Chapter 363

Mr. Parker answered without looking at the man, "What do you think?"

The man was at a loss for words.

What did that even mean? The man had spoken his mind since that was what he thought.

"Are you sure that's the case? Or did you assume?"

Mr. Parker continued. His words confused many people, and they all wondered what he meant.

"Judging by the answer sheets, quite a few of you had the same opinion, right?" he continued to ask.

There was no answer from the crowd.

Looking at how they had quarreled earlier, there was no need to produce the answer sheets.

Many of them disagreed anyway.

"What do the others think?"

After a final round of questions, he said,

"Let's announce the results."

The examiner on the side nodded respectfully and then stepped forward to announce the results. A total of ten people were selected.

The examiner started announcing results starting from tenth place.

What surprised Lily was that Noah took second place. She looked back and glanced at him.

Noah happened to be looking at her as well and gave her a slight nod and smile.

He had a confident look on his face.

After announcing the last nine places, there was only first place left. The atmosphere was now tense.

After all, there was only one spot left, so it was either first place or failure. Everyone wanted to go home with honor and rise to fame.

Therefore, when the examiner pronounced the name "Lily," it caused quite a stir.

"Her?! How is that possible?!"

The crowd started whispering.

Many people were unconvinced. They spoke in low tones, but their disbelief was apparent because there were so many voices.

"How could she possibly win? There's something shady going on with the results."

"The sampling competition has been around for many years, and there has never been such a shady scene. It's unheard of."

"Isn't she a friend of Mr. Parker's daughter? No wonder."

"Did Mr. Parker give her tips ahead of time?"

"Why bother asking questions? Just give us the answers."

Different voices gave different opinions, but the final result did not convince almost everyone.

None of them felt like Lily deserved first place, and they thought she could never be better than them.

"Wait a minute. I question this result!" someone raised his hand and raised an objection.

Even though Mr. Parker was present and the competition results were final, they could not hold back their contempt.

"I don't understand how she..." The speaker pointed a finger in Lily's direction.

"...could win first place. Is she better than us? How are we inferior to her? I hope you will give us an answer that will convince us. Otherwise, this is unfair competition!"
