

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 634

“No enmity would last forever in this world, and the same goes for friendships. Look at us now. Aren’t we on the same team?”

Arianna did not get the chance to answer before he continued, “Don’t tell me things like blood is thicker than water or we’re helping each other because we’re siblings. Those are bullsh*t excuses that you and I don’t believe in. We can only sit here together to discuss our plan for one reason. We have the same goal in mind, and this plan would benefit both of us. Am I right?”

Arianna looked at Nathaniel with a solemn gaze.

“You don’t need to look at me that way.” Nathaniel chuckled. “I told you we’re not enemies, at least not now. You’ll always be my dearest younger sister as long as we’re after the same thing. I’ll be your older brother who can assist you too.”

Arianna said nothing and just stared at Nathaniel in silence for a moment. Shrugging, she started, “Okay then. You’re right. Let’s talk about the Lodge family now. Since you have such a clear understanding of them, what are your thoughts about it?”

“What thoughts do you think I should have, or what are your thoughts instead?”

had come looking for him because a place in the Tanner Corporation and get what we both desire, but we can’t do that alone. If we could get the Lodge family’s support, I can assure are your plans then?” Nathaniel asked, smiling as he sipped head of the Lodge family. He owes us a favor, which would definitely be useful to us in the get him to be the other way around now? I saved you from debtors back then, not to have you reap the benefits here without doing your

Finally, he became serious. “I’m carrying out my plan now, but it’s nothing appealed to her. The tabletop was clean, while his laptop was still

“Those things...”

that had been extinguished. The