

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 632

“No, there’s not going to be an ‘or,’” Alexander remarked while waving in disagreement. “They’ll only pin it on Justin.”

The elders treated Lily as an outsider to this issue, even though they wanted to form a coup, take over as the family head, and reap the benefits that came with it.

However, it would be challenging for the elders to overthrow Justin as the family head if they did not push the cause of Wilfred’s death onto the scented candles he had used, primarily since the family doctor had always overseen Wilfred’s health.

“That’s why I want to look for the culprit who sabotaged the scented candles as soon as possible,” Lily said while frowning, “Justin said he, Roger, and I were the only ones who directly came in contact with the scented candles.

“However, Roger has been with our family for a long time and has been unwaveringly loyal to Grandpa, so it can’t be him. I don’t understand. How and when did the culprit do this?”

many people come person had access to they only stayed in the outer hall. They were not allowed to enter the main family’s residential area, particularly Grandpa’s living space. They have security cameras in the main house, but since we train in self–defense, we have a more keen

one who could’ve

“Our family trusted Roger. Even Justin did, so it able to obtain an accurate result, regardless of how unlikely it may where?” Lily stared at him wide–eyed, obviously surprised by and it’s time to walk it off. Besides, I haven’t fully explored where you once as she looked outside. It was already dark, but the house’s front porch was still once knew.