caught a glimpse of the blood slowly flowing down Melanie’s legs. “Whoa, so realistic! Did she bring props?” However, based on intuition, Melanie did not seem to be pretending. Was she pregnant? Is she suffering from a miscarriage? How could she pick up a fight with Lily when she was pregnant? How ruthless!

“Ah, it hurts! I’m in so much pain!” Melanie’s brows became tighter and tighter, and there were large beads of sweat on her forehead, which looked painful.

Initially, no one was around, but the noise attracted people nearby who came and stuck their noses in the business. They saw this scene and were pointing at what had happened.

“Melanie, you’re ruthless!” Gritting her teeth, Lily called an ambulance.

In any case, a life was at stake. Even if Melanie were wrong, Lily would not just watch her die there. Also, since the earlier issue had not been resolved, Melanie could not die yet.

“Lily? Lily!” Probably also surprised by the silence, Olivia ran downstairs and saw Lily first, “Why are you here? Why didn’t you give me a call?..”

Before she could finish speaking, she was interrupted by a moan from the side. She turned her head, glanced in the direction of the sound, and was stunned, “Ms. Thayer, what happened?”

Chapter 282

“Suspected of miscarriage, an ambulance has already been called. They’ll arrive in about three minutes.” Raising her wrist to check the time, Lily wanted to roll her eyes. Luck was not on her side today. What a pity! “Then...”

“Hoax,” Lily snarled.

“Oh...” With a clear expression on her face, Olivia absolutely believed Lily’s words.

If Lily had wanted to be ruthless, Melanie would have been hurt long ago. Lily would not deliberately cause a miscarriage if she had done nothing to Melanie.

This was not the right location either.

When Melanie heard Lily’s words, she almost lost her breath. Melanie raised her head and bit her back molars, “Lily, how dare you slander me! I wouldn’t have hit the stone if it wasn’t for you. Now...ah, it hurts! It hurts!”

Her face was distorted and out of shape from the pain. It was common for people to sympathize with the weak. Lily frowned and sneered. ‘Slander? Who is slandering who?’ The ambulance arrived quickly, and the medical staff carried Melanie into the van. Lily did not want to care, but she made a phone call. Besides, being there would impact Olivia due to rumors others might make, so they both followed. After entering the hospital, a general examination was done, and Melanie was quickly pushed for surgery.

Outside the operating room, Olivia was still shocked. “She’s really pregnant? Why would she use her pregnancy to make a fuss if she’s really pregnant? What was she trying to do?”

“Yeah, what was up with that?’ Lily wanted to know as well.

Was it just to frame her? However, if it was and it caused her to have a miscarriage, what good would it do for Melanie?

Thinking back carefully about what she said then, Lily wondered, “If I heard correctly, it seems that she broke up with Nate?”

Yes, it seemed as if that was exactly what Melanie said. "Break up? She's still pregnant but broke up with Nate?" Olivia was stunned, She had a firm grasp on how vile and repulsive the pair were. How could the two of them, who seemed so in love, decide to go their separate ways? It was impossible to trust anyone in this society. A relationship between two sc*mbags should continue forever!

"I don't know, but she seemed to have said that. It's also possible that she's mentally unwell and talking nonsense?" If that was not the case, why would Lily want to look up with Nathaniel and try to end their relationship? Lily seemed to grasp each word, but when put together, she was completely lost.

1.2

Chap22

"She's probably nuts!" Lily poked her chin and nodded thoughtfully, thinking that her own answer was more reliable. "Which of you are the family members of the patient? Please pay the hospital deposit." A nurse came over and looked at the two of them. The two looked at each other and shook their heads almost simultaneously. The nurse continued, "Didn't you call an ambulance to bring her here? Are you not Melanie's family?" "We're not her family. We just passed by and wanted to help. It's no problem to call an ambulance for help, but we can't pay the hospital deposit," Lily replied slyly. What a joke! Pay for the deposit? Lily would rather spend the money than help Melanie! "Then..." The nurse was embarrassed. "Family, right?" Lily thought for a while, "Please wait!"

Chapter 283

Lily took out her phone and realized that she had deleted all contact information about Nathaniel and could only look at Olivia for help.

After all, Olivia was an employee for many years. With one look, Olivia immediately understood, and after finding Nathaniel's phone number, she gave it a call.

It did not take long for the phone to be answered. Nathaniel said lazily, "What's wrong, Olivia? Do you regret it and want to come back?"

Olivia was silent. Was he dreaming during broad daylight? Lily took the phone and said bluntly, "Nate."

"Lily?" Surprised about hearing her voice, Nathaniel immediately cheered up, "What's up?"

Rechecking the caller ID, it was indeed Olivia's phone number. It seemed the two of them were together. "Your little girlfriend is in the hospital, Ob-Gyn department. Nate, come and pay for the surgery deposit for your woman!" After she gave the address unceremoniously, she hung up the phone with a snap.

Olivia was stunned when she heard it and gave Lily a thumbs up.

Nathaniel did not even think about the past on the other side of the phone. He was still thinking about Lily's words about paying for the surgery. Who? What surgery? In any case, it was always good for Lily to contact him. It meant that there was still room to maneuver. Fortunately, he could move around independently, but he had to rely on a wheelchair. The hospital would not let him exit, and he had to call an assistant to help, which was quite troublesome.

However, Lily did not remember until after the phone call. He also seemed to have had a car accident and was hospitalized. Regardless, it was a matter of the two of them. It was for the sake of humanitarianism that Melanie was sent to the hospital.

She wanted to leave, but Olivia's phone rang, and it turned out to be a transfer message. Nathaniel directly transferred $3,000 and added a sentence, "No matter who it is, pay the surgery fee first. I'll be there soon."

Lily and Olivia looked at each other in silence. What did he mean by "no matter who?" How many other women did he have? What was he thinking about? "Lily, what should I do?" Looking at the extra money on her phone, Olivia was speechless. Initially, Lily wanted to leave after making the phone call, but now since Nathaniel gave her the money, it did not seem appropriate just to go. "Well, good for him. At least he gave the money to us first," Lily thought for a while and changed her mind to stay a bit longer.

Since he said he would be there soon, she wanted to wait and get the truth from him in person. She wanted to know what these two were doing and what tricks they had up their sleeves!

It did not take long for the hospital deposit to be paid, and Nathaniel came over as expected. He was still in a wheelchair, looking miserable. Nathaniel originally wanted to make himself more handsome, or at least not so embarrassing to see. However, after thinking about it, maybe looking a little miserable would evoke Lily's sympathy. Whenever he had a slight cold or a fever, Lily was so nervous that she would make tea for him, buy medicine, and cook chicken noodle soup. People will never forget the good things once they are lost. Even from a distance, Nathaniel could see Lily, and he felt a little out of place. The unfamiliarity was because he had not seen her for a while, and when he met her again, it was not quite the same as he had imagined.

In the past, she always had a plain face, barely wearing makeup. Her hair was in a ponytail, and her clothes were even less particular. She wore a white coat all year round.

Now, she wore a beige sweater and well-cut calf trousers. A black trench coat hung down naturally, and her hair was loose, with a slight curl. Although it was a simple outfit, it looked extravagant.

Chapter 284

Nathaniel reflected on his mother's words and realized he was beginning to view Lily as the Lodge family's most mysterious and noble member.

"Lily," he raised his head and looked at her. His voice choked a little when he opened his mouth to call for her.

Lily was silent

“Your woman is still inside.” She motioned in the direction of the operating room with her mouth and said, “Hold your act and wait until she comes out before you put it on.”

Nathaniel was silent.

So was Olivia

She never saw Lily being so vicious before. It was pretty funny! It was entertaining to see Nathaniel’s face as he tried to talk but was restrained.

“What happened to Mel?” Nathaniel asked with a sigh.

“She followed me,” Lily said directly, “She wanted to grab me but lost her step and fell.”

After a pause, she added, “She seems to be pregnant and has bled a lot.”

“Miscarriage?” Nathaniel asked.

It seemed that he also knew about Melanie’s pregnancy. Lily confessed, “The doctor said it’s possible.”

“Huh...” He breathed a sigh of relief. He did not feel the slightest bit of sadness and eased.

This expression did not escape the eyes of Lily and Olivia, and they both felt that he was a little too cold blooded. That was his child, his blood. Did his heart ache even a single bit?

“You said she followed you?” Nathaniel asked again after some thought.

Lily was first startled by his callousness, but she realized that it had nothing to do with her, so she simply nodded, “She said I forced you to break up? Nate, what did you tell her? Why let her have such a delusion?”

“Did she say that?” Nathaniel was surprised. He did not expect Melanie to go to Lily and say those words. It seemed that breaking up with Melanie really provoked her.

Glancing at him, Lily said nothing

“Then, you just pushed her?” he continued. Looking at him again but coldly, Lily replied, “I didn’t touch her!” “Okay, you didn’t do it.” Looking at her cold eyes, Nathaniel felt a chill down his spine. He had the preconceived notion that Lily was gentle and submissive and that she would do as he said. However, he never cared about Lily, and she was no longer obedient to him. Her glare was like a knife to his face.

He ignored her too much and underestimated her.

Looking at her intensely, Nathaniel was very emotional and said quietly after a while, “Actually, even if you did, it doesn’t matter.” Lily was confused, and Olivia remained silent. What a scumbag! Melanie, lying inside, would probably pass out from anger if she heard this. "I'll say it for the last time. I didn't do anything!" Lily's body was cold, like a block of ice.

Chapter 285

Startled by Lily's aura, Nathaniel nodded over and over. "Yes, I know you didn't do it. Even if you did, the incident can't be as simple as a miscarriage. After all, you..." When Nathaniel met Lily's eyes, he choked up. "After all, I, too, have experienced it, and I know what you're capable of."

Lily rolled her eyes at Nathaniel and did not bother to reply to what he had said, "Nate, I don't care what tricks you guys are up to. I don't care why you're fighting. It has nothing to do with me. I sent her to the hospital and asked you to come and settle the bills. I just want to make things clear. If you provoke me again, don't blame me for being rude."

"Let's go." Lily had just wanted to clear Wings up but ended up feeling disgusted when faced with these two.

"Don't go, Lily!" Nathaniel suddenly reached out to grab her hand, Lily quickly moved her hand out of the way, not letting him catch it.

"Mel and I broke up," he said scornfully after taking a moment. Then he continued, "I don't know why she went to find you. Maybe she just couldn't accept reality."

"Still, I admit I still have you in my heart. I'm sorry for what I did to you in the past. Will you please give me a chance to make up for it?" Nathaniel looked at Lily with a sincere expression on his face.

Standing by the sidelines, Olivia subconsciously looked out of the corridor window.

"Is Nathaniel drunk? What kind of soap opera does he think this is? "Give you a chance?" Lily sneered. "Okay, then make a public statement and tell everyone that I was the one who created all of MN Inc.'s past works. That also includes all those big and small awards that Melanie took credit for. Void all those honors that you received and issue me a public apology. Can you do that?" Nathaniel went silent. Then he replied, "I'm okay with apologizing and issuing a statement, but isn't it too much to void the honors? On top of that, you were with MN Inc. at that time."

Those honors belong to MN Inc, and you. There's nothing wrong with that."

"So, are you refusing to do it?" Lily was already expecting a refusal. If he were to agree to her request, it would be game over for MN Inc.

"Okay, I'll do it." Unexpectedly, he agreed. After that, he added, "I have one condition. You have to come back. Come back to MN Inc, and come back to me. I will give you anything and everything that you'll ever want. From now on, we'll work together as we did in the past. Trust me. I'll compensate you for everything you've lost. I'll even double it." With a light snort, Lily mocked, "Nate, your wishful thinking is pretty impressive. What about Mel? What's going to happen with her?" Of course, she did not really care about Melanie. She was just curious and wanted to know how he felt about her.

"I already said I've broken up with her. You don't have to worry about her. She has her plans and can settle herself. There's no need for me to look after her. Of course, if she needs me, I'll be ready to help within my capacity. I will respect your opinion. I'll break all ties with her if you don't allow it. I promise."

117

Nathaniel thought Lily worried the relationship between him and Melaine would revive in the future, so he swore. As Nathaniel spoke, Lily and Olivia looked at him with contempt. Back then, he betrayed Lily and shamelessly claimed all her research achievements and honors for himself.

Now, no matter the reasons, he abandoned Melanie without hesitation. There was not even a trace of the affection he had for her.

'What a d*uche! How did Lily ever fall in love with him in the first place? It was probably the worst decision of her life!'

Chapter 286

"You're overthinking!" With a sigh, Lily felt it useless to say anything to such a person. She walked past Nathaniel and raised her hand to pat his shoulder, "I think you and Melanie would live a good life together. You two are very compatible. Seriously!" Sc*mbags and b*tches. What a good match! They should just get a room and stop harming others!

"You don't believe me?" Turning the wheelchair around, Nathaniel looked at her back, thinking she did not trust him.

He did not comprehend Lily's subtext and felt she was still resentful and upset about his betrayal. There was no response, and Lily walked away.

After sitting down for a while, Nathaniel thought about what Lily had said and felt he still had a chance.

Lily was still brooding about his past betrayal, but he believed that she still had feelings for him. He could get back with her in the future as long as he worked hard enough. With her ability and powerful family to support her, things would be at their best by then. Maybe one day, he would finally be able to reconnect with his mother.

When Melanie woke up from the anesthesia and opened her eyes, she saw a familiar face sitting on the edge of her bed, peeling apples.

He often peeled apples for her carefully, cutting them into small pieces and feeding them into her mouth. Melanie's eyes became warm. "Nate.." Opening her mouth, she called out his name, "My baby..." She knew very well that the child was gone! In fact, from the moment she went to find Lily, she had already decided to give up the baby. Since she did not want to keep it, she went to pick a fight with Lily, and if Lily fought back, she would get a miscarriage and blame it on her.

Wait, where was Lily?

Looking left and right, she reacted, "How'd you know? Where's Lily? Where did Lily go? She caused our child..."

"Mel!"

Interrupting her words, Nathaniel cut off the apple peel, bent down, and threw it into the trash, "Quit acting!"

Melanie stared at him with wide eyes, "Nate, what do you mean?"

"You've been putting up an act for a long time. I'm tired, and you should be tired too. Just quit it," Nathaniel did not delay his movements at all. He slowly cut the apples into small pieces and put them in a small bowl.

"Lily called me to come and pay your medical bills, and she was the one who sent you to the hospital. It would be more than just a miscarriage if she wanted to harm you. You wouldn't even be sent to the hospital so soon. Mel, you can't be more clear about what's going on here."

Nathaniel put down the knife. There was an apple core left in his hand. He looked at her and said, "I used to spoil you, so every time I cut an apple, the core left over is mine. I hate eating cores the most. I'm tired, and I can't handle you. Like I said, we both should go our separate ways."