

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 630

"Maybe the news hasn't got out yet," Lily smacked her lips and added, "Olivia, I need you to be the one to spread this news."

"Spread what..." Olivia hesitated, then asked, "Why do you need me to spread the word? The Lodge family won't be releasing this news to the public?"

This should be something the family had to announce to the public, especially when it was about Wilfred, an important figure in the country. News about him would surely be published newspapers, and all the prestigious families in the country would attend his funeral.

Olivia had nothing to do with the Lodge family. Wasn't it a bit strange for her to be the one to release the news to the public?

"There's a problem back at home, which is why...I need your help," Lily clarified as she heard a knock on the door.
