

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 641

“You’re overthinking it. What would I get from selling you out? Besides, didn’t we agree on it before?” Jonathan remained calm as Henry approached. “I know you’re losing your patience, but it’s been years. What’re a few more days for you? I’m already at such an old age and have no children. Sooner or later, this would all fall into your hands.”

Henry, standing in front of Jonathan, stared at him before coldly saying, “It’s good that you’re aware. Uncle, you can’t blame me for bringing this up. That old man had thrown me aside, but my people are all capable men. The Lodge family has always kept a low profile over the years. I hope I don’t have to hurt my family if push comes to shove.”

Jonathan was stunned to hear this and sighed. “What are you talking about? We’re all a family. What do you mean by that?”

After a pause, Jonathan added, “Back to the main point, three days will pass in a blink of an eye. We must come up with some concrete evidence to convince the public. Although the elders won’t care as much, they still have a reputation to uphold.”
