

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 635

“What does that have to do with anything you’re doing now?” Arianna still could not get it. “You’re not thinking of replicating the exact candle, are you?”

There was mockery in her voice. It was a fact that Nathaniel did not know how to create fragrances even after many years in the industry. He would not have to trick Lily if he had the capabilities himself.

“I wouldn’t know how to do that.” Nathaniel only smiled in the face of her mockery instead of getting mad. “That doesn’t mean other people won’t know how to do it. Don’t underestimate these candles. Once you add a little something extra in it...”

He gestured with his fingers to show her how little the amount had to be used to reach the effect he was talking about. “Just this bit is needed, and then it could kill someone silently.”

Arianna felt a chill run down her spine as she looked into his eyes, subconsciously causing her to rub her arms.

beating around the bush. To clarify, you had someone else make you know if it were the same? Why would Henry even need headed and was curious about why Nathaniel best bet. It’s just that, besides Lily, nobody in the Lodge family position, he’ll owe you a favor.” Arianna that such a change would happen that he was too busy just now to make a move first and get herself someone strong to back her up. “By the way, Henry could take over Justin’s place in managing the Lodge family, but don’t forget that he’d lost team. It would be a waste of their time and effort if they were to help Henry