

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 621

'Scented candles?' Lily was slightly attentive, but at the same time, she understood that Henry meant there was a problem with the scented candles.

"I made it for Grandpa. He had insomnia and wasn't sleeping well, so I prepared the scented. candles to relieve his mind. What's wrong with them?" She asked calmly.

"What's wrong? How dare you ask?" Henry sneered. "Relieve his mind, my *ss! Your candle sent your grandfather to eternal rest instead!"

"You mean, there was a problem with the scented candles?" Rather than beating around the bush, she chose to be straightforward. She got straight to the point instead of admitting some trumped-up charges.

if there was a problem with the scented candles?" Henry's

Henry's statement and felt there was indeed a problem with her scented candles. which caused Wilfred's death, or they did not agree with anyone and remained neutral while watching the drama. No not speak either. He knelt in front of the memorial. silently while his indifferent expression showed that everything that happened had nothing to do with

was ultimately issues, at least when I made them. I still remember. As for the part where it was out if there was a problem.

people went in and out of the Lodge family residents every day. Some people serving her grandfather might have snuck in to the family did not accept her