Chapter 613

Arianna was right. If Eloise did not retaliate, Joseph would soon kick her out of the family.

Arianna and Nathaniel glanced at each other.

Nathaniel sat down knowingly and said, "Mom, you've done so much for the Tanners over the years. You've worked hard and considered everything for them.

"We spent so much time away from each other because of that man. You even quit your job. and devoted yourself to the Tanners, but what did you get in return?"

His words were like knives, stabbing at Eloise's heart repeatedly. The more she thought about it, the angrier she felt it was unfair.

For many years, Eloise dared not to reunite with her son and worked hard for the Tanners. She had done so much, but ultimately,

Joseph abandoned her just because she did not give birth to a son. How dared he?

"Mom, it is so unfair to you that dad did this," Arianna said softly.

"You're right, but you know how stubborn your father is about this, even if I'm reluctant to let it happen. What more can I do?"

Eloise sighed faintly, raising her hand to hold Arianna. "It is a pity you are a girl."

Arianna could take over the Tanner family business if she were a boy. With her skills and capabilities, she could even replace the first wife's family and become the head of the Tanner family.

'That sentence again!' Arianna hated hearing that the most. Her eyes glinted as if she had an idea, and she smiled again. "Mom, although I am a girl, my brother isn't."

"Your brother..." Eloise was startled and raised her eyes to look at Nathaniel standing on the sidelines. She was stunned before shaking her head. "No, your brother isn't a Tanner, he..."

"Who said he is not a Tanner?" Arianna interjected and smiled meaningfully.

"Ari?!"

“Mom, although he is not from the Tanner family, your blood is coursing through his veins. You, Nathaniel, and I are a family.

Every bit of the Tanner family’s property should be ours!” Arianna continued.

Eloise had to admit that her daughter’s remarks were tempting.

“Yes, we!” Nathaniel immediately emphasized.

“Mom, what the men from the Tanner family did was out of line. They ignored how much you sacrifice for them and how capable Ari is. Instead, they give their business to an outsider. Are you willing to let this happen?”

Of course, Eloise was unwilling. Even if she was reluctant, she could do nothing more as she failed to persuade her husband.

However...

“Ari, what are your plans?” Eloise was not blunt. She knew the duo had already devised a plan. ‘ Do they plan to tell me their plan or ask for my opinion?’

Sharing a look with Nathaniel, Arianna smiled and said, "Mom, I want Nate to join the company."

"You want him to do what now?!" Although Eloise had thought about it, she was still shocked when she heard it. "No, your father will find out!" She immediately rejected her daughter's suggestion.

"Not only that, I'll handle the human resources issue too. Nate will only join the company as an ordinary department manager.

Dad won't find out. Even if he does, so what? Will he know about the relationship between you and Nate?" Arianna said confidently, "He didn't find out for so many years, and he won't find out now."
